ADDENDUM

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Luke 4:18-19 NRSY "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord."

Several board members attended the Jurisdictional Training event at Stony Point, New York.

It is my belief the work we seek to accomplish as a community of faith becomes our mission and ministries to which we have been called by God as a Baptized Christian. We begin this Quadrennium by inviting all board members and welcoming new members to the Board of Global Ministries Orientation. This training event was held at C'Moore Restaurant in Dover, Delaware on Thursday, September 19, 1996. Prior to the September meeting, information was sent to each individual and they were allowed to select the division where they wanted to invest their energies. We are grateful to all members for the time, talent, skills and energy they invested in the work we accomplished. We had the opportunity to hear from Rev. Jerry DeVine and Rev. Jonathan Baker at our second meeting about the transitions that are taking place in both the General Church and our Conference.

The BOGM meetings are held four times a year at Wesley College and the work from each division is presented to the entire board and voted upon.

This year we participated in the sending forth of Rev. Donald and Mildred Hamilton as they fulfill their calling to become Missionaries in Africa. We see the need to promote the "Partner in Mission and Volunteer in Mission Programs." Funds and equipment were collected for the victims of the Hurricane 96. Financial support was collected for the Black Churches that were burned this year. The various division chairperson and members of the committee have contributed many hours in order to assist congregations to uplift the mission work of the church. I am grateful that we have members of the BOGM that are committed and willing to work. A special thanks to Rev. William Hemphill, each member of this Board, and those who completed their term; Nancy Leathrum, Rev. Charles Covington and Rev. Jim Hawkins, thank you for your leadership, you will be missed from the Board. We are grateful that we have a strong United Methodist Women Organization, the Sponsors of the School of Mission that work to keep the mission emphasis in front of us.

Rev. Naomi G. Winchester
Chairperson

1998 GOALS

1. Witness to the gospel for initial decision to follow Jesus Christ - We will proclaim and live the gospel of Jesus and similarly, challenge others to discipleship in and through Christian communities. Where direct proclamation is not permitted, a caring presence becomes the means of Christian witness.
2. Strengthen, develop and renew Christian congregations and communities - We will work mutually with mission partners in common growth and development of spiritual life, worship, witness and service.
3. Alleviate Human suffering - We will help to initiate, strengthen an support ministries to the spiritual, physical, emotional and social needs of people.
4. Seek justice, freedom and peace - We will participate with people oppressed by unjust economic, political and social systems in programs that seek to build just, free and peaceful societies.

- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn.
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. For the previous question.
 6. To postpone to a given time.
 7. To refer.
 8. To substitute.
 9. Amendment.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him/her.
- Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call him/her to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.
- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his/her vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse him/her.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for him/her to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.
- Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.
- Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.

- Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except members of board, committees or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church.
- Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.
- Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the Associate Lay Leader, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, the four District Presidents of United Methodist Men, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.
- Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Conference Director of Administrative Services prior to Annual Conference action.
- Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.
- Rule 28: In keeping with paragraph 652 in the 1996 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Rules and Guidelines for the Conference
Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Resource Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.
7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.

8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.
 14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
 15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.
8. Titles such as "Mrs," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That conference directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned. (We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)
- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153.)

- (8) Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
- (9) The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
- (10) Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

B. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Clergy Executive Session, Wednesday, June 11, 1997

Bishop Peter D. Weaver called the Clergy Executive Session to order at 9:35 a.m. in the sanctuary of Grace United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware. Bishop Weaver expressed his appreciation to the host pastors, the Rev. Dr. James C. Faltot, the Rev. Dr. Anthony A. Arrington, and the Rev. Randolph L. Wein. The host pastors were asked to convey appreciation to all staff persons of Grace Church for everyone's gracious hospitality.

Bishop Weaver also expressed appreciation to Host Wilmington District Superintendent Susan Keirn Kester and all those on the Wilmington District who have worked with her in the planning and preparing for the Clergy Executive Session and the Annual Conference Sessions.

Grace Church organist, George Broske, provided the musical accompaniment, and Rev. James Hawkins served as song leader.

The Rev. Dr. Lawrence Livingston, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM), welcomed everyone present, and began the presentation of the Board's report which was presented in the context of a worship service.

Bishop Weaver led the pastors in a review of the "historic questions" which are asked of all candidates seeking full membership in the Annual Conference.

Bishop Weaver asked the question concerning corporate accountability ("Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?" par. 604.4, 605.6). Dr. Livingston affirmed:

As far as the Board of Ordained Ministry can ascertain, in almost every case, our clergy members are blameless in life and character. The performance of every ordained minister and local pastor has been reviewed with the Bishop and cabinet. Where there is concern or basis for a grievance, it is being pursued with the knowledge of the member involved.

The Bishop then asked District Superintendents Rev. Howard Gordy (Salisbury District), Rev. Ronald Bell (Easton District), Rev. H. Sterling Greene (Dover District) and Rev. Susan Keirn Kester (Wilmington District) to respond to the issue of corporate accountability. Each superintendent publicly thanked his or her pastors for their faithfulness and commitment to Jesus Christ and His Church. After each superintendent made his or her remarks, the pastors of that district were asked to stand and be recognized.

Persons serving in Extension Ministries were also recognized and affirmed by the Bishop. The Bishop then affirmed and expressed his appreciation for the work and commitment of all the district superintendents.

Prior to the luncheon recess, Rev. Kenneth Valentine, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions, encouraged all clergy to get a copy of a document entitled "A Comparison Of Benefits For Peninsula-Delaware Conference," which is a consolidation of our insurance coverage.

Lunch was served in the Fellowship Hall of Grace Church. After lunch, members were invited to attend the "Hour of Power Service" at Ezion-Mt. Carmel Church.

The Clergy Executive Session resumed at 1:35 p.m. Rev. Karen Bunnell, Vice-Chairperson of BOOM, and Registrar Etter presented the remainder of the Board of Ordained Ministry's report.

Rev. Garry Parker presented the following motion, which was properly seconded:

Whereas the 1992 Discipline provides for extension of probationary status and leave of absence beyond the limit of eight years in exceptional circumstances, and

Whereas Rev. Nancy Fromm has had to deal with the death of her mother, the sudden death of her husband, and major eye surgery during her leave of absence, and

Whereas the 1996 Discipline provides for a nine year period of probation and leave of absence, and

Whereas the General Board of Higher Education & Ministry guidelines for transition from the 1992 deacon/probationary track recommends granting an additional year to persons pursuing such a step, and

Whereas Rev. Fromm fits the criteria and has requested this consideration, therefore she should be continued another year in order to move to the permanent Deacon's track.

After considerable debate, Rev. Parker's motion failed to be accepted by the Executive Session, and the Board of Ordained Ministry's original recommendation was accepted.

Cynthia Clarkson Quillen was nominated and elected as Chairperson of the Order of Deacons; Glenn Paul Catley was nominated and elected as Chairperson of the Order of Elders. (Par. 313, 1996 Discipline)

THE RESOLUTION

Whereas the October 14, 1995 Special Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adopted the resolution, A Call To Change (See "Daily Proceedings," 1996 Official Journal Peninsula-Delaware Conference, pp. 229-230), which affirmed that "Mission Area Ministry will be the model for mission and ministry for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as an expression of John Wesley's belief that 'the world is my parish' and his commitment to finding effective means of 'sharing scriptural holiness throughout the land'", and

Whereas that same Session "commissioned a Transition Team including at least twenty members with equal representation from multiple point charges and station churches, laity and clergy, taking into consideration inclusiveness issues such as race, sex, and theological positions, to:

- a. Establish the criteria for forming Mission Areas
- b. Create the process for implementing the selection of Mission Areas
- c. Develop the structure model for the Annual Conference to support local churches as they work in Mission Areas
- d. Define a route for transition into Mission Area Ministries"

Whereas the Transition Team has faithfully met and fulfilled the above commission by preparing A Blueprint for Christian Discipleship Through Mission Area Ministries in Response to the Call to Change,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adopts A Blueprint for Christian Discipleship Through Mission Area Ministries in Response to the Call to Change.

The vote was taken by each member of Conference standing to vote "For" or "Against" the resolution. The resolution was adopted: 340 For; 126 Against; which met the required 2/3 vote needed as previously enacted by this Conference Session.

In Division One, Paragraph 5, Article V, insert the words "and covenantal relationships" after "and through plans of union."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶5 would read:

Ecumenical Relations--As part of the church universal, The United Methodist Church believes that the Lord of the church is calling Christians everywhere to strive toward unity; and therefore it will seek, and work for, unity at all levels of church life: through world relationships with other Methodist churches and united churches related to The Methodist Church or The Evangelical United Brethren Church, through councils of churches, and through plans of union and covenantal relationships with churches of Methodist or other denominational traditions.

Delete "the reciprocal election and seating of four delegates, two clergy and two lay."

Add "The United Methodist Church to send two delegates annually to the British Methodist Conference, and The Methodist Church in Great Britain to send four delegates quadrennially to The United Methodist General Conference, the delegates of both conferences having vote and being evenly divided between clergy and laity."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶12.3 would read:

In the case of The Methodist Church in Great Britain, mother church of Methodism, provision shall be made for The United Methodist Church to send two delegates annually to the British Methodist Conference, and The Methodist Church in Great Britain to send four delegates quadrennially to The United Methodist General Conference, the delegates of both conferences having vote and being evenly divided between clergy and laity.

3. Proposed Constitutional Amendment - III

In the annual conferences of the central conferences, the four-year participation and the two-year membership requirements may be waived by the annual conference for young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age. Such persons must be members of The United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election. Each charge served by more than one clergy shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members. The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of The United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election.

If the lay membership should number less than the clergy members of the annual conference, the annual conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and clergy membership on the annual conference.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶31, Article II would read:

8. Rev. Randy Booth made the following motion, which was properly seconded and adopted:
I move to create a committee to regularly review and revise the Mission Statement, Vision Statement, and Core Values, at least every four years. I further move (suggest) that this committee be comprised of our Conference's Delegates to Jurisdictional Conference.

9. AFRICAN UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT

The following resolution was passed by the Conference Board of Global Ministries at its March 20, 1997 meeting for presentation at the 1997 Annual Conference:

Be it resolved that the churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference commit to raising $65,000 by the time of the 1999 Annual Conference meeting to endow a scholarship at African University.

Such funds would not be apportioned. The responsibility for the design and implementation of a process for publicity and promotion for this opportunity will be given to the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

Background Information:

African University opened its doors in March 1992 as the only United Methodist, degree-granting institution on the African continent. The total cost of attending African University for one year is $3,000 making it more cost effective to train United Methodist Church leaders there than to bring them to the United States for training and provides the opportunity for training within their culture. Our endowment would cover the total cost of one student attending African University. During their time at African University, our conference would get to know our supported student through their letters to us. Upon graduation, our conference would be assigned another student. It also may be possible to designate our scholarship for a student from Zambia to support our missionaries, the Hamiltons, in their work. This is our opportunity to give a gift that will insure the training the training future leaders for the church for generations.

10. EQUALIZED CLERGY COMPENSATION

Whereas, the clergy appointment process is often influenced by practical considerations of compensation which can limit the Cabinet's options; and

Whereas, these limitations can prevent the appointment of the pastor with the most appropriate gifts and graces to a given appointment; and

Whereas, there is a disparity in the amount of compensation provided by local churches which is based primarily on race and/or ethnicity; and

Whereas, Christians, and consequently the Church, are exhorted to not be conformed to this world (Romans 12:2), yet our method of compensation more closely resembles that of the secular/corporate world than the first century church in which all things were shared equally (Acts 2:43-47, 4:32-37); now

Therefore, be it resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference direct the Conference Council on Ministries to appoint a committee of clergy and laity to do the following:

1. Develop draft language for a resolution to be submitted to the 2000 General Conference proposing the necessary changes to The Book of Discipline that would make it possible for annual conferences to develop and implement equalized methods of compensation.
2. Begin a four-year process to develop a plan for equalized clergy compensation, such that, if the 2000 General Conference approves changes making equalized clergy compensation possible, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference will be ready to adopt and implement a plan at the 2001 session of Annual Conference. The Annual Conference shall direct this committee that any such plan will achieve the objective of equal compensation through retirements and attrition, rather than requiring drastic changes in salary for existing clergy.

And be it further resolved that the findings and recommendations of the committee be reported to the 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001 sessions of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual and approval.

And be it further resolved, that the Commission on Equitable Compensation investigate how we compensate entry full member pastors, and suggest other arrangements (eg. Charge realignments) under the Mission Area plan to ministry.

11. RESOLUTION ON INTERNET GAMBLING

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church state, "Gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, economic, and spiritual life, and destructive of good government." (Par. 67 G, The Book of Discipline, 1996)

WHEREAS, World Wide Web sites that provide casino style gambling are now commonly available, putting fully functional slot machines, craps, roulette, blackjack, poker, sports betting, keno and lotteries into the living rooms of American families;

WHEREAS, Internet gambling is putting the families and the children of our nation at risk;

WHEREAS, the National Association of Attorneys General, the organization made up of states' top law enforcement officials, has been one of the most vigorous opponents of online gambling;

WHEREAS, all other forms of gambling in the United States are heavily regulated or prohibited, yet our federal government has failed to regulate or prohibit Internet gambling;

WHEREAS, Federal law has not kept pace with technology, and law enforcement agencies are inadequately prepared to respond to the presence of Internet gambling;

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has passed no law to prohibit or regulate gambling on the Internet or other interstate computer networks even though such legislation has been introduced;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference reaffirms the historic United Methodist opposition to gambling and urges the passage of laws to prohibit gambling on the Internet and other interstate computer networks; and

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that letters stating our position be sent by the Conference Board of Church and Society to the President of the United States, to the Governors and appropriate Congressional representatives of Delaware and Maryland, and their respective state legislators, and that each congregation and members of each congregation of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference be encouraged to write letters also.

12. RESOLUTION ON THE RESTORATION OF EX-FELON VOTING RIGHTS IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE

WHEREAS, the scripture teaches us how essential it is to forgive, "Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, 'Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?' Jesus answered, 'I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times,' (Mt. 18:21-22 NIV);

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church calls us to "the creation of genuinely new systems for the care and support of victims of crime, and for rehabilitation that will restore, preserve, and nurture the humanity of the imprisoned," (The Book of Discipline, 1996, Paragraph 68 V. "The Political Community," (F) "Criminal Justice,");

WHEREAS, denying voting rights is based on a system of retribution that extends ex-offenders' penalties into the time when they have become honest citizens, by stigmatizing them and setting them apart from their peers, and placing them in the situation of taxation without representation;

WHEREAS, taking away voting rights not only disenfranchises former felons, but also disenfranchises the community by reducing the number of eligible voters, thereby decreasing the ability of the community to make its perspectives known to its political representatives through the ballot box;

WHEREAS, a study published by the Sentencing Project in Washington D.C. in January 1997 found that 1.46 million African American men in the United States--nearly one in seven among those of voting age--have lost the right to vote because of a felony conviction, and of this number about two-thirds of the men cannot vote because they are in prison, on probation, or on parole; one-third have lost the right to vote for the rest of their lives;

WHEREAS, the State of Delaware is one of thirteen states in the United States that takes away the right to vote forever;

WHEREAS, the return of the franchise to individuals who have completed their sentences and been restored to the community is a recognition of the healing journey they have made from offender to responsible citizenship;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, as a reaffirmation of the United Methodist Church's call for restorative justice as stated in the Social Principles supports the restoration of voting rights to ex-felons in the State of Delaware; and

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that letters stating this position be sent by the Board of Church and Society to members of the Delaware Senate and House of Representatives and to Governor Thomas Carper.

13. RESOLUTION TO CREATE A CIVILIAN POLICE REVIEW BOARD FOR THE STATES OF DELAWARE AND MARYLAND

WHEREAS, in Exodus 18: 19-22 Jethro offers Moses, his son-in-law, this advice, "You should represent the people before God, and you should bring their cases before God; teach them the statutes and instructions and make known to them the way they are to go and the things they are to do. You should also look for able men among all the people, men who fear God, are trustworthy, and hate dishonest gain; set such men over them as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. Let them sit as judges for the people at all times;" (NRSV)

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church as proclaimed by the 1996 General Conference in Paragraph 68 V., "The Political Community" (F) "Criminal Justice" call us "To protect all citizens from those who would encroach upon personal and property rights, it is the duty of governments to establish police forces, courts, and facilities for the confinement, punishment, and rehabilitation of offenders. We support governmental measures designed to reduce and eliminate crime that are consistent with respect for the basic freedom of persons. We reject all misuse of these necessary mechanisms, including their use for the purpose of persecuting or intimidating those whose race, appearance, lifestyle, economic condition, or beliefs differ from those in authority; and we reject all careless, callous, or discriminatory enforcement of law. We further support measures designed to remove the social conditions that lead to crime, and we encourage continued positive interaction between law enforcement officials and members of the community at large."

WHEREAS, it would be of benefit to the State and its citizens for complaints brought by the citizens of Delaware and Maryland against state, county, and municipal police personnel to be dealt with in a fair, impartial and objective manner by a panel of citizens;

WHEREAS, if the membership of this Civilian Police Review Board would reflect diversity of ethnicity, race, gender, economic status, geographic background and political affiliation, some issues of discrimination and persecution could be confronted and resolved on a just basis;

WHEREAS, we live in a society in which the police fill a position of extraordinary trust, as do clergy; and law enforcement officers must be persons who possess good judgment, sound discretion, proper temperament, and mental alertness just as clergy persons must;

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has included lay persons on its Professional Review Boards, the Board of Ordained Ministry, to ensure lay, as well as professionals, review those in ministry;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference calls upon the states of Delaware and Maryland to establish state-wide Civilian Police Review Boards to investigate citizen's complaints against state, county, and municipal police personnel; and

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference directs the Board of Church and Society to send letters stating this position to the members of the Delaware and Maryland Senate and House of Representatives and the Governors and Lt. Governors of those states.

14. RESOLUTION ON THE RELIGIOUS FREEDOM RESTORATION ACT (RFRA)

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church state:

"While our allegiance to God takes precedence over our allegiance to any state, we acknowledge the vital function of government as a principle vehicle for the ordering of society. Because we know ourselves to be responsible to God for social and political life, we declare the following relative to governments:

"We hold governments responsible for the protection of the rights of the people to free and fair elections and to the freedoms of speech, religion, assembly...

"We believe that the state should not attempt to control the Church, nor should the Church seek to dominate the state. 'Separation of Church and state' means no organic union of the two, but it does permit interaction. The Church should continually exert a strong ethical influence upon the state, supporting policies and programs deemed to be just and opposing policies and programs that are unjust."

(The Book of Discipline, 1996, Section V. "The Political Community" (A) "Basic Freedom;" (B) "Political Responsibility");

WHEREAS Congress enacted the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (1993) to safeguard the freedom of all Americans to practice their faith (and thus preventing the government from interfering with religious activity unless they can show that their interference advances a compelling government interest in the least restrictive way);

WHEREAS Senator Harry Reid (D-NV) has introduced a bill to remove prisoners from the protection of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) based on several erroneous points which include:

- a. Prisoners are misusing RFRA to claim silly or dangerous privileges in prison. (Note: Contrary to certain sensational press stories, not a single Court has used RFRA to order a prison to sanction weird or esoteric religious practices.)
- b. Prisoners are clogging the courts with frivolous lawsuits.
- c. RFRA has created security problems at prisons and should therefore not be available to prisoners.

WHEREAS even with RFRA protection, legitimate prison ministries and their volunteers are frequently denied access to prisons on the flimsiest of grounds. If prisoners are exempted from RFRA, prison ministries' ability to bring Christ's good news to prisoners would be subject to the whims of whatever prison official is on duty;

WHEREAS freedom is indivisible. Once prisoners have been carved out of the protection of RFRA, which group will be next? At stake is our most fundamental freedom--the freedom of religion;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference stands opposed to any legislation which restricts the application of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that letters from the Board of Church and Society be delivered to the offices of the United States Representatives and Senators of Delaware and Maryland; and

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that individual members of local churches throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Conference be urged to contact their United States Representatives and Senators to reaffirm the position of our Annual Conference.

15. RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE GENERAL BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY NATIONAL ANTI-GUN TRAFFICKING LAW

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has maintained a strong position since 1976 in its call upon the United States government "to establish a national ban on the importation, manufacture, sale and possession of handguns..." ("U.S. Gun Violence" The United Methodist Book of Resolutions (1992), pp. 504-506)

WHEREAS, handguns were used to murder 11,198 people in this country in 1995 according to the FBI and were used to commit more than 1.1 million violent crimes in 1993 according to the Bureau of Justice Statistics; and

WHEREAS, many of the guns used in crime are purchased in bulk from gun stores by individuals who distribute them to criminals through interstate gun trafficking such as the "iron pipeline" along the East coast and, increasingly, to terrorists and drug dealers abroad through international gun trafficking; and

WHEREAS, limiting handgun purchases to no more than one per month disrupts illegal gun trafficking without imposing hardships on legitimate gun owners; and

WHEREAS, after the Commonwealth of Virginia, once the "firearms supermarket" for the East Coast, enacted a one-handgun-a-month law in 1993, the likelihood that guns used in crime recovered along the northeastern United States were traced back to Virginia declined 66% in relation to other Southeast states, according to a study by the Center to Prevent Handgun Violence; and

WHEREAS, the State of Maryland based on Virginia's success, recently passed its own one-handgun-a-month law; and

WHEREAS, a 1994 Gallup poll demonstrated that 69% of Americans support limiting handgun purchases to one per month to reduce gun trafficking;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference supports the General Board of Church and Society as it endorses legislation to stop gun trafficking by limiting handgun purchases to no more than one per month. The General Board of Church and Society will communicate its vision of a "peaceable kingdom" in its support for such legislation to the President of the United States, to the United States Congress, and to state legislators.

16. RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF A NATIONAL CHILD SAFETY LOCK LAW

WHEREAS, everyday in America 16 children ages 19 and under are killed with firearms; and

WHEREAS, the rate of firearm death for children 14 and under is nearly twelve times higher in the United States than in 25 other industrialized countries combined; and

WHEREAS, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, an estimated 1.2 million latch key children have access to loaded and unloaded firearms; and

WHEREAS, 25 percent of 3-4 year olds, 70 percent of 5-6 year olds and 90 percent of 7-8 year olds have been found to be strong enough to pull the triggers of many handguns found in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the total annual cost of firearm-related deaths and injuries among children ages 14 and under is approximately $7 billion; and,

WHEREAS, Prevention magazine's Children's Health Index 1996 reports that nearly one-quarter (24%) of all children ages 10-17 indicated that they have access to a gun in their home; and

WHEREAS, there are a variety of child safety locks, including inexpensive devices known as trigger locks, which, if properly used, can prevent a child from gaining access to a firearm; and

WHEREAS, the required sale of trigger locks, combined with warnings regarding the dangers and legal consequences of improper storage, will help promote the safe storage of firearms; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. General Accounting Office found that child safety locks could have prevented all unintentional firearm deaths in which children under age 6 killed themselves or others; and

WHEREAS, President Clinton, in his February 1997 State of the Union Address, urged the U.S. Congress to pass legislation requiring gun dealers to provide a child safety lock with the sale of every handgun;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference joins with the National SAFE KIDS Campaign in endorsing national child safety lock legislation and communicates its support to the President of the United States, the United States Congress, and to state legislators.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that local United Methodist Churches and individual members and constituents of local United Methodist Churches be encouraged to write similar letters to federal and state legislators.

17. In response to Z-18 RESOLUTION ON THE RELIGIOUS FREEDOM RESTORATION ACT (RFRA), Dr. Lawrence M. Livingston made the following motion that was adopted:

21. THE RESOLUTION

Whereas the October 14, 1995 Special Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adopted the resolution, A Call To Change (See "Daily Proceedings," 1996 Official Journal Peninsula-Delaware Conference, pp. 229-230), which affirmed that "Mission Area Ministry will be the model for mission and ministry for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as an expression of John Wesley's belief that 'the world is my parish' and his commitment to finding effective means of 'sharing scriptural holiness throughout the land'", and

Whereas that same Session "commissioned a Transition Team including at least twenty members with equal representation from multiple point charges and station churches, laity and clergy, taking into consideration inclusiveness issues such as race, sex, and theological positions, to:

- a. Establish the criteria for forming Mission Areas
- b. Create the process for implementing the selection of Mission Areas
- c. Develop the structure model for the Annual Conference to support local churches as they work in Mission Areas
- d. Define a route for transition into Mission Area Ministries"

Whereas the Transition Team has faithfully met and fulfilled the above commission by preparing A Blueprint for Christian Discipleship Through Mission Area Ministries in Response to the Call to Change,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adopts A Blueprint for Christian Discipleship Through Mission Area Ministries in Response to the Call to Change.

Let it be further resolved that:

the Conference Council on Finance & Administration shall recommend a budget for 1998 that includes funding for all of the above at the Special Session of Annual Conference to be held on November 15, 1997, and the Transition Team is dissolved as of June 14, 1997, with gratitude for the task completed.

D. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORTS

Dover District

".....having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which God has called you, what are the riches of God's glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe...." Ephesians 1: 18-19a

This year on the Dover District is one in which our eyes have been opened to new possibilities of ministry; our hopes have been renewed in our ability to be a powerful witness for Jesus Christ because we have experienced the greatness of God's spiritual power at work in many exciting ways. I have experienced this new vision and energy firsthand as I held church conferences in 106 district churches in which each church was reconsecrated as God's Holy Ground in ministry and service to the community surrounding it. I have also observed many district churches exploring ways of coming together in study and mission in their communities including Mission Area Bible Study, Revivals, and community ministry projects. The power of the Spirit is also at work on the district in a task force called together to identify and combat racism in themselves, their churches and communities as well as in clergy and laity in the Frankford area led by Rudi Sackett successfully opposing casino gambling.

The Dover District Board of Laity held its annual fall banquet at Bethel UMC in Lewes with a capacity crowd of over 350 persons. Newly elected and assigned Bishop Peter Weaver was the guest speaker who inspired and challenged us to move beyond our comfort zone in sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. In February, the Board of Laity sponsored the Lay Speakers School which had the highest enrollment ever, training over 200 laity. Special thanks goes to Pat Dorey, the Dover District Lay Leader, and Lee Rich, the Director of Lay Speaking.

Five of those attending Lay Speakers School were Hispanic laity, the first fruits of the Hispanic Mission work in the Georgetown area. Through the power of the Holy Spirit at work in Rene and Gilda Knight, Hispanic Missionaries, Betel Faith Community was established at Wesley United Methodist Church in Georgetown. The community grew strong enough to expand to other "satellite sites" including Rehoboth and Bridgeville. Recently, a new faith community has begun in Roxana at Sound UMC. Out of the success of this dynamic ministry has come a task force to explore and broaden this Hispanic faith community development throughout the conference. Special thanks goes to the following members of the Dover District Hispanic Ministry Task force without whose deep commitment the ministry would not have succeeded. Included on the committee are: Dr. and Mrs. W. Daniel Rich, Ann Wilson, the Rev. Dale Vroman, Ms. Rebecca Smith, Ms. Mary Jane Davis, Mr. & Mrs. Earl Quillen, the Rev. Glenn H. Lyburn, the Rev. Art Blanchette, Mr. & Mrs. Rene Knight, the Rev. David Humphrey, the Rev. Palmer Clark, the Rev. Rudi Sackett, Ms. Laura Wildberger, the Rev. Sterling Green, Mr. & Mrs. Bill Williams, the Rev. Fred Duncan, Mr. Richard Lort, Mr. Bill Henderson, the Revs. Douglas & Debra Lindsay-Hudgins, Mr. Jack Sparks, Ms. Marie Alverado, the Rev. Harold T. Wilks, the Rev. Carol Loy, Ms. Cathy Besche, the Rev. Al Taylor, Mrs. Pat Dorey, Ms. Valarie Osterhout, Ms. Ofelia Benavides, the Rev. Jonathan Baker, the Rev. Sherrol James, the Rev. Mark Pruett-Barnett, Mr. Israel Figueroa, the Rev. C. James Van Der Wall and Mrs. Marla Daisey. The task force and the district are deeply indebted to Glenn Lyburn for his tireless efforts in support of this ministry as treasurer and advocate.

Another ministry which has opened our eyes to hope and power has been the Volunteer in Mission ministry begun here in the Dover District and now becoming conference-wide.

Under the dedicated leadership of Doug Lindsay, forty-five Dover District laity and clergy have been given an opportunity to serve in the Four Corners area of the Southwest (Native American missions), Costa Rica (a youth mission - with twelve youth involved), and Wilmington (at annual conference).

Costa Rica: Peter Akers, Katherine Burris, Stephen Carey, Warner (Bud) Clark, Stacey Donaway, Allison R. Funds, Robert Hunsberger, Charles (Chip) Kelman, Dorothy Kopple, Douglas M. Lindsay, Aimee Parker, Judith Rooks, Alfred Taylor, Beverly Taylor, Jonathan Taylor, Jacqueline Taylor-Keyser, Christopher Terry;

Annual Conference: Charles Adams, Steven J. Bennett, Warner (Bud) Clark, Ernest Elsasser, Elizabeth Justice, Dorothy Kopple, Douglas M. Lindsay, Jeff Murray, Joshua Sharp, Virginia Short, Alfred Taylor, Beverly Taylor, David Warrington. Special thanks to Bev and Al Taylor, Bud Clark, Palmer Clark and Ernie Elsasser for giving leadership to the VIM projects.

The Care of the Soul Committee (Bob Rowe, Jonathan Baker, Debra Lindsay-Hudgins and George Moody) has continued to provide opportunities for clergy and spouses to care for themselves. Of special significance was a Clergy - Spouse Retreat at the Sea Voice Inn in Rehoboth in October. Those attending included: Jonathan and Donna Baker, Ted and Barbara Elser, Martha and Nobel Callaway, Nettie and Sterling Green, Rene', Gilda and Yosef Knight, Debra and Doug Lindsay-Hudgins, Bob and Joy Rowe, Jeff and Julie Vandervort and Tina and Ken Whaley.

The Ministers and Mates sponsored a picnic at Trap Pond in August to welcome those new to the district. Other programs included: Caring for Children - Board of Child Care and Foster Care, a visit to Heron Point, an Epiphany Dinner at Harrington:Asbury, and an overview presentation by Bill Fitzhugh on the Study on Homosexuality. The Mates sponsored a "coffee" for clergy spouses in April at Wesley College. Special thanks to the following officers: Ministers: Bill Ross - President, Ruth Tull - Vice President, Ruthann Simpson - Secretary, Glenn Lyburn - outgoing Treasurer and Joe Burris - incoming Treasurer. Mates: Deborah Avens - President, Rebecca Johnson - Vice President and Beverly Taylor - Secretary/Treasurer.

A newly organized District Board of Church Location and Building has had its eyes opened to signs of hope and power as it has worked with church committees to develop plans for new buildings, including Centennial UMC in Smyrna (a new church building), Union Wesley UMC in Clarksville (a multi-purpose community center), New Zion UMC in Laurel (a multi-purpose education building) and Gethsemane UMC in Reliance (a multi-purpose community/education building). Members of this board include: Dave Paul, chair, Joe Burris, secretary, Don Ward, Elzey Jones, Ernie Dorman, Charles Carter, and W. Hayward Greene. Sadly, Centennial UMC, Smyrna, was destroyed by fire in December, 1996. However, the congregation has been worshipping at Smyrna:Asbury and has plans to rebuild soon.

Members of the Dover District Committee on Ordained Ministry have also been busy interviewing candidates for ministry, local and student pastors, and assigning candidacy mentors as well as being retrained in the new General Conference legislation regarding ordained ministry. Members of this committee include laity: Bob Bamberger, Claudia Waters and Ann Wilson and clergy: Jim Van Der Wall, Sherrol James, Dale Vroman, Charles Covington, Joshua Lebelo, and Wayne Grier to whom the committee and district are indebted for outstanding service and leadership.

The Dover District Committee on Superintendency has guided the district superintendent in setting goals and reviewing goals for the year. This committee includes the following whose term expires this year: Michael Russell, chair, Helen Williams, Phil Lawton, Janet Lee, Harvey Hyland, and Bob Moyer. They go with sincere gratitude for their faithfulness. Those remaining on the committee are Tina Whaley, Pat Dorey, and George Moody.

The churches in our district received 865 new members during 1996 including 534 on confession of faith and restored. Those churches receiving at least 10 members on confession or restored include:

Angola:Conley's Chapel	13
Clarksville:Union Wesley	14

Transitions in the district include: those retiring: Dan Rich; those being ordained: Ruth Tull (elder), Alan Jones (deacon) and Tina Whaley (associate); those graduating from seminary: Alice Ervin. Congratulations to all! Thanks to Tom Starnes, retired pastor from the Baltimore-Washington Conference, for excellent service as a year-long interim pastor at Epworth: Rehoboth. Prayers of thanksgiving and concern for the following church communities that are being discontinued: Bethel and Salem churches on the West Harrington Charge and Cedar Neck church on the Lincoln Charge.

A transition is also occurring in the district office. Edie Knotts, secretary to the district superintendent for the last five years, is "retiring". Thank you, Edie, for your compassion, competence, and spiritual witness to all of us on the district. And welcome Marilyn Cleeton, the new secretary to the district superintendent, who began on June 16, 1997.

And finally a word of gratitude to Ann Wilson, a diaconal minister, who has given wonderful guidance and support to many district projects and programs.

As you can see the Dover District is awakening to a new vision of hope and empowerment as we work together as laity and clergy, Hispanic, Afro- American and white, large and small churches proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ to the people of Kent and Sussex Counties.

Easton District

The work of the Kingdom of God continues in many fashions on the Easton District of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church. I celebrate and give thanks unto God for the people of the Easton District and the offering of themselves as indicated in this report.

The Easton District Committee on the Superintendency held a service of appreciation for former District Superintendent Charlotte A. Nichols. A welcome service for Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr. was held at St. Mark's UMC, Easton. Bishop Peter D. Weaver was present. The committee has donated the offering from the welcoming service for Rev. Bell to mission programs already in place on the Easton District. Members include James Thomas, Chairperson, the Rev. Sandra Ball, the Rev. George Anderson, the Rev. Alice Hutchins, and Mrs. Verna Asplen.

The District Board of Church Location and Building has worked with many churches in physical improvement of churches and parish halls as well as supplying guidance to limited-service churches on matters of insurance, etc. The committee has approved building projects totaling over $600,000. Members include the Rev. Harvey Chase, chairperson, the Rev. Robert L. Thomas, secretary, the Rev. William Wallace, Conference Board member, and Charles Blizzard.

The Easton District Committee on Ordained Ministry conducted 28 interviews. Members of the committee met with the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry in January to learn more about changes in the 1996 Book of Discipline. A training session for members of Pastor-Parish Relations Committees was held at St. Mark's in March. This committee includes the Rev. Bruce Cooke, chairperson, the Rev. Elaine Ayres, the Rev. Sandra Ball and the Rev. Samuel Greening, as well as lay members Francis Holsinger, Lorenzo Hubbard and Alva Hutchison.

Mark Farnell, appointed Easton District Youth Coordinator, organized several youth rallies. The first was December 7, hosted by Rev. Alexander Slonin of St. Luke's UMC, Denton. Some 70-75 teenagers attended. The second rally was held in May at Trappe UMC, beginning with a basketball tournament. The Rev. Wesley Davis ministered in song. Some 40 teenagers attended. The next youth rally will be held on Kent Island on October 18.

The Executive Committee of the Easton District Ministers and Mates decided to divide the District into two clusters, Northern and Southern. Four annual district-wide events were planned. The Christmas party was held at New St. John's Wittman. A Lenten Retreat was held at Drayton Retreat Center on February 13-14 with the Rev. Bruce Ough as leader. The Mission Day was postponed. A fellowship picnic was held at Camp Pecometh on June 28. New officers of the Ministers are: President, Rev. Joseph Ossei-Aokannor; Vice President, Rev. W. Stanton Leonard; Treasurer, Rev. G. Kim Gilson; Secretary, Rev. Shirley Evans. New officers of the Mates are: President, Ms. Sandy Thomas; Vice President, Ms. Elenora Williams; Treasurer, Ms. Diane Bolyard; Secretary, Mr. Joseph Hopkins.

The Easton District Board of Laity sponsored the annual Laity Banquet on November 15 in Denton, with Bishop Weaver as guest speaker. Pre-registration was a positive aspect of the five-week Lay Speakers School, allowing for the proper ordering and organization of classes. With the resignation of Millie Holsberg, Larry Hanifee became District Lay Leader, with Tom Dean appointed as Associate. The results of a survey generated a list of prospective members for the Board of Laity. Nominations were made on May 21.

Verna Asplen, president of the Easton District United Methodist Women, reports there are 92 units with 2,456 members. Various activities during the year included a School of Mission at Salisbury State University, a fall event at Scotts UMC, with the Rev. Mae Etta Moore as guest speaker, officer training workshops, a Spiritual Retreat at Drayton Manor, a spring event at Centreville UMC with Ms. Joyce Bell as guest speaker, and a program for young women under 45 at Asbury UMC, Easton.

The Easton District held a Mission Fair from April 17-20, 1997. The theme of the fair was "Mission on the Move." The event featured three speakers who spoke to local congregations. The keynote speaker was Shirley Wu, who spoke during the highlight of the fair at Asbury UMC. Other activities included displays and several booths sponsored by local congregations, youth essay contest, and the publication of mission project being supported by local churches in the district. Chris Kilgore, a youth from Mt. Zion United Methodist Church on the Easton District designed a logo for the Mission Fair along with the phrase, "You meet someone without a smile, give them one of yours."

The mission task force for the Mission Fair was made up of Daniel Henry, Debbie Fogle, Rev. Elaine Ayres, Rev. Jefferson Labala, Regina Hill, Geraldine Fenwick, Rev. Barbara Loper, Rev. Harold Bolyard, Shirley Jackson, Edith Mary-Cornish, Gil & Irene Hoffman, and Joyce Jones (Easton District missions Secretary).

"Partnership In Ministry"

"Grace and Peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
I thank God every time I remember you...being thankful for your partnership in the Gospel and confident that God who began a good work in you will bring it to completion."
Philippians 1:3,5,6

I thank God for the genuine partnership in the Gospel which I have experienced with the laity and clergy of the Salisbury District again this year.

"Partnership in Ministry" has been the theme of the leadership provided by District Lay Leader, Lois Rogers and by the District Superintendent, Mrs. Rogers has for many years provided a monthly hymn sing throughout the District, a musical celebration of the unity in Christ experienced by clergy and laity, male and female, African-Americans and European-Americans, young and old.

The Board of Laity under Mrs. Rogers sat at the table of leadership for the Charge Conferences and opened the meetings with devotions. Many positive comments were received in response to this model of shared leadership.

In most of the communities in the Salisbury District, our churches and charges are joining in cooperative ministries in mission to the communities in Christ's name. Joint Vacation Bible Schools, Disciple Bible Study, Mission Area Ministry Bible Studies, seasonal services, community youth groups, and community choirs are among the many programs that demonstrate our "Partnership in Ministry" throughout the District.

New pastors becoming partners with the laity and other clergy at the beginning of the Conference Year included: Susan Hamilton, Allen:Asbury; Larry Staton, Berlin:Friendship;
Carole Price, Bishopville; John Tripple, Fruitland:Cokesbury; Thomas Fitchett, Girdletree; Bill
Cropper, Hebron:St. Pauls; Marie Robinson, Marion Station-Crisfield; Lawrence Pumell, Marumco:Ebenezer; Paul Sherwood, Pittsville-Willards; Barbara Harmon, Pocomoke City - Mt.
Zion; Charlotte Nichols, Princess Anne:Metropolitan; Cynthia Quillen, Salisbury:Asbury; Drew

During the Conference Year there were three births in District Parsonages; to the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Sharptown, Marleigh Claire, born June 19, 1996; to the Rev. and Mrs.
Ronald Charles Hemphill, Jr. of Crisfield, Ronald Charles Hemphill, III, born December 18, 1996; and to the Rev. Bo Gordy-Stith and the Rev. Vicki Gordy-Stith, Eli Cameron, born May 19, 1997.

One marriage took place during the year: the Rev. Dr. W. Hayward Greene married Thelma W. Tanner on November 23, 1996 in Salisbury.

Three retired pastors entered the Church Triumphant during the year: the Rev. James H.
Roberts on September 15, 1996; the Rev. Howard F. Barclay on October 10, 1996; and the Rev.
Edgar Nathaniel Dennis on March 1, 1997. Surviving spouse Viola Volk died on August 8, 1996; and surviving spouse Odell Jackson died on October 15, 1996.

Three pastors graduated: the Rev. Ronald Charles Hemphill, III from Wesley Seminary; the Rev. Yvonne Penn from Howard University Divinity School and the Rev. Aaron Neal from Wesley College.

Ordained were the Rev. Barbara Harmon, probationary deacon; the Rev. Hubert Jicha, probationary deacon; the Rev. Kyung Mo Koo, probationary deacon; the Rev. Cynthia Quillen, permanent deacon; the Rev. James Riley, elder; and the Rev. Richard Vance, elder.

Taking a retired relationship with the Conference were the Rev. Dr. Fred and Teresa Bruner. Moving from the Salisbury District to the Wilmington District were the Rev. Karen Moore and the Rev. George Moore; and the Rev. Vicki Gordy-Stith and the Rev. Bo Gordy-Stith.

Building relationships across the barriers which so often divided the people of the United Methodist Churches, Salisbury Cooperative Urban Ministries has built and paid for a second Habitat House, served Saturday meals to the homeless, continued a tutoring program, held several Salisbury U.M.Y.F. gatherings, and networked the laity and clergy to fulfill Christ's mission to the community. The leadership team under the guidance of the Rev. Marsha Carpenter, Executive Director and Chuck Anderson, chair of the Parish Council, are to be commended.

God's people on the Salisbury District have worked well together on several District Committees. We are grateful for the services of District Lay Leader, Lois Rogers; District Chair of Lay Speaking - Chuck Anderson; District President of United Methodist Women - Arelela Cray; District President of United Methodist Men - Sherwood McGrath; Salisbury District Committee on Superintendency - Gene Cray.

Several churches have improved physical facilities as approved by the District Committee on Church Building and Location consisting of the Rev. Dr. Robert Harris, chair; the Rev. Paul Sherwood, Preston Smith, and Matthew Purnell. We rejoice with the congregation of St. Paul U.M.C. near Berlin, which broke ground on June 21, 1997, for a new building to replace the historic church lost in a fire. Atlantic Church removed its parsonage, and is adding an educational and fellowship wing. Ebenezer Church in Rockawalkin, on the west side of Salisbury, is planning to relocate to a larger site to expand their facilities to serve an exploding population. Several other congregations enlarged and improved facilities during the year. We rejoice with them.

The Committee on Ordained Ministry has fulfilled its responsibilities with great competence and commitment. We thank the Rev. Bill Sterling, chair; the Rev. Jay Hurley, vice-chair; the Rev. Dr. Ashley Maxwell; the Rev. Gertude Brown; the Rev. Dr. Laura Martin; and lay members Charles Gorman Goslee and Carl Wagner for a job well-done!

Pastors and Laity enjoyed a continuing education seminar on Covenant Discipleship with Dr. David Lowes Watson of Wesley Theological Seminary. The clergy family of the District, including active pastors and mates, plus children, and retired pastors, mates, and surviving spouses, enjoyed several dinner occasions for fellowship; a get-acquainted gathering in the fall, a candlelight dinner cruise on the Wicomico River during Epiphany, and farewell seafood dinner at Phillips Crab House in Ocean City in May.

To all of our Partners in Ministry on the Salisbury District we say a hearty thanks for your services rendered to Christ and the Church.

Howard L. Gordy, Jr.
Superintendent

Wilmington District

Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the spirit that is from God so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God. And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual.

1 Corinthians 2:13-14

Paul's statement of God's wisdom is a statement that we claim also on Wilmington District. Indeed we have received many blessings in the last year. Some of the blessings are easily seen. Many of the blessings are those which we call spiritual and those which we can understand only through the eyes of faith. Like Paul, we must proclaim Christ crucified and we must proclaim to the world the victories we have experienced in the name of Christ in the year past.

Our summer began with Jurisdictional Conference, through which we found out that we would receive a new bishop, Peter D. Weaver of Pittsburgh. Wilmington District was honored to be the host district for the Philadelphia Area recognition of his appointment as our bishop. The event was hosted in downtown Wilmington at the bishop's request that it be in an urban setting. We began with a service at Old Asbury Church, the mother church of United Methodism in the City of Wilmington. The Bishop participated in the service with preaching and also serving holy communion to a congregation of homeless men that have come to be known as Common Bond under the leadership of Pastor Tyrone Wilson. Following the service the bishop and the cabinet helped serve a meal in Emmanuel Dining Room which is also located in Old Asbury Church. Later, persons from both Eastern Pennsylvania Conference and Peninsula-Delaware Conference gathered in the parking lot of Grace United Methodist Church for a wonderful carry-in, potluck supper open to all the people of Wilmington, including those who were on the street. Over 500 people gathered for that dinner, broke bread together, and had their first introduction to Bishop Weaver. Then there was a grand procession of banners and people that flowed to Ezion-Mt. Carmel where a very moving service of welcome was held for Bishop Weaver. Bishop Weaver preached revealing his strong spiritual core by which he will lead us in the years to come. The entire district participated in the welcome with people from all over both counties coming to be welcome and to assist in the services as requested.

The fall of '96 was filled with many, many events, only a few of which can be highlighted here. In October the district gathered at the request of the district superintendent for a seminar on white racism. The seminar was led by resource people from Eastern Pennsylvania Conference and was a very powerful day in confronting the reality of racism, the reality of white privilege and how these exist even among our churches. Hearts were moved by that seminar in many ways and it continues to be a marker in the life of the district similar to the phrase in a favorite hymn "Here I raise mine Ebenezer." Out of the seminar several small groups were formed pledging themselves to continue working on the issue of racism over the next year. A follow-up seminar was held in April. The groups continue to meet and will continue to find ways to help the district grow in our ability to overcome the evil of racism.

Also, in the fall, Common Bond Ministries under the leadership of Tyrone Wilson chose to affiliate with The United Methodist Church, particularly through the Methodist Action Program. The Methodist Action Program was able to fund, eventually, a full-time leadership role for Mr. Wilson and was able to house Common Bond Ministries in Old Asbury Church, and provide a vehicle for transportation. We celebrate this new ministry with and for the homeless people of Wilmington.

Dr. Lawrence Stookey, Professor of Worship at Wesley Theological Seminary and one of the extension ministers of our district, led a seminar on his new book on The Common Lectionary. We are grateful to have so talented a person as a part of our district and one who can enable us to hone our skills in worship.

Just before Christmas we were honored to have Bishop Weaver itinerate in Cecil County visiting 14 different churches, meeting with laity and clergy in those churches. He also met with clergy and laity at a lunch in Elkton UMC and at a dinner at Aldersgate Church in North Wilmington. His visitation of every charge in our district will be completed in the fall of 1997.

The first half of 1997 was even busier than the fall. Another very meaningful seminar was held through the efforts of one of our retired pastors, the Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury. This seminar dealt with the issue of capital punishment and drew people from a three state area to consider the issues surrounding capital punishment.

Also, in January and February the annual school for lay speakers was held under the direction of Jane Brown. A new format was used which included two sprints for training, two individual nights for training in the basic course and additional options for the advanced course. The success of the school was shown in the increase in participants in the school and in the increase in the variety of classes taught. We're grateful to the leadership of the lay speaker school committee and we give God the glory for the increase in those who are trained to be lay speakers and lay persons in leadership in their local churches.

The District Board Laity under the leadership of Allen Streett held one of the most successful Laity-Clergy Banquets in the spring of '97. The attendance topped that at almost all the other laity-clergy banquets with over 300 present. The event was held at Asbury United Methodist Church in New Castle whose volunteers provided a wonderful meal. At the service following the dinner, persons named by each of the churches were honored for their leadership in music and presented a framed certificate. The evening was a spectacular success and those participating left feeling that the work of the laity had been affirmed in new ways. We give thanks to Allen Streett and the Board of Laity for their leadership in this event.

Wilmington District was the host district for the 213th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference 1997 and it was held at the Holiday Inn at 8th & King Streets in downtown Wilmington. The entire district, both counties, were called into service to welcome our brothers and sisters from the other three districts and to provide a hospitable and welcoming setting for Annual Conference.

We give special thanks to the Rev. Patricia Bryant Harris and her husband, Mr. James Harris, for their wonderful leadership in making arrangements and in planning and giving leadership to the District Sessions Committee. Gratitude is also given for the fine work of the approximately 50 member District Sessions Committee and the Sub-committee Chairs.

Over 200 people were involved in hosting responsibilities in a variety of ways, including: welcoming people as they arrived in the hotel, welcoming people and helping them with their luggage in the parking garage, providing a hospitality table and hospitality gifts to special guests, providing meals and transportation to meals and assisting in whatever way was needed.

We are deeply grateful to Aldersgate United Methodist Church in North Wilmington and Asbury United Methodist Church in New Castle for providing a catering service to the Annual Conference. Each day these churches, alternating between lunch and dinner, fed approximately 350 persons per meal (the most ever to use meal tickets) who were bused to and from the hotel during their meal breaks. Members of Annual Conference received delicious food and a warm and welcoming atmosphere for their meals.

Highlights of Annual Conference included a Hymn Festival at the Grand Opera House under the leadership of Dr. Andrew Cottle of Grace United Methodist Church. The Grand Opera House was filled with approximately a thousand persons who enjoyed singing some of their favorite hymns with the accompaniment of a symphonic orchestra and enjoyed the anthems sung by a 160 voice Annual Conference combined choir and the solos and ensemble selections presented during the two hour event. This wonderful hymn festival was designed to be a gift to the Annual Conference and was received with great joy and many requests for a repeat at the next Annual Conference. We are deeply grateful to all those who made it possible.

Another memorable worship experience from Wilmington District was the Taize-like worship service held on Saturday evening at Grace United Methodist Church. Once again, the church was filled with over 200 persons who, at 9:30 in the evening, followed Bishop Weaver in a procession from the Holiday Inn through the streets of Wilmington to Grace Church. As the worshippers arrived they found a beautiful setting with candlelight, icons, and specially commissioned banners. They were led by Rebecca Taylor in a service of music and meditation with accompaniment by a flute, a guitar, an oboe and a keyboard. Those participating ended a very busy day of conference work in prayer and praise to their God through a beautifully designed service. Again, we express our gratitude to Grace Church for their leadership in this service.

The Ordination Service which concludes our Annual Conference annually was held at the Grand Opera House and once again we are deeply grateful that the Opera House staff made it possible for us to hold that service in such a beautiful setting. As the nearly 600 members of Annual Conference prepared to leave Wilmington on Sunday evening, they left with a song in their hearts and an appreciation for ministry in the city. Wilmington District was indeed grateful to host this session of Annual Conference within the bounds of our district (the first time in over a quarter of a century) and we look forward to the next opportunity to share with our brothers and sisters across the Peninsula the joy and the struggles of ministry in our district.

A number of special anniversaries were observed throughout the 1996-97 conference year. They include the following: the 30th Anniversary of the Methodist Action Program; the anniversary at Moore's Chapel in Fair Hill, Maryland, which included the arrival of John Wesley on horseback in the person of the new student pastor, the Rev. Jack Cohen; the anniversary of Perryville United Methodist Church at which Bishop Peter Weaver preached for the first time in Cecil County; the anniversary of Mt. Salem United Methodist Church in Wilmington recognizing their long history.

True to our Wesleyan heritage, United Methodists of Wilmington District moved beyond worship and beyond their local church to tackle issues that confront Christians in our district. The Rev. Dr. Lawrence Jameson continues to give leadership to anti-gambling efforts in Cecil County. Indeed he has given leadership nationwide. When a casino group came to Elkton to pursue the possibility of establishing a casino there, it was through the United Methodist pastors and other pastors of Cecil County that the County Commissioners were able to say no to the casino.

In addition to gambling, we also had to struggle with the Ku Klux Klan (KKK). They marched in Middletown in an effort to intimidate the people of Dale's United Methodist Church and to provide division and controversy in a community that was enduring a difficult trial of two children from the community. Under the leadership of the Rev. Naomi Winchester, both Dale's United Methodist Church and the community of Middletown were able to confront the KKK with their unity against the racism and hatred spewed by this organization. Through efforts of Rev. Winchester the issues of drugs and violence as well as the issues of racism were examined and addressed through seminars and resources available to the church and the community.

In addition, Rev. Winchester worked with the Rev. Cindy Koski, pastor of Bethesda Church in Middletown, to unite the faith community of Middletown in new ways - through Bible study, through seminars, through working with the police, through Boys and Girls Clubs of America, through acknowledging the unity that exists between black and white members of the community. Middletown has experienced the presence of Christ in new ways, and we give thanks for the people of the churches there and for the courageous leadership of the pastors in that community and in the MOT Area (the Middletown, Odessa, Townsend Area).

Another way United Methodists worked on social issues is through their participation in the Methodist Action Program Walk for Housing. Christiana United Methodist Church leads the district in their participation with over 50 persons walking for housing. This event, which is co-sponsored by PNC Bank, enables people to walk so that others may have adequate and affordable housing. Literally hundreds of persons walked on a beautiful Saturday in May, and thousands of dollars were raised for Interfaith Housing projects, and for each local church's particular missions.

During Holy Week the district was called to make a very strong public witness for justice. The Rev. Dr. Lawrence Livingston was arrested for an alleged traffic violation. During the arrest he was beaten and maced and his life threatened by the officer making the arrest. The clergy and laity of the district rallied in support of Dr. Livingston at his arraignment and prayed during the time that he was brought before the judge. Dr. Livingston became a symbol for justice within the African-American community of Wilmington and in the issue of police brutality in the African-American community. The district and the annual conference under the leadership of Bishop Weaver continued in strong support of Dr. Livingston and his family, particularly his youngest children who witnessed the brutality. The strength and the unity of The United Methodist Church in their public witness in this situation has enabled the city and the police department and the community to struggle with the injustice and the unfairness that does exist within law enforcement and within the legal system. We give thanks to God for the power of Christ in our lives to bring unity and love to the forefront in a very difficult community conflict and we thank God for the power of the Holy Spirit which enables us to speak the truth with courage. We continue to pray for Dr. Livingston, for the police department of Wilmington, and for the administration of the city as they move toward resolution of this incident.

We rejoiced with the wonderful growth in membership and attendance at Korean United Methodist Church. The congregation has grown to the point where they needed larger facilities than the chapel provided by Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Newark where they worshipped for over a decade. They purchased land on Loveville Road directly across from Cokesbury Village and they began a process of building a new building. In December Korean UMC needed to leave the chapel at Ebenezer and they are grateful that the good people of Silverbrook United Methodist Church on Lancaster Pike opened the doors of their church and indeed all of their facility to them. Beginning in January the two congregations shared Silverbrook facilities and will continue through the winter of 1998. Korean is planning to hold their Easter service in 1998 in their new Sanctuary. We continue to pray that they will be able to meet this building goal and that the witness of hospitality made by Silverbrook Church will continue to be multiplied throughout our district.

Another congregation that experienced the hospitality that Christians provide for one another and indeed for the world was Hope Church. Begun in the spring of 1995, Hope was a new church started under the leadership of the Rev. Jim Hawkins and Hockessin United Methodist Church to reach the unchurched people in Pike Creek. Approximately 35,000 persons in that area are not affiliated or actively participating in a church. Hope Church sought to reach those people and provide an alternative to traditional worship services in the area churches. When Rev. Hawkins was reappointed to a church in Smyrna, Delaware, the members of Hope accepted the invitation of Skyline United Methodist Church to affiliate with them. A very successful union took place with Skyline opening their church and their hearts in Christian hospitality to this new congregation and to learning from them new ways to reach out in their community. We are grateful for the spirit of Christ that enabled this new union to take place with such joy.

I would like to thank those who provide particular leadership in the administration of the district. I particularly would like to give thanks to the members of the District Board of Church Location and Building under the leadership of the Rev. Cynthia Koski. We rejoice with those churches who have remodeled, who have added on, and who are building new facilities. These include the members of Coleman Memorial United Methodist Church who completed an addition to their church; Cornerstone United Methodist Church who completed an addition to their church; Korean United Methodist Church who are building a completely new building; and Peniel United Methodist Church who are in the midst of a restoration of their Sanctuary and expansion of their services to the community.

I also thank the District Committee on Ordained Ministry under the leadership of the Rev. Mary Lou Green. We celebrate those who were certified this year. They include Anna Cottom, Glenn James, Rhoda Harris. We rejoice in their acceptance of God's call upon their lives and we pray for their speedy journey towards ordination.

I also want to thank the District Committee on the Superintendency under the leadership of the Rev. Ray Graham. They have been most supportive of your district superintendent, including supporting me in prayer daily.

We thank the Rev. Jack Shitama for his leadership in evangelism for the district; Ken Home for his leadership on the youth council for the district; Larry Jameson as editor of the district Connection; and we welcome Kevin Goodwin and Yvonne Younger who assumed the responsibility of District Mission Secretaries. These persons give leadership in these particular areas of ministry in ways that benefit the whole district.

We celebrate the honors received by persons in our district family. We first of all celebrate the 20 plus years that Virginia Squire has given as the secretary to the district. We were able to celebrate her faithful service with a wonderful banquet honoring all church secretaries but particularly lifting her up. We also celebrate the special honor received by Gerald Foster for his faithful service with American Leprosy Missions; the Rev. Carol Johnson for her selection in the Juried Art Show at Grace United Methodist Church and for her own show at Christina Art Center; the Rev. Anne Pruett-Barnett as recipient of the Harry Denman Evangelism Award for the Conference; and the Rev. Edward E. Kester recognized as Administrator of the Year by The United Methodist Health Care Association.

We give thanks for the ministry of those who retired from active service on our district. These include the Rev. Robert Warner, the Rev. James Park, the Rev. Elizabeth Hopkins and the Rev. Donald Alford.

The retired clergy of the district gathered for a Valentine's Tea in February. Coming together they were able to share from their wisdom and experience and their joy in serving the Lord. Whenever they gather it is a marvelous time of celebration and faithful witness.

We celebrated the ordination as elder of Jack Shitama, Patricia Bryant Harris, and Carol Svecz and Naomi Winchester as Deacon 1996. We grieved with the family of Rev. Charles Squires and the Rev. Robert Helms.

We welcomed to our district the Rev. Don Hurst, the Rev. Carol Svecz, the Rev. Karen Moore, the Rev. Vicki Gordy-Stith, the Rev. Patrick Gordy-Stith, the Rev. Anna Cottom, and the Rev. Bill Downing and their families.

The Wilmington District continues to experience tremendous growth in population, particularly now in Southern New Castle County where the growth is increasing rapidly and in Cecil County where new housing developments continue to be built on the western side of the county. Every church in Wilmington District must continue to seek new ways to serve their community and the new people arriving.

We rejoice with those churches that received new members on confession of faith. We particularly want to lift up those churches who received the most on our district: St. Mark's UMC received 55, Newark UMC received 49, St. Paul's UMC received 44, Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC received 39.

Finally, I would like to say particular thanks to the good people of Wilmington District.

They have been most supportive of me personally in my recovery from recent eye surgery, and they have shown me again and again the power of Jesus Christ at work within individual lives, within local churches and within the communities of our district. To God be the glory for all that has been done in this conference year, and to God be our strong and courageous "Yes!" for all that we will be called to do in the year ahead.

Your sister in Christ,

Susan Keim Kester

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries began the 1996-2000 quadrennium posed between the sure footing of its old existence and the emerging future of a new way of living our life together in the Conference. It has been important to continue the connecting, supporting, resourcing, and decision-making functions of the past and yet move boldly, courageously, and inclusively into a new ways of doing things to enhance the possibilities of becoming communities of compassion.

1996 began with our newly approved Conference Mission, Vision, and Core Values providing direction for all our Board, Agencies, and Commissions. In everything we did we asked how our ministry helped the Peninsula-Delaware Conference live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ-boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively through life-changing communities of compassion. The Transition Team began its work throughout the year conversations were held with local church layperson and clergy, conference Boards, Agencies, and Commissions.

During this planning process, the Council was involved in several significant decisions. Salisbury Urban Ministries, an example of cooperative mission and ministry in the Salisbury area, was granted financial assistance and placed under the auspices of the Conference Board of Global Ministries for support. We celebrate this exciting ministry which is a model for other communities in our Conference and throughout our denomination. The Council supported the major renovation of Barratt's Chapel under the capable direction of the Commission of Archives and History. A new Conference Personnel Committee for the staff of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference was established to replace three separate personnel committees.

We are indebted to the leadership provided through June by outgoing Council Chairperson John Mitchell, secretary Janet Commodore, and Council Director Lehman Tomlin. We are also grateful for the leadership and vision of Bishop Morrison during her six years as our Episcopal leader. These persons, and others, brought deep commitment, creativity, direction, and guidance to our Conference and we pray we will be able to build upon the foundation they helped create.

In July we welcomed Wendy Green as the Director of Communications and celebrated the success of Annual Conference which focused on "Recovering Our Wesleyan Heritage." Liz St. Clair assumed the role of Council Chair, Elaine Ayers, Vice-Chair, and Randy Wein, Secretary. Jonathan Baker was introduced as the new Council Director effective September 1. In July we learned about the election of Peter Weaver as our Bishop and welcomed him to our October meeting and look forward to his spiritual leadership.

To help live into our mission and vision, the Council began providing opportunity for small group conversation in meetings, celebrating the various ministries in local churches and through Conference extension ministries such as Howard Bailey Enrichment Program, Peninsular United Methodist Homes, Camp Pecometh, Methodist Action Program, and others. Voting now includes time for building consensus, prayerful discernment, and celebration of decisions. Special attention is given to assuring inclusive participation as the Council seeks to model the vision.

With the arrival of fall, most of the conference leadership attended a Northeastern Jurisdictional Leadership Training Event to learn more about their responsibilities and opportunities for mission. It was a transforming and empowering weekend. As new ministries were planned for 1997, the mission and vision guided our decisions and leadership explored ways to work more cooperatively and listen to the needs of local churches. Conversation has begun around the need for resourcing local church ministry to young persons and plans have begun to explore creative ways to respond to this need.

We move into 1997 with excitement about the future of our Conference. God is doing a new thing and the Council on Ministries will continue to seek God will help our Conference live into its mission and vision.

Conference Council on Youth Ministries

Exciting things are happening for youth in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. These exciting times follow a year that was full of setbacks and transitions.

The setbacks took place early in the year, as back to back snowstorms on the Peninsula caused the cancellation of the 10th Annual Conference Youth Rally at Salisbury State University. To cancel was a heart wrenching decision, but was done out of concern for the safety of those that had to travel many miles to attend. It was also at this time that we learned that because of an academic calendar change, Salisbury State University would not be available for our 1997 Rally.

Things did improve in March at our Confirmation Rally, held at Camden: Whatcoat United Methodist Church. Bishop Susan Morrison was our special guest as we had a more than capacity crowd. Many churches also used this opportunity to visit Barratt's Chapel.

In August, we had our Youth Leadership Training Seminar in conjunction with Drayton Retreat Center. Dr. Ed Trimmer, professor of Christian Education at the Methodist Theological School in Ohio, led this event. Over 50 youth leaders from our conference attended and were encouraged and equipped to minister to our youth.

Members of our Conference Council on Youth Ministries continue to attend and participate on the Northeastern Jurisdiction Council on Youth Ministries, as well as the National Youth Ministry Organization.

We planned throughout the year for the 1997 Conference Youth Rally, held January 3-5, 1997. It was decided to expand this event to 2 nights and to hold it at the Princess Royale Hotel and Conference Center in Ocean City, Maryland. Mr. Ken Johnson was the keynote speaker and we retained the theme, "Go Against the Flow", from Romans 12:1-2. As registrations closed in November, we had to once again return the applications of over 300 youth.

In the past year we have had many new youth representatives on the Conference Council on Youth Ministries. Attendance at meetings has been improving and we once again have all four districts represented with youth and adults.

As we look forward to 1998, we are very thankful for the new found support we are receiving from our conference. Support and encouragement is coming from all levels of the church. It truly is an exciting time for youth in our conference.

1998 Goals

1. To continue to seek ways to accommodate more youth at our youth rallies.
2. To continue to promote participation in and be a resource to our District Youth Councils.

3. To provide an avenue for youth to be placed on the District Youth Councils and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries.
4. To work with the Board of Laity in designing a Youth Leadership Training Weekend.
5. To continue our regular programs and participation in Conference, Jurisdiction, and General Church programs.
6. To continue to express our Conference's need for a full time staff person to work with our youth.

Communications Committee

The communications committee has been able over this last year to accomplish most of the goals established for itself. We were able to video tape the 1996 Session of the Annual Conference and provide a number of copies of major events for people in the Annual Conference who requested them. We did a special video presentation of the retirees at annual conference and that was received very well.

We provided for both radio and television spot programming for the Annual Conference on Channel #16 and two radio stations in the Peninsula-Delaware area. There was also special coverage at Christmas time on one additional radio station.

Due to financial and time constraints we were unable to do as much as we would have liked in the conference. We hope that more may be accomplished in the coming year.

As this is my last report as Chairperson of the committee I would like to thank all who have labored with me in these past years. Your support and gifts have been greatly appreciated by me.

Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee

During the year of 1996, the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference funded over a dozen programs in addition to the scholarships and grants provided for the support of special ethnic ministries.

These programs included assistance for the African-American Laity-Clergy Summit which precedes Annual Conference; training for the St. Michaels laity team at the National BMCR meeting; assistance to the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program for program staff support, staff and board training and legal assistance; two new summer day camps, one at Waugh:Cambridge and the other at Mt. Pleasant in Pondtown, Maryland; a Health Fair sponsored by the Fruitland Charge; a Spiritual Life Retreat sponsored by Haven:Wilmington; training for Dales:Middletown on confronting and dealing with racism and hate groups; Parish Nurse training program; church school training for Nueva Vida:Wilmington. Scholarships and grants were also provided in support of training for the United Methodist Board of Discipleship Singles Ministry and attendance of an ethnic local church representative from the Peninsula-Delaware conference to the World Methodist Council.

In May, 1996, the Committee developed a brochure, request and evaluation forms and distributed them to each charge within the conference. This was done for the purpose of providing all persons with an understanding of the mission and ministry of the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, to provide guidelines in the request process, and to establish a process of reporting, evaluation and sharing for the ethnic local churches as well as the Committee.

The above programs highlight the wide reaching and diverse ministry that the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has been able to provide in the effort to serve as a vehicle for the purpose of strengthening and developing the ethnic local churches of this conference. We pray that we will continue to be open to the Lord's direction as we minister to and with the ethnic local churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program

1996 was a very challenging year for the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program. During the course of 1996 the ministry reached into the community via accepting the contracts for the Family Service Partnership, DECCASA, and Family Workplace Connection. These endeavors enabled us to reach people and organizations in the community and helped us to shape a model of ministry which we believe can be utilized in various communities, whether they are rural, urban or suburban. This course of action helped HBLEP to interface with State and local government agencies and catapulted HBLEP into an arena in which we are helping to make policy not only for our organization but state wide. If HBLEP is to remain the program of the people, we must exemplify the motto and step outside of the church to reach those who are in need. As Executive Director, I realize that often times this position is unpopular; however, we must make a stand for those who cannot stand for themselves.

Programmatically, our first endeavor for 1996 was the Theological Forum, "Dialogue of Culture: Dealing with Our Stuff" highlighting the theological perspectives of Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas of Howard University School of Divinity and Rev. Dr. Josiah U. Young, Professor of Systematic Theology at Wesley Theological Seminary also in Washington D.C. Both Dr. Douglas and Dr. Young are on the cutting edge of Afrocentric theological thought in this country and around the world. This endeavor was a collaboration of HBLEP and local area ministers. All programming, publicity, and costs were shouldered by the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program. It is our hope to continue this and other collaborative efforts to promote state-of-the-art theological inquiry for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Our second endeavor was the Board of Director's Banquet at C-Moore's. The Board of Director's Banquet which has traditionally been held in February was rescheduled for May due to 1996's inclement weather. The purpose of the Board of Director's banquet has been to solicit new members and to affirm those who have been serving as Directors. Also, this is an opportunity for the executive Director to give a State of the Program to the Board. In the past, the program budget has underwritten this affair; however due to budgetary changes and restraints we are requesting that the Board of Directors underwrite this affair from this point forward.

Unity in the Community, was a kickoff event highlighting the work of the Smyrna Project and Bailey's contributions to the Smyrna community. HBLEP was instrumental as a sub-contracting agency for the Family Service Partnership. Unity in the Community brought diverse organizations and groups together under one umbrella in order that they might appreciate and affirm the commonalities as well as their differences. We helped to make friends of those who might otherwise be considered our adversaries.

The theme for the Summer Retreat was Give me a Clean Heart.

Victory Over Violence, held at Grace United Methodist Church in September featured Rev. Dr. Richard Bowyer, President of the Northeast Jurisdiction Steering Committee Chair, John Bowyer and Mr. B.F. Maiz, poet, civil rights activist, and humanist. Through the activities and workshops provided over a two-day period more than 250 children were touched and enriched with works of the Bailey Program. Currently, HBLEP and the Wilmington Area Methodist Ministries are planning for "Forever Friends: scheduled for March 7 and 8 at Peninsula-McCabe, and another is planned for September.

Although the program banquet in '96 was held in October, in 1997 it will be returned to its original date of September.

To close the programming for 1996, HBLEP in support of World AIDS Day held a candlelight vigil at St. Paul UAME Church in Smyrna. There was a special offering taken which was then donated to Rev. Anthony Brown, Pastor of Centennial United Methodist Church.

The Ministry of Spiritual Formation

The ministry of Spiritual Formation lives out the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Vision in the wide variety of ministries that take place at Drayton Retreat Center, Camp Pecometh, and in local congregations. These ministries include training of laity and clergy in ministry skills through Continuing Education events. Facilities are used by numerous groups (1996: 326 groups with 10,053 participants) for spiritual development retreats and leadership training events. Seasonal events and worship services are sponsored by the Spiritual Formation team to highlight the church year (Easter Sunrise Service, Christmas Dinners, and Galilean Services). The settings of Drayton Retreat Center and Camp Pecometh provide ideal locations for developing and deepening participants relationship to God. The summer camping program focuses on a spiritual theme. The typical camping week is equal to 39 weeks of Sunday School in a local church and provides spiritual nourishment and equipping for discipleship. We are also seeking to develop new programs to meet the needs of Conference members, i.e. Grandparent/child Retreat, Elder Day Out, and Camping for Seasoned Campers. If the ministry of Spiritual Formation was not actively involved in living out the Conference Vision, many Conference members would lose the opportunity to participate in life-changing opportunities for spiritual development and growth.

1996 completed the fifth year of operation for the Ministry of Spiritual Formation of the Council on Ministries. The Ministry of Spiritual Formation is a comprehensive structure for operating facilities and developing programs to enable persons to engage in intentional experiences of spiritual growth outside and within the local church.

In 1996 the Spiritual Formation Board of Stewards completed its fourth year of leading the Ministry of Spiritual Formation in the areas of Sites and Finance, Program and Marketing, Staff and Volunteers. Together with the site staffs of Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center, they have brought about positive changes in the rate structures, procedures, and property improvements of both facilities. Actions included the purchase of new vehicles and equipment, the update of the five-year maintenance plan for both sites, and planning for two new structures (new maintenance storage building and retreat facility/summer staff house).

Virginia Coleman, Buddy Landing, Carol Shaw, Beth Landing, and Josie Hoven are the Spiritual Formation staff persons whose dedication and commitment contributed to the efficient and effective operation of our facilities. The hard work of the Spiritual Formation staff made possible the rewarding experiences of guests at these Peninsula-Delaware Conference facilities.

Both Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center had a vital year of operation. The facilities were busy with a variety of groups and individuals from churches and other non-profit institutions. We achieved a balanced budget during 1996. The conference supplement to the 1996 budget was approximately $250,403. This amount included: $118,350 for program support from the Conference Council on Ministries, $78,000 for capital improvement projects from Conference Council on Finance and Administration and $54,053 for salary and benefits for the Director of Spiritual Formation.

Camp Pecometh

One Thousand Two Hundred and Ninety-Five youth attended summer camp in 1996 at Camp Pecometh. The summer staff of 55 included 8 international counselors and 30 counselors/support staff from Peninsula-Delaware Conference churches. The campers were able to choose from 21 different program offerings. Campers and staff explored the theme "Who Are You Jesus?" and developed new skills and abilities including: basic camping skills, discovery of God in community life and natural surroundings experienced uniquely in a camp setting. The spiritual focus of the summer was explored through music, Bible study led for the third year by volunteer Spiritual Life Coordinators (Conference pastors), friendship and quiet vesper services. Pecometh continued to operate under the accreditation of the American Camping Association, the most widely recognized program of camping accreditation for health, safety and integrity of program. Camp Pecometh achieved 100% on the 325 areas checked during the 1994 accreditation visit; a first for Camp Pecometh! The visit is conducted every three years.

Pecometh offers both year-round and seasonal facilities for groups, individuals and families, in addition to the extensive summer camp program for children and youth. In 1996, 147 groups with 4,957 participants used the facilities.

Plans are now complete for the 1997 summer season. The program theme is "On-Line With God - Christians at Prayer," and campers will be able to choose from 21 different camping programs. One of the exciting parts of the 1997 summer season is the return to expanded use of volunteers in the program. The use of volunteers in 1996 added enrichment to our programs and helped in reducing expenses. Volunteers were used to renovate and improve facilities, counselors, Camp Nurses and Spiritual Life Coordinators.

The staff at Camp Pecometh has a strong commitment to providing its outdoor ministry to all youth desiring to attend camp. To this end, $9,562 was provided to assist 85 campers with Camperships. The donations to this fund came from local churches and individuals wanting to provide this outreach ministry. A program was reinstated with the Methodist Action Program (MAP) to assist intercity children and youth wanting to attend camp.

Drayton Retreat Center

During 1996, Drayton provided 5,884 guests from 171 groups with a variety of spiritual life experiences. Of the above individuals, 1,709 (an increase of 323) guests from 86 (an increase of 28) groups came from Peninsula-Delaware Conference churches. Some came for continuing education programs, some for a time of rest and refreshment, and some to discover a new dimension of living their Christian lives. The average Peninsula-Delaware Conference group size was 20. One group was there for the 31st consecutive year and a second group for the 30th consecutive year.

The swimming pool at Drayton was used by 1,943 guests. Some were guests of Drayton through pool membership, attendees of programs of overnight groups, Red Cross swimming lessons, guests of members and some from day use groups.

One of the continuing aspects of the operation of Drayton Retreat Center during the year was the significant work accomplished by volunteer crews organized by Carolyn Godfrey. Major projects completed during the year were: conversion of a smoke house into a small meditation chapel and completion of numerous indoor and outdoor maintenance projects. Volunteer hours totaled 1,961 with a minimum work value of $19,610. The efforts and donations of volunteers continues to enable Drayton to preserve and utilize this important facility for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, allowing staff to focus their efforts on ministry rather than fund-raising.

W. Thomas Carter
Director for Spiritual Formation

GOALS FOR 1998

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 2%.
2. To raise funds for winterization of facilities at Pecometh.
3. To introduce group initiatives and environmental educational programs at both locations.
4. To maintain a balanced budget for the Ministry of Spiritual Formation.
5. To seek additional contributions for the maintenance trust funds established for Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center.
6. To continue to recruit ethnic persons to serve on the summer Pecometh staff; 15% as a minimum goal.
7. To maintain and enrich the spiritual environment of both locations.
8. To continue to improve the physical appearance of both facilities.
9. To continue to emphasize the importance of recruiting volunteer workers at both locations.
10. To continue to build the Spiritual Formation Team into a highly motivated and skilled group.
11. To develop plans for the conversion of the Drayton barn into an additional low cost retreat facility.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Council on Finance and Administration take seriously their responsibility to manage the finances properly. All members of CFA pray seriously to be good stewards of all the conference resources. We humbly request your prayerful support as we work in covenant together.

ACCOMPLISHMENT:

During the past year the following actions were taken by the Council:

1. Elected officers and appointed standing committees.
2. Approved the sale of the Wilmington District parsonage at 202 Alapocas Dr. for $230,000.
3. Provided $3,500 to cover cost of health insurance for the Hispanic Ministry on the Dover District.
4. Requested that Laity Sunday, October 20, 1996 be designated as a Conference Advanced Special Sunday for Urban Ministries.
5. Provided $2,900 to purchase a new copier for the Wilmington District office.
6. Granted $82,000 to Spiritual Formation for replacement and maintenance of facilities at Camp Pecometh and Drayton Manor for the 1997 calendar year. Pecometh expenses will include a new pickup truck, new sail boats, the rebuilding of a bathroom cabin, a new computer and residence up-grades.

Drayton expenses of $6,000 will be used to repair the pool and showers and to purchase a power washer.
7. Provided monies to pay deficit of $4,727.56 for Salisbury Urban Ministry.
8. Approved the following adjustments on 1997 apportionments:

Dover District	-	$ 38,604
Easton District	-	19,686
Salisbury District	-	80,964
Wilmington District	-	100,000
Total		339,768
9. Eliminated all apportionment responsibilities for Centennial United Methodist Church in Symra, DE because of the devastating fire damage to their property.
10. The Easton District Parsonage was appraised at $230,000 and in need of major repairs. Estimated cost of repairs was to be approximately $40,000 to 45,000. Given the age of the parsonage it was decided to purchase a newer residence in the Easton area. Following the guidelines for conference owned parsonages a suitable property at 23 Londonderry Dr. was purchased at a cost of $285,000. The current residence at 215 S. Hanson St will be sold in 1997.
11. CFA is supporting the work of The Apportionment System Task Force which is a conference-wide conference committee reviewing the current apportionment formula.
12. Pending the decision at Annual Conference to hold an adjourned session in the fall of 1997, CFA will present a budget and an apportionment formula at the time.

BOARD OF CHILD CARE

"The people who live in darkness will see a great light. On those who live in the darkland of death the light will shine." Matthew 4:16 Good News Bible.

For over 122 years the Board of Child Care has been a beacon of God's love and light for hurting youth and children. The commitment of the staff, volunteers, and the Board of Directors have made it possible for God's message of hope and healing, love and forgiveness to become a reality in those who have lived in the darkness of despair, pain and brokenness.

The Bishop's Initiative on Children in Poverty in this quadrennial within the United Methodist Church fits perfectly into the dreams and plans of the Board of Child Care as we move to a new millennium. Through careful planning, use of financial resources, and continued support of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, many more children and families will be helped to move forward with their lives and become happier, healthier and more hopeful.

This past year we have served more children and families than ever before. Our census in each program, i.e. Residential, Educational, Shelter, Foster Care, Youth Check and Family Connections Counseling has averaged close to 100%. Daily we serve one hundred and seventy-eight (178) children and throughout the year provide over four hundred (400) children and families units of service. The staff at the Board of Child Care continues to grow professionally and maintains the highest level of nurturing, caring and education of our boys and girls.

In June, construction started on our main campus. In spite of over fifty (50) days of rain, great progress was made. In January, our staff moved into a beautiful new administration building that is more conducive to providing professional services. Immediately after moving in, our old administration building came down and work started on our new campus school, scheduled to open in September. March saw the opening of our gym addition containing a fitness center, lounge area and dance area; as well as retrofitting of our gymnasium. On March 26th our new dining room with the capabilities to serve one hundred twenty (120) people opened. In April, five new independent living homes for older adolescents opened. We received many inquiries and referrals to fill existing openings. Also in April, another Family Connections Program opened in Cambridge, Maryland.

In April the Board of Directors approved a master plan to rededicate our entire agency by renewing the original ideals of the Board of Child Care. This vision, which has made the organization great, will carry forth those ideals to the next century as new ways of treatment and caring for young people emerge. The Plan calls for seven new cottages, two more independent living homes, and conference center on the Gaither Road site. The Board of Directors is still committed to Harford County as a satellite program in Northern Baltimore, although litigation continues to prevent us from beginning to build.

The Board of Child Care continues to move forward to become the agency of choice in the State of Maryland. Through an ambitious capital program, an accreditation process to be completed by January 1998, the addition of professional staff, the opening of preventive programs along with a continual partnership with the church, more and more of God's children can be served by our ministry. We wish to thank the individual churches, groups of United Methodist Men and Women, youth groups, for all their prayers and financial support. A special thanks to our Board of Child Care Auxiliary who spend countless hours of their time in volunteering their many talents. Remember, children make up thirty percent (30%) of our population but one hundred percent (100%) of our future.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society has undergone a change in leadership, members and quadrennium. As the newly appointed chairperson, I have presented to the Board the theme, "A Biblical People with a Social Conscience."

This past year I likened our Board to a professional expansion sporting team. The Board includes many rookies, new members with diverse backgrounds and interests. The Board also has its share of veteran players. They have faithfully served for a number of years. Together, we are trying to develop a "game plan" that is faithful to our Lord, in harmony with the vision and mission of our Annual Conference and responsive to the needs of the people and communities within the boundaries and beyond of the Annual Conference.

In November the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the Board of Church and Society were well represented at the Northeastern Jurisdiction, "Leadership into the 21st Century" Training Event. During this event we were able to meet and share with Church and Society leaders from other Annual Conferences and the General Board. In early fall of 1997, a staff member from the General Board will assist our Conference Board in organizing for ministry.

The Board has been very busy designing a workshop for clergy dealing with the issue of the death penalty. We have secured a diverse staff to present this very controversial issue to the clergy of our Conference and the Southern New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania and Baltimore-Washington Annual Conferences. A similar event will be held for the laity in the spring of 1998.

We have been very fortunate to have the dedication and expertise of the Rev. Dr. Lawrence Jameson. As a member of our Board, his relentless dedication and knowledge of the gambling industry has provided assistance to communities in both states represented by our Annual Conference. We believe that his efforts had a direct impact on the Maryland governor's decision to prohibit slot machines within that state.

The Resourcing Congregational Life program has provided both Mini-Grants and Action-Grants for a number of churches and communities throughout the year. Both grants provide funds, ranging to $1,000 for churches with programs and ministries that promote and fall within The Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. An Action Grant was presented for a congregational health ministry program under the direction of the Rev. Naomi Winchester, the Rev. Doug Ridley and Mrs. Joan Nelson, Parish Nurse. This grant was presented in cooperation with the Board of Global Ministries. The Board also approved the funding for Common Bond Ministries. Common Bond is an alternative congregation that is reaching out with worship, Bible study and other ministries for the homeless people at Old Asbury, in downtown Wilmington.

Our Mini-Grants saw funds given for: 1) the purchase of books and resource materials to inform persons about the negative impact of the gambling industry; 2) support for a summer youth outreach ministry; and 3) to provide seed money for an Internet Seminar in which participants were introduced to cyberministry.

We continue to support the work and ministry of Pacem In Terris as the peacemaking arm of the Board of Church and Society. The Executive Director, Dr. Sally Milbury - Steen has faithfully prepared mailings for our members and acts as a consultant to the Board. This year she was recognized by the city of Wilmington as a "Community Builder."

The work before our Board is tremendous. The issues which confront our Christian values might be likened to the theme of the popular advertising promotion, The Ever Ready

Bunny, they "keep coming and coming". So we pray that with the help of our Lord and with the support of our Annual Conference we may address, in a faithful way, these issues.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship continued to focus our efforts on our purpose: to make disciples for Jesus Christ. We understand that this can only happen as we connect and grow together as the Body of Christ. The CBOD sought to be God's catalyst in this effort. We praise God for the opportunity to grow with our brothers and sisters in becoming effective disciples in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

We celebrate the "ministry gatherings" of Jesus during 1996:

LOCAL CHURCH DISCIPLESHIP - We researched the needs of local congregations within various categories of discipleship. The CBOD became more visible and accessible to local churches (some had never received assistance from Conference) in providing training and/or resources for leadership development. Team ministry continued to be our emphasis.

STEWARDSHIP - Faith, Money and Spirituality Stewardship Retreat was held in February focusing on the team ministry approach to stewardship training. This format dealt with holistic stewardship as a spiritual response to God. All four districts were represented with charges of variations in sizes: 4 large, 6 mid-size, 3 small (included several small churches on one charge). Of the thirty-five participants attending, 15 women, (9 African-American and 11 European-Americans), 20 men (9 African-American and 11 European-American, 10 clergy, 1 diaconal minister and 24 laity). Four scholarships were awarded to encourage participation of smaller charges. Follow-up to this event was a one-day Regional School of Financial Stewardship, "Growing Givers" offered in August. At least 15 past participants are being identified as stewardship resource persons to be deployed to assist local churches in stewardship education.

EVANGELISM - In a cooperative effort, evangelism and education work areas planned and executed a successful conference-wide, two day event, "Evangelism through the Sunday School" with leadership from GBOD. Approximately 30 churches participated with 110 attendees representing total church leadership, not just Christian Education. Funding for persons to attend the NEJ School of Evangelism enable CBOD to stay apprised of new and innovative evangelism ideas and techniques to resource local congregations of Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

WORSHIP - Funding was provided for the Chair of the Peninsula-Delaware Chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Music and Worship Arts to attend the 1996 NEJ Fellowship Convocation. From this event a variety of worship experiences can resource local churches. A highlight of the work area was the planning of meaningful worship at Annual Conference. The incorporation of a variety of worship styles, covenant prayer times and the combined effort of Wesley Seminary leadership made this endeavor highly successful.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT - Several scholarships were awarded to individuals and churches to avail persons of training opportunities. We sponsored an identified Singles Ministry consultant to attend a Singles Conference, supported an ethnic minority church (recently became a station church) to attend BMCRC Conference to empower African-American clergy and laity leadership. Funding appropriated to IRC Lay Academy in New Castle.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION - Eight trained educators acted as Cokesbury curriculum resource persons for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference (each district has two). This Cokesbury Action Team (CA Team) was responsible for Youth Previews, VBS Previews, and teacher training workshops. This team, upon request, has made training and resource materials accessible to local churches to transform Christian Education programs. There was intensive planning done for a conference-wide event, Kaleidoscope '97 completed by Christian Education Fellowship) to focus on new possibilities for all ages.

NEW VITALITY MINISTRY CONSULTANT AMBASSADORS - This vital ministry acts as a conduit between Peninsula-Delaware Conference and local congregations. Three consultants, who receive on-going, intensive training, gave leadership to a number of local churches, CBOD district and conference events. CA Team was coordinated and maintained through the concerted efforts of the consultant ambassadors. This team has engaged in several consultations with local congregations ranging from gifts discovery seminar, Generation X training, Sunday School orientation training, teacher training, to overall resourcing specific needs of individual churches.

INTERFAITH RESOURCES CENTER - The center was an essential link for valuable resources made accessible to local churches. Printed & video resources, and assistance in selecting appropriate resource materials was offered. The center's director traveled to satellite sites in each district on a regular basis to hold resource hours. Also researched displays for conference and district events. Interfaith Lay Academy was sponsored by IRC.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION FELLOWSHIP SUPPORT - Funding was provided for a Christian Educator to attend the Christian Education Fellowship Conference in the fall.

OLDER ADULTS MINISTRIES - Funded a pilot program, "Sharing our Services" (SOS), a computerized volunteer program in two area churches, Ezion-Mt. Carmel and Coleman-Memorial, whereby services are bartered and data kept in commutator. Older Adults are better assisted to receive various services. (on-going program). Funding given to Waugh UMC to implement new, pilot program, "Health Ministries" within the church. A Singles Ministry workshop, led by Rev. Candy Miles, was sponsored by OAM. Workshop designed to assist church leadership to empower single adults irregardless of age.

1998 GOALS

The CBOD is the Peninsula-Delaware Conference agent responsible for enabling local congregations in effective disciple-making. To this end, we seek to quest for higher quality, continuing to emphasize team ministry as the only effective tool.

We will pursue the following goals:

1. We will undergird the mission and vision of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
2. We will increase funding for leadership development, improved communication between CBOD and local churches to fulfill the mission of Jesus Christ to the world.
3. Local church disciple-making will be our only priority as we quest for quality in ministry.
4. The CBOD will continue to offer challenging and cutting edge opportunities in training within each work area: evangelism, worship, education, and stewardship.
5. We will continue to evaluate disciple-making plans to insure the highest quality.
6. Persons will be identified and trained in each work area as possible consultants to assist local congregations.
7. The New Vitality Ministry Consultant Ambassadors will continue to link resources and training made available from conference. They will be deployed to assist/enable local churches to satisfy specific needs.

8. Older Adult Ministries will continue to resource congregations through timely mailings concerning vital information for older adults and training workshops.
9. Older Adult Ministries will continue to support a Single Ministry program in Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Also, on-going support will be provided for Congregational Health Ministries Program.
10. The Interfaith Resource Center will continue to provide up-to-date print and video resources for all local congregations. The center is committed to making their services accessible to all local churches within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Older Adult Ministries

The Older Adult Ministries budget supported the following Older Adult Ministries Pilot Program implemented in 1996.

Sharing Our Services Program at Ezion-Mt. Carmel

The Sharing Our Services Program provides volunteer services for seniors through a factoring system. Volunteer hours are kept in a computerized bank and members may draw from the hours for needed services or donate the hours to another senior citizen.

Satellite Program at Coleman Memorial United Methodist Church

Health Ministries Program at Waugh United Methodist Church focusing on Seniors Health Education and disease prevention.

Intergenerational Program at Alalis Middletown Seniors and Youth Program to provide education focusing on ways to combat drugs in the community.

Single Ministries Workshop led by Rev. Candy Miles. The workshop was designed to assist leaders to obtain information on how to develop single ministries in a church.

Three mailings were sent to pastors through PUMH, Inc., that addressed older adults issues. Naomi G. Winchester served as consultant to the Older Adult Committee in 1996 and provided support services for each pilot project. The Older Adult Committee meetings are held quarterly.

Naomi G. Winchester was invited to attend the General Board of Disciple Training held in Tampa, Florida in February 1996. A conference for Older Adult Ministries was held by the Texas Conference in Houston, Texas and Naomi was the key note speaker. The invitation for Naomi G. Winchester to lead a workshop on Congregational Health Ministries is scheduled to be held at Scott Bennett Center in Nashville, October, 1997.

Salisbury Urban Ministries

Salisbury Urban Ministries has continued to strive to stimulate growth among our congregations through actual hands-on involvement in local missions on behalf of people in need.

God's Kitchen serves over a hundred meals each Saturday at Grace United Methodist Church. This feeding program is supported by our covenant congregations and three churches from outside our cooperating churches have been added to the rotating schedule. There are also opportunities provided for our churches to serve a meal together.

Salisbury Urban Ministries sponsored their second house for Habitat on Maryland's Lower Shore. Urban Ministries received a generous gift for the purpose of our churches working together to build a house for Habitat during their Blitz week in September, 1996. Volunteers, laity and clergy, worked with volunteers from other community congregations to make a dream come true for a Salisbury family.

The Educational Enrichment program focuses on preparing individuals for the GED test by providing tutoring and educational materials. Computers and accredited software have been purchased for this program in order to help clients overcome some of their barriers to learning. This program takes place at St. Andrews United Methodist Church. Volunteer instructors teach Math, English and Science.

The Super Pantry program provides instruction on food preparation, nutritional cooking, and personal development. Life skills classes include classes on parenting, budgeting, self-esteem, goal setting, and job preparation. Classes are held at the Maryland Cooperative Extension Office in Wicomico County. These classes along with the Educational Enrichment program are helping people who want to be empowered to change their lives economically and socially. Instruction is provided by the Maryland Cooperative Extension Office, and other organizations such as Life Crisis.

The Genesis program for new beginnings for at-risk male youth began with a pilot program in August. The program is based on a twelve step behavior modification concept. The goal of this program is to provide a healthy new beginning by providing educational and personal life skills intervention. The program has continued and has received local media attention. Classes were held at St. Andrews Church and recreational basketball was played at Asbury Church.

The Urban Choir Camp was held for the third year at Bethesda Church. This camp has helped in our objective of developing a unified United Methodist presence in Salisbury by our covenant congregations joining together in city-wide ministries. Twenty-eight children from various churches in Salisbury attended the camp. They presented a musical program entitled "Celebrate America! A Kid's Program of God and Country." An expanded camp will be held at Wesley Temple Church in August, 1997.

A lock-in was held at the Salisbury YMCA for the youth in our covenant churches and other area churches. Over 135 youth and adult leaders participated in the event. The lock-in was planned by the Youth Council that is comprised of four youth, adult youth leaders, and the pastors of the covenant churches. The purpose of the Youth Council is to promote unity, to give opportunity for mission and service, and to strengthen the youth ministries in our churches.

Congregations have also shared in leading a Good Friday Service and Discipleship Bible Study. Special services, Bible studies, joint confirmation programs, mission trips, and new joint worship services are planned in 1997. Preparations are being made for a joint weekly outreach worship service that will offer opportunities for hands-on mission experience.

Rev. Marsha C. Carpenter
Director

Division of Congregational Development

During 1996 this Division has lost the services of both Nancy Leathrum and Charles Covington due to their rotation off the division. This loss along with the added responsibility of the New Congregational Development funds has been a challenge for us. It is very important that each District be represented at the Division meetings to insure that interests throughout the conference are equally represented.

The Division has continued to process requests for money from the apportionment funds for Church and Parsonage Repairs and Construction, apportionment funds for New Church

Development, and funds generated from the repayment of previous loans. The loan and grant applications have been converted to word processor with minor changes to help in processing the requests. A new brochure was developed that outlines the grant and loan requirements and explains the application process.

The fast pace of changes in 1996 was both a challenge and a concern. There were about ten churches that received grants or loans. We were pleased to be able to provide funds to help one church complete a building that had been stopped due to lack of funds. It is always gratifying to be able to provide help for each project. It appears that the requests will be increasing during 1997 which is an exciting trend for our conference. It is my prayer that we will be able to provide for these requests.

1998 GOALS

The Division will continue to provide improvements in the grant and loan process. We expect to make the application process easier to understand. At the same time the Division would like to encourage spiritual development in congregations as well as physical development. This will require more information be provided at the time of the loan request as well as during the term of the loan. The Division may ask for data on the Church's growth that the loan money encouraged.

Earl Robinson
Chairperson

Division of Health and Welfare

In 1996, this Division has continued to sponsor and participate in programs and conferences; to further the cause of the important issue of HEALTH throughout our conference.

Four of our conference members attended a conference in Dallas, Texas, for Congregational Health Ministries Consultants. One of our members attended the Annual Meeting of the Committee on Older Adult Ministries in Tampa, Florida. Another attended the Interfaith Parish Nurse Educational Program at Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia. Two of our most active members attended the National Health Ministry Association Conference in Chicago, Illinois. Another attended the Parish Nurse Symposium in Chicago, Illinois. The Chairperson of Health and Welfare attended the Joint Training Event for the Northeastern Jurisdiction titled: "Leadership into the 21st Century." The chairperson also serves as an ex-officio member of the Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. All of the members connected with H & W bring back "working tools" to help improve the issue of HEALTH throughout our Conference.

One of the big events that the Division helped other agencies, with related interests, was at the Peninsula-Delaware Conference African American Clergy and Laity Summit. This program had the theme of: "That You May Be Healed" and was held at UMES, Princess Anne, Maryland.

Throughout the year of 1996, the Division of H & W continued to mail to clergy members in the conference information on various health subjects.

The interconnectedness of health with spiritual, mental and physical well-being is one of the most important items that should remain on the agenda of the conference in the coming years.

1998 GOALS

1. To continue to assist local churches in the education of members on various health ministry programs through seminars and mailings.
2. To continue to train and expand the Health Ministries and Parish Nurse Ministry programs to reach out to more and more people within the conference area.
3. To assist in the further implementation of Delaware Region Health Ministries Network (DRHMN). This is an interfaith association of individuals, congregations, and institutions, joined together to promote whole-person health.
4. To continue the cooperative venture with other agencies to continue to spread the interconnectedness of health with spiritual, mental and physical well being.

Donald E. Alford
Chairperson

Division of Mission

The purpose of the Division is to promote mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference on the local, national, and world levels.

Volunteer in Mission teams from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference went to Costa Rica in January 1996 and Four Corners, New Mexico, in September 1996. Due to the positive results, VIM teams will be sent to both sites during 1997.

During 1996, churches were encouraged to become a Global Mission Partner through distribution of brochures and displays. Cornerstone UMC became the fifth church in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to become a Global Mission Partner.

During January through September 1996, Contributions to UMCOR General Advance Specials were received from the following:

Wilmington District	19 churches or 22% of churches in the Wilmington District
Dover District	18 churches or 16% of churches in the Dover District
Salisbury District	15 churches or 11% of churches in the Salisbury District
Easton District	14 churches or 10% of churches in the Easton District

Carol Faye Sieg

1998 GOALS

1. Volunteers in Mission - To encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on mission experience.

Division of Parish and Conference Ministries

Our Division has been on a "Mission Area Ministry (MAM) watch" during the year, as the Transition Team continued to work on delivering a system for ministry, that would incorporate Christ's commissioning of our Church. We thank God for their efforts, not only in terms of the prayerful Research and Development that have taken place, but for the community spirit, re-commitment and redirection to our common purpose, that have evolved.

Even as we anticipated the inevitable and emerging new concept of Mission Area Ministry, we proceeded with our ministry, conducting a workshop, a planning session and continuing to work with ongoing and some new ministries. These ministries address the current, urgent and changing needs of communities around our Annual Conference.

1996 was a good year.

We therefore salute and celebrate all successful ministries across our Annual Conference, with special reference to our present partners: the Methodist Action Program-Nueva Vida, Neighborhood House, Salisbury Urban Ministry, the Youth Ministries of Dale UMC, the Haitian Mission Congregation, the Dover District Hispanic Ministry (Children's Mission) and the OASIS Ministries.

We thank God for the vision and the missional fortitude that all these programs/ministries display. We nurture the hope that more of the same will be forthcoming from all around our Annual Conference landscape, in 1997.

Finally, I personally rejoice and wish to extend my gratitude to the members of the Division of Parish & Conference Ministries, namely, Rev. Elaine Ayres, Rev. Ronald Bell, Jr., Bert Deimer, Jr. (Vice Chairperson), Carolyn Dorman (Secretary), Rev. John Holden (MAP), Wayne Browne (Neighborhood House), Rev. Marsha Carpenter (Salisbury Urban Ministry) and for the work being done by Rene and Hilda Knight (Dover District Hispanic Ministry). We thank God for the lives that are being changed through our collective servanthood.

To God be all the Glory.

1998 GOALS

1. Our major goal for 1998, is to celebrate as often as we can, success stories relating to the implementation of viable Mission Area Ministries. This will be done as follows:

- a. Obtaining brief descriptions from the MAM Program originators, and to the extent that they present unique opportunities for ministries, open a dialogue with the MAM Unit in question
 - b. Award small grants to Programs that are well thought out and which present solutions that can be used elsewhere.
 - c. Offer Help (in conjunction with Conference Secretary and Div. of Education & Cultivation (BOGM))
 - d. Celebrate, celebrate and celebrate via the Communicator and other means available to us, success stories relating to MAM
 - e. Present and provide opportunities for Division members and others to attend seminars and workshops, relating to our ministries
 - f. By developing models for delivering/broadcasting, successful MAM programs, from their originators, to other communities in our Annual Conference
2. While we tailor new and informed concepts for delivering of Missional Ministries for the new Millennium, we hope to continue sustaining those programs that have proven successful over the years, to the extent that we can.

We pray that God will continue to bless our Division and all our partners in ministry.

Arthur L. de'Souza George,
Chairperson

The Methodist Action Program

The Thirtieth Anniversary Celebration in October provided the opportunity to look back over the years at the varieties of urban ministries undertaken by the Methodist Action Program. Dr. R. Jervis Cooke outlined the hundred years of urban mission work that preceded M.A.P. and that lay the foundation for the development of this ministry both related to the Wilmington District office and yet independent of it. Just a few of the many programs and projects were highlighted in comment and in memorabilia. So much has been done, but so much remains undone.

Looking ahead has been a major emphasis of this year. Times are changing; M.A.P. has changed and must change some more. New suburban development reaches farther and farther into southern New Castle County and into Cecil County; rural churches need to learn to become suburban churches. Social and economic changes impact the City of Wilmington and its older suburban communities in ever increasing complexity -- and welfare reform policies are just beginning to be felt in 1997. The next thirty years will be much more difficult than the last; M.A.P. is developing new ministries that build on the successes of the past and that reach to the heart of our needs today and tomorrow: prophet, pastor, servant, healer, evangelist, teacher, mediator, and sustainer.

Urban ministry: definitions change every few years. Urban can no longer mean only the inner city. Urbanization impacts not only our Downtown, inner, and outer city neighborhoods but also our older, established, and mushrooming suburban communities. Some rural areas are quickly becoming suburban developments; all rural communities are overwhelmed by the secularization and urbanization of our civilization. Urban ministries have been the first wave of the Church's effort to engage the forces and pressures of economic, sociological, and psychological change; as the pace of change increases, the critical role of urban ministry to lead all of our churches into new philosophies and models of ministry becomes even more demanding. An old maxim parallels the effectiveness of a congregation's Sunday school today with the impact of its entire ministry in twenty years. Our Denomination's urban ministries in these next few years probably foretells our congregations' effectiveness in the next decades.

To create the most effective urban ministry we can discern, the Methodist Action Program is carefully rethinking and re-working its ministries. After two retreats of the Board of Directors, the historic emphases were refined into the following statements:

- VISION Creating Communities of Compassion through Christian Faith in Action.
- MISSION Helping Individuals, Congregations and Communities
- Meet Human Needs
 - Promote Positive Social Change
 - Facilitate Church Development
- Through the Transforming Power of Jesus Christ.

CONSTITUENTS:

1. Wilmington Metropolitan Area
(Cecil, New Castle, and Salem Counties).
2. The poor and disadvantaged -- economic and spiritual.
3. Children.
4. United Methodist Churches.

A Vision Task Force, representing the clergy, the laity, and the communities of City and suburban Wilmington, southern New Castle County, Cecil County and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, is being asked to recommend goals, strategies, and programs to be incorporated into a five-year work plan. There are so many needs and there is so much opportunity; M.A.P. intends to engage our Church in the most critical concerns and issues of our community. As we design and develop these ministries, we will invite the entire Church to share the vision and to join the ministry and mission of proclaiming and offering God's love and hope to our neighbors and neighborhoods that feel unloved and hopeless. While God's new plan is being discerned, the Methodist Action Program continues to provide important servant ministries to the Wilmington community and beyond.

The collaborative Homeless and Homeless Prevention Ministries at Old Asbury Church have been enhanced and extended during this past year. The Emmanuel Dining Room program of the Roman Catholic Church's Ministry of caring is now serving an average of 175 meals a day, seven days each week. The Men's Center of Friendship House has extended and expanded its several ministries since coming into Old Asbury Church in December, 1995; it helps men move from life on the streets to more normal productive life patterns. Both of these agencies are being provided programming and administrative space without cost through a State of Delaware Grant-in-Aid.

In April, 1996, the Common Bond ministry was provided meeting space and in October was received as a project of the Methodist Action Program. The Common Bond ministry is men and now women and children who are coming off the streets and who are ministering to those still living on the streets and in shelters. Mr. Tyrone Wilson, Program Coordinator, was himself homeless a year ago; he and a growing number of men and women are now in their own homes. Common Bond conducts a number of ministries including Saturday Morning worship, daily prayer before work, several Bible studies each week, a hair cutting ministry, summer beach trips, Saturday $1.50 movie trips, and Homeless Awareness Month activities. Common Bond, an outspoken evangelical preaching program, is M.A.P.'s contribution to the collaborative homeless project; together we offer food, shelter, guidance, hope, help, and the spiritual gifts of worship, Bible study, prayer, and personal testimony.

After a year and a half of development, on February 18, 1997, the Ecumenical Support Ministry began operating as a homeless prevention program in the Old Asbury Church. This cooperative ministry of some twenty area churches provides financial and other assistance for basic human needs of individuals. Careful and through case work provides the churches' resources of information, referral, and money to the most needy and responsible people. Initial programming is limited to approximately $9,000 per month in financial assistance; as the number of participating churches grows, the amount of available money and volunteers is expected to increase.

Old Asbury Church, established in 1783 partially by soon to be Bishop Francis Asbury, the "mother" church of all of the Wilmington Methodist Churches (United, A.U.F.C.M.E., A.U.M.P., A.U.M.E. and in some sense A.M.E.) is now home to four church-based homeless and homeless prevention ministries that include a special congregation designed for the unique needs of homeless people.

In addition to ministries at the Old Asbury Church, the Methodist Action Program operates an Hispanic senior center (Centro Los Abuelos -- the Grand Parents' Center), food assistance programs, and a cooperative M.A.P. WALK for Housing which is co-sponsored by PNC Bank.

The Methodist Action Program provides financial assistance to the After School Educational Enrichment Program of the Ezion - Mt. Carmel UMC, the Outpost program of the Harriet R. Tubman Community UMC (formerly the Brandywine-Trinity UMC), and youth programming at the Dale's Memorial UMC in Middletown. M.A.P. is coordinating efforts with Camp Pecometh to provide scholarship assistance for needy youth for participation in this important Conference program. And, M.A.P. is spearheading an effort to redevelop the Delaware Ecumenical Council on Children and Families to help "at risk" neighbors and neighborhoods get connected to the available public and private services that they so much need; being the connecting link, the congregations are the catalysts that bring healing and hope to our communities and thereby earn the respect and attention of our residents.

Finally, the Methodist Action Program assists with three new church programs. Nueva Vida (New Life) is a mission congregation directed to the Hispanic community; M.A.P. provides financial subsidies and administrative assistance to its operations. Hope Church in Pike Creek, our newest mission congregation, is just two years old; M.A.P. provides it administrative assistance.

Common Bond is a project of M.A.P. that provides religious programming developed specifically for homeless people. Conversations are beginning in southern New Castle County and in Cecil County concerning the offering of appropriate church structures and styles for new suburban developments. As God leads us, we will develop new and renewed congregations throughout our urban environment.

The Methodist Action Program is in some ways an extension of the Wilmington District Office. Many of The United Methodist Church's social concerns are addressed in one way or another by M.A.P. programming. The Methodist Action Program's historic church development projects (Korean Church, Cornerstone Church, Nueva Vida Congregation, and Hope "Church" congregation) and future efforts all address a primary concern of the Conference and of the General Church. In other ways, M.A.P. is an independent agency that can address human needs (e.g., collaborative homeless ministry), social change (e.g., the "Prophetic Concerns" project soon to be initiated), and even church development (e.g., Common Bond) in ways that are not so available or comfortable for a local church, the District, or even the Conference. Therefore, M.A.P. complements the Conference; it extends and enriches the Church's programming.

The Methodist Action Program packages public, private, and Church money to make maximum impact on human service, social change, and church development. The Conference's $92,000 is matched with $300,000 to $400,000 in other funds plus $400,000 to $500,000 of in-kind contributions to produce excellent programming for which the United Methodist community is recognized. Nowhere else does the Conference get so much for its money.

Neighborhood House

Ministry and services to families, youth and children continued to be a major focus of Neighborhood House in 1996. Programs and activities reached over 6,500 unduplicated individuals.

Community outreach took many turns. Comprehensive case management targeted families living in South Wilmington, Middletown-Odessa-Townsend area, and communities surrounding the Rosehill Community Center in New Castle County. The program provided and coordinated support services to households to stabilize their housing and economic conditions, offered a long-term resolution to crisis situations, and assisted low-income households to achieve economic and family sufficiency.

Of those served 21 achieved three or more of the goals they set for themselves and 25 made some achievement with two or more of their goals.

Some of the problems and need areas were housing problems, mental health problems, medical problems, employment needs and illiteracy.

Youth Development

Staff organized year round activities with an emphasis on skill development. The program served 452 children and youth.

Fourteen youth, 13 to 17 years of age, spent the year learning valuable skills of how to operate their own business, Southside Teen Ink. They produced and designed memo pads, customized note pads, greeting cards, personalized calendars, stationary, business cards, programs and certificates. The work enhanced their computer skills.

The youth held positions in the business such as CEO, Operations Manager, Finance, Production, Sales, and Marketing Manager. Local professionals conducted workshops relating to business development. Their financial rewards were nominal, both educational benefits derived from learning organizational and business management, leadership and conflict resolution were of great value.

The CEO of Southside Teen Ink wrote with the changing times in our world, we pride ourselves on the motto of young people trying to do the right thing. We feel our business taught us responsibility, how to better adapt to the adult world, and at the same time, keep us off the streets and involved with positive work.

In September 1996 the Neighborhood House School of Hope which operated under the auspices of the New Castle County Alternative Education Consortium had an enrollment of 14 youth. The youth were assigned to school through their school districts because of behavior problems. Services included, but were not limited to classroom instructions, life skills training, individual and or small group counseling, family intervention, and monitoring. The academic component was designed by a recent retired school principal from the Christina District.

Housing Services

Neighborhood House' Housing Services provided counseling to 712 unduplicated households in 1996. One hundred thirty eight families became homeowners for the first time. This represents over $11,500,000 in mortgage dollars leveraged.

A total of $23,647 was spent to assist one hundred nine families maintain or acquire housing.

Child Care

One hundred twenty five children, ages one to twelve, were enrolled in child care. The program is licensed by the State of Delaware and participates in the Child Care Food program.

1998 GOALS

1. Promote community and economic development.
2. Provide a range of services and resources to help families and individuals develop long-range solutions to their problems and needs. MISSION STATEMENT

In keeping with the strong religious heritage expressed by our founders in 1954, we are committed to providing the highest possible quality of life for the older adults whom we serve. We meet their changing needs compassionately and efficiently by maintaining our leadership in standards of excellence in retirement and health care services. We affirm the individuality and dignity of our residents and employees, strive for diversity among them, and pursue our ministry of care in a socially responsible manner.

STATEMENT OF VALUES

-  We believe in fostering an environment of honesty, integrity, justice, compassion and open communication.
-  We believe in maintaining a caring community of residents, staff, volunteers and their respective families.
-  We believe in adhering to the highest ethical standards.
-  We believe in achieving financial strength and in using sound business practices.
-  We believe in treating our business associates as partners in fulfilling our mission.
-  We believe in carrying out our ministry in a socially responsible manner.

-  We believe in encouraging innovation and welcoming ideas and suggestions.

PUMH continues to provide retirement housing and health care services to approximately 1300 senior adults through the three continuing care retirement communities which it owns (Methodist Country House, Greenville, Delaware; Cokesbury Village, Hockessin, Delaware; Methodist Manor House, Seaford, Delaware), the continuing care retirement community which it manages under contract (Heron Point of Chestertown) and a skilled nursing facility which it also operates under contract (Layton Home, Wilmington, Delaware).

In last year's report I noted that for the past several years we have been up-dating the Methodist Country House and the Methodist Manor House to make them attractive to retirees today. This has meant already over fifteen million dollars of renovation and new construction at the Methodist Manor House and approximately eighteen million dollars in work at the Methodist Country House. We are now planning to add another wing of apartments (Henlopen Wing) at the Methodist Manor House. This will include an aquatic wellness center on the ground floor which will also be open to senior adults of the Seaford area. At the Methodist Country House there continues to be renovation of the studio units into one and two bedroom apartments and the construction is planned of an activity/wellness center. Refurbishments are also being planned for Cokesbury Village, which was opened in 1978.

To help finance new construction projects and to greatly strengthen its benevolence program, PUMH embarked in 1996 on a one and a half million dollars capital campaign for the Methodist Manor House, a million dollar capital campaign for the Methodist Country House, a million dollar capital campaign for Cokesbury Village and a ten million dollar benevolence campaign. We want to increase our ability to enable more people of moderate income to live in our retirement communities. We are also planning some renovation work for the Heron Point health center.

In 1996 we also launched a million dollar capital campaign for work at Layton Home in Wilmington. This is phase two of a two million dollar campaign, the first million having been raised two years ago.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees in September 1996, PUMH presented its George H. Piguero Founders Award to Mrs. Naomi G. Winchester. In June 1996, she retired from PUMH after serving ten years as its aging ministries consultant. She was cited for her outstanding service as a diaconal minister with PUMH in helping local churches and community groups expand and deepen their services to the elderly. She gave special attention to the African American churches and ministers of the annual conference.

At the annual Layton Home dinner in March 1996, the Amelia Layton Founders Award was given to Robert D. Ullrich who had previously also received the George H. Piguero Founders Award. Mr. Ullrich was chairman of the PUMH board when it assumed management responsibility for Layton Home in August 1987. Layton Home residents are predominantly African American and 95% of the residents are on Medicaid. This makes Layton Home the highest provider of Medicaid skilled nursing services in Delaware.

We are deeply appreciative of the continuing support which annual conference churches and persons give to the benevolence work of PUMH. The benevolence assistance which PUMH provided in 1996 to residents unable fully to meet the fees totaled $378,000. As noted above, we wish to expand this amount so we can serve more persons of limited incomes. PUMH has an active annuity program and other charitable instruments through which interested persons can support this important benevolence ministry and also receive income for themselves. Inquiries should be directed to the PUMH fund development office, 302-777-6800.

The following information about PUMH of Maryland, Inc. is printed because the Conference and PUMH of Maryland, Inc. share a common mission although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH of Maryland, Inc.

(A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH of Maryland, Inc. and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, adopted June 5, 1990.)

1996 continued to be a year of growth in terms of the occupancy of Heron Point of Chestertown, Maryland. This facility is owned by PUMH of Maryland, Inc. and is managed under contract by Peninsula United Methodist Homes. As of the end of 1996 the facility had achieved 86% occupancy of its 192 units. Heron Point continues to have a slower fill up then is customary with continuing care retirement communities because it is located in a small town rather than in a densely populated area. Most residents in continuing care retirement communities move from within 15 to 20 miles of the facility. The vast majority of those who choose to live at Heron Point come from areas 50 to 100 miles distant from Chestertown. Thus, it is a far more significant decision to move into Heron Point then to move into most retirement communities because it involves not only moving into a retirement community but for the most part moving out of one's customary area of residence into a new one where one must make new friends, join a new church and create a whole new network of relationships.

The unique thing about Heron Point continues to be the very high proportion of residents who are actively involved in various types of community service activities in Chestertown and surrounding areas. The residents contribute an enormous amount of talent, time and money to these service activities.

In September 1996 the Rev. Kenneth S. Valentine, pastor of Kent Island United Methodist Church, was elected chairman of the Board of Directors.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The major program emphasis in 1996 was the Inter-Campus Retreat, held from April 12 - 14, 1996 at the Carousel Hotel in Ocean City, MD. This was the second annual retreat and its purpose, as in 1995, was to bring together students from all the campuses within our Conference for common learning, worship and social interaction. The further intent was to promote a spirit of communication and cooperation among the various campus ministries. Thirty-six students, thirteen advisors and four facilitators attended the Retreat. There were representatives from Wesley College, Salisbury State University, the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore, Delaware State University, and the University of Delaware. Twenty-five of the participating students filled out evaluations, which were overwhelmingly positive. Their responses indicated that the Retreat was indeed successful in fostering communication, intellectual exchange and spiritual growth among those who participated. Concerns that will need to be addressed in planning future retreats include the increasing cost of holding the event at Ocean City, and some negative feedback in the area of the worship experiences, particularly with regard to the need for more diversity in worship and music.

The Board once again hosted a representative from the Black College Ambassador program. Mr. Stirling Norris visited our Conference in June and addressed Annual Conference during his visit. Dr. Homer Minus acted as host for the Board and organized Mr. Norris's itinerary. The purpose of continuing support of this program is to promote the Black College Fund in our Conference.

The Board also continued to support the Methodist Student Day Offering in 1996, and we were pleased that $418.55 was contributed. We would like to work next year to see that amount increased. The Board awarded two Merit Scholarships, which were funded by the ten-percent return to the Conference from Student Day offerings. The recipients were John Wesley Moore, a student at Wesley Seminary, who plans to minister to the Native American community, and Clarence Franklin Beauchamp, who is attending Wesley College.

The Board promoted Africa University with a display at Annual Conference in 1996. Additionally, a video on the work of that University was presented for our Board members at our June, 1996 meeting.

At its December, 1996 meeting the Board voted to make program grants of $250 to the Wesley Foundations of each of our five campuses. We have asked that the campus ministers report back to us on the use of these funds during 1997.

Mrs. Eileen Schuchardt continued to serve faithfully as our Board secretary during 1996, and we are grateful for her dedication and energy.

1998 GOALS

We will work to facilitate communication between our local churches in the Conference and campus ministries in order to insure that our students, wherever they may be studying, will be aware of and encouraged to become part of the campus ministries at their institutions. We will have in place by 1998 a mechanism (being developed in 1997) for local church ministers to report to the Board where young people in their congregations are studying.

We will also encourage local churches to sponsor programs on campus ministry with speakers provided by our Board and our campus ministers.

We will also work to develop a video on campus ministry in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to be made available to local churches. Further we will continue to distribute a Guidebook for Campus Ministry, to be developed in 1997.

We will distribute to all local churches information on United Methodist loan and scholarship opportunities, and we will continue to fulfill our role in selecting recipients of the Conference Merit Scholarship(s).

We will, after a two-year interval, assume our responsibility as a Board to assess the work of our campus ministries. We will evaluate the ministry at Salisbury State University in 1998.

We will hold an Inter-Campus Retreat or other event(s) to promote spiritual growth, cooperation and communication among the students and ministers involved in campus ministry in our Conference.

Finally, we will continue to host a Black College Ambassador at Annual Conference to promote the Black College Fund; we will continue and increase our commitment to and support of Africa University; and we will promote United Methodist Student Day.

Wesley Foundation
Wesley College

Wesley College continues to live out its mission by providing an education leading to associate and baccalaureate degrees for its students. Wesley made major decisions to enhance its programs and update learning technology available for student use. Our computing capabilities have significantly increased and Wesley has added limited access to the Internet. In support of its students, faculty, and staff, Wesley uses the financial support of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in three areas: Chaplaincy Program, Student financial Aid, and Direct Program Support. The Financial Aid categories include ethnic minority scholarships, pre-ministry scholarships, aid to dependents of United Methodist Clergy, and nursing scholarships.

We offer 20 baccalaureate and four new master's degrees. Our graduate programs in education and nursing are growing rapidly and our ADN to MSN program, allowing practicing nurses to transition from an associate to a master's degree, is unique in our state. We have revised our curriculum and created a core which brings the entire academic program into collaboration to prepare students to earn a living and live a life. Our dramatic campus master plan will guide us well into the 21st century. Its first expressions are built, dedicated and paid for in the form of a new building at our athletic complex and the complete renovation of a popular student gathering place in the center of the college.

Wesley's target clientele are persons in and beyond the several hundred congregations which constitute Peninsula-Delaware Methodism who desire a college education. Our clientele range from those who are just out of high school to those who are retired and seeking enrichment in their retirement years. With the offering of a Master of Science Degree in Nursing, Wesley targets men and women who are already practicing in the nursing field who have a desire to pursue a graduate degree in nursing.

Our student body is inclusive, embracing adult women and men of all ages, races, religious heritages and nationalities. Though Wesley college is goal-centered, it is also person-oriented. Education is concerned with the whole person. While academic excellence is a primary objective of the College, an education is much more than the sum of all academic work. We encourage all members of the College community to discover and appreciate cultural, aesthetic, and religious realities that are vital to personal growth and development.

Our fine alumni include some very prominent Delawareans, including some elected to state and national office. We are in the service of over a thousand students this year and are a respected asset of a dynamic capital city. Our economic equivalency impact on Dover approaches $40 million. We make our facilities available to many groups, including The Community Singers and the children's Theater, who have proudly presented again and again from the Wesley stage.

Our 12 acres of outdoor athletic facilities serve men's and women's NCAA Division III sports and our record of wins in most sports has ranked us nationally. Since 1989 no senior football player has failed to graduate from the college. We have created a Winterim Study in London and recently expanded it to include Paris. We have opened a Japanese initiative and enjoy a rich international presence on our campus in supplement to American students from 13 states.

We facilitate, and locate on our campus the Wesley College/Dover Century Club Literacy Volunteers of America for Kent County. This summer, with the aid of a $150,000 grant from the Jessie Ball duPont Fund, we will be in the daily aid of approximately 100 students whose needs we will meet in cooperation with the Delaware Boys' and Girls' Club. We have petitioned to be the location of a Charter School and have just joined a community renewal project.

We acknowledge the great good work that God is doing on our campus, in our community, and in our churches, yet, there remains much to be accomplished. Accordingly, every sinew of our being will be stretched to straining in our effort to meet the mandate of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, namely, "to serve [this] present age [our] calling to fulfill".

THE CHAPLAINCY

The Chaplaincy Program continues to give focus in three areas:

- 1.) Providing opportunities for spiritual growth for the Wesley College community.
- 2.) Cooperating with the President, the Trustees, the Bishop, and the leadership of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church, to craft and maintain a meaningful covenant relationship between the College and the Church.
- 3.) To determine those ways in which the values of the Church may be reflected in the conduct of the mission and daily life of the College. Together the Annual Conference and the College have taken on a shared ministry.

Examples of our shared ministry are evident in Wesley's Gift Sharing Program as local churches and pastors are consulting with members of the Wesley community to strengthen local church programs, or design continuing education opportunities. Another example of shared ministry is the cooperation between Camp Pecometh and Wesley College. This June, Wesley and Pecometh sponsored the second annual Computer Camp on the Wesley College campus. Discussions between Wesley College and the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Health and Welfare Ministry within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Ms. Jennifer Cinelli, a Junior at Wesley College, continues to serve as student intern for the 1996 Delaware Legislative Session in order to bring before the Board of Church and Society legislative updates on Bills and Hearing Schedules, while keeping legislators in Delaware familiar with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.

Our shared ministry is one that gathers strength and momentum as we seek to forge new paradigms for mission and ministry, while simultaneously being faithful to the vital message of God's grace, love, and justice in a complex world. We understand that our future must be grounded in our heritage, our theological perspective, and our sense of responsibility; but most of all it must be grounded on a firm missional foundation that will carry us into the twenty-first century.

1998 GOALS

1. To continue to enhance recruitment and retention and to implement methodologies which will discover students who will value the mission of the college and bond quickly with the Wesley College experience.
2. To strengthen our gift income yield that our program-driven Campus Master Plan may be implemented in a timely manner and introduced to a wider and wider constituency of interested persons.
3. To continue the daunting process of a meticulous self-study in preparation for Wesley's next regularly scheduled on-site reaccreditation visit from the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Accrediting Association. It will take more than a year to prepare effectively for this critically important examination. All constituencies of the college will become engaged with the self-study process.

4. To cooperate increasingly with the Church in engaging the Church and Wesley College together in outreach to the wider community while giving steady witness to reflecting the values of the Church in the life and activities of the college.
5. To continue to craft policies and take actions which will contribute to the creation of a holistic campus environment of common purpose, caring, tolerance, inclusiveness, responsibility, and service which is the heart of our idea of community.
6. to continue giving emphatic attention to making real our resolve to bring ethnic minorities into the mainstream of the college.

Wesley Foundation

Wesley Foundation at Delaware State University (D.S.U.) participated in the Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration on Campus. April 12-13-14 we had our Intercampus Retreat at Ocean City, MD. This retreat brought together campus ministries from campuses within our Peninsula-Delaware Conference boundaries. We were able to take 20 students from D.S.U.

In May we cooperated with the Delaware State University Gospel Choir to have a Gospel Extravaganza. The week of July 21-26 Wesley Foundation was host to the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program on campus for their Summer retreat. This proved to be a really exciting and rewarding venture for HBLEP, Wesley Foundation and D.S.U. Many students and faculty of D.S.U. participated for the first time with HBLEP, and everyone benefitted.

In September we distributed Orientation '96, a magazine for first time college students produced by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. In October we began our weekly meetings with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. November 2nd we worked with other ministries on campus to have a Homecoming evening worship service. November 19-20-21 Wesley Foundation sponsored a religious emphasis week in which other campus ministries participated.

1998 GOALS

1. Continue Sunday Afternoon Worship Services
2. Cooperate with other campus ministries in worship and mission
3. Be a spiritual presence at Homecoming
4. Sponsor a religious emphasis week
5. Visit local churches to talk about campus ministry
6. Support Whatcoat (Dover) Church in its food ministry

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
Salisbury State University

The Wesley Foundation of Salisbury State University had another successful year in 1996. Our Wesley Foundation provided a weekly Bible Study and fellowship for the students at the University. After enjoying food and fellowship, we used a devotional style book along with our study Bibles for our time of study. Included in the topics for study were various issues relating to everyday experiences confronting students on the college level. This provided the students of this organization with the source of support and encouragement for the difficult times they sometimes encountered and dealing with the uncertainty of college life. Our fellowship continues to grow in number.

Salisbury State Wesley Foundation has been involved in several activities both on and off campus. Again this year, we were involved in an intercampus retreat in April in Ocean City, MD. A picnic ending the 1996 spring semester was hosted in Ocean City. Our return in the fall brought forth participation in Homecoming by one of our members in the court. Our group attended a Christian concert in October at the Civic Center in Salisbury. Each of our students does some form of independent volunteer service. As a group in 1996 we adopted a family through social services for Thanksgiving and Christmas. This was a very rewarding and meaningful experience for the students. As a group they also were involved in activities on campus with some of the other activity organizations. Many of the members and I attended worship services at some of the local churches to help make our presence known and to share in their worship experience. We purchased new study Bibles for the new students and a one volume Bible commentary for the students that received Bibles last year. These were presented as Christmas gifts at our last meeting of the Fall semester. Our presence at Salisbury State University is touching students lives with the spirit of hope and the Good News of Jesus Christ. I am genuinely grateful for the opportunity to be a part of this ministry. We continue to thank God for what has been accomplished, and look forward to the coming year for the opportunities it brings.

Vera J. Paterson
Campus Minister

1998 GOALS

1. To provide opportunity for spiritual growth within the college campus setting and to promote outreach to the un-churched at the university campus.
2. Student participation in community outreach through volunteer programs.
3. Encourage members to broaden their Christian experiences by other means outside of our fellowship.
4. Prepare the students for future involvement and leadership in the United Methodist Church.
5. Group service projects.
6. Weekly fellowship to build spiritual awareness through Bible study.
7. Encourage the return of intercampus retreats with the other Wesley Foundations.
8. Outreach to increase membership.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
University of Delaware

The United Methodist Student Movement is alive and well at University of Delaware! We continue to be a vital part of the campus community witnessing in and through our Wesleyan heritage by our presence and our mission for The United Methodist Church. As we encourage the integrating of knowledge and spirituality through an intellectual, spiritual, and material ministry to all God's people, we hold to the vision of the One who has called us to be faithful to the teachings of Jesus the Christ. We are a mission field ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Being in ministry on a campus in the late 20th century provides for interesting and challenging opportunities. The toughest challenge is the raising of funds to support our United Methodist presence at the largest academic institution within the boundaries of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The students are interested in the presence of the church, the administration encourages the presence of the church, yet we as the church struggle to maintain our presence. The Board of Directors have prayed and worked without ceasing to raise the funds necessary to maintain a full-time ministry. The efforts in fund raising have been successful to an extent, however, our expenses continue to increase due to growth. The conference support has not increased for the past nine years.

The covenant with the Newark United Methodist Church provides Wesley Foundation with much support. Many of our students attend weekly worship services and have been liturgists or communion servers. A highlight each year is the one Sunday designated as University Sunday. The students look forward to this Sunday when they provide all the worship leadership and share with the congregation what is happening in campus ministry. Twice a year, this church family prepares Exam Week Survival Bags for the students during a crucial time - FINALS.

Opportunities for multi-cultural, ecumenical and interfaith experiences on campus continues. With this generation being the first generation to come of age in a religiously pluralistic society, they are very interested in how other religious traditions depict Jesus. This leads to overly exuberant eclecticism. The multi-religious dialogue is frequent and interfaith and ecumenical worship is experienced. The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware is known for our multi-cultural commitment as we share in programming with the other communities of faith on campus.

Again this year Wesley Foundation was the leader in the Interfaith Celebration of Lights. The Religious Concerns Caucus sponsored the worship service. Another worship service which Wesley Foundation hosted was the Universal Day of Prayer for Christian Students. Asked by the administration of the university, our campus pastor led an interfaith worship service for Sexual Assault Awareness Week. This worship service was a first for the University of Delaware. These worship services were well attended and have been requested to be repeated in another academic year.

We currently have three former Wesley members involved in professional ministry. Drew Cottle is in his second year at Perkins Theological School. Patty Cleveland is serving in Serbia at the Center for Nonviolent Conflict Resolution through the Brethren Volunteer Service. Angie Burkholder is teaching children in the mission field in Bolivia.

Jesus the Christ is center to all our activities. Our spiritual growth is the center for our lives through retreats, worship, Bible study and Sunday Fellowship. The student lounge provides a quiet, sacred space for the students to meditate, sleep, eat and study. Holding fast to our belief that social activities are an important part of our Christian fellowship, we have shared in parties, sport activities, movie nights, eating, tailgating, Christian rock concerts, hayride, and various other activities. Several students attended the Northeast Jurisdiction Student Movement retreat to help plan for a conference in the fall of 1997. Laura Alexander, an active member of WFCM, was selected to be on the Steering Team for the conference.

Committed to living our Christian discipleship, we continue our service projects in love for the community. We have cleaned our highway, served at Hope Dining Room, served at PeaceMeal, staffed our table at Alternative Christmas, sponsored a Blood Drive and collected gifts for persons living with HIV/AIDS. Several of our students volunteer on the AIDS Hotline, the Literacy Council program, Big Brothers/Sisters and various other community service projects.

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry continues to be in ministry to the whole campus community. Our Campus Pastor/Executive Director serves on the President's Commission to Promote Racial and Cultural Diversity, the Commission on Sexuality, Sexual Assault Awareness Week Team, the Campus Diversity Unit, the Denominational Campus Ministers' group, the University Religious Leaders' Organization, the Religious Concerns Caucus, New Student Orientation Diversity leader, NCBI Welcoming Diversity worship leader, mentor for colleagues in campus ministry (locally and nationally), developing and leading workshops for the professional staff of Residence Life. Pastoral care/counseling is provided to the campus community either by referrals or by individual request.

The vital presence of The United Methodist Church is the University of Delaware through the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry. The United Methodist Student Movement is growing at University of Delaware. God is ever-present in our challenging ministry as we continue to be faithful people, nurturing faithful minds for faithful lives. The church is needed on our campuses. May we as the church never forget the importance of the mission field called a university/college campus. It is part of our Wesleyan heritage.

Laura Lee C. Wilson
Campus Pastor/Executive Director

Mission Statement

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware, a mission carried out in and through the love and grace of Jesus the Christ, provides a program focusing on the spiritual, service, stewardship and social aspects of the Christian life.  10. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.
 11. Foster Board of Directors development.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
University of Maryland Eastern Shore

This has been a significant year for the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, therefore making it a significant year for the Wesley Foundation on campus. Dr. William P. Hytche, after twenty years as President of the university, retired. This was a year of saying goodbye and anticipating what 1997 would bring under the leadership of Dr. Delores Spikes who became President on January 13, 1997.

This has also been a significant year for the Wesley Foundation of U.M.E.S. because the director was changed. The Rev. Jessyca Stansbury-McCargo gave leadership to the Wesley Foundation for one year (July 1, 1995 - June 30, 1996). The Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols became the new director on July 1, 1996. Under the leadership of the Rev. Jessyca Stansbury-McCargo, approximately 15 students attended the Inter-Campus Retreat in Ocean City along with a number of the board of directors from the Wesley Foundation. The Wesley Foundation also celebrated Religious Emphasis Week with the Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr. preaching U.M.E.S. Day at Metropolitan United Methodist Church.

This year, under the leadership of Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols, the regular bible study on Thursday night has continued. Approximately twenty students attend the bible study each week. The students are studying the book of Acts applying it to their present day situations. The Wesley Foundation students also hosted a Christmas party for all of the religious groups on campus. There are regular chapel hours each week so the students can talk to the campus minister/director or set up an appointment that would fit their schedule.

As the Wesley Foundation Campus Minister, I have been invited to give invocation and/or benediction at various occasions giving me the opportunity to be visible to the administration, staff and students. This visibility allows others to be able to more easily seek me out if they need my service.

I am indebted to the board members of Wesley Foundation, Metropolitan United Methodist Church, and the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for giving me the opportunity to serve on behalf of the whole conference in this vital and critical ministry.

Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols
Campus Ministry/Director

1998 GOALS

1. Provide opportunities for students to experience spiritual growth (bible study, etc.)
2. Participate in activities that build relationships with other Wesley Foundations (ex. Inter-Campus Retreat)
3. Participate in mission projects (ex. tutoring, food drive)
4. Encourage students to find places of worship that best express their faith
5. Encourage the relationship that binds Wesley Foundation and U.M.E.S. with Metropolitan and other United Methodist Churches.

BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity had another great year with the effectiveness of the laity and clergy partnerships slowly developing into a closer walk with God for our conference. This year was also a year of transition, but without the knowledge of new directions. Again this year prayer was foremost in our programs, along with new, different, and exciting Bible studies to equip us for the upcoming new directions.

All four Districts had Lay Speaking Schools with 558 people attending both basic and advanced courses. We met our 1997 Goal of 1000 Lay Speakers in January with 124 new Local Lay Speakers completing the basic course. Our new goal will be 1500 Lay Speakers in our Conference. The quality of our District Schools was brought to our attention at one of our schools where 2 people signed up, paid their fee and attended classes. It was discovered that they were not United Methodist, and when notified that they could not be certified, they said that they had heard about the quality of the school and they wanted to learn for themselves what this school had to teach about serving Jesus Christ.

We were disappointed when we had to cancel our Conference wide Local Church Lay Leader and Pastor Partnership Seminars due to problems with the instructor. This was especially hard on us since we had been given a $500.00 seed grant from National Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders (NAACLL). We will fit this program into a future date after the "Transition Team" gives us specific information on training.

The 8th Annual Day Apart for all 5 Boards of Laity was held at Drayton with the Rev. Howard Gordy, Salisbury District Superintendent leading a challenging and inspiring Bible Study on the Gospel of Luke. Rev. Gordy led us through this Gospel to show us that Laity are also "Spiritual Leaders" in our Church.

The Annual Conference Lay/Clergy Banquet was again held separate from the Conference which resulted in attendance of about 400. However, many of the attendees stated that this function filled a need for both Laity and Clergy. The Speaker was Mrs. Joyce Bell, a Professor at Salisbury State University and wife of the Easton District Superintendent. The 1997 Lay/Clergy Banquet will feature Dr. Ben Carson and since he is a great youth motivator, we plan to feature youth. Since we plan to have over 1000 attend, we will hold the Banquet in the Salisbury Civic Center.

The Conference Board of Laity held its Annual Session at the 212th Session of the Peninsula Delaware Conference on June 7, 1996 (The Minutes are printed on Page 236 of the 1996 Conference Journal). The revised "Reporting Guide for Lay Members, 1996" was explained along with acronyms used by our Conference. Darlene Webb, Chairperson of the Nominating Committee, submitted 2 names for election of the Conference Lay Leader. Howard Mason was re-elected for another quadrennium ending in the year 2000. Accomplishment reports were given by UMM, UMW, Director of Lay Speaking, and the 4 District Lay Leaders. Kay Cloud, Chairperson of the Conference Council on Finance & Administration presented detailed information on Budgets and Funding which was very helpful for the Laity to understand the financial structure within the Church.

Other events that the Laity attended during the past year included: NAACL meeting in Glorita, New Mexico; the NEJ Laity assembly in the Catskills of New York; National Lay Speakers Conference in Nashville, TN; the NEJ Conference Leadership Training at Mount Pocono, PA; EPA's Laity Assembly in PA; and the Bishop's Installation in Wilmington. As we travel around the Conference we see many examples of the work and dedication of faithful laity in partnership with Clergy trying to model the Spirit of Christ. As we share our gifts and graces that God has given us, let us know Jesus clearly, dearly, and follow Him more nearly.

THE ORDER OF ST. BARNABAS

The Conference Board of Laity managed the awards for the Order of St. Barnabas. This award is based on "Creative Stewardship" for individuals, churches, and organizations for putting Jesus Christ first in their lives, not only in Target Prayer, but also in their Time, Treasures, and Talents. A sub-committee composed of former awardees chaired by Gene Cray, and managed by the Conference Board of Laity. The sub-committee made the selections and presentations at the lay/Clergy Banquet. The 1996 inductees were:

Individual	- Edna Lewis, Friendship UMC, Powellville, MD
	- Ellen Klages, Kent Island UMC, Kent Island, MD
Group	- The Dream Team, Whalesville/New Hope Charge, Whalesville, MD
Posthumously	- Milbourne F. Hull, Sr., Wesley Temple, Salisbury, MD

All of the individual awardees received a pin and the group received a plaque. The family of Mr. Hull received his pin.

1998 GOALS

1. Re-design the Partnership in Ministry for Local Church Lay Leaders and Clergy in line with the Transition Teams' Plans and Programs.
2. Increase the training of Lay Members and Reserves of the Annual Conference to improve the ministry connectionalism between the Local Church and the Conference.
3. Continue the Lay Speaking training within the Districts in all three of the ministries - Leadership, Caring and Speaking. We work toward a new goal of 1500 Lay Speakers in our Conference. We will set up new training in the Fall/Summer based on the many requests that we have received.
4. Work with District Boards of Laity, UMM, UMW, Youth, Older Adults and all other organized lay groups to establish more Spiritual Leadership within the Laity.
5. Develop and install a plan to help Local Churches increase the lay ministries to ensure that all Laity are truly "Ministers."

6. Work with Conference, Districts and Local Churches to develop a plan to train our Youth in Leadership. First we need to listen to the Youth and have their input in the total plan.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

With the start of a new quadrennium, we have seen 7 new persons join the Board of Pensions and 10 persons who have rotated off the Board. The Board now consists of seventeen members meeting six times a year. We are working hard to make our meetings enjoyable, educational, and productive.

In October 1996 Elaine Wilkerson, Bill Westbrook, Mary Lou Green and Ken Valentine attended the Regional Benefits Conference in Philadelphia sponsored by the General Board of Pensions & Health Benefits. This training seminar was extremely informative for those that attended.

In addition to the regular Board of Pension meetings, the Investment Committee also meets six times a year. The Insurance Benefits Committee, the Pension Luncheon Committee, and the Retirement Seminar Committee meet on an as-needed basis.

The Investment Committee ensures that the investments are well diversified and are earning rates that will eventually allow the Board of Pensions to pay off the unfunded liability. Due to the wise investing of this Committee, we are recommending one of the largest increases in the Past Service Rate, from $328 in 1997 to $344 in 1998.

1998 GOALS

1. A Retirement/Financial Seminar, with continuing education credit, will be held on September 24, 1997, at Wesley College. This event is held for those clergy retiring in the near future, as well as for those clergy who are interesting in learning about financial preparation for future retirement.
2. The Insurance Benefits Committee will be examining the current benefits and looking for ways to improve the Conference insurance coverage. The Committee will also be designing a "basic benefits" document.
3. The Retirement Luncheon was held this year on May 7, 1997, and plans for next year's luncheon are already underway.
4. The Investment Committee will continue to work on ways to decrease our unfunded liability and to generously increase the Past Service Rate annually.
5. The Board of Pensions will continue to send the "Taking Care" magazine to all Pastors and look at other avenues of informing Pastors of other health issues that may be relative to them.

Reminders:

1. Ministers who are appointed to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the first time must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in the medical, dental, life, and pension programs.
 - A. Ministers leaving appointment in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefit programs.

- B. Ministers having changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, adoptions, deaths, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events for enrollment.
2. Each pastor is responsible to keep the Conference Business office and the General Board of Pensions apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary.
3. Local churches are reminded that they are responsible for the full cost of the dependent portion of the health and dental program for their clergy family.
4. You can help contribute to the continued success of our medical program by becoming familiar with and using the preventative medicine provisions of your program. You should also be receiving a publication called "Taking Care." Please take the time to read it. It will benefit you and your medical program.
5. Pastors may call The General Board of Pensions at any time to find out exactly where they are concerning retirement benefits. That toll free # is 1-800-851-2201.

Board of Pensions Resolution

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends the following:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1998 be set at $344 per year of approved service.
2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received by a retired pastor or pastor on disability be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1998. (I.R.S. restricts this allowance to the pastor. The surviving spouse does not qualify.)

Rev. Kenneth S. Valentine
Chairperson

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

At the beginning of this conference year, the Board of Trustees held seven properties that were authorized for disposition. One of these properties has been in litigation since July of 1995.

As of february 1997, four of these properties have been sold or otherwise disposed of and two of the properties are under contract to be sold within the next several months. The litigation on the remaining property is going well (although slowly) and we are hopeful that it will be resolved in this calendar year in favor of the board.

The board meets quarterly and the meetings are well attended by interested members who are participating and have been most helpful. Several members have met with the cabinet on special issues and the board is most appreciative of the cabinet's cooperation.

The board continues its long standing concern for those seldom used churches in our conference that for various reasons are no longer being properly maintained. Where possible, we are trying to influence some decision as to whether to restore these properties or to declare them abandoned.

The funds entrusted to the board continue to be managed by the Merrill Lynch office in Dover. The investment returns have been excellent since they took over the account in 1992 and particularly so during the favorable market of the last several years.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

1996 was a historic year for Barratt's Chapel. The necessary renovations were undertaken to make the Chapel structurally sound. Two large steel beams were run above the ceiling of the Chapel and were anchored at both ends by masonry pillars. The beams now support the weight of the Chapel instead of the walls. A new roof was put on, a new ceiling was put in place and the interior was painted. By the time of Conference, we anticipate that the exterior woodwork will be painted as well. The Commission has nothing but praise for the dedicated and conscientious efforts of the project engineering firm, Ortega Consulting, and South Delaware Masonry, the project's contractor. Their work has secured the Chapel's physical structure for the next century. The Commission also wishes to thank the Conference for its financial contribution to the project. The $100,000 completely covered the cost of the structural renovations and allowed the Commission to pull upon its own financial reserves to pick up the cost of painting and electrical work. (The cost of the project came in on budget - $97,000). The Commission can now pursue a more modest long-range campaign to build up the permanent endowment now that the immediate capital needs of the Chapel were cared for by the conference.

We have had another excellent anniversary service with Dr. William McClain of Wesley Theological Seminary as our preacher. The evening Christmas carol service was also well-attended by all ages, given the nature of the weather. By the time of annual conference, we expect to report that the Northeastern Jurisdictional Commission on Archives and History annual meeting was a great success. It will be held in Lewes on May 20-22, 1997. We have what we feel to be an exciting program for the participants centered upon camp meeting sites around the conference. With our other plans, this should be a memorable time.

By the time of conference, we hope to have resumed contact in regards to the Delaware Conference History. We still have high expectations to work with the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference on the publication of this history.

Barratt's Chapel is a Heritage Landmark (Formerly "shrine") of The United Methodist Church. The Chapel and Museum are open on Saturdays and Sundays from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Other times may be arranged by contacting the Curator, Lynn Hobbs at 302-335-5544. The Chapel and Museum looks to individuals and churches for two-thirds of its financial support. We are always seeking new materials for our collections. If you are interested in making such a contribution, please write: Barratt's Chapel, 6362 Bay Road, Frederica, DE 19946. If you are interested in making a contribution to our permanent endowment fund, please contact Barratt's at 302-335-5544 or Mr. Parke Hess of the Eastern Pennsylvania-Peninsula Conference United Methodist Foundation at 1-800-828-9093.

Chairperson

1998 GOALS

2. Celebrate the anniversary of the meeting of Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury at Barratt's on the second Sunday of November.
3. Continue work on the Delaware Conference History in line with Strategy One of the Ethnic Church Comprehensive Plan.
4. Sponsor a local church history contest and local church video contest.
5. Expand holdings and facilities of the Archives and the Museum.
6. Recruit and train local church historians.
7. Pursue conducting an annual colloquium.
8. Build up the permanent endowment in connection with the Eastern Pennsylvania-Peninsula Conference United Methodist Foundation.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY & INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Bishop's Award for Christian Unity was presented at the Annual Conference Session to Alexis Deshield and Rev. Cheryl Taylor Jensen. This award has become a part of the Annual Conference. It provides recognition and encouragement.

The National Workshop on Christian Unity, which includes people from many denominational backgrounds is a large occasion with several hundred people. It was held in Richmond, Virginia. Attending from our Conference were Diaz Bonville, Gene Cray and his wife, Arelela. She made a very interesting and helpful report to the Commission.

The Commission continues to collect information of ecumenical experiences on the Peninsula. It shares them through the Communicator with a special emphasis on the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity which occurs in January.

In a goal setting session with the Council Director, Jonathan Baker, emphasis was placed on the role of The Christian Council on the Peninsula and what the future prospects are likely to be.

Prospects and Proposal 1998

Our Vision Statement as a Conference calls for us to work "cooperatively". The Commission is one of the most advantageous to help churches in that fashion. The effort begun in 1997 to work with other denominations will be continued, particularly in the covenanting process with the Churches Of Christ Uniting. It is intended to have a workshop on each District to provide resources and insight as well as information about the other denominations which are present on the Peninsula. Members of the Commission, particularly reflecting inquiries from others, have various questions about the need for expanded presence of an ecumenical nature on the Peninsula. They have raised questions concerning the Christian Council. This dialogue will continue.

The Christian Unity Award will continue with the opportunity for churches to nominate someone. Participation in the Christian Unity Workshop, which is a National annual event, will be reviewed each year. Depending on the cost compared with other responsibilities and the distance involved. Involvement of young people from other denominations (particularly COCU) in the annual Youth Conference will add a new dimension to that experience. Some leaders of other denominations will be invited to attend part of our Annual Conference Session. This can become a learning experience as well as recognition for both ourselves and other denominations. These programs and others developed in the meantime will be worked out in greater detail in a planning meeting.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the Discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 1996 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was set for $137,000. Funds expended in 1996 totalled $160,434.87. This was possible due to a $30,746 carryover from the previous year. The 1997 budget was set for $142,000. Compensation requests approved in January exceeded the 1997 budget.

Due to the financial experience of 1996, and due to a lack of confidence in how to accomplish fairly the tasks it has been charged with in the Discipline, this Commission has undertaken a two year study to explore (1) our missional purpose, (2) how we should be interacting with other groups, (3) what guidelines are appropriate and how best to make all interested parties aware of these guidelines should be applied.

Recommendations

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 1997:

Full-Time Elder	$22,100
Full-Time Probationary & Associate Member	$20,200
Full-Time Local Pastor	$18,700
Student Pastor	$15,800

*unless a smaller figure is agreed upon by the District Superintendent, student, and charge.

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 1998 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. (The rate for 1997 is 31.5 cents per mile.) The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duties.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

... But I tell you, if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be judged. If you say bad things to a sister or brother, you will be judged by the council and if you call someone a fool, you will be in the danger of the fire of hell

Matthew 5:22

Jesus speaks against those who insult, ridicule, de-humanize and murder others whom they think themselves superior to. Obviously, those who defame or insult their brothers and sisters have not learned God's lesson of love as it applies to the sacredness and dignity of human beings. Jesus strongly protests against humiliating treatment by one human being towards another because:

a) it is a denial of that person who is created in the image of God. b) such transgression shows a deliberate act of defiance against God.

This passage warns that God will not accept the worship of those who treat their sisters and brothers disdainfully. Consequently, those who mistreat their brothers and sisters stand in the danger of the fires of hell.

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference continues to struggle with racism, how to be inclusive and how can we best celebrate our cultural diversity. Need-less-to-say each of these are critical for the spiritual health of our conference. Our vision for Mission Area Ministry requires that these concerns be dealt with seriously.

The commission began the year with a planning retreat at Drayton manor. During this meeting, we set forth our agenda for the year. In addition, we evaluated last year's activities. These included but were not limited to:

1. White racism workshop--sponsored by the Wilmington District
2. Forum with community leaders, police officials (local and state) teachers and others--resulting from KKK march in Middletown, DE
3. Articles for communicator
 - a) last year's monitoring report of our annual conference proceedings
 - b) material and suggestions discouraging church burning
 - c) served as resource person for local churches and communities dealing with KKK activity
4. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium and Educational Activity:
Theme: One Body in Christ: Our Multicultural Heritage
Award Recipients
Richard Wynder Award--Winona Deputy
S. Lowman Pitts Award--Evenly Townsend
5. Participation in workshop with COSROW

Rev. William T. Wallace, Sr.
Chairperson

1998 GOALS

1. Continue as an advocate for cultural harmony
2. Continue to monitor sessions of annual conference and other conference related agencies, boards and commissions
3. Work toward reconciliation
4. Encourage local churches to participate in Religion and Race activities
5. Select a representative from each district to serve on the commission
6. Dialogue with Board of Ordained Ministry concerning preparation and implementation of cross-cultural appointment
7. Dialogue with District Superintendents and Bishop concerning the appointment process
8. Work toward acceptance of our cultural diversity

The commission attempts to minister to the conference by working toward the suppression of racism through embracing inclusiveness and encouraging acceptance of our diverse cultural heritage.

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

Since May 1996, the Commission on Status and Role of Women has been responding to increased demands by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to live out our role as catalyst, advocate and monitor. To that end we accomplished our first ministry of monitoring at the 1996 Annual Conference. The report has been published and distributed to the Council on Ministries and the Cabinet. It has been used in a report published by the Commission on Religion and Race which appeared in "The Communicator."

Embracing the Conference Vision: "...as the body of Christ, (we) will live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ--boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively through life-changing communities of compassion" Status and Role of Women formed a mission statement in August: We are "...empowered by the vision statement to create within the annual conference an atmosphere where all people are empowered to be full participants." In John 10:10b, Jesus stated his mission in one sentence, "I came that they might have life, and have it abundantly!" according to Laurie Beth Jones, in Jesus CEO. Based on that statement, Status and Role of Women delegates declared to the Transition Team-Structure Workshop on November 2, in Dover, DE that "We exist that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference might have life and have it abundantly by including women!"

In December, Status and Role of Women responded to a two-year old request from the Board of Discipleship. The board asked the commission to function as a catalyst by developing and distributing liturgies to be used in conference-wide worship services confronting Domestic Violence. The liturgies were distributed. To date we have had responses from two churches in the conference which will hold worship services confronting domestic violence in October (Domestic Violence Awareness Month). Additionally, Rev. Leslie Slak is working with Millicent Jones at the Salisbury Life Crisis Center. A Vanguard Against Violence is being formed in cooperation with like agencies fostered by the State of Maryland. Plans for an ecumenical Worship Service on the Salisbury Court House Steps in April (Victim's Awareness Month) were in the works as of this printing. Also, because of the mailing, one speaking engagement concerning the United Methodist Church's response to Domestic Violence and Battered Women was scheduled for March. It is planned as of this printing to reach approximately 50 United Methodist Women in Delaware.

In December 1996, final plans were put in place for Status and Role of Women to move into its advocacy mode as we invited other Peninsula-Delaware Boards and Agencies to our annual training event at Drayton. Fifteen persons attending, with the majority from the Commission. Cecelia Long, general secretariat from the General Commission on Status and Role of Women conducted the training session. Agencies represented: Board of Discipleship, Council on Ministries, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Cabinet.

Again in the role of advocate, in July 1996, we chose to support our Conference missionaries to Africa: Mrs. Mildred Hamilton (O12 190-OAZ) and The Rev. Donald Hamilton (O12 190-OAZ) by sending a grant of $400.00

1998 GOALS

1. To accomplish The Planning Phase of a one time only, Fall 1998 Convocation confronting domestic violence in medium and small populations: target audience professional who address domestic violence in society, especially clergy and members of the justice system.
Desired results:
 - a. To provide networking between Delmarva clergy and professionals confronting domestic violence
 - b. To provide a forum to address the need for safe-houses on the Delmarva Peninsula
 - c. To provide clergy women, clergy men and laity an opportunity to work together confronting a critical justice issue
2. Advocate a growing commitment to appointing women clergy based on gifts and graces as matched to the local church.
 - a. Produce COSROW history video of first members
 - b. "Flyer" continued to be mailed to members, clergy, UMW president, UMM president
 - c. Ministry of monitoring to help local agencies celebrate successful inclusiveness efforts
 - d. Support clergy women day apart
3. Continue to educate the conference to our role as advocate, catalyst, and monitor.
 - a. Continue expanded training sessions annually for local church and other agencies in cooperation with Status and Role of Women training event
 - b. Monies set aside for training events to develop individuals in the ministry of Status and Role of Women

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA-PENINSULA CONFERENCE
UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

The Foundation maintains offices in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania and Dover, Delaware. As a member of the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, we are provided with resources and coverage throughout the United States.

Last year, we provided financial consulting services to individuals, churches, agencies, and institutions. We continued our emphasis on financial planning, estate planning, and planned giving. By stimulating planned giving, we particularly helped local churches acquire new assets. In addition, we continued our successful program to establish and promote endowment funds in our local churches. On August 1, 1996, we added the Reverend George N. Leathrum of Townsend, Delaware to the Foundation's staff on a part-time basis.

We expanded our function of managing assets as a trustee, executor, investment adviser, investment custodian, and investment manager. The Foundation is the investment manager for an increasing number of Conference agencies, corporations, local churches, and individuals. We currently manage approximately 100 accounts. With regard to investing, the Foundation carries out the directives of the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church as written in the Book of Discipline.

Next year, we plan to promote our investment management services to clients that desire to invest in equity, fixed income, and money market investments. In addition, we plan to publish materials that will describe all of the Foundation's services throughout the Eastern Pennsylvania and Peninsula-Delaware Conferences. We will be playing a significant role in providing stewardship guidance for local churches, Barratt's Chapel, camping programs, and youth ministries.

The Foundation involves itself with wills, trusts, taxation, securities, life insurance, annuities, retirement plans, real estate, etc. Meetings and seminars are conducted on a regular basis and individual counseling sessions are conducted in a confidential manner. We continue to urge each local church to establish an ongoing emphasis on wills by forming a Planned Giving Committee. The Foundation provides resources and personnel to help any church establish and carry out this urgent work. We distribute the "Planned Giving Handbook," prepared by the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, and other written material free of charge.

The Foundation represents all United Methodist congregations and causes, therefore, it is prepared to assist people who wish to make lasting contributions to churches, institutions, and mission programs or services. For additional information, please call Parke H. Hess, Executive Director, at 1-800-828-9093 or write to him at P.O. Box 820, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania 19482-0820.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Purpose:

United Methodist Men shall be a creative supportive fellowship of men who seek to know Jesus Christ, to grow spiritually and to seek daily his will. The primary purpose is to declare the centrality of Christ in the lives of men and all their relationships.

The major concerns are:

1. to encourage knowledge of and support for the total mission of The United Methodist Church
2. to engage in evangelism by sharing the fullness of the gospel in its personal and social dimensions
3. to clarify and speak to the identify and role of the man in contemporary society
4. to seek commitment to discipleship
5. to study and become familiar with The United Methodist Church, its organization, doctrines, and beliefs;
6. to cooperate with all units of United Methodist Men in obtaining these objectives through district, conference, jurisdiction, and church-wide goals.

This year the United Methodist Men will begin to restructure under the New General Commission on United Methodist Men, which was approved by the 1996 General Conference.

As we move forward, we solicit the prayers and total support of the whole church family.

We challenge every church to start and chapter a United Methodist Mens Group, also challenging each and every pastor, male or female to become involved in the work of the United Methodist Men in their church, community, district and conference. We challenge every man and pastor to become a member of the Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life Program. This is an on-going program that will help the United Methodist Men to become a self supportive organization.

We invite men of all ages to get involved spiritually, physically and mentally with the United Methodist Mens Groups in their church, community, district and conference.

We continue to recognize that there must be a firm commitment by all men to stand up and become witnesses for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and the spread the good news of the gospel.

1998 GOALS

1. Increase E.M.S. memberships by 50%.
2. Establish United Methodist Groups in every church.
3. Become self supporting by 2001.
4. To have a United Methodist Mens Sunday throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
5. To continue our ministry in our current programs:
 - (a) Boy Scout Programs
 - (b) 4-H Programs
 - (c) Link Ministry
 - (d) Moving Members Program
 - (e) Men in Mission Program
 - (f) Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life

In September 1996, we had our annual retreat at Camp Pecometh. Our Bishop Peter Weaver opened our retreat with a dynamic message. He challenged us to launch out into the deep and cast our nets on the other side and to become real fishers of men. Rev. Terry Lee from Promise Keepers help to make every praise service a joyful one. Rev. Glenn James of Simpson United Methodist Church led us in a dynamic Bible study, and Rev. Bill Ross of the Nanticoke Charge, Seaford closed our retreat with a dynamic message. Once again he also had the most men from any charge to attend (10 plus). This was another very high spirited weekend.

On July 11-13, 1997 the 7th Annual Congress of United Methodist Men will take place at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana. The Peninsula-Delaware Conference will take a bus.

September 6-7, 1997 will be our Annual Mens Retreat at Camp Pecometh.

As we strive to make a difference in the life of the church, we recognize the need for spiritual growth among men, their families, and in their daily responsibilities. With God's help and the support of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference we will make that difference.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women are truly women in mission in Peninsula-Delaware Conference. This past years achievements have been exceptional. Women's Division recognized us with certificates for attaining 100% reporting of all 325 units, making and exceeding our pledge (total submitted $132,561) and being second in the US by increasing membership by 620 members. We go forward knowing that we are making a difference in women, youth and children in a mission that affirms the wholeness of the gospel and in our commitment to proclaim the gospel.

Fifty-five women joined in prayer, study and reflection using Woodie White's "Conversations of the Heart" as a guide. Rev. Olivia Costango showed us how conversation refreshes, stimulates, heals and can be a true gift, when we met at Drayton Manor on March 15-17.

Ezion-Mt. Carmel in Wilmington district hosted the spring annual event on April 20, 1996. The theme "Living Your Faith Through Mission, Gifts and Music" was carried out with local units sharing ways they serve in mission. Aldersgate UMC handbell choir performed and five star units were recognized.

On June 7th at Annual Conference, a five minute slide presentation on United Methodist Women was made to show the projects, events, scope and breadth of women in mission in this conference.

On June 22nd, sixty-eight young women met at Drayton Manor in studying "Unnamed Women of the Bible" in which the facilitator showed how women everywhere use their gifts to serve God in different ways.

Eighty-four enthusiastic members traveled to Hartford, CT on May 3-5 for the Northeast Jurisdiction quadrennial meeting. This multi-cultural event was attended by over 1500 women. The highlight of the meeting was election of Nancy Leathrum to Director of Women's Division and Louise Hess as alternate.

The conference mission project was a major undertaking and a huge success in collecting school and medical supplies for our missionaries, the Hamiltons, who left for Zambia in August.

"Living God's Vision for a Just World" was the theme for the School of Christian Mission at Salisbury State July 25-28. Studies on John Wesley, China and Hong Kong, and Living in a Multi-cultural Society was an educational growth experience. Joanne Beaver, the Reverends Daniel Shin, Lawrence Livingston, Susan Keirn Kester, Mae Etta Moore and Mark Pruett-Barnett answered the call to be study leaders and were equally exceptional in their endeavors to teach 165 participants. They attended Regional School at Salisbury in June to get certified.

Louise Hess was able to meet with new ministers at an orientation meeting at Drayton on August 5th in an effort to inform what UMW is--its purpose and how having a UMW can be a vital part of the church.

The first Mission Encounter to vision the understanding of "What Mission Is" came into fruition on September 23rd at Neighborhood House under the leadership of Esther Kenney. Representatives from each district worked at hands-on projects at the Center in order to become familiar with what this National agency does so similar projects can be held in their districts.

On November 2, the fall annual meeting at Wesley Temple in Salisbury began with the Praise Dancers. Rev. Norma Bailey led a Wesleyan Covenant Service and Communion following the business meeting and installation of officers by Rev. Howard Gordy, Jr.

District officer training at Whatcoat UMC in Camden on November 16 had an emphasis on the new structure. Twenty members of the team worked at Sandy Cove on December 7 and 8 planning next year's work, setting goals and evaluating past events.

C. MEMOIRS

CLERGY

Robert Wilkins Helms

Robert Wilkins Helms was born February 6, 1933 in Dover, DE, the younger of two sons born to David Clark and Edith Wilkins Helms. While still very young, the family moved to Wilmington where Bob was educated in the public schools, graduating from P.S. DuPont High School in 1950. His early Sunday School training was in the Silverbrook and Peninsula Methodist Churches, but as a teen-ager he became a "drop-out". Then a friend invited him to camp-meeting at Brandywine Summit Camp which aroused a never-to-die interest in Christ and His Gospel. Bob writes "At 17, I was converted, baptized, and became a member of McCabe Memorial Methodist Church." Shortly thereafter, the family moved out of the city to McDaniel Crest and transferred their membership to Aldersgate. There during the formative years of young adulthood, Bob developed a close relationship with Dr. Gerald Foster and the late Rev. James Hughes, and both of these pastors encouraged him to hear God's call to the ordained ministry.

He graduated from Bob Jones University in 1955 with a B.S. degree in Radio/TV Speech, for his goal then was to become a Christian broadcaster. But the Lord was calling him to pastoral ministry, so he went to Temple University School of Theology where he graduated in 1958 with an S.T.M. degree. He was ordained Deacon in 1957 and Elder in 1959.

His first church assignment came in 1956 while still a student, an appointment to Minquadale. It was this same year that he and Florence Jane Wolf were married on June 9, 1956. Bob retired at the 1996 session of Conference. Bob and Florence celebrated 40 years of marriage with a lovely dinner party with family and friends, a celebration which also marked their partnership in ministry.

He was pastor of the following charges: Minquadale 1956-58; Cherry Hill, MD, 1958-60; Galena, MD, 1960-63; Church Hill, MD, 1963-66; Peninsula-McCabe, Wilmington, DE, 1978-85; Atonement Church, Claymont 1985-88; Christ Church, Roselle, 1988-91; and Emmanuel and Friendship Churches in Townsend 1991-96. His longest pastorate was Ebenezer Church, Pike Creek 1966-78 during which time this small but strong rural church became a rapidly growing, vital suburban congregation. Under his leadership the new sanctuary, Sunday School classrooms and offices were built. After retirement the Helms again became part of the worshipping congregation at Ebenezer.

Bob never lost his interest in broadcast media and in communications. At Church Hill he had a weekly devotional broadcast over the Chestertown radio station, and for ten years he conducted the "Word & Music" program over station WNRK in Newark. For several years, he chaired the Peninsula Conference TV, Radio, and Film Commission, now called Committee on Communications.

Bob loved Christ's whole church and had a deep concern for better relations between the so-called main-line churches and the evangelicals. He never vacillated in his own evangelical convictions and gave clear witness to them. But he was always willing to listen to others and to dialogue in the spirit of openness and love. He wrote a few years ago that he had been given a burden for bringing these two parts of the church closer together, and called himself "An evangelical in a main-line denomination." He once served on the Administrative Board of the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency at the same time he was Secretary of the Delaware Association of Evangelicals. His close friends commented that "even when he disagreed with your position, he listened to your point of view." He tried to live out John Wesley's ideal: "On essentials - unity; on non-essentials - liberty; but always - charity."

Bob loved the Brandywine-Summit Camp, not only for the beauty of its setting and its worship opportunities, but because of its place in his conversion. For some 30 years the Helms family have owned a cottage there and Bob has served as Trustee and Treasurer.

One of the important ways Bob served Christ beyond the local church was his service on the Wilmington District Committee on the Ordained Ministry. For more than 11 years he chaired that committee, interviewing persons who were exploring God's call, helping them to sort through that calling and then enabling them to start the steps toward ordination.

Bob enjoyed his hobby of electronics, like building a color TV set himself, or working on sound systems and bringing them up to date. He was mechanically inclined and enjoyed doing the maintenance on his cars. He had keen interest in motion picture films and loved to talk about their theological implications with friends.

1996 was a traumatic year for the Helms family. In addition to Bob's retirement and moving into their own home at 18 Cardenti Court, Aspen Woods, Newark, DE 19702, he underwent an unexpected surgery in March which revealed cancer. Chemo therapy and radiation came next, followed by long weeks of declining health, weakness, pain, and weariness. On Tuesday, February 4, 1997 he passed on to his new life with the Lord, just two days before his 64th birthday. His body was laid to rest in the burial ground of Ebenezer Church, Polly Drummond Hill Road, Newark on Friday, and a beautiful Memorial Service celebrating his life and "Homegoing" was held at Ebenezer Church on Sunday afternoon, February 9, with more than 500 family, friends, and church leaders present. The Rev. Robert Starrett, Senior Pastor of the church, presided, and two clergy representatives of his peers in ministry participated: The Rev. Edwin W. Miller, a retired Baptist who for many years pastored Immanuel Baptist Church in Wilmington represented the evangelical community with whom Bob worked and fellowshiped, and The Rev. Bill Hemphill who symbolized the many facets of his life and service in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Several people stepped forward from the congregation during the service and witnessed to how God touched their lives through his ministry.

Robert Helms is survived by a loving family: his wife, Florence; his son, Scott J. of Chester, PA; daughter, Sherrill C. Mullenix of Silview, Wilmington; his brother, David C. Jr. of Strafford, PA; and three grandchildren, Shaun, Jessica, and Joanne.

Throughout his ministry, Bob's life bore testimony to the truth of the Scriptures as he preached the transforming power of the Risen Christ and as he sought to keep his personal life open to the indwelling power of the Spirit.

"Jesus! the name high over all, in hell or earth or sky;
angels and mortals prostrate fall, and devils fear and fly.

Jesus! the name to sinners dear, the name to sinners given;
it scatters all their guilty fear, it turns their hell to heaven.

His only righteousness I show, his saving truth proclaim;
'tis all my business here below to cry, 'Behold the Lamb'.

Happy, if with my latest breath I may but gasp his name, preach him to all and cry in death, 'Behold, behold the Lamb'.

He was ordained as Deacon in the former Delaware Conference in 1964 by the late Bishop Edgar A. Love. In 1967 he was ordained an Elder in the former Peninsula Conference by Bishop John Wesley Lord.

In 1961 he was appointed by the late District Superintendent, Rev. Crawford Trader of the former Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church to the Marydel Charge where he served until 1970. During his thirty-two years of service, he pastored Still-Pond Coleman Charge 1970-1977; Oxford-Williamburg Charge 1977-1981; Pocomoke Charge 1981-1983; Lincoln-Milford Harrington Charge 1983-1986; Girdletree Charge 1986-1989; Deal Island-St. Charles Charge 1989-1993.

Retiring in 1993, he became a member of Wesley Temple United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland where he sang with the United Methodist Men's Choir.

He was a former member of various ministerial alliances, served on several boards of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and was a past-president of the Kent County, Maryland NAACP.

He was united in holy matrimony to Miss Gwendolyn Cain September 20, 1969. They shared a marriage of love, respect and commitment. Survivors include wife Gwendolyn, son Derek Allen of Atlantic City, NJ; daughter Jackie Roberts of Easton, MD.

Rev. Roberts died suddenly September 15, 1996. A home-going celebration was held on Saturday, September 21, 1996 at Wesley Temple United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland. Rev. Howard Gordy, Salisbury District Superintendent, officiated and was assisted by Rev. Grant L. Johnson, Pastor. Interment was on Monday, September 23, 1996 at Maryland Veteran's Cemetery, Hurlock, Maryland.

The presence of God was always evident in the life of Rev. Roberts. He possessed the "Fruits of the Spirit," love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness and temperance. He had a great love for the Word of God and for the upbuilding of God's kingdom. He loved the songs of the Lord and always kept a song in his heart. He was a dedicated man of God, who even during failing health, pressed his way to the house of the Lord of worship and gave Him glory. He made many friends along his life's journey - friends who will cherish his memory.

Charles Harvey Squires

Charles Harvey Squires was born November 18, 1911 to the late Dr. James and Martha (Cann) Squires in Wilmington, Delaware.

Harvey, as he was called by most people, received his elementary and high school education in the public schools of Wilmington. He attended Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where he received in 1938 two bachelor degrees, a Bachelor of Science in Education and a Bachelor of Science in Sacred Theology. In 1943 harvey received his Master's Degree in Sacred Theology from Temple University.

At the age of eight, Harvey committed his life to Christ and announced to his classmates that he was going to be a preacher. As a child he was very sensitive to the needs of others and often gave his candy money to the poor. Harvey preached his first sermon, "The Prodigal Son," in July 1933 at the Wilmington Sunday Breakfast Mission.

Harvey was ordained a Deacon in 1938 and an Elder in 1941. His first pastorate was at Girdletree, Maryland in 1938. At that time he did not have a car so he walked wherever he needed to go on dirt roads. Cars would pass him blowing dust in his face and sometimes mud on his clothes. In addition to his pastorate at Girdletree, he served the following churches:

1939	Willards
1940-1943	Bayside
1944-1946	Hurlock-Unity
1947	Newark
1948-1953	St. Andrews, Salisbury
1954	Ocean City
1955-1956	Cheswold
1957-1958	Dagsboro-Bethel
1959-1963	Perryville-Asbury
1964-1967	Vienna
1968-1969	Galena
1970-1972	Hopewell-Ebenezer

Harvey retired in 1977 and lived in Havre de Grace, Maryland. He was appointed Pastor Emeritus of the Perryville United Methodist Church in 1980 and served in that position until his death.

On November 22, 1944 harvey married Aileen Perry Squires. Harvey and Aileen shared a bond of love, devotion, and religious fervor which lasted for 52 years. They had three children, Diane J. Smith of Havre de Grace, Maryland; Charlene S. Johnston of Severna Park, Maryland; and James L. Squires of Perryville, Maryland. He is also survived by five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Harvey loved his family and they were his main interest. In addition he enjoyed reading, music, traveling, chess and politics. He also collected music boxes. Harvey was a member of Harmony Lodge No. 53 AF and AM in Port Deposit, Maryland; a 32nd Degree Mason Scottish Rite of the Valley of Baltimore and the Valley of Salisbury, Maryland; and member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter #27, Havre de Grace, Maryland.

Harvey died of congestive heart failure on May 10, 1997 at Harford Memorial Hospital in Havre de Grace, Maryland. A Service of Death and Resurrection was held on May 13, 1997 in Perry United Methodist Church with the Rev. Susan Keim Kester, District Superintendent, and the Rev. Dr. Vernon L. Schmidt officiating. Internment was in Junior Order Cemetery, Preston, Maryland.

Charles Harvey Squires was a kind, gentle man, a deeply committed Christian, and a man of God who walked daily with the Lord. We will be forever grateful for the example he gave, for the Spirit filled life he lived, and for the joy he gave to his family and friends.
