A New Ministry For A New World

at

Wesley Theological Seminary

Uniting heart and mind in the tradition of the Wesleys . . . seeks to keep in lively balance . . . FAITH and LEARNING . . . to serve the present age.

To develop an adequate and dedicated Christian leadership for the 20th century Church, a faculty of twenty-four combines scholarship, Christian commitment, and practical experience.

The emphasis is on sound scholarship, spiritual depth and practical training for the parish ministry. A counseling program provides personal guidance for each student.

WESLEY COLLEGE ANNUAL CORPORATE SESSION

Report of the Secretary

Wesley College Corporate Session
Asbury United Methodist Church
Salisbury, Maryland
May 14th - 10:50 A.M.

The meeting convened at 10:50 A.M. by the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Trustees, O. H. P. Baldwin.

Mr. Baldwin presented excerpts from the report of the Chairman, William H. Cantwell, stating expressions of gratitude to the Conference.

Dr. Robert H. Parker, President of the College:

Acknowledging the continuing support of the Conference, Dr. Parker reflected on the student life at the College. While student unrest is increasing there are no serious problems. The College is responding to the students with representation on all committees including representation on the Board of Trustees by the Presidents of the Student Government and Student Christian Association. Progress is being made through appropriate committees for a society form of government initiated and carried on by the student body in cooperation with the administration and faculty.

Dr. Parker then made a statement in regard to the earnest desire on the part of the College for an integrated faculty and student body, stating "We are doing all we can." The use of scholarship help, provided from available reconciliation funds, have led to the enrollment of two students toward this goal.

Solomon Thonde was then introduced to the Conference. Mr. Thonde is completing two years of study at Wesley College, coming from the country of Kenya.

Mr. Baldwin then introduced David W. Baker, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, who presented the following persons for Trustees, with terms to expire in 1973:

Ministers

Paul E. McCoy
Daniel L. Ridout
Howell O. Wilkins

Laymen

The Hon. Vernon B. Derrickson
Ira T. Ellis
John T. Holt
W. Orville Daisey
The Hon. Reynolds du Pont
Henry A. Thouron

After a second, the Secretary was authorized to cast the ballot of election.

Following an expression of appreciation by Thomas Short for the work done at Wesley College, the meeting was adjourned on motion by R. J. Cooke, seconded by Robert Reber.

R. P. WHITLOCK, Secretary

TRUSTEES: The Report of the Conference Board of Trustees was presented by William H. Revel, Jr., Chairman, and adopted without being read.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

NO. 4

The United Methodist Church

The 1968 Uniting Conference of The United Methodist Church voted to recommend to the members of the Annual Conferences as a proposed amendment to the Constitution of The United Methodist Church, the following:

That Paragraph 54 (Article V) which now reads:

"PARAGRAPH 54. Art. V. The bishops shall have residential and presidential supervision in the Jurisdictional Conferences in which they are elected or to which they are transferred. Bishops may be transferred from one jurisdiction to another jurisdiction for presidential and residential supervision under the following conditions: (1) The transfer of bishops may be on either of two bases: (a) a jurisdiction which receives a bishop by transfer from another jurisdiction may transfer to that jurisdiction or to a third jurisdiction one of its own bishops eligible for transfer, so that the number transferred in by each jurisdiction shall be balanced by the number transferred out, or (b) a jurisdiction may receive a bishop from another jurisdiction and not transfer out a member of its own College of Bishops. (2) No bishop shall be transferred unless he shall have given his specific consent. (3) No bishop shall be eligible for transfer unless he shall have served one quadrennium in the jurisdiction which elected him to the episcopacy. (4) All such transfers shall require the approval by a majority vote of the members, present and voting, of the Jurisdictional Conferences which are involved after consideration by the Committees on Episcopacy. After the above procedures have been followed, the transferring bishop shall become a member of the receiving College of Bishops and shall be subject to residential assignment by that Jurisdictional Conference."

"A bishop may be assigned by the Council of Bishops for presidential service or other temporary service in another jurisdiction than that which elected him, provided request is made by a majority of the bishops in the Jurisdiction of the proposed service.

"In the case of an emergency in any jurisdiction or Central Conference through the death or disability of a bishop or other cause, the Council of Bishops may assign a bishop from another jurisdiction or Central Conference to the work of the said jurisdiction or Central Conference with the consent of a majority of the bishops of that jurisdiction or Central Conference."

be amended by adding the following new sentence: "Nothing herein shall prevent the assignment by the Council of Bishops on a quadrennial basis of one bishop for full-time secretarial responsibility in the Council of Bishops," so that the amended paragraph shall read:

"PARAGRAPH 54. Art. V. The bishops shall have residential and presidential supervision in the Jurisdictional Conferences in which they are elected or to which they are transferred. Bishops may be transferred from one jurisdiction to another jurisdiction for presidential and residential supervision under the following conditions: (1) The transfer of bishops may be on either of two bases: (a) a jurisdiction which receives a bishop by transfer from another jurisdiction may transfer to that jurisdiction or to a third jurisdiction one of its own bishops eligible for transfer, so that the number transferred in by each jurisdiction shall be balanced by the number transferred out, or (b) a jurisdiction may receive a bishop from another jurisdiction and not transfer out a member of its own College of Bishops. #### COMPOSITE REPORT - 1969

Presented by Daniel Lyman Ridout, Editor

Bishop Lord, Members of the Conference, Friends in Christ:

"To all of you, loved of God and called to be Christ's men and women, grace and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ. We must begin by telling you how we thank God through Jesus Christ for you all, how He has enriched your whole lives, from the words on your lips to the understanding in your hearts. He will keep you steadfast in faith to the end, so that when His day comes you will have no fear of condemnation. God is utterly dependable, and it is He who has called you into fellowship with His Son Jesus Christ Our Lord."

This greeting is more than mere platitude; it is much more than an empty quotation from the Pauline greeting in his Epistles to the churches he had fostered and loved. It is from our hearts. For without you we could do nothing. We are grateful for the manner in which you have promoted the Kingdom by your efforts in your respective parishes. We are humbled by your kindness to us and to our families individually and personally, and we have been enriched by your devotion to Christ and His Church.

It is for this reason that our report this year is slightly different in format than our reports of former years. We would have you consider this as our Epistle to you; as a pastoral letter to our pastors and laymen, with whom we have worked and whom we have loved. First, however, we will deal with vital statistics and administrative changes made since the last Conference session.

Mergers and Re-Alignments

(Effective this Session)

Chestertown District: Janes Church, Chestertown, and Emmanuel Church, Pomona, formerly known as the Chestertown-Pomona charge, voted to merge into one congregation, and will be known as Janes-Emmanuel Church.

The Ebenezer Church, formerly a part of the North East-West Cecil Circuit, has been attached to the Hopewell Charge, which becomes a two-point circuit.

The Zion and Rosebank Churches now comprise the West Cecil Circuit, Ebenezer having been removed to Hopewell, Port Deposit.

Closings: The following churches have been closed as regular preaching places, but are being maintained for regular weekly Church School sessions: Rehoboth, on the Warwick Charge; John Wesley, on the Rock Hall-Fairlee Charge, and Boyers Chapel, on the Millington-Pondtown Charge.

Dover District: Farmington Circuit has been eliminated, with Epworth and Todds Chapel Churches added to Greenwood Circuit, and Farmington, Salem, placed with Harrington, Trinity.

Millville of the Roxanna Charge has been placed with Ocean View-Centennial, Smyrna, has been placed with Asbury, Smyrna.

Easton District: St. Paul Church of the Church Creek-Golden Hill Charge, was placed with Taylors Island Charge, and Wesley Church of the Church Creek Charge, was closed. The remaining churches now compose the Golden Hill Charge.

Salisbury District: St. Martins Church of the St. Martins Charge will become a station.

Friendship Church of St. Martin's has been placed with Stevenson, at Berlin.

Taylorsville Church of the St. Martin's Charge has been added to Ocean City, Atlantic.

The St. Peters and Cedar Chapel merged churches on the Newark Charge will be re-named Calvary United Methodist Church.

Wilmington District: Mt. Salem, New Castle, will be placed with the New Castle church, making the New Castle-Salem Charge.

In Wilmington, Eastlake will be placed with Calvary, making the Calvary-Eastlake Charge.

The members of Trinity Church on the Brandywine-Trinity charge transferred their memberships to Brandywine in October 1968. The Charge is now known as the Brandywine-Trinity United Methodist Parish.

Retirements

Easton District: W. I. Collins, W. A. Hill.

Wilmington District: Joseph B. Vaughn, Lawrence C. Brown, and Elmer Shield, the last named because of disability.

New Church Structure

United Methodists should be excited about our new church structure. There are two key words that we cannot escape in our thinking as we study it. These words are Coordination and Involvement. The various units of our Annual Conferences and local churches no longer may go their separate ways, working "on their own" with widely varying objectives, if, indeed, with any objectives at all except possibly to "raise some money" to help the church budget.

Let us look briefly at the Annual Conference Program Council as its work is outlined in the 1968 Discipline, Paragraphs 841 and 842, pages 217-220. We quote: "The purpose of the (Annual Conference) Program Council shall be (a) to receive program recommendations from the local churches, the district agencies, the Annual Conference agencies, and the jurisdictional and General Program Councils; (b) to develop these recommendations into a coordinated program to be recommended to the Annual Conference for consideration, amendment, and adoption as the Annual Conference program; and (c) to provide implementation for and administration of the coordinated program as adopted by the Conference."

The Pre-Conference Journal, on pages 49-52, outlines actions of the Council for the past year. Although not completely organized according to the new legislation, yet the Council did most commendable work in bringing together the boards and agencies of the Conference in common objective. Great things are rightly expected of the new council to be named by the Committee on Nominations.

On the local church level, all our people who witnessed the film strip, "Agenda for a Journey", were impressed with the obvious emphasis throughout the presentation on INVOLVEMENT. We must get more people involved in the work of our churches. The new structure points the way—but the tasks must be achieved not merely by reading the printed word but by practical application and by ceaseless devotion to the carrying out of our mission. We are glad, incidentally, that the words MISSION and MINISTRY are primal in our present day Christian vocabulary.

We recommend that workshops be held on local church, sub-district and district levels as often as needed, until our people become thoroughly familiar with our new structure, our new terminology, and our new challenges. The Council on Ministries, for example, of itself, when properly conducted and co-ordinated with the local church's Administrative Board and other agencies can lead to the church's revitalization and modernization.

Indeed INVOLVEMENT is the word for today's church—involvement in issues affecting the lives of all the people whom the church may touch in its community; INVOLVEMENT in social issues; INVOLVEMENT in civic matters, in political concerns, where moral issues are related; INVOLVEMENT in community health and welfare; INVOLVEMENT in the struggle for world peace and world brotherhood—INVOLVEMENT in all of life.

Let Us Make Our "Burdens" Light

We are all aware of the financial problems facing our Annual Conference and other Annual Conferences in Methodism. Our special concern is for those local churches that groan beneath their load and to whom Conference apportionments are a fearful burden. The bright side of the picture reveals that there are at the same time many churches, a large percentage of them small, that accept and achieve their apportionment goals without strain and with joy and gladness. We believe that the difference is in the state of mind of our church leaders, coupled with time-tested sense of loyalty to our connexional system as against a growing resentment against today's establishment. Pastors, by their example, are usually they who set the example which their people follow. Certainly, this is not always the case, but we believe it is most often so.

We urge that pastors and lay delegates to the Annual Conference study more faithfully the Conference program and make themselves more acquainted with its needs. Above all, let us have open minds as we receive our assessments, support with enthusiasm our askings when convinced that they are just, and thus transmit our warmth and fervor to our congregations. We can again be a "100 per cent" Conference. The charges that are historically and perennially 100% are evidence of this. Let all of us follow in their train!

"The Present Crisis"

Let us say this final word about the present crisis which we face in today's world. It is many-faceted, to be sure, but the race problem, especially in the United States, is at the center of our national disorders. President Johnson's National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, appointed in July 1967, reported on February 29, 1968, in words of solemn warning, that our nation "is moving toward two societies, one black, one white—separate and unequal."

Wider cleavages between the races and more violent conflicts in the past year confirm the observation of the Kerner report. The following phrase stirred bitter controversy, probably because the truth still "hurts": "What white Americans have never fully understood—but what the Negro can never forget—is that white society is deeply implicated in the ghetto. White institutions created it, white institutions maintain it, and white society condones it. . . . The most bitter fruits of white racism were the exclusion of Negroes from benefits of economic progress because of discrimination, the concentration of Negroes in ghettos, and the inevitable failure of black youths who have been deprived of opportunity."

The report called for a sustained and massive national commitment of action and advocated sweeping reforms in law enforcement, welfare, employment, housing, education, and the news media. The commission argued that the unprecedented costs of such reforms could and must be met because there is no higher priority or higher claim on the national conscience.

It is easy to assess much of the blame on the church for its failure to follow the commandments of Christ and for its practice of following social customs and permitting, in the early history of our country, the separation of white and Negro congregations into distinctly racial groups.

In all justice, it should be said that Negroes voluntarily withdrew from the white congregations because of being relegated to the galleries and in some cases being refused to be served communion with the whites. Thus Negro congregations were formed in our early Methodism, for example, until Negro Annual Conferences came into being. Everyone was happy with the arrangement until a few pioneering spirits in recent years, awakened by their consciences, lit the fires which led to at least the legal breakdown of racial barriers in our structure at all levels.

We have made gains—we are moving, but not fast enough. In fact, we are moving so slowly that a new separatist group (by connotation of its name) has risen among us—the Black Methodists for Church Renewal. We have the greatest sympathy for their aims and we endorse them, assuming that the black leaders will pursue their aims in the spirit of Christian Love.

But an organization named Black Methodists is to be as greatly deplored as an organization called "White Methodists" would be. The very name black or white is a mark of regression and a threat to our primal unity as brothers in Christ. We believe that both whites and blacks of goodwill should unite to bring reforms within the church, as this has been done through the years, albeit on too slow a scale for the progressives, no doubt.

In our Pre-Conference Journal, the chairman of our Commission on Social Concerns says, "To make Christian social concerns an acceptable Christian witness throughout the Peninsula Conference is the task to which the commission has committed itself. . . . By 'witness' is meant concrete action—the practicing of those virtues that will remove from our midst all vestiges of racism, black or white."

To which we say a hearty AMEN. Black power may become as iniquitous as white power has been. We are against any kind of power which is racially designated or symbolized. Brothers, we are the CHURCH OF CHRIST. We must strive to be ONE in Him, or we have no business being at all. Let black and white Methodists of good will combine their forces to bring in the day when the kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ. "And He shall reign forever and ever.—HALLELUJAH."

Tribute

We pause to pay honor to our resident bishop, John Wesley Lord, for his courageous leadership in the area of human relations. He has been fearless in being true to his convictions. He has been thoroughly Christian in his thought and action. He is among us a brother greatly beloved. We wish all our constituents knew him as we do. We wish they knew his humility of spirit and of his love for all men, especially those who hate him and do not understand. He will be named among the great social prophets of our generation. May God continually strengthen him as he increases "in wisdom, and in stature, and favor with God and man."

Conclusion

Again to use a Pauline phrase, "You see how large a letter we have written to you." We have served you in love to the fullest of our capacity—meagre it is, but it is all the capacity we have. We have tried not to assume the role of your masters, for we remember the words of George Bernard Shaw, that "no man is good enough to be another man's master." We have looked upon our pastors as brothers beloved, and upon their congregations as Paul called his congregations, "dear children", begging that they forgive, as Paul begged to be forgiven "for the affection of an old man."

Pastors, "PREACH THE WORD!"

Laymen, "LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS CHRIST HAS LOVED YOU."

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you, and our love be with you all in Jesus Christ." AMEN.

SUMMARY REPORTS BY DISTRICTS

CHESTERTOWN DISTRICT

DANIEL L. RIDOUT, District Superintendent

The statistics here given are compiled from incomplete reports. Final reports will doubtless show increases in most figures given over last year. The reports received from pastors reveal the following:

Membership: Received on profession of faith, 241; from other denominations, 35; by transfer, 92; members lost, 241; total members, 11,639.

Finances: Administration and Benevolences, $156,728; Fund for Reconciliation, $4,566; Board of Child Care, $3,154; Mother's Day Offering, $2,112; Race Relations Sunday, $275; Youth Fund, $504; Student Day, $394; Rally Day, $672; One Great Hour of Sharing, $526; Fellowship of Suffering and Service, $920; Paid on building and improvements, $79,558; Paid on indebtedness, $79,080; Present indebtedness, $359,326.

New Buildings, Major Improvements

The Union Wesley Church on the Chester-Stevensville Charge has been completed, and the congregation is happy in their new and well appointed church home.

The Centreville United Methodist Church has its new sanctuary underway, and when completed, will add another "cathedral-like" structure on an important highway (Maryland Route 213).

Janes Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, and the West Cecil Parish have purchased new parsonages. Zion Church, Cecilton, has renovated and modernized its educational building. Cokesbury Church on the Elkton-Port Deposit Charge has renovated its basement with running water, rest rooms, and modern kitchen facilities. Mt. Olivet Church at Warwick has installed a new organ which is paid for in full.

We are grateful to our dedicated pastors for their leadership in their respective charges and to their members who have supported them in the big business of Kingdom building. Ours is a great challenge in these days of tension, restlessness and turmoil, without and within our country. But we will not grow weary in well-doing, "for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart."

DOVER DISTRICT

HARTWELL F. CHANDLER, District Superintendent

Church Membership: (Approximate figures) Received on Profession of Faith, 571; received by transfer or restored to rolls, 381; total received, 951; total lost for all causes, 657; net gain membership, 294; total membership in the Dover District, approximately, 21,291. No new members reported in four charges. Those charges receiving 10 or more members were: Bethel, Bridgeville-Union; Camden-Whatcoat; Cheswold; Clarksville-St. Georges; Clayton; Dover-Wesley; Dagsboro; Frederica; Georgetown-Wesley; Greenwood; Harrington-Asbury; Laurel-Centenary; Lewes-Bethel; Lewes Circuit; Magnolia-Hartly; Milford-Avenue; Milford-Calvary; Millsboro-Grace; Milton-Goshen; Rehoboth Beach; Reliance; Seaford-St. John's; Seaford-Mt Olivet; Smyrna-Asbury; Wyoming; Woodside.

Financial Summary: Since the Benevolence Bulletin is being distributed at this session of the Conference, it will not be necessary to more than briefly refer to Benevolent giving on the District this year. Total giving against an apportionment of $341,495 was $291,886, or 85%. 28 charges gave 100% or more of what was asked. 12 charges gave 85% or more. All receive my thanks for what they did with a fervent prayer that this part of your stewardship may be considered your ministry to others.

Approximate figures for other causes were: Advance Specials, $2,864; Christian Education Sunday, $1,323; Student Day, $772; Methodist Youth Fund, $505; Race Relations, $460; Fund for Reconciliation, $5,399; Fellowship of Suffering and Service, $1,360; One Great Hour of Sharing, $1,699; Board of Child Care, $4,378; Mother's Day Offering, $2,953; Paid on Building and Improvements, $333,691; Paid on Debt, $22,577; Present Indebtedness, $956,704. 694 subscriptions to Together Magazine.

Throughout the District there have been lay-witness missions, evangelistic services, fund crusades for new buildings and to amortize debts, renovations of old buildings, burning of mortgages, breaking of ground for new buildings, and many other things too numerous to mention.

As I complete my six years on the District, I wish to express my thanks to all my colleagues, ministerial and lay, who have worked so diligently and cooperatively with me. With you and our Lord rests the credit for effectiveness. My thanks also to Bishop Lord for his pastoral care and inspired leadership. I pray that God's blessing may rest on my successor and all of you in the years ahead.

EASTON DISTRICT

HOWARD M. AMOSS, District Superintendent

We are grateful to God and to the pastors and laymen of all the churches for this statistical report.

Church Membership: Total members 17,155. Received this year 522; lost 514. St. Mark's of Easton leads in the number of accessions, followed by Union of Federalsburg and Zion of Cambridge. Other charges that received 15 or more new members are: Grace and St. Paul's of Cambridge, Oxford-Royal Oak, the St. Michaels Charges, St. Luke's of Denton, Secretary, Greensboro, Cambridge Circuit, Ridgely Circuit, Sharptown-Mt. Vernon and Vienna-Elliotts.

Administration, Benevolences, Other Contributions: $225,174 given to Administration and Benevolences or 94.7% of Conference Apportionments. 36 charges made their askings in full: All of the charges of Cambridge (Cambridge Circuit, Choptank, Grace, St. Paul's, Waugh, Zion), Church Creek, Crapo, Denton-Burrsville, Denton-St. Luke's, Easton-St. Mark's, East New Market, Christ and Union of Federalsburg, Galestown, Golden Hill, Goldsboro, Greensboro, Hooper's Island, the two Hurlock charges, the two Oxford charges, Preston-Bethesda, Preston-Concord, Ridgely Circuit, Ridgely Greensboro, St. Michaels-St. Luke's, the three Sharptown charges, Tilghman, the two Trappe charges, Vienna-Reid's Grove and Wingate-St. Thomas. Many other charges have labored hard without reaching full payment—we salute on their way to perfection.

Giving to Mother's Day was $1,208, Advance Specials $4,448, Rally Day $866, Child Care $3,658, Other Benevolences $3,530, Fund for Reconciliation $2,612.

Payments on Debt: $74,227 with these churches leading—St. Mark's $25,000, St. Paul's of Cambridge $8,925, Mt. Vernon of Sharptown $4,800, St. Luke's of Cambridge $3,521, Trinity of East New Market $3,474 and Wingate $2,822. The present district debt is $251,733.

Building and Improvements: These expenditures are $116,688. Major parsonage improvements at Miles River, Ridgely-Greensboro, St. Luke's of St. Michaels, Sharptown-Mt. Vernon, Vienna and Wingate. Major church renovations at Bounds of Crapo Charge, Galestown, Mt. Zion of East New Market, Oxford and Royal Oak, Zion of Federalsburg, St. Paul's of Cambridge, St. Paul's of Taylor's Island, Waters of Airey's Charge and Concord Church hall. Christ Church of Federalsburg has secured additional land. St. Luke's of Denton has broken ground for a $425,000 Sanctuary-Church School building. New organs at Unity-Washington of Hurlock and at Vienna.

We commend the District Board of Laity, C. C. Chilcutt, Lay Leader, and the District Women's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. Thomas F. Shockley, the president. We are grateful to the District Secretaries, the Directors of Church School work—and all those who have labored year after year for His Kingdom.

SALISBURY DISTRICT

DALE L. RUTH, District Superintendent

On behalf of the ministers and laymen of the Salisbury District, I present this report:

My sincere thanks to the ministers and laymen of the Salisbury District for their cooperation and support during the year. It has been a joy to serve with you.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

HOWELL O. WILKINS, District Superintendent

Senator Mark Mathias told the following story at the Convocation in Washington last Fall. In the days of the Circuit Rider a young woman's husband died. Shortly, thereafter she remarried. Almost a year later the preacher came to hold services. The first was to be the Burial Service for her husband. The preacher was very impressed with her sorrow but even more impressed with the sorrow of her second husband. I understand there are some who are sorrowful over the passing of Paul McCoy from the Wilmington District Superintendency.

The following brief report is presented on behalf of the ministers and churches of the Wilmington District.

Evangelism

1,886 members have been received, while 1,407 members have been lost this year. This gives the District a net gain of 479. The total district membership is now 28,231. Charges reporting a net gain of 25 or more are Aldersgate, 173; Asbury-Minquadale, 111; St. Mark's, 96; St. Paul's (Wilmington), 78; Newark, 59; Red Lion, 37; Hockessin, 33; Kingswood, 33; and Chester-Bethel, 29.

Financial Summary

The total amount of apportionments this year was $450,921. The amount paid was $388,775. Charges paying apportionments in full are Red Lion-Glasgow, Christiana-Salem, Atonement, Hockessin, Asbury-Minquadale, New Castle, Ebenezer, Newark, St. Paul's (Odessa), Townsend Circuit, Aldersgate, Cedars, Chester-Bethel, Christ, Ezion, Grace, Marshallton, Mt. Joy, Mt. Lebanon, Peniel, Peninsula, St. Mark's, St. Paul's (Wilmington), and Skyline.

Amount paid on Building and Improvements: $201,909; Paid on Debt: $405,706; Present Indebtedness: $2,118,744.

Aldersgate has renovated the auditorium and Fellowship Hall. Red Lion has remodeled the sanctuary and obtained new pews and carpet. They have also purchased a new parsonage. Kirkwood Church has been painted inside and out, and the sanctuary carpeted. St. Georges has remodeled the study in the parsonage and added a steeple to the church. At Mt. Salem, Wilmington, the Social Hall has been remodeled. Parking lot improvements and painting of parsonage interior have been made at Marshallton. Mt. Carmel Church has added several improvements.

Appreciation is expressed for the leadership given to the Women's Society, especially to Mrs. Keen and the other officers who have now completed their responsibilities; to the laymen and ministers who are giving guidance to the development of the district program, and especially to the leadership of Richard Stazesky and others in the Methodist Action Program. This is one of the most exciting and significant ministries in the area.

New interest is demonstrated in the relationship now developing between Aldersgate and Old Asbury.

The churches which fulfill their financial responsibilities to the Conference not only help make MAP possible, but many other ministries as well. Grace Church, Wilmington, paid the highest apportionment.

Truly this is a crucial place in a crucial time. The concern and support of many is appreciated.

(b) Boards, Commissions and Committees

THE BOARD OF CHILD CARE

The Board of Child Care has provided the following services in the past twelve months:

- 1) Provided a home for 90 teenage boys and girls in the Child Care Center in Rockdale.
- 2) Cared for 19 children in foster boarding homes.
- 3) Served 43 infants in foster homes.
- 4) Served a total of 53 infants in adoptive homes.
- 5) Completed 24 final decrees for children in adoptive homes.
- 6) Given to 55 unwed mothers help in looking at personal problems and guidance in planning the best resource for their baby.

A year ago, we stated ten of our boys and girls would be leaving the home upon graduation from high school. Two of these young people are now in the Armed Forces, six are gainfully employed doing office work, working for the telephone company and in other pursuits. One is completing her freshman year at Wesley College. Three boys and girls from the Child Care Center will graduate from high school in June of 1969, and one of our foster children will be a June graduate.

A recent issue of Our Boys and Girls reported in some detail on "The Adoption Story". In this issue a couple, who had adopted two of our children, wrote of their experiences with this church-related agency. They voice the feelings of most adoptive parents:

"We love our children very, very much. We are so thankful that they have been entrusted to us, and we pray that we can meet the challenge and responsibility of being good parents in the days ahead."

Swartzell Assembled Families

In close cooperation with the Swartzell Board of Trustees and at the request of the District of Columbia Department of Public Welfare, the Board of Child Care has begun to develop the Swartzell Assembled Families Program.

The need for such a program appeared dramatically to this Board upon realization that between five and six hundred children, ranging in age from infancy through adolescence, were institutionalized in one facility in the Nation's Capital. Through no choice of their own, and only because the advantages of a family in the community had not been made available to them, have these children been so situated.

Through the Swartzell Assembled Families Program, we will provide a very limited number of these children with the tender, loving care of substitute "Mom and Pop", living in a home like any other child in a residential area.

Grafton E. Keeney, trained in the ministry and in social work, has been employed to serve as Director of Assembled Families. He is actively engaged recruiting couples in the age range of 30-50 years, who will be "parents" to five children per "family". The "family" will be provided with a house, utilities and necessary expenses for rearing these boys and girls.

The husband, and "father", is expected to continue regular employment in the community. The wife, and "mother" will receive a nominal salary. In-service training and other benefits of agency employment will be provided to her.

Clinical services will be made available at the Groome Child Guidance Clinic of Sibley Hospital.

Expenses for the program will be provided through a purchase of care contract with the Department of Public Welfare of the District of Columbia and through the Swartzell Board of Trustees.

Staff

Our staff picture has been a favorable one over the past year, particularly with regard to our Houseparent personnel. One married couple and one single Houseparent left our employ, and two married couples and two single Houseparents have been hired. We have a full complement of fifteen Houseparents who form the backbone of our institution. Much of the success in recruiting and retaining Houseparents can be attributed to Michael T. Skovran who joined our staff as Director of Cottage Life in April, 1968. His dedication and ability to work with children have greatly enhanced our residential program.

During the past year, we engaged Ponell Harvey as the first Recreation Director of the Child Care Center. He has organized and coached athletic teams which participated in community leagues, formed a tumbling and gymnastic team, directed talent shows by our boys and girls, and arranged for many special events, such as dances, movies, and trips to see the Baltimore Bullets and Clippers in action. With the children he has planned and conducted activities during the regular evening recreation periods.

One of our staff, Mrs. Gloria Webster, completed twenty years of service to the Board of Child Care after beginning with the Kelso Home for Girls in 1948.

John Lassahn has met with many church groups, letting people know of the work which is being done by the Church through the Board of Child Care. Church groups are invited to our grounds to visit and hear of the work; or staff is available to go to the local church with slides and/or a presentation.

Miss Larrietta Ward, caseworker, joined the staff to work in our Adoptions Program and in Services to Unwed Parents. Mrs. Lois Chai, who worked for a number of years in our Foster Care Program, was forced to resign for reasons of personal health. Mrs. Nancy Parmeter resigned from our social work staff in order to start a family.

This year, we continue to offer field work experience to students who are studying for Master Degrees in Social Work. We have one first-year group-work student from the University of North Carolina, who is supervised by Miss Marjory V. Havens; two second-year casework students from the University of Maryland, who are supervised by Mrs. Virginia Lemmon, and one second-year social work administration student from the University of Maryland, who is supervised by Mr. Claude F. Libis. These students were able to gain valuable work experience which helped make their classroom learning much more meaningful. They also received credit toward their degrees for this experience. In addition to this, of course, the Board of Child Care derived benefits from the work which these students did.

Besides the social work students, we had two Summer Careers Students—one from Randolph Macon and one from Western Maryland College—who expressed an interest in pursuing social work as a career. They were sponsored by the Health and Welfare Council and were provided with a great deal of work experience during the summer at the Board of Child Care. Two undergraduate students from Western Maryland College spent one afternoon a week for one month at the Child Care Center gaining a first experience in social work.

Due to the spiraling costs of living, the Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors recommended salary increases in order to keep abreast with the salaries of other agencies. The Retirement Committee of the Board of Directors amended our Employees Retirement Plan which had been in effect since 1963.

It is hoped that these actions by the Board will aid in recruiting and holding staff as well as in providing needed benefits for retiring employees.

Woman's Auxiliary

Our Woman's Auxiliary has continued its high level of service to the Board of Child Care. Among the many contributions the women have made during the past year are: A new 1969 Chevrolet Carry-All which was purchased with trading stamps donated by Auxiliary members; an ice machine; an electric folding machine; ten park benches; furnishings.

Other projects sponsored by the Auxiliary included the Annual Christmas Party for the children with a cash gift for each child, and the Annual Open House of the Board of Child Care at which Charles E. Moylan, Jr., State's Attorney of Baltimore City was the guest speaker. They have underwritten the cost of the children's vacation trip to Allegany State Park and Niagara Falls and are planning to do the same for a similar trip this summer to Mitchell, a 4H Camp in North Carolina. Through the Ruth S. Jones Memorial Fund, the women provided pocket money for one of our alumnae, now a student at Wesley College, and music and art lessons for some of our children.

It should be emphasized that all of these services have been provided by the Woman's Auxiliary in addition to the sizeable cash contribution which they make to our annual operating budget from funds raised by special projects conducted by the various local church groups.

We have mentioned only some of the concrete services provided by our Woman's Auxiliary. There are many intangible services which our women perform. Through their efforts, more and more people are becoming aware of and concerned about our programs to help children.

The Board of Child Care is evidence of the living church in action, meeting needs of people. To each and every minister and layman of the Baltimore and Peninsula Conference we are indebted for your support of the Annual Christmas Appeal, your concern and your good wishes.

DONALD E. LEWIS, President,
CLAUDE F. LIBIS, Executive Director.

COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

Bishop Lord, members and friends of the Peninsula Annual Conference: Perhaps, we have not counted all the blessings that have surrounded us these three days one by one. Perhaps we have not bothered to remember from whence they have come. And maybe we have just taken for granted all the things that have been good and creative.

If so, we have failed to show you by words, by acts, and by deeds that we are thankful to all who have filled our daily needs.

Thus, this report is an attempt to show we are grateful when we add up all the things that have happened along the way, and count them one by one.

For each manifestation of Thy being;
For the greatness found in the hearts of men.
For friendship, loyalty and understanding, and faith that leads the hopeless on again.

In the spirit of these words this Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting at Asbury United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland, May 13-16, 1969, desires to express its appreciations and thanks to all who have contributed in any way to its success.

Recognizing God as the one in whom we live and move and have our being, we humbly give thanks to Him for His grace in which we have been kept and for promise to be with us always.

We also give thanks to our Bishop and his cabinet for their understanding, patience, and kind leadership.

To the Host pastor, Robert Mackey of Asbury United Methodist church, its officials and members for entertaining this conference.

To the choirs and Organist-Choirmaster of Asbury church.

To Mrs. Marshall W. Moore and the WSCS of Asbury United Methodist church for the coffee hour.

To Mrs. H. Graham Hayman and Mrs. Darrell M. Turner in the church office.

To the Altar Guild of Asbury United Methodist Church for taking care of the altar arrangements.

To the Host Dist. Supt., Rev. Dale Ruth.

To the Ministers' Wives Association for the flowers for the Communion and Memorial Services.

To the speakers who challenged and inspired us.
To the conference commission on worship for the morning devotions.
To Mr. Ted Schiller and the Press for conference publicity.
To the various Conference Boards for displays in the fellowship hall.
To Cokesbury for their display of books and helpful materials.
To the Conference Secretary, Statistician and Treasurer for the labor and devotions to duty.
To the Ushers who have been helpful in keeping the conference moving.
To the committee on conference program and entertainment.
To all those who have given leadership in the various boards, commissions, and committees.

All others who have contributed to the success of the conference whose names may not be mentioned here.

CONFERENCE EDUCATION SOCIETY

The Society again last year continued to do the best job it could with the resources at hand. Grants were made to thirty-six students totalling $2,850. This represented an increase of ten in the number of students helped, and an increase of $625.00 in grants over the previous year. Those receiving grants ranged from first year college students to students in the last year of their seminary training. The size of the grants varied from $50.00 to $200.00.

In addition to the individual grants, Wesley College received $1,000.00. The College Administration allocates that sum to deserving students from the Peninsula Conference area.

There were no applicants for grants from the Riddle Domestic or Foreign Funds. Money in these Funds is available respectively, only to students from this Conference or from foreign lands who are pursuing or furthering their ministerial training at Drew University.

The directors of the Society fulfill their duties with both pleasure and disappointment. The pleasure comes from being in a position to help deserving students financially to further their education—many in preparation for full time Christian service. The disappointment comes from not being able to help more students. We continually hope that each year will result in more of the former and less of the latter as we carry out our duties.

Seventy-five percent of the Student Day offering (the second Sunday in June) remains in our Conference from which the Society makes its grants. That should be sufficient incentive to encourage the members of each church to support this offering to the very best of their ability. Where better can we invest our money than in the future of our deserving and dedicated youth?

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS S. LODGE, President.

THE DELAWARE STATE COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The Tenth Anniversary Assembly of the Delaware State Council of Churches was held in 1968. Instead of spending much time looking back, the Anniversary had as a main program feature, a panel presentation on "A Possible New Ecumenical Agency". On the panel were representatives of the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington, the Council of Churches of Wilmington and New Castle County, and the Delaware State Council of Churches. After the panel, further discussion of the subject took place in small groups made up again of members of the groups represented on the panel. While no concrete decisions were made on this occasion, it was at least symbolic of an openness which bodes well for meeting the problems of today and tomorrow constructively.

The eight judicatories in the membership of the Delaware State Council of Churches by continuing their cooperative witness and service in 1968 accomplished, among others, the things listed below. Not all was achieved that had been hoped for. However, in view of resources available, the amount accomplished suggests much greater results if the resources were multiplied.

In the field of Christian Education, a direct service project was a 15 hour Creative Arts Workshop, which was greatly appreciated by the 45 participants. Exploration continued to find ways in which objective teaching about religion and its part in shaping western culture might be woven into public school teaching programs.

The Department of Church and Community had a variety of activities. Three "Bridging the Gap" seminars were held in the spring—one in each county. These, even in our most populous county—gave some people for the first time the experience of dialogue across race lines. Attendance of down-state clergy was sponsored at a Draft Counseling Workshop. Two open meetings were held on the Proposed Delaware Criminal Code. At legislative hearings relating to the Proposed Code, testimony was given on the Council's favorable position on therapeutic abortion and on the abolition of capital and corporal punishment. Church World Service received over 10,000 pounds of clothing and over $760 through the Council's spring and fall appeals.

Joint efforts continued with the Eastern Shore section of the Maryland Council of Churches in the Consultation On Research and Development. Several non-Council churches also take part in this approach to planning for the whole Christian community. A major project initiated by this group was the Consultation On Goals for the Mission of the Seventies On Delmarva to be held in February, 1969, and for the first time to involve in one event representatives of Churches in all three states on the peninsula.

Church women United of Delaware nominated the Executive Secretary and Mrs. Snyder as the first husband and wife team on Christian Causeways. As a result Delaware was represented in Guatemala in the first three weeks of November. Sections of the Christian community in this Central American country were made aware of the concern of the churches of Delaware for their aspirations and needs. Our gratitude is expressed again to member judicatories for their support of this project.

Through an anonymous gift from Kent County, 1968 was the first it was possible to have a full-time Spanish chaplain to minister among the migratory workers of Kent and upper Sussex Counties. Six churches in central Dover opened their doors for Sunday evening services, followed by social hours. A pilot swimming program for 30 children of southern Negro migrants, from camps east of Dover, was another first. The Delaware Migrant Health Project—made possible by a grant of $22,000 from the United States Public Health Service—again met many varied physical needs of these temporary but essential workers. A total of 416 patients received treatment through the Project. At least 270 volunteers helped in the Delaware Migrant Ministry in 1968—more than double the number in 1967.

Sunday services during the vacation season were again held at Indian River Inlet and at Trap Pond State Park. The most meaningful program in these settings has not been found as yet. Even so, at Trap Pond a total of 545 attended the services held from late June to September.

Largely as a result of the urging of the Delmarva Ecumenical Committee more local observances of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity took place than recorded in any previous year. The fellowship enjoyed by the members of the committee continued to contribute to growing understanding among Christians of varied traditions. The organization of the committee was originally authorized by the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington, the Delaware State Council of Churches and the Maryland Council of Churches.

The work of the Delaware State Council of Churches continues to go forward, because of the cooperation of ministers and laymen of the Peninsula Conference, and because of the official relationship of the Conference to the Council. We all need to be willing to explore at even greater depth the meaning of our involvement in this expression of the urge towards unity among Christ's followers. Even more we need to take those concrete steps which will give more meaning to our professions of faith before a questioning world.

Respectfully submitted,

DRAYTON MANOR RETREAT CENTER

We are very pleased to report that we have been authorized to continue to use Drayton Manor as a retreat center.

This has been a crucial year in the history of Drayton Manor. Use of the center by churches and individuals of our Conference, increased by 62 per cent. Use by outside groups was up by 41 per cent. As would be expected, increased usage brought an increase in income.

During the year, we received full endorsement of the Conference Cabinet and the enthusiastic support of many ministers and laymen. We were further encouraged by the fact that a series of proposed Reconciliation Retreats to be held at Drayton were made a part of the priority program for the quadrennial emphases by the Bishop's Committee of Twenty-Five.

In order to further increase our income to cover a reduction in conference subsidy, we have had to raise our rates at the Center by approximately 20 per cent and we have been given permission to solicit financial support.

On the basis of these facts and developments, we have received the authorization to continue operation. This authorization by the Commission of World Service and Finance was in keeping with the resolution adopted by the 1968 Session of the Annual Conference.

We sincerely hope that in the months and years ahead, the churches, boards, and agencies of this Conference will recognize that Drayton Manor is not just another project competing for priority but rather a facility which is available for all. There are so many ways in which this Center can serve our individual and organizational needs. We invite your inquiries and encourage you to visit the Center by appointment. Reservations for retreats should be made as far in advance as possible as our schedule is quite full. Contact should be made through our director, the Rev. Omro M. Todd, Worton, Maryland 21678.

The Retreat Center Committee has had a very busy year. The property has been maintained in good condition. Programs have been thoroughly discussed and a number of suggestions have been approved for implementation. One of these is an Ecumenical Program Advisory Committee, which we believe would be helpful in developing ideas and support for new uses of the Center.

We wish to conclude this report with a note of appreciation and commendation to our Director, The Reverend Omro M. Todd and his wife who serves with him as secretary and hostess at Drayton. The Todds deserve not only our thanks, but our support as they give continued leadership to our Adult Retreat Center.

R. JERVIS COOKE, Chairman
Drayton Manor Committee

THE COMMITTEE ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

This committee, inactive during the previous several years, has been reorganized and activated during this conference year. We have had three meetings during the year in which we tried to set some goals for our committee and our conference.

Our committee has planned an ecumenical program for Wednesday evening, May 14, at the Annual Conference session. The Reverend Joseph Connolly will be our guest speaker and representatives from other jurisdictions will be present and take part in this special service.

Our conference was well represented at a Consultation on Goals for the DelMarVa Peninsula in the 1970's session which met at Drayton Manor for two days in February to outline areas for our co-operative Christian ministry in the coming decade.

In the coming months we plan to establish workshops throughout our conference for the local work area chairmen for ecumenical affairs. These should help to bring the plans and aspirations of ecumenism to the grass roots of the local churches.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS C. SHORT, Chairman.

THE COMMISSION ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

A new quadrennium has found your Commission on Enlistment with many new members. A new church has given the Commission on Christian Vocations a new name. New leadership is endeavoring to build a new program on the three-point foundation of

- (a) the Christian philosophy of vocation
- (b) the need for personnel in the ministries of the church
- (c) the directives of the quadrennial emphasis on reconciliation

This first year of the quadrennium has been one of evaluating, organizing, learning, and planning, and we can report that our commission is active and enthusiastic. Several meetings have been held during which this work has been done. The regional workshop of the Interboard Committee was attended by three members of our Commission. However, an annual conference report is not enhanced by detailed accounts of such meetings. Their content and value can probably best be revealed by the items to which we would call the attention of the Conference.

We call you to a new examination of our roles as disciples, and the implication that every Christian see his life work as an expression of this discipleship and an instrument of it.

We call you to renewed concern and action in encouraging persons to choose ministries of the church as full-time occupations. Copies of Church Occupations and Voluntary Service have been placed in the hands of every minister, and copies can be secured through him for every person who can use it. This is an inexpensive, practical and informative working manual for every youth facing an occupational decision, and every adult looking toward an occupational change. Hundreds of church-related occupations all over the world are available through which men and women can use their talents and develop skills in the direct service of the church.

We call your attention to paragraph 145 of the 1968 Book of Discipline which directs the Charge Conference to elect a Secretary of Enlistment and designates him as a member of the Administrative Board.

We call you to make the office of Secretary of Enlistment an active one in your local church by using this person. Youth are invited to seek his counsel with occupational questions. Parents are invited to seek his help in counseling with youth. Adults contemplating a change in occupation are invited to ask him what the church has to offer. Age group coordinators are invited to seek his assistance in planning their ministries. Work area chairmen are invited to employ his leadership in their programs and task groups. District Secretaries stand behind local secretaries to insure an effective ministry to every church in the conference.

The general church has placed a high priority on enlistment which is reflected in the new legislation. Many boards and agencies have occupational interest, concern, and responsibility. These are coordinated in the Conference Commission on Enlistment.

We have requested a budget for 1970 that is in sharp contrast to former budgets and the little that has been provided by the related agencies. The little that has been provided in the budget for the remainder of the current calendar year continues this trend. It is a tribute to former Commissions on Christian Vocations that they have been able to do anything at all in recent years.

We need to provide adequately for the work of this commission. We need to do our share in providing leaders for connectional United Methodism. We need to reach and challenge effectively resources in personnel among us. We need to minister effectively in teaching a Christian philosophy of vocation in the geographical area in which our influence lies.

The Conference will speak clearly to the Commission through the budget that is approved. Many program items that are contemplated await this word from the current session. Work with high school counselors, seminars, career clinics, internship programs, direct counseling, a full-fledged program of enlistment, and the like, are projects in which we would like to be engaged.

The fall of 1969 will be a period of leadership training on district and local levels as soon as we are informed by the District Superintendents as to who have been elected to the positions of Secretary of Enlistment on the Districts and in the local churches. Significant programs will follow, limited in scope only by the budget we are granted and the number of fellow Methodists who participate. We look forward to an exciting ministry in Enlistment for church occupations throughout the quadrennium.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD E. WALTON, Chairman.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Book of Discipline states that the purpose of "Christian Education is rooted in the nature of the Christian Gospel" and that "the objective of the Church as manifested through its educational ministry is that all persons be aware of and grow in their understanding of God, especially of His redeeming love as revealed in Jesus Christ, and that they respond in faith and love."

This report seeks to relate some of the efforts which have been put forth toward the realization of this purpose by those especially charged with this responsibility by the Peninsula Conference.

I. LEADERSHIP EDUCATION

A. Children's Ministry—Mrs. G. Steele Phillips, Director of Children's Ministries states that "the emphasis this year has been upon local leadership education." The following activities are listed:

1. Courses in Children's Ministries were offered in Christian Workers Schools held in the Chestertown, Dover, Easton, Salisbury and Wilmington Districts.
2. Vacation Church School Workshops were held in all districts of the conference.
3. A retreat for teachers of children featuring Weekday Nursery and Kindergarten studies.
4. Conference for Leaders of Children—Theme: "Church-Home Participation in Christian Education."
5. Coaching Conference conducted over a 3 month period for the purpose of developing advanced teachers who in turn will be able to give leadership on district and conference levels.
6. An overnight planning session was held for Coordinators of Children's Ministries at Drayton Manor on September 6-7.
7. Observation classes were conducted in four churches.
8. A Newsletter has been developed to keep district and sub-district leaders informed and to give guidance concerning training opportunities and new developments.

B. Youth Ministry—H. Kirby Krams, Director of Youth Ministries, states that "emphasis has been upon the implementation of the new youth ministry at every level within the conference." The following activities reported reflect the leadership of our director, Mr. Krams, and his associates in the Conference Youth Council and the district and sub-district coordinators:

1. Six representatives participated in the orientation held at Nashville, Tennessee, May 13-16.
2. Twenty-seven consultations were held in local churches during July and August to interpret various concepts related to our youth ministry and to introduce the new curriculum resources. More than 300 persons participated in these sessions.
3. The Senior Week at PeCoMeth included both youth and adults exploring the problems of today in relationship to the generation gap. One significant emphasis among many that was shared was the acceptance on the part of participating adults of the role of a camper on equal level with youth in the quest for truth, and not the parent-child relationship.

4. The Fall Conference was held at Wesley College, Dover, in cooperation with the college staff giving opportunity to many of our youth to become acquainted with our conference college.

5. The Spring Conference was held at Christ Church, Chestertown, on April 26. The theme was: "Unrest on the College Campus."

6. Thirteen sub-district meetings have been visited by the Director during the year.

7. A personal word from Mr. Krams upon the termination of his services as Director of Youth Ministries should be pondered thoughtfully by all. States Mr. Krams: "There is no phase of the church's ministry that is more important than that to our youth. The future of the church, yes, even of the world, is dependent upon what is done in regard to youth and the church within the next few years. It would seem that a need of our conference is for a full-time conference director of youth ministries.

C. General Church School Work—Much of the church school training has been done in the various districts under the guidance of the Directors of General Church School Ministries in cooperation with the District Staffs of Christian education which have met regularly during the year with the District Superintendents. Following are excerpts from the reports of the directors:

1. Chestertown District—The Director, Robert Thomas, states: The first project of major importance was the Christian Workers School of Kent and Queen Anne Counties which was held at First Church, Chestertown, on October 6 through 27. Courses were offered for all age levels with a registration of 125, and attendance was well sustained. Cecil County joined in a school sponsored by the Cecil County Council of Churches.

2. Dover District—A Christian Workers School was held at Calvary Church, Milford, with courses offered for all age level area of responsibility. Enrollment was 135.

3. Easton District—Conrad Cohen, Director, reports "all phases of the work of Christian education were sponsored by the District Staff including Workers Schools for leaders of children held in four locations in the district. Sub-district meetings for youth were well attended."

4. Salisbury District—C. Edwin Lasbury, Director, reports that the School of Religion held at Asbury Church, Salisbury, February 4-18, provided 12 classes with registration of more than 200.

5. Wilmington District—John W. Coleman, Director, reports that "the main thrust for the year has been helping local churches get acquainted with the new church structure." A Christian Workers School was held at two locations, Silverbrook and Newark, with 26 charges participating and an enrollment of 161.

D. Committee on Family Ministries—Donald R. Hurst, Chairman. In accordance with the action taken by the General Conference of 1968, the Conference Board of Education is endeavoring to establish this area of responsibility in conference and districts as well as in local church council on ministries. Donald J. Hurst, a member of the conference board, is serving as Director and Coordinator in the enlargement of this work area. As part of the preparation for this work, Mr. and Mrs. Hurst attended a laboratory experience held at Warwick, New York. They, in cooperation with 2 certified couples from other conferences, will seek to establish with other ministers and their wives marriage communication laboratories similar to the one in which they participated. It is expected that these laboratories will lay substantial groundwork for all of the family life programs which our district and local church chairmen may design in future years.

E. Music—Ralph A. Ellis, Jr., Chairman. The Conference Director, Thomas C. Flynn, reports:

1. Active participation on the part of members of the conference committee.

2. Revised and corrected lists of organists, choir directors (children, youth, and adult), volunteer and paid.

3. A "Youth In" sponsored by the Conference Youth Council and the Music Committee conducted at Centenary Church, Laurel, January 29. Donald Marsh, choirmaster, First Presbyterian Church, Port Jervis, New York, served as resource person. Registration was 130.

4. Children's Choir Festival—May 11, held at the High School, Seaford, with 400 children enrolled.

5. Conference Music Institute—April 19—Wesley Church, Dover. Resource persons: William K. Burns, President of the National Fellowship of Methodist Musicians, and Miss Nan Neugebauer, organist, South Avenue United Methodist Church, Wilkinsburg, Pa.

F. Local Church Visitations—Visits to the local church hold a high priority in the eyes of the conference staff. By this means new developments in the teaching ministry are interpreted and opportunities for the sharing of mutual concerns. By relating in this personal means many ways are open for the renewal and extension of the teaching ministry. During the year, the staff has held 102 workers' conferences in local churches in addition to all other responsibilities on conference or district levels.

G. Seminars on Confirmation—Many who are concerned with a Ministry with Youth see the dedication of life as the goal of our teaching ministry. The General Boards of Education and Evangelism are at work in cooperation with the General Conference Committee on preparation of resources for the preparation of persons for membership. New resources are expected to be published in 1970.

During the conference year, your Conference Director of Education prepared a booklet entitled The Confirmation Experience and the Committed Life which was offered to our ministers as a "working paper" for further discussion. Sixteen seminars were planned; 13 were held with 110 ministers participating. One district was cancelled because of the illness of the director. Groundwork, it is believed, for deeper study has been laid in the expectation that further effort in cooperation with the General Board Staff will be available in the coming year.

H. Jurisdictional Enterprises—(1) Northeastern Jurisdictional School held at Lycoming College. Howard A. Bailey served as dean. The Peninsula Conference delegation was 12. (2) Middle Atlantic Adult Convocation held at Buck Hill Falls—Peninsula delegation was 25.

I. Governor of Delaware's Conference on Children and Youth—The Board of Education representative was C. Jackson Robinson of Atonement Church. See full report in Minister's Coordinated Mailing, March 1969.

II. COMMITTEE ON CAMP PECOMETH—Joseph V. Holliday, Chairman.

Thomas McKelvey, Assistant Director, reports:

1. Registration—Total Attendance for the year was 6,519. There were 3,579 picnickers for a day long picnic, and 1,581 young people and adults who participated in PeCoMeth year around weekend retreat programs. The summer program included 1,359 campers.

2. Variety of Program—The summer camping alone offered 9 different programs including main camp, barn, pioneer, travel camping, canoe trip, back-packing trips, sailing cruise, counsel-in-training and migrant ministry.

3. Summer Staff—A full time summer staff of 57 persons consisting of seminarians, college professors and college students made up the committed leadership for the summer. Six ministers known as chaplains or the visiting counselors, served for stated periods during the entire summer season. Added to the above list of leaders were Junior and Senior High School students who served as Junior Counselors. The employment of full-time staff was called "a step in faith."

4. Two Societies was the theme for the summer which resulted in a real experience of reconciliation. Every program centered on the national crisis of racial discrimination and poverty. This theme came to life as black and white campers with their counselors discussed the crisis in the nation and in the church. All of this resulted in a growing awareness of oneness in Christ as our church is called to action.

5. The Migrant Ministry—This represents a new dimension in the PeCoMeth program. Tom McKelvey and his wife, Karen, set out with 5 senior highs and became involved in a 8-day "ministry of presence" in the Preston Migrant Labor Camp. In this person to person ministry the group sought to convey a concern and respect for the migrant laborers. The positive response of the migrants was far better than they had expected. In the words of one senior high, "It was the most meaningful experience I have ever had."

6. PeCoMeth—Free of Debt—It is with great satisfaction that we report that on March 28, 1969, final release was received from the Loyola Federal Savings and Loan Association of Baltimore, Md., which held the mortgage on the land at PeCoMeth had been entirely amortized. On July 12, 1957, 265 acres of farm land located on a highly valuable waterfront of one mile was added to the 7 acres which composed the original campsite. A down payment of $15,000 was made and a mortgage by the above named financial institution was taken for $95,000. A more complete report reviewing the background, program and future of PeCoMeth is planned in the near future.

III. HIGHER EDUCATION—Howard L. Gordy, Chairman.

During the course of this year, the Committee on Higher Education has given serious consideration to (1) trends and developments in the higher education program of the United Methodist Church throughout the country, and recommendations being made by responsible leaders in the field; and (2) the progress, possibilities, and problems of the Peninsula Conference program in higher education in light of our financial situation and the need to establish priorities.

As a result of our thinking, we decided to recommend the continuation of our present program through 1970, with the understanding that this would be a time for the exploration of other possibilities.

In regard to Wesley Foundations under our jurisdiction, a minimal ministry will be maintained on the campuses of Salisbury State, Maryland State, Washington College, and Delaware State, and a more substantial ministry at the University of Delaware, where the Rev. David Riffe became the director during this year. We expect that, in each of these situations, the possibility of an ecumenical campus ministry and/or local church programs be investigated, anticipating a change of plans for the future.

In preparing the budget for 1970, inequities in the allocation of funds to the campus ministries of the 4 colleges were removed by the establishment of a standardized, minimal allotment to each, including a salary for the Director and a small program budget. Investment of conference funds in buildings and property not being a part of our future plans, we recommend that the Conference Board of Trustees sell the Wesley House and lot in Salisbury and the lots in Chestertown.

The support of Wesley College will be continued through 1970, with the expectation that a joint committee of representatives from the Board of Trustees of Wesley and from the Conference Board of Education will carefully consider our future course of action during that time. A plan has been worked out that one-sixth of the 1970 appropriation to Wesley College will be devoted to scholarships for qualified black students from Peninsula Conference churches.

The Committee on Higher Education recommended to the World Service and Finance Commission that no conference funds be appropriated to colleges and universities outside the conference, which means the discontinuation of token support of American University and Western Maryland College.

We are grateful for the faithful work of the Directors of the Wesley Foundations on our college campuses. They are Clayton E. Hammond, Delaware State; Richard R. Hicks, Maryland State; John A. Clinton, Salisbury State; A. Jason Blundon, Washington College; and David Riffe, University of Delaware. Space in this report will not permit a statement of their programs conducted. These reports are available in our office.

IV. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION SUNDAY OFFERING

In previous years the offering on Christian Education Sunday has contributed to the work of the Board of Education and in support of PeCoMeth. Beginning this year, 1969, however, the entire offering will go to the operation, maintenance and development of PeCoMeth.

V. TRAFCO.—Robert Helms, Chairman.

During the year the audio visual libraries have been brought together and placed under the supervision of our conference TRAFCO. A new catalog should be available at an early date in May.

VI. CERTIFICATION OF WORKERS—William H. Revelle, Jr., Chairman.

The Conference Board of Education on recommendation of its committee on certification approves the following persons for the conference year 1969-70:

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD A. BAILEY,
WALTER H. STONE.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair." This sounds like some future writer reflecting on our present day. You will recognize it as having been written over a hundred years ago, by Charles Dickens in his book "A Tale of Two Cities."

Realizing that the world in which we live, is and always has been, a mixture of many attitudes and approaches in life, your Board of Evangelism has attempted to develop an approach to declare the Faith in many ways. Through its Planning Retreat last June the Board was divided into four Task Groups. Each Group was designated a number of ideas and projects that grew out of our general discussion on which to work. Taking these ideas and projects, ("Tasks"), the individual Groups met and sought out further information, selected ideas to develop and projects to pursue.

Task Group A, under the leadership of Rev. Clarence Hays, investigated the feasibility of establishing Reading Rooms and Book Stores within our Conference. It was discovered there is a need to make available high quality religious reading material. This project is being followed up. Radio/TV Ministry was also studied. It was concluded this should be worked out in conjunction with our Conference Committee on TRAFCO, and should be one of the projects for this coming year. On April 22 a seminar on the Healing Ministry, under the leadership of Dr. Richmond, was conducted at Asbury Church, Smyrna.

Rev. Robert Whitlock is leader of Group B. The Coffee House Ministry and the developing of a Conference Drama Group has been their emphasis. Contact should be made with Mr. Whitlock if you have interest in either of these areas.

Task Group C concentrated on setting up Lay Witness Missions in the local church and Drayton Manor. Mr. Vernon Downes has given leadership here. More than seven Lay Witness Missions have been held across the Conference, and three Retreats conducted at Drayton Manor.

DELMARVA CRUSADE: The Delmarva Crusade for Christ was held January 13-26 in Salisbury at the Wicomico County Youth and Civic Center. This was an interdenominational effort in conjunction with the Billy Graham Association. Forty-two of our Methodist Churches cooperated in this effort. A total of 40,664 persons were in attendance, and 799 made inquiries concerning their faith.

COUNCIL OF EVANGELISM: The Annual Council of Evangelism met in Kansas City, Missouri, January 8-10, 1969. Representing our Conference in attendance were Dale Ruth, Irvin Pusey, Gerald Henderson and Willard L. Robinson, Jr. The meetings were informative and messages stimulating. The attitude which prevailed was positive, and stress was placed on the need of linking together our personal commitment to Christ and social responsibility.

CONFERENCE ON EVANGELISM: The Northeastern Jurisdiction Conference on Evangelism will be held at Drew University, Madison, N. J., July 7-11, 1969. Dr. Joseph H. Yeakel, General Secretary of the General Board of Evangelism, will be the guest speaker. Other General Board personnel to take part in the program are Charles Whittle, who will work with the Conference and District Leaders; Walter Albritton from the Department of Koinonia Ministries; and Ross E. Whetstone, Director for the Council of Telephone Ministries. The cost is $50.00, and ministers and laymen . . . men, women and youth . . . are urged to attend. Write to Rev. Charles Warner, 520 Pawling Avenue, Troy, New York 12180, for further information.

JURISDICTIONAL CONVOCATION ON EVANGELISM: Bishop Roy C. Nichols, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Board of Evangelism, has announced December 2 through 4, 1969, as the dates for this Convocation. It will be held in Harrisburg, and members from our Conference are urged to attend.

PLANNING RETREAT 1969: The Board met March 14 and 15 in a Planning Retreat at Drayton Manor. Task Group reports were made and new areas of emphasis were presented. Plans are being developed to set up a pilot project for CONTACT which is a Telephone Ministries operation. Also plans are being formulated to conduct several Layman/Minister Dialog Retreats at Drayton Manor. Promotion of the Lay Witness Mission will continue on the local level, and at least three Lay Witness Retreats will be sponsored, being held at Drayton Manor. Other items mentioned under the Task Groups were discussed and will be developed.

THE AIM OF EVANGELISM: The aim of Evangelism is to bring all persons into living, active fellowship with God through Jesus Christ as divine Saviour, and Lord, and through the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit, gather them into the fellowship of the church and lead them to express their Christian discipleship in every area of human life that the kingdom of God may be realized.

1968 Discipline, Paragraph 1201.

EVANGELISM DEFINED: Evangelism is the winning of persons to Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord. It is an attitude, a spirit, and a living faith that finds expression in a continuous cooperative effort on the part of the Holy Spirit and man to bring the individual into vital relationship with God and his fellow men through faith in Jesus Christ, God's Son. It results in a definite personal experience of salvation, a growing sensitivity to the social relevance of the gospel, and a progressive building of Christlike character. It seeks to bring man into complete harmony with the will of God, into the fellowship of the church, and into involvement in the world to be God's servant of reconciliation. It helps him to grow spiritually through the means of grace and to serve God in daily living.

Evangelism is the task of the whole church. Every minister, department, agency, local church, and member of the United Methodist Church is responsible for its accomplishment.

1968 Discipline, Paragraph 1202.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. It is recommended that Churches planning special Evangelistic Services during the course of the year give serious consideration, and inquire into, the use of the New Life Mission program as developed by The Department of New Life Ministries, General Board of Evangelism, 1908 Grand Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

2. It is recommended that W. Hayward Greene be appointed to serve as Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLARD L. ROBINSON, JR.,
Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

THE PENINSULA METHODIST FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

At the end of 1967 we had 13 members, assets of $238.00, and had made no loans. Since that time, our growth has been modest, but steady.

Since that time, we have opened 46 new accounts, while closing three, leaving us now with a membership of 56. These accounts now contain $2,774.85 in shares. We have made loans in the past year totaling $3,210.00 and as of April 10, 1969 had a loan balance of $2,385.68.

Several men have started a regular plan of saving, some $5.00 per month, some $10.00, and one twenty. These accounts are beginning to count up, one is near $400.00, two are over $300.00 and several are just over or just under $100.00. Our big need is for regular savers. We are limited in our lending policy, because our total share account is low. As our share account grows, we can make larger loans. Of the 15 loans made, 12 have been for the maximum allowable.

Our loan limit is now $275.00. If our present rate of growth continues, this will be up to $500.00 by the end of the year. In our first year of operation we were able to pay a 3% dividend to share holders; this year we should be competitive with saving banks. In addition, our accounts are insured. If a share holder dies, money that he has saved is doubled up to $2,000 of saving; this is at no extra cost to the saver. Likewise, loans are insured at no extra cost to the borrower. Should the borrower die the loan is paid.

The amount of service that the credit union can give depends upon its support by ministers of the conference and by full time employees of churches and institutions of the conference.

C. E. BARTON, JR.,
Treasurer.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

At the recommendation of the Joint Commissions on Church Union, the name of the Board (Hospitals and Homes) was changed to the General Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. The Board brings together the former E U B Departments of Health and Welfare and the Methodist Board of Hospitals and Homes. However, this Board shall continue as its primary function the promotion of a religious ministry in the name of Christ to the aged, to the orphans or needy children and to the ill.

The Methodist Manor House, with accommodations for 207 persons, has enjoyed the privilege of ministering to 215 residents from its formal opening, a little over two years ago, until the present. As the result of room and resident adjustments, a number of rooms are presently available.

Situated in the southern part of our Peninsula Conference, in an area lacking in many of the services provided in northern Delaware, the Manor House is becoming increasingly a center through which needed ministries are reaching out into the surrounding communities.

In addition to serving its own residents, the Manor House, through its excellent Physical Therapy Department, offers an out-patient service to the community through a cooperative relation with the Rehabilitation Center in Georgetown.

Because of the quality of its physical facilities, equipment, and staff, the Manor House early received certification as one of the few Extended Care facilities in lower Delaware, thus enabling it to work closely with the Nanticoke Memorial Hospital in seeing older persons safely through their period of convalescence following hospitalization. This ministry has won for the Manor House a warm acceptance in the surrounding communities.

Other means of helping older persons who may never have the privilege of living in the Manor House have been under study for some time. Now, through collaboration with Geriatric Services of Delaware, a program has been launched which will in time offer such ministries as Meals on Wheels, homemaking services, and companionship to deprived elderly persons now living in lonely rooms.

This program will involve the volunteer services of many people and it is hoped that through it, many of our churches will be aided in ministering to older persons in their parishes.

Those who will first be offered assistance under the new program are the more than fifty individuals on our waiting list who, because of inadequate funds, cannot at present enter the Manor House as residents.

The Methodist Country House continues to serve as one of the finer retirement homes in Methodism with a completely liquidated mortgage. However, their operating expenses necessitate our support through the Mother's Day Offering. Twenty-five percent of the residents in both homes cannot pay the full monthly operating cost, and the Mother's Day Offering is used for the purpose of meeting this difference.

The Board recently recommended to the Board of Trustees of the Peninsula Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc. to study the question of receiving 25% of the guests in the Methodist Country Home and Seaford Manor House as adjusted pay. The Board recommended further that the adjusted pay guest list be based upon the amount of money included in the Conference budget.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES C. HARDCASTLE,
Chairman.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The 188th Anniversary of Barratt's Chapel was held in the Chapel, Sunday Afternoon, November 10, 1968. At this service we had as our speaker the Rev. Don A. Cook, General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance of the United Methodist Church.

The year 1969, being the 200th Anniversary Year of Methodism on the Peninsula we are arranging a program for the observance of this Anniversary which will include the observance of the 189th Anniversary of Barratt's Chapel. Rev. Charles E. Covington was elected by our Society to select a committee and make all arrangements.

During 1968 there were more than 3500 visitors to the Chapel and Museum, including school children, church school classes, youth groups, confirmation classes and tourists from all parts of the U. S. and foreign lands. There were two weddings and two baptisms in the Chapel.

The attendance at the Sunday Evening Services during July and August averaged 36 and plans are being made for similar services in 1969.

Naturally, our most important concern is the care and maintenance of Barratt's Chapel. To that end we are having repairs made to the Chapel, made necessary because of damage during a heavy windstorm in November 1968. We expect insurance will cover this expense.

However, we have discovered that a very serious crack has developed in the southeastern corner of the building and we are advised this must be taken care of immediately to avoid more serious trouble. We are now taking steps to have competent builders to examine this and the entire building, then get estimates for the repairs and authorize that the necessary work be done. This may be rather costly but we feel that contributions from lovers of this old Chapel, together with Conference and general church funds will cover the expense.

Men from the Dover Air Force Base have volunteered to paint the interior of the Chapel and have donated money to buy the paint, but it is felt that necessary work on the outside must be done first.

We are taking steps to reorganize our Society into the new Commission on Archives as required by the United Methodist Church and outlined in the new Discipline.

We mention a few of the items placed in the Museum during the year: Histories of Methodist Churches at Slaughter's Neck, Felton, Kent Island, Chester-Bethel, Denton and Zion, and Cecilton.

Corner-stones from Trinity M. E. Church in White Haven, St. Paul's Churches in Mardela Springs and Westover, and Nasawango.

In addition to gifts of old Bibles, hymnals, song-books and Church Disciplines and Conference Journals, the bulk of the library of the late Rev. C. Elwyn Ennis.

Of special interest, mementoes of Bishop Levi Scott, the only Methodist bishop who was a native of Delaware.

The 1896 issue of the PENINSULA METHODIST containing an interesting history of Dover, Del. and pictures of all of the ministers of the Wilmington Conference at that time.

We are grateful for these acquisitions and look forward to receiving many more.

We request that the Rev. Paul E. Reynolds be reappointed Curator of Barratt's Chapel.

Respectfully submitted,

CLINTON H. BROWN,
President.

THE PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST HOMES AND HOSPITALS, INC.

The sudden death of our beloved Leader, the Reverend George H. Pigueron, Jr., brought to an end a career of love and compassion by a man whose accomplishments remain, but a dream in the minds of most men. These Homes are a tribute to his untiring efforts and the mark of his ingenuity. We are grateful for his life and his vision. Fortunately, he assembled a fine staff who are able to carry on the work he began. The Homes are continuing to grow under the direction of Mr. J. Wallace Watson, who was appointed the interim Executive Director by the Board of Trustees, and his very able staff.

Your corporation is happy to report that the town house project of 24 homes has served to reverse the trend of "tearing down" in downtown Wilmington. The families who occupy these homes are quite happy and very grateful for this extension of our ministry. Three homes remain to be sold.

Ever-increasing demands in the area of care and protection of human life has made the year 1968 one of the most demanding for your corporation. The census of the Homes now total 429. Due to several deaths, some units are still available at Seaford Manor House.

Expanded services now involve the communities surrounding the Homes and have contributed to a closer understanding and relationship within the community. The needs of older citizens, both in our Homes and in the communities we serve, are many and varied. Shelter, companionship, financial, medical and para-medical needs are the basis of our ministry. Constant study and concern in all these areas of service has developed expertise that we are justly proud of and grateful for the accomplishment achieved.

We are particularly thankful that the Master, working through many friends who have supported us with their gifts and prayers, continues to make possible our ministry of compassionate concern for many who otherwise would still be living a life of uncertainty and fear. Through their assistance also, the Manor House mortgage was reduced by $228,566.00 in the last conference year.

Help in sponsoring our benevolence ministry has come from many sources. The Junior Board and the Fall Festival Committee have done a magnificent job, and have supplied funds to an even greater degree than any facet within our conference. Seeing what can be done by approximately thirty persons who are genuinely concerned about the welfare of our residents, leads one to wonder just what could be accomplished if all Methodists within the jurisdiction of the conference viewed our ministry in a like manner.

In spite of spiraling costs of supplies and service, over which we have little control, there was improvement in the per diem cost in operations. As a result of improvements in both income and expense, we have reduced our operating loss significantly, some 48%. It is also good to report that the expense of our resident care is below the majority of Homes in our area. None of these homes has comparable settings and services.

The primary reasons for the decreased expenses were—(1) Renovation of Dietary Department and (2) Better utilization of facilities and expanded services.

Even more significant has been the increase in income per resident day, due to the development of new procedures and services of the Medical Departments and change in monthly rates. We are taking full advantage of all benefits under the Social Security Act, Title 18, to insure additional income for the Homes, and savings for our residents. The income from Medicare benefits has not only covered a substantial amount of our infirmary expenses, but it has allowed us to perform a level of care for our residents that is second to none. Major nursing care such as transfusions, oxygen therapy and tube feeding are now a part of routine care in our Infirmary. It is also interesting to note that the standards we have set for patient care has consistently been above those set by any regulatory agency.

As always, the need for financial assistance exceeds our ability to supply. Even though good control is being exercised and we are holding to the recommended percentage of 25% of total residents with scholarship agreements, our cost of benevolence work has increased. This is brought about by residents living longer than national statistics indicate, thereby exhausting their funds, and by increased cost in operations. Because of these factors, it will be necessary to perhaps reduce our benevolent work for lack of funds. The following chart will show in detail the amount of scholarship work performed, based on the difference between the monthly fee at the time of admission and actual amount paid by the resident of $141,000.00. If these same residents on scholarship were calculated as it should be, that is, the difference between the present monthly rate (which is actual cost) and the amount they pay, it would show the facts as they are currently, and show that the benevolence portion of care for these is in reality $216,518.00. These additional funds to be raised, plus the mortgage at Seaford, places a substantial burden on the corporation. We are most grateful for the past support of the conference, and pray that through our combined efforts, we shall be able to carry on a ministry in harmony with the teachings of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

BROOKS E. REYNOLDS, President,
Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

We believe both clergy and laity will agree that we have had an encouraging and challenging year. It has been very difficult to even try to fill the shoes of Maurice Hancock, who is a big man both spiritually and physically.

Camp Pecometh was filled to capacity for our Laymen's Retreat in early September. Our resource persons Dr. Frederick Maser and Dr. George Hippel, led an informative and inspiring retreat concerning the various aspects of evangelism. Several of our laymen requested that we schedule two such retreats each year.

In October, many of us attended an effective Jurisdictional Retreat at Atlantic City. It was interesting to note that the increase in attendance at the retreat was the same as the additional number this year attending from our conference.

During the fall, District Laymen and Ministers' banquets afforded an excellent opportunity for fellowship. Laymen from our five districts were encouraged to attend each others' banquets.

In early November, the Conference Board of the Laity sponsored a weekend at Drayton Manor, our Peninsula United Methodist Retreat Center. Our discussion subject was "The Role of the Christian in Crisis". The able leadership of Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Reverend Mr. Felton May, and the Reverend Mr. George Goodley left a deep and enduring impact on all those attending. I am sure all of us laymen returned home with a better understanding of our responsibilities as Christians in this modern age.

In the spring, our districts held their usual annual Laymen and Ministers' Communion Breakfasts. One such breakfast was held in Wilmington, and several in each of the other four districts. In an age of material emphasis, it is a gratifying experience to find a church full of laymen at seven o'clock on Sunday morning.

This year, a new dimension has been added to our lay program. A laymen's banquet will be held at Bethesda United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland, at 6:30 on Thursday night during our annual conference. Lay members of the conference, their spouses, interested laity and clergy are invited. The price will be $2.75 per person. Dr. Hilbert Berger of the General Board of Laity will be our guest speaker.

Next year we plan to expand our program to involve more laymen. We are particularly interested in that layman who sits on the third seat from the front—the man who attends church regularly but does not participate in our lay activities.

I want to thank Bishop Lord, the Cabinet, the clergy, the Board of Laity and all laymen who have contributed to this year's program.

Respectfully submitted,

A. FRANK CHAPMAN,
Peninsula Conference Lay Leader.

THE MARYLAND COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

"Are you running with me, Jesus?" may be a question that we seem to be asking by our actions in this present age. These are demanding times and the tenor of today is one of unrest, confusion and uncertainty which demands relevant involvement. Churches are not alone in this struggle for relevancy for it seems to be at the very core of life today. War, poverty, economics and power structures are a part of life and each seems to demand our prime consideration.

The churches are attempting to react to the conditions in the world and the struggle to be significantly involved, increases with frantic efforts to find solutions. Money continues to be a prime tool with which to seek acceptable solutions. Such denominational efforts as the United Methodist's Fund for Reconciliation, the Lutheran Church in America's Act in Crisis Today, and other efforts in which millions of dollars are being sought, should certainly produce some of the "where-with-all." If it is possible for churches to face the challenges together, a major breakthrough will be near.

The Maryland Council of Churches has recognized that one of the responsibilities it has been given, is to serve the member bodies in Maryland and the community at large, by careful consideration of the urban work. This responsibility includes the organization and development of community groups which would mobilize persons, skills, money, the churches and other organizations to concentrate on conditions in each community. The broadly based problems could then be approached as the Council gears the strength of many on concerns related to all. It is imperative to remember that there are conditions which can best be dealt with locally, and others approached with broader support. A number of such community groups have been organized and others are being developed.

The Ministry to Migrants in eight counties of Maryland shared with the 4,000 migrants a program of religious services, counseling, referrals, vocational training, recreation and the use of two child care centers. Youth from our churches shared in the programs in Frederick and in the Federalsburg-Preston areas. Additional centers are needed on the Eastern Shore, and plans are being made for one in Federalsburg this summer.

Another vital area is that of mass communication. Today radio and television are serving an ever widening range of persons as increasing numbers turn to this media for instructions, entertainment and information. The possibility of the churches using this as a tool for outreach is only limited by the willingness of the churches to be creative, supportive and cooperative. The addition of the Rev. Jon Paul Davidson to the Council Staff gives proof of how serious the denominations, and therefore, the Council, feels about the potential of radio and television. Added to this is the thrilling reality that the Council and the Roman Catholic Office of Communication, through "Ecumedia," have the opportunity to work together in creating, producing and scheduling radio and television programs. It must be clearly understood, if we are to seriously enter this field of communication, that we must be prepared to give adequate financial support to the process. Churches may find here the means to communicate with thousands of unchurched as well as churched persons. The potential may well stagger us. Although not new, the television program, "Faith to Faith," had its seventh series on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. over WMAR-TV, Channel 2, and again had the largest audience of any program sponsored by the Council and the Archdiocese of Baltimore. This series is now being seen in over 30 major market areas in the country.

None-the-less staggering are the many growing ways in which the Council is of value to denominations and local churches. The Baltimore City and County studies were completed. The Eastern Shore and Frederick County studies are being readied for distribution. More minute area studies are also in progress.

Pastoral Services has been effective in bringing to institutions, hospitals and homes a growing program of pastoral care. Committees with trained professionals are giving guidance to these programs with the full cooperation of the institutional administrators. This group has also begun to study the theological implications of organ transplants and the medical statements on death. These may well be useful as greater research continues.

The interest in Religion and the Arts has progressed to the point where a group with broad backgrounds of drama, painting, sculpture and music has been organized to find creative ways of sharing their expertise through church and community efforts.

The Ministry in State Parks has enjoyed its most fruitful year. In seven state parks over 6,000 persons worshiped together in services conducted by our chaplains and cooperating groups. The development of "Guidelines for State Park Ministries" was agreed upon by the Maryland Department of Forests and Parks and the Department of Evangelism of the Council. Local participation and the keen interests of our denominations have played an important part in this effort to serve the camping community in Maryland.

With these and many additional developments that could be related here, the Council continues to be a useful and creative channel for the churches to work together. It is true that with the zeal and determination to respond to needs, the work has developed faster than the income. This has been a major problem this past year and, for the first time in several years, we began our new fiscal year on October 1, 1968, with a deficit.

The Business and Finance Department is confident that, with an increased effort through the local churches and denominations, this deficit can be overcome. It is imperative, however, that we understand that the Council is carefully studying its past, present and future functions to determine how to be more effective. Some changes are necessary and we must be ready to make them.

Although this year has been a difficult one financially, it has also been a year of immense growth, creative development and major achievements. These have been accomplished by a consecrated staff, a group of officers dedicated to the task, many volunteers giving unstintingly of their valuable time, and churches eager to work together for Christ and His Kingdom. The Peninsula Conference has contributed much to these achievements through its financial and personal support. All of this would be to no avail if we were not blessed by God and His great love. We pray for His continuing guidance.

DONZEL C. WILDEY,
Executive Director.

BOARD OF THE MINISTRY

"Ministry in the Christian church is derived from the ministry of Christ, the ministry of the Father through the Incarnate Son by the Holy Spirit. It is the ministry bestowed upon and required of the entire church. All Christians are called to ministry, and theirs is a ministry of the people of God within the Community of faith and in the world. Members of The United Methodist Church receive this gift of ministry in company with all Christians and sincerely hope to continue and extend it in the world for which Christ lived, died, and lives again. The United Methodist Church believes that baptism, confirmation, and responsible membership in the church are visible signs of acceptance of this ministry."

(quoted from 1968 copy of The Book of Discipline of U. M. C.)

The business of the Board of the Ministry is people, specifically those called into the Ministry, as they move from the status of License to Preach to Associate or Full Conference Membership, ordination and through retirement. The labors of this Board produce no buildings, except all of the buildings constructed under the leadership of our ministers. This Board raises no money, except all the money which the churches, led by our ministers, give for Christian work at home and abroad. Ministerial training has to do with only one element in the life of our church, and that is its life blood—the quality of our ministry as it molds the destiny of the church wherever her name is proclaimed and known. To this high task the Board of the Ministry has been and continues to be committed.

The Chairman and Registrar of the Board attended the Conference on the Ministry, sponsored by the Department of the Ministry of the Board of Education of The United Methodist Church, held in St. Louis, Missouri, November 10-13, 1968.

At the 1968 session of The General Conference, many changes were made in terminology and categories pertaining to the Ministry. Terms such as Local Preacher, Supply Pastor, Preparatory Member have been replaced with such words as Lay Pastor, Associate Member, Probationary Member.

A brief description of the new categories follows:

A. Lay Pastor (paragraphs 338-345 of The Discipline)

A Layman duly licensed to preach, who, upon recommendation of the Board of the Ministry, is approved each year by the Annual Conference for appointment as pastor of charges. A Lay Pastor is one of the first steps into the Ministry which ultimately leads to Associate Membership or to Full Membership into the Conference.

B. Associate Member (paragraphs 322-324 of The Discipline)

An Associate Member in the itinerant ministry of the church. He shall be granted the same security of appointment, minimum salary, pension and other provisions concerning their relationship to the Conference governing members in full connection.

To qualify for Associate Membership, certain minimum requirements are set by the General Church. Each Board of the Ministry in the local conferences may make additional ones. Par. 323(3) of the 1968 Book of Discipline gives to each Conference Board of the Ministry the privilege to waive, until July 1, 1971, the sixty semester hours of college credit requirements.

Our Board of the Ministry unanimously approved the following recommendation of the subcommittee on Lay Pastors, William Hemphill, Jr., Chairman.

"That the requirement of sixty semester hours of college credit toward a Bachelor of Arts or equivalent degree be waived for all approved Supply Pastors who are Local Elders with at least ten years of full time service and who will have reached their sixtieth birthday by the end of the calendar year 1969, and that these men be recommended for Associate Membership, and

That all other Approved Supply Pastors who are Local Elders be required to attend two sessions of Advanced Studies (one month in 1969 and one month in 1970) at the expense of this Board in lieu of the sixty semester hours of college credit, providing that thirty hours of approved college credit may be substituted for the second year of Advanced Study."

C. Probationary Member (paragraphs 325-330 of The Discipline)

"A Probationary Member is on trial in preparation for a membership in full connection with his Annual Conference. He is on probation as to his character, preaching, and effectiveness as a pastor." (Par. 325)

D. Member in Full Connection (paragraphs 331-337 of The Discipline)

After at least two (2) years as a Probationary Member, one may be admitted into membership in full connection in an Annual Conference upon meeting the requirements (par. 333 (1, 2, 3, 4, 5)). A full member shall be eligible for ordination as elder.

There are at Present two Orders in the Ministry.

A. Deacons—either Associate or Probationary Members. The Deacon Order is required before one is entrusted with the authority to administer the Sacraments. This authority is given to Deacons, regularly appointed pastors of a charge, only within the bounds of the charge. Deacons not under appointment are granted authority to assist an elder with the Sacraments.

B. Elders—one received into full connection with an Annual Conference and granted full authority for the ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Order.

There are several phases of our program which have been active and bear mentioning.

1. The Committee on Continuing Education, Howard A. Bailey, Chairman, reports that 32 ministers participated in the Preaching Seminar held at Drayton Manor, October 14-17, 1968. Cooperating with Drayton Manor a week of training in Preaching within the Church Year is to be held this June. The resource person will be a former member of our Conference, Dr. William F. Dunkle, Jr.

The Board calls attention of the laity in each church to Paragraph 355 of The Book of Discipline. "In most cases the minister's continuing education program should allow for leaves of absence for study at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the minister's vacation."

2. The Scholarship and Loan Committee, Harold M. Davis, Chairman, reports giving assistance to five students for a total of $2,100. Several requests for scholarships had to be turned down for lack of funds.

3. The Recruitment Committee, Robert P. Whitlock, Chairman, seeks to find ways to solve the "Man Power" shortage on a very meager budget. We can report that this year, nine young men have been recommended by their Charge Conferences for License to Preach. Thus it appears that slowly we are getting to the grass roots in our own back yard.

Items 1, 2, and 3 will have additional funds to work with in 1970 when the 2% Ministerial Education Fund, now set up by the General Church, becomes operative.

4. The Committee dealing with Lay Pastors, William Hemphill, Jr., Chairman, along with our Assistant Registrar, G. Wayne Cuff, have been actively concerned with the status of the formerly designated Supply Pastor, now Lay Pastor. Through their efforts we are recommending 18 men for Associate Membership at this Conference session; of this number, three are being recommended because they meet the sixty semester hour requirement, 17 by age and years of service. There are 22 men who will be eligible for Associate Membership on or before the Conference session of 1971, provided they take the required advance studies at Duke University during the summer.

5. The Conference Relation Committee, Charles E. Barton, Jr., Chairman, brings to the Board of the Ministry, by action of the General Church, enlarged responsibilities. The Board of the Ministry now is fully responsible for the minister from the time he makes his decision to enter this high profession until he receives his "welcome home, thou beloved and faithful servant." We call the clergy's attention to the fact that when one is considering any change in Conference relationship pertaining to Sabbatical leave, Disability leave, Supernumerary, Superannuate, Voluntary or Involuntary Location, one should contact the Board of the Ministry. One letter is all that is necessary. Through this committee other Boards and Agencies will be informed.

We regret that our quadrennial book "Steps Into the Ministry", is not published. Now that The Book of Discipline is in print, this publication will be published during the summer.

As Chairman, I wish to publicly report concerning the open line of communication between the Board of the Ministry and the Cabinet. The sense of urgency to cooperate for the good of the men involved and the church is welcomed.

In conclusion I wish to express my appreciation to C. Edwin Lasbury, for his excellent work as Registrar of the Board, to G. Wayne Cuff, Assistant Registrar for his extra efforts this year in caring for the Lay Pastor and Associate Member, to Richard L. Hamilton, for his helpful assistance as Secretary and to each member of the Board who has given of their insights, into the high calling of the ministry, by participating in the many interviews conducted during the year along with the regular business of the Board. Especially impressive has been the cooperation of our candidates in fulfilling their appointments and other requirements requested of them.

We truly believe a new day has come in regard to Candidates for the Ministry, caliber of the men entering the Ministry and the relationship between those involved.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID W. BAKER, Chairman
C. EDWIN LASBURY, Registrar
G. WAYNE CUFF, Assistant Registrar
RICHARD L. HAMILTON, Secretary

METHODIST MISSION AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY, INC.

A.

The Methodist Mission and Church Extension Society, Inc. is the Wilmington District missionary society. It is commonly referred to as the Methodist Action Program or MAP. The 1968-69 activities of Map can be summarized as follows:

(1) Local Church Outreach. MAP undergirds the work of Silverbrook, Harrison Street, Brandywine, Ezion, and Old Asbury churches so they can provide community programs of service and outreach for all ages, such as: week-day church school, summer day camp and Camp PeCoMeth experiences, athletics, recreation, small group experiences, sex education, reading and tutorial programs, interest groups, well-child clinics, senior citizens activities, mothers' clubs, and pre-kindergarten schools.

(2) Community Organization. MAP supports efforts of local communities to organize so they can more adequately deal with their local problems. MAP has worked with McCabe Church in the establishment of the Tri-Parish Project (Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopalian) which is helping the local churches to become more effective in their service in the North Brandywine area of Wilmington.

(3) Operation Leaven. MAP carries on an attitudinal change program with local churches and other groups. This is an action-study program designed to bring white people into a confrontation with urban problems and black people which will result in a change in attitudes and positive actions undertaken to alleviate the problems.

(4) Small Black Business Development. MAP is seeking to aid in the development of black economic power by assisting in the establishment of small black businesses. This is done with money raised outside the regular budget.

(5) People-to-People Relationships. MAP's evangelical thrust is involved in all its programs but especially through person-to-person relationships. This healing and helping ministry involves personal counseling, family counseling, court situations, visits to penal institutions and hospitals, and working with people in regard to legal, medical, vocational, financial problems.

(6) Church Extension. MAP is undertaking a thorough survey to discover the likely future church extension needs in undeveloped areas.

(7) Operation Narcotics. For three months MAP was involved in a project to organize former dope addicts to carry on a public educational campaign in regard to drug abuse. The project was not successful but it did reveal to us the extent and depth of the drug abuse problem.

(8) Old Asbury Renovation. During 1968-69 Old Asbury Church, the oldest Methodist Church in Wilmington, underwent extensive physical renovation. This was made possible largely through the assistance of GWDC Housing, Inc. which will build many new homes in the Asbury area.

Because of these and other activities of MAP and of local Methodist churches, The Methodist Church on the Wilmington District is deeply involved in meeting personal needs in working for social change, and in the renewal of local churches to the end that every individual may be able to grow up to realize his full potentials as a child of God. The Methodist Church is involved meaningfully in helping to solve the grave urban-racial crisis of New Castle County; so MAP is where the action is and because of this, many persons are finding a fuller life opening up before them.

B.

In all its work MAP operates on the basis of certain principles: (1) Group Ministry. The thirteen staff people related to MAP (local church personnel and those in detached service) meet weekly for the sharing of ideas, planning and mutual support. (2) Employment of local people. As far as possible, MAP employs for its staff positions (full and part time) local community people. This provides leadership training and also relates our programs well to the neighborhoods. (3) Cooperation with Other Agencies. MAP works closely with other denominations and social agencies, private and public. Joint planning is done to eliminate overlapping and to provide for united attacks on problems. (4) Involvement of Local People in Planning. MAP seeks to bring local neighborhood people into the decision making, programming process for what MAP and its related churches will do in any given neighborhood. This means that it is not a local church saying "this is what we will do for you"; it is a church and community together determining what needs to be done, how it will be done and who will do it. (5) District Participation. Through its board and committees, MAP strives to involve district clergy and laymen in program planning and execution.

C.

As MAP begins another year of service it has put at the top of its priorities two concerns: to help strengthen the ministry of the former Delaware Conference churches on the Wilmington District; and, to extend its Operation Leaven emphasis to provide opportunities through which many more people can come to a greater understanding of the urban-racial crisis and a commitment to help solve the problems. The major urban-racial problems are basically spiritual or attitudinal in terms of their causes and continuance. It is the presence of Christ in our hearts, minds and wills that can lead us to the solutions.

D.

The 1968-69 program cost $130,000 of which $37,570 came from the Peninsula Annual Conference through the Board of Missions. Wilmington District churches are becoming more supportive of this work but to a large extent the remaining support was given by individual people. The 1969-70 budget will be about $165,000. The needs for the witness of the Church in the urban areas are increasing and if they are to be met, the Annual Conference will have to support the work more adequately. Similar kinds of work should be done in other areas of the Conference and, if undertaken, will probably need some financial assistance.

One of the great mission fields today is the city—where the problems and opportunities are great but the resources of local churches inadequate to meet them. The Methodist Church will only be able to witness in the cities as it should if the total church gets underneath this work.

RICHARD C. STAZESKY,
Executive Director.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS

There are many missions in the world, but there is but one mission for the church. That mission is to go into all the world, teaching and demonstrating the principles of Christianity.

This becomes a most difficult task in the world in which we live, for the forces of evil are ever with us. In spite of all of this, the Conference Board of Missions has made every effort to witness to, and be true to Christ and His church.

A summary of our year's work is as follows:

1.—Cultivation:

Our Conference Missionary Secretary does a tremendous job. His report speaks for itself.

"The area of promotion and cultivation of the Board of Missions is carried on by the Conference Missionary Secretary and the five District Missionary Secretaries. We plan and work as a team. This includes the promotion of World Service, Advance Special giving (World, National, UMCOR, and Conference), Schools of Christian Mission (Summer, Conference, and local church), and other areas of missionary cultivation. Our District Missionary Secretaries are:

- Chestertown District .....Roy Phillips
- Dover District .....Alvin Willink
- Easton District .....Tom Wall
- Salisbury District .....William Owens
- Wilmington District .....Abraham Carey

These men have done excellent work. They have traveled 1990 miles, served as instructors, conducted workshops, itinerated missionaries and have given many hours of their time. A summary of their work follows:

District	Miles Traveled	Monies Raised for Cultivation	Monies Spent for Cultivation	Attendance Cultivation Week
Chestertown	436	$ 66.00	$ 58.00	223
Dover	492	140.00	213.00	223
Easton	539	216.00	71.00	500
Salisbury	173	117.00	50.00	787
Wilmington	350	35.00	113.00	569
Total	1990	$574.00	$505.00	2554

This year our ministry included:

1. Merger of Conference Audio-Visual Library under the Committee on TRAFCO. This included help in preparation of a new A-V Guide for the Annual Conference. All this was in cooperation with the Program Council, TRAFCO, and the Conference Board of Education.
2. Fifteen adults and five children attended the Silver Bay Conference on the Christian World Mission at Silver Bay, New York.
3. Assisted in planning the Conference School of Christian Mission at Wesley College, and was instructor in Southeast Asia.
4. Cooperated with the Conference WSCS and Board of Education in holding three Fall District Seminars on Mission Studies.
5. Itineration of Dr. Ole Borgan for one month throughout the Annual Conference.
6. I represented the Board of Missions on the Town and Country Commission, Conference School of Missions Committee, and at various functions.

7. Attended the Regional Conference for the North Eastern Jurisdiction of the Board of Missions, serving on the guiding committee, and as a discussion leader.

WORLD SERVICE AND ADVANCE SPECIALS

World Service—is the life-blood of the United Methodist Church, and continues to be a major area of our promotion and cultivation. Churches are urged to accept benevolences in full. Our goal is that our Conference World Service asking will be met in full.

Advance Specials—this year our Board accepted one main Advance Special for the Quadrennium, the Lillestrom Church, Norway. We seek to raise $20,000 which will be matched by the Lillestrom people to build a much needed Church. This church, only 13 miles from the expanding capital city of Oslo, has a most creative ministry, especially among youth and young adults. Other gifts are still being received for salary support of missionaries, schools, hospitals, and former special projects.

UMCOR—has received strong interest and support. This is because of the response of churches to the suffering resulting from the tragic war in Nigeria/Biafra. As of April 1, 1969 our churches have given $3,797.00, an increase of 111.2% over a year ago.

World Student Scholarship Fund—a Conference Advance Special, is continuing into its 4th year. Mr. Udoka Johnson Udoka, Nigeria, completed his work for the B.A. degree at Delaware State College, Dover, Delaware. This fine young man did four years college work in just three years, graduating with honors. He is now attending Oklahoma State University working on his Master's Degree, under an assistantship provided by the School of Agricultural Economics. Mr. Solomon Thande, Kenya, is completing his two years at Wesley College, Dover, Delaware. This Fall, he will begin his studies at American University. Miss Nirmala Das, India, is studying at the University of Delaware.

VISITS OF NATIONALS, MISSIONARIES, AND BOARD OF MISSIONS STAFF

The following persons were in our Conference:

- Dr. Ole Borgan, Norway/Sweden, assistant to Bishop Odd Hagen
- Rev. & Mrs. George Pigueron III, Uruguay/Mexico
- Miss Eunice Sluyter, India
- Miss Miriam Brattain, Staff
- Dr. James Davis, Staff

2.—Urban Work:

The following report comes from the Urban Works Committee of which William B. Bundick is chairman.

"The Board of Missions has kept in close touch with the work of the Methodist Mission and Church Extension Society, Inc. on the Wilmington District. The chairman of the Board of Missions is on the board of directors of the Society, and the Society's executive director reports regularly to the Board of Missions.

The Methodist Churches in the inner-city area of Wilmington are, with increasing effectiveness, meeting the needs of people in their neighborhoods, and more neighborhood people are beginning to attend the worship services and unite with the church membership.

It should be remembered, that this work in Wilmington is only partially supported by the Annual Conference—$37,570 out of a total of $130,000 in 1968-69. There is a need for greater support from the total Conference.

The urban crisis is not limited to Wilmington; other cities of the Annual Conference are facing similar situations, even if on a smaller scale.

But the whole process of urbanization and rapid social change is not limited to cities; there are also affecting towns and rural areas. In a real sense, we are all part of an urban culture.

It is for this reason, that the Board of Missions desires to disband the Town and Country Commission and the Urban Work Committee and institute a Committee on Parish and Community Development. Whether in town or city, the churches need to respond to the actual needs of people in the communities served by the churches. Such response will put the church in service to people, rather than just calling upon people to serve the church.

As much as possible, all efforts at parish and community development should be ecumenically oriented and organized. The Methodist Church in every area should take the lead in calling upon all churches to unite in their services and outreach.

3.—Recommendations:

1. That Richard D. Bailey be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary.
2. That the month of February be designated as Missionary Cultivation Month.
3. That the apportionments to the charges be designated under three categories: (REF. W.S. & F. COMMISSION)
  - a. World Service
  - b. Conference Benevolences
  - c. Conference Administration
4. That the Conference consider making a "Director of Metropolitan Ministries" who would direct the activities of churches in the metropolitan areas of our conference, and do away with the Director of Inner City Work for one city of our Annual Conference. (REF. CONF. PROGRAM COUNCIL)
5. That the Conference place the Town and Country Committee under the Board of Missions, and that the Town and Country Committee combine with the Urban Work Committee to form the Committee on Church and Community or a Committee on Parish—Community Development.

4.—Conclusion:

We live in an age of rapid change; and if the church is to keep abreast of our present age, it must use the methods that will communicate the message of Christ to the world of today. The message must not change, but only the form in which the message is presented.

New forms of mission must be devised that will reach the unreachable. In searching for these new forms of mission, some mistakes will be made, but we must not be discouraged because we make mistakes, so long as we learn by our mistakes.

In my humble opinion, it is better to try to do something and make a mistake, than it is to sit still and do nothing.

One thing that we need to remember is that "If we attempt to do today's work with yesterday's tools, we will be out of work tomorrow".

G. WAYNE CUFF, President.

APPROVED SUPPLY PASTORAL RECORD COMMITTEE

Our committee was elected in 1968 to compile, as its name indicates, an up-to-date pastoral record for all approved supply pastors, active and retired. This action was taken to fulfill the adopted recommendation of the Committee on Journal (see recommendation #6, page 1166, 1967 Journal).

Nine persons were elected to the committee. Three meetings have been held. Five members attended every meeting. We realize their terminology for this pastoral category has recently been changed. However, for this report, we shall use the term "approved supply" as given by our election.

Our instruction was to compile this record for the 113 persons listed as supply pastors in the 1967 Journal, pages 1037-39. At our first meeting it was decided to fulfill this purpose and to try to include the record of all listed supply pastors since union (1965), also to compile a personal and family record for these pastors. This was done for two reasons: one, to present a more complete personal file which might be helpful to other boards of the Conference; and two, to free the pastors from numerous questionnaires covering specialized areas.

Statistically our report is:

- 147 approved supply pastors named in these years
- 32 names removed because of death and transfer
- 115 pastoral records to be compiled

107 pastoral records completed
 2 pastors for whom no correct address could be found
 6 pastors who have not responded

115 total

It may be necessary to amend these last three figures at conference time.

We regret our report is only 93% complete. However, when no response was received from our first mailing, a second, then a third request was sent. In addition, members of the committee personally contacted the individuals twice asking their response. Finally the Superintendents were asked to lend the weight of their office to expedite a reply.

We present to this conference as a supplement two reports:

- 1) an alphabetical list of approved supply pastors with their pastoral record through 1968-69; and
- 2) a bound copy of the questionnaires as returned by the approved supply pastors.

Further, we recommend that:

1. The approved supply pastoral record (item 1) be printed in full in the 1969 Journal, 2. The returned questionnaires (item 2) be deposited by the conference secretary in the conference business office with instructions that it shall be kept at that office for the use of other conference boards and committees, and
3. Any District Superintendent appointing an "approved supply pastor" shall secure from him his complete pastoral record and shall submit it in writing to the conference secretary.

WILLIAM H. HUDSON, Chairman
 WILLIAM J. GARRETT, Secretary

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Your Board submits the following report for the year ending April 30, 1969 for your consideration and action.

All communications from our pensioners have been carefully considered, many of which have been cared for by personal contact. Most of the communications deal with matters pertaining to the Necessitous Fund and we have tried to be fair in all these relationships.

A questionnaire was mailed to all our pensioners to ascertain whether or not their pension received was sufficient to care for their needs, and in most cases those to whom we are responsible seem to be grateful for what they receive. However, when additional funds were requested we did our best to oblige.

The Board continues to retain the Lionel D. Eddie & Company as our investment counselors for the Endowment Fund. This arrangement is most satisfactory as our assets have increased materially during the years. Today the book value of our investments is something over $2,000,000 with a market value in excess of $2,325,000.

This conference year we have paid in pensions to our retired ministers in full connection $207,671.00; to widows $176,764.00; to retired supply ministers $26,283.00; to widows of supply ministers $24,539.00; to children $3,092.00; and to the Clearinghouse of the General Board of Pensions $41,899.00; for a grand total of $480,248.00. In addition to this total your Board has distributed $8,395.00 from the Necessitous Fund.

The income to meet the above financial responsibilities was derived from the following sources: Peninsula Annual Conference $395,000; Investments $98,500; N. E. Jurisdictional Equalization Fund $50,147.00; Others $13,810.00 for a grand total of $557,457.00.

For the remainder of the calendar year 1969 the Board requests that the commission on World Service & Finance allocate for pensions $300,000 and that the amount for necessitous cases be $7,500.00. For the calendar year 1970 we request a total of $400,000 for pensions and $10,000 for necessitous cases.

At the invitation of your Board, Dr. Allen Mayes of the General Board, was invited to meet with us to present a study he had made of the options which the conference might use in satisfying the pension liability for which it is responsible.

Again, at the invitation of the Board, representatives from the Baltimore & Virginia conferences met with the group to discuss ways and means of maintaining a closer relationship with conference boards and agencies and the pensioners.

We report that we are not ready at this time to make any recommendations concerning the matters in the above two paragraphs.

We feel we should include in this year's report a recommendation adopted last year as an amendment to the regular report and not appearing in the same. "The Board of Pensions recommends that the rental value of homes for the retired ministers of the Peninsula Annual Conference be excluded from the total annual pension not to exceed the sum of $1,800.00 (Sec. 107:26 CFR 1.107 1: Rental Value of Parsonages. Rev. Rule 63.156, Document No. 5054 (10.66), P.17). This rule does not apply to widows of retired ministers."

We call attention to the provision for "proportional payment" relating to the pension fund as set forth in paragraph 1380.6 of The Discipline, and to the requirement that The Board of Pensions shall "keep a permanent record of defaults of the ministers of the conference who have failed to observe the provisions; to the requirement that "the pastor shall adjust his cash salary and make payment according to the proper ratio (1380.6b); and to the penalty that "on retirement, the amount that a pastor is in default shall be subject to deduction from his pension in accordance with rules and regulations of the specific program under which his pension is provided. (1380.6d)

That is to say that "whenever a conference claimant shall be in debt to the conference, or any of its organizations, on account of unpaid apportionments or required contributions for the pension and benefit programs administered by the Conference Board of Pensions for the annual conference, such debt shall constitute a lien on the annuity of the person involved, and the Conference Board of Pensions shall have power to appropriate and apply his or her annuity, or any part thereof, to the payment of such debt; provided, however, that not more than one-quarter of the annuity payable by the conference in which the debt was incurred, or one quarter of the total indebtedness, whichever is greater, shall be appropriated in any year for such purposes, and, provided, furthermore, that such power shall not be interpreted as applying to the settlement of other debts of a conference claimant."

We would like to call attention to the fact that no legacy has been received during the year. We urge all ministers, laymen, attorneys and others arranging for the disposition of personal estate affairs to keep the church and church institutions in mind.

We recommend that the annuity rate for the conference year be set at $87.00 per year.

The Board wishes to express its appreciation for the courtesy and generosity of Wesley College and its president, Dr. Robert Parker, in making available a comfortable room for its monthly meetings.

The Board is also deeply appreciative to all of its members for their interest and help during the year. A further thanks must go to our loyal and faithful treasurer, Ira S. Pruitt.

Submitted,

WILLARD F. HEISLER, Chairman
HAROLD M. DAVIS, Secretary

PROGRAM COUNCIL

The Annual Conference Program Council met in May, June and November, 1968 and February, March and April, 1969.

A. Council Actions, 1968-69

- (1) Decided that a unified Audio Visual Guide should be prepared.
- (2) Decided to have a survey made of the Annual Conference by Dr. James Davis. Division of National Missions, in regard to: the partial payment of Conference apportionments; the lack of enthusiasm for traditional mission causes; the effect of the merger; and the lack of consensus on Conference programs.
- (3) Began a study on a conference wide stewardship emphasis.
- (4) Set up a committee to undertake a study in regard to Conference program emphasis.
- (5) Set the place of the 1969 Annual Conference at Asbury Church, Salisbury and the dates to be May 13-16.
- (6) Set dates for the 1970 Annual Conference session for May 26-29, 1970.
- (7) Recommended that local churches establish the calendar year as their financial year.
- (8) Concurred with the World Service and Finances decisions (a) not to reopen the Conference group insurance policies for new bids and (b) to make available a new life insurance coverage plan to the Annual Conference.

B. Priorities Committee

The Program Council decided to try and involve as many groups and people in the Annual Conference as possible in a consideration of Annual Conference program priorities or emphases. Therefore, boards and agencies, local churches, groups of ministers and groups of laymen and individuals have been asked to submit their ideas on the Conference program for the next six years. The hope is that a great deal of information and thinking from different people and groups will go into the process of the priorities study. As directed by the Annual Conference of 1968, the Program Council will report, at the conclusion of its study, its findings to the World Service and Finance Commission.

C. Committee on Interpretation

The Committee on Interpretation is an arm of the Program Council which promotes the program of World Service and other benevolences and the work of the Program Council to ministers and local churches. It serves as a means of communication between the Annual Conference and local churches. The chairman of this committee is the Rev. Richard D. Bailey. The committee has done the following things in 1968-69.

- (1) Benevolence Bulletin. Prepared monthly and included in the Minister's Coordinated Mailing. Interprets monthly the financial status of Administration and Benevolence giving.
- (2) Minister's Coordinated Mailing. All mailings of Boards and agencies are coordinated, indexed and mailed monthly to ministers. It is planned that this mailing will soon be sent to the Chairman of the Council on the Ministries.
- (3) Fund for Reconciliation. This responsibility was given to us in June. In September 19 ministers pledged over $23,000 toward our goal of $190,000. Local churches pledged on November 24 (Reconciliation Sunday) or later. Today, half of our goal has been pledged. The committee worked with the Committee of 25 in developing procedures of presentation of the Fund to local churches.
- (4) Conference-Wide Program of Stewardship Education. On June 29, the Program Council gave this committee the responsibility of developing plans for such a program. District stewardship teams were formed, and met at Drayton Center for a retreat led by Dr. Hilbert Berger of the General Board of the Laity. Money management clinics for ministers and wives were conducted on all five districts by Dr. Berger. Dr. Berger met with the Program Council on April 19 to set plans. Dr. Berger speaks to Annual Conference in May, and to the Laymen's Banquet the same evening, as a program of stewardship is launched.
- (5) Implementation of the Davis Report: "Project Feedback". To learn the attitudes of ministers and laity in matters of stewardship and giving. To help develop workable plans in attacking problems of the Annual Conference. To study and evaluate result of merger. The committee worked with Dr. Davis in developing the study, conducting interviews, and preparing the report for presentation to the Program Council in late March.

(6) Unified Audio-Visual Guide. Recommended this in May to the Program Council. Both Guide and merger of A-V Library completed.

(7) Investigation and Study of Promotional Procedures of Other Annual Conferences. To discover how other annual conferences promote World Service and Conference Benevolences. Study completed.

D. TRAFCO

The Television and Film Commission is now a committee of the Program Council. The chairman of the committee is the Rev. Robert Helms.

Along with many other agencies, TRAFCO got quite a bit of shuffling about by the General Conference. Although its initials remain the same, the name has been modified since it is no longer a commission. We are now called "Television, Radio, & Film Communication," a committee of The Program Council. This is true both on the national and the conference level.

One of the first acts of the Peninsula Conference Program Council was the appointment by Bishop Lord of the chairman of TRAFCO. I am deeply honored to have been the recipient of this appointment.

General TRAFCO is the producer or resource provider for three major radio programs: "Night Call," "The World & Music," and "The Place."

"Night Call" is a coast-to-coast telephone call-in program heard on 83 radio stations. Dealing with controversial issues and personalities, listeners may call collect to talk with the host, Del Shields, or his prominent guest. "Night Call" has won many broadcast awards and has received financial assistance from the National Council of Churches and several other denominations. We regret that no station on the Peninsula carries the program as yet. It can be heard by some of our residents over WRTI-FM in Philadelphia or WAMU-FM out of Washington at 11:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

"THE WORD AND MUSIC" is a script service provided by General TRAFCO for the use of local personnel on local stations. The Rev. Donald Hurst is doing an excellent job for his third straight year over WDMV in Pocomoke City, Md. The Rev. Robert Helms is getting a good response for his second year over WNRK in Newark, Delaware. We solicit other pastors to make use of the radio facilities in their area with this highly attractive program. Anyone interested should contact TRAFCO for training and the method of securing air time.

"THE PLACE" is a program designed for modern youth. It analyzes the words of the top 40 records by means of discussion between a host and local youth. TRAFCO, with assistance from Methodist Action Program, sent the Rev. Felton E. May to Pittsburgh for a special workshop in producing "The Place" locally. Time and circumstance have, so far, kept it from seeing the light of day on the Peninsula.

While not a production of General TRAFCO, conference TRAFCO's are very much interested in the placement of "The Protestant Hour" on local outlets. We are pleased to report that we were instrumental in securing a new outlet on WJWL in Georgetown this spring. The program is also heard over WAMS in Wilmington.

In addition to broadcasting, audio-visuals in the use of teaching is a major concern of TRAFCO. Your chairman conducted a very successful AV workshop at the Richardson Park Church last fall. Whenever possible we welcome these opportunities to train local church personnel in the correct use of AV teaching aids.

Unquestionably, the major project of TRAFCO this year was the uniting into one library, all the audio-visuals that have been distributed by local boards and agencies. This was accomplished by the first of the year and is now running smoothly under the able direction of Mrs. Dorothy Saxton at our new Audio-Visual Library, 217 North Bradford Street in Dover. Without the keen interest of three persons this would not have been possible. They are the Rev. Walter Stone, Executive Director of the Board of Education; the Rev. Richard Bailey, Executive Secretary of the Board of Missions; and Mrs. Miriam Shepherd who prepared the unified catalog. We hope this catalog will be available free to all who want it by annual conference.

Finally, the Annual Conference mandated TRAFCO at their last session to tape record and preserve all future sessions of the Annual Conference. We are now making arrangements to do so and these tapes will be on loan for all who care to use them at our AV Library.

E. Recommendations

(1) That the Peninsula Annual Conference designate Thanksgiving Day Sunday as Reconciliation Sunday on which a special offering will be received for the Reconciliation Fund.

(2) That the Peninsula Annual Conference dissolve the Town and Country Commission and that its responsibilities be transferred to the Annual Conference Board of Missions.

JOHN WESLEY LORD,
Chairman.
RICHARD C. STAZESKY,
Secretary.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ON PENINSULA CONFERENCE PUBLIC RELATIONS

During the past year, the office of Public Relations has attempted to provide service to all levels of the Annual Conference in three specific areas:

1. Communications
2. Promotion
3. Public Relations

Communications

A news service has been provided for local churches, boards, agencies, institutions and persons involved in church programs of religious and secular interest. News releases have been issued regularly from the Public Relations Office in the Peninsula Conference Business Office and 100 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D. C., to local and national religious and secular press, radio, television and the wire services. District and local church workshops, although few in number, have been conducted on the refinements of communication as a process, utilizing the technique of lecture-discussion, and audio-visual aids. All audio-visual aids used for this purpose were produced by the director of Public Relations.

Local church and Annual Conference news received continued coverage in the Together Area News Supplement.

Instruction was provided in the preparation of local church newsletters and several churches regularly submitted their publications for review and evaluation.

Promotion

The director of Public Relations has worked closely with the Committee on Interpretation as a consultant on promoting the benevolent concerns of the Conference and has cooperated with several agencies and individuals in regard to their promotional needs. The director is available to speak on topics requiring promotion or interpretation and will assist any Conference board, agency, institution, pastor, employee or local church body in the area of promotion. Graphic art layouts, photos, filmstrips and tape recordings have been produced and made available for promotional use by the director.

Public Relations

Although the most nebulous of the three services, the Public Relations office attempts to provide a function that will aid in building meaningful relationships on a person to person basis within the frame work of the church. This endeavor has been conducted on a local level in small group training sessions designed to enable the local church to become sensitive to the needs of its congregation and community, thereby enhancing a more meaningful Christian relationship between the church and its public. The goal is to develop a genuine "servant role" relationship between churchmen and those they seek to serve. This concept may be applied to all levels of the Annual Conference and consultation in this area is available upon request.

In summary, work has been specifically performed in all of the above areas, to a varying degree, for the Boards of Laity, Missions, Education, The Methodist Action Program, the Committee on Interpretation, Conference Council, Project Equality, TRAFCO, the Fund for Reconciliation, the Women's Society of Christian Service, the Business Office, Hospitals and Homes, Camp PeCoMeth, and local churches of the Peninsula Annual Conference. Two filmstrips have been produced, one on the General Conference Report and the other a documentary on the Manor House and Country House. Radio tapes have been produced and distributed in addition to the items listed under COMMUNICATIONS.

The Committee on Public Relations realizes the urgent need for continued progress in the three primary areas of service, especially in the area of communications at all levels and a definite clarification of the role and responsibilities of the office of Public Relations and its director. Therefore, in keeping with the Discipline of the United Methodist Church, we submit the following recommendations to the Peninsula Annual Conference for consideration and action:

1. The Conference director of public relations shall be employed as an agent of, and amendable to the Annual Conference Program Council or its equivalent.
2. The Conference public relations office shall be the official general news gathering and distributing agency for the Annual Conference and its boards, agencies and institutions. The public relations office may arrange with other conference boards, agencies and institutions for some persons within those organizations to represent the office of public relations in direct release of United Methodist news items to the religious and/or secular press.
3. The Conference director of public relations shall work in close cooperation with the Bishop, Cabinet, Committee on Interpretation, Committee on TRAFCO (Communications) and Committee on Publishing Interests.
4. A district director of public relations shall be appointed to represent each district of the Annual Conference. The district director will be selected jointly by the district superintendent and the Conference director of public relations. The district director, after proper orientation and training, shall encourage the establishment of local church committees on public relations as set forth in paragraph 1397 of the Discipline; conduct district, sub-district and local church public relations seminars, working in these areas under the supervision of the Conference director of public relations and the district superintendent.
5. The Conference public relations office shall have general supervision over planning and public relations procedures for issuing releases throughout the church as related to the Annual Conference. It may encourage and work with district and local church directors of public relations, assist in pastor's schools on public relations and prepare instruction material for local church use concerning public relations.
6. The director of public relations shall assist in the coordination of the promotion of all approved general and conference benevolence causes, including general and conference advance specials, the One Great Hour of Sharing, the Fellowship of Suffering and Service, the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund and shall assume the responsibility for the promotion of approved causes that do not clearly belong to an existing agency, or assist the Program Council Committee on Interpretation in assigning the responsibility as described in paragraph 842 of the Discipline.
7. The director of public relations shall assist the Committee on TRAFCO (Communications), especially in items 1, 2, 4, 6 and 8 of paragraph 843 of the Discipline.

8. The Conference director and/or district directors of public relations shall be available to all Annual Conference boards, agencies, and institutions, and local churches for consultation purposes in the area of public relations, communications, and the preparation of promotional materials.

OLIN J. SHOCKLEY, JR.,
Chairman.

THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

We begin this report by stating what we, as your Committee on Publishing Interests, conceive as our function among you.

We believe that we are organized to help meet the needs of our local churches by providing information concerning the publications, services and supplies of the Methodist Publishing House.

We see ourselves not as agents of M.P.H., but rather as a liaison agency, seeking to interpret and clarify the relationship that exists between our Annual Conference and M.P.H.

In view of this, we report the following:

1.) We have made a serious attempt this year to discover areas of either content or discontent in the service of the House to local churches in the matter of supplies, and we have discovered that basically the service is quite satisfactory.

Let us remind you that there are District Secretaries of this Committee available to you in the event that questions about service arise.

2.) We have conducted a survey of all our churches to seek answers to the "why" of declining "Together" subscriptions, and have concluded that this family magazine has a flavor and a flair that obviously pleases many, but fails to reach many others, and that in this busy life of ours, if "Together" circulation is to be increased it will require a vigorous promotional campaign and constant follow-up.

Perhaps a program of this nature could be carried out at the District level under the guidance of our District Superintendents and in conjunction with our District Committee Secretaries.

3.) Being acutely aware of the present concern in the matter of the relationship between M.P.H. and Project Equality, we, with your Board of Social Concerns, through its chairman The Rev. Clayton Hammond, have scheduled an open meeting on Friday, April 11, at which time Dr. George M. Curry, Associate Publisher of M.P.H. will be present to discuss the position of the House in this regard.

By way of general information, you will be interested to learn that the General Board of Publication, at its annual meeting in October, 1968, appropriated from the proceeds of its publishing operations one million dollars to be distributed to conference claimants during the '68-'69 conference year.

Additionally, The Methodist Hymnal, published in 1966, continues in ever wider usage, with distribution now in excess of four million copies, while Graded Press has produced more than 103 audio-visual projects with 800,000 records and 1,100,000 feet of film, primarily in the form of filmstrips. As well, 110 new titles were published by Abingdon, nine of which were major book club selections during the year, even as Cokesbury continues to expand and improve its bookstore facilities.

It is unquestionably true that with the union of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church, M.P.H. has moved into a new day of increased activities, serving now some eleven million United Methodists.

As We recall the words of Mr. Lovick Pierce, President and Publisher concerning M.P.H.: "We are the servant of the church," so may it be.

RALPH A. ELLIS, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELATIONSHIP WITH CHAPLAINS

Every generation presents a challenge to the church and the forces of right, this present generation is no exception. One of the greatest challenges to the church today is two fold; to bring the church and its message to the people where they are and to present that message in such a way as to make those same people accept it. The church is endeavoring to meet this challenge in many ways, but none stands more on the forefront of this battleline than the minister, known as Chaplain.

The Chaplain is always where the people are, whether it be in the armed services, a veterans hospital, a mental hospital, a juvenile school, or a jail, he is there. Often without the refinements of stained glass windows, pipe organ or other physical appurtenances that help create the atmosphere of worship, he brings the word of God to men, women, boys and girls. He is the confessor to the lonely, the bereaved, the bewildered, the troubled, in the field or in the institution where he serves.

The Chaplain spends much of his time in group and individual counseling where he must speak the simple direct language of the people in order to be able to communicate the Love of God to those he serves.

The Chaplain, wherever he serves, is the church meeting the needs of people. He is your conference representative to many who would never come to the sanctuary of the church of their own free choice until first challenged where they lived by the love and glory of God. He is an evangelist seeking the lost, and leading them patiently into Fellowship with God.

The Methodist Church recognizes the importance of this ministry, calling its well-trained young ministers to serve God in this growing phase of the ministry. New opportunities from institutions and industry are opening up constantly in this challenging ministry. Our minister should give full and serious consideration to meeting this challenge.

The Peninsula Conference has helped to meet this challenge with ten of its ministers serving as full time chaplains, in both the armed services and institutions.

All Chaplains were sent copies of the official Journal of the Conference as approved at our last Conference.

(1) Take time to write and keep in contact with those of our Conference serving in the chaplaincy.

(2) Set aside a Sunday to inform your congregation of the work of the Methodist chaplains both military and institutional.

(3) When an opportunity presents itself, use a chaplain as a guest minister in your church pulpit.

(4) Send all regular monthly ministerial mailages to chaplains to keep them in touch with their home conference.

Respectfully submitted,

H. KIRBY KRAMS, Chairman.

COMMISSION ON SOCIAL CONCERNS

(Referred To Conference Program Council For Study And Recommendation To The Next Conference)

"Make Christian Social Concerns acceptable Christian Witness" throughout the Peninsula Conference is the task to which the Commission has committed itself. The purpose is to provide every member of our Churches with the joy of fulfilling our Lord's commands for love, justice, brotherhood, and equality of all people under the Fatherhood of God.

By "witness" is meant concrete action—the practicing of those virtues that will remove from our midst all vestiges of racism, Black and White. That the hearts and attitudes of all our people will be changed to accept each other without the depriving customs and social differences that have so long kept us from being a truly inclusive Church.

In this regard, this year our primary efforts were directed to the employment practices of our Conference. A questionnaire was sent to all local Churches, offices, and institutions to ascertain what the general practices are in regard to the hiring of non-white persons. In addition, we hoped the questionnaire would be a reminder that racial discrimination in employment is one of our most glaring social problems. Unfortunately, the study supports the conclusion that our conference has to make much progress on this problem.

This is cited to point up that we must yet take some significant steps to become socially responsible according to Christian standards. That is, if our merger is to eventuate into inclusiveness. For there are strong indications that inclusiveness will be primarily measured by the degrees of social responsibility we are able to achieve as a Conference in our response to the status and needs of the Black people of our area, both in and out of the Church.

Consequently, our reports and recommendations are designed to inspire and challenge the social sensitivity necessary to achieve inclusiveness. In Christian spirit we settled the structural problems of merger, and now, let us in the same spirit solve our human problems of merger. To this end, we solicit your full support.

Human Relations And Economic Affairs

A study was made during the Conference year of the hiring policies and practices of the churches and agencies of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

It was found that 95 percent of the churches of the Chestertown, Easton, and Salisbury Districts do not have equal opportunity policies or practices. In the Dover and Wilmington Districts, 65 percent of the churches do not have equal opportunity policies and practices.

The leaders of the church have continually said the time is not right in the rural Districts to enforce nondiscrimination, as it has been elsewhere. The churches of the rural Districts have responded by keeping their hiring policies and practices discriminatory.

It is interesting to note, that half of the questionnaires returned came from White pastors under 35 years of age, and twenty percent came from Black pastors. Of the thirty percent that came from older pastors, almost half were serving churches in the Wilmington District.

The agencies of the Conference questioned were, the Board of Education, the Business Office, the Methodist Action Program, the Homes for the Aged and Wesley College. All the agencies stated that they had made it a policy to be equal opportunity employers. With the exception of the Methodist Action Program, none practices equal opportunity in employment.

This includes the practice of the food service company contracted by Wesley College and the food and housekeeping service company contracted by the Homes for the Aged.

With the single exception of the Associate Executive Secretary of the Board of Education, no one Black has been hired or appointed, nor is now hired or appointed on a permanent basis to any position of responsibility or authority at the Board of Education, the Business Office, the Methodist Homes for the Aged or Wesley College. The explanation given by all is that no Black person has applied with the proper qualifications.

WHEREAS, the Board of Education, the Business Office, the Methodist Home for the Aged and Wesley College have not hired Black persons in positions of responsibility and authority commensurate with the racial composition of the Peninsula Annual Conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula Annual Conference, will not continue to expend money received from Black and White congregations after May 1970 to institutions and agencies that are not in compliance with Project Equality.

WHEREAS, the Methodist Publishing House of the United Methodist Church, with offices in Nashville, Tennessee, is not a sponsor of Project Equality. They have not agreed to follow the directives of Project Equality as they may apply to their own hiring practices and the hiring practices of those companies from whom they buy material and services.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula Annual Conference call upon the Methodist Publishing House to immediately become a sponsor of Project Equality.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all pastors of the Peninsula Annual Conference be urged to mail their "Minister's Courtesy Card" to

Lovick Pierce
President and Publisher
The Methodist Publishing House
201 Eighth Avenue South
Nashville, Tennessee 37202

As a protest against the Methodist Publishing House's defiance of the General Conference mandate on Project Equality.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference prohibit the sales and display of all Cokesbury materials at all conference programs, beginning immediately.

WHEREAS, the starting salary for instructors with a masters degree at Wesley College is $7500.00, and the average salary for college instructors in the Middle Atlantic States Region on a 9-10 month basis is more than $7500.00. The minimum salary for ministers in the Peninsula Annual Conference with equivalent education is by comparison low.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church increase the ministers salary level beginning January 1971, to a basic minimum of $7500.00 for a Conference member.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED, that payment of the pastors salary through the Conference Business Office be considered.

WHEREAS, Project Equality has been officially launched and funded $30,000 a year by the Catholic Church, Jewish Synagogues and other Protestant denominations for five years;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference support Project Equality of Delmarva Inc. by contributing $10,000 a year for the next four and one-half years.

CLAYTON E. HAMMOND,
Chairman.
REV. ROBERT SHORT,
Vice-Chairman.

THE TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION

The town and Country Commission has continued to turn its attention to cooperative ministries and to parish development. In consultation with the conference Board of Missions and with the urban committee of the Board of Missions, the conclusion was reached that the interests of rural churches as well as those of urban churches would best be served by placing an emphasis on the church's mission to the community, and by equipping and structuring for this purpose.

To accomplish this end, the Town and Country Commission feels that the work of this commission, as well as that of the urban committee should be the responsibility of the conference Board of Missions.

This commission recommends that the following guidelines for structuring circuits be adopted by the conference:

- (1) In the alignment of churches on circuits, the alignment be made with the purpose of reaching a goal of 350 members and that such alignments be made regardless of race.
- (2) With the consent of the District Superintendent and pastor, in consultation with representation of said church, a church of less than 50 members, where merger is not advisable or feasible; may be placed on a basis other than every Sunday preaching.
- (3) That parishes be structured and work assignments made so that every church will be under the guidance of a full or associate member of the conference.
- (4) With the consent of the District Superintendent and pastor, in consultation with said church, where advisable and feasible, a small church may be aligned with a larger church rather than aligning a group of small or weak churches together.

C. E. BARTON, JR.,
Chairman.
GEORGE O. COMMODORE,
Exec. Sec.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES PENINSULA CONFERENCE

The end of the Conference Year 1967-68 was the end of the term of office for the following persons: Chairman, Mr. Joseph W. Brosius; Vice-Chairman, Mr. K. Thomas Everngam; and Secretary-Treasurer, The Reverend J. Gordon Stapleton. The present Board of Trustees takes this opportunity to publicly express thanks and appreciation for the extraordinary capability and diligent job performed by the previous officers, and particularly the chairman.

At the organizational meeting, immediately upon adjournment of the 1968 Conference, the Board was organized with Mr. K. Thomas Everngam as Chairman and the Reverends John R. Shockley and William H. Revelle, Jr., Vice-Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer, respectively.

Principal funds of the Board are being administered by the Conference Business Office and its manager, Mr. Theodore Briggs.

During the year, efforts have been made to dispose of unused or abandoned properties, but at the moment no final disposition has been made of any. However, the Board will continue to seek to dispose of all such properties, unless otherwise instructed by the Peninsula Conference.

K. T. EVERNGAM, Chairman.
W. H. REVELLE, JR., Secretary.

WESLEY COLLEGE TRUSTEES

With the graduation this year of the largest class in the history of Wesley College, another milestone has been passed. I know the Peninsula Conference shares my deep sense of pride in Wesley, and my expectation that the institution will continue to grow in excellence, in size, and in ever broadening educational outreach.

The ACADEMIC program again has been enriched. In accordance with recommendation of the Methodist University Senate study, curriculum divisions have been reorganized, some courses added and others dropped, and the doors of innovation widely opened. A new major in Latin American studies has been approved for the 1969-70 academic year, an example of curriculum enrichment.

Except for retirements, all but three of the present strong faculty have renewed their contracts. Dr. Donald D. Douglass, Academic Dean since 1960, has accepted the position of Academic Dean at York College, in York, Pennsylvania. His successor is Dr. Raymond P. Carson, an ordained Methodist minister who has been in education since 1960. He comes to Wesley from Mount Olive Junior College, where he was the Academic Dean since 1965.

Elvin Cavanagh, widely known and respected by this Conference and by his fellows at Wesley, retires in June from his post as Executive Assistant to President Parker. Mr. Cavanagh has been with Wesley since 1959 and has been highly successful in helping develop wide interest in and support of the College.

This year's graduating class includes the first students (8) in the nursing curriculum. Total Nursing students now enrolled are 32, and as of the end of April seventeen entering students are registered for the fall of 1969. The interest of people, organizations and foundations continues in this program, and grants have been received partially undergirding this important part of the academic curriculum.

The PHYSICAL development of the College continues with the present construction of the new Library. It is expected to be in use by the second semester of the new academic year. Destined to become the heart of the academic life of the campus, the new Library will provide every facility for serious study and research. Included in its walls will be a Dial Access Retrieval Center enabling students to pursue intensive personal study through audio and video tapes. The nearly three miles of shelving can eventually accommodate 103,600 books. The Friends of Wesley, Inc., is seeking to raise $20,000 in a special drive as an assist in reaching the hoped-for goal of 40,000 volumes with the opening of the Library. At the current average rate of $8.00 to place a book in use, the eventual value of the educational materials will approach the cost of the building itself.

Other buildings will be needed over the years ahead to complete the facilities. High on the list of priorities, of course, is a College Chapel.

Current STUDENTS seem to be doing better than ever. Fewer failed at the end of the first semester this year. Despite the fact that index requirement for the Dean's List was raised from 3.000 to 3.100, more students achieved this distinction than ever before.

The Trustees and Administration of Wesley are vitally aware of the fact that as a church-supported institution, the College needs to serve the broadest spectrum of students. At present there are 20 Negro students enrolled. Among the applications for positions on the faculty next year is a Negro from Hampton Institute. He has been offered a contract to teach in the field of biology. In the 1969-70 year, $5,000 from the Reconciliation Fund will see two Negro students at Wesley on full scholarship. In the following year, when the decision of the Conference to devote up to one-sixth of its annual support to scholarships for Negro students is implemented, and with the most intense cooperation with the Committee on Higher Education to develop a lively program to locate potential Negro applicants, we feel that Wesley is fulfilling its responsibility toward the Negro community. I urge that ministers of the Conference be constantly on the alert to make referrals of Negro students to the Wesley College Director of Admissions.

Unrest among students on college campuses everywhere in the world is common today. Wesley has by no means missed being touched by this phenomenon. Some confrontations were made this year, and a number of requests were granted. Student participation on faculty committees and the student government organization were strengthened. However, some requests were denied and the Conference may be assured that no concessions will ever be made which will threaten the Character of Wesley College as a first-rate educational, church-related and morally serious institution.

Among outstanding accomplishments by students this year, the Honor Fraternity of Phi Theta Kappa, for the third straight year, placed a winner in nomination for a national office. Mr. Gary Braun, a freshman from Mt. Holly, New Jersey, is the third successive northeastern national representative. He will hold this office through the coming year. Also, the student newspaper, the Echoes, defunct four years ago, was awarded First Class rating in national junior college annual judging.

Finally, the RELIGIOUS life of the College, under the careful planning of Chaplain Wilkins, was marked by the appearance for two days of the distinguished Quaker theologian and philosopher, Elton Trueblood. Such was the impact on the campus that a similar program will be planned for next year. It will probably become a regular College event.

In conclusion, all of us connected with the conduct of the affairs of Wesley College are deeply grateful for the continued support of the Conference. We invite your suggestions, your criticisms, your visits, your financial support, your student referrals, and, above all, your prayers.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM H. CANTWELL, President.
The Board of Trustees of Wesley College

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Women's Society of Christian Service continues its emphasis on study, programs for local societies, and training for officers on all levels of work. For this promotional preparation, the conference officers and designated personnel related to the Conference School of Christian Mission attended the Upper Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission, in June, held at Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pa. Mrs. John Brown, Laurel, Del., chosen as the Woman with Special Concern, in the Peninsula Conference, was invited to attend the school; she presented her "special concern" for retarded children as a part of the Regional School curriculum.

The Conference School of Christian Mission, held at Wesley College, during July, with Mrs. Arthur Benjamin, as dean, followed a pattern similar to that of the Regional School. Mrs. Carlos Crawford, team coordinator, planned the plenary sessions around the three studies: New Forms of Mission (taught by Mrs. Robert Pratt, Phila., Pa.); Southeast Asia (2 classes—taught by Miss Miriam Brattain, of the Board of Missions, New York, N. Y., and the Rev. Richard Bailey, Camden, Del.); The Gospel of John (presented to the entire school by Rev. Robert Zimmerli, of Baltimore, Md.). Classes in the missions studies were available to teachers of children and youth with Mrs. Doris Philips, of Vienna, Md., and the Rev. Richard Bailey, as instructors. Mrs. Wm. Garrett, chairman of leadership development, introduced four of the delegates to the 1968 Uniting Conference, Mr. John Kelso, Mr. James Hardcastle, Rev. John Shockley and Dr. Howard Amoss; each presented highlights of the conference. Literature sales for the school totaled $1,078.48. The aggregate attendance was 250.

The Wesleyan Service Guild enjoyed a Weekend Study at Drayton Manor, in September, with excellent representation from the local guilds. Mrs. Sylvanus Browne, Guild Chairman, selected The Miracle of Dialogue, by Reuel Howe, for study. The Rev. Omro Todd directed the study; on the closing day he administered the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

The Conference Executive Committee was responsible for two meetings: 1. The Day Apart, held in Waugh United Methodist Church, Cambridge, Md., under the leadership of Mrs. Howard Bailey, Chairman of Spiritual Growth. The Rev. Howell O. Wilkins, Superintendent of Wilmington District, and the Rev. Howard Bailey, Associate Executive Director, Board of Education, gave inspirational messages. 2. Officer Training, at Drayton Manor, for district officers was an overnight experience: New Bylaws were thoroughly studied; procedure in local programs planning was discussed; district officers projected future promotional activities.

District Day Apart Services (Chestertown, Dover, Easton, Salisbury) had an approximate attendance of 430. Wilmington District is planning a Retreat at Drayton Manor during April.

Charter Services for the new Women's Society of Christian Service proved to be a fruitful venture, especially when the Agape' Feast was included. Gethsemane Society, Reliance, Del., reported an increase of 10 new members from among the younger women. The comments relative to the Charter Services were gratifying. However, a number of societies have not submitted the Charter Certificates for the president's signature.

Neighborhood House, under the direction of Miss Mary White, is involved in "outreach" in the areas of communication, local leadership and inter-agency co-operation, trying through these, to identify the service potential of, and the response from Neighborhood House, to the needs of the community.

Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Chairman of Christian Social Relations attended CONVO '69, in Washington, D. C., in March; she will attend a "Spin-off", in Trenton, N. J. during April, for a World Understanding Workshop, to be held in Wilmington, Del., at a later date. Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Orien Mangum, Vice President, plan to attend the National Conference on Extremism, in May, at Oklahoma Center, Norman, Oklahoma.

Four delegates from the Conference Women's Society were in attendance at a Special Regional Meeting of the General Board of Missions, last October, in Philadelphia, Pa. New forms of mission were presented at the session. The films, These Four Cozy Walls and Biafra were previewed.

The Pledge to Missions was $94,300.00 after cultivation deduction. We have exceeded this amount by $4,000.00, paying to date $96,421.47. The Call to Prayer and Self Denial offerings totaled $3,625.02.

Thirty-eight women from Peninsula Conference attended the Centennial Celebration of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Boston, Mass., in March, sponsored by the Northeastern Jurisdiction Society/Guild. The experience was both rewarding and appalling: Rewarding, as the birth and growth of the W.F.M.S. unfolded in drama; appalling, as the play Charley and the Man with the Upside Down Eyes, by Richard Waters and his Fisherman's Players of Cape Cod, was enacted, giving those in the audience (about 1000) an insight into real problems our Post Modern World and the conflict between parents and children, between congregations and their leaders, the military and the new left, the establishment and those who feel trapped by the status quo.

Annual Meetings of the District Societies will be held April 14 through 18, with Miss Eunice Slyter, missionary on furlough from Lucknow, India, as speaker.

Officer Training, for newly elected district officers and conference nominees, is to be held in Trinity United Methodist Church, Harrington, Del., on Monday, May 5th. Miss Murden Woods, Regional Staff person, Women's Division, Washington Area, will guide the session.

The Annual Meeting of the Conference Women's Society of Christian Service will convene on Thursday, May 22, 1969, in Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church, Seaford, Del. Mrs. Kenneth Barto, president of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Society/Guild will be the morning speaker. Bishop John Wesley Lord will give the installation message, and install the newly elected officers.

Meetings attended by the conference president include the following: Jurisdictional Conference in July, at Buckhannon, W. Va.; the Annual Meeting of the Women's Division and the Board of Missions during January, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; in February, the Jurisdictional Meeting of COSMOS (Committee on Structure of Methodism Overseas) in Philadelphia, Pa.; three meetings of the Quadrennial Emphasis Committee, two in Chicago and one in St. Louis, Missouri. She has been in attendance at conference and district meetings, whenever possible. In addition to the administrative responsibilities she has spoken in many local societies within the conference.

In this, my fourth and last report, as conference president, I express my sincere appreciation to Bishop John Wesley Lord, for his kind and gracious attitude; to the District Superintendents, for their consideration; to the District Executive Committees, and the Local Societies, as they endeavored to fulfil their obligations; to the Conference Executive Committee, which worked closely and faithfully with me; and to my husband, for his love, support and sacrifice during my four year tenure in office. It is with gratitude and reverence to Almighty God that I conclude this report.

SARAH H. GARRETT (Mrs. William J.)
President.

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

The Commission on Worship has held several meetings during the year. At this writing the Commission is still trying to implement the report adopted by the 1968 Annual Session, which can be found on pages 228-232 of the 1968 Official Journal. Limited finances plus limited response to two notices in the Coordinated Mailing has greatly slowed the project though it appears at this writing that the funeral brochures will soon be available, which should be before the meeting of the Annual Conference.

It is expected that seven or eight individuals from the Conference will attend the National Convocation on Worship being held at St. Louis, April 21 thru 24. The chairman of the Commission and the Reverend Mr. Widmon Butler were selected as representatives of the Commission. Other members of the Annual Conference are attending, some being supported by their local churches, and some on their own.

Your Commission feels that instruction in conducting of worship and the meaning of worship, the use of our denominational resources in worship are all areas that could bear high-lighting both from a pastor's standpoint and also for the average layman. To this end, the Commission will be seeking to secure an invitation from each District Ministerium during the fall or early winter 1969-70. The request will be to each district to make available to the Commission on Worship the entire time of one meeting for the purpose of study and evaluation of worship in the local church. The Commission plans to develop a program with a variety of ingredients, and to prepare and train a team to carry out the program in each district.

The Commission seeks to create an interest and an understanding of needs and possibilities in worship in the local church situation in these meetings. It will then seek to follow them up with District Convocations on Worship, aim basically at local Commissions on Worship, and other interested laymen.

When the funeral brochures have been widely distributed, the Commission will be seeking reaction as to their effectiveness to determine the wisdom of developing brochures for the local congregation in other areas.

EDWIN C. THOMAS, JR.

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

During the past year the following actions were taken by this Commission:

1. Appointed representatives to the Committee on Ministers' Benefits—Howell O. Wilkins, John E. French, Otis F. Figgs (From the Board of Pensions—President and Vice President).
2. Historical Society—granted $798 for 1968/69 Conference Year.
3. Appropriations to various Conference boards and agencies—That not more than 80% of an agencies 1968/69 budget be allotted during the year.
4. Ministerial Items in the Apportionment—Notified each charge that 36.7% of the 1968/69 budget and apportionment is attributable to Board of Pensions, District Superintendents' Fund, Minimum Salary Fund, and Episcopal Fund. Apportionment payments falling below this percentage requirement, make the pastor's salary subject to pro-ration.
5. Special Appointments—This Commission will authorize payment of pension claims for special appointments to Conference agencies only.
6. Borrowing Funds—No board or agency of the Peninsula Conference be allowed to borrow funds without first consulting this Commission.
7. Committee on Interpretation—granted $2,500 for 1968/69 Conference Year, $2,500 to be pro-rated to each board and agency based on budget percentages.
8. Special Meetings—two special meetings were held in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware to amend the name of this Corporation to include "United"—"Commission on World Service and Finance of the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc."
9. World Service Apportionment—paid 90% or $125,120 of the $139,022 World Service apportionment for the period June 1, 1968 to December 31, 1968.
10. Homes for the Aged—granted $3,500 for partial payment of the audit of the Peninsula Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc.
11. Commission on Worship—granted $350 for 1968/69 Conference Year.
12. Apportionment 1969 (8 months)—to be two-thirds of the 1970 apportionment.
13. Property Insurance—requested the insurance firm of Weymouth and Smith to review Conference property insurance coverages and make recommendations.
14. Auditing—That the records of the Conference be audited after the close of the eight-month year and to include 1968/69 and the eight-month year or a twenty-month audit.
15. Drayton Methodist Center—endorsed the continued operation of the Center.

This Commission makes the following recommendations for consideration and adoption:

1. That the Conference change to a Calendar Year effective January 1, 1970 and operate on an eight-month year from May 1, 1969 to December 31, 1969.
2. That the 100% rule on payments to Conference Boards and Agencies be rescinded and actual cash received be paid. Payments may be advanced on a monthly basis not to exceed 60% of budget in 1969 and 80% of budget in 1970 with any remaining balance to be paid at the end of the Conference Year. If receipts from the local churches are at a level that would not justify advancing the Boards 60% in 1969 and 80% in 1970, the percentages will be adjusted by the Finance Commission. In the event funds are not received to a point where salaries of any Board or Agency will be covered, all benevolent budget items to share in shortage of salary funds proportionately.
3. That the maximum travel allowance for pastors be increased to $1,500 per year effective May 1, 1969.
4. That all boards and agencies operating under the authority of the Annual Conference be audited by Coe, Lukens and Bumpers.
5. That the per diem payments paid by the Annual Conference be discontinued, except for retired ministers, and that the local church pay the costs of their delegates. (DEFEATED BY CONFERENCE ACTION)
6. That churches which fail to pay at least 75% of their Conference apportionments be reviewed yearly by their District Superintendent and the Conference Board of Missions; and if necessary, have its status changed to that of a mission church or even closed. (AMENDED BY THE CONFERENCE TO READ: "That churches which fail to pay their Conference apportionments be reviewed yearly by their District Superintendent and the Conference Board of Missions.)

7. That upon the recommendation of the District Superintendent that more than the maximum 10% decrease in apportionments be allowed. (AMENDED BY THE CONFERENCE TO READ: "That upon the recommendation of the Cabinet that more than the maximum 10% decrease in apportionments be allowed.)
8. That the 1970 budget for Public Relations be conditional subject to another hearing from the Committee on Public Relations and Area Information. (DEFEATED BY CONFERENCE ACTION)
9. That in the event the total budget is not met, priority be given in the following order: AMENDED BY CONFERENCE TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
  1. Board of Pensions
  2. Episcopal Fund
  3. General Church Administration
  4. Conference Administration and Debt Retirement and Capital Improvements
  5. Benevolences and World Service
10. That .49 be the factor to be applied to the Net Expenditure Method of apportionment during the 1970 Conference Year.

Net Expenditures are determined as follows:

Total Expenditures for Local Church	$.....
Less: Principal & Interest on Old Indebtedness	$.....
Paid for Building and Capital Improvements	.....
WSCS	.....
Cash Salary Increases Paid Pastor	.....
Net Expenditures	$.....

11. The following shall be the World Service/Conference Benevolence ratio for 1970:

	1969 (8 months)
World Service	$238,338	32.3%	31.5%
Conference Benevolences	499,586	67.7%	68.5%
	<hr/> $737,924	<hr/> 100.0%	<hr/> 100.0%

12. The 1969 (8 months) and the 1970 budgets are a part of this report, and their adoption is recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

OTIS F. FIGGS, President.

Rev. William O. Hackett
Vice President
Rev. Otho G. Brewer, Jr.
Secretary

MEMOIRS

JOHN RICHARD BICKING

John Richard Bicking, son of John Wesley and Lizzie Jane Bicking, was born in Wilmington, Delaware June 21, 1884. As a young man he served four years as an apprentice draftsman believing this would be his life's work. But this was not to be. In early life he was associated with and a member of Union Methodist Church of that city. Being thus reared in a Christian environment, he was led to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Soon after this experience he felt a powerful challenge and a dynamic call to the Christian ministry. There was no hesitation on his part; he followed where his Master led. He had now discovered his proper niche in life. Thus at the age of twenty-three he applied for admission to the Wilmington Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was received on trial in 1907 and given his first pastorate in Elk Neck. He was ordained Deacon in 1909 and Elder in 1911. In 1906, a year before his ministry began, he met and married Elsie McDowell, a fine Christian lady who proved to be of great help to him in his chosen profession. By this marriage two children, Willard and Paul, came to bless their home. In time her health failed, and she was called to her eternal reward in 1923 while serving our Salem church in Pocomoke City. Her death left a void in his life that only God and time could alleviate. Three years after the demise of his wife, after an appropriate courtship, he married Lucille Holland of Pocomoke City who was destined to grace his parsonage life. By this marriage another son, Richard, was born.

Many and varied were Rev. Bicking's activities as a minister. He held many official positions in the conference aside from his local ministerial duties. Among them were his serving as secretary of the conference for seventeen years and an additional thirteen years as assistant secretary. For more than thirty years he was conference director of children's work. He also served many years as director of the Brandywine Camp near Wilmington. Thus he spent his vacations in this capacity in the work that he loved so well. In 1947 he was appointed superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Delaware to which he gave one year of his service. In addition to these extra-ministerial duties, he was also elected twice to the jurisdictional conference.

During his long ministerial career Rev. Bicking served fourteen pastorates covering a span of forty-five years. During this period he served four years at our church in Berlin where he made his home after retirement in 1952. But this was not to be the end of his ministry. Even in retirement he served a three year pastorate in Newark, Maryland which was near his home. Retirement gave him opportunity to pursue his hobbies of painting and gardening some of which he had done while in the active work.

The writer has been his pastor for the past five years. A fine Christian gentleman he has proven to be. He never gave advice unless it was requested and then he gave it lovingly. Failing health brought a decrease in his activities. In 1963 an accident left him with a broken lower limb. Three years ago he suffered a stroke from which he never fully recovered. His last few declining months were spent in residence at the Spring Hill Nursing Home in Salisbury where he answered God's final summons on April 19, 1969 in the eighty-fourth year of his age.

Surviving are his wife, Lucille; three sons, Willard, of Baltimore, Paul, of Salisbury; and Richard, of Elkton; three grandsons; a granddaughter; and three great grandsons.

A memorial service was conducted by the writer with the assistance of the District Superintendent, the Rev. Mr. Dale L. Ruth on the afternoon of April 22nd, in the Burbage Funeral Home in Berlin. Interment was in Berlin's Evergreen cemetery.

Rev. Bicking's life was certainly a benediction to those who knew him. A seventeenth century poet has expressed such a benediction as must have been his:

For God preserves the souls of those Who on His truth depend;
To them and their posterity
His blessings shall descend.

FREDERICK H. TRUITT.

ROY SAMUEL ENNIS

Roy Samuel Ennis the son of the late Harry Ennis & Janie Ennis of Hebron, Md. born Nov. 12, 1912. He attended the public schools of Wicomico, graduating from Salisbury High School. In his early years he joined St. Luke Methodist Church at Hebron, Md. Under the leadership of the late Rev. O. H. Jones he began his local ministry. Being moved by the Spirit to continue in the ministry he attended the Pastor's School of the Baltimore area of the Delaware Conference, Harper Ferry, Va. He was married to the Miss Ada Hall and from this union one daughter was born. As he saw the need for a better education to lead his congregations, he then attended Maryland State College at Princess Anne, Md. He held pastorates at White Haven, Md., Hutt's Memorial at Snow Hill, Upper Hill, Md., Keller, Va., and Wesley Circuit, Crisfield, Md. On Nov. 7, 1968 he suffered a heart attack and passed away shortly thereafter. On Nov. 11, appropriate services were held at Asbury United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Dale Ruth, Superintendent of the Salisbury District, assisted by Edward W. Lee and Emerson Jolly. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Royaline Ennis; his mother Mrs. Janie Ennis; one sister Miss Roxie Ennis; Two brothers Marion and Rufus Ennis of Hebron, Md.

God is my strong salvation what foe have I to fear
In darkness and temptation my light my help is near Though a host encamp me, firm in the fight I stand
What terror can confound me With God at my right hand.

EDWARD W. LEE.

REV. HAROLD FORDHAM

Harold Fordham, son of Mary and Adam Fordham was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania August 22nd, 1892. He received his education in the Philadelphia public schools and Neffs' Psychology School of Philadelphia.

He married Mabel Irene Goodman of Philadelphia October 3rd, 1913.

When he was called to preach, he entered Taylor University of Upland, Indiana in 1923. Here he and his wife received their local preachers license in 1925. Later he felt the call to enter the Mission work and served in the Rescue Missions of Charleston and Hixton, West Virginia.

In 1927, he came to the Eastern shore of Maryland and preached ten years in the Baptist Churches at Rehobeth, East New Market and Hurlock.

He came back to the Methodist conference in 1937 and was ordained an Elder. He served at Ellendale, Tilghman, St. Georges, Clarksville, Pittsville charge, Hillsboro and North East West Cecil Circuit.

One of his happiest works was the singing of the Gospel. He was a true, faithful and dedicated servant of his Lord.

He belonged to the Masonic Lodge #30, A.M. and F.M. of Millville, Delaware and Nur Temple of Wilmington.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter Mrs. Joseph Kelley, a son Richard and eight grandchildren.

He passed to his Heavenly Home February 1st, 1969. Funeral services were held from St. Georges church in Clarksville with the Dr. Hartwell Chandler, Rev. Melvin Tingle and Rev. John Massimilla. Burial was in St. Georges Cemetery Feb. 5th.

"Should you go first and I remain
One thing I'll have you do,
Walk slowly down that long, long path
For soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take
So I may take the same,
For some day down that lonely road,
You'll hear me call your name".

MABEL FORDHAM.

JOHN LEAS GREEN

John Leas Green was born on April 23, 1895, in Amelia, Virginia, the son of the Reverend Alonza Harris Green and Anna Mae Leas Green. He graduated from the Selbyville High School, Selbyville, Delaware, in 1912. He received his A.B. degree from Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland, in 1916 and his B.D. degree from the Westminster Theological Seminary, Westminster, Maryland, in 1919.

On June 25, 1918, in Leemont Methodist Protestant Church, Leemont, Virginia, he was united in marriage to Carrie Lee Matthews. Officiating clergymen were the Reverend John N. Link, the Reverend H. B. Jester and his father, the Reverend A. H. Green.

J. Leas Green, on April 5, 1919, was received into the membership of the Maryland Annual Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church. On the following day he was ordained an Elder. His father assisted in the ordination service held in Lowe Memorial Methodist Protestant Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Assisted by his lovely and gracious wife, he served faithfully and successfully the following appointments: - 1919, Maryland: 17-18 Melvin Chapel; 19-20 Hurlock; 21-24 Mt. Olivet, Va.; 24-33 Edmondson Ave. (Balto); Mar. and Pen.- 34-56 - Salisbury-Bethesda; 57-62, Dist. Supt. Easton Dist. 63 - Retired.

Mrs. Carrie Lee Green, in 1967, had a severe heart attack. A month later she went home to be with her Lord and to be with her loved ones and friends who had preceded her.

In 1935, the honorary degree, Doctor of Divinity, was conferred upon J. Leas Green by his alma mater, Western Maryland College, and in 1940 he was elected a member of the Board of Trustees. He loved his College and during his membership of 29 years, he served on two important committees, the Committee on Degrees and the Executive Committee of which he was the secretary.

He was a General Conference delegate from the Maryland Conference in the former Methodist Protestant Church. In the union of the three Methodist churches in 1939, he participated as a member of the Uniting Conference.

In the new Methodism, he served the general church as a member of the Coordinating Council.

When the Peninsula Conference was organized on October 31, 1939, Dr. Green became the Chairman of the Committee on World Service and Finance. Under his able leadership, this important Conference Committee formulated plans and procedures that laid a good foundation for a stable and efficient financial management of conference funds.

Dr. Green was a gifted preacher, an able administrator, an effective pastor and a good husband and father.

On April 12, 1968, he married the charming and delightful sister of his first wife, Mrs. Susie Matthews Burkins, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lorenzo W. Marsey, in Catonsville, Md.

In September of 1968, Dr. Green was taken ill, spending many months in the hospital, seeking relief from intense pain and hopefully, recovery of health.

Early in the morning on Palm Sunday, March 30, 1969, he quietly passed on to report in person to the King of Kings - Christ, his Saviour and King, whom he loved and served in a ministry of more than a half century. He died at his own home in Catonsville, Md., surrounded by his faithful wife and children.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 1, 1969, in Bethesda Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland. Interment was in the Liberty Cemetery in Parksley, Va. - a few hours later. Participating clergymen were Dr. Alton S. Miller, Claymont, Del., the Reverend Herbert L. D. Daggett, Catonsville, Md., Dr. Kenneth R. Rose, Salisbury, Md. and Dr. J. Earl Cummings, Wilmington, Del.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Susie Matthews Green, of Catonsville, Md., he is survived by four children; Mrs. Lorenzo W. Marsey, Catonsville, Md., Mrs. C. R. Schaeffer, Cooksville, Ontario, Canada, Mrs. Thomas J. Halley, Towson, Md., Mrs. Robert L. Sawyer, Catonsville, Md., twelve grandchildren and one great grandchild survive.

Dr. Green is also survived by one brother and four sisters, Alonzo H. Green, Mardela, Md.; Mrs. Freely Nelson, Crisfield, Md.; Mrs. Anna Dougherty, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Esther Butler, Damascus, Md.; Mrs. Homer Hendrix, Hungerford, Pa.

J. EARL CUMMINGS.

ROBERT ELLSWORTH GREEN

Robert Ellsworth Green was born in Wilmington, Delaware, and died in the Beebe Hospital, Lewes, Delaware. Bob would have had it this way: his last appointment with God on this earth in his native state he so greatly loved. Death came quietly on the morning of July 5, 1968, and Heaven's Who's Who inscribed another name.

For forty years Bob preached the Good News and lived his message. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ, an effective pastor in the home, and a lover of people. He had an old fashioned passion for souls, a strong conviction as to the worth of pastoral visitation, and a concern for human need like unto the prophet. Precious memories abide with those for whom he held high the Light, with those who heard his conversations and prayers, and in those hearts helped in seasons of distress and grief.

Robert Green expressed his interest and did service outside his pulpit. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a Rotarian, and a former trustee of Wesley College. As Grand Chaplain of Delaware Masons he toured the state and made many friends. As Rotarian he was an inspiring example among men of the Four Way Test. As Educator he promoted advanced learning for his young people. He himself was a graduate of Wesley Collegiate Institute, Washington College and Boston University.

Robert Green was successful in several pastorates of the Eastern Shore. He twice served the writer's home church, Asbury, Crisfield, Maryland. From there he retired and moved to Salisbury. The family worshipped at Trinity where a long lasting friendship was continued.

The funeral service was held in the First United Methodist Church, Chestertown, Monday, July 8, 1968. The pastor, the Rev. Walter L. Beckwith officiated, and was assisted by district superintendents, Dr. Dan Ridout and the Rev. Dale Ruth. The writer, by request, gave the memorial address.

Surviving the good minister and faithful pastor are his widow, Cora McWhorter Green, two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Wells and Mrs. Jerome Weidmer, and a son, Major Robert E. Green, Jr.

When the anxious hearts say, 'Where?'
He doth answer, 'In My care.'
'Savior, tell us, where are they?'
'In My keeping, night and day.'
'Tell us, tell us how it stands'
'None shall pluck them from My hands.'

WILLIAM EDMOND MARKS

The Rev. William Edmond Marks was born July 2, 1894 in British Guiana, South America. In the very early years of his life he was orphaned by the death of his parents. Following the death of his parents, he was reared by his maternal grandparents. It was necessary for him and his grandparents to work very hard together in order that he might obtain the basic training necessary to enable him eventually to enter the Christian ministry, first in the Wesleyan Methodist Church of his homeland and finally in The Methodist Church in the United States of America. His grandparents were Congregationalists. It was, therefore, only natural that his early years were spent in the church of his grandparents. He was moved later in life to enter the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

After entering the Wesleyan Methodist Church, it was not long before he felt the call to preach and soon obtained local preacher's license. Through the aid of his grandparents, he was able to receive a good elementary and high school education. He also attended private school in his native land. It was his desire to go either to London, England or the United States of America to further his education. He finally settled on coming to America.

In August of 1920 he embarked for America. His coming to America was by no means all a voyage of pleasure. He knew what it was to work hard to make possible his passage to the land which was to become his new home and, in which he would realize his ambition to make further preparation for the ministry. On entering the United States, he entrained immediately for Atlanta, Georgia. Upon reaching Atlanta, he enrolled in Gammon Theological Seminary, and graduated from there in 1923. Following his graduation from the seminary, he was admitted to the New England Conference and assigned to Worcester, Massachusetts. He received his Deacon's and Elder's orders in the New England Conference. In 1928 he was transferred from the New England Conference to the former Delaware Conference.

On October 21, 1925 he was united in holy wedlock to Mary Adrianna Evelyn. During the years of their marriage they were blessed with three children, Doris, now Mrs. Doris Childs; William, who preceded his father in death; and Emily, now Mrs. Emily Bray. During the years of his ministry his wife proved in every respect to be "a help meet for him". Together they served acceptably the following charges: Worcester, Massachusetts, Lincoln, Delaware, Rock Hall, Maryland, Mardela, Maryland, Seaford, Delaware, North Berlin, Maryland, Crisfield, Maryland, Dover, Delaware, and Smyrna, Delaware. In 1960 he took the retired relation, only to find that he could not remain in retirement for he was called upon to serve again as pastor of the following charges: Nassau, Delaware and Crisfield, Maryland for a second time. The fact he was called a second time to be the pastor at Crisfield was an indication of the high esteem in which he was held by the people of that charge. They were given the choice of several names of ministers who could be assigned to the charge; when the choice was made, his name, like that of "Abou Ben Adhem", led all the rest.

He was a very efficient pastor and leader and also an excellent preacher. He was gifted with a very good sense of humor. This trait in him did much to endear him to both ministers and laymen. His sense of humor was evidenced in his daily associations with people. When Sunday came, the humor was always left at the Church door. It was always an inspiration to observe him conduct a service of worship on Sunday. He was always the serious man sent from God with a message for the people of God.

He was held in high esteem by those who knew him. He was a lovable person and a tireless worker who was able to inspire others to give of their best to the Master in service. He did not think of himself in the work he was called upon to perform; he gave himself for others and was never one to contend or clamor for place or position. He was content to serve to the very best of his ability wherever he was sent.

Rev. Marks was called to his eternal reward on Sunday, December 29, 1968. The funeral service was held at Whatcoat Church, Dover, Delaware on January 4, 1969. The Rev. Hartwell Chandler, the district superintendent of the Dover District conducted the service. Interment was at Seaford, Delaware.

"Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord henceforth . . . that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them."

MARION O. BALLARD.

WILLIAM CLARENCE ROLAND MILLS

William C. R. Mills, one of the bravest soldiers ever to fight in the army of our Lord, departed this life on April 25, 1969, in Veterans Hospital, at Elsmere, Delaware, after several years of failing health.

He was born in Kent County, Maryland, on Tolchester Road, near Fairlee and Rock Hall, in the local community called Georgetown. He was reared in Baltimore, where he received his elementary and high school education. He attended Bethune-Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Florida, where he became a staff member.

Subsequently choosing the ministry as his lifework, he returned to his native Conference and was admitted to the Delaware Conference in 1946, serving the Denton, Royal Oak, Cambridge Circuit, Townsend, Del., and Coleman, Md., charges in the Delaware Conference. His charge was combined with the former Still Pond charge with merger of the Delaware and Peninsula Conferences in 1965, and is now known as the Still Pond-Coleman charge.

He was retired in 1967, but was appointed by District Superintendent Daniel L. Ridout to assist in the five point circuit of the Millington-Pondtown charge, where he served faithfully until forced to give up his work in December, 1968. He had been an able pastor and was greatly beloved by his people wherever he served. From 1917 to 1919 he served honorably in the United States Army in World War I.

His faithful widow, Mrs. Frances Winchester Mills, attended him with genuine courage and patience through his long illness. They were residing in their new home at Barclay, Md. Besides his widow, he is survived by two step-daughters by a previous marriage, several cousins, and a host of friends.

Brother Mills never complained during his long illness. When asked how he felt, he would always say, "Just fine." He loved children and music.

His life was filled with joy and beauty. We will miss him!

Funeral services were held at Coleman, in the Union Church which he had served ten years, on Wednesday, April 30, Superintendent Ridout presiding. Tributes were paid by Dr. Ridout and the Rev. Paul R. Hilton, with whom Brother Mills had served originally on the Millington-Pondtown Circuit. The writer, present pastor at Millington-Pondtown, delivered the eulogy. Many pastors from throughout the Peninsula Conference were in attendance to honor a brother greatly beloved. Interment was in the Coleman cemetery.

GEORGE HENRY FIGUERON, JR.

George Henry Figueron, Jr. was born April 13, 1908 in New York City, the son of George Henry Figueron and Josephine Douglass Figueron. He was one of three children. He received his education at Baynard School for Boys, New York City, American University, Washington, D. C., Eastern Baptist Seminary, Philadelphia, and Westminster Theological Seminary, Westminster, Maryland, where he was awarded his theological degree.

On March 28, 1931 he married Miss Margaret Heck at St. Paul's Methodist Church, Ocean Grove, New Jersey. Of this union were born four children: George Henry Figueron, III, Associate Minister, Union Church, Mexico City; Margaret Ann McMillan, wife of Navy physician, Dr. Donald McMillan; Elizabeth Jean Figueron, Medical Social Director, Wilmington General Hospital, Wilmington, Delaware; William Douglas Figueron, pastor of Cedars Methodist Church, Cedars, Delaware.

During his ministry he served the following churches: Lovely Lane Methodist Church, Baltimore, Maryland, as associate pastor; Vienna Methodist Church, Vienna, Maryland; Bethany Methodist Church, Pocomoke City, Maryland; Union Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware.

Death's call came suddenly on September 17, 1968. He was buried at Gracelawn Memorial Park, Wilmington, Delaware.

Under his direction the Methodist Country House and the Methodist Manor House were erected as expressions of the Peninsula Conference's concern for older persons. Another project near to his heart was the construction of twenty-four low cost houses on the East side of Wilmington, made available to deserving persons at a price considerably below cost. His increasing social concern led to the establishment of a young black man in the grocery business in Wilmington, in cooperation with the Methodist Action Program.

At the time of his death, he was actively interested in many phases of the ministry. He was a member of the Greater Wilmington Development Council, Chaplain of the Wilmington City Council, and a member of the Delaware Commission for the Aging. He had been for years a member of the board of the Sunday Breakfast Mission.

The life of this man was a many-faceted diamond, with each polished surface reflecting the glory of God.

He was a preacher of the Eternal Gospel whose message was like a trumpeted reveille, rousing men to action.

He was a man of vision, whose mind penetrated the misty boundaries of the present and saw clearly a future yet to be; beholding the form and symmetry of buildings of man yet unbuilt.

He was a man of vast drive; following his vision with all of the energies of mind and body, he pursued them until they assumed palpable shape and mass.

He was a man of courage, daring to carry his lantern of truth into the pockets of darkness of this world.

He was a man of immense freedom. Traditional barriers meant nothing to him as he encountered, challenged, and loved men in the name of Christ.

He was a man of rugged faith, believing not only in God but in man. He fully believed that the divine in man would rise in response to the divinely-inspired word and act of man; and so he found a following where other men found only apathy.

He was a man of decision, capable of seeing to the heart of a matter, sifting the important from the unimportant, winnowing the wheat from the chaff.

He was a man of business. The experiences of his early life in the business world served him well; and with the wisdom of his mature years added to this central core of experience, he became a man of stature among men of practical affairs.

He was a witness to men and women of their stewardship under God, challenging them to dedicate and use their resources in the name of the Ultimate Possessor of all things.

He was a man of tender, Christ-like compassion, whose eyes grew misty as he beheld the suffering and need of mankind.

He was a man of magnificent dedication, who saw a high altar, reaching from earth to heaven; and upon that altar he prostrated himself—"a living sacrifice." For a number of years, George Figueron was identified as "The Circuit Rider" through a television and radio program featured under this name.

It was the personal privilege of the writer of this memoir to work with this man of true Christian greatness, and his personal grief, shared by thousands, to see the tall noble form waver as it stood silhouetted against the bright skies of his dreams, then fall, leaving wordless silence where before there had been music and laughter, and the voice of jubilant devotion.

He would say to those who knew him, "Mourn my death but briefly, friends; then turn your hands, your hearts, and your pocket books toward the needs of God's children who are still in the struggle of life!"

CARSON JEROME WILLIAMS

Carson Jerome Williams was born in Marion Station, Md., June 20, 1910, and departed this life in Philadelphia, Pa., on Thursday, April 3, 1969. He was the son of the late Jerome W. and Bernice Ward Williams.

He was educated in the public schools of Crisfield, Md., at Bowie (Md.) State College; Clark College, Atlanta, Ga., and Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, graduating from the last named institution in 1935.

He faithfully served charges in all sections of the former Delaware Conference, from Keller, Va., to White Plains, N. Y. After 30 years in the ministry he was forced to retire because of failing health.

In 1941, he volunteered for service in the United States Army, and served four years as chaplain overseas. He held membership in the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, and gave much of his time to this organization. He was a warm, lovable person and naturally drew people to himself. His friends were persons representing many walks of life. His smile was one of genuine friendship and love.

He is survived by one brother, George, of Washington, D.C., and three sisters: Mrs. Eunice (John E.) Bishop of Bridgeton, N.J., and the Misses Lucille and Evangeline Williams of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held at Tindley Temple, Philadelphia, April 7, the Rev. Marion O. Ballard, pastor, officiating and delivering the eulogy. Others paying tributes were the Revs. Wm. P. Stevenson, Dennis R. Fletcher, Elmer P. Gibson, and Mr. Eldridge Waters, the last named a school administrator in Wilmington, Del. Interment was in Arbutus Memorial Park, Baltimore.

Carson has "fought the good fight, he has finished the course, he has kept the faith." We can never forget him!

ADDA SMITH BOND

Adda Smith Bond, daughter of Mary Sparks and Howard B. Smith, and widow of the late Edward J. Bond, was born on October 12, 1897, in Wilmington, Delaware. For most of her life she was a member of McCabe Memorial United Methodist Church. While Dr. Bond was pastor of that Church his first wife died. Sometime later, while still pastor there, he married Adda Smith. Up to this point Mrs. Bond had a successful career as secretary to officers of the DuPont Company.

After Dr. Bond's retirement they moved to Kennedyville, Maryland, where he served as supply pastor. Mrs. Bond spoke often of the friendliness and kindness of that congregation both before and after her husband's death.

Later she returned to Wilmington and resumed her membership at McCabe Church. The people and pastors of that congregation shared richly in her thoughtful, generous friendship; in her sly humor; in the joy of her marriage; and in her faithfulness to Christ and the Church.

For her, and all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee, by faith, before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia!

CHARLES BRAINARD HART.

MRS. ELLIS DIX

Mrs. Ellis Belle Adams Dix was born October 14, 1896. She was the daughter of the late Sarah and Ulysses G. Adams of Preston, Maryland, and the granddaughter of the Reverend G. T. Townsend. She attended the public schools of Snow Hill, Maryland, and later graduated from Princess Anne Academy, now Maryland State College, where she was an honor student and an outstanding soloist. She taught school for two years after graduation.

She was joined in matrimony to the Reverend Seldon George Dix in 1918, and to this union were born four children—William Grant, Gloria Seldon, Jr., and Richard, who died at birth.

Early, Mrs. Dix became a member of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church, Preston, Maryland. She joined the Methodist Conference with her husband in 1920, and studied in the School of Missions in Atlanta, Georgia, while her husband matriculated at Gammon Theological Seminary. From that time until they retired in 1960, the Reverend and Mrs. Dix worked as co-workers in the Christian Ministry serving in eleven appointments.

Mrs. Dix was an example of the ideal minister's wife. She worked faithfully and well beside her husband in all aspects of the church. In all of her husband's church pastorages, except two, she was the organist. She is remembered in most of the churches served for the inspirational choirs she organized. In the others, she is remembered for her untiring work with the choir already organized. In all the churches she touched, she is remembered for her beautiful renditions of the songs of Zion. Mrs. Dix was dedicated to the work of her husband and the work of the church. She was a loving mother, setting the Christian example for her children and a faithful, devoted wife. She radiated to all who knew her gentleness, kindness, and Christian concern for people. For years, she was an active member of the Women's Society of Christian Service and served as treasurer and vice president.

Mrs. Dix departed this life on Sunday, May 11, 1969, at the Peninsula General Hospital, Salisbury, Maryland—12:15 P.M. She leaves to mourn her passing her husband, the Reverend S. G. Dix; three children, William Grant of Bridgeville, Delaware; Mrs. Gloria Dix Chapman of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; and Seldon, Jr., of Roosevelt, New York; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Dix and Mrs. Annabelle C. Dix; one son-in-law, Carlyle Chapman, Sr.; five grandchildren: Angela and David Dix, Seldon Chapman, Jacqueline Dix, Morgan State College—and Carlyle Chapman, Jr., Indiana University—and several aunts, uncles and many nieces and nephews.

THERE IS NO DEATH

"In one sense, there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond her departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking with you in familiar things she touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. She lives on in your life and in the lives of all others who knew her."

ANGELO PATRI.

MRS. ZENNA LOUISE GRAHAM

Mrs. Zenna Louise Graham, widow of the Rev. John T. Graham, was born January 29, 1879 in Northampton County, Virginia, the daughter of Mary Priscilla Denson and John Mitchell. There were two brothers and a sister, but these have all answered the call of the heavenly Father to enter the life beyond.

Sister Graham attended the public schools of Salisbury, Md. and while living in Salisbury, met John T. Graham. They were married in the Methodist Church in Quantico, Md., June 29, 1898. Together they spent 37 happy years pastoring churches in the Wilmington and Peninsula Conferences, retiring at the spring conference of 1950. To this couple were born a son, Norwood Thomas, who died in infancy, and Marian Norwood who is the wife of Everett Lambden residing in Chestertown, Md. At retirement, the Grahams settled in Bozman, Md. where they spent 12 years when sickness ended in death for brother Graham on June 27, 1963. Since the passing of devoted husband, sister Graham lived with her daughter until it became necessary for her to have special nursing care. Wearied by her many years, she answered the call of the heavenly Father to move up higher and she passed on while a patient in the Rio Vista Nursing Home, St. Michaels, Md. on February 4, 1969. Her mortal remains were laid to rest beside her husband in the cemetery of the Deal Island United Methodist Church, Deal Island, Md. on February 7, 1969. The services were held in Harrison Funeral Home, St. Michaels, Md. and conducted by the Rev. Paul E. Reynolds.

PAUL E. REYNOLDS.

ELMA N. LOUHOFF

Elma Natlia Louhoff, daughter of John and Annie McIntosh, was born in Scotland on April 19, 1887. At an early age she came with her parents to live in The United States where she received most of her formal training in the public schools of Maryland and Delaware. On November 29, 1917 she was married to Frederick Charles Louhoff, Jr. who, ten years later, became a minister in The Methodist Church; and for the next twenty-seven years they worked and traveled together in an itinerant ministry that was to cover some ten appointments in the Old Wilmington and Peninsula Annual Conferences. Here they served faithfully together until Mr. Louhoff's death on November 24, 1956.

Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Louhoff went to live at The Methodist Country House near Wilmington where she spent the remaining years of her life until her death on September 16, 1968. Funeral services were conducted by The Rev. Gerald A. Foster, pastor of Union Methodist Church, Wilmington, and her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband in Lombardy Cemetery.

The writer of this memoir had a long association with this family, even before the days of their service in the ministry. Out of this enduring friendship was born a deep sense of appreciation for the worth of Elma and Charles Louhoff and of the great loss to all of us in their passing. It is his conviction that in the passing of this fine Christian lady, a good and faithful servant has entered into the joys of our Lord.

J. E. LAYTON.

MRS. ELIZABETH S. PARKER

Elizabeth Smith Parker was born in New Haven, Connecticut, on August 5, 1876. Her parents were the late Gency Potter Williams and Louis Williams. She was the last survivor of twelve children.

In 1898 she was married to Eugene Otho Parker, a prominent Methodist minister. He served in many parishes throughout Maryland and Delaware. He was District Superintendent of the Easton District, Delaware Conference, for a number of years. He passed away in April 1942, ending a brilliant career.

Mrs. Parker was a member of the Ministers' Wives Association for a great many years. Very significant is the fact that she was a matron of the Layton Home where she passed away on October 7, 1968. She lived a long Christian life, and was a devoted wife and mother. She was heard to mention on several occasions that all was well with her, and that she had lived a long and fruitful life. She finally found rest after 92 years of fruitful living.

She is survived by a son, Lester, several nieces and nephews, and a host of cousins and friends.

Funeral services were held at Ezion United Methodist Church, Wilmington, the Rev. John W. Coleman, officiating.

"Down a road that's calm and peaceful,
Guided by God's loving hand,
She has gone upon a journey
To a distant and brighter land;
And although our hearts are heavy
With the sorrow we must bear,
It helps to bring us comfort
Knowing she is happy there."

THE FAMILY.

MRS. JACOB R. PURNELL

Mrs. Lena Maria Carroll Purnell, daughter of John T. and Eva Sembly Carroll, was born October 12, 1889, in Annapolis, Md., and died on July 15, 1968, at her home in Accomac County, Virginia, where she had lived many years.

She was the widow of the late Rev. Jacob R. Purnell of the former Delaware Conference. She was educated at the Baltimore Normal School, at St. Paul College, Lawrenceville, Va., and at the A. and T. College, Greensboro, N.C., from where she received her master of arts degree.

She taught in the public schools of Dorchester County, Maryland, where she met her husband, and where they were married on March 27, 1916.

A son was born to this union. Mr. Purnell died in 1950 while serving at the Deal Island charge.

Besides her son, J. Ray Purnell of Greensboro, N.C., Mrs. Purnell is survived by two brothers, the Rev. J. W. Carroll of Pomonkey, Md. (Baltimore Conference) and Gary M. Carroll of Baltimore; three sisters, Mrs. Julia King and Mrs. Emma Nelson, both of Baltimore, and Mrs. Dorothy DeLeo of Philadelphia.

Funeral services were held at Whitesville, Va., on July 19, by the Rev. Thaddeus Williams.

Despite Mrs. Purnell's busy professional life—she was regarded as a highly competent teacher—she was at the same time a great asset to her husband in his ministry, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her.

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low—
An excellent thing in woman."

DANIEL LYMAN RIDOUT.

MRS. CALEB WARREN SHOCKLY

Death came unexpectedly and peacefully to Mrs. Rose Scudder Shockly, widow of the late Rev. Caleb Warren Shockly of the former Delaware Conference, on Monday, March 31, 1969, in the Anne Arundel General Hospital, Annapolis, Md.

The daughter of the late David and Rose Scudder of Newark, N.J., Mrs. Shockly was born there on July 13, 1886. She was educated in the public schools of Newark and at the Delaware State College, Dover, Del., from which she was graduated in 1905. She taught for many years in the public schools of Delaware and Maryland.

In 1907 she was married to the Rev. Caleb Warren Shockly, who died in 1957, in retirement. Mrs. Shockly made her home in Baltimore, where she taught in nursery schools and in the Martin Deporres Center, giving instruction in reading to the academically handicapped and disadvantaged children.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Rose S. Wiseman of Annapolis, and Mrs. Anne S. Johnson of Baltimore; three sons, David A., and Elwood G. of Baltimore, and Sears D. of Washington, D.C., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Bullock Funeral Home, Baltimore, on Thursday, April 3, the Rev. Marion C. Bascom of the Douglas Memorial Community Church officiating. Interment was in Arbutus Memorial Park, Baltimore.

"She is not dead, the one of our affection,
But gone unto that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ Himself doth rule."

THE FAMILY.

MARY RICHARDS BANNING WHEATLEY

Mary Richards Banning Wheatley was born January 9, 1891, in Middletown, Delaware, the fourth child in the family of five, three sons and two daughters, of George L. and Emily Simmons Richards. She attended and was graduated from the Middletown Academy in 1908.

Elwood I. Banning and Mary Richards were united in matrimony on November 16, 1914, in Wilmington, Delaware, by Dr. Vaughn S. Collins, minister of St. Paul's Methodist Church. Elwood entered into life immortal in 1947, leaving no issue.

Mary was gifted in music. For a period of time she was organist of Bethesda Methodist Church, Middletown, but her real interest was in directing the choirs. While she was serving in this capacity, Rev. Melvin E. Wheatley, Sr., and his family, was appointed pastor of the church (1930-1935), following J. B. McCabe, who died while serving there.

Gertrude E. Mitchell, Melvin E. Wheatley's wife, died in 1949.

On Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1954, Mary R. Banning and The Rev. Melvin E. Wheatley, Sr., who was serving at North East, Maryland, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Richards, nephew of the bride, Edgemoor Terrace, Wilmington, by the bridegroom's son, Rev. Ira M. Wheatley, and son-in-law, Rev. Alden T. Smith.

Upon the retirement of her husband from the active ministry in 1956 they settled in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, and she transferred her membership from Bethesda Methodist Church to Epworth Methodist Church. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 10, Newark, Delaware.

Her final illness began on December 27, 1968, with a fall in the home and on April 12, 1969, she died in Beebe Hospital, Lewes, Delaware.

Funeral services were held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 16, 1969, in Epworth United Methodist Church, Rehoboth Beach. The Rev. Charles E. Covington was in charge, Dr. John N. Link read the word, and Dr. Roy L. Tawes gave the message. Interment was made in Forrest Presbyterian Cemetery, Middletown, Delaware.

In addition to her husband, the Rev. Melvin E. Wheatley, Sr., she is survived by two stepsons, Melvin E. Wheatley, Jr., of Los Angeles, California, and Rev. Ira Mitchell Wheatley of Ypsilanti, Michigan, three stepdaughters, Mrs. Ruth E. Smith of Passaic, New Jersey, Mrs. Gertrude E. Wilson of Wilmington, Delaware, and Mrs. Mary Virginia Damonte of Burlingame, California, a brother, Frank Richards of Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, and fourteen stepgrandchildren.

Dr. Tawes in his memorial referred to her as "A gracious lady who inspired others with her quiet and cheerful goodness."

MISCELLANEOUS

(a) CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

- Rule 1. The Conference shall meet at 9:00 A.M. and adjourn at 12:30 P.M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.
- Rule 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.
- Rule 3. All resolutions, motions, amendments and substitute motions presented to the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5. The motion to Lay on the Table, or to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.
- Rule 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
- (1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
  - (2) To adjourn.
  - (3) To take a recess.
  - (4) To lay on the table.
  - (5) For the previous question.
  - (6) To postpone to a given time.
  - (7) To refer.
  - (8) To substitute.
  - (9) Amendment.
  - (10) To postpone indefinitely.

- A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7. When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.
- Rule 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
- Rule 9. When a member desires to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.
- Rule 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider it a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12. No member shall absent himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.
- Rule 15. It shall be in order for him to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

- Rule 17. All reports of the Boards, Commissions and Committees, shall be published and mailed to the Members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary thirty (30) days prior to such Session.
- Rule 18. No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19. These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20. All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Secretary not later than ten (10) days after adjournment of the Annual Session or it shall be excluded.
- Rule 21. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
- Rule 22. Recommendations as to the change in format and policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be referred to the Committee on Journal for study and recommendation before action by the Conference.
- Rule 23. Only such motions as are carried and/or passed by the Conference shall be included in the Journal.
- Rule 24. That no member of any Board, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrenniums on said Board, Committee or Commission and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one Quadrennium has elapsed except members of boards, committees or commissions elected for three year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be reelected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Committees or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee on the local church. # Why The Fund's rates are still the lowest...

You're the reason PMF has the lowest rates for permanent, participating life insurance of any American insurance company.

People like you—clergymen, seminary students, missionaries, and their families—are the only people PMF will cover.

What's so special about you? You, and those in our vocation, generally outlive folks in other occupations by a healthy amount. Because of your greater life span, PMF can insure you for less. In effect, we save; then pass the benefits on to you.

Ours is a unique, yet proven service. We've been doing it for 250 years. That's two and a half centuries of guaranteeing maximum permanent, participating life insurance, with a dividend history and substantial cash-loan values to both clergymen and their families. At the lowest rates anywhere.

For the smartest life insurance investment you can possibly make, write or call us. We'll be happy to send you further information about PMF's varied plans.
