RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR THE CONFERENCE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

A.

1. That the Peninsula Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the provisions of the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Council Director.

3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by discipline, charter, or other legal requirements. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.

4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term, and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term.

5. That no member of the conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies shall not count toward the total of two unless such membership exceeds two. In cases where a member is an ex-officio member on more than two boards or agencies, all excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the conference rotation system nor counted in the above total; district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of the Peninsula Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of the Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform them as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.

6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of the Ordained Ministry.

7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to conference members and associate members of the Peninsula Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.

8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Creed of the United Methodist Church (Page 92 of the Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to service on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.

9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.

10. That the Cabinet select only one representative from the Cabinet to serve on a conference board and all the divisions of that board, and one cabinet representative each on all other support agencies except where the Discipline states otherwise.

11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of his board, committee or agency.

12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as a Nominating Committee for the Boards, Commissions and Committees. The District Superintendent assigned to the agency is the convenor of this committee. The nominating committee shall be prepared at the organizational meeting to nominate officers for the quadrennium.

13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the Journal.

14. That in every case a nominee to any boards, commission, or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.

15. That quadrennial boards shall have two even classes; triennial boards shall have three evenly divided classes.

16. That, recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.

2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.

3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laymen in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.

4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each man is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laymen should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laymen as part of the Conference Talent Bank.

5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).

6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.

7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.

Miscellaneous

1. That the council director, associate council directors, the home administrators, not be elected to boards and agencies under the conference rotation but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.

2. That two (2) high school youth (preferably 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of the following boards, divisions and committees: Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns, Division of Education, Division of Evangelism, Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, Division of Missions, Board of Church and Society, Division of Career Planning and Counseling, Division of Worship, Conference Council on Ministries, Board of the Laity, Conference Nominating Committee, and Committee on Conference Arrangements. These shall be selected by the Conference Youth Council each year.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case they may not be aware of the procedure.

(1) All Salary and conference apportionments are removed.
(2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned. (We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the Journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and continues the historic continuity of these churches.)
(3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
(4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
(5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
(6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
(7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

VI. Business Of The Annual Conference

Special Session

On December 12, 1978 at 7:30 p.m. Bishop James K. Mathews, Washington area, called the Special Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference, on Missional Priorities, to order at the Central Middle School, Dover, DE. He introduced The Reverend Edwin C. Thomas, Jr., District Superintendent of the Salisbury District, who led the Conference in singing Charles Wesley's hymn, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." William Hemphill, Jr. Superintendent of the Wilmington District, led the Conference in prayer. The Massed Choir of Kent County under the leadership of Jeffrey Kern sang, "O Jesus Grant Me."

Bishop Mathews spoke on the origin of the Missional Priorities and told the conference that the purpose of the Special Session is to update and inspire all people called United Methodists. He then introduced the three visiting Bishops who were to address the Conference on the Missional Priorities. The Missional Priority on World Hunger was discussed by Bishop J. Chess Lovern, San Antonio area. Bishop Prince A. Taylor, Jr. retired, spoke on the Missional Priority of Ethnic Minority Local Church and the Missional Priority of Evangelism was reviewed by Bishop Earl T. Hunt, Jr., of the Nashville Area. In between the Bishops' addresses the choir sang "Beautiful Saviour" and "The Lord Bless Thee." Thomas also led in the singing of appropriate hymns.

Dr. Robert P. Whitlock presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS the 1976 General Conference of the United Methodist Church responded to the needs of the church for further programming and funding in the areas of Ethnic Minority Local Church Development, World Hunger and Evangelism; and

WHEREAS the same General Conference felt that Ethnic Minority Local Church Development, World Hunger and Evangelism were of such importance that they were made priorities for the General Church, the annual Conferences and the local churches for the ensuing quadrennium; and

WHEREAS the priorities fulfill important aspects of the Christian Faith in both the social and evangelical traditions; and

WHEREAS the Peninsula Annual Conference recognizes these same needs as priorities; and

WHEREAS the Peninsula Annual Conference through the Conference Council on Ministries and with the support of the District Superintendents, did organize a Task Force on Ethnic Minority Local Church Development and World Hunger; and

WHEREAS the Division of Evangelism is taking the implementation of the Evangelism priority as its goal; and

WHEREAS the pastors and the laity of the Peninsula Annual Conference under the able leadership of our resident Bishop James K. Mathews, have developed the tools "Showing and Telling" and "Ethnic Minority Local Church Consultation":

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference meeting in Special Session in Dover, Delaware, on December 12, 1978 reaffirm as its priorities the Ethnic Minority Local Church Development, World Hunger and Evangelism for the remainder of the quadrennium; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference call upon each of its Boards, agencies, and committees to make the implementation of these priorities part of their goal for the remainder of the quadrennium; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference call upon all of its local churches to reaffirm their commitment to the priorities of Ethnic Minority Local Church Development, World Hunger and Evangelism for the remainder of the quadrennium, and endeavor to reach our goals in full.

The resolution was seconded by Francis Turpin and was unanimously adopted by the Special Session.

The Rev. Felton E. May, Superintendent of the Easton District spoke to the Conference offering a call to Commitment. Instead of receiving the offering he asked the conference members and guests to return their offering to their pockets and use it as seed money upon returning to their local church to raise money for the Missional Priorities.

The Conference sang "I Want to Be A Christian." Bishop Mathews thanked Bishops Lovern, Taylor and Hunt; the Choir and its Director, the Council Director, The Rev. David W. Baker, and all who attended. He then gave the Benediction and the Conference sang "Joy to The World."

Attending the Special Session were 167 clergy members, 146 lay members and 383 guests.

The Special Session was adjourned at 9:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Clifford A. Armour, Jr.
Conference Secretary

Bishop Mathews called upon the Conference Secretary who read and moved the following: RULES GOVERNING ELECTION OF DELEGATES: Based upon requirements of Par. 601, 602 and Judicial Council Decision No. 333, the following delegation to the 1980 General Conference is to be elected: Four Ministerial and four Lay Delegates to the General Conference and six additional Ministerial and six additional Lay Delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

The additional delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference are the Reserve Delegates to the General Conference in order of their election.

In connection with these elections I now move the following procedure and rules:

1. That after all the delegates to the General Conference have first been elected on a separate ballot, the delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference as reserved to the General Conference be elected by balloting.
2. That there shall also be elected three Ministerial Reserve and three Lay Reserve Delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.
3. That every member entitled to vote shall be ordered within the Bar of the Conference and those not within the Bar of the Conference shall not be entitled to vote.
4. That any ballot containing fewer or more than the number of names to be voted for shall be rejected.
5. That where there are two or more members of the same name, only such ballots as containing the Christian name or initials of the person for whom the ballot is cast shall be counted, but such omissions of the Christian name or initial shall not affect the other names on the ballot.
6. That a majority of the legal ballots cast shall be required for election. A majority of the legal votes cast on any ballot shall elect except when a larger number of members receive such a majority than are to be elected; in which case the persons receiving the highest vote shall be elected to the total number of places to be filled. A tie vote between two persons when but one place remains to be filled shall be disregarded and another vote shall be taken.

REPORT OF THE PENSION CRUSADE: Mr. Robert A. Powrie, Chairperson of the Task Force, and Dr. John French, Executive Secretary of the Crusade, made the following report:

PENSION CRUSADE REPORT

To: Bishop Mathews and Members of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

I am very pleased to have the privilege of bringing the accomplishments of your Peninsula Conference Pension Crusade to this Annual Conference. You will recall that the two main goals of the Pension Crusade were: to help us provide for the future of our retired ministers, their spouses and dependents. It also will give oncoming generations of ministers the hope of financial security in their own retirement and the assurance of being able to approach the sunset years of life feeling the necessities of life will be met. As we pay in each $100,000 payment this reduces our annual payment to the National Methodist Reserve/Pension Fund by approximately $10,000 which becomes available for much-needed program activities in our Conference.

Dr. John E. French, our follow-up Director for our Pension Crusade, has done a fine job in obtaining additional fair share pledges from churches that had not previously made their commitment. He has been called on by several churches for assistance on follow-up and interpretation of the Crusade. His goal is to have every church in the Peninsula Conference accept their fair share goal and to have the amount paid in full. He has advised me that he thinks this is a realistic goal as he feels all churches, when they understand the importance to their own minister and future ministers, will want to be a part of this important program. He is anxious to help any church in their program and a telephone call or a letter to his Rehoboth Beach home will bring his able assistance to you. I'm sure he would even take a collect call, if necessary, in order to assist.

The success of Dr. French's work shows in our latest report as the fair-share goal has now increased to $1,694,601 through April 30th 1979. We are happy to report that $672,157 has been received to date and $500,000 has been paid to the General Board of Pensions, and we expect to forward the next $100,000 at the end of May. The Dover District has paid in 42% of their goal, the Easton District 36%, the Salisbury District 43%, and the Wilmington District 38%, for a 40% overall total. Expenses to date have been $65,482 including the $45,000 service fee to the office of Finance and Field Service, National Division of the Board of Global Ministries.

As I meotioned last year the standings of each church are published by the Business Office and sent to each church in the consolidated mailings three times a year. The receipts through May 1979 will be published in the Conference Journal and we urge all churches to forward any outstanding funds into the Business Office by the end of next week so that an up-to-date standing will be printed.

I wish I had time to cite all of the programs that the various churches are carrying out to publicize the progress of the Pension Crusade. We urge each church to carry out a program of informing their congregation through a posting of monthly progress on a chart or informational data in their bulletin because an informed church is a performing church.

We should be proud of our progress to date and I am very confident that we shall meet the challenge of completing our Crusade and be over the top by June 1, 1980.

Thanks to all of you for your part in making the Pension Crusade a success.

R. A. Powrie
Chairperson

Resolution — Parish Development Guidelines, Town & Country Committee
Section recommends the following Report of Parish Development Guidelines be added.

DIVISION OF MISSIONS
A SUPPORTIVE STATEMENT TO "Time to Grow," by Bishop James K. Mathews, AND
A RESOLUTION FOR ACTION IN CONGREGATIONAL-PARISH DEVELOPMENT AND CHURCH EXTENSION

I. DEFINITION:

1. Congregational development is people development. It is the planning for the gathering, training, organizing, and deployment of the Christian community for mission and ministry.
2. Parish development is the process of combining gatherings of persons so that their combined resources and unique gifts may be coordinated for a total ministry to a geographical area. Thus a new parish is a new congregation made up of a number of congregations.
3. Congregational-Parish Development may include and is not limited to the following. . .
   a) A congregation started from scratch.
   b) A remnant of a discontinued congregation becomes the nucleus for forming a brand new congregational life.
   c) Two or more congregations merging to form a new identity may or may not involve a new building, but housed in a building.
   d) Two or more congregations which merge and become one in organization, membership, mission, program, education, service, et. al. even though that congregation may meet in segments in different meetinghouses.

II. SUPPORTIVE STATEMENT

The emphasis on Congregational-Parish Development and Church Extension proposed by the Conference Council on Ministries and by Bishop Mathews as "Time to Grow," actually began in the Peninsula Conference two years ago when the Division of Missions of the Board of Global Ministries established two committees: The Committee on Town & Country and The Committee on Congregational Development and Church Extension. At that time progress toward the development of a congregation in the Long Neck area of lower Delaware was stalemated in discussions. The Congregational Development Committee launched an all out effort in both ecumenical and denominational discussions as well as taking leadership in both denominational and ecumenical surveys of the congregation and community. Based on evaluation of survey results support was given which led to the eventual appointment of a pastor and the constituting of a church for that area.

At the same time hearings were held and support was given to another major development concerning an urban Wilmington congregation's proposed relocation as a new congregation. This past year a preliminary mission design study team for the project was convened by the Congregational Development Committee. Also under consideration is another resort area where a survey team is being organized to determine whether or not a full-time church might be developed in that location. In addition, the Committee on Town and Country and the Committee on Congregational Development and Church Extension (through the Division) are examining the entire conference for areas in need of development. Several areas at present need close examination in both growing urban areas and in declining or static areas where new forms of ministry are needed.

In light of the above projects underway and areas under consideration it can be said that the Division of Missions is already well on the way toward the proposed goal of five developments between now and 1984. It is assumed that we will not hold rigidly to one new congregation a year, but five developments between now and 1984. It is also assumed that this goal would be a guideline. Congregational-Parish development will take place only after careful surveys which may show that more or less than five developments are needed during this time frame.

We rejoice in the widespread support now being given to congregational-parish development. We thank the Bishop and the Conference Council on Ministries for their support and recognition of this work. We now call upon the Annual Conference for the support of this goal and faithfulness to it.

III. RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference, through the Board of Global Ministries Division of Missions, develop five new congregations between now and 1984.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Conference Board of Global Ministries:

a) Become fully informed of all funds available from the National Division, Board of Global Ministries and be prepared through the Division of Missions to assist and evaluate any request from developing congregations.
b) Move as rapidly as possible to conclude long term financial commitments within the Division of Missions so that priorities of Congregational-Parish Development requests can be dealt with on an annual basis.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED

a) That each District, through its laity, seek to develop church building clubs etc., striving to secure investors to represent a minimum of 500 shares per district at $75 a share to be paid in $25 increments per share three (3) times a year upon call,
b) That established churches be encouraged to become sponsors of new congregations making such sponsorship known to, and reviewed by the Division of Missions, and such gifts to be labeled local mission.
c) That all churches remind their members at least annually of the opportunity for deferred giving through the Conference Foundation, that in time the Foundation may become an added source for funding congregational-parish development.
d) That the Program Council Director be instructed to prepare suggestions and guidelines for incorporating into the teaching of each local congregation to all ages, the Great Commission and its implications for Congregational-Parish Development and Church Extension.

"TIME TO GROW"

The "TIME TO GROW" has once again come for the Washington Area. This is to say that now is the time for a frank thrust in Church Extension — Congregational Development in both the Baltimore and Peninsula Annual Conferences.

This is not to suggest that a burgeoning of new churches such as characterized the post World War II period can again be expected nor a recovery of the time when Bishop McCabe could boast, "We're building two a day!" To fail, however, to see that new challenges do currently present themselves on nearly every district would be to miss opportunities and obligations that may not present themselves again. Now is the "TIME TO GROW."

This is seen as one drives about the Washington Area. For example, some largely black rural settlements in both conferences offer opportunity for organizing new congregations. New housing developments are springing up in many places — not all of them in locations which can be served adequately from existing churches. It is sometimes said that we as United Methodists are "over-churched." The number of our churches is large but not always are they rightly placed.

We have passed through a period in which there has been comparatively little church extension. I would date this roughly between 1967 and 1975. It has been insisted that we should put money into people and not into buildings. There has, of course, been a truth in this and what has been done in this respect is impressive. To continue to devote ourselves to this point of view will be to undercut our ability sufficiently to respond to these human needs. The base of support tends to erode when new congregations are not developed. New churches can precisely address human needs.

There have been quite modest steps in this direction in both conferences. Then, too, in the Baltimore Conference especially several new Asian American congregations have emerged. We have on three separate occasions since 1972 explored our obligations to Hispanic groups and this is now urgently called for again.

It should be noted also that during the past twenty-five years many congregations have rebuilt or greatly improved their facilities. In the main our "physical plants" are in good order and attractive. For the most part we do present a "good front" to newcomers in our communities. Furthermore, in pursuit of the EMLC program there have been extensive and impressive developments in Black churches. But all of this is not enough.

Each year since 1973 at meetings of the Area Cabinet the matter of Church Extension has been on the agenda. From year to year the time did not seem to be ripe. Now it is. In December 1978 it was reported that opportunities for church extension were present at specific locations in twelve of the fourteen districts of the area. Clearly, now is the "TIME TO GROW." At the same meeting it was determined to have a consultation on this subject early in the new year. This is that consultation.

We are also in a period of emphasis on Evangelism. Indeed, this mandate is always laid upon us. United Methodism from the time of Wesley, Asbury and Otterbein has always followed the people and has tried to meet their needs where they are. One clear way of doing this is through church extension.

A recent Gallup poll has indicated that 41% of the people in the U.S. are "unchurched" and more than this in some sections. The reasons for this are varied, but among them is this one: "they have moved." We must meet them where they now are. One great denomination has as its basic strategy to expect existing congregations at best to "hold their own" and to depend for growth upon newly organized congregations. I do not concur in the first notion — this is defeatist; I do subscribe to the second. It is now TIME TO GROW!

These challenges cannot be met except by specific conference programs to do so. In the light of such factors as have been stated I now propose for the Washington Area a five-year (1981-85) program of Church Extension or new Congregational Development. (This latter term of congregational development lends itself to even broader application than is suggested here.) This program emphasis might well be called: "TIME TO GROW." —

(1) That for the Baltimore Conference the goal be two new congregations (new societies) or strategic relocations per year — an average of one per district.

(2) That for the Peninsula Conference the goal be one new congregation (new society) or strategic relocation per year.

(Strategic relocation means that if an existing congregation or congregations can be relocated at an optimum time the newly located congregation is tantamount to the organization of a brand new society. On the other hand, if the relocation does not take place at the optimum time the existing congregation would likely decline to the point of ineffectiveness.)

In some cases the exact location of a new congregation is now specifically evident. In other instances the exact location must be determined after careful study of relevant data: government population studies, community planning materials, land use documents, real estate development, etc. In this process possibly donated sites can be found or land made available at concession rates. We will need to avail ourselves of specialized staff help from the general agencies in this process.

How will such ventures be financed in order to meet our goals? It has to be kept in mind that larger sums will have to be found for church extension than was the case only a few years ago. The approach will have to be multi-faceted:

(1) The National Division of general BGM. Their current resources are understood as being limited but every available aid must be utilized from this source by this program.

(2) The conference agencies: Board of Missions and Church Extension or conference BGM and related bodies. Here again their current assets are severely strained but they must take major responsibility for such a program and be a conduit for special funds. These agencies would also have to correlate a system of modest salary supplements for pastors for a period in new congregations.

(3) An important source of funds can be a renewed emphasis upon "church building clubs." Through them participant "shares" in the "TIME TO GROW" program of, say, $75 per year (3 calls a year of $25 each) can be made available. If, for example, five hundred shares per district in the Peninsula Conference could be subscribed, the yield would be $150,000 per year and similarly for the Baltimore Conference. Monies from this source could be used toward securing of new sites, grants for specific new congregations, down payments on a parsonage, and so on. District dinners across the area could be arranged to launch such a possibility.

(4) An alternative approach would be to add $1.50 per member to the apportionments, which would yield a comparable sum.

(5) A program of "Adoption" of new congregations by strong and stable existing congregations. We have a very proud tradition of doing just this. A number of churches can do so, particularly those which have recently paid off all their own indebtedness. Moreover, examination of liens due the National Division or conference boards may reveal possible sources of income.

(6) The newly organized conference foundations may in the long run be a possible source of aid.

(7) There are doubtless other possibilities of innovative financing that might be explored.

(8) Finally, the potential of the newly organized or relocated congregation itself should not be forgotten.

To summarize, now is the "TIME TO GROW." We can succeed in such a venture but we must launch out in faith. To venture — to risk is of the very substance of our pilgrimage together.

It is often said that it is imperative that such a program must have the bishop's whole-hearted support. I pledge you mine. I am prepared to give major time to this emphasis during the next year in speaking, writing, advocating this undertaking, for I believe in it completely.

ADDED RESOLUTIONS

Resolution on Quadrennial Emphasis on Christian Family Life in the United Methodist Church, 1981-1984

"We believe the family to be the basic human community through which persons are nurtured and sustained in mutual love, responsibility, respect, and fidelity. We understand the family as encompassing a wider range of options than that of the two generational unit of parents and children (the nuclear family), including the extended family, families with adopted children, single parents, couples without children. We urge social, economic, and religious efforts to maintain and strengthen families in order that every member may be assisted toward complete personhood."
The Book of Discipline, 1976, Part III

Whereas, we recognize the various changing functions of the family and the influence and issues related to them, which include:
- powerful cultural forces continually disrupting families as evidenced in the soaring divorce rates;
- pervasive and far-reaching shifts in the role of men and women which are having an impact on family life;
- alternative family life-styles that are becoming more prevalent and are calling for a re-examination of family life; and
- technological advances, especially in the areas of media and medical science, that are impacting family life.

Whereas, the Christian Church is called to respond to the pressing needs of families and to provide support for significant family roles in today's world.

We the Peninsula Annual Conference recognizing the need for the strengthening of the Christian Family do hereby recommend that by route of the Petition Committee for General Conference the General Church gives special emphasis to the development of program and ministry to the building of Christian Family life in the quadrennium, 1981-1984.

Missional Priorities Resolution

Whereas the missional priorities need coordination in the interest of more effective promotion; and

Whereas there is lack of clarity among the task groups on Ethnic Minority Local Church and World Hunger, the Conference Missionary Secretary, and others, as to specific responsibilities in relation to such promotion,

Therefore be it resolved that the Annual Conference authorize the organization of a steering committee composed of the Annual Conference Council Director, the chairpersons of the task groups on Ethnic Minority Local Church and World Hunger, a District Superintendent, the Conference Missionary Secretary, a representative of Communications, and a representative of the Board of Church and Society; who shall be responsible to the Annual Conference Council on Ministries; for the purpose of coordinating the work of the Missional Priority task groups and for designing a program of promotion for the remainder of the quadrennium; and

Be it further resolved that this steering committee shall be convened by the Annual Conference Council Director before the next meeting of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries, at which meeting the Committee shall report on (a) its organization, and (b) at least preliminary plans indicating its promotional thrusts.

(A Supplement)
THE REPORT OF THE STATISTICIAN
THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
For the Period from January 1, 1978 to December 31, 1978
For the Annual Conference at Dover, Delaware, May 22-24, 1979

At the end of the 1978 calendar year, reports were expected from 509 churches. Expected to report were 508 United Methodist Churches (including Long Neck Church, Dover District, which was constituted a full service church, April 22, 1979.) and Glasgow Ecumenical Parish, Wilmington District. Reports were eventually received from 508 churches — one United Methodist Church did not report and one charge of four churches did not report in time to get in the statistical report. Three churches were to Limited Service and one church was closed. The Limited Service Churches were zeroed out as of May 25, 1978 and are listed in the Conference Journal under LIMITED SERVICE CHURCHES. The year ended with 503 full service United Methodist Churches, 21 Limited Service Churches and one Ecumenical Parish.

The Recapitulation information is presented below on the familiar form that pastors used to report local church information to the Statistician. Line 2 reflects the best record for Confessions of Faith since 1968. While line 9 shows a net loss of 1,128 members, we are still within the bracket of 100,000 — 101,500 where we have been since 1966.

A comparison of churches that reported Confirmation Classes and Professions of Faith with churches that did not report Confirmation Classes but did report Professions of Faith:

District	No. Churches Reporting Confirmation Cls.	No. Churches Reporting Professions Faith	No. Churches Not Reporting Confirmation Cls.	No. Churches Not Reporting Professions Faith
Dover	49	44	65	38
Easton	60	49	107	32
Salisbury	40	34	101	46
Wilmington	51	49	35	14
Totals	200	176	308	130

Two hundred, or 39% of the 508 churches reported Confirmation Classes. Of the two hundred churches, 176 reported Professions of Faith which amounts to a very favorable ratio of 1.1 to 1 or 88%.

Three hundred eight, or 61% of the 508 churches did not report Confirmation Classes. Of those 308 churches, 130 reported Professions of Faith which amounts to an unfavorable ratio of 2.4 to 1 or only 42%.

The Conference received the report unanimously, and ordered it printed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: The Reverend Mr. William H. Revelle, Jr. Host District Superintendent, introduced Mrs. Evelyn Colten, Mrs. Dorothy Saxton, Mrs. Susan Lang, and Mrs. Barbara Brittingham. The Conference responded with applause.

RESOLUTION ON THE ENERGY CRISIS

WHEREAS, real or imagined, we are faced with a critical gasoline and heating fuel dilemma not only nationally, but internationally, and:

WHEREAS, this dilemma is directly affecting both the prices and the availability of the same, and;

WHEREAS, well over fifty percent of the churches in the Peninsula Conference are in one way or another part of a charge (circuit) or larger parish arrangement which demands expansive travel of the pastors involved, and;

WHEREAS, in a number of cases involving a charge or larger parish, the pastors' salary package has limited travel benefits, and;

WHEREAS, the increased cost of heating fuel continues to rise which will directly affect our apportionment dollar, and;

WHEREAS, to ignore this dilemma as seriously affecting our churches in this Conference would not be in concert with responsible Christian stewardship of our resources:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we call upon the Peninsula Conference cabinet to develop and implement forthwith optional plans for conserving gasoline and heating oil particularly during the winter months (November 1st through March 15th).

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that every pastor be involved in the implementation phase of the optional plans which are developed by the Peninsula Conference cabinet.

RESOLUTION PROPOSED FOR ADOPTION BY THE 1979 ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE PENINSULA CONFERENCE

Alcoholism is a disease of epidemic proportions and does not recognize any boundaries. The young, the old, the executive, the factory worker, the housewife and even the junior and senior high school student, the upper class, the middle class as well as the disadvantaged can and are being inflicted with this insidious disease.

The residents of the State of Delaware are not immune from the affects of this disease as evidenced by the fact that more than 100 Alcoholics Anonymous meetings are held in Delaware each week. The number of people affected are even more startling when you consider the people attending these meetings are only those who recognize and admit they have a problem with alcohol. Many thousands, including hundreds of teenagers and pre-teenagers are not attending these meetings because they have not recognized their problem.

On Thursday, May 10, 1979 three bills were introduced in the Delaware House of Representatives.

- H. B. 426 would allow bars and taprooms to open on Sunday
- H. B. 429 would allow food stores to sell beer and wine
- H. B. 428, introduced by Rep. Robert F. Gilligan, would adopt the Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Act which treats intoxication as a health problem rather than a crime.

Obviously H. B. 426 and H. B. 429 do nothing to constructively deal with alcoholism in Delaware but rather will encourage the consumption of alcoholic beverages by making them more accessible.

On the other hand H. B. 428 recognizes alcoholism and intoxication as a disease rather than a crime, a point of view held by the medical profession for some time.

The Council on Ministries of Ebenezer UMC, Newark, urges the 1979 Annual Conference of the Peninsula Conference to adopt the following resolutions.

1. Resolved that the 1979 Annual Conference of the UMC Peninsula Conference is opposed to the sale of alcoholic beverages on Sunday and is opposed to the sale of beer and wine in food stores. The Conference also encourages the Delaware General Assembly to defeat H. B. 426 and H. B. 429.
2. Resolved that the 1979 Annual Conference of the UMC Peninsula Conference supports the concept that alcoholism and intoxication be treated as a health problem rather than a crime. The Conference also encourages the Delaware General Assembly to pass H. B. 428.

Chairman Council on Ministries,

A RESOLUTION ON MORAL STEWARDSHIP IN THE CHRISTIAN LIFESTYLE

WHEREAS human sexuality is a God-given gift entrusted to our stewardship as Christians,

WHEREAS "gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, economic, and spiritual life and destructive of good government"

WHEREAS "We believe the family to be the basic human community through which persons are nurtured and sustained in mutual life, responsibility, respect, and fidelity." (page 7 SOCIAL PRINCIPLES)

WHEREAS the training Manual used by the Maryland State Firemen's Association states that firemen "have the duty to do nothing that will tear down the image earned by the actions of others in the past," (p. 108) and that the actions of a fireman "reflect to the credit or discredit of the entire fire service," (p. 106) (BASIC FIREMAN'S TRAINING COURSE, MARYLAND FIRE AND RESCUE INSTITUTE, UNIVERSITY OF MD.)

WHEREAS the Coon Dinner "performance" and similar entertainment desecrate the worth of women performing and attending, promotes a vicious double standard which uses women as sex objects, and encourages immoral role patterns for the youth of our communities to emulate.

WHEREAS we reject all sexual expressions which damages the God-given humanity of women and men, and we reject all activity which detracts from the goodness of life.

WHEREAS gambling is increasing in private clubs and firehalls and is a threat to the Christian lifestyle,

WHEREAS the laws of our community, our states and our nation have been allegedly violated with little or no indication of enforcement.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED BY THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, That we deplore the alleged activities reportedly occurring in connection with the 1979 Coon Dinner of the Hebron Fire Co., because they are destructive of family relationship and contrary to our belief that sex is a wholesome gift of God, and that we urge the Hebron Fire Co., to abandon such activities and live up to the high standards of community influence advocated by the Manual of the Maryland Fireman's Association.

That we express our concern to both the Maryland and Delaware Fireman's Association that allegedly illegal gambling activities being used by some local fire companies in both states are contributing to the increasing disrespect for law and order and, are weakening the moral fibre of community life, and that we urge these state associations to challenge local fire companies to keep their fund-raising activities within the law.

That we commend the volunteer fire companies on our Delmarva PENINSULA for their sacrificial service in the protection of life and property, and urge United Methodists to generously support these organizations.

That the Secretary of the Peninsula Annual Conference be instructed to communicate this resolution to the above officials.

That Christine Watson of Emmanual United Methodist Church in Mardela Springs, Md. be commended by letter from the Secretary of this Conference for her brave and honorable stand for the decency at considerable cost.

That Mel Toadvine, Editor of the Daily Times, and reporters Tome Leonard and Rowan Scarborough of the Daily Times be commended along with the staff of the newspaper for its efforts to inform the public of the truth concerning activity at the Delmar, DE and Hebron, MD firehalls by letter from the Secretary of the Conference because they have operated within the best standards of good journalism.

That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Md. & Del. State Firefighters Assoc.

That the United Methodist Christians of the Peninsula Annual Conference publically advocate and affirm our Social Principles in our local communities, families and world.

AND ADD —

That we charge our Board of Church and Society with the Task of monitoring this matter and, we request this Board to challenge public officials to investigate and uphold the law in order to prevent continuance of similar events.

G. Wayne Cuff	13

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: The Bishop recognized Mrs. Verdie A. Page who introduced the following:

Bishop Mathews, Annual Peninsula Conference 1979. I stand before you to ask your support of John Wesley United Methodist Church, Seaford, Delaware. John Wesley was drastically lost by fire in November of 1978. We are in the process of making necessary plans to rebuild; we have been fund-raising and making sacrificial weekly or monthly offering. I wish to thank everyone here now for their personal or group or church gifts to us. The response has really been an inspiration of love and caring. Our congregation is one of the churches that did have a new parsonage built in Seaford, Del. We know as a rule Conference does not give as a general body; clergy and laity know how it is to try to explain and try to let our people know and see that the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church is in mission for its peoples to get the Good News and serve accordingly. I ask that this Conference allow a special offering to be taken for aid to John Wesley United Methodist Church for their church building fund. We need your support prayerfully, and financially. This will help show the people at John Wesley we may be losing but we are not losers. Thank you, Verdie A. Page.

Thomas Crawford Short
R. Jervis Cooke
Clayton E. Hammond

The Reverend Mr. William Hemphill, Jr. nominated The Reverend Mr. Felton E. May to serve on the Jurisdictional Committee on The Episcopacy. The Conference voted approval.

PETITIONS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE:

The Reverend Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton, chairperson of the Petitions to General Conference Committee introduced the following:

I.

A PETITION

TO: 1980 General Conference of The United Methodist Church

FROM: Executive Committee of the Washington Area Committee on Episcopacy

Whereas: The Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy holds the important function of making recommendations affecting the Episcopal leadership of the denomination, and

Whereas: The present election and tenure of such committee limits the effectiveness of its work, and

Whereas: The Committee on Episcopacy is a quadrennial standing committee of the jurisdiction which during its tenure may come to major conclusions necessary to recommend and officially justify at a succeeding Jurisdictional Conference,

Therefore: The Peninsula Annual Conference petitions the 1980 session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church to change the tenure of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy by making the following disciplinary adjustments:

In Paragraph 632.1 of the 1976 Book of Discipline, delete Paragraphs 2 and 3 and substitute with the following:

"The newly elected Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy shall be convened by the President of the College of Bishops at the Jurisdictional Conference to which the delegates have been elected. The committee shall be a standing committee and shall serve from the close of said Jurisdictional Conference through the succeeding Jurisdictional Conference at the close of which its term shall expire. The committee shall meet at least biennially.

It shall elect from among its members a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, and a secretary.

For purposes of transition the members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy elected by the Annual Conference in 1979 and convened by January 15, 1980, shall also constitute the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy to be convened at the Jurisdictional Conference in 1980."

The Conference voted to reommend to the 1980 General Conference in the name of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

II

A PETITION

TO: The 1980 General Conference of The United Methodist Church

FROM: Washington Area Committee on Episcopacy

Whereas: Paragraph 733 of the 1976 Book of Discipline is unclear about the exact term of office of the Conference Committee on Episcopacy,

Therefore: The Peninsula Annual Conference petitions the 1980 session of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church to amend paragraph 733.2 by adding the following words after "The committee . . .":

". . . shall serve a term coincident with the Quadrennium, and . . ."

The amended paragraph 733.2 would then read:

"The committee shall serve a term coincident with the Quadrennium, and shall meet at least annually. It shall be convened by the bishop and shall elect a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, and a secretary. The bishop and/or chairperson are authorized to call additional meetings when desired."

The Conference voted to recommend to the 1980 General Conference in the name of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

III

A PETITION

TO: 1980 General Conference of The United Methodist Church

FROM: Washington Area Committee on Episcopacy

Whereas: Assignments of Episcopal leadership are intended to guarantee administration of Areas within time frames long enough for the pursuit of programatic emphases, and

Whereas: The numbers of members (laity and clergy) and/or the geographic size of Areas demand reasonable length of time for knowledgeability in Episcopal oversight, and

Whereas: Present legislation has increased the possibilities of repeated singular four-year long assignments of bishops to Areas,

Therefore: The Peninsula Annual Conference PETITIONS the 1980 Session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church to relax the legislation fixing the eight-year tenure limitation of the assignment of bishops as follows:

Amend Paragraph 507.1 of the 1976 Book of Discipline by:

1. deletion of the phrase "for strategic missional reasons only," and
2. substitute "unless" between "eight consecutive years" and "a Jurisdictional Committee."

The amended Paragraph 507.1 would then read as follows: The Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, after consultation with the College of Bishops, shall recommend the boundaries of the episcopal areas and the assignment of the bishops to their respective residences for final action by the Jurisdictional Conference; it shall not reach any conclusion concerning residential assignments until all elections of bishops for that session are completed and all bishops have been consulted. A bishop shall not be recommended for assignment to the same residence for more than eight consecutive years unless a Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy on a Two-thirds vote may recommend one additional four-year term in the same area. The effective date of assignment for all bishops is September 1 following the Jurisdictional Conference.

The Conference approved for recommendation to the 1980 General Conference in the name of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

IV

A PETITION

FROM: Washington Area Committee on Episcopacy

Whereas: Paragraph 508.1 in the 1976 Book of Discipline was changed to provide for an earlier mandatory retirement age for bishops than had heretofore been the case, which provision meant that the termination of active service for some individuals was thereby advanced by four years, and

Whereas: These same individuals thus affected may have accepted election and projected both career and administrative program plans on the basis of the previous expectation, and

Whereas: Both the custom of the United Methodist Church and a concern for fairness would seem to call for an exemption of these individuals from the effects of the change,

Therefore: The Peninsula Annual Conference petitions the 1980 session of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church to amend paragraph 508.1 by adding the following words at the conclusion of the present paragraph:

". . ., with the exception of affecting those bishops elected prior to 1976, whose retirement shall be determined by the previous legislation."

The amended paragraph 508.1 would then read:

"Mandatory Retirement. — A bishop shall be retired on August 31 next following the regular session of the Jurisdictional Conference if the bishop has reached his/her sixty-sixth birthday prior to the first day of the month in which the Jurisdictional Conference is held. This shall be effective with the Jurisdictional Conferences of 1980, with the exception of affecting those bishops elected prior to 1976, whose retirement shall be determined by the previous legislation."

The Conference recommended to the 1980 General Conference in the name of the Peninsula Conference.

V

A PETITION

TO: 1980 General Conference of The United Methodist Church

FROM: Washington Area Committee on Episcopacy

Whereas: Paragraph 508.3 in the 1976 Book of Discipline is unclear in specifying the implications of "due process" particularly in terms of time limitations,

Therefore: The Peninsula Annual Conference petitions the 1980 session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church to delete Paragraph 508.3 and substitute as follows: "A bishop may be placed in the retired relation regardless of age by a two-thirds vote of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy if, after not less than a thirty day notice in writing is given to the affected bishop and hearing held, such relationship is found by said committee to be in the best interests of the bishop and/or the Church. Appeal from this action may be made to the Judicial Council with the notice provisions being applicable as set forth in Paragraph 2552."

The Conference recommended to the 1980 General Conference in the name of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE: The Bishop called upon the Reverend Mr. William Hemphill, Jr. who moved the following: I move that the Peninsula Annual Conference petition the 1980 General Conference to authorize a procedure in The Discipline by which a small-member declining church can be designated a "Limited Service Church," using the guidelines printed on P. 66 of the 1978 Journal as a model, and that Committee on Petitions put this in proper form to send to General Conference.

The motion carried. He then introduced the following:

RESOLUTION REGARDING CHURCH PROPERTY

Whereas the Annual Conference on May 25, 1976 voted to discontinue the Glasgow United Methodist Church and authorized the Conference Board of Trustees to dispose of the property, a process which has been delayed because of difficulty in locating the deed, and,

Whereas there is great need for Church Extension funds on the Wilmington District to serve the rapidly growing "I-95 Corridor" in which Glasgow is located,

I move that the Conference Board of Trustees be directed to make the funds received from the sale of the Glasgow Church property available for Church Extension work on the Wilmington District.

State Of The Church Address

Annual Conference 1979

Bishop James K. Mathews

"Grace to you and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ."

A great deal has happened since the union of the Methodisms in Kansas City in 1939. At that time the three strands — the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church became The Methodist Church; and all three of those traditions are well represented on this peninsula.

Now in those forty years incredible changes have taken place. Generations nowadays are greatly compressed and one might say that 1939 — years ago — was several worlds ago. It so happened that I was ordained a Deacon in 1936. How well I remember when Bishop McConnell laid his hands on my head. It might be worthwhile remembering that in 1936 a new Plymouth automobile cost $510. A Palm Beach suit, appropriate to this time of the year, double-breasted, came to $16.95. One could get a dinner in a first rate hotel — now I mean the top bracket — for two dollars. That is if you had the money in those particular days. A Coke still cost five cents — and I have always thought that the Lord always intended for Cokes always to cost that. Movies cost anywhere from ten cents to twenty-five cents (I could tell a story about that, but I won't), postage stamps still two cents. We were in a depression, a depression that our children can scarcely imagine.

Since then the pace of life has quickened immensely. It has vastly increased in its complexity and today, as we well know, we suffer from threats from within and without and from a lack of trust in our institutions. We are in a time of violence, a time of perplexity, a time of trial and decision. This calls for all the wisdom and courage with which God would endow us.

Last year marked the centenary of the birth of a modern prophet, Harry Emerson Fosdick. And I would like to say that I think we can scarcely do better than to turn to him for a framework for this analysis. His great hymn, "God of Grace and God of Glory," is really a prayer, as we know, for God's gift of wisdom and courage for the facing of this hour, for the living of these days, lest, perchance, we miss the Kingdom's goal or fail both man and God; and so we need these gifts that we may faithfully serve the One whom we adore.

I

For the facing of this hour: that is the climax of the first stanza:

God of grace and God of glory,
On Thy people pour Thy power;
Crown Thine ancient Church's story;
Bring her bud to glorious flower.

As a context for the hour we face this day, I want to refer to an hour faced by that company of people who were gathered together forty years ago when our three churches became one. There was a committee of bishops which put together a report on the world situation. Just let your imagination cast back — those of you who remember that far back, to 1939 — here's what they said: "The authority of the Gospel stands firm in the midst of the shaken world. The message of Jesus Christ constitutes our continuing and unfailing hope, even in the darkness of the present hour. Therefore, to a confused world the church proclaims the certainties of the centuries. To men of might who rule for little hour the Church declares that Jesus Christ has become the ruler of kings of earth. To men drunk with power who vainly place their trust in force, the Church repeats, 'Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth.' To self-appointed leaders who ignore the will of their own people and coerce the conscience of the common people, the Church asserts, 'one is your leader, even the Christ.' To those who would deify the State, the Church reaffirms the ancient law 'thou shalt have no other gods before me.' To all who would divide humankind by class and race and party, the Church heralds anew the family of humankind. To masses taught to hate who have been forced into conflicts they abhor, in her Master's words the Church commands, 'love thine enemies.' Friends and nations driven by greed and imperialistic exploitation, the Church insists you cannot serve God and mammon. To mad dictators who cry, 'Woe to the weak,' the Church replies, 'he who is greatest among you become the servant of all.' The Church knows that faith and hope and love abide. It summons men and women to the table of the Lord. It envisions the unbroken family of God, brothers and sisters all, kneeling in communion, sharing in the life of the Lord, rising to reveal Christ in service to humanity. This we do in remembrance of Him, confident in the ultimate triumph of love, respecting the personality of every child of God, united by love." They faced their hour.

What of us? Their hour was in many respects surprisingly like our own, but at the same time it was strikingly different. For example, in this brief message they gave no heed to racial injustice of their time. We have, and we must. I hope that we celebrated in recollection the finding twenty-five years ago last Thursday of the Supreme Court which would desegregate our schools. Our record has not been perfect, although I want to commend those who have worked for that to be fulfilled in the boundaries of this Annual Conference. I suppose our situation is a little like the cowboy's prayer when he prayed, "Lord, we aren't what we should be; we aren't what we ought to be' but thank God we aren't what we was."

They paid no particular heed specifically to the rights of women and children, and this today is high on our agenda. They did not have to refer to an energy crisis. In our time we must decide these issues with wisdom and fairness and justice.

They were not under the thermo-nuclear threat. We are, whether it be from within our borders, Three Mile Island — too close for comfort — or from afar; for also too close for comfort are the silos, the submarines, and the MeRVs of the Soviet Union, and we, of course, are too close for comfort to them.

For today the nations of the world spend more than a billion dollars a day for arms. I have only a vague idea of how much a billion dollars is. Someone tried to make it clear to me by saying that if you had a million dollars and you were to give away a dollar a minute, it would take you, day and night, two years at that rate to give away a million dollars. Now for a billion dollars you would have had to start in the year of the birth of our Lord and give away a dollar a minute, and at that rate you would still have twenty years to go before you would have completed giving away a billion dollars. We, the human race, manage to do that every twenty-four hours — and more than that.

Recently, as some of you know, I was in Geneva to have dialogue with representatives of the churches of the Soviet Union on Disarmament. It was an astonishing gathering. It was not at all like we expected. It was not as if we made any speeches to the effect that we were all right and they were all wrong, and they did not make the reverse of that. It seemed almost as if we did not represent churches of particular nations. We were there in the name of humanity, transcending nationality. When we heard from the two ambassadors negotiating SALT II, we were confronted with two men. If these ambassadors had appeared in a room and you or I had entered that room and they had not spoken, we would have identified them exactly the opposite. For the American ambassador was a rather studied, casual person in his air and the Russian ambassador looked as if he had just come out of Saville Row. And when they spoke they, too, spoke of all humanity. So that when the American ambassador had completed his account of the thermo-nuclear threat, the Russian ambassador said, "I am embarrassed. I have never been in this position in my life; for I can only tell you that I agree 100% with what my American counterpart has said." And so there came out of that meeting a document which I think has been pretty well circulated. I commend it to you. It is entitled "Choose Life" and it concludes with these words:

"Finally, our brothers and sisters, we call to your attention the authoritative predictions that nuclear war by the 1980's is an increasingly probability. In that decade of high risks we will be approaching the end of our millennium. Even now, only twenty years separate us from the moment when we will be called to mark prayerfully the bimillenary anniversary of the coming to the world of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. How shall we meet that day? In what state shall we present our planet to the Creator? Will it be a blooming garden or a lifeless, burned out, devastated land? Thus the Lord has set before us again life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life that you and your descendants may live."

What more should be said? Shall we say, "Father, save us from this hour," or shall we say, "Grant us wisdom; grant us courage for the facing of this hour."

II

Then there is the matter of the living of these days. Fosdick sang, as we know:

Lo! the hosts of evil round us
Scorn Thy Christ, assail His ways!
Fears and doubts too long have bound us,
Free our hearts to work and praise.

These realities are all too familiar to us once again. Just recall what has happened in recent months since last we met here. Three Popes in one year. Camp David. Eunice and I had our renewal leave in Jerusalem — what we called being seated on the 50-yard line of this effort toward peace. The Jonestown tragedy. These were the three top stories of all the news last year — and all of them religious in their connotation. The stories continue: Iran, China, the Longest Walk, inflation, Roots, the Next Generation, the settlement of Kent State (it was a long road from May 4, 1970, to January 4, 1979, but finally those responsible for that tragedy admitted their mistake and paid reparation). The list continues: unemployment, single-issue politics, Proposition 13, the possibility of a Constitutional Convention, Solzhenitsyn's address at Harvard entitled "The Exhausted West" — criticism of the United States' permissiveness and lack of values. The list continues: racism, the World Council of Churches' Fund to Combat Racism, exploitation, moral pretense, the electronic church, human rights.

In ancient Israel there was what was called the prophetic cycle. That is to say, sin, then social chaos — which is understood to be the judgment of God — then repentence and then renewal. The ancient Greeks had a way, the historians tell us, of viewing these things. It is said of them that the Greeks loved liberty but they came to love security more. They loved liberty and security but they came to love comfort more. So that the time finally came that each person expected more from society than he was willing to contribute to society. And then it was the ancient Greeks lost their comfort, their security and their liberty. Well, shall we escape from this age to another age? That would be the worst kind of unfaith. How we need wisdom! How we need courage for the living of these days, our days.

III

And then the modern prophet speaks of our missing the Kingdom's goal. He says,

Cure Thy children's warring madness,
Bend our pride to Thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
Rich in things and poor in soul.

It is almost as if the diagnosis had been made yesterday. These are the sins and shortcomings which cause us to miss the goal of the Kingdom of God. For in the very first Gospel to be written, the very first time Jesus arrived on the scene, he announced, "The time is fulfilled and the Kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe the glad tidings." Or we could put it this way: "The time is fulfilled and God's role is within your very reach. Therefore, turn your direction and put your confidence in this understanding of things."

Well, Jesus spoke of the Kingdom one hundred times in the Gospels. How much the Church is neglecting it in our day. For the Kingdom is a corporate reality. It relates to the real world. As politics have to do with all life, so does the Christian faith have to do with all life. Therefore, these two realms which some feel ought to be separated are bound to inter-relate and inter-penetrate. The Kingdom has to do with society. To be spiritual is, therefore, to be political. To be a part of the Kingdom is to be both spiritual and political. The Kingdom of God offers us new experience of time. All time being significant it offers us a new experience of space that is everywhere important. A new experience of ourselves as those who care, and the Kingdom, offer us a new task. That is to say, where the time of our lives and the place of our lives transect, there is our task to be performed. It is a Kingdom task and, therefore, to be done together.

A few moments ago I referred to the electronic church. It would have it that the Christian faith is a private and individualistic matter. It is as if people could individually hear the Word and then live without Christian fellowship, without being evidentially Christian to their fellows and without responsibility for their neighbors. How we have neglected and corrupted the Kingdom! Sometimes we have said, "Since God will bring the Kingdom, we need do nothing." Or again, "Since the Kingdom is not of this world, we need only pray for a heavenly Kingdom beyond this world." Or we say, "The Kingdom and the just society are one and the same." Or we say that the Kingdom and the Church are one and the same.

Now is the time once again to emphasize the Kingdom and its goal. The Kingdom is suffering power. The Kingdom is judgment and mercy. The Kingdom is task and challenge. The Kingdom is hope. May God grant us wisdom and courage lest we miss the Kingdom's goal. For ours is a fight to set humanity free. This is humanity's need. This is God's will for us.

IV

Therefore, we pray,

Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
Lest we fail not man nor Thee.

Well, if we are not to fail humankind and not to fail God, then this would include our taking seriously the child in this International Year of the Child. They are not just little people who, by nature, are perpetually happy and should be kept so. For we know all too well that the child often hurts. The child is often abused. They need to be heard and they need to be fulfilled. Jesus' words should ring in our ears this Year of the Child: "Let the little children come to me and do not restrain them, for it is of such ones as these that the Kingdom of God is formed." And this would include our concern for women who are all too often in our society battered and bruised, exploited and deprived. And it would include the sick, the poor, the prisoners, the unemployed, the handicapped. It would include serious work for peace. Secretary Kurt Waldheim in speaking of the arms' race once again called it an injustice, a form of theft, a mistake, a wrong, a folly, and we must be seen as combatting it.

What shall we say of our three missional priorities? Let us get on with them. Wasn't that a great special session we had of the Annual Conference on this theme in this very place last December? For the world is hungry. We desperately need as a denomination what the Ethnic Minority Local Church can bring. If we only would hear it, experience it, how rich would its promise be. Evangelism is our compelling and, in our time, hopeful task. Who was it that pointed out that when Jesus said, "Follow me and I will make you become fishers of men," concluded, "if we are not fishing, then perhaps we are not following." For Jesus said, "You are the light of the world." When at our best we reflect Jesus Christ as the true light of this world. And he said, "You are the salt of the earth" — that is, indispensable. We add flavor to society. Ours is the note of preservation of what is really the valued end. We are those called upon to make society tolerable lest evil become rampant. We are called upon, then, as John Wesley used to say, "to help save humanity from general infection." That was his word for it. People depend upon us. God depends upon us. Let us fail neither one: God or humanity.

Save us from weak resignation
To the evils we deplore;
Let the search for Thy salvation
Be our glory everymore.

Then, of course,

Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
Serving Thee whom we adore.

We have shown this, I think, during the past year, by helping in a very material way to save Wesley's Chapel. Someone said why didn't we give the money to the poor. That was thought of a long time ago, but to have failed to do this would have left multitudes the poorer. We have shown this by inviting the 1984 General Conference to this Area, and our invitation has been accepted. We have shown this as a denomination through fresh relationships with the three Black Methodist Churches. I hope you have read about that in the papers. It is brand new and it is filled with promise. We have shown this in our faithfulness to the ecumenical commitment. We have opportunities to show how we serve the one we adore in this very Conference in the way we conduct our business, in the way we gladly respond to a new opportunity in church extension — for now is the Time to Grow —, in electing a truly representative body of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, in committing ourselves to Jesus Christ and His Kingdom in a new way, in rejoicing in the presence of our Lord, in the Sacraments, in the Word, in fellowship, in mission, and in one another. In these ways we shall be truly serving Him whom we adore. For God is the One without whom we cannot live. Amen.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Presented by Felton E. May

Bishop Mathews, Sisters and Brothers of the Peninsula Annual Conference and guests:

As a people we surely will want to pause and express praise and thanksgiving to God and to one another for the gifts of love and peace in the midst of goals reached and many challenges yet to be met.

We wish to express to our brother and Bishop, James K. Mathews, our heartfelt appreciation for his enthusiastic and creative episcopal style, his leadership in United Methodism and God's caring through him for humankind in our world. We express profound love for Eunice Mathews whose graciousness and Christian warmth reflect abundant living as God's child.

Let us hasten to add a word of appreciation for you the members of this great Annual Conference representing more than one hundred thousand (100,000) United Methodists creatively demonstrating that pluralism is the source of our denominational strength. Our identity is multi-faceted, not schizophrenic. Our life style is Christ centered, our heritage is God given and our rootage is grounded in love.

Thanks be to God and to you:

— for undergirding and taking seriously "Showing and Telling the Good News," — for achieving 95.3% of the 1978 apportionment so that all of our obligations to the General Church and to our Conference Benevolence programs were paid in full,
— for Pastor Parish Relations Committees and Pastors creatively engaging evaluation forms and Church and Community profiles.
— and for David and Flo Baker, their warmth, leadership and commitment to Christ and our Church.

We want to focus our attention on the following concerns:

I
Congregational Development

One of the fastest population growth areas within the strip city that extends from Boston to Petersburg, Virginia, is the Delmarva Peninsula. For a long time isolated by water and lack of other means of transportation, it led a rather quiet and tranquil existence. The influx of people to meet the needs of a burgeoning government and nearby industrialization provided the opportunity for development. The needs of these people for vacation retreats and resorts, and the influx of light industry and food processing centers brought still other persons to provide the necessary support services. Retirees are seeking less costly places of residence. The end of the influx is not in sight.

The Church has a great opportunity to meet and nurture the spiritual needs that are everywhere people reside. And THE TIME IS NOW to begin our response. For a long time we have been afraid of the "edifice complex." In fact, in spite of the growth that is already an accomplished fact, the United Methodist Church has allowed fourteen years to elapse since we last established a new congregation within the Peninsula Conference. It should be noted that some denominations consider their "only real growth" to come through new congregations.

April 22, 1979, a new congregation was constituted as the Long Neck United Methodist Church on the Dover District. The Wilmington District will soon relocate one congregation and begin the process to establish a new one in a new population center. The Fenwick Island area should have a permanent ministry provided as soon as we can possibly afford to do so.

The indications are that the birth rate is beginning to increase again. We must not fail to be ready to provide religious nurture for the next generation lest we be charged with having squandered our inheritance.

Bishop Mathews has prepared a paper entitled A TIME TO GROW. In it, he clearly defines the need of congregational development and articulates a suggested process to accomplish the goal. The concluding statement is his affirmation of belief in the need and ultimate success of such a venture as a conference undertaking, and his pledge to give it his whole-hearted support.

Every church and every member can be an integral part of such an endeavor. An effort such as this can capture the imagination and generate enthusiasm in old and young alike. Our responsibility is not simply to be, but to become, daily. The United Methodist Church has a goodly heritage, because people such as we are, looked for new horizons, lived by conscience and conviction, articulated their faith, and reached out in love to minister to another's need. This is evangelism. This is the church alive and vital. And THE TIME IS NOW to be engaged in these pursuits.

There is a secular advertisement that has the words, "Reach out! Reach out and touch someone." Those who continue to listen to the ad are further urged to show they care by calling someone.

This is what the church is all about. Reaching out! Showing that we care! And THE TIME IS NOW!

II
Ethnic Minority Concerns

Twenty-five months ago a little over one hundred people were expected at Wesley College in Dover, Delaware, to participate in an Ethnic Minority Local Church Development Consultation. Over two hundred took part in the laity-clergy experience.

Sixteen strategy areas entitled "Practical Proposals" were enunciated. In each of these areas specific tactics were suggested. There are signs that the Peninsula Conference is struggling to produce more than rhetoric to strengthen our ethnic minority churches. We offer the following evidence.

Dover District: Our Native American congregation was funded by the Commission on Religion and Race for a second year in a program to develop knowledge and appreciation of heritage, and to promote community action; two new parsonages were occupied during the year, one at Laurel and another at Seaford; and a study is underway on the Clarksville Charge concerning parsonage need.

Easton District: The Grapevine Cluster involving fourteen churches and four pastors is functioning as is the interracial Pilot's Wheel Cluster embracing twenty-one churches and six pastors; two new parsonages are in process; community needs are being addressed in Easton; a Stewardship Seminar with national leadership was held in the Chestertown-Church Hill area.

Salisbury District: At Wesley Temple a day care center has been funded, leadership for the hunger action program supplied, a new church and hall are being constructed, plus community action activities; a Church-Campus-Community program at Princess Anne was funded for the second year by the Commission on Religion and Race, a fellowship hall is in progress at Liberia Church near Marion, a consultation with three charges and eight churches participating is currently struggling in the Snow Hill area, and plans for a new church building are being pursued at Mardela Springs.

Wilmington District: Simpson and St. Paul's choirs have combined talents to raise monies for the Ethnic Minority Local Church Fund, a survey of the South New Castle County Parish revealed startling data for mission opportunity, a consultation on future development and service continues at Coleman Memorial, we as a conference funded a student associate at Ezion-Mt. Carmel, which congregation in other activity has formed a corporation for Social Service and conducts a weekly luncheon designed to reach the business community.

This list is not exhaustive. Such a catalog is a beginning but ONLY a beginning. We call upon pastors and local church officers to intentionally create opportunities for interracial exchange, fellowship, and cooperation in community concerns. We again remind the Annual Conference that we are committed to the appointment of pastors without regard to race or sex, and continue to urge each Pastor-Parish relations committee to begin to work in local congregations as to the reality of this fact. The agencies of this Annual Conference are hereby requested to review their Affirmative Action personnel policies as they relate to the hiring of minorities in administrative roles.

We dare not let another year go by without concrete evidence of open hiring policies that are vigorously and aggressively pursued.

Dr. Woody White, Executive Secretary of the General Commission on Religion and Race stated recently: "Racism is alive and well in United Methodism." Hinderance to the elimination of this cancer may well be found behind the pulpit and in the pew. However thanks be to God for courageous pastors and laity who put aside pride and ethnic heritage to exchange pulpits and choirs, swap 'pot luck' suppers, study, pray, whoop, shout, and praise the Lord together.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES

We commend the examples of cooperative ministries cited above. Space does not permit designed treatment of this subject. We commend the efforts of the Town and Country Committee of the Conference Board of Global Ministries. We recommend that every Charge study their report to this Annual Conference. We further recommend that every multiple church charge secure and study "A Resource Notebook for Cooperative Parish Development," and study paragraphs 201-206 of the 1976 Discipline. We affirm that the materials contained in the foregoing suggestions are basic to strengthening the small membership church in our day.

III
Evangelism And Church Growth

As this quadrennium moves toward a close, Evangelism in its full Biblical sense is really becoming a priority in some of our churches, and many more are at least talking about it and making it a matter of serious study. Approximately 10 churches on each District have already had a "Consultation on Evangelism" using either the booklet "Showing and Telling the Good News" or "Ethnic Minority Local Church Development" as a resource for developing strategy. As a result, these churches are now working on a 2 year program rooted in evangelistic concerns which was put together by their members who participated in the consultation. Our Conference goal for 1979-1980 is for all of the rest of our churches to experience a local church "consultation" that will help them get going in a real program to meet the needs in their own communities. In order to provide capable leadership for such consultations, Bishop Mathews will lead a workshop on June 30 at Western Maryland College in which at least 10 persons from each District will be given this training. Each congregation is urged to anticipate such a consultation as early in this coming conference year as possible, and all pastors and Council on Ministries members should become well acquainted with the booklets "Showing and Telling the Good News" and "Ethnic Minority Local Church Development" as preparation.

Many persons for whom the word "Evangelism" has had negative connotations in the past are being helped to appreciate it in new and meaningful ways by the wholistic emphasis being given to it throughout our denomination today. We are beginning to understand that everything we do in serving human need, in fighting the forces of oppression and injustice, as well as in proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ can be "evangelism" if we are intentional about it. In fact, the Word preached needs to be demonstrated in acts of caring if it is to be heard and received.

BUT a word of warning is in order. We must not arbitrarily label everything the church does as "evangelism" just so we can get with the popular movement of our time. We must not forget that the basic goal of true evangelism must be "the making of new Christian disciples" as Jesus asked us to do in the Great Commission. Dr. George Hunter defines this as having "two objectives for people: (1) that they become lifetime followers of Jesus Christ as their Lord, living by his power and his will, in their lives, relationships, and world, and (2) that they be incorporated into Christ's body — the church or messianic community." This Great Commission, disciple-making approach which was rediscovered by John Wesley and became the very heart of the Wesleyan movement has now become the core of the worldwide Church Growth movement in our time. A growing body of literature in this field is now available to the local church, enabling us to use the results of extensive research so that we can better understand ourselves as churches and how we can reach the persons around us who are most receptive to the gospel at a given time in their lives. A Church Growth Seminar was conducted on the Wilmington District, co-sponsored by our Conference Division on Evangelism, in April in which 135 persons spent 10 hours each learning the basic principles and strategies of this form of evangelism. It is hoped that this pilot project will be repeated in many parts of our conference, and the new materials being produced by our United Methodist Board of Discipleship in this field are commended to all pastors and concerned laity. We affirm the statement made in our report last year that "God wants His church to grow in every place: spiritually, numerically, and in effective service." Thus we call the people of our congregations to pray, strategize, and work to make the faith and life of the church a real live option for the "undiscipled people" of our Peninsula.

Stewardship

Stewardship workshops for pastors will be held this fall beginning September 24. The workshop will be a thirty (30) hour continuing education experience with national and conference leadership. There will be work modules on experiencing the theological basis for Christian stewardship, with practical tools for a broad concept of Christian stewardship that will be usable in small churches, large churches, multi-church charges and ethnic churches. We heartily and enthusiastically encourage the presence of each clergy person and the support of every congregation.

The Journal of Stewardship provides us with thumbnail sketch of a recent book by Erich Fromm entitled To Have or To Be.

> "Erich Fromm provides several helpful insights into human personality. He suggests that there are two basic modes of living: the mode of having and the mode of being. The mode of having leads to covetousness and the desire for power, two basic elements of a sick society. The mode of being involzes human creativity, sharing love, and being interested and active in the joy of living.
> "The good news from Fromm is that human beings have the potential for both modes of living. Human nature is not defined by the having mode, as popular wisdom would insist. Humans have an inherent desire to share, grow, and express themselves creatively. Since there is always tension between the two modes of living, 'only to the extent that we decrease the mode of having . . . can the mode of being emerge.' Such a statement suggests that the church should be modeling new modes of being stewards rather than attempting to wheedle more dollars from people who are content to live in the having mode."

The Reverend Mr. Richard Bailey informed us not too long ago that "stewardship is everything we do as Christians after we say we believe."

We believe that as good stewards of our time, talents, and resources and empowered by the Holy Spirit we are called by God to:

— be supportive of the growing role of women in the Ordained ministry.

— recruit through every channel available to us the most able men and women that God has called to preach, especially blacks, native Americans, Hispanics, and Asian Americans.

— to look beyond the smoke and fire of issues like abortion and homosexuality and heal the soul of a depraved, deprived world community.

— to manage with restraint our personal energy needs and our corporate energy needs through multiple church and charge worship experiences during the winter months, and any other action to conserve the use of oil and gas.
— to engage the governmental processes for the cessation of the nuclear arms race.
— to build parsonages so that every full-time pastor can live within the bounds of the charge.
— to creatively care for the unemployed, and the under-employed, especially ethnic minority youth so that full employment will be not simply a dream but a reality.

Stewardship is what we do after we say we believe. Let us now share what we historically believe —

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Minister: Let us unite in this historic confession of the Christian faith:
Minister and People: I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORTS

DOVER DISTRICT
William H. Revelle, Jr., Superintendent

If there was any hymn that might have been called the theme song of John Wesley, it could well have been the one written by Sir Isaac Watts and with additional verses by John Wesley himself entitled, "I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath." Certainly these were the last words he was heard to utter before death overtook him. There can be no nobler declaration of intent by anyone.

The Dover District must have caught some of this fervor to look at the records of the parishes this past year. It is not enough to be concerned about "me, my wife, my son John, these three, no more." Our concern should be about, "me, my wife, and all God's children by the score." Something of this latter is true because our district increased its giving for others through the conference apportionments by two percent this year, and by so doing, we enabled someone else to minister more effectively where we could not go.

We have grown spiritually as well. This year we have received seventy-eight more on profession of faith than last year. In all categories, we received one hundred fifteen more persons than last year. In the church school, there were forty-four more received on profession of faith than last year.

The flame of Methodist accomplishment burned brightly as mortgages were ignited for the parsonage at Fenwick Island, and church buildings at Seaford Mt. Olivet and Smyrna Asbury, signifying the end of indebtedness on these structures.

Those foregoing statistics do not state the buildings constructed or made new for worship and education, nor do they indicate the concern of the laity for the parsonage families as they renewed these residences.

Pastors and parishioners alike are to be commended for these accomplishments!

Changes in ministerial status occur regularly. This year the Reverend William A. Turner and his wife Barbara; the Reverend Edward H. Jackson and his wife Elizabeth; and the Reverend Jeremiah R. Lee and wife Minnie will retire. The Reverend Ira D. Steckman and wife Merle will take a sabbatical year. The Reverend William J. Garrett expired. For these and their families we pray God's continually abiding presence.

Joel Everett joined the home of Paul and Glenna Isaacs, Susan Elaine joined the home of John and Nancy Owens, Carrie Anne joined the home of Michael and Betty Price, and Kathryn Leigh joined the home of Raymond and Linda Hopkins. May these fathers and mothers be endowed with wisdom and grace to fulfill the high privilege of parenthood.

For the first time in fourteen years in the Peninsula Conference, a new church has been constituted. Under the leadership of Irv and Pat Behm, the Long Neck United Methodist Church has come into being with fifty-eight constituting members. This congregation has already negotiated to purchase its first parsonage and is now negotiating to acquire land for the church.

If the same rate of population growth continues as presently in the Fenwick Island area, it will be necessary to constitute a congregation there shortly.

Even where there has previously been rift and division, healing and growth have taken place. Now if it sounds like the clergy and the congregants have been busy this past year — THEY HAVE! For it seems like the Dover District has adopted the words of the hymn as its theme song, too. May accomplishments such as these grow from more to more making a vaster music of peace and concern for all.

The hymn? "I'll praise my Maker while I've breath; And when my voice is lost in death, Praise shall employ my nobler powers. My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life, and thought, and being last, Or immortality endures."

GOD BLESS!

EASTON DISTRICT
Felton E. May, District Superintendent

I. Strengthening Local Ministries
A. The Council on Ministries

On Friday evening, October 13, and Saturday morning, October 14, 1978, a "District Conference" for the Easton District was held at the Talbot County Auditorium, Easton High School, Easton, Maryland. The purpose of the conference was as follows:

— To celebrate through dynamic worship our oneness in Christ as United Methodist.
— To study and develop programs through the local church or charge council on ministries.
— To help local councils on ministries focus on practical and "do-able" programs and projects related to our United Methodist Missional Priorities.
— To set the pace for the evangelization of the Easton District area.

The Reverend Mr. David W. Baker, Peninsula Conference Council on Ministries Director, and The Reverend Mr. Forrest Stith, Baltimore Conference Council on Ministries Director, served as keynote speakers. The Reverend Mr. Hervey Greer, The Reverend Mr. Widmon Butler, and The Reverend Mr. Ray Graham shared program responsibilities related to our Missional Priorities. Our Conference Council on Ministries staff-associates, The Reverend Mr. David Riffe, The Reverend Mr. Richard Bailey and The Reverend Mr. Nathaniel Miller, undergirded the resourcing of workshops conducted by Work area Chairpersons and Age Level Coordinators of our District Council on Ministries.

Music for the two day event was provided by the Dorchester County Reachout Crusade Choir, the Grape Vine Cluster Choir, and the Calvary-Asbury Youth Choir of Sudlersville. We are indebted to all persons who helped to make the "conference" a memorable event.

B. Clustering for Ministry

The Grapevine Cluster representing 14 black congregations in the Stillpond-Church Hill-Chestertown-Fairlee area continues to function at a high level of creativity. The General Commission on Religion and Race has granted the Grapevine Cluster funds for administrative personnel.

A second cluster of churches was initiated in the South Dorchester County area and is composed of 21 black and white churches. After a day long program consultation event they set specific program goals and named themselves the "Pilot Wheel Cluster." The cluster pastors are: The Reverend Mr. Edgar Clawson, The Reverend Mr. Charles Downing, The Reverend Mr. Wallace Green, The Reverend Mr. Commander Bryant, The Reverend Mr. Robert Riddleberger and The Reverend Mr. Kevin English who was designated chairperson and coordinator.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Riffe serve as staff resource persons to the Grape Vine and Pilot Wheel Clusters respectively. It is our feeling that the clustering of small churches for nurture and ministry is essential for the continued strength of our Annual Conference and United Methodism.

II. Sharing Gifts

The people of God are to be commended for continued excellence in the payment of World Service and Conference Benevolences. Once again the District registered its giving beyond the 99% mark. It is with deep appreciation that we acknowledge increased efforts toward second mile giving through the Advance and for our Missional Priorities. We thank God for the gifts given and His blessings of gifts to give.

III. The Laity of Ministry

Mrs. Josef (Lillian) Liener, president of the District United Methodist Women and Mr. Francis Turpin, District Lay Leader provide excellent leadership for the laity of the District. The United Methodist Women are numerically strong and growing with increased efforts to enhance their program. The District Laity Banquet is always our outstanding event. The Reverend Mr. Edwin Thomas was the guest speaker for the overflow audience.

IV. Ministers and Mates Fellowship

Mrs. Carrol (Lucille) Scott and The Reverend Mr. Dale Vroman are an outstanding team for program development and fellowship events. This year's program theme was: "The Needs of the Parsonage Family." Guest speakers included Bishop Fred G. Holloway, Bishop and Mrs. James K. Mathews, and The Reverend Robert P. Wood, Director of Spiritual Formation for Families, The Upper Room, Nashville, Tenn.

V. Births

A girl, Kathryn Jane, was born to Reverend and Mrs. Howard Walseman on January 27, 1979.

VI. Pastoral Appointments

The Reverend Roy Phillips was appointed to Grace Church, Cambridge.

VII. Ministering in Love

Phyllis and I are constantly aware of the support of clergy and laity of this district as we attempt to be in ministry and share the love of Christ. We are indebted to everyone and especially to Bishop and Mrs. James K. Mathews for their encouragement and caring. A special word of appreciation is extended to the members of the District Committee on the Superintendency chaired by Mr. James Thomas, for concurring in a three month study leave to be spent in Sierra Leone, West Africa. The May family is looking forward to a time of service and theological reflection.

VIII. Ministering in the Future

Church growth and development is the number one priority as we come to the close of this decade. Special attention was given to local charges and individual churches as they engaged the evangelism process of "Showing and Telling the Good News" on special consultations with Administrative Boards regarding program development. In many areas local church memberships and church school memberships are growing. However, the District recorded a net loss this year in membership.

We sense the need to creatively manage our time and talents for maximum results from our Stewardship. This has been a year to develop programs and set goals. We are looking forward to a season of growth and productivity as a people in mission in the name of Jesus Christ.

SALISBURY DISTRICT

Edwin C. Thomas, Jr., District Superintendent

The congregations, meeting in the 140 Meeting Houses of the Salisbury District, in the denomination called United Methodists, thank God our Father, for His accepting and using our offerings in the mission and work of His Church. Our offerings were made in response to His gifts of Grace and Peace to us through our Lord Jesus Christ. "We love because He first loved us." (John 4:19)

Changes in relationships, as always, were experienced in the process of that responding. Giula Marjorie Roberts (Mrs. Maxwell), Nellie Jones (Mrs. Grover N.) and Mary Chandler (Mrs. Basil) joined the church triumphant. The Reverend Henry Zollinhofer and Janet Middleton Evans took the vows of marriage on July 29, 1978. Kristine Frances, daughter of The Reverend Joseph and Marylyn Moore, was born February 6, 1979.

January, 1979, saw the Reverend Samuel L. Wilkins take a leave of absence from the Whaleysville Charge. The Reverend George W. Taylor, retired, was appointed as interim pastor. On May 1 the Reverend Joseph Moore withdrew from the United Methodist ministry and the Reverend Charles Strickler, retired, has been caring for the worship services at Powellville United Methodist Charge.

The leadership of the District produced a fine response on several occasions, i.e. The Laity Banquet, Pastor-Parish Training session, the January training session, The Ash Wednesday Service and the sessions of the United Methodist Women.

Construction of a Sanctuary and Hall is underway at Wesley Temple. John Wesley, on the Sharptown-Zion Charge is working toward a new church. Liberia church, on the Marion Station-Handy's Charge is in the process of securing a fellowship hall. Mt. Wesley Church on the Girdletree Charge is planning to build a church education wing.

Through the efforts of Emmanuel Church at Mardela Springs and the Mardela Springs community, the time interval was changed on the traffic signal at Route 50 and Maryland 313, in an attempt to reduce accidents. A displaced family has been cared for in Snow Hill. Hunger action is being supported vigorously by United Methodists throughout the entire area.

Snow Hill-Ebenezer Charge, Stockton-Shiloh Charge and the Girdletree Charge are meeting currently to assess and to evaluate their future, assisted by the Reverend Nathaniel Miller, Associate Council Director, and their pastors. The Upper Hill Charge has held preliminary meetings, defining options for its future.

During the year the Reverend John Brittain was awarded the Doctor of Philosophy degree and the Reverend James T. Seymour and the Reverend Serchel Hodge each received the degree of Doctor of Ministry.

Significant evangelistic efforts involving several charges, in a cooperative effort, were held in Salisbury at Bethesda Church and at Crisfield High School. The Rev. Dr. Brooks Reynolds was coordinator in Salisbury and the Rev. Howard Ketterman was the coordinator in Crisfield.

The following churches received, during 1978, on Profession of Faith, 10% or more of their membership: Mt. Zion, Pocomoke, Rev. James Simon; Ebenezer, Snow Hill, Rev. J. T. Seymour; and St. James, Tyaskin, Rev. Clarence T. Handy.

These are but samples of the responses of the 22,429 members of the Salisbury District and their 58 pastors to God's love in Christ. What these samples indicate, should cause all of you to join me, in appreciation to those of the District for their response and their commitment and to thank our Lord Jesus Christ, who made it all possible.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

William Hemphill, Jr., District Superintendent

"The whole is greater than the sum of its parts" is a modern axiom which aptly describes any District in United Methodism and is certainly descriptive of our Wilmington District. To merely cite the statistics of 85 churches grouped in 53 charges consisting of 31,684 members and served by 62 clergy is to miss the growing spirit of unity and purpose which transcends a local program and crosses parish and state lines so that more and more of our people sense that they are part of something bigger and stronger than their own local church. The District helps to link the congregation to that larger whole in which we sense the living God at work in every area of modern life.

I. The Clergy

A. New to the District since the last Conference session:
John M. Dunnack to Mt. Lebanon-Mt. Salem, August 1, 1978
Norma O. Bailey to Charlestown, September 1, 1978
Dieter Bender to Perryville, October 1, 1978
Ronald Dyson to Grace Church Associate, January 1, 1979

B. Births:
F. David, Jr., son of David and Rosemary Weber, May 16, 1978
James John, son of John and Sylvia Holden, December 9, 1978
Shelley Beth, daughter of Boyd and Linda Etter, December 16, 1978
Melinda Elizabeth, daughter of John and Mary Dunnack, December 20, 1978

C. Marriages:
The Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton and Barbara Jacobs were married in St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Wilmington, on May 27, 1978.
The Rev. William H. Black and Clara Hall were married in Malton, New Jersey on December 28, 1978, and
The Rev. James B. Jones and Rebecca Ann Seelig were married in Leeds Church on April 21, 1979.

D. Ministers and Mates
Under the able leadership of Carrie Henderson and Glenn Catley, Jr. and their respective executive committees, this has been a year of intentional effort to build a stronger sense of caring and concern among the parsonage families. This has included some very excellent programs, one of which was a day-long workshop on Parsonage Family relationships led by Mrs. Virginia Law Shell, and one of which was led by the retired pastors and wives of the District. This group has been a great support to the District Parsonage family.

E. Retirement
The Rev. Paul R. Hilton will retire at this session of the Conference after 6 effective years at Coleman Memorial during which he has been very active in Conference and District work. He and his wife, Bernice, will live in Wilmington.

II. The Laity

Laity activities of the District are headed by Mrs. Cordelia Jones, President of the District United Methodist Women, and our District Lay Leader, J. Robert Ashton. Highlights of the year include the District UMW meetings and workshops, Lenten Communion Breakfasts, an outstanding Laity Banquet, and the Lay Speakers Courses taught by the Rev. Perry O. Hill and Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton. The major project of the Laity District-wide is the recruitment of 2,000 members for our District Church Extension Society.

III. Stewardship And Finance

Inflation and rapidly escalating energy costs for heat and light have placed heavy burdens on local church budgets. Some congregations have changed the meeting room for the worship services during the cold winter months in order to conserve fuel by not heating large sanctuaries. However, our people are making serious efforts to raise their level of giving so that they can meet their commitments to World Service and Conference Benevolences, participate in giving to Missional Priorities and Advance Special projects, and at the same time increase the financial support of their pastors. The total support for pastors District-wide was increased a total of $66,796. Unfortunately, not every pastor received an increase equal to the rate of inflation, and some had no increase at all.

Several congregations have made concentrated efforts in stewardship to challenge their people to increased financial commitment to Christ's work. Perhaps the most notable success came to Peniel Church where the pledging was increased by about 60% over the previous year.

IV. Evangelism And Church Extension

The Church of Jesus Christ, wherever it is established, grows in two basic ways: by the expansion of existing congregations as new persons are won to become disciples of Jesus Christ and incorporated in a local fellowship of believers, and by extension as new congregations are formed. In reference to the first of these, ten congregations have participated in "Consultations on Evangelism," planning two years of programs using the booklets "Showing and Telling the Good News" and "Ethnic Local Church Development" as a resource. Also, a Seminar on Church Growth was held at Aldersgate Church on April 6-7 in which 135 persons from this District and throughout the Conference received 10 hours of training in Church Growth principles. The Rev. Donald Hurst, our District Chairperson for Evangelism, who coordinated this Seminar, is prepared to assist any local church or group of churches to arrange for a similar Church Growth Seminar when requested. I believe that increasing numbers of people are convinced that God really wants His Church to grow in every place, and that it can grow whenever a local congregation also wants that to happen.

The 5 District Churches receiving the highest number of persons on "Confession of Faith or Restored" are:

Aldersgate (O. J. Shockley)	- 88
Asbury-New Castle (T. C. Short)	- 59
St. Mark's (J. G. Stapleton)	- 53
Red Lion (G. A. Foster)	- 46
Newark (P. E. McCoy)	- 43

The 5 District Churches with the best record of additions on "Confession of Faith or Restored" as a percentage of membership are:

Salem (D. J. Hurst)	- 15% (17 persons)
Christiana (D. J. Hurst)	- 11% (32 persons)
Ebenezer-West Cecil (R. E. Green)	- 10% (10 persons)
Kirkwood (R. E. Simpson)	- 10% (14 persons)
Scott (G. S. Tulak)	- 10% (6 persons)

Plans for a new congregation in the growing I-95 corridor include the sale of Union Church and the relocation of that congregation and its assets to an 8 acre site at Buckley on U.S. Route 40 on which we have an option. The pastor and people of Union Church are to be commended for their sense of mission in this effort. A Mission Design Team consisting of Conference, District, and local church leaders is developing guidelines for this project.

New church development requires significant funding. In order to assist with this, the District is organizing a Church Extension Society with a goal of recruiting 2,000 members who will give at least $25 annually for a 4-year period for new church development. The Buckley site is only one of several places where a new church may be needed, or where an existing congregation must grow and expand facilities in a major way over the next few years.

V. Property Matters

On June 3, 1978, the New Castle Church celebrated the payment of its debt on the educational building by burning the mortgage. On May 6, 1979, Asbury Church at New Castle celebrated the remodeling of its worship room into a beautiful sanctuary by dedicating the whole property, now debt free, to the glory of God.

A tragic fire destroyed Cokesbury Church near Port Deposit on August 7, 1978. Plans are underway to rebuild this in the near future. Although the property was insured, the insurance was inadequate to replace the structure at today's costs. This should remind every congregation to constantly up-grade the insurance coverage to keep pace with our inflationary economy.

In spite of the tragic split in the Red Lion congregation which occurred a year ago, a faithful remnant led by their new pastor, Dr. Gerald A. Foster, has continued that ministry. New persons have joined the congregation to help with the work, and others are now being added to the rolls on "Profession of Faith," so that I can report that the Red Lion United Methodist Church is active and viable as a congregation. Although the road to recovery has been very difficult for the continuing group, laity throughout the District and Conference have been very supportive and encouraging by intentional visits and prayers. Since September the attendance has averaged well over 125 per Sunday. Unfortunately, serious conflict issues have arisen between the Red Lion Evangelical Association (the group that separated) and the continuing church, and much effort has gone into trying to resolve these matters. I am pleased to report that, through the work of our attorney, Thomas S. Lodge, a Settlement Agreement was executed on May 14, 1979, which included the restitution of some funds to the continuing church and an agreement that all parties would bury the past in history so that both congregations can get on with the work which God is calling them to do.

VI. Mission Outreach And Conclusion

It is an impossible task to enumerate the many ways in which our churches are engaged in mission to meet human need locally and around the world. However, the Newark and Elkton Churches should be cited for their work in resettling three Southeast Asian Refugee families. The Newark Church took a second family this Spring after having such a fine experience with their first family. The Cecilton Charge has an outstanding ministry to combat local hunger by food raised in its large garden to share with persons in need. This Charge and its pastor, Jonathan Baker, with a grant from our Conference Board of Global Ministries, has also developed a summertime ministry to that large recreational area in Cecil County.

The Methodist Action Program, directed by Dr. James Young, continues to sensitize us about human needs, both physical and spiritual, and about issues of injustice and evil in our society. It is also becoming active in the work of Church Extension in the District, and is now considering a recent study it commissioned on the Hispanic Community and the options it presents for ministry. The former Harrison Street Church building has been leased to the Latin American Community Center for its program. Through its active director, M.A.P. is represented on many community and ecumenical committees dealing with social issues in the urban area and state wide.

The first year of school desegregation in New Castle County is nearly completed. High tribute is due those pastors who spent long hours in crisis intervention work and public relations so that the risk of violence would be kept at a minimum. And many concerned laity have given clear Christian witness in their efforts for good education for all children, with the result that this first year has been peaceful and rather successful.

Finally, I want to express my deep gratitude to the Lord, Jesus Christ, for allowing me to serve in this ministry; to Bishop Mathews for his leadership, wise counsel and friendship, and for his visits to several of our congregations; to my colleagues for their prayers and comradeship; and to all the clergy and laity of our District for their cooperation and prayerful support. The future is bright with possibility and God is with us as He calls us to go forward in the ministry He has for us to do.

Conference Council On Ministries

Introductory Statement

It is the hope of the Council that we have struggled with the real issues that are confronting the Church. Our task is the necessity to prioritize without letting the work of the Church be incomplete; this is always an agonizing process that requires prayer and dialogue among the believers.

Clearly, the Conference Council is one of the more visible places for this interaction. The Council is not merely a gathering of Conference leadership; it represents hundreds of individuals on Boards, Divisions, Agencies, and Task Force groups within the Annual Conference. Beyond these there is a direct relationship to the local church and the more than one hundred thousand members who call themselves United Methodists on the Peninsula. There is also a direct relationship to the General Church, that relationship being a two-way street.

But most important, are we being reconciled with the Good News? Are we in fact the Body od Christ; are we hearing His words? — Not only in the context in which they are spoken, but are they being contemporized? Are we meeting the issues that are present in our world, the 20th Century? God's original action was a response to the needs of the First Century world; we are aware of the fact that the Gospel is always relevant to the age in which we live.

Knowing all the potential represented in this Annual Conference and in the connectional Church, we confess how little has happened; we do rejoice in the increasing sense of involvement, but we are aware at the same time of the vast numbers of those who are not feeling an integral part of the Body of Christ, in many ways feeling alienated from the mainstream. It is the task of the Council to agonize with these realities.

I would like to turn now to major areas of emphases (recognizing the ongoing program which will be a part of the Conference Program Director's report). On behalf of the Council on Ministries, I wish to express genuine thanks to Dave Baker, our Conference Program Director, and his associates, Richard Bailey, Nathaniel Miller, David Riffe, John Simpers, Jr. and Walter Stone. We observe a dedication of task on the part of all of these persons and an extension beyond the call of duty.

Turning to major emphases in the Council this past year, we look first at the Missional Priorities and note with great pleasure the fact that the $38,572 that was received during the year, 1978, is a five hundred percent increase over 1977. We recognize that we are not yet meeting our Goal, but there is an increasing awareness. We are concerned that this awareness must be built upon.

We note as well a significant increase in the income for the Homes for the Aged, a sixty percent increase was realized in 1978 as compared to 1977. That $16,348 represents much needed money for scholarship aid for those who are in our homes for the aged. It does represent, however, only one step forward in our Goal. We have moved from ten cents per member in the Conference to sixteen cents per member. It is hoped that we will be able to move to a minimum of twenty-five cents per member.

We look to the Board of Discipleship and particularly to the Division of Evangelism as they have led us into increasing understanding of the task that is set before us as it regards Evangelism. One of the major emphases of the Council through the year has been to implement the directive of the Annual Conference to provide a staff person whose responsibilities would be Drayton Manor/Evangelism. Recognizing how long the Annual Conference has dealt with this issue, and the central nature of its priority, we have spent many, many hours dealing with job description. A Search Committee has diligently sought the right person who could blend both of these emphases into a logical thrust, totally utilizing the potential of Drayton Manor, and also provide the leadership necessary in the area of Evangelism. We have arrived at the point of a choice of candidate; we have also determined a strategy to fill that position.

It was thought at one time that we would attempt to have this position filled at the Annual Conference this year, being ahead of the agenda of 1980. Having found the person for this task, we also find the need for preparedness on the part of that person. As a result, the individual intended to be appointed to the position in 1980, will spend the next months becoming informed as to the dual nature of the task and prepared in terms of training sessions for each aspect of it. We realize that this will delay one year the implementation of this program, but the long-range effect will be to give the associate a more credible relationship to the task by allowing adequate time for preparation. We are excited by our choice; we are increasingly convinced that these two aspects of our Conference life can be integrated in an effective way.

There are two groups directly related to the Conference Council. They are part of the Committee on Camps and Retreat Centers: Drayton Manor, and Camp Pecometh. One of the major problems in relationship to Drayton Manor and Pecometh has been the lack of sufficient numbers of lay persons involved in task groups to take the responsibility of the development of both of these facilities. We needed more lay persons involved working with our staff. We have multiplied many times the number of persons who are actively involved, and are receiving positive results. This will reflect on the effectiveness of the new staff position of Drayton/Evangelism. This is another factor in the Council's allowing one year of development of both the person and those who are working on the committees at Drayton Manor. It will give the Camps and Retreat Centers and those committees ample time to develop agenda and direction, before we move into the actual staffing of the new position.

A final word of sincere thanks is extended to the Program/Budget Committee of the Council, this year chaired by Charles Barton. After many hours of agonizing over available funds and program requests they brought recommendations to the Council at its February meeting. A full day meeting eventually resulted in recommendation to the Council on Finance and Administration, whose report will be made to this Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert P. Whitlock, President

We reaffirm the fact that only by cooperation and coordination can our separate staff responsibilities relate to and complement each other. To produce the best program endeavor with the resources at hand, the Conference Council on Ministries Staff has held regular, periodical meetings, at which time concerns are shared; past, present and future plans reviewed. This has been a valid linkage within, and helped us in our specific responsibilities to the Council at large. The Executive Committee and the Council at large met five times to consider programs and ways of implementing same within the Conference. The officers are President, Robert P. Whitlock; Vice-President, W. Leon Taylor; Secretary, Virginia Clendaniel.

Positions filled early in the year were: Chairperson of Communication — The Reverend James L. Hartman; Conference Youth Coordinator — The Reverend James M. Caldwell; Vice President of Board of Higher Education and Ministry — The Reverend John W. Van Tine upon resignation of The Reverend George L. Stellges. Later in the year Mrs. Cordelia Jones joined us as the President of United Methodist Women of the Wilmington District; and upon the resignation of The Reverend Everett Isaacs, The Reverend Ray Graham became Acting Chairperson of the Division of Evangelism.

I. ACTIVITIES DURING YEAR FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Camp and Retreat Center Committee has been divided into two Task Forces. They will be so designated until they meet conference requirements of the 1/3 rule. These Task Forces have been completely reorganized and subdivided into areas of special concerns; the result being a much improved workable relationship between Associate Directors and Task Force members. Each Task Force is now able to apply its full time of meeting to the specific matters pertaining to the program and individual expertise is now channeled through their interests.

As a Conference and Council we were proud of the leadership given by The Reverend Felton E. May, Easton District Superintendent, to the Northeastern Jurisdictional Ethnic, Evangelistic event held September 8-10, 1978 in Baltimore, Maryland. The general theme — "Affirming our Diversity in Christ through Dynamic Evangelism" called laity and clergy from each conference within the Jurisdiction together for the purpose of sharing the varieties of our evangelizing styles and the unity of our concern to proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior to all people. Both laity and clergy from the Peninsula Conference participated in the daily sessions, concluding Sunday afternoon in a mass meeting at the Civic Center, where many area Methodists converged.

The November meeting of the Council was changed to December 2 when a greater portion of time was spent in a workshop format. Details of this procedure follow later under Further Information and Recommendations.

At this same meeting, the following resolution was presented by Nathaniel Miller, Associate Council Director for Special Ministries:

WHEREAS the fourteen churches which comprise the Chestertown-Pomona, Church Hill-Burrsville, Still Pond-Coleman, and Rock Hill-Fairlee Charges have found that a more adequate and meaningful ministry can be rendered to the geographical area in Kent and Queen Anne Counties, Maryland, which gravitate commercially, socially and culturally around Chestertown, Maryland, by cooperatively combining pastoral leadership, lay leadership, facilities and monetary resources,

AND WHEREAS each of the fourteen congregations has met and discussed the idea and authorized the writing of a proposal,

AND WHEREAS the proposal has been written, circulated, changed, corrected, and ratified by the Administrative Board of each of the fourteen churches,

AND WHEREAS the implementation of the first phase which has brought into being a Cluster Council on Ministries consisting of equal representation from each Church to be technically assisted by a probe staff consisting of The Rev. Felton E. May, District Superintendent; The Rev. Nathaniel L. Miller, Associate Council Director; and the pastors: The Rev. Joseph Williams, The Rev. Hervey W. Greer, The Rev. Hanson Boney, and The Rev. Cordella Brown,

AND WHEREAS procedurally and organizationally we are in accord with Paragraph 206.3 (6, 7) of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Conference Council on Ministries endorse the Grapevine Cluster as a Pilot for the Cluster Cooperative Model.

The above proposal received several comments of high praise and was unanimously approved by a standing vote.

Tuesday, December 12, was one of the Peak days of the 1978 year. Three visiting Bishops, along with our own Bishop Mathews, visited our Conference for the purpose of seeing what we are doing in the area of Missional Priorities and then to share with us as a Conference their deep convictions on the program of each priority. After a special session of the Council on Ministries during which time the chairperson of each Missional Priority Task Force gave report, dinner was shared in the Simpson Room of Wesley College. The day activities culminated with a special session of the Conference convening in the Central Middle School in Dover, Bishop James K. Mathews presiding. Bishop Mathews presented the visiting guests, Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., of the Nashville Area; Bishop J. Chess Lovern, of the San Antonio Area; Bishop Prince A. Taylor, retired, living in New Jersey, to an audience of about 800 persons.

The entire year was focusing on "Caring Counts." Much could be said about ways in which local churches in our conference displayed their concern for others. We are not satisfied with our accomplishments, but are pleased to announce that during 1978 our Conference received $24,899 for Hunger and $13,673 for Ethnic Minority Local Church Development. This is an increase of 291.7% for Hunger and 979.2% for Ethnic Minority Local Church. This we were able to do with around 50% of our local churches reporting.

Out of the 73 Conferences in the United Methodism we were Number 19 in our giving to World Hunger and Number 14 in our giving to Ethnic Minority Local Church. Our Washington Area led all other areas of our Jurisdiction in giving to these two Missional Priorities. The Peninsula Conference is one of three conferences in our Jurisdiction to pay in full the Missional Priority Fund (apportioned). We also were the only conference in the Jurisdiction to pay the Black College Fund in full. Congratulations!

The Missional Priority program of the Peninsula Annual Conference was adopted as a quadrennial emphasis, and will, therefore, be continued to be promoted in each local church program. Suggestions as proposed are reviewed here for information and implementation as follows:

II. FURTHER INFORMATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

On December 2, Conference Council on Ministries meeting, under the capable leadership of our own Bishop James K. Mathews, assisted by Felton E. May, we were guided through a five-hour session in setting goals for projected programs. These goals were gleaned from a program booklet which included suggestions by our own Boards, Committees, Agencies without a dollar figure. From this process (after editing and refining), the following was presented on February 17, 1979 to the Council members, requesting that each Board, Committee, Agency receiving the referrals discuss plans and procedures to effect them.

Because of this new procedure, we have two sets of goals to be approved by the Annual Conference. The first is the following, developed through a workshop process on December 2 and the second are the goals that each Board developed as part of its program/budget planning. Once approved, the Board, Committee or Agency will prioritize and begin implementation. The area of concern and a cross reference as to which group is responsible for implementation follows. It must be understood that these goals are coming to the conference for approval and will in turn be executed by the working units within the total conference program.

At the meeting of the Council on February 17, 1979 the following items received favorable action, which need approval of the entire Conference.

The World Methodist Council has accepted the challenge to make the Good News of Jesus Christ into 'World News.' The programs will be promoted as "Mission to the Eighties." The beginning date is January 6, 1980 in Suva, Fiji. Our Washington Area Alan Walker Crusade is to be held February 24 through March 2, 1980. The event would begin and conclude in Washington, D.C. and branch out to several locations in the Peninsula and Baltimore Conferences during the week. More complete details will be worked out by a Committee of 80. The Peninsula Conference is represented by the following laypersons: Mrs. Marie Brown, Centreville; Miss Pam Harris, Student at University of Delaware; Mrs. Garcia Leach and Mr. James W. Truitt, Wilmington; Mr. Lehman Tomlin, Princess Anne; Clergy: Ivon P. Downing, Ray F. Graham, Gerald A. Foster, James T. Seymoure, the Council Director and Dean of Cabinet. Plan now for this climactic series of events!

The Conference Council on Ministries approved and recommends to the Conference support of this proposed project for 1980 — "Mission to the Eighties." (Referred to Section I, Page 29, B.)

A motion was made by the Rev. Edwin C. Thomas, Jr., seconded by The Rev. Joseph C. Bostick, that the Conference Council on Ministries recommend to the Board of Global Ministries that specific concerns be designated for the Conference Advance Special program in the area of Church Extension, Parsonage building, and parish development in keeping with the principles of the Advance as expressed in the 1976 Book of Discipline, Paragraph 913.1. This motion was approved. (Referred to Section III, Page 36, E, 1.)

The Rev. Edwin C. Thomas, Jr. moved that the Council on Ministries request the Board of Global Ministries through its Division on Mission Committee on Congregational Development to study the feasibility of recommending to the Annual Conference the setting of a goal to organize one new congregation each year 1979 through 1984. The Rev. W. H. Revelle, Jr. seconded the motion and it was approved. The Committee was to report to the April meeting of the Council. (Referred to Section III, Page 36, E, 1.)

RESOLUTION

The Rev. Richard D. Bailey, Associate Council Director for Communications and Stewardship reported on the need to urge Congress to permit all taxpayers to deduct charitable contributions whether or not they itemize their deductions.

The following resolution was presented to the Council and passed:

BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula Annual Conference Council on Ministries join with the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation and the Council on Finance and Administration in asking Congress to permit all taxpayers to deduct charitable contributions whether or not they itemize their deductions.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Conference Council on Ministries cooperate in a program of education to make our churches aware of this need and that this need and resolution be presented to the 40th session of the Peninsula Annual Conference when it meets May 22-24, 1979.

III. ADDENDUM

Some of the reports for certain Boards, committees, and task forces included in this composite report were prepared by the chairpersons and/or Directors of said committees. Others are found elsewhere in the booklet, but should be viewed in the total program of the Council.

To all persons who have served, and are presently serving in any capacity in the working of the Council, we express our personal thanks and gratitude of the Council for dedicated service and time in 'devotion and promotion' of our great Church.

IV. PROPOSED PROGRAMS OF THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Following disciplinary procedure of the United Methodist Church, the Conference Council did receive from each Board and Agency a projected program for 1980. The Council in turn presented the combined cooperative budget to the Council on Finance and Administration. This collective budget will be submitted to the Annual Conference for final disposition and approval.

The initial program projection of each Board and Agency is printed here as originally presented. Having had listening sessions with each group prior to the finalizing of the budget now proposed, it is, I believe, understood there will be some necessity to re-prioritize said programs according to the Annual Conference action.

Respectfully submitted,
Bruce E. Cooke, Chairperson

Ethnic Minority Local Church Task Force

The Task Force has, for the most part, been involved in an educational and programmatic process. First, by seeking to define and clarify its role as a Task Force and listing needs and setting priorities.

1. Among the major accomplishments has been the development of an audio-visual that seeks to tell the story of the complexity of the problems of the ethnic churches within our Conference, both in words and in pictures. This material was presented at the 1978 session of the Annual Conference and is available at the Conference Office for future use.

2. There was also the need to develop strategy and a plan of action as well as the setting of priorities for funding:

I. Development of strategy and action plans. Consideration be given to the training of weekend teams to go directly into local churches
   a. to help local churches in planning
   b. to help local churches to discover and make use of resources that are within the local church and the surrounding communities.

II. These teams would also be used to go directly to aid local churches in the implementation of the Ethnic Minority Local Church Development booklet.

III. To train Pastor Parish Relations Committee to be supportive of ministers and open up local churches to these teams to carry out said missions.

IV. To develop up-to-date profiles of each local ethnic church including pictures of building, etc.

V. To coordinate the efforts or resources of other boards and agencies in the Conference in carrying out of the missional priorities of Ethnic Minority Local Church development.

VI. To develop and recommend to the Annual Conference some policy to deal with the grouping of small churches. To write a workable definition as to what is meant "full-service church" or "charge." To develop plans for the supplying of the greatly needed parsonages as related to our ethnic churches.

Priorities for funding set were:

I. Provision of housing and recruitment
II. Parish development projects
III. Local Church programs
IV. Training of team for aiding local churches in programming
V. Personnel

Each request will be received, acknowledged and consideration will be based on genuine need and prioritization by the task force. Help will be given in directing requests to appropriate boards and agencies responsible for area of program for which grants are being asked: first priority will be given to requests from charges or groups not presently being funded by another agency. This will make for equitable distribution of available funds. Grants will be made as funds are available, but the task force sees itself as a resource to help find other possible sources for funding as many of our national boards and agencies have some funds for programs in their respective areas of responsibility.

The Task Force affirmed the commitment to Ridgely-Marydel and by concensus voted to grant $4,000 for the provision of a new parsonage on the charge.

3. Two workshops on small membership black churches were held by Ethnic Minority Local Church Task Force and the Committee on Town and Country of the Division of Missions which explored how to organize for producing maximum use of the resources of a small church so that any church, even though small, can be actively engaged in ministry. The process of initiating parish development was also presented by the Rev. Arnold Rhodes of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The Drayton Manor Report

In 1978, Drayton Manor marked its 13th year of growth and service. There were 7,310 people days representing 120 groups.

Programs produced an impressive number of "happenings" of splendid quality and inspiration. Among the groups were Council on Ministries, United Methodist Women, Church School Classes, Choirs, Young Adults, Church School Teachers and Ministerial study groups. A seminary faculty, representatives of A.A., girl scouts, Y.M.C.A., and many, many others. Space does not permit description of the variety and depth which characterized the search for truth and understanding on the part of those who came to find opportunities for prayer, study and Christian fellowship.

Income for the year 1978 was greater than expenditures as seen from the following report:

Income	$93,977.64
Expenditures	93,414.22
Balance	$ 563.42

The balance applied to the deficit of the previous year, 1977, now stands at $10,511.90.

The apportionment for 1979 for the operating budget has been increased by $5,000.00 or a total for this purpose of $13,000.00.

Major Maintenance is an ongoing concern for our institution at Drayton as it is elsewhere. During Drayton's first 11 years no plan was in operation for a system of care for the property, although the need was recognized.

As a consequence, in 1976 a five year schedule of major maintenance was approved with the understanding that as each year's work was completed another would be added so that a plan for the care of the property would be done consistently. It was also understood that the funds to implement the schedule would be requested annually under the prescribed procedures. Expenditures for Major Maintenance for the years 1977 and 1978 amounted to a total of $24,056.65. Work completed included the following: a new well and pump for the water supply, rebuilding of a brick sustaining wall; a fire escape from third floor, repair of main furnace, reupholstering of sofa and restoration of four chairs, repair of large freezer, installation of new electrical lines by the Delaware Power and Light Company to replace lines installed in 1937, which had been privately owned, repair of filtering system at the Swimming Pool, storm windows placed over the whole house, a new Ice Maker, sixty folding chairs, new lights for the Conference Room on the lower level, and a new sewage system following a survey and recommendations of an engineering concern, several rooms received papering and painting, new carpet was placed in entrance hallway, stairway and upper hall. In addition, The Board of Trustees of the Conference with income derived from investments, provided $6,675.00 to blacktop the roadways.

The Swimming Program has been reported extensively on previous occasions. The results have been most beneficial since 1973 to many people of the local community. Families become members as a unit. Adults who are single may also participate. The memberships are open to all, the pool being inter-racial and non-sectarian. In 1978 ninety-eight (98) families numbering about 400 persons were in participation. The number does not include an extensive swimming lesson program taught by a public school teacher and a member of Drayton Summer Staff. Pool income in 1978 was $6,568.00 and expenditures were $5,529.00.

The Friends of Drayton, organized in 1975 to help meet the rising costs of inflation, has extended its support by interpreting the purposes of Drayton to others and promoting its use as a place of retreat among our people.

During 1978 a total of $11,842.50 was contributed by 223 friends. Their goal had been $10,000.00. The next issue of the Friends of Drayton Newsletter "Drayton Doin's" will report some of the activities of this group. Mr. and Mrs. William McLain of our Newark, Delaware congregation are the editors. A request to have your name placed on the mailing list will be sure to bring you a copy.

Mr. William Ward, President of Friends of Drayton, and also of our Newark Church extends a cordial invitation to all to share this meaningful association.

An Important Change took place in 1978 when The Council on Ministries authorized the creation of two task forces. One for Camp Pecometh and the other for Drayton Manor.

As a consequence on November 12, The Drayton Task Force was organized with 28 members. Four committees have been established to meet the following concerns: Program Development, Promotion of use and information, Property Care, and Financial planning. The group has entered energetically into its many responsibilities.

The foregoing report provides only a limited view of what is happening at our Retreat Center. During the coming months may we urge you to come and discover for yourselves what experiences of healing and inspiration await.

"Come and See."

Camp Pecometh
Director's Report To Annual Conference

Someone once asked the question, "Are you being pushed by your problems or are you being led by your dreams?" The year of 1978 brought with it problems and the fulfillment of dreams intermingled.

The problems we experienced included (1) a shortage of male counselors, as a result of inadequate salaries, (2) unusually heavy weekly rains which curtailed program activities, and (3) severe septic system breakdowns at the Riverside Area and the Family Campground.

Some of the highlights, however, which kept spirits high included (1) the introduction of the "New Games Movement," providing many hours of fun and fellowship for campers and staff alike, (2) an enthusiastic response from churches and individuals to the Mattress Fund Project enabling the camp to reach its goal of 150 new mattresses, (3) the giving of $517.00 to World Hunger by campers and staff through weekly offerings, (4) the expansion of our week for mentally retarded persons at the Riverside Area, (5) the establishment of a "Wildlife Inventory" for the camp with heavy emphasis on conservation, ecology, and proper wildlife management, (6) a week's ministry to the children of migrant workers of Delaware, (7) the widening of all roads, (8) the groundbreaking for the new Maintenance Building containing a heated carpentry shop with restroom, double garage, supply room, and costing approximately $28,000.00, (9) the installation of storm windows and doors at the Barn, (10) the creation of the Camp Pecometh Task Force, and (11) the achievement of an end of the year balance of $10,027.

The Camp Director participated in a national United Methodist leadership training event in a picturesque valley of San Juan Capistrano, California, and also the convention of the American Camping Association in Los Angeles.

It has been a privilege to have served as Director/Manager of Camp Pecometh since 1975 and to have participated in this creative Christian ministry outdoors to children, youth and adults.

Board Of Discipleship

While relating to the goals of Peninsula Annual Conference in the areas of education, evangelism, stewardship, and worship in the past two years, the Board of Discipleship has been gaining experience and insight with regard to the best methods of accomplishing these goals. We have given a great deal of thought to this and during 1978 made a decision to try to involve the local church in program planning in order "To lead and assist the congregations and districts in the conference in their efforts to win persons as disciples of Jesus Christ, to build up the Christian community, and to celebrate and communicate the redeeming and reconciling love of God as revealed in Jesus Christ to persons of every age, ethnic background, and social condition." (The Book of Discipline, paragraph 728.1.a.)

Two Division chairpersons have resigned during 1978 — the Stewardship chairperson in August and the Evangelism chairperson in December. New chairpersons have been secured for these positions and the Board looks forward to successful programs under their leadership. The Rev. Ray Graham is the new chairperson of Evangelism, and the Rev. Alvin Willink will be elected in the spring to serve as chairperson of Stewardship.

The Board of Discipleship as a whole meets twice a year — once in October at Drayton Manor for planning and budget preparing, and again in June for progress reporting and budget revision. The Executive Committee and Divisions meet as needed. The Board is represented on the Search Committee for the conference associate director for Drayton Manor Retreat Center/Evangelism. This committee has met several times and represents quite an investment of time for the members.

Following are the reports of the Divisions.

Virginia Clendaniel, President

Division of Education

In January, 1978 Leadership Training was provided for Church School Superintendents and Chairpersons of Education at the four District Training Sessions.

During the week of April 7-11 an Annual Conference Laboratory School was held in Newark in which 82 of our church school leaders and teachers participated.

On April 21 and 22 Cokesbury sponsored a Curric-U-Shop in which samples of all the church school material was displayed and many various training sessions were held. Over 400 persons made use of this workshop. In preparation for this Cokesbury sponsored operation curriculum which was designed to acquaint churches not using United Methodist curriculum with the material that was available for church school use.

In August and September two workshops were held, one in Easton and one in Dover Districts for the small churches.

In the fall four seminars were held at Drayton Manor for our clergy to help them in their roll as an educator in the church school. One hundred of our clergy made use of these seminars.

During the year our staff leader having responsibility for Education and Leadership attended two adult laboratory schools leading to certification as an Adult Laboratory Leader. He also attended two training events with the Mid Atlantic Association for Training and Consultation.

Group Development Skills
Experimental Education Design Skills

During the summer four of our conference lay persons attended a Laboratory Workshop held at Watson Homestead.

One of our major accomplishments has been in the area of providing workshops and training sessions at the local churches. Our staff person spends much of his time and effort in setting up, coordinating and often leading these workshops which may be held at local churches, clusters of churches or on the district. For these training events many of our trained laity and clergy are the leaders.

Division of Evangelism

In 1978 the Division of Evangelism has endeavored to furnish and promote evangelization opportunities for the congregations at Peninsula Conference. These opportunities have varied in resources, format, and setting. Some of them are as follows:

To emphasize Evangelism Week a weekend of intensive training in Visitation Evangelism: A Relational Ministry was led by Mr. Vance Archer at Drayton Manor on March 16-18. Attendance was fairly good.

Local church and district events scheduled in April and May were: American Institute of Church Growth, April 23-24, Reliance: New Castle County Crusade for Christ, May 7-14, Brandywine High School; "Conference on the Holy Spirit," May 26-28, Cambridge area.

The Division supported and assisted with the planning for the Washington Area School of Education/Evangelism which was held at Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md. on July 7-9. Scholarships were made available from Division funds for those wishing to attend.

Scholarships were also available to the annual Northeastern Jurisdictional School of Evangelism held at Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pa.

The Good News Convocation on "Biblical Evangelism" held at Wesley College was encouraged and publicized by the Division.

The Division participated in the celebration of the five ethnic groups at the N. E. Jurisdictional Evangelistic Event held in Baltimore on September 8-10.

Division support was also lent to: a Reachout Crusade for Christ held in Cambridge on September 10-17; and to a pastors' evangelistic training event held in Baltimore on October 16-18.

All local churches were called on to celebrate on November 5 the "Festival of the Open Door" by reconsidering our evangelistic heritage and by committing our people to a renewed evangelistic future. This event also recognized the re-opening of Wesley's Chapel in London following five years of extensive restoration.

During the fall some training was done in "Showing and Telling the Good News," sometimes in local churches and sometimes in cluster church settings. The Division will continue to furnish opportunities in this area.

The Division of Evangelism met to consider the matter of appointing a Conference Evangelist. After careful study, the Division affirmed the concept of an Approved Conference Evangelist and subsequently recommended that the Rev. Dr. Gerald A. Foster be appointed as an Approved Conference Evangelist at Annual Conference in May, 1978. This proposal was submitted to Annual Conference by the Board of Discipleship President Clendaniel and Dr. Foster was so appointed.

1978 evangelism activities culminated at the special session of Annual Conference held on December 12 in Dover. Several visiting bishops were present to emphasize the Missional Priorities. During his evening speech Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., defined evangelism as "an experience within . . . a revolution in relationships . . . and a magnificent obsession." At the special meeting of the Conference Council on Ministries the Rev. Don Hurst explained to the bishops plans being made for a Church Growth Seminar in February, 1979; and the Rev. David Riffe told of the progress and plans for "Showing and Telling the Good News."

On December 1 the Board of Discipleship was notified of the resignation of the Rev. Everett C. Isaacs as chairperson of the Division of Evangelism. The Board expresses its sincere appreciation to Mr. Isaacs for his many dedicated efforts in behalf of furthering evangelism throughout the Peninsula Conference.

For the Division,

Division of Stewardship

This has been a year of reorganization for the Division of Stewardship, Board of Discipleship. Following the resignation of the chairperson, the work of the division has been carried on by the board's executive committee. A new chairperson will be elected in Spring 1979.

During the year plans have been developed to hold two-day pastors' seminars on "Exploring the Meaning of Christian Stewardship" during September and October 1979. The seminars will be held at Drayton Manor. Assisting the Conference staff will be leadership from the Section on Stewardship, General Board of Discipleship, Nashville.

The following was accomplished:

1. "Game of Life" a new resource in Family Financial Planning for clergy was previewed. Representatives from the Board of Ministry, district superintendents, Conference Council on Ministries and staff attended an Area seminar at Annapolis in June, 1979.
2. A session on stewardship education with the Extended Cabinet was held.
3. A report to the Area Extended Cabinet of the standard deduction and its effect on charitable giving was made.
4. Conference staff led the January training workshop for Finance/Stewardship persons.
5. Local church consultations on the Commitment Plan and Wills were held.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard D. Bailey, for the

Division of Worship

The Division of Worship has always held as its goal the support of local churches in the work area of worship. This year the division has decided to rearrange program goals for 1979 and to suggest program goals for 1980 that will more closely and more directly enable us to accomplish our goal.

After much discussion the Division of Worship and the Board of Discipleship have decided to de-emphasize conference-wide programming and focus in on custom designed workshops held in local churches. Such a change in our emphasis means that programs such as the workshop on music for children's choirs will not be held on a conference-wide basis but that workshops for children's choirs will be held in local churches that feel the need to further develop or begin such a ministry. In addition, our yearly seminar which was often directed toward pastors in the area of worship or preaching will no longer be held. A list of possible workshops which could be held in the local church will be distributed to pastors and chairpersons of the work area on worship with the hope that local churches and clusters of churches in their immediate area will come together to sponsor a workshop which will benefit their specific needs.

In order to enhance the content and presentation of such local church workshops, the Division of Worship encouraged the Board of Discipleship to purchase video tape equipment for our conference. The working together of all of the divisions under the Board made such a purchase possible in 1978. This equipment has already been put to good use by the Division of Stewardship and by the Division of Worship for the betterment of local church workshops and ultimately for the strengthening of local churches.

Finally, it must be said that 1978 was a disappointing year for the Division of Worship. The adult choir workshop scheduled for that year did not take place. The seminar on worship scheduled with Carlyle Marney had to be cancelled because of his sudden death. On a more positive side, however, the Division was actively involved in planning and implementing worship at Annual Conference and in the training of local church leaders during the January workshop experience.

Comments from local churches or individuals in our conference are welcome and will be taken seriously. The division tries to be responsive to the needs of our conference and your suggestions on our new approach toward programming will be invaluable.

Glenn P. Catley, Chairperson

Board of Laity

As we close out the third year of this quadrennium, the Board of Laity is grateful to both the Laity and Clergy for its total support of all programs as proposed by this body.

There were many who throughout the year gave freely of their time, talent, and other means to the cause for the development of Christian Discipleship. Again, I refer specifically to Bishop James K. Mathews, his cabinet and to those men and women who are associated with me on the Peninsula Conference Board of Laity Activities.

Among the highlights of activities for the year were the Peninsula Conference School of Christian Mission where men of the conference are invited to attend and participate; and the Laymen's Retreat held at Camp Pecometh, Centreville, Maryland, during the weekend of September 9, 1978. The retreat, as usual, was blessed with one of its largest attendance and a donation of more than four hundred dollars ($400.00) was given to the Camp.

The four districts of our conference continued the usual Lenten Communion Breakfast involving the attendance of men, women and youth of the conference.

For the first time in several years, all Districts continued the Lay Speaking course for new certified lay speakers and the re-certification of others. It should be brought to your attention that the new text and materials were used in the Lay Speaker Training Course.

As usual, the Peninsula Conference had the largest delegation at the 1978 Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference held at Connelly's Inn near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The 1979 Conference will be held in November near Springfield, Massachusetts.

For the first time, the Peninsula Conference United Methodist Men have duly organized as prescribed by the 1976 Discipline, having elected Robert C. Godfrey, President, who will by virtue of his office become a member of the Peninsula Conference Council on Ministries.

Another new program that has been approved is that of the United Methodist Men Prayer Advocate in cooperation with the Upper Room Prayer Ministry. Mr. Robert D. Stover, Sr. will assume the leadership in this program during the 1979-80 conference year.

The Board of Laity has endorsed the following:

1. Annual Conference Lay Banquet, Wednesday, May 23, 6:30 p.m. Dr. Alan Walker will deliver the main address.

2. Special Annual Conference Laity Luncheon with Dr. Walker at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 23.
3. Promote the annual Northeast Jurisdictional Lay Assembly, November 1979, Springfield, Massachusetts.
4. Promote the Men's Retreat at Camp Pecometh, September 8 and 9, 1979.
5. Promote and support the Peninsula Conference School of Christian Mission at Wesley College.
6. Promote and support the United Methodist Men Prayer Advocate.

On behalf of the Board of Laity, I again request the continued support of the laity (men, women, youth, and clergy).

Respectfully submitted,
James C. Hardcastle,
Conference Lay Leader

Board of Pensions

In the year of 1978 the Peninsula Conference Board of Pensions continues their satisfactory relationship with the General Board of Pensions Reserve Pension Fund, (MRPF).

Our March, 1978 board meeting was highlighted by the visit of Miss Connie J. Takamine, Assistant General Secretary of the General Board of Pensions, Evanston, Ill. Miss Takamine reviewed with the board our first complete year of operation with the MRPF I-A program and also answered questions at the Board's meeting on items that were of interest to all. All agreed that "very good progress" had been made.

After the retirement of our Treasurer, Mr. Ira S. Pruitt, the Board elected Dr. Donald O. Clendaniel, Sr. to the combined position of Secretary-Treasurer. In most cases Mr. Theodore W. Briggs, Conference Business Manager, will be able to assist on most pension matters.

At the request of the Rev. Felton E. May, Cabinet Chairman, a full set of service records are being supplied to the Cabinet. These records are more complete and should be a great asset to the superintendents for complete background information on all our ministers.

The Board of Pensions is very grateful to the Harrison Street United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware for the gift of 300 shares A.T. & T. Stock. It was approved by the Board for the Treasurer to turn the stock over to the General Board of Pensions to be used toward amortization of our indebtedness.

In September, 1978 the Investment Committee of our Board met with the Bank of Delaware Investment Advisors to review our total investment portfolio. Some changes were made and approved by the committee and the Bank reported our portfolio consisted of 60% in Common Stocks and 40% in Bonds.

The Board in 1978 reaffirmed the General Board of Pensions policy that there not be two annuity rates in a Conference, therefore the Local Pastor gets the same rate for service as the full Conference Member. We reemphasize that every minister must report the two percent that his/her Church pays on his/her pension as taxable income.

In our continuing effort to meet The Book of Discipline recommended annuity rate of not less than one percent of the average salary of the Conference as computed by the General Board of Pensions, we recommend the Peninsula Conference approve the following resolution:

> Be it resolved that for the calendar year 1980 the annuity rate be increased from $115.00 per year to $120.00 per year times the years of service.

Since the Internal Revenue Service requires this approval annually, we recommend the Peninsula Conference approve the following resolution:

> Be it resolved that for the calendar year 1980, the sum of $3,000.00 or 60% of the annual pension, whichever is less, shall be allowed as Housing Allowance for Pensioners for tax purposes.

The four District Superintendents have been asked to give a written report or an annual support statement on individuals on the Special Grant Cases that effect their District and to see that the Chairman of the Board of Pensions receives this report no later than December 15 of each year.

The Board of Pensions stands ready to assist Conference Members in all matters concerning the pension program of the Peninsula Conference.

We appreciate the aid and the assistance that the General Board of Pensions has continued to give us. The Board would like to express its deep and continued appreciation to all Board Members without whose dedication and involvement very little could be accomplished.

Respectfully submitted,
Calvin H. Webster, President

Commission On Equitable Salaries

The Commission on Equitable Salaries has supported the salaries of pastors of 20 charges through minimum salary funds and 6 through Equitable Salaries Discretionary Funds during 1978. Annual supplements to salaries ranged from $166.00 to $10,340.00, a total of $38,669.78.

Many churches have raised their salaries to or above the new minimum which became effective January 1, 1979. Thus, the supplements will not be as great for the new salary schedule as was anticipated last year.

The anticipated expenditures for 1979 are approximately $57,000.00.

Pastors of the following charges received Equitable Salary Support for the calendar year 1978:

The Commission makes the following recommendations to the Annual Conference:

1. That the minimum compensation for conference members, probationary members serving full-time, and associate members remain at $10,200.00 for 1980;
2. That the minimum compensation for student pastors remain at $8,000.00 for 1980;
3. That the Annual Conference suggest to the Cabinet the goal of encouraging each of the Charges receiving minimum salary funds to increase its pastoral compensation by a minimum of $300.00 for 1980;
4. That churches receiving salary support be reminded of the following resolution adopted at the 1967 Annual Conference:
   Only those charges which conducted an Every-Member Visitation during the previous conference year which included the raising of funds for ministerial support shall be eligible for minimum salary support. It is expected that all ministers receiving Minimum Salary support have been and will continue to comply with this requirement.
5. That the members of the Annual Conference be aware of the fact that the amount of contributions received from Temporary General Aid Funds is being decreased each year. Thus, if this Commission is to continue its mission of aiding charges which need strengthening, additional funds will be needed in 1981 and years following.

Peninsula United Methodist Foundation, Inc.

The greatest force for the quality of life in America has been the charitable gift. Ever since the colonial days, foreign visitors have commented on the extraordinary impulses of Americans to invent non-governmental institutions to serve community purposes. The church has always been a serving institution, giving time and money. Upward of $80-billion and an equal amount in time annually. In addition to the church we have libraries, museums, universities, symphonies, orchestras, hospitals, Salvation Army, United Way, Alcoholics Anonymous, Scouts, 4-H, etc.

Since 1917, the Federal income tax code has embodied the principle that income given to charitable causes ought not be taxed. The reasons for this deduction are straight-forward and wise: to encourage support of the private philanthropic and voluntary organizations that comprise such an important part of this society, and to avoid taxing income that is given away rather than consumed.

In practice, however, this principle applies only to those who itemize their deductions, and in recent years their number has dropped, primarily because the so-called "standard deduction" has increased.

In the last eight years there have been five increases in the standard deduction. In 1970 half of all taxpayers itemized deductions. Last year just under 25 percent did. It is expected that this year only one in every six persons will itemize deductions.

Everytime the standard deduction is increased, charitable giving goes down. Much of the decline has come in the contributions of taxpayers in the income range of $10,000 to $25,000.

For the great majority of American taxpayers, the "charitable deduction" is a hollow concept. Although tax simplification and reform are worthy ends, one of the unwelcome side effects of increased use of the standard deduction has been a decline in charitable giving. As a fraction of the gross national product, for example, philanthropy accounted for 1.97 percent in 1970 and for 1.79 percent 5 years later.

The difference may appear small, but it should be borne in mind that in a $2-trillion a year economy, two-tenths of 1 percent of GNP is equivalent to $4-billion per annum, a not inconsiderable sum.

What can we as United Methodists do? We must educate our churches and urge them to ask Congress to allow a charitable deduction for every American whether he or she uses the standard deduction or not. In 1978, we came close in the Fisher-Conable Bill HR-11183 and the Packwood-Moynihan Bill S-3111. The bills are now reintroduced, Fisher-Conable HR-1785 and Packwood-Moynihan S-219. We must do everything possible to be successful in 1979.

As your Foundation, this year we have been planting seeds and cultivating good soil. We did not expect much fruit the first year. We know by experience of others that it will take a minimum of five years to get the Foundations developed.

We have contacted 1,700 technicians in estate planning — attorneys, CLU's, CPA's and bank trust officers in the Peninsula Conference. In addition, we sponsored an estate planning seminar for these technicians. Contacts and expertise we are developing are placing us in the mainstream with people who can make planned giving a reality for our conference.

To help make this happen we are developing the Society of United Methodist Estate Planners and plan a number of Estate Planning Seminars in local churches.

We received a $30,000 Life Income Trust with the Wesley College the ultimate beneficiary. Also received was a testamentary agreement for 18 Series E Bonds which will ultimately go to a local church on the Easton District. Other gifts have been and are being cultivated.

A very important need in our churches is cash flow management. We need to help churches in designing a cash flow plan that will not hinder its program and at the same time allow interest on short term investments. This would provide additional cash for the local church. If all churches would develop such a plan, enough cash might be generated to pay our World Service budget.

We hope to work with the Conference Council on Finance and Administration in developing guidelines to help our churches in this important area.

On recommendation and request of the Area Extended Cabinet, the Foundation has considered the establishment of an Area Office of Development. The concept of an Office of Development for the Washington Area is to provide staff for the United Methodist Foundation of the Baltimore Annual Conference, Inc., the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation, Inc., and the development activities in the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences.

The Director of Development would serve as Executive Director of the Foundations and will act as resource person for coordinating stewardship and finance programs of the Conferences, working closely with each Conference Council on Finance and Administration and Conference Council on Ministries.

"A sower went out to sow his seed," said St. Matthew. Your Foundation is you sowing seeds. We are your arm of development. Our success depends very much on you.

Recommendations:

1. The Foundation Directors recommend the establishment of an Area Office of Development, effective January 1, 1980.
2. It is further recommended that Bishop Mathews appoint Richard D. Bailey to the position of Area Director of Development.

Board Of Church And Society

"To manifest the life of the Gospel in the world" continues to be the broad mandate for the Board of Church and Society. This, indeed, can be overwhelming when the social needs and problems of society seem to be increasing both in kind and in complexity. Responsibility of the church to address these needs likewise increases. While actual church membership may have declined in recent years, it has been observed that increased guidance, involvement and action is being requested of churches in responding to social issues and needs. With limited members, time and financial resources, Church and Society prioritized its goals. In evaluating, response to our goals has been mixed. Some experiences were rewarding and well received, while others were not.

Our Board addresses its concerns within the structure of three broad Divisions: General Welfare, Human Relations, and World Peace. Emerging issues are addressed by the Division to which they most closely relate. While each Division has its own goals, there is cooperation on several Board programs.

As a Board in 1978, we organized and participated in two Social Issues Convocations. The purpose of these was primarily educational in terms of issues but emphasis was placed on practical application at local church level. It is hoped also, that the Convocations, by providing a forum for discussion of issues, would encourage increased discussions in local churches. Informed persons are more motivated to develop channels of church-community action in meeting human need. The April Convocation provided workshops on Child Abuse, Criminal Justice — National Trends, South Africa, and Ethics and Natural Resources. Additionally two speakers addressed the total group: Dr. Larry Rasmussen on Biblical Foundations for Social Action, and Rev. Richard Stazesky on Organizing for Community Action.

In October, in cooperation with the Commission on Status and Role of Women, five workshops were presented: Bioethics, Euthanasia, Gambling, Health Care, Legal Status of Homemakers and Domestic Hunger. Leadership for both Convocations was very good with the experience for many enriching and motivating. However, attendance was small leaving us questioning the Conference Convocation as a valid educational experience.

In April, through our Division of Human Relations, we organized and participated in two Joy Nights in Dover and Cambridge. They were liturgically designed as worship experiences to celebrate, following Easter, our "oneness in Christ."

We continued education in several ways. Resolutions were developed for Annual Conference. In order for members to develop more informed resolutions, time was set aside in meetings to discuss issues. Several times, specialists were invited to address our Board. Information was also distributed to local churches through the coordinated mailings, the COMMUNICATOR, and through our first edition of the Newsletter, C & S Concerns. Printed resources were also available at Annual Conference, the Convocations, and the January Local Church Leadership Training Workshops. Members were sent Engage — Social Action magazine.

Board members monitored the Delaware, Maryland Legislatures and Congress on many issues. Our positions were advocated through letters and phone calls. Ten members attended the Maryland Legislation Seminar. In two instances they participated in legislative hearings.

Efforts were continued to open channels of two-way communication between our Board and through expanded functioning of District Committees. District Directors met twice, once with Division Chairpersons to develop understandings for a cooperative and supportive ministry. This process was slowed somewhat because of the necessity to allow two new Directors to become oriented to their responsibilities. District Directors provided leadership for the training of Local Church Chairpersons of Social Concerns during the January workshops. In Easton District, this training was followed by another workshop within the context of a District Conference.

Church and Society continued financial support of Pacem in Terris and its broad ministry. We also continued cooperation with the Methodist Action Program, the Public Assistance Task Force, the Social Awareness and Action Ministry of Delmarva Ecumenical Agency, and the Commission on Status and Role of Women. The World Hunger Task Force was financed through our Board.

During the past year, Church and Society feels it has had a role in many ways in "manifesting the life of the Gospel in the world." In so doing we feel that we have contributed to the Missional Priority Goals on many levels. Many goals are concerned with the quality of life for all persons — mental, physical, as well as spiritual. This directly speaks to Ethnic Minority Concerns. Our educational efforts can contribute to leader development. Also, we feel that our over all active concern for the well being of society is basic evangelism. Response to our efforts has been both rewarding and heart-warming. We feel, however, a much stronger response to human need must be our goal. We shall continue to work towards that end. The Gospel demands no less!

Doris Phillips, President

Division of General Welfare

General Welfare cooperated with other Divisions and Commission on Status and Role of Women to present convocations on social issues in 1978. Specifically, we had Maxine Langston and Carol J. Ross lead workshops on "The Church and Family Violence" and "Criminal Justice — Rehabilitation vs. Punishment," respectively, on April 8. Both of these people were from the General Board of Church and Society. On October 7, Dr. J. Courtland Robinson of the City of Baltimore Hospitals led a workshop on Health Care Issues and Gerry Fulcher of Wilmington led one on gambling.

Also in October we worked with the Board to call legislators in Delaware to voice concern over the Jai Alai gambling bill. The bill was narrowly defeated. We also advocated our position on several issues to Maryland legislators.

An article was printed in the COMMUNICATOR to suggest local church resources to help in Drug and Alcohol concerns.

Throughout the year resource material was sent to local churches to aid in Social Concerns through the coordinated mailings and through the Board's newsletter.

Resolutions presented at the Annual Conference helped educate people and increase awareness of many social issues. Despite the controversy aroused, it does crystallize thinking and enable us to speak clearly for United Methodist convictions.

Members of the Division have attended meetings and worked with social welfare concerns in Maryland and participated in the Maryland Legislative Workshops.

Most of our concerns in General Welfare are issues that affect Ethnic Minority Local Churches to a great extent. We feel we are furthering our missional priorities in this way and also in the sense that Christian outreach is a definite aspect of evangelism.

Respectfully submitted,
Grover Johnson, Chairperson

Division of Human Relations

The activities during 1978 in the Division of Human Relations have given us an opportunity to reach the local church with several major concerns as well as to address several concerns within our immediate group. We feel that a successful attempt was made in our conference to bring together the Black churches and White churches through a worship celebration. The celebration of our oneness in Christ is most important as well as realizing the various areas which need vast improvement. Our Division was also active in supporting desegregation in the Wilmington area and many ministers and lay people participated so that a peaceful implementation would be possible. They are to be commended for their hard work and support. Human Relations day was also publicized through articles in the COMMUNICATOR. It is of deep concern that many churches are not celebrating this day in their church programs.

A part of our outreach into the broader community was manifest in our support of the programs of the Conference on Christians and Jews which held a seminar on the Holocaust and its implications for today. An interfaith dialogue on this concern was well received and beneficial.

Throughout the year our division has attempted to keep aware of the problem of runaways in our Conference area, especially in the Salisbury area through our association with Room-In-The-Inn. Although we were not able to financially assist this program, we do hope that it will provide a model for our use in the future.

Several other issues emerged during the year for our discussion and action. The tragedy of Guyana sensitized us to the need of continual education from various cults within our Conference boundaries. Information about the Unification church was made available to local churches through our Newsletter and the COMMUNICATOR. Our concern with the issue of Death and Dying led us to participate in a workshop for local church pastors and lay people on the issue of Euthanasia with the very capable leadership of Rev. Marlene Walters. We currently find ourselves addressing the issue of Criminal Justice particularly as it relates to the rights of victims.

Throughout the year we keep in close association with MAP and its programs of social concern and the Citizens Alliance for Public Education. The Commission on Status and Role of Women has been participating in several of our Divisional meetings to help keep us aware of the concerns of women and how we may be of assistance.

We appreciate the support and interest of many people throughout our conference. It is our hope that more concerned people will bring our concerns forward and share them so that we may join together in addressing the needs of people everywhere.

Respectfully submitted,
Jonathan Baker, Chairperson

Division of World Peace

The Division of World Peace took the following actions in pursuit of its stated goals for 1978:

- Efforts were made to contact area colleges for information regarding speakers on World Peace issues, so that area churches could be encouraged to make use of this resource, but the information received was not particularly useful.
- April 8, Convocation — The Division of World Peace conducted a workshop on Christian Ethics and Natural Resources, using audio-visuals and the assistance of Mr. Ed Speer of Delmarva Power and Light. Mr. Speer is an active United Methodist and a Vice-President of Delmarva Power and Light. Dr. Larry Rasmussen spoke about a book he co-authored, The Bible and Ethics in the Christian Life.
- Pacem in Terris, the Global Justice and World Peace Task Force of the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency, was given financial support, and its Executive Director, Charles Zoeller, provided valuable assistance to this division. The Division applied to the Board of Global Ministries for $2,000 in support of Pacem In Terris' Ulster Project '78, which brought young people from Northern Ireland to Wilmington during the summer for a program of reconciliation between Protestants and Roman Catholics. Wilmington area United Methodists were fully involved in the program.
- World Order Sunday was promoted through an article in the COMMUNICATOR, and District Directors made materials available to local churches. These are no longer sent to everyone, and must be ordered through District Directors.
- The Division encouraged the Board to send a newsletter to local church persons working on social issues, and provided information on World Peace issues for that letter.
- Efforts to set up a trip to the United Nations were unsuccessful.
- October 7 Convocation on Social Issues — The Division of World Peace participated in the Board's Fall Convocation by providing a workshop on Domestic Hunger issues. Resource persons were Marlene Kiingati from the Maryland Food Committee and Gwen Angalet from the Delaware Food and Nutrition Program. Ms. Kiingati spoke on how a Baltimore United Methodist Church helped her when she was hungry, and turned her life around to Christ. As a result of this session, the Maryland Food Committee has begun to relate better to churches on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.
- The Division related to the Conference Task Force on World Hunger, to which $550 of the Board of Church and Society's budget was allocated. Two persons from this Division are members of the Task Force.
- Resolutions on a variety of issues were presented to the Annual Conference, and letters were sent to appropriate persons.
- The Division expressed concern over the World Council of Churches program of financial support to one of the warring factions in Zimbabwe (Rhodesia), and referred this concern to the Division of Ecumenical Relations.

Resolutions

FOREIGN POLICY INITIATIVES

We are dismayed by the drifting and improvising which seem to characterize United States foreign policy. Being persons of faith, aware of the prophetic challenge to put trust in God's providence rather than in chariots and horses, we in our generation look for a basic stance for our nation which will —

1. acknowledge God's demand for justice;
2. recognize the universal peril of nuclear weapons;
3. seek an international economic order which will more equitably distribute good and resources and reduce aggressive attitudes and acts.

RESOLVED THAT

We urge continued work toward "SALT" agreements on limitation of strategic arms.

We look on this work as a step toward reducing nuclear arms with the goal of eliminating nuclear weapons from all national arsenals.

We urge a stricter policy limiting arms transfers abroad, recognizing the folly of making peace by promoting the distribution of weapons.

We look for a foreign policy which will consistently uphold human rights without yielding to short-range economic and political considerations.

Church & Society Resolution #2

That the Peninsula Annual Conference urges the Governor and General Assembly of the State of Maryland to initiate and/or act on legislation to change the legal age for the purchase of alcoholic beverages to age 19.

Commission On Archives And History

The 198th Anniversary of Barratt's Chapel was observed on November 12, 1978, Peninsula Conference Heritage Sunday. This was the 194th year since the historic meeting of Francis Asbury and Bishop Thomas Coke which occurred on November 14, 1784. The attendance was commendable and we shared together in a very inspiring service.

Rev. Gerald A. Foster, President of the Commission, presided and The Rev. Charles Moyer served as organist. The Rev. Don Summers, an Evangelist from Bristol, England delivered a very challenging address, and musical selections were furnished by the Waugh United Methodist Youth Choir. Other participants included Mr. George Caley, Conference Historian; Rev. William H. Revelle, Jr., Cabinet Representative; Mr. Richard Lort, Lay Leader of the Dover District; Rev. John French and Rev. Charles I. Carpenter.

We are grateful to all who have contributed to the Restoration Fund. From an initial expenditure of $52,000, the present mortgage indebtedness is $14,875. Our special thanks to the Rev. Dr. Charles I. Carpenter for services rendered during the past year and to the Rev. Dr. John French who is now serving as resident Curator. They are always ready to be of assistance in arranging services, weddings, and meeting groups. A gratuity in the amount of $35 is suggested for the use of the Chapel for wedding ceremonies.

The Commission has a subordinate Historical Society which has an open membership to individuals, families, churches, and church organizations.

The funds received will be used to promote interest in the study and preservation of the history of the United Methodist Church and its antecedents; to cooperate with the agents of the Church to promote the understanding of and appreciation for Methodist History and heritage including the history of the former Delaware Conference; to preserve Barratt's Chapel, and to maintain Barratt's Chapel Museum as a repository for church records, artifacts, appointments and other paraphernalia for posterity.

We are endeavoring to make necessary improvements to our properties, but some of the approved projects have had to be deferred because of lack of funds. Your continued support of this shrine of which we can be justly proud will be deeply appreciated. Should any church, or any church organization wish to have a program about the general history of the Methodist Church on the Peninsula, or to have a brief talk concerning the events which centered around Barratt's Chapel, the Commission will be glad to arrange for the Conference Historian or the Curator to accommodate you.

We are most appreciative of your continued support, and look forward to seeing you at Barratt's Chapel for our Anniversary Service on Sunday, November 11, 1979.

Respectfully submitted,
Gerald A. Foster, President

Commission On Religion & Race

Clarifying and defining the exact role for the Commission on Religion & Race has consumed this past year. The mission is obvious: eliminate the contamination of racism in the operation of our churches, and then possibly of all communities. The study, Ten Years Later, gave us a starting point: the Commission is trying to identify the casual organizational facets of the perpetuation of racism so that a plan for recognition, confession, and confirmation can be developed.

The Commission has begun to carry monetary and consulting responsibility for conference projects funded by the General Commission on Religion and Race, as well as making pre-funding evaluations as required. Some members of the Commission have provided technical and consulting information against two projects within Conference that promise to impact positively on race related problems of our church and society.

Finally the Commission has provided some training to Local Church Chairpersons of Religion and Race; it is expected that this effort will be redoubled in the next few years.

Respectfully submitted,
John F. Holden, Chairperson

Commission On Status And Role Of Women

Some of the most significant achievements of the commission in 1978 involved interaction with local church people. Our constant hope is to help local church people understand the concerns of our commission and the needs for inclusiveness. Our efforts at "connection" included:

1. a mobile display with resources for perusal and free handouts available to any local church upon request (with program if desired)
2. Request for a Sunday devoted to the status and role of women and a resource packet for use in planning this worship service.
3. participation in the Fall convocation of the Board of Church and Society — providing leadership for a workshop on the legal status of homemakers.
4. preparation for participation in a careers workshop and January Training event.
5. provided speakers upon request to local churches

Training and resourcing of commission members was also begun in 1978 by the following:

1. A commission member was sent to a communications workshop in Nashville
2. a report from the IWY by Jean Bowen
3. Met with Barbara Thompson, then Chairperson of General Conference CSRW
4. met with Rev. Kathryn B. Moore discussing the multiple roles of a woman in ministry
5. reviewed various resources
6. spent one full day in planning retreat

We acted in our role as advocate through inclusions in the coordinated mailings and THE COMMUNICATOR. Also we distributed monthly editions of the "Flyer" a newsletter from the General Conference commission.

We began to establish working relationships with other boards and agencies of the Peninsula Conference in pursuit of common goals.

We hope to continue and increase our efforts in each of these areas in 1979. As always we welcome suggestions, comments, and participation from all interested persons.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Keirn Kester, Chairperson

Trustees Of Peninsula Annual Conference

Two grants were made by the Trustees during the year, one for $10,000.00 to the Dover District Church Extension Society, to be applied toward the purchase of a new church site in the Pot Nets area; and one for $300.00 to Camp Pecometh for the purchase of new mattresses.

Our grants are limited by available income, as our policy is not to invade the principal of money entrusted to us except in cases of emergency.

Difficulty in establishing title to the Glasgow Church property on the Wilmington District continues to hamper its sale. We hope to have this bothersome problem cleared up soon so that the property may be sold. Several persons and organizations have expressed an interest in purchasing the property.

The Reverend William H. Revelle, Jr. and Mr. Theodore Briggs continue to guide and counsel the board and their valuable assistance is much appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,
Thomas S. Lodge, President

Board Of Global Ministries

I begin with a tribute to Donzel Wildey who served as President of this Board until June when he relinquished this responsibility after assuming the Vice-Presidency of Wesley Seminary. He led this Board with vigor and dedication.

In the early part of 1978 a study of the function of the Board proposed that greater autonomy be given to the Divisions. This recommendation was adopted by the full Board at a meeting in June. The membership of the Board is divided among the three Divisions: Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns, Health and Welfare, and Missions. These Divisions now meet separately, fulfilling the obligations mandated to them by the Discipline and the Peninsula Conference. The Board meets once or twice during the year, reviewing all of the work of the Board, setting overall goals, providing a sense of unity, and electing officers. As a result, the bulk of this report will be composed of the reports of the three Divisions, their committees and the related agencies (like, Board of Hospitals and Homes, Delmarva Ecumenical Agency, Methodist Action Program). It has been further decided to provide for membership on the Committee on Education and Cultivation membership from the Board. In the past, it has been composed entirely of ex-officio persons — the District secretaries for the various Divisions. Each of the Divisions and the committees have a wide variety of responsibility. It is hoped that this reorganization will help them respond to the opportunities more adequately.

There is enormous and wide variety of involvements on the part of the various Divisions of the Board, as you can see from the reports which continue. Let me mention some: The Board continues to encourage churches which are willing and able to respond to the special opportunity for satisfying the trust agreements with the National Division. This not only provides the church an opportunity to do so at a discount, but it makes possible funds in our Conference which may be used for missional priority, ethnic minority churches, or congregational development.

In addition to the wide range in programs to meet human needs, there is a growing interest in congregational development. This may be the creating of a new church in an area in which we do not have a congregation; or it may be the gathering of some existing congregations into a new congregation that could more adequately challenge the people of their area in the world in which we live today; or it may be the relocation of a congregation as an area of population may shift. Our church need not remain static or stagnant. One way for the church to grow is to be in mission where people are now. We have an opportunity to minister which need not be left for someone else to do.

The purpose of the Church or the Conference is not just to maintain the organization. Our purpose, however, is as Jesus said, "to do the will of Him who sent us."

I express appreciation to the members of the Board, and the many agencies which are related to its work, who are giving dedicated and intelligent service.

Committee on Education and Cultivation

The work of Education and Cultivation is that of promotion and communication, so its accomplishments are not very spectacular. In the course of the past year materials have been distributed by way of the Coordinated Mailing, Annual Conference displays, and upon request, that have brought to the people of the Peninsula information about the general benevolence program of the General Church, as well as specific information about the Advance, particularly regarding the Advance specials of our own Conference area.

We have initiated an effort to stress the importance of people in the process of communication, and have a concern that each local church have personnel among its leaders who are enthusiastic and learned regarding Global Ministries, and have developed skills which will make them effective in the life of a local church. To this end a leadership laboratory was held at Drayton Manor in August, at which time a period of twenty-two hours was given to using the materials, reading the study books, viewing the audio-visual aids, and practicing the skills necessary to effective leadership at home. Twenty-three persons, representing all four Districts, and all three of the Divisions of Global Ministries were present, most of whom expressed agreement to being involved in leading a similar experience at the district level. Among the leaders was the Rev. Mr. Donald Struchen of the General Board of Global Ministries.

Although not directly responsible for promotion of the Missional Priorities, the program adopted by the Council on Ministries at the Annual Conference session of 1978 was developed by the chairman of this committee, as was the overall plan of the resources center located in the College Center during the Annual Conference Sessions. A two-hour program during the School of Christian Mission at Wesley College last summer was planned and directed by the chairman of this committee, drawing upon the resources and leadership of the task groups on World Hunger and Ethnic Minority Local Church missional priorities.

Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns

Christians acknowledge their membership in a community of believers who have one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God and Father of all. (Eph. 4:5). With this as its scriptural mandate the United Methodist Church seeks to maintain an ecumenical spirit that begins with tolerance and goes on to areas of agreement and unity when possible with other Christian bodies as well as other faiths. The Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns exists to seek ways to assist and educate local church leadership, both laity and clergy, in their attempts to engage in and be alert to ecumenical possibilities. Following are some expressions of ecumenism within the bounds of the Peninsula Conference.

Ingleside, a home for the aging, owned and operated by Church Home Foundation, Inc., is an outstanding example of an interfaith/interdenominational community. This year an auxiliary was formed made up of members from nine denominations.

Glasgow Ecumenical Parish continues in a process of re-evaluation as the three judicatories, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and United Methodist seek ways to be ecumenically engaged.

We regret that at Chesapeake City, Trinity United Methodist Church and First Presbyterian Church are no longer yoked by having one pastor serve both churches. We realize this misfortune is due to the fact that ours is a "traveling" ministry and the United Methodist pastor who was serving the churches was appointed to another United Methodist charge.

The Peninsula Conference is also a participating member of the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency. By agreement our fair share of financial support to the administration of the agency is $16,770, which we recommend be paid in full. We regret that last year we did not again pay the full amount of our fair share.

In April the division sent two members to the 15th Annual Workshop on Christian Unity at Tulsa, Oklahoma. They were Rev. George Godfrey and Rev. Charles Donophan, who gave reports on the workshop to the division. We see our participation in these workshops to be top priority and hope to send delegates each year.

We sent educational materials to all the pastors and local church chairpersons of the division to inform them of the work that is being done by the World Council of Churches, The National Council of Churches, and The Churches of Christ Uniting. We began distribution of copies of A Lectionary for use by pastors in preaching and we also began distribution of the booklet In Quest of A Church of Christ Uniting to the local church chairpersons of the division.

There is much that has been done to unite the Church of Christ. There is much that has been done to further interfaith dialogue. There remains much more to do "that we may all be one" (John 17:21).

Charles A. Donophan, Chairperson

Delmarva Ecumenical Agency

The churches are working together in Delaware and Maryland's Eastern Shore through the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency. Persons from all walks of life receive services and feel the impact of the Church's witness through the several DEA ministries and related task forces.

The DEA Rural Ministries newest program is a three county-wide hunger action project on the Lower Eastern Shore which will operate food pantries, educate local church people on hunger, on local hunger, and challenge government agencies to distribute food to the hungry as legislated. A community gardening project was established in Kent County, Delaware to provide food, teach nutrition and inexpensive ways of acquiring fresh food and self canning of food. Food assistance was provided to 1099 migrants in receiving emergency food, food stamps or referral to meet their nutritional needs during the rainy season, early arrival, or insufficient work.

The DEA Rural Ministries has conducted research to establish medical needs, organize citizen groups and write HEW Rural Health Initiative grants that have resulted in establishing family medical practices in rural lower New Castle County and in lower Sussex County.

The churches, through the DEA Rural Ministries, have accepted the responsibility to see that primary health care is provided for all migrants who come into Delaware and the Eastern Shore counties of Maryland and Virginia. The nurses visiting in camps and conducting regular clinics made over 3,000 contacts with migrants for health purposes plus hundreds were served in clinics, medical centers and hospitals.

The core Rural Ministries staff to reach and serve the rural poor are Catholic sisters assigned to do outreach work, community organizers to educate persons on nutrition and effective leadership, and professional persons to provide medical care and counseling. The Church's support in prayers and dollars multiplies many fold to support persons with dignity as they receive food, health care and counsel.

Educational materials are available to local congregations through DEA Resource Ministries. The denominational centers of religious education and A-V materials are increasingly defining ways in which all denominations may use the available resources of books, cassettes, posters, simulation games, films, filmstrips, slides, records, curriculum, workshops, seminars and consulting services.

Helping people receive justice within a framework of love is the aim of the DEA Social Awareness and Action Ministries. The concerns of the Church for prisoners, minorities, welfare recipients, compulsive gamblers and sexual perversion are being addressed through task groups of church people, concerned citizens and agency staff joint planning and action.

Visiting the prisoner is a reality in Delaware. The Smyrna Bus Special provides transportation for family and friends of inmates at the Smyrna Adult Correctional Center (35 miles south of Wilmington) each Saturday. "Gate money" makes it possible for inmates to receive funds to get started afresh upon release and for other emergency needs.

Strategies for legislative action and learning for citizens involvement are developed and carried out.

The churches organized the Interfaith Task Force on Desegregation and were able to work together across racial, denominational and geographic lines with school administrators, public safety officials and citizen groups to assure coordination of all efforts that contributed to the New Castle County schools opening safely to provide a quality education for all children and youth.

Compulsive gamblers have compassionate and understanding counselors as they search for help at the Problem Gambling Center. Jai Alai and slot machine gambling have been stopped, however, the state operated lottery continues to give false hope not only to the numbers buyer but the taxpayer. An educational program is being carried out in local churches, legislative halls, magazine articles, news releases and national television.

The welfare recipient myth continues to cloud our thinking about providing adequate clothing and housing to the children in our society. Children have become the victims of sexual liberation, inadequate jobs and fearful attitudes. The Public Assistance Task Force continues in the struggle to get the level of welfare payments above the 1968 (yes, 1968) level of need and to make general assistance available to persons who have valid needs rather than broad exclusions.

The aging persons in Delmarva have a visiting Christian friend through the DEA Pastoral Care Ministry. The Nursing Home Task Force has conducted a survey of the nursing homes, carried out lay visitor training programs and implemented training programs for nursing home staff in addition to assuring that worship experiences are available in the homes.

Pine Bluff Village, Salisbury, Maryland is 150 units of housing for the aging that will open in spring 1979.

The young people caught in the swirl of changing moral values regarding drugs, alcohol and sex find counseling services in Ocean City, Maryland as a part of the DEA Leisure Ministries.

Pacem in Terris, a task force of DEA, has sponsored for a third year the Ulster Project that brought Catholic and Protestant youth from Northern Ireland to America. The experience of these youth praying, playing and talking together on Delmarva shores establishes friendships that support them to overcome the religious conflict in Ireland. The staff and board members are available to local congregations to speak and lead discussions on hunger and the multi-national corporations effect on world conflict.

A resolution on disasters, domestic and international, recommends that the international religious service agencies be supported by Delmarva churches.

Each of the DEA Ministries is an available resource to local congregations to support their programs, expand their vision and encourage personal involvement in the work and mission of the Church.

Division of Health and Welfare

The work of our Division is to represent the concerns of health and welfare of the Annual Conference and to provide leadership in a variety of settings.

The work of the past year (1978) may be reported through the following areas to which our time and energy were focused.

A. LEADERSHIP

1. The Annual District Training Workshops. Our Division cooperated with the Committee on Education and Cultivation to staff the workshops. According to the District Secretaries, the attendance was very low. However, those attending were given training.
2. Youth Carnival, April 1, 1978. This event was conference-wide and attracted many youth. We supplied staff and a display table with materials and brochures detailing services for counseling children and youth.
3. Delaware Interfaith Coalition on Aging. Willard Robinson represented us initially, but now the Rev. Richard Stazesky, Executive Director of Ingleside has agreed to serve as our representative. This new group hopes to promote programs that will involve agencies concerned about problems of the aging.

4. Conference Task Force on World Hunger. Wayne Grier was elected to serve on this committee representing health and welfare concerns.
5. Board of Child Care. We requested that our Division be represented on this board so as to have access to the agency and maintain effective communication. Wayne Grier was elected to be our representative.
6. National Association of Health and Welfare Convention. The Chairperson of the Division, who holds membership in the Association, usually attends this important national convention; however, because of personal illness he did not attend. A representative of the Peninsula Homes and Hospitals, Inc. did attend.

B. CONVOCATION ON YOUTH AND PARENTS BRIDGING CRISES — November 11, 1978.

This event was well planned by a sub-committee chaired by Willard Robinson. It offered help for local churches to deal with such problems as counseling teens, battered children, the adoptive child, handicapped children, drug and alcohol problems and communication between parents and youth. The Convocation had to be cancelled, because of lack of interest. Some of these areas will be dealt with in a conference planned jointly with the Board of Church and Society and the Commission on the Role and Status of Women on March 31, 1979. We hope not to lose sight of the important problems of children and youth in our society which the Church needs to be aware of and develop helpful ministries.

C. GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF THE DIVISION

1. A meeting of the Division was held at the Seaford Manor House, the Country House and the Board of Child Care. We do this to help acquaint members of our Division with the staff and work of these institutions, which our Conference helps to support. On June 4, 1978, an organizational meeting was held at the Board of Child Care to assimilate new members of the Division and to tour the facilities, meet some staff and youth residents and to view a slide presentation of the work. A picnic was held on the grounds for the members of the Division. It is important that we are familiar with the work of these agencies that provide direct services to persons, young and old.
2. Three members of our Division attended an AARP and NRTA Conference held at the Sheraton Inn, Dover, DE. The purpose of the conference was to share resources for programming and religious development available to churches.
3. Health and Welfare Ministries Week. The Division recommended to the Annual Conference that such a week be observed in the Peninsula Conference annually, prior to Mother's Day. This is to lift up health and welfare concerns and promote the Mother's Day Offering.
4. Nominees to the Board of Trustees, Peninsula Homes and Hospitals, Inc. The Division approved the nominees and referred the list to the Annual Conference. We did raise questions about the need to have women and ethnic minorities adequately represented on the Board of Trustees. The staff of the Peninsula Homes and Hospitals, Inc. agreed that this is a priority, but indicated the difficulty in finding qualified prospects for this specialized ministry.
5. Status Offenders. The concern was raised about the need to serve these youth and whether or not enough facilities were available. This is something the Committee on Children and Youth will look into in the future.
6. A new film, "The Third Age: A New Generation," was purchased for use by local churches. It was placed in the A.V. Department of the Council Office in Dover.
7. The Division felt it necessary to reorganize into standing committees. The following committees were created:
   a. Ministries to Aging Persons, Willard Robinson, Chairperson
   b. Ministries to Children and Youth, Jeanean Thomas, Chairperson

   c. Ministries to Local Churches, Jack Sparks, Chairperson
   d. Ministries with Ethnic Minorities, Albert Moore, Chairperson

Board of Child Care

Forty-three boys and girls were placed at the Child Care Center during the past year. Forty-four percent are from Baltimore City, the remainder from throughout the area of Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences. The "typical" child received to the care of this Church related home is 13 years old. He or she has experienced a variety of living situations: natural parent (seldom has there been a family), foster home(s), other group homes. The child has suffered rejection, neglect, often abuse, both physical and mental, and as a result is exhibiting behavior problems. Those problems may include defiance of authority, truancy, temper outbursts, lying, stealing, experimentation with alcohol or drugs, sexual acting out.

We have rejected referrals for ninety-six boys and girls. These referrals came from agencies with expertise, with knowledge of the child referred, and of the Board of Child Care. They were referred to us because we were thought to be the best resource available. Because our open program in a middle class residential neighborhood could not accommodate these 96 children they were sent out of State, were placed in some other less adequate residence, or were left in the existing circumstance to fend for themselves. The 96 are considered by Board of Child Care staff to exhibit seriously disruptive behavior. They are unlikely to adjust to public school. Some display symptoms of mental impairment. Some have in their past a history of serious juvenile delinquency, such as arson, assault, robbery. Board of Child Care will not admit a child who is charged with delinquency or one who has a history of crime.

The story of the Board of Child Care is one of contrast: anguish at the horrible things happening to your children and mine; unbelievable pain and suffering accompanying family dissolution; tears on children's faces as they are forced to leave the security of their home; beauty in the progress which young people make, once given such opportunity as is at the Board of Child Care.

For example, Dave Trumbo, full time director of recreation at the Center states: "We strive to develop the self-image of the child in hopes that this will transfer to his everyday life. We attempt to introduce children to athletics as a fun way to spend leisure time, and provide a positive outlet for pent-up hostility and aggressions."

This program is enhanced by the recent construction of a swimming pool. The pool has served as an educational and therapeutic facility as well as a great way to spend a hot summer's day. Presently a gymnasium is under construction at the Board of Child Care to help meet the needs of young people. The gym will provide an indoor facility for recreational use during the long winter months. We have three basketball and two volleyball teams which will use the gym in addition to the daily program provided for all of our youth.

To top off our summer program, funds are provided by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Board of Child Care for youth to take summer camping trips. Last summer we had trips to Fontana Village in North Carolina, Pymatuning State Park in Ohio, and Ocean City, Maryland. An experimental adventure was planned with the Woodside United Methodist Church Junior High Youth Fellowship at Cape Henlopen in Delaware. This venture was an extremely successful one, as each group was able to share their life experiences and experience Christian Fellowship with one another. All of the summer camping trips gave our staff a positive way of relating to young people on a very personal level.

Thirteen foster homes in the Baltimore-Washington Metropolitan Area are providing care to children, through the Board of Child Care. These homes have widely varying characteristics, as do the children in them. However, they are similar in their purpose of providing love and a family setting for children. Pre-adopt foster homes provide care to infants and children who are making the transition to adoption. Some foster homes offer crisis-related or temporary care, while others provide more of a long-term type of service.

Foster families gather at the Board of Child Care twice a year for a Christmas Party and a picnic, and are given recognition for the day to day care they give to their children.

Through the adoption program, a variety of services are offered. Persons who need assistance planning for their unborn child can find help through our counseling program. If adoption is the chosen plan, the infant is placed in an adoptive home. Adoptive couples are active Methodists who cannot have children biologically. Presently, the adoption program is small. This agency also deals with international and national agencies to broaden services in the adoptive field.

Swartzell Assembled Family Program consists of four homes. One home was closed when four children were adopted by the foster parents. What a wonderful way to terminate a service.

Our Development effort has been directed primarily toward informing the members of the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences of our work and deferred giving programs. We still find many individuals and in fact Church groups who have only a cursory idea of the work of the Board of Child Care. We would like to have a chance to talk to these groups about the work we are doing to serve the Conference and Children.

The deferred giving programs appear in the forms of Charitable Remainder Trusts, Gift Annuities and wills and bequests. We are preparing to do work on the Estate Planning and should be ready to move in that area next year. We have been able to assist several churches in these areas and with development literature. This benefits both the Church and the Board of Child Care.

At this time the returns of the Christmas Offering are not complete. We do appreciate the tremendous effort of both ministers and lay workers in their promotion of that Offering. It enables the Board to continue its work with children. Representatives of staff are available to visit with your Church groups to present the story through the spoken word or through slides. You are welcome to visit.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes and Hospitals, Inc.

There have been three major steps in the Conference ministry to the aging. The first occurred in 1960 with the founding of the Methodist Country House in Wilmington. The second step followed in 1966 with the opening of the Methodist Manor House in Seaford and the third step began in 1978 when residents started moving into Cokesbury Village near Hockessin. By year end 1978 we were caring for 725 residents in our facilities with the expectation of serving nearly 900 by the end of 1979.

Ever since 1960 we have been meeting some very basic human needs — important to everyone, but especially necessary to the elderly. We offer our residents living accommodations in a variety of styles and sizes. We provide them with meals expertly prepared and nutritionally balanced. We provide medical care with a strong emphasis on preventative medicine and rehabilitative therapy. Our residents participate in both on and off-site recreational activities, most of which are planned by residents themselves. They have opportunities for religious worship and pastoral counseling. Those with limited financial resources may apply for financial assistance from our Benevolence Fund. Our professional staff and members of our Board of Trustees elected by the Annual Conference are constantly reviewing our programs for their effectiveness in meeting the needs of our residents.

While we have grown in both our willingness and capacity to serve, we are now facing many new problems that must be solved. For the most part these problems are associated with changing trends in the care of the elderly.

We have discovered that our waiting lists are shrinking and optimum occupancy rates are more difficult to maintain. There are several reasons for this but three deserve mentioning.

There is a wider selection of retirement facilities in the immediate area. There are many new alternative lifestyles available on a natural basis, and age at retirement is gradually increasing.

We find that more and more of our residents with limited incomes are now having to obtain assistance from our Benevolence Fund in order to cover their monthly service fees.

We are also experiencing greatly increased government regulations, both state and federal, in the operation of health care services for the aging. While useful in many respects, the regulations are still extraordinarily complex and burdensome. On the other hand, the government sector, through a multiplicity of programs is becoming a significant source of individual retirement benefits and an important source of funding for a variety of private and public agency programs for the aging.

Within the Peninsula Conference we also see other trends. Most importantly we see increased local church involvement in our ministry. For example, the Mother's Day Offering in 1978 reached a new record of sixteen cents per member. While still short of our minimum goal of thirty cents, it is still a 31 percent increase over 1977. There are more hours of volunteer service, particularly by the Home Auxiliaries at the Country House and the Manor House. These are encouraging signs but, we still need more church involvement in referring applicants to our Homes.

We rejoice in the accomplishments of the past, but we cannot rest. We need to implement two programs of considerable urgency. The first concerns the need to provide professional social service consultation and assistance to applicants, residents and their respective families. The elimination of the mandatory retirement age, the increase in age longevity, and the important role of government in the lives of older persons requires trained staff persons who can assist applicants and residents in financial matters, family relationships and lifestyle adjustments. We are asking for an increased appropriation from the Conference in order to fund, on a matching grant basis, a program of social services for 1980.

The second area of concern is the need to broaden our base of financial support through increased contributions from a larger number of donors. While we have greatly increased our donor base in certain areas since 1974, there are still a number of areas within the Conference where financial support is minimal. We will need the assistance of concerned lay persons throughout the Conference to help us identify new sources of financial support.

We have come a long way since 1960, but the end of the journey is not in sight. We still need a greater number of residents and staff persons from ethnic minority groups. We still need to find better ways to meet the many complex needs of the aging person in our society. We still need to make it clear to every church in the Conference that our three facilities, the Country House, Manor House and Cokesbury Village are tools by which the local church ministry to the aging can be achieved.

We are most grateful for the Christian concern of both Methodist and non-Methodist over the years but, if we are to continue to provide God's promise of an abundant life for the elderly, it will require even greater support from people throughout the Conference area. The helping and healing ministries of Jesus Christ flow daily through the Homes for the Aging of this Conference and we praise God for these opportunities of service.

J. Wallace Watson, President

Division of Missions

The Division of Missions, under our Annual Conference structure has established responsibilities based on The Book of Discipline and has three subcommittees which enable the Division to carry out its task.

A. Committee on Church Extension & Congregational Development.
This committee, chaired by Charles Moyer, conducts research studies and community surveys that plan for and assist with developing innovative strategies for mission.
During the past two years the committee has concentrated its efforts on two areas of Church Extension: the Long Neck area of Sussex County and the "Black Cat" area, New Castle, DE.

In 1979-80, the committee will be looking at the entire conference for areas of potential church growth and/or congregational development potential.

B. Town and Country Committee.

This committee, chaired by Betty Obenshain, seeks to work "in areas with under 50,000 population: consulting with the bishop and the cabinet, and boards and agencies of the conference in the development of policies for cooperative parishes, and in the initiation and strengthening of these types of ministry; and working with funding sources (through the Division) to provide support for staff personnel who serve in cooperative types of ministries."

The Town and Country Committee has been involved with the DEA Rural Ministries, Ethnic Minority Local Church development programs and other areas. An ethnic-minority Small Church Workshop was planned and conducted in the Annual Conference through this committee.

In 1979-80, the committee will be presenting "Preliminary Parish Guidelines" to the Annual Conference; mapping church locations within the conference, and developing means by which to lift up the needs of town and country churches.

Some members of the committee attended Jurisdictional and National consultations and/or workshops on Town and Country churches.

C. Urban Work Committee.

This committee, through its chairperson, has worked with cooperating judicatories in proposing a Hispanic ministry in the city of Wilmington. This ministry, as presently proposed, will consist of a Hispanic pastor and a new congregation. A research survey is now being pursued and will determine the possibilities for such a ministry.

In 1979-80 the committee will plan an Urban Work Consultation in one of the emerging urban centers of the conference.

Over and above the work of the three committees, the Division attempts to support the development of new and established congregations by use of Conference funding and by making recommendations for loans, donations, and grants from the National Division of the Board of Global Ministries.

During the Conference year, the Division has provided grants, loans, and donations for Church development, parsonage aid, the Methodist Action Program, Neighborhood House, DEA Migrant Ministries, Leisure Ministries through DEA and local Church summer ministries, the Glasgow Ecumenical project and others.

Methodist Action Program

The peaceful desegregation of the public schools in New Castle County during September 1978, the increases in grants for Aid to Dependent Children, the defeat of Jai Alai gambling and slot machines, the rejection of a liquor license on the Delaware Turnpike, the creative work of community ministry and service at Brandywine-Trinity and Old Asbury, the continued efforts at Harrison Street for Hispanic ministries, the amazing growth of the Emergency Food and Clothing Cupboards, and the emergence of new church development are some of the important contributions made by the Methodist Action Program over the past five years.

Some of you will remember that within weeks after my arrival in Wilmington, January 1974, an editorial in the News-Journal announced that MAP was dead. It is with joy I report to you the announcement was premature. Five full years of missionary effort to strengthen local churches, engage in social change, and meet human needs has advanced the kingdom, demonstrated vitality and exposed concerns.

How MAP has been able to achieve so much takes on added significance because we have had to do it with fewer and fewer dollars. The first year I was your Executive Director MAP received its largest allocation from the Annual Conference, $72,400. Since that time the allocation has been frozen at $60,000. This decrease in funding came during a period of cruel inflation, and it is a credit to the dedicated staff of MAP that we have been able to achieve more and more with less and less.

The budget reductions, staff cuts, and volunteer efforts required to achieve this miracle have brought us to the moment when we must admit that with less and less resources, MAP will produce less and less. It is a sobering evaluation, expecially when our obituary has already been refuted.

I bring this to the attention of the Board of Directors not to say MAP is going to give up or go away. It is brought to your attention so that together we can initiate actions to secure a solid financial base for our future mission efforts.

There are three areas where we can expand our financial base: greater individual pledge support, local church benevolence budgets, and additional funding from the Division of Missions. Growth in each of these areas in the year 1979 is possible.

(1) Individual Pledge Support

In the past year we added 155 new contributors to the Methodist Action Program. A concentrated effort by the Lay Representatives and the clergy to keep the MAP office up to date on new families in the congregation who would like to be informed about our work will help increase individual pledge support in 1979. Several churches have sent us a greatly expanded potential contributors list. These folks will begin to receive monthly mailings from MAP and the Lay Representatives will include them in their list to solicit pledges for the coming year.

(2) Local Church Benevolence Budgets

Local Church Benevolence Budgets are a vital part of the funding for MAP. When a congregation makes a decision to share in the work of the District Mission and Church Extension Society (MAP), it joins hands with thousands of other persons who corporately seek to strengthen local churches, engage in social change and meet human needs. A church makes that decision when it is informed about how MAP extends services to so many different people, and when it is given the invitation to include our work in its budget.

(3) Additional Funding from the Division of Missions

Back in 1974 MAP was asked to accept a reduction in its Annual Conference allocation because of the pressure to meet increased pension needs for our retired pastors. Five years at this reduced level has been a generous sacrifice. MAP has respectfully requested an increase to $70,000 for 1980, and this has been approved by the Division of Missions. Approval is also required by the Board of Global Ministries, the Council on Ministries, and the Annual Conference.

Securing a solid financial base for the work of the Methodist Action Program's next five years means a prayerful pledge of support from the Board of Directors, Lay Representatives, Clergy, and from our members and friends in the local churches. It will mean telling the story of MAP in the Council on Ministries meeting at your church. It will mean voting for increased support at Annual Conference.

Five years from now, in 1984, those who predicted that George Orwell was right will be wrong. I am confident that this is true because of the work of the Christian Church which has heeded the call of the Lord to do justice and love kindness and to walk humbly with the Master. John Haynes Holmes expressed it well in his hymn:

The voice of God is calling
It summons unto men . . .
I hear my people crying
In cot and mine and slum;
No field or mart is silent,
No city street is dumb . . .
Take us, and make us holy;
Teach us thy will and way.
Speak, and, behold! we answer;
Command and we obey!

Neighborhood House, Inc.

1978 In Review

People Working Together — Expansion of Neighborhood House Services went hand in hand with the increase in the number of paid staff and volunteer involvement. Special care was taken to provide more varied opportunities for staff and volunteers to grow and learn on the job.

Help from other agencies played a vital role in our activities in 1978. The Community Design Center, for example, helped analyze the use of existing space to meet the demands for present and future programs. Many other agencies, both public and private, contributed to the cooperative spirit that made 1978 an important, active year for Neighborhood House.

Among the most important accomplishments, we believe, are those which cannot always be described by numbers. It is those intangibles — the love and concern witnessed daily — which allowed Neighborhood House to thrive.

Together — as friends, staff, volunteers and neighbors — we will build the City of God.

Program Expansion Into the Neighborhood — The Housing Counseling Service, designed to enhance family and neighborhood development, helped promote and sustain home ownership in South Wilmington. Families were offered help with emergency housing, rental referrals, credit counseling and other assistance.

Family Counseling and Education was also offered to deal with problems stemming from alcoholism, poor health, low income, poor housing and other needs. Individual and group counseling has been increased as Neighborhood House established a working relationship with over 20 human services agencies.

Desegregation Action. The Board of Directors approved the assignment of a Family Worker to the school desegregation program as a top priority. The Neighborhood House Program Director was designated as coordinator of agency activities related to school desegregation.

Flower and Vegetable Garden Project. The fifth year of competition helped motivate neighborhood residents to cultivate 60 flower gardens, 25 vegetable gardens, 15 planters and hanging baskets and a variety of other horticulture projects by youth. A special emphasis was put on the use of vacant lots for community vegetable gardens.

Education and Recreation for All Ages — Because of the press for space at Neighborhood House, the recreation program of the City Parks and Recreation Department moved to the Elbert-Palmer School. For each age level special interest groups have been established. Elementary school students focused on career awareness, reading ("Dig-a-Book"), and black history. Teenage youth discussed topics related to health, sexuality and pregnancy. Others, who weren't sure of their career and school options, received counseling and practical advice about how to make the next step after high school. The College/Career Readiness Program witnessed the college graduation of three of its participants in 1978.

More than 60 adults enrolled in basic education classes to prepare them for their high school equivalency diploma (GED) test. Housing the Adult Basic Education classes was another way Neighborhood House worked in cooperation with other agencies to provide our neighbors the opportunity to choose a better life. Other adults participated in informal sewing classes and enrichment programs.

Day Care: Reaching Out Beyond the Day to Day Needs. The Day Care Program reached a capacity of 76 enrollees in 1978, enabling more parents to develop their potential by working and going to school. Attention was also given to teaching the parenting skills necessary for nurturing children mentally, physically, spiritually and socially.

The Special Touch. Helping young people prepare for the challenge of urban living and family life has been a hallmark of Neighborhood House activities. During 1978 the ABC 4-H Club was still the largest urban 4-H Club in New Castle County. Teaching practical skills as well as organizational leadership to a cross section of South Wilmington youth, the club retained members who had belonged for six and seven years and elected a 16 year old male president.

Statement of Evangelism and Christian Education at Neighborhood House

The following statement was written by a special committee of Neighborhood House Board and Staff and approved by the General Membership at the February 1979 Annual Meeting:

"Neighborhood House continues to bear Christian witness in word and deed of God's love, as expressed on the cross in the giving of His Son, that through Him ALL persons might experience the more abundant life.

"Neighborhood House, Inc. as a Christian witness to the love and compassion of the Church for ALL people:

. . is concerned for every aspect of a person's life and attempts to enhance his community spirit, personal dignity, and self-determination.

. . provides a climate in which people with diverse backgrounds can interact and contribute to each other from their differences.

. . develop indigenous leadership which, by example, may inspire others to raise their personal goals.

. . maintains program flexibility to develop individuals, fulfill current needs and make the neighborhood a better place to live."

Mrs. Evelyn Monroe was reelected to the post of Secretary of Program Resources and Mrs. Leona Neidigh to Mission Coordinator for Christian Personhood. Two new members of the Nominating Committee were elected: Mrs. Alice Powrie and Mrs. Judy Miles. Mrs. Lucy Mangum represented Neighborhood House. Mrs. Rosemary Hudson directed the Union Gospel Group and Mrs. Marian Handy was the soloist for the afternoon. The afternoon speaker was Mrs. J. Boyd Tyrrell, a special Mission Interpreter for the Board of Global Ministries. She recently returned from a tour of China and shared her experiences with the audience.

The District Mission Teams report the new units were organized and some units reactivated.

The Conference Newsletter, THE ENABLER, was issued in March and September, with Mrs. Sue Dabell as editor, and Mrs. Dabell received articles from local, district and conference officers and members. This was a great step forward toward our goal of improved communication between Local and District units.

Peninsula Conference United Methodist Women will be guided, as always by the principles of our Christian commitment and will be faithful stewards of God's gifts.

Board Of Higher Education And Ministry

The Board of Higher Education and Ministry aids and supports effective church ministry to young adults on various campuses throughout the Conference and strives to encourage youth in the realization of a lifestyle with values that reflect Christ's teachings.

The Board consists of two Divisions:

1. The Division of Career Planning and Counseling, (Rev. John Van Tine, Chairperson), and
2. The Division of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, (Dr. George Kirk, Chairperson), which represents Wesley College, the United Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware, the part-time Wesley Foundations at the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore and Delaware State College, and Morgan Christian Center at Morgan State University.

The Division on Career Planning and Counseling places emphasis on — A concern about career planning for all Christians, not just those entering Church occupations. The feeling held by the Division is that Christian vocation implies a lifestyle with values that reflect Christ's teachings and can apply to most occupations. With this in mind, the local church secretaries of Career Planning and Counseling have been recommended to plan programs which can help their youth understand Christian vocations in this way. The strength of such programs is that resources are as close as the members of the local congregations who could speak of their Christian witness in their jobs. Filmstrips and audio-visuals have been purchased by the Division and are available to local churches. An important step taken by the Division was to keep open communications directly with the local church secretaries to funnel information and suggestions to them. A quarterly newsletter was being sent to stimulate interest and ideas as well as to elicit feedback so the Division can do its job more effectively. The Division was involved also in making presentations on church occupations at colleges and high schools throughout the peninsula and in the area of mid-career changes.

The Division on Higher Education and Campus Ministry's emphasis has been placed on evaluations of the programs of the various campus ministries, evaluations of budget needs and in assisting and improving services at these campuses. Programs vary with the sponsoring organization — Wesley College supports programs in student financial aid, direct support for specific programs which include Chaplaincy, Associate Degree Nursing, Learning Resources, Library Acquisitions for B.S. Programs, Faculty Development, Retirement Orientation for Older Persons and a Career Placement Center.

The United Campus Ministry has undertaken programs aimed at providing a supportive community — counseling, worship, fellowship, solace, etc., providing for Christian Education — Bible study, theology ethics, education for personal growth and wholeness; the encouragement of a global consciousness — a change agent within our community and the world; to provide a ministry to and with the non-churched members of their community and to encourage the Celebration of Life — religion and the arts.

The campus ministry program at the Morgan Christian Center endeavors to increase student participation in the Christian Center services and activities, to increase the use of the Christian Center on a daily basis, and to expand articulation between neighborhood churches and the community and the Christian Center.

The Wesley Foundation related programs include community oriented projects and those dealing directly with students and their needs for Christian ministry.

Reports of agencies related to this Division are as follows:

Report of The Board of Trustees of Wesley College to the Peninsula Conference

In a brochure written by Dr. James Barrett, Associate General Secretary of the Division of Higher Education of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church, we find these two significant paragraphs:

> "The Wesleyan religious tradition was born in an academic setting. Holy club disciplines were first practiced on a university campus. John and Charles Wesley lived and worked as Oxford Dons years before they became itinerant preachers. Prior to soliciting money for building and operating church houses after the evangelical awakening, the Wesleys raised funds to build a school. Early Methodists even sang about uniting, 'the two so long disjoined, knowledge and vital piety.' "
> "As the Methodist movement came to America, so came also the passion for stirring the heart and training the mind. Cokesbury College was the seedbed that gave rise to over 1,000 expressions of Methodist institutional zeal in America. The 130 residual institutions and the 400 units of campus ministry stand today in bold witness to United Methodist intent on being a college-related church. Ministry in and with education is not some recent "add on" in our tradition. It is both central and crucial to all that demands our attention in the ebb and flow of priority issues."

Wesley College, founded in 1873 as the Wilmington Conference Academy, is a part of this proud tradition. We hope that the General Conference, in its 1980 session in Indianapolis, will support the recommendation of the General Council on Ministries to make Higher Education a Special Program for the 1981-1984 quadrennium.

We believe that a college-related church must focus attention on the great potential available to it in its educational institutions and become aware of the grave problems facing these institutions in the coming decade.

The year of 1978 was an important year in the life of Wesley College as a time of accreditation review. The addition of two four-year baccalaureate curricula to our academic program represented a substantive change in our previous status as an accredited junior college. The Middle States Association of Schools and Colleges therefore required that a thorough study be made somewhat earlier than would have been the normal cycle. A campus-wide self-study was conducted over a period of nearly a year to evaluate every aspect of academic life and of all supplementary support systems. This report was submitted to Middle States in June of 1978. In October, the Middle States' team of educators made an on-site visit to ascertain the quality of our programs and to study the effect of the new four-year curricula on our existing curricula. We were delighted when on December 18 we received word of our full accreditation as a comprehensive college with authority to grant both associate and baccalaureate degrees.

Also in 1978, a very careful professional analysis was made of our Nursing Program by the National League for Nursing. In July, we were notified of the continued accreditation of this important part of our college. The Nursing Division of the College is now ten years old. Our graduates have an enviable record of achievement in passing their state licensure examinations and are in demand by health care facilities for their high degree of professionalism and their sense of compassion in patient care.

The Long-Range Planning Committee of the College, which involves persons from every constituency, including members of the Board of Trustees, has reviewed the recommendations made by the previous committee and approved by the Board in 1975. We were pleased to find that we were on target in regards to most of the proposals. The few that have not yet been completed are receiving attention. This committee is engaged in a review of College objectives and an updating of the statements of mission and philosophy. In the months ahead, we expect this committee to lead us in developing projections and goals for the next five to ten years.

Of immediate concern is the development of marketing skills to enable us to promote Wesley College in our appropriate geographical region. We have employed a marketing consultant to assist us in this task. We must revise our publications, improve our internal admissions procedures and continue to attract qualified students for the college. A declining youth population is intensifying competition among schools for new students. This is a time when inflation is forcing the cost of education to rise.

Another related concern is the need for finding additional sources of income and encouraging increased giving by our present support base. It is difficult to remain competitive if we must constantly increase tuition and related costs for the student. Last year, 49% of our students received some form of financial aid. The average assistance granted was $2,200.

We are pleased that the Conference continues its financial support of Wesley College. The appropriation during this year of $121,000 represents less than 3% of our college budget, but it is a very important part. The Chaplaincy program and our Christian Service scholarships are funded by this gift. We also are able to offer aid to children of clergy, aid to minority students, assistance to the Nursing Program, the Library and other aspects of the College. We are indeed grateful for the budgeted gift by the Conference.

Some of our churches have caught a vision of the importance of our ministry and make annual grants for scholarships or unrestricted support of the school.

Bequests this past year have added over $250,000 to our endowment. The income will be used for additional scholarships. We are hopeful that many others will remember us in their wills. We find the Peninsula Conference Foundation helpful and are pleased to participate in its work.

In 1976, we entered into a three-year cooperative program with the University of Delaware which brought to our campus the University Freshman Honors Program. As this program is moved to the Newark campus where the University has developed a four-year honors center, we are looking forward to the beginning of a new cooperative venture. We expect to welcome approximately 150 foreign students to our campus in September as the University of Delaware English Language Institute is established. We see this providing a wide variety of opportunities for cultural exchange and other advantages to the college.

In recent years, we have seen an extension of our programs to the Dover Air Force Base. The Education Office of the Base has provided office and classroom space and has made it possible for us to offer varied educational opportunities to both military and civilian personnel. This past semester, we have offered nineteen courses on the Base. We expect to increase this aspect of our work in the coming years. Two college staff persons work full-time on the Base. Members of our regular faculty, as well as adjunct instructors, lead the classes.

The Annual Conference has designated a Sunday in the fall as Wesley College Sunday. We hope that each church will observe this special day as a way to present the College to their people. A free brochure or bulletin insert is usually provided. Speakers are made available by the College to visit churches when requested. We urge each pastor to select someone to serve as a Wesley Ambassador. The Ambassador serves in two very significant ways; first as the interpreter of the College to the local congregation, second as one who can facilitate the enrollment of potential students. The College Chaplain would welcome the opportunity to explain the Ambassador program.

Wesley is making significant progress as your Conference College. We need your continued interest, financial support and your assistance in recruiting qualified students.

Morgan Christian Center
Morgan State University

The Morgan Christian Center is the culmination of the ideas, dreams, and visions of the founders of the Centenary Biblical Institute which was later named Morgan College. Bishop Levi Scott of the Methodist Episcopal Church called four other men to a meeting on Christmas Eve in 1866. These five men, Bishop Scott, Thomas Kelso, William Harden, William Daniel and William B. Hill are the founders who built a foundation, not merely of mortar, bricks, stone or wood, but also a spiritual foundation that will stand the test of the ages as it has stood the test for the past number of years.

The Centenary Biblical Institute was chartered on November 27, 1867. In 1890, the name was changed to Morgan College in honor of a great benefactor, the late Reverend Lyttleton F. Morgan.

It was in 1918 that the college moved to its present site. In November, 1939, the trustees transferred the ownership of the college to the State of Maryland. In order to make adequate provisions for the Christian development of the students, the Trustees purchased about twelve acres of land adjoining the campus, on which they erected the Morgan Christian Center.

The cost of the building was approximately $150,000, including furniture and equipment. It is constructed of granite stone and is fireproof. The Christian Center consists of several rooms and serviceable areas including the Chapel which seats about 400 persons and is equipped with an electric organ, a piano and pews. The lounge and kitchen areas adjoin the Chapel. The main office suite, consisting of the director's office, the secretary's office and a workroom and closets, is located on the first floor. There is also a Campus-Ministry Office, a check room and an air-conditioned classroom. Other areas on the lower level include a team and recreation room, a small office, living quarters, a conference room, a checkroom, lavatories, and a large banquet hall with a stage and recreation area. These facilities lend themselves admirably to carrying out the purposes of the Morgan Christian Center, the University, and the neighboring community. In addition to regular Sunday morning 11 a.m. services, the center is used for Bible discussions, recitals, lectures, music classes, seminars, taping sessions, film showings, luncheons, plays, dinners, book reviews, workshops, parties, receptions, programs, dinners, baptisms, and weddings.

PURPOSE OF THE MORGAN CHRISTIAN CENTER

The mission of the Morgan Christian Center is to express Jesus Christ's love in the world through the healing and helping of men and women in society. To carry out its mission the center's ministry extends throughout the university and metropolitan Baltimore. The Christian Center provides opportunities for spiritual, recreational, social, and intellectual activities for individuals and groups who wish to translate their creeds into deeds.

The Christian Center seeks to coordinate, influence, and encourage the activities of all individuals or groups seeking to make Christian convictions effective in their personal and social relations in all aspects of university life.

The Christian Center Office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The telephone number is 1-301-254-7166.

THE DIRECTOR OF THE MORGAN CHRISTIAN CENTER

The Reverend Dr. Quincy Darnell Cooper, minister of the United Methodist Church, was selected as the new Director of the Morgan Christian Center. He succeeded The Reverend Dr. Howard Lee Cornish who retired June 30, 1976, after serving the center and Morgan University for 49 years.

Reverend Cooper is married to the former Ellen D. Carter of Baltimore, a graduate of Morgan. The couple has two daughters, Montelagra Elizabeth, and Deborah.

Scarritt College for Christian Workers

Scarritt College is owned by the General Conference and operated on behalf of the entire United Methodist Church. This ownership becomes a reality only as Scarritt is able to establish a working relationship with every annual conference of the Church. It is the local church and service agencies created by the Church which Scarritt serves by providing an educated and competent lay ministry, and it is to the Church that Scarritt turns to find qualified students and financial and moral support.

The College has a unique mission which aligns it in partnership rather than competition with liberal arts colleges and theological seminaries related to every annual conference. The purpose of Scarritt College is to educate lay persons for professional and volunteer Christian ministries in the Church and Society. Three inter-related programs achieve this purpose. (1) The degree program consists of upper division undergraduate studies leading to the B.A. degree in drama, religion, behavioral science, and social welfare. For this program Scarritt recruits junior college graduates interested in completing their professional studies in preparation for diaconal (lay) ministries. The Master of Arts degree — in Christian education, Church music education, Church and community, and evangelism — is for those seeking certification and consecration as diaconal ministers.

(2) The Center of Continuing Education and (3) the Center of Women's Studies provide short courses year-round on campus and in various parts of the nation. These courses are for the general laity, lay professionals, and the ordained ministry.

The faculty includes twenty full-time and seventeen part-time teachers whose expertise is consistent with Scarritt's stated purpose. The College is strategically located in proximity to several United Methodist general board headquarters and is also a member of the Nashville University Center with Vanderbilt University, Peabody College, Fisk University, and Meharry Medical College.

Students and participants in Scarritt's programs come from throughout the nation and from several other countries every year. Scarritt's 4,000 alumni live and work throughout the world.

Scarritt College is dedicated to the mission of Jesus Christ as carried out through the Church. The College is profoundly appreciative of the interest and support of this Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF PROGRAMMATIC CONCERNS FOR 1980

The United Campus Ministry budget request for 1980 reflects increases of three kinds:

a. Inflationary increases for supplies and other office costs
b. cost-of-living salary increases for the U.C.M. staff
c. expanded programming

It should be noted that the largest portion of United Campus Ministry program expenses are "hidden" in staff salaries and the self-supporting nature of most of our programs. Increased funding will allow for greater diversity and depth through films, speakers and printed materials. Specific programs are generated out of the specific competencies of the staff and the needs/concerns/interests of our constituencies.

The Board of Trustees of the U.C.M. has assumed responsibility for raising a portion of the 1979 and 1980 budgets. This pledge reflects the Board members' commitment to the United Campus Ministry.

It should also be noted that the United Methodist contribution to U.C.M. is gradually falling behind that of the two other funding judicatories, the Diocese of Delaware and New Castle Presbytery.

It is our hope that the Methodist contribution will be increased in 1980 so as to more adequately reflect the numbers and involvement of Methodists on campus and in the surrounding area and permit us to more fully minister with those in our charge.

Careful consideration of this budget reveals that denominational commitment expressed in adequate annual increments in their allocation is essential to maintaining staff and program at the present level.

University of Maryland — Eastern Shore

The Wesley Foundation at University of Maryland — Eastern Shore, provides ministry to the total campus ministry. The program ministry of the Wesley Foundation of University of Maryland — Eastern Shore is discussed in the following.

I. Chapel Service

The UMES Chapel which is one year old started off as a meditational part of the Campus Ministry program. However, there was a general need to project programs for devotional and meditational life.

The Chapel service began last year on Mondays at 9:00 as a 15 minute devotional. Beginning in September of '78 they were moved to Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Presently, the chapel service serves as a living inspiration to all where faculty and students attend. Brother Ronald Bell, a first year ministerial student, coordinates this ministry in cooperation with the director. Miss Beverly Milbourne serves as chapel organist.

The newly developed UMES Gospel Choir works together with the Chapel Ministry in the development of its ministry to the campus. The special chapel holiday programs are representative of this factor. On November 15, 1978 a special chapel Thanksgivng service was held in the Ballroom of the student developmental center because the chapel only sgated 40-50 persons. The Ballroom can seat over 300-500 persons. The message was delivered by the Director and Music was rendered by the UMES Gospel Choir. Sister Broncher Lyles, a member of Metropolitan United Methodist Church, is coordinator of the Gospel Choir.

II. Martin Luther King Bible Study

Tuesday nights has become an important time in the week. Students and faculty join together for fellowship and Bible study. It has become a viable part of our campus ministry program. Mr. Michael LeSeur, a freshman student arrived from Detroit, Michigan, with a fervant spirit and was anxious to coordinate this program in one year old chapel.

Presently the word is being shared each Tuesday from 7-8:00 p.m. by Mr. Leonard Harmon. He is a junior serving as the discussion leader. Dr. Lehman Tomlin, President of the Wesley Board of Directors is very supportive in this ministry as he attends each Tuesday and encourages other faculty and students to do likewise. We hope to continue this ministry in the future.

III. Support Ministries

The Wesley Foundation of UMES not only provides ministry but supports already established or related ministries.

Such Ministries are listed below:

a. Metropolitan United Methodist Church — programs are carried out to help uplift the ministry of the church. The Wesley Foundation provides major worsi ip experiences such as UMES Day and Black Religious Heritage Sunday at the neighboring church.
b. Community Program encourages students, faculty, clubs, organizations, sororities and fraternities to assist community agencies to meet the need of the Princess Anne community.
c. Wesley Foundation supports other institutions of higher learning in recruiting young men and women for Christian ministry.
d. Being itself a United Methodist institution it supports the United Methodist Church and the Peninsula Conference personally fulfilling the ministry of the local church by the following:
   1) educating persons of the rich heritage of our denominational church.

   2) seeking to recruit gifted and spiritual minds to do ministry in the black church.
   3) seek to help the Peninsula Conference fill black pulpits by producing and breeding young men and women to do ministry in the black church.

These are some of the support programs that we are attempting to provide as we spread the message of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Vaughn Johnson

United Campus Ministry
Delaware State College

The success of this ministry gives us much for which to be thankful. Our ministry for Jesus Christ to this campus community is serving more students and faculty than ever before.

As it has been for the past two years, our primary programs are the Bible Study classes and the Prayer Services. The students and faculty participation in these services is considerably increased this year. As a result, these services are not only widely attended, but also are considerably enriched spiritually by these persons' faith and spiritual involvement. Because of this, thankfully, as a Christian organization the Foundation is highly respected on campus.

That response has justified our holding campus-wide worship services. Once a month a Sunday morning worship service is held in the Martin Luther King Student Center. It is planned, and conducted by the students with music provided by various campus choirs.

Also, we have a campus caring program known as the Good Samaritans, which has as its purpose and function Christian caring to students during illness and all other distress situations.

We are gratified to have another young man from our Foundation seriously considering entering the United Methodist Ministry.

Our programming will remain the same for next year. And we trust our budget for 1979 will at least be equal to 1978.

The Board has been meeting monthly since September and will continue to meet on a call basis. The members are:

Dr. Homer Minus, Chairperson
Ms. Tina Miles
Ms. Sylvia Blakey
Dr. Henry Tisdale
Dr. Charles Greene

Respectfully submitted,
Clayton E. Hammond, Director

Thousands of students and their families are reached by these programs in a variety of ways — through direct involvement in the workshops presented, through the receipt of student financial aid, through participation in these programs sponsored by the receiving agencies, through counseling and other services rendered, through related community activities and through association with those persons having received the offered benefits.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Carol A. Wilkins, President

Board Of Diaconal Ministry

In 1978, it was the desire of the board to alert more persons to the opportunities for full time service to their church and for consecration as Diaconal Ministers. As we review the goals for the year we feel we have had a good year.

The registrar maintains an accurate and up to date listing of all certified persons in our conference and that listing is printed in the Conference Journal. Fourteen persons were recertified and one was certified and all were recommended to the annual conference for approval.

Each pastor was mailed an informative pamphlet on the Diaconal Ministry for his own information and for sharing with those within his congregation who may be interested in full time non-clergy service to the church.

A set of guidelines for Pastor-Parish committees for use in hiring lay professional people was also distributed.

One important project completed in 1978 was the printing of a Peninsula Conference pamphlet on the Diaconal Ministry for general distribution.

Work has been started on a visual presentation about the Diaconal Ministry and full time lay professional careers within the church. This slide presentation will be available for church groups, workshops, etc.

Each clergy person was sent materials reminding him/her of the need for certified persons serving in his/her church to be recertified and urging him/her to advise those serving in the church that certification was available. Notices were also sent to the certified persons reminding them of the need for recertification.

A highlight of the year was the recognition of two persons as Diaconal Ministers. This was done at Annual Conference.

The chairperson and registrar were able to attend the regional workshop at Valley Forge, Pa. This proved to be very beneficial for them. The chairperson spoke to the Dover District Ministers about the broad area of Diaconal Ministry and the requirements for certification in the various areas. Certification for full time lay persons serving the churches was stressed. The opportunity to speak to these men was appreciated.

The interview committee met with those seeking certification. In several congregations on Ministry Sunday, the Diaconal Ministry as well as the Ordained Ministry was offered as an opportunity to serve the church. Information regarding the requirements for certification in various fields has been mailed to those requesting it.

The members of the Board have become more familiar with the responsibilities of the Board to our conference during the year and are looking forward to seeing our services expanded in the coming year.

We are grateful for the support and cooperation we received from many sources during 1978. We offer our services and our cooperation to all Boards, agencies and committees within our conference in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
June Bostick, Chairperson

Board Of The Ordained Ministry

It is difficult to summarize in a few words the work and accomplishments of the Board during the last year. Excitement, frustration, disappointment, tears, joy, are only words until translated into emotions as members of the Board related to others in the program of outreach, scholarship, pastor's schools, orientation days, interviews, and Bishop's consultation on Ministry in December at Drayton Manor.

Scholarships

$14,848 in scholarship funds have been awarded for the year 1979, with $2,952 not yet designated. 22 individuals preparing for the ministry from our Conference are recipients of these grants.

The committee considers all requests and allots funds as they are available. Requests for scholarship applications should be directed to the Rev. Thomas C. Short, c/o Asbury Church, New Castle, DE 19720, by October 15. Spring requests by March 15. 50% of all funds allotted the Board during the coming year will be used for grants and scholarships.

Continuing Education

Funds to assist in continuing education are available to those serving in our Conference through the Continuing Education Committee of the Board. During 1978, seventeen grants totaling $2,633 were given. The maximum grant to any individual is $200 per calendar year and is for the purpose of furthering pastoral skills. The Board has allotted $4,500 for this program for 1979.

Applications and details concerning grants may be obtained from The Rev. Edward Kester, P.O. Box 7, Queenstown, Md. 21658. Grants are also made to Boards and Divisions providing continuing educational experience for local pastors. It is the desire and intent of the Board to assist as many ministers as possible in developing their skills and talents for continued ministry.

Those contemplating Study or Education Leave (#424 Discipline) should contact their District Superintendent as well as Mr. Kester.

Recruitment

Visitation to seminaries, trips by District Superintendents, letters of inquiry, word of mouth, counseling by local pastors, are all part of a program of recruitment. From these and other avenues, pastoral clergy are enlisted for the churches of our Conference.

The Washington Area faces a crisis in regards to the demand for and supply of adequately trained persons to give leadership in significant appointments especially in the black community. It is the intent for the two conferences of the area to engage a full-time person from within the conferences of the Washington area for this purpose. The cost of underwriting this program would require no new money, but would come from existing monies already allocated to existing committees of both Annual Conferences.

Becoming A Minister

The 1976 General Conference completely rewrote the Discipline as far as the section, "The Ordained Ministry." For this reason many still find themselves unsure what the proper procedure for entering the ministry now is or the definition of some of the terms now used. Below is the procedure now being used by your Conference Board as outlined by the Registrar.

Persons beginning the procedure into the United Methodist Ministry no longer receive a "License to Preach." It is replaced by the following two steps: Candidacy Studies: These are required to everyone who wishes to begin preparation for ministry, and should be started as soon as a candidate is approved by his/her Charge Conference.

In Candidacy studies, each candidate works personally with a Supervising Pastor, a person especially trained for this task, assigned to the candidate by the District Committee. Supervising Pastors may work with more than one District Committee, serving a geographical region rather than within District boundaries. District Committees may authorize students in school too far away to make regular personal pursuit of these studies with our Conference Supervisors practical, to arrange their studies with a certified Supervising Pastor where they are. District Committees should approve these arrangements and authorize the student to proceed.

The pace of progress is to be determined by the student and the Supervisor. For some persons this is the most crucial phase of their entire program of ministerial education. Adequate time should therefore be allowed.

The 1976 Discipline outlines the steps required for Candidacy (#404). This qualifies the student to proceed with his preparation for ordination; it does not give him/her any ministerial authority. Only when the Candidacy studies are completed is he/she technically a bona fide Candidate for ministry. Candidacy is to be reviewed and renewed annually.

License as a Local Pastor: Those who wish to serve as a Local Pastor, after finishing their Candidacy Studies, prior to their ordination as deacons must complete the "License to Pastor School." This is mandatory for all persons choosing this option, regardless of age or experience. (An Interconference Local Pastors' Licensing School will be held July 9-20 at Drew Theological Seminary. Deadline for registration is June 1. See your District Superintendent about registration blanks.) The license as a Local Pastor is issued by the Bishop only after the completion of the studies in a recognized "Local Pastor's License School."

The Discipline also clearly specifies the privileges and limitations of the License as a Local Pastor (#406). It is issued only when the candidate receives an appointment; it is valid only within the boundaries of that appointment; it ceases to be valid when for any reason he/she ceases to function in that appointment. A pastor serving under the authorization of this license does have the privilege of performing "all the duties of a pastor" (#453.2). He/she serves under the "specific supervision of a counseling elder" with a license which is subject to annual renewal (#408.1).

The disciplinary provisions regarding schedules and sequences are as follows:

1. To be eligible for ordination a person must have completed the Candidacy studies one year in advance; i.e., he/she must have been a certified candidate for a year. (#408.1)
2. In order to be appointed before ordination, a person must have completed the License as a Local Pastor studies. (#406)

Any questions concerning the process should be directed to your District Superintendent or the Registrar, The Rev. Dr. Edward R. Wilkins, Box 66, Denton, Md. 21929.

Change in Status

Clergy anticipating a change in their status: Retirement, Sabbatical, Leave of Absence, Disability Leave for 1980 should contact The Rev. W. Daniel Rich, Grace Church, 903 West Street, Wilmington, DE 19801 for the proper forms.

Summary

From the Orientation Overnight in June at Drayton Manor to the last interview for those seeking ordination in April, members of the Board are involved in relating to those coming through the process of becoming ministers. As Chairman, I am grateful to those who carry committee responsibilities, who agonize over difficult decisions and who in any way help to lighten the load.

Respectfully submitted,
John A. Irwin, Chairman

AUDITORS' REPORT

Council on Finance and Administration of the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church

We have examined the balance sheet of the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1978 and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements, and change in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As stated in Note 4 of the financial statements, fixed assets were first recorded by the Conference in the capital fund as of December 31, 1969. At that time adequate cost records were not available to substantiate the cost of all real estate owned, so it was recorded at its appraised or estimated value. Generally accepted accounting principles, in our opinion, require that fixed assets be stated at an amount not in excess of cost.

In our opinion, except for the effect of the capitalization of fixed assets at appraised or estimated values as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church at December 31, 1978, arising from cash transactions, and the revenues and expenditures made by it during the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

AUDITORS' REPORT

Peninsula Conference of The United Methodist Church
Conference Trustees

We have examined the Balance Sheet of the Peninsula Conference of The United Methodist Church Board of Trustees as of December 31, 1978 and the related statements of Cash Receipts and Expenditures and Changes in Trust Assets for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the aforementioned statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the Peninsula Conference of The United Methodist Church Board of Trustees at December 31, 1978, arising from cash transactions, and the revenues collected and expenditures made by it during the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

ACCOUNTANTS' OPINION

Board of Trustees
Wesley College, Inc.

We have examined the balance sheet of Wesley College, Inc. as of June 30, 1978, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and current funds revenues and expenditures for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The college has included in General Fund Liabilities outstanding purchase orders and budget allocations in the amount of $73,774 of which $59,380 is included as expenditures of the General Fund for the twelve months ended June 30, 1978, and $14,394 was included as expenditures of the General Fund for the twelve months ended June 30, 1977. The recording of these liabilities should, in our opinion, be reversed in order to conform with generally accepted accounting principles as described in the Industry Audit Guide of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. If these outstanding purchase orders and budget allocations were reversed, General Fund Liabilities and the General Fund Deficit would be decreased by $73,774 as of June 30, 1978 and the excess of Revenues over Expenditures would be decreased by $7,077 for the year then ended.

In our opinion, except for the effects of recording outstanding purchase orders and budget allocations as expenditures and liabilities, as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the financial position of Wesley College, Inc. at June 30, 1978 and the changes in fund balances and current fund revenues and expenditures for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

C. Memoirs

Clergy

HARRY NEULAN BAILEY

Harry Neulan Bailey was born in Easton, Maryland on August 16, 1897, the son of Harry Bailey and Mildred (Mulder) Bailey. He attended school in Easton.

Rev. Bailey was a veteran of the U. S. Marine Corps, World War I, and was the oldest living Marine in Maryland.

Harry N. Bailey married Mildred Edith Steele on October 21, 1922 in Dover, Delaware. They had three sons and three daughters and, at the time of his death, 23 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

In 1922 Rev. Bailey graduated from Wesley Collegiate Institute, Dover, Delaware, and completed seminary at Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pennsylvania, in 1924. He was ordained deacon in 1922 and elder in 1924 when he was admitted to the Wilmington Annual Conference. His first church was in Farmington, Delaware. Other pastorates were in Dover, Marydel, Crapo, Seaford Circuit, Hopewell, Tangier, Deal's Island, and Perryville. While serving Perryville he was part time chaplain at Perry Point Veterans Hospital for nine years. Rev. Bailey then served as chaplain at the U. S. Veterans Administration at Kecoughtan, Virginia for six years.

After his retirement in 1953 he lived in Newport News, Virginia for ten years, and then built a home in Perryville, Maryland where he lived for 15 years and where his wife continues to reside. He was appointed Pastor Emeritus of Perryville United Methodist Church. He was also interested and took part in all community activities. He was a great sportsman, loving to hunt and fish.

Rev. Bailey was a member of the Masonic Lodge 130 A.F. & A.M. at Havre de Grace, Maryland.

He died suddenly at his home September 12, 1978. Funeral services were held September 15th from the Perryville United Methodist Church with the Rev. Charles Hurlock, Reisterstown, Maryland, officiating. He was laid to rest in Hopewell Cemetery, Port Deposit, Maryland.

The three great loves in Brother Bailey's life were his Lord and the Lord's work, his wife and family, and his friends in the Lord, especially his preacher brethren. The spirit of Jesus was constantly exemplified by him. Where there was a need he went in the manner of the Good Samaritan, always eager to serve. The love that he shared with his family was all that it ought to be. His wonderful wife for 56 years was a loving comforter, helper and mother. He was truly a great Christian man and surely the words of James Montgomery's poem titled "Well Done" could be said to Brother Bailey.

Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

The pains of death are past,
Labour and sorrow cease,
And Life's long warfare closed at last,
Thy soul is found in peace.

WILLIAM J. GARRETT

William J. Garrett, son of William B. and Clara V. Garrett, was born July 14, 1908, near Sudlersville, Maryland; and died January 3, 1979, at the Kent General Hospital, Dover, Delaware.

On September 17, 1932, he chose for his wife a lovely christian woman, Sarah Hayes. Endowed with great ability and training, and dedicated to the work of the Christian Church, she became an effective co-laborer with Brother Garrett in his ministerial career, and walked faithfully by his side everywhere he was called to serve.

As a young man, he worked with his father on the farm; later he moved to Wilmington, Delaware where he was employed by the Pullman Company: He was an active member of the Eastlake Methodist Church.

On May 19, 1947, he received his local preachers license and one year later responded to the call of God to the full-time ministry: He was ordained a deacon in 1952 and an elder in 1954. He served faithfully the following churches:

Bozman-Neavitt; Beckwith-Spedden; Pittsville-Ayres; Parsonsburg; Sharptown-Asbury; Harrington-Trinity;
Chesapeake City-Trinity; Calvary-Eastlake;

After his retirement in 1975, he and Sarah moved to Dover, Delaware, and again he responded to the call of the Lord and the Conference; he served faithfully in the retired relationship, the Hartly United Methodist Church.

The writer of this memoir joins with many others in praising God and the Peninsula Conference for sending this man of God and his dear wife Sarah, to lead us in the christian way of life.

Brother William Garrett was a consecrated christian minister — true to his God, his church, his wife, his family, and his fellowman. God knows and we know, the world is richer because he lived, he served, and he died in the faith.

Funeral Services were conducted January 6, 1979, in the Hartly United Methodist Church by the Reverend William H. Revelle, Jr., Superintendent of the Dover District, assisted by the Reverend Vinton D. Shufelt, retired, and the Reverend Harold P. Spedden, Pastor of the Richardson Park United Methodist Church, with interment in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Camden, Delaware.

The following poem, written by an unknown author, perfectly expresses my thoughts:

Servant of God, well done —
Rest from thy loved employ.
The Battle fought, the victory won —
Enter thy Master's joy.

The pains of death are past,
labor and sorrows cease;
And life's long warfare closed at last,
Thy soul is found in peace.

Servant of God, well done —
Thy glorious warfare past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
and thou art crowned at last.

Harold P. Spedden

JOHN OSCAR GRIFFIN

JOHN OSCAR GRIFFIN, the son of the late John and Annie Griffin, was born in Bethlehem, Maryland on March 30, 1884.

He entered life eternal Tuesday, approximately 3:30 p.m., May 30, 1978 at the Stephen Smith Home For The Aged, Philadelphia, Pa.

He was educated in the Bethlehem Schools and attended High School in Easton, Maryland. He left High School and entered Princess Ann Academy, located in Princess Ann, Maryland to study the ministry. He continued his studies at the academy until he became an ordained preacher to join the Methodist Denomination. He was married to the late Bertha Phillips.

He served charges in New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia and a short time in Philadelphia under the Delaware Conference until his health failed.

He is survived by an host of nieces and nephews and an adopted son, John.

If death should beckon me with outstretched hands
And whisper softly of an unknown land.
I shall not be afraid to go
For though the path I do not know
I take death's hands without fear.
For He who brought me safely here
Will also take me safely back.
And though in many things I lack
He will not let me go alone
Into the valley that's unknown.
So I reach out and take death's hand
And journey to the promised land.

Sorrowfully,
The Family

JOHN NICHOLAS LINK

John Nicholas Link was born in Baltimore, Maryland, January 28, 1893, the son of John Henry Link and Margaret Edler Link.

He received his early education in the public schools of Baltimore, and higher academic instruction at Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland (A. B. and M. A.). He received two other degrees at Westminister Theological Seminary (S. T. B. and S. T. D.). Other graduate studies were pursued at Teachers College, Columbia University, New York City, and Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

His earliest religious instruction was received in the Faith Reformed Church, Baltimore, Maryland. He received Elder's ordination in April, 1913.

Among the appointments served by Dr. Link were: Fairfax Methodist Protestant Circuit, Fairfax County, Virginia; Warwick Circuit, Warwick, Maryland; Accomac Circuit, Accomac County, Virginia; Deer Park Circuit, Smallwood, Maryland; Grace Methodist Protestant Church, Baltimore, Maryland; Starr Methodist Protestant Church, Baltimore, Maryland; First Methodist Protestant Church, Newark, New Jersey; Westminister Theological Seminary, Department of Practical Theology; Peninsula Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware; District Superintendent, Wilmington District, Peninsula Conference; Retired to Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, May 1959.

On May 31, 1911, John Nicholas Link married Jennie Elizabeth (Britcher) Link. Mrs. Link continues to live at the Methodist Manor House where the couple enjoyed their later years together. Their son, John Howard Link, a Methodist minister, presently serves at Cumberland, Maryland.

In retirement, Dr. Link continued to pursue an active life. While residing in Rehoboth, he became active in civic and church affairs, and accepted occasional appointments. At the Methodist Manor House he was instrumental in starting the School of Continuing Education in which he served as dean and instructor. He organized a group of retired ministers into the Manor House Volunteer Pastoral Care Staff. He assumed responsibility for occasional stereo concerts, and frequently introduced chapel speakers.

Among his lifelong interests were teaching, counseling, administration, music, and literature. He was a popular speaker and was often called upon. His church career included leading interdenominational groups and holding the position of trustee with the Methodist Country House and Western Maryland College. He was a long term member of Kiwanis International, and the Masonic Order.

Following a brief illness, he died on Friday March 2 in the Nanticoke Memorial Hospital, Seaford, Delaware. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Preston Spence and the Rev. Brooks Reynolds at the McCrery Memorial Funeral Home, Talleyville, Delaware on Tuesday, March 6, 1979. Interment was in Gracelawn Abbey, Gracelawn Memorial Park, Wilmington, Delaware.

John Nicholas Link was a complete minister of the gospel. All of the ministerial offices found rich fulfillment in him. He had a pastor's compassion, a counselor's keen insight and understanding, a preacher's depth of conviction and gift of utterance, a teacher's analytical and presentational skills, an administrator's sound judgment, levened with intuition. The Peninsula Conference is enriched by the years that he dwelt among us.

GILBERT S. ROSS

Gilbert Sylvester Ross was born in Hallwood, Virginia on December 26, 1889. The son of David Carol Ross and Sally Anne Ross (Smith), both deceased, Gilbert was one of five children: one brother, William, deceased, and three sisters, Marie, Minnie, and Blanche, all living. He attended and graduated from grade and high school in Hallwood and from Norfolk University in Norfolk, Virginia. For some years Gilbert worked for businesses in both the Virginia and Georgia areas.

Always an active participant in church activities, Gilbert decided to dedicate his life to the ministry and entered the Westminster Theological Seminary. Upon completion of his studies, he was ordained in 1918 and for the next 38 years was pastor of various churches throughout West Virginia and the Delmarva Peninsula. He married Grace Virginia Beck of Harper's Ferry, West Virginia, and the couple had one child, Gaylon. After retirement in 1956 Gilbert assisted at various churches including Wesley Methodist Chapel and Aldersgate Church. In addition, he helped out at numerous church functions throughout the area when needed and asked. After a lengthy illness Gilbert died on December 17th, 1978 in his home at 3245 Fairway Drive, Linden Green One, Wilmington, Delaware. Services and burial were at the Grace Lawn Memorial Cemetery, the Reverend W. O. Hackett delivering the eulogy.

Gilbert is survived by his wife, Grace, now at the Wilmington Delaware address, his three sisters, his son, Gaylon Sylvester of 11814 Timber Lane, Rockville, Maryland and seven grandchildren, all living in the Washington, D.C. area.

Throughout his ministry Gilbert was ably assisted by his wife "Betsy," and this kind and devoted couple formed a myriad of friendships wherever they went. It is for his deep and sincere belief in the innate goodness of people and his desire to assist them that Gilbert would most like to be remembered.

After graduating from Meridian College, he completed his formal preparation for the ministry at Drew Seminary, Madison, New Jersey.

On June 14, 1921, he married Miss Elsie Mae Dennis of Newark, Maryland. They had two children, Mary Anne and Essell Parks, Jr.

He was ordained and became a member of the Wilmington Conference in 1914. During his 42 years in the active ministry he served as pastor of Methodist Churches at Pittsville, Maryland; Ocean City, Maryland; Epworth Church, Wilmington, Delaware; Centenary United Methodist Church, Laurel, Delaware; Asbury Church, Smyrna, Delaware; Wesley Church, Dover, Delaware; Ebenezer Church, Easton, Maryland; St. Paul's, Wilmington; and Atonement Church, Claymont, Delaware, in addition to his six year tenure as Superintendent of the Easton District. He retired from the Peninsula Annual Conference in 1956. Dr. Thomas was active in Peninsula Conference programs and was elected as a delegate to three Jurisdictional Conferences and one General Conference. In 1950, Western

THEODORA GRACE TUCKER HART

Theodora Grace Tucker Hart, wife of Charles Brainard Hart, was born in Middletown, Connecticut, on June 4, 1912. Her father was Robert Leonard Tucker and her mother Grace Green Tucker. At the time of her birth her father was a student at Wesleyan University, preparing to become a Methodist minister. So all of Mrs. Hart's life was lived, until retirement, in twenty-eight Methodist parsonages.

She attended Oberlin College and Ohio State University from which she received a Bachelor's degree in Social Work. Right after graduation she went to New York City where she worked in the office of the Fellowship of Reconciliation. Mr. and Mrs. Hart were married on September 19, 1935, just before he enrolled at Union Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Hart had four children: Charles III of Robertsville, Mo., Roberta H. Sullivan of Newark, DE, and Marian H. Dills of Trumansburg, N.Y., and Robert T. Hart, of Oxon Hill, Md. All the children and five grandchildren survived her death.

She and her husband retired from the active ministry in Newark, DE on September 1, 1976, after serving churches in New York, Connecticut, Missouri and Delaware. After retirement they lived at 2 Mill Street, Westfield, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Hart's death in the Springfield, Ma., Hospital on March 23, 1979 was caused by cancer. Two memorial services were held for her: in Westfield, Ma., on March 27 and in Newark, DE on March 31.

A memorial statement in Newark included this description of her personality and nature:

> "Understanding and compassion were so much a part of Theo that we almost took these qualities for granted. As a true partner with Charlie in his ministry, she listened many times to the hurts, fears and problems of us parishioners and she always responded with loving concern, wise counsel — and absolute confidence. As a close friend she responded with these same qualities and added to them enthusiastic encouragement, total loyalty and an open sharing of herself which could only be met with love."

FLORENCE E. KRAMS

Florence E. Krams was born on March 14, 1914 in Wilmington, Delaware, the daughter of Harry G. Fisher and Elsie (Crouch) Fisher.

She spent her entire life in the Marshalton, Delaware area, attending Wilmington public schools and graduated from the Thompson Business School.

She joined the Marshalton United Methodist Church as a young girl and remained a Member of that church until her death. She was the organist in the Marshalton Church for twenty-seven years.

On November 17, 1973 she married H. Kirby Krams, retired member of the Conference. In 1976 they moved to their home in Sudlersville, Maryland.

She is survived by her husband, two children by a former marriage, Mrs. Rosalie Wilkerson of Washington, D.C. and Norman E. Ford of Lancaster, PA and two children of her husband, Mrs. Penny George of Sudlersville, MD and Berkeley Krams of Wilmington, DE and ten grandchildren all of whom she dearly loved.

Florence died on February 9, 1979 at Kent-Queen Anne's Hospital in Chestertown, MD after years of struggle with a debilitating illness.

Florence loved God and saw and knew his presence everywhere, especially in the world of nature, the sky, the flowers, the wild geese, the birds, the animals and in her fellow man.

GUILA MARJORIE LOGUE ROBERTS

Guila Marjorie Logue Roberts, wife of The Reverend Maxwell Roberts, died at her home in Hebron, Maryland, on July 10, 1978. The daughter of Parmer and Ada Salyards Logue, Mrs. Roberts was born at Sligo, Pennsylvania on June 10, 1902. After graduating from Sligo High School she worked for a time with The Salvation Army before entering and later graduating from God's Bible School and College in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was an accomplished musician who studied at The Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore and who played the piano, organ, harp, marimba and saxophone.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Roberts worked for a number of years in The Grace and Hope Mission in Baltimore, York, Pennsylvania, and Norfolk, Virginia where she was promoted to the position of superintendent. Upon leaving the Mission she became an evangelist and served under the auspices of The Evangelical United Brethren Church until her marriage to The Reverend Maxwell J. Roberts on October 6, 1940 when another chapter in the life of this very talented and versatile lady began.

Throughout most of his ministry with The United Methodist Church, Mr. Roberts was assigned to pastorates within the Peninsula Annual Conference, and Mrs. Roberts became his faithful helpmate and companion and served with him in a very dedicated way until his retirement in 1968. Even then she was to continue her service in the Lord's work for another decade as organist at St. Paul's P.E. Church in Hebron and to share in her husband's part-time service at St. Stephen's in Delmar. Faithful and dedicated to her Calling, she was in every sense a leader until the day she died.

Funeral services were held at St. Stephen's Church, Delmar on July 12, 1978 with the pastor, The Rev. William T. Archer, Jr. and the writer of this memoir in charge. She was laid to rest in the family plot at St. Stephen's Cemetery, Delmar. Mrs. Roberts is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. C. Benton (Muriel Marjorie) Reavis of Salisbury, Maryland; two grandchildren, Christopher and Heather Reavis; her mother, Mrs. Logue and three sisters, Mrs. Romaine Zuchslag of Greenville, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Winifred Sellers of Lima, Ohio and Mrs. Beth Frederick of New Castle, Pennsylvania.

BLANCHE WILLIAMS CARTER WILCOX

Blanche Williams Carter Wilcox was born on March 9, 1909 in Canton, North Carolina to Robert Daniel Carter and Lillian Daisy (Purkey) Carter. They moved to Hendersonville, N.C. for the first few years of Blanche's life.

Then her father, a civil engineer, became associated with the developer of Vero Beach, Florida to make it habitable by draining it and constructing roads. They moved there and lived in pioneer conditions for awhile, until her mother homesteaded a place near Wabasso in 1912. At home in "The Old Homestead" is where she died to this world on the last day of summer 1978, after a courageous fight with cancer that lasted all their retirement, six years.

She graduated from college at Tallahassee, Florida in 1931. She was present at the founding of the Wabasso Methodist Church, joined it as soon as old enough, and later held various church offices. She married Chester Edward Wilcox on February 28, 1938, when he was pastor of the Methodist Church at Wabasso. Chester Edward Wilcox, Jr. was born January 19, 1939 (now married and attending the graduate school of the University at Gainesville, Florida), and Frances Mary Wilcox was born December 9, 1941 (now Mrs. M. D. Muir with 3 children in Coral Springs, Fla.). Blanche is also survived by her husband (P. O. Box 712, Wabasso, Florida 32970). Her funeral was held September 23, 1978 in Vero Beach, the local Methodist pastor officiating, with burial in Crestlawn Cemetery there.

(When she could do little else, she liked to look at the broad lawns of her home place, and listen to her husband play great piano music.) Her strong character had its roots far in the past — Virginia aristocracy and Tennessee frontier stock — and with it a sense of humor. She was an able Christian, and an able pastor's wife.

ETHEL TEAGUE FEUCHT

Ethel Teague Feucht was born July 18, 1901 in Seaford, De. to Mr. & Mrs. George W. Teague. She was married to Carl W. Feucht on Nov. 7, 1923.

She taught the Mizpah Bible Class from 1974 until her death. She was vitally interested in the youth of the community with whom she worked in church and 4-H club activities. She was equally interested in senior citizens and initiated events and programs on their behalf.

She became a lay member of the Peninsula Annual Conference in 1975 and filled that post with enthusiasm through the 1978 session of the conference.

Mrs. Feucht departed this life on July 5, 1978 to be sadly missed by her family, her church, and the entire Cecil County community.
