III. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Thursday, June 3, 2004 Clergy Session University of Maryland Eastern Shore Princess Anne, Maryland

The Clergy Session began at 1:00 p.m. The Rev. Grant L. Johnson, vice-chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, opened the Clergy Session by leading the members of the clergy session in the singing of several hymns. The Rev. Karen Bunnell, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, greeted those assembled. The Rev. Eleanor Laws addressed the body concerning the Clergy Family Assistance Fund. An offering in support of the that fund was then taken.

The business of the session began with the Rev. K. Wayne Grier, registrar of the Board, introducing the candidates. Bishop Peter D. Weaver greeted each candidate, presented each to the body, and invited questions. Members of the body offered affirmation and support for the candidates.

Corporate Accountability - - Karen Bunnell, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry
"Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?"
(P.604.4, 605.6 [2000])

The Bishop and District Superintendents:

In almost every case, our clergy members are blameless in life and character. The performance of every ordained minister and local pastor has been reviewed by the Bishop and Cabinet. Where there is concern or basis for a grievance, it is being pursued with the knowledge of the member involved.

Concluding Worship

Following the business of the Clergy Session, the body shared a corporate remembrance of baptism, and were sent forth with prayer.

The 220th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference
Friday, June 4, 2004
Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center, University of Maryland Eastern Shore
Princess Anne, Maryland
"Walking in Faith: Shaped by the Word & Empowered by the Spirit"

The 220th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference opened at 9:00 a.m. with a worship celebration. The Annual Conference theme was "Walking in Faith: Shaped by the Word." Host District Superintendent Thomas Donnachie III greeted conference members as they "were coming to Church." "Prayer partners" from a variety of cultures led in praying the Lord's Prayer. This opening worship experience included the presence and participation of children and youth.

Bishop Peter D. Weaver was greeted by the Annual Conference with a standing ovation for what would be his final session as presiding bishop. His sermon, based on Philippians 2:1-11, explored the question: "Is this what Jesus had in mind?" He lamented the Church's debating relatively insignificant matters while neglecting human need, lacking a concern for Christian compassion. We should seek to discern whether our actions provide security and access to Christ for the most vulnerable among us, whether we are blocking that access, or simply ignoring misery and despair.

Celebration of Ministry

Karen Bunnell, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, invited the retiring clergy and spouses to come forward. Each retiring clergyperson was introduced by David Bennett, and was featured in a video presentation.

The ministry of the laity was recognized. Bishop Weaver recognized those who have participated in Disciple Bible Study, Faith Quest, Christian Believer, Alpha, Walk to Emmaus and Chrysalis, Lay Academy, Local Church Leader Training, Jurisdictional and National Training, Covenant Discipleship Groups, Parish Nurse Training and other Health Ministries, United Methodist Youth Fellowship (UMYF), United Methodist Men (UMM), United Methodist Women (UMW), and Bishop's Day on the District.

Karen Bunnell invited all local pastors to stand. The Bishop asked the traditional questions, authorized the service of local pastors in the charges to which they are appointed, and together with conference members thanked God for them. He also asked God to prepare them for ministry so that the Church may increase through their labors.

Wayne Grier, the Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, introduced those to be commissioned as probationary members in preparation for the order of elder:

Barbara Heath Auer
Bernadette Monoray Beckett
Christina Marie Blake
Ruth Danese Taylor Collins
Lawrence Hasty Purnell, Sr.
Daniel Richard Walton, Sr.

The Bishop asked the traditional questions, and prayed for those to be commissioned. Karen Bunnell asked all current probationary members to stand. She then presented the following for admission as :

Full Members and Ordination as Deacon:

Larry Lee Ganster
Sharon Kay Graves

Full Members and Ordination as Elder:

Derrick Emmanuel Porter
Maleia Ann Rust
Robbie Britton Townsend
Amy Danielle Yarnall

Bishop Weaver examined the candidates using the "historic questions" in accordance with the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. The candidates responded satisfactorily. The body prayed that these candidates would be sent into His harvest, be filled with the Holy Spirit, be kept safe against danger and temptation, and that God might hasten the coming of His kingdom. Bishop Weaver then presented the full member deacons and elders to the body.

Grant Johnson, Vice Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, announced the clergy anniversaries.

The ritual of the Passing of the Mantle was introduced by Ann Wilson, a member of the retiring class, who read II Kings 2:1-15. The mantle was passed from the shoulders of Carol Johnson, retiring, to Derrick Porter, a representative of the class of those to be ordained. Darlene Webster, Conference Lay Leader, led the laity in pledging to support the class of ordinands, as they had supported those retiring. The Bishop then concluded the Celebration of Ministry with prayer.

Bishop Weaver then called the 220th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to order. He introduced the Host District Superintendent, Thomas Donnachie, III, who welcomed conference members on behalf of the Easton District.

Greetings were forthcoming from our gracious hosts at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. Charlotte Nichols introduced Dr. Wanda M. Colston, Executive Vice President of UMES. She shared highlights of new and revived programs this past academic year. She warmly welcomed Annual Conference members and extended hospitality on behalf of the entire staff. The Bishop expressed gratitude to the University.

Covenant of Accountability: James T. Seymour introduced a video entitled, "Becoming the Beloved Community." This resource was developed by the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in consultation with the General Commission on Religion and Race. Doris Blake offered a reminder about the power of language. Howard Mason read Hebrews 2:1-2 and recommended the "Nurturing Wholeness in the Community" workshop. It was announced that members of the monitoring team would be wearing yellow badges.

The Bishop introduced Clara Franks, a member of the Committee on the Episcopacy and James Brooks, a member of Scott UMC, who are partnering in ministry at the presiding table.

The Rev. Anna Foster, pastor of Oxford-Water UMC, shared grace for the noon meal.

Friday Afternoon, June 4, 2004

At 2:00 p.m., Helen Lockwood, the Easton District singers, and William Lake at the keyboard, led the Conference in gathering praise. Seated at the presiding table were our lay partners for this plenary session, Yvonne Paxton, District Lay Leader, and Bill Paxton, from the Rock Hall United Methodist Church.

Adoption of Agenda: Boyd Etter, Conference Secretary, moved the adoption of the agenda. It was adopted by the body.

Rules of Order: The Conference was directed to these rules, and to Resolution R-8, a resolution to update Rule #25.

RESOLUTION TO UPDATE RULE #25

Rule 25: Membership of the Annual Conference consists of an equal number of clergy and of lay members.

When the Conference Secretary determines that lay members number fewer than clergy members, lay membership in the annual conference shall be increased to equal the number of clergy members. To provide for the increase, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference designates (1) each charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, shall elect one additional lay member; each charge having more than one clergy member appointed shall elect, in addition to the lay members equaling the number of clergy appointed, an additional lay member when enrolling more than 1,000 members and an additional lay member for each increment of 500 members thereafter. Charges shall give priority to the consideration and election of youth and young adult members. (2) Lay persons in the following positions shall be included as an equalization lay member as needed: Officer of the Annual Conference; voting member of the Vision Team; Chairperson (or equivalent) of a conference level Team, Board, Committee, Commission or Council; Associate Conference Lay Leader(s); Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, District Council Chairperson; District United Methodist Women president; District United Methodist Men president; Lay persons, from this Conference, serving on General Boards, Commissions, Committees, Councils or Divisions. (3) The Conference Council on Youth Ministries (or equivalent) shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts. Preference should be given to youth who are members of Charges served by a non-voting pastor. For those elected under sections (1) & (2), each charge will inform the Conference Office of who they elected. The CCYM is responsible for informing those elected under (3). All elected under Rule #25 will be included in all pre-conference mailings.

Kevin Goodwin spoke to this resolution. He noted that the recent General Conference did not grant voting privilege to student local pastors. The 2003 Annual Conference authorized a task force to examine the selection of lay members for purposes of equalization of numbers of lay and clergy members in the Annual Conference.

Bishop Weaver ruled the first paragraph from the original draft of the resolution out of order since it proposes changes to the Book of Discipline. Some items reflected in that paragraph were changed by the General Conference and will go into effect January 1, 2005.

The second paragraph of the resolution was properly before the Conference. It was adopted as an amendment to the Rules of Order.

The Bishop recognized those lay and clergy members who were attending their first Annual Conference session.

Organizational and Procedural Motion: The Conference Secretary next moved the adoption of the Organizational and Procedural Motion, Resolution R-1. The resolution was adopted.

2004 ORGANIZATIONAL AND PROCEDURAL MOTION

- N. The Rules of Order shall be those published in the 2003 Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.
- O. In order to be recognized and recorded, persons wishing to speak must give their name and the charge or office through which the person holds membership in the Annual Conference. Persons who are not members of Annual Conference may only speak with the consent of the Conference.
- P. The Conference ushers shall only distribute information pertaining to the presentations given during the plenary session.

The Consent Calendar will be presented for adoption on Saturday June 5, 2004 at approximately 8:45 a.m.

Consent Calendar: The Secretary requested that members review the Consent Calendar, R-2. It was noted that items E-5 (Board of Pensions Resolution) and E-8 (2005 Equitable Compensation Support) should be lifted from the Consent Calendar, since they require action by the Annual Conference. The Consent Calendar would be presented for approval and adoption on Saturday morning, June 5.

Nominations: David Bennett and Gene Cray, co-chairs of the Nominating Task Force, presented their report for review. The election of those nominated would take place on Saturday morning, June 5. Gene Cray added names of nominees to the report that was originally distributed.

Wesley College Corporate Session: Charles "Chip" Dashiell, Jr., Chairperson of the Wesley College Board of Trustees, highlighted accomplishments in the current academic year. Enrollment was 2,350; the average retention rate over the past six years (89.6%) is nearly 20% better than the national average. Over 1,700 children, ages 6-18, are enrolled in the Wesley College Institute, including partnerships with other community organizations. Over $14 million in public and private funds was raised. The Academic Village, a new 48-apartment, $2.5 million residence hall was filled for the fall semester, 2003.

In progress this summer is the renovation of Budd Hall for teacher training, renovation at Wolverine Stadium, and renovation of the dining hall. The College has participated in the establishment of Hope UMC, a new church start. A new affiliation has been established between the College and Barratt's Chapel and Museum. The College has joined in a strategic alliance with the Schwartz Center for the Performing Arts in Dover for use of facilities.

Nominees for the Wesley College Board of Trustees were presented and reaffirmed by the Annual Conference (The Trustees are listed in the Composite Directory of Boards, Councils, Committees, and Task Forces.)

Mr. Dashiell introduced the Chaplain of Wesley College, Mark Pruett-Barnett. He outlined ministries including Wednesday worship and the Wesley Choir.

Dr. Scott D. Miller, President of the College, presented the annual State of the College report. Highlights include the fact that 12,000 visitors toured the campus. There are 492 part-time and full-time employees. Total expenditures in all programs—both college and sponsored programs—topped $30 million. Using conservative multipliers, Wesley now has a $85 million economic impact on this Delaware community. Enrollment continues to be strong and will continue to be strong in the foreseeable future. Tied to enrollment, new student applications are very good. Overall giving is strong—the best in Wesley history! Total revenues for operations have tripled in the last seven years, to the present level of $31.5 million. Wesley is one of four colleges nationwide identified as “amazing turnaround stories” in a national publication.

Two retiring deans are Professor Marilyn Johnson, who served as Dean of the MBNA School of Professional Studies, and Dr. Ralph Lightner, Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences.

With the growth of the College, Dr. Miller also noted that over 80% of classes are taught by faculty with terminal degrees. The full-time faculty has grown from 41 in 1997 to 65 in 2004. Total faculty (full-time and part-time) has grown from 79 in 1997 to 185 in 2004. The recipients of the President’s Awards for Excellence are Dr. Lynn Everett, Assistant Professor of Biology, and Alex Chappell, Grounds Supervisor.

Academically, the largest majors are Business Administration (1,000 students as majors), Education, Psychology, and Nursing. Over 400 students are now enrolled at Wesley College, New Castle, serving a large population which includes many African-American students in the Wilmington area. The Dover Air Force Base program continues to grow. International programs provide learning in a safe environment in foreign countries.

Anticipated total enrollment in the next three to five years is 3,100. Scholarship funds have grown from $1.8 million in 1997 to $5.7 million in the current year.

Bishop Weaver was presented the College’s distinction of Trustee Emeritus, and the Wesley Award.

James T. Seymour, a College Trustee, concluded the Wesley College Corporate Session with prayer.

Board of Pensions Presentation: Edward Steiner, Chair of the Board, began the report by acknowledging those retiring from the Board of Pensions this year. He reminded the Conference members of the importance of notifying the Conference Business Office of all changes in family status within 30 days.

Edward Steiner moved the adoption of Resolution E-5.

Board of Pensions Resolutions

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 2005 is set at $472 per year of approved service.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTER OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received during the year of 2004 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at the time of his or her retirement;
2. This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister who has been granted the retired relation or placed on disability leave by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and whose name and relationship to the conference is recorded in the Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and in other appropriate records maintained by the conference.
3. The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension payment resulting from all service of such retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-290 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a "rental allowance" is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities.

Edward Steiner
Co-Chair

Theodore Day
Co-Chair

The Bishop called for a vote on the past service rate for 2005 at $472 per year of approved service—it passed.

The chair also further moved the adoption of the annual resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for retired or incapacitated ministers of the Annual Conference. The resolution was adopted.

The body was then directed to Resolution R-5 "To Offset Rate Increase in Health Care Costs."

RESOLUTION TO OFFSET RATE INCREASE IN HEALTH CARE COSTS

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions has good news to report concerning the increase in health care costs;

WHEREAS, the trend for this year's rise in health care costs was expected to be approximately 12%, the increase is only 5.64%.

WHEREAS, the Board of Pensions believes this nominal increase is due, in part, to the fact that the new IPA plan was put into effect on January 1, 2004,

WHEREAS, with no history of the new plan, the Board of Pensions will continue to be diligent in monitoring the direction of the health plans when claims from the new plan are reported,

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Board of Pensions has determined that an equitable way to share the 5.64% increase is to distribute the increase as follows: through the local church billing; through contributions from active clergy and retirees under 65, through the portion of the apportionment attributed to the line item for retirees health and dental coverage.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the amount through the local church will be accomplished by billing the local church at the following rates:

Full Elder Status: $10,116

AM, PM, FL Status: $9,444

Student Pastor: $6,452 plus 1/2 the student pastor's contribution

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the amount through contributions from active clergy participating in the Conference health plan will be accomplished by billing participating clergy based on compensation as reported to the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits for January 2004 and on the tier of coverage; For 2005 the monthly rates would be as follows:

Compensation	Single Coverage	Family Coverage
$20000-29999	32	53
$30000-39999	42	74
$40000-49999	58	100
$50000-59999	74	126
$60000 plus	89	152
Retirees/Spouses under 65	42	74
Retirees/Spouses on Medicare - no contribution required

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Board of Pensions, in its efforts to provide cost effective health coverage, encourages the managed care plan to be the primary plan and is increasing the buy-up costs to stay in the Traditional plan to the following levels:

Self coverage: $65

Self with Child(ren) Coverage: $90

Family Coverage: $115

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Conference Board of Pensions recommends adoption of this resolution to be effective on January 1, 2005

The resolution passed.

General Conference 2004 adopted a new pension plan to be implemented in 2007. Seventy-five percent of this plan will be a deferred-benefit plan: The benefit is fixed and contributions to that plan may vary over time depending on investment performance and interest rates. Changing from a defined contribution plan to a defined benefit plan moves risks from the individual to the sponsoring organization. The Board of Pensions will have to work with the Council on Finance and Administration to consider to what degree reserves will have to be built to mitigate the risks.

Initial Budget Presentation: Gayle Conrow, Co-Chair, introduced a slide presentation highlighting the various teams and boards comprising the leadership of the Annual Conference.

DeWayne Whittington acknowledged the retiring members of the Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A).

He then proceeded to highlight increases in the proposed budget for 2005: A 3.0% salary increase for Conference Staff and District Superintendents; a 5.64% increase for Health and Dental premiums for staff and retirees; the Apportionment Adjustment Allowance is maintained at the 2004 level. CF & A is recommending a budget of $5,521,801 for the year 2005, an increase of $178,736 or 3.35% over 2004.

Bill Westbrook, Conference Treasurer, explained the Apportionment Formula for 2005.

There is a recommended lowering of the cap from 27% to 25% based on 2002 Total Operating Expenses.

Holocaust Remembrance/Memorial: A moving Yom Hashoah memorial service was led by Richard Vance and Jack Cohen. The service commemorated the loss of six million Jews during World War II. The term Yom Hashoah means "Day of Tempest." The service is in response to a resolution passed by General Conference in 2000. Also participating were Jeremias Rojas, Jonathan Baker, Elaine Ayres, Conrad Cohen, Arthur George, Sandra Steiner Ball, Darlene Webster, Denise Knetter, J. T. Seymour, John Mitchell, and Bishop Weaver.

Laity Address: Bishop Weaver introduced Darlene Webster, Conference Lay Leader. The Bishop expressed appreciation for Darlene's gifts and service. She is a member of Asbury UMC, Mt. Vernon (Princess Anne.) Darlene acknowledged the presence of Lenora Thompson, Conference Lay Leader in Eastern Pennsylvania. Anthony Mitchell of Philadelphia was also introduced. Darlene noted that over 2,000 disciples of Christ are serving as Certified Lay Speakers in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The Laity Address was based on Jeremiah 18. We need to submit ourselves to the Master Potter on a daily basis.

Resolution R-12—Resolution to Rename the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Resource Center.

WHEREAS, Bishop Felton E. May, since 1968, has been a faithful servant/leader to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference family, serving as a student, inner-city mission advocate, Pastor, District Superintendent, and Conference Council Director;

WHEREAS, Bishop Felton E. May, since 1984, has faithfully served the larger United Methodist family as an elected Bishop from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, and who is currently serving the Washington Episcopal Area;

WHEREAS, Bishop Felton E. May's servant leadership has included concern for the welfare of children, the poor and oppressed, those struggling with addictions, justice for all people, and the love of people who do not yet know the grace of Christ, both near and far;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that in honor of Bishop May's retirement and for his ministry and service to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, the United Methodist Church, and the entire Body of Christ, that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Resource Center building be renamed the Bishop Felton E. May Resource Center.

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference pray for Bishop May, Phyllis and his family upon Bishop May's retirement and that the power of God's Holy Spirit will continue to fill their lives afresh.

This resolution comes from Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees with unanimous support.

This resolution was presented by Paul Owens and Beverly Holland, Co-Chairs of the Conference Board of Trustees. The resolution was enthusiastically affirmed!

Strengthening the Black Church Report: The report, presented by Jefferson Labala, the Director, began with a video presentation. During the past three years, the task force has produced more than 100 resources for vital congregations. They have worked with 129 churches, 85 pastors, and have furnished all newly-appointed pastors with resources for ministry.

A video presentation featured George Fisher, Jeanel Staring, William Ross, Sr., Derrick Porter, Jefferson Labala, and Helen Lockwood. The Bishop was presented with a series of videos as a resource in the strengthening of vital congregations. Bishop Weaver and J. T. Seymour joined in expressing appreciation for Jefferson Labala's service as Director of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century.

1st Ballot for Episcopal Nominees: Bishop Weaver explained that persons will be elected to the office of Bishop at Jurisdictional Conference in July, 2004. Five bishops are scheduled to be elected to replace those who are retiring.

There are three ways in which names surface in this process:

1. Any elder in full connection in the UMC is eligible for election as a bishop. The name of any elder can be written in on the ballot.
2. Various groups and caucuses related to the UMC are also welcome to nominate persons for the office of bishop. Patricia Bryant Harris, Salisbury District Superintendent, has been nominated by the Northeastern Jurisdiction Black Methodists for Church Renewal.
3. An Annual Conference may also nominate persons for the office of Bishop. Our General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates have engaged in a process of discernment. The Bishop introduced J.T. Seymour, who recommended on behalf of the delegation Jonathan Baker, senior pastor of Aldersgate UMC in Wilmington.

The Conference Secretary offered instructions for the balloting. Following completion and collection of the ballots, the Bishop declared the first ballot closed.

Grace: David Seymour, a retired clergyperson, offered grace for the evening meal.

Friday Evening Plenary Session—June 4, 2004

Camping and Retreat Ministries—Jack Shitama, Director, on behalf of the Board of Stewards for Camping and Retreat Ministries, presented this report. Areas of strategic focus include summer camp, a faith-based outdoor school, and retreat ministry which will be enhanced in the future.

There are presently 2,000 slots for summer camp with 1,500 registrations as of this date. Camp is a total immersion in the Christian faith from sunrise to sunset—an opportunity to receive Christ as Lord and Savior, and to grow in Christian discipleship.

An outdoor school is planned to begin in Fall 2004. This is a faith-based, environmentally-oriented program that will teach primarily private-Christian school students and home-schooled students about the Chesapeake Bay Watershed. A grant has been provided by the Chesapeake Bay Trust.

Retreat ministry will be offered to adults, youth, and families. There is a contract for the sale of Drayton Retreat Center at $3.6 million, with no contingencies, and a projected settlement in the first quarter of 2005.

Goals for the adult retreat ministry include accommodation of four simultaneous groups of 12-20 persons, 24-48 bedrooms, and an adult dining center:

Phase 1—Master plan and zoning approval by Queen Anne's County. There would also be the possibility of expenditure to subsidize retreat opportunities at other facilities.

Phase 2—Assumes continued development of a site plan for building a retreat center and cost estimates.

Phase 3—Board of Stewards would eventually return to the Annual Conference for approval of a capital campaign, and approval of a construction project.

Phase 4—Endowment phase, site plan approval, and groundbreaking.

John Mitchell was introduced to present a resolution: "Camping and Retreat Ministries Resolution Clarifying a Process for Determining the Future of Adult Retreat Ministry."

Camping & Retreat Ministries Resolution Clarifying a Process for Determining the Future of Adult Retreat Ministry

Whereas, a non-contingent purchase contract for the sale of Drayton Retreat Center has been duly executed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Trustees, and;

Whereas, settlement on said contract is likely to occur in the first quarter of 2005, and;

Whereas, a previous resolution has authorized the Board of Stewards for Camping & Retreat Ministries to use the net proceeds from the sale of Drayton for the continuance of adult retreat ministry, and;

Whereas, the Board of Stewards and staff of Camping & Retreat Ministries and the Conference Trustees will need to continue the site development process at Camp Pecometh to determine the estimated cost and amount of capital funds required to build a retreat center on the Camp Pecometh property, as well as evaluate the potential use of the proceeds as an endowment to fund adult retreat ministry, and;

Whereas, any capital campaign that may be required to raise additional funds for construction of a retreat center should be considered along with the many needs of the annual conference, then;

Be it resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference authorizes the Board of Stewards for Camping & Retreat Ministries, in consultation with the Conference Board of Trustees, to determine the feasibility, size, scope, and estimated cost of an adult retreat center on the Pecometh property, and;

Be it further resolved that the Board of Stewards will evaluate the feasibility of using the proceeds from the sale of Drayton as an endowment to fund adult retreat ministry and will report its findings to the Conference Board of Trustees, and;

Be it further resolved that, subject to the recommendation and approval of the Conference Board of Trustees, any building project that may result from this process will be placed before a subsequent session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for a "yes" or "no" decision, and;

Be it further resolved that, any request to the Conference Council on Finance & Administration for a capital campaign for Camping & Retreat Ministries be considered in the light of the comprehensive capital needs of the Annual Conference, and approved by the Annual Conference.

J.T. Seymour proposed an amendment to the original resolution: On Line 44, after the word "considered," delete the remaining wording and substitute: "be considered then in the light of the comprehensive capital needs of the Annual Conference, and approved by the Annual Conference." This amendment was adopted. The entire resolution as amended was approved.

Cokesbury Presentation: Madeline Beall, Resource Consultant for Cokesbury; and Bernard "Skip" Keels, member of the UM Publishing House Board, made this presentation. After presenting the Bishop a box of Krispy Kreme doughnuts, Madeline highlighted several new resources. These include Sunday School for Life (a free video or DVD is provided for each church), discounts on official UM resources, a new video entitled What Does it Mean to be United Methodist? and Worship Connection (an online resource.)

Bernard "Skip" Keels mentioned that the UM Publishing House has for the first time provided a resource center for publishing needs in Africa. The Publishing House also contributed to the pensions of many Central Conference pastors.

Bishop Weaver presented the Bishop's Book Bundle. Books included are John Wesley's Standard Sermons (Kenneth Kinghorn has updated the English in this volume); Walter Wink's Jesus and Non-Violence: A Third Way; Walter Brueggemann's Awed to Heaven, Rooted in Earth; and Henri Nouwen's The Heart of Henri Nouwen.

Resolution R-11: 2006 50th Anniversary of Full Clergy Rights for Women

Whereas, God has given women gifts and graces for ministry to witness faithfully to Jesus Christ;

Whereas, in 1956 the General Conference of the Methodist Church granted full clergy rights for women and in the year 2006 will be the 50th anniversary of that event;

Whereas, some women in the Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church were dissuaded from seeking full clergy rights;

Whereas, there are now more than 10,000 clergy women in the United Methodist Church;

Whereas, the 2004 General Conference in Pittsburgh, PA, voted to support the resolution put forth by the Commission on the Status and Role of Women to celebrate the anniversary of the United Methodist Church granting full rights to clergy women in all annual conferences and in all local congregations;

Therefore be it resolved that, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference will celebrate the anniversary including a liturgical act during the conference sessions of 2006 and will design a service of remembrance by honoring the names of all of our annual conference clergywomen from the past and present;

And be it further resolved that, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference under the direction of the Advocacy Resource team will begin to collect and compile the stories, documents, and interviews related to the ordination and full rights of women to use for the 2006 celebration.

This resolution was presented by Pearl Johnson and William T. Wallace, Sr. The resolution was adopted.

Resolution R-10—Resolution to Adopt a Quadrennial Emphasis on Lifestyle Stewardship

RESOLUTION TO ADOPT A QUADRENNIAL EMPHASIS ON "LIFESTYLE STEWARDSHIP"

WHEREAS, many local churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference are experiencing financial uncertainty characterized by tight budgets and/or deficits.

WHEREAS, rapidly rising healthcare and other benefit costs are affecting the financial support of mission and ministry at the Local Church, Annual Conference and General Church levels

WHEREAS, membership continues to decline within the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference and per capita giving is lower than in most annual conferences.

WHEREAS, there is a reluctance to discuss and come to a full understanding of Stewardship on the part of Clergy and Laity.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference enter into a quadrennial emphasis on "Lifestyle Stewardship" as outlined in the Stewardship Task Force Report to Annual Conference.

The resolution was presented by Elliott Workman. He also outlined the report of the Stewardship Task Force. The resolution was adopted.

Election of Conference Lay Leader: Dona Rayne, on behalf of the Board of Lay Ministry Nominating Committee, nominated Darlene Webster as Conference Lay Leader for a second quadrennium. Darlene Webb's name was also placed in nomination from the floor, but she respectfully declined. Darlene Webster was re-elected by acclamation.

Bishop Weaver led the Annual Conference in prayer, celebrating the gifts and evidence of God's grace in Darlene's life.

Harry Denman Awards: Sheila Needam and Richard Vance, from the Enabling Ministries Resource Team; invited Gene Cray, Associate Conference Lay Leader, and Darlene Webster, Conference Lay Leader, to come forward. Recipients this year include:

Adult Lay Recipient: Deveria Johnson, Whatcoat UMC, Dover

Youth Lay Recipient: Katie R. Coursey of Calvary UMC, Queenstown

Clergy Recipient: Richard Vance, pastor of Leeds UMC, Elkton

Bishop Weaver congratulated the recipients.

Sheila Needam described Beginnings: An Introduction to Christian Faith, a nine-week small-group study addressing basic questions about Christianity. This study is available through the United Methodist Publishing House.

Kim Jefferson Urban Ministry Award: The award was presented to St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Cambridge. Dale Brown, Pastor, and other representatives from St. Paul's received the award.

General and Jurisdictional Conference Delegation Report: James T. Seymour introduced the report. Conference members viewed an 11-minute video produced by United Methodist Communications and narrated by Tammy Ward, Communications Coordinator for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. Peninsula-Delaware General Conference clergy and lay delegates were featured in the video. Important decisions of General Conference were highlighted:

- The United Methodist Church retained its stance that homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. Also, the prohibition of ordination and appointment of self-avowed, practicing homosexuals as pastors was re-affirmed.
- A new Division on Ministries with Young People was created as a part of the General Board of Discipleship.
- A Connectional Table will coordinate the work of all general board and agencies.
- Igniting Ministry was given $25 million to continue its work and to create an expression of its media campaign that will appeal to youth.
- The General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) urged the church to use restraint in all budget matters.

The delegation celebrated the fact that Bishop Peter D. Weaver has been elected President of the Council of Bishops for a two-year term.

Jonathan Baker noted on May 7, the western African mission of Cote d'Ivoire became a part of the United Methodist Church, adding over one million new members to our global connection. This was formerly an autonomous Methodist denomination in the Ivory Coast.

Kevin Goodwin announced that for the first time, a native African, from Liberia, headed a legislative committee. Kevin celebrated the fact that all thirteen Annual Conferences in the Northeastern Jurisdiction accepted the challenge to endow scholarships for Africa University, following the lead of Peninsula-Delaware!

Gene Cray mentioned that in the local church, the United Methodist Church will retain the Americans with Disabilities Act resolution. Also, the General Conference specified the study and teaching of doctrine as part of the description of faithful membership. As members of the global United Methodist connection and the Church universal, the body agreed to continue to mandate an organized unit of United Methodist Women in each local church.

Darlene Webster worked in the legislative committee of Church and Society. The committee addressed many different issues—abortion, care for the dying, and stem cell research. A resolution on church unity was brought forward by the Rev. John Schol from the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference. (Rev. Schol was elected bishop at the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.)

J. T. Seymour added that prior to General Conference, there was concern that no longer would an individual or a local church retain the right to submit a petition to General Conference. That process was not changed. Also, the number of bishops was not reduced in the various jurisdictions as had been proposed by the General Council on Finance and Administration. A study on the sacrament of Holy Communion entitled This Holy Mystery was approved. This study will be available to local congregations.

Five national plans were retained by General Conference, including Strengthening the Black Church. Also the Hispanic Plan, Native American Plan, Korean American Plan, and Asian Language Studies Plan will continue.

A new category of Certified Lay Minister has been created.

There is a Jurisdictional Pool for Nomination to General Agencies. Names in various categories were presented to the Annual Conference for prayerful consideration. Bishop Weaver suggested that conference members prayerfully reflect overnight on those listed. If other persons are to be added, their willingness and availability to serve if they are ultimately selected should be ascertained.

The Annual Conference day concluded as Bishop Weaver and others expressed prayer concerns, including prayer for those who are suffering in the Congo. Bishop Weaver led Conference members in prayer. He announced that the Conference's next plenary session would begin on Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m.

Saturday morning, June 5, 2004

Host District Superintendent Thomas Donnachie welcomed the body to opening worship at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, June 5, 2004. The Still Pond-Coleman Charge mass choir led in worship, which had been planned by Paul Sherwood. The worship celebrated the service of retired pastors who have been summoned to serve from the retired status. The Scripture texts were 1 Samuel 3 and Isaiah 6. Tom Donnachie invited all retired pastors, including those who are presently under appointment, to stand. The Annual Conference greeted them warmly. Bishop Weaver invited conference members surrounding the retirees to place hands on their shoulders, as he prayed.

Bishop Weaver lifted up Psalm 4, based on this day's devotional from Eugene Peterson's Living the Message.

The Bishop welcomed Bill Johnson from Union UMC, St. Michaels, and Ann Hurt of St. Mark's UMC in Easton, to the presiding table.

Scholarship Awards: William Bazzelle, co-coordinator of the Leadership Development Resource Team, presented scholarship awards. The Merit Award is funded by a rebate from UMC Student Day offerings. It is presented to students attending UM-related colleges and universities. There are two Merit Awards, each totaling $500. This year's recipients are:

- Natalie Tull, who will be attending Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia. Natalie is a member of Union UMC, Bridgeville. Her pastor, Gary Tulak, accepted the award on her behalf.
- Justin L. Street, a student at Wesley College, is a member of Israel UMC, Lewes, Delaware.

The Annual Conference Scholar Award is in the amount of $1,000. This is presented by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry to a student entering a UM-related college or seminary. Matthew Wayne Shirley, who will attend Randolph Macon College in Ashland, Virginia, is this year's recipient. He is a member of Bethesda UMC in Salisbury.

Dr. Luther Felder was introduced. He is the Director of Campus Ministries for the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Dr. Felder addressed the Annual Conference, lifting up the vital nature of campus ministries for the life of the church, especially with regard to enabling people to discern God's call to ordained ministry.

Elaine Ayres presented the Black Methodists for Church Renewal Scholarships. She celebrated the fact that BMCR has presented over $12,000 in scholarships. BMCR Scholarships are for anyone in need. Turhan Potter is this year's recipient. A graduate of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, our host institution, he has completed his second year as a student at Wesley Theological Seminary. The Bishop presented the scholarship awards.

Black College Fund Ambassador: Homer Minus introduced Dorrett Green, a graduate of Wiley College in Marshall, Texas, as this year's Black College Ambassador. She has served as a Lina McCord summer intern while a college student. Her career goal is to become a nurse practitioner.

Consent Calendar: Boyd Etter, Conference Secretary, offered the Consent Calendar for adoption. He again noted that E-5, E-6, and E-8 have been lifted from the original Consent Calendar for action by the Annual Conference. The Consent Calendar was adopted.

Patricia Bryant Harris requested and was granted a personal privilege. She referred to Resolution R-6: "2006, 50th Anniversary of Full Clergy Rights for Women." This resolution was approved by the Annual Conference on Friday, June 4. Dr. Harris asked Conference members to search their records to identify the first women in the Annual Conference to go forward in ministry. She is co-chair of a national event for GBHEM and is especially concerned that Peninsula-Delaware share its story of early women in ministry. Any available information should be sent to the Conference Resource Center.

Nominations Report: David Bennett, co-chair, again directed the attention of Conference members to the report. Gene Cray, co-chair, noted corrections from the original draft. J. T. Seymour noted that under provisions of Paragraphs 603.7 and 617, the Conference Secretary, Conference Statistician, and Conference Treasurer must be elected by the Annual Conference at least every four years. The Conference Treasurer is nominated by the Council on Finance and Administration, and elected by the Annual Conference.

With regard to the Board of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Patricia Bryant Harris inquired as to the process for replacing clergy who are resigning. PUMH nominates persons to serve on these boards. The Bishop invited nominations for this Board—H. Ward Greer and Gonzalee Matthews were nominated. These names will be presented to PUMH under advisement.

The entire slate of nominees was elected by the Annual Conference. The Bishop invited all those who have been elected to stand for prayer.

Report of 1st Ballot for Episcopal Nominees: Bishop Weaver reported the results of the first ballot for episcopal nominees:

Number of votes cast:	392
Number of valid ballots:	378
Number needed for election:	189

Jonathan Baker has been nominated, having received 294 votes. Bishop Weaver asked Jonathan to stand for prayer.

2nd Ballot for Episcopal Nominees: Donald Hamilton moved to suspend the rules relating to the balloting process. Suspension of the rules requires a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. The motion did not prevail, and the rules were not suspended.

Others receiving write-in votes on the first ballot:

Patricia Bryant Harris	51
James T. Seymour	7
Sandra Steiner Ball	3
Ronald Bell	2
Karen Bunnell	2
Thomas Whitewolf Fassett	1
Hubert F. Jicha III	1
P. Thomas McKelvey	1
	68

There were 14 invalid ballots (3 voted for persons out of range, 10 did not shade in the oval, 1 shaded an oval, but no name was listed.)

James T. Seymour and Ronald Bell respectfully requested that their names be withdrawn. The Bishop prayed, and the second ballot was completed, collected, and closed.

Commission on Equitable Compensation: Warner "Bud" Clark and Anna McIntosh, co-chairs, presented this report.

Recommendations

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 2005:

Full Member	-	$28,800
Probationary Associate & Commission Member	-	$26,250
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$24,550
Student Pastor	-	$21,600*

Service increments will be $135 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 2005 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Warner J. Clark	Anna McIntosh
Co-Chair	Co-Chair

The Commission's recommendations for minimum salaries and service increments were adopted by the Annual Conference.

The Commission's recommendations for reimbursement of travel expense, tolls and parking fees were also approved.

At the conclusion of his term, co-chair Bud Clark thanked Anna McIntosh, co-chair of the Commission; Elaine Wilkerson, Director of Conference Benefits; and Bill Westbrook, Conference Treasurer. Bishop Weaver in turn expressed appreciation to Bud Clark and to the Commission for their fine work.

General Council on Finance and Administration Award Presentation: Patricia Bryant Harris, a member of GCFA presented a certificate celebrating the payment of 100% of all General Church apportionments in 2003. Bishop Weaver accepted the certificate on behalf of the Annual Conference.

The Bishop acknowledged that Clyde Knotts, retired clergy member of the Annual Conference, entered into glory on Friday, June 4.

Martha Callaway is celebrating a birthday today, June 5.

Order of the Day: Worship and Guest Speaker—Bishop Felton E. May

Worship leaders included Elaine Ayres and Judge James Thomas, a former District Lay Leader and Chairperson of the Easton District Committee on the Superintendency.

There were several introductions of Bishop Felton E. May, our keynote preacher:

Kathryn Cooper-Nicholas, Methodist Action Program
Darlene Webb, Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC
Thomas Donnachie, Easton District Superintendent
James T. Seymour, Conference Resource Director
Jonathan Baker, Committee on Episcopacy
Bishop Peter D. Weaver, Council of Bishops

Bishop Weaver noted that Bishop Felton May is the only bishop to request and be granted a special assignment for missional, critical needs of addressing addictions and violence in Washington, DC. Bishop May also established Shalom Zones, worked diligently on the concerns of AIDS in Africa, served on the White House Conference advising President Clinton, and served on the Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century Task Force. He is also Vice President of the Africa University Board of Trustees, and has offered an expansive vision to a holistic strategy for Africa.

The Still Pond-Coleman mass choir sang special selections.

Bishop Felton May expressed special appreciation to David W. Baker, Sr., former chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Bishop May's granddaughter, in the midst of a furious thunderstorm, exclaimed, "God!" Bishop May lamented that the Church is not growing because we, its members, do not believe God. God is no Santa Claus; God is the ruler of all creation!

He will continue in ministry at Philander Smith College. His work will involve starting a new health and science program, promoting healing among poor people in the United States and Africa.

He declared that God will enable us to evangelize our communities!

Bishop May invited persons to come forward to answer God's call to mission and ministry. Bishop Weaver prayed for those who responded to the invitation, referring to them as "gifts brought to the altar." He also prayed for Bishop Felton May and for Mrs. Phyllis May.

Presentation of Gifts: Darlene Webster and Darlene Webb presented gifts to Mrs. Phyllis May on behalf of the laity. Mrs. May is a certified education specialist in the United Methodist Church, and has traveled to Africa 37 times.

Paul Owens and Beverly Holland, co-chairs of the Conference Board of Trustees, came forward. Bishop Weaver read Resolution R-12 to Re-name the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Resource Center. This resolution was adopted by the Annual Conference on Friday, June 4. Bishop May was visibly moved by this presentation.

Paul Owens and Beverly Holland presented Bishop May with a picture of the Conference Resource Center. Bishop Weaver added that once the new inscription is added, an official portrait will be presented to Bishop May.

The Annual Conference concluded this celebration of the ministry and service of Bishop and Mrs. May with the singing of "This Little Light of Mine."

Saturday Afternoon, June 5, 2004

The Saturday afternoon plenary session on June 5, 2004, began with gathering praise. Leading in worship were Samuel Holdbrook-Smith, and the praise team from Gospel Light Church in Silver Spring, MD, whose pastor is David Holdbrook-Smith. Bishop Weaver concluded the worship with prayer.

Celebration of Missional Appointments: The new missional appointments were announced on each of the four districts. Those greeting the newly-appointed pastors and lay members were:

Dover District: Sandra Steiner Ball, District Superintendent; Marilyn Cleeton, Administrative Assistant; and Betty Gooch, Associate District Lay Leader

Easton District: Thomas P. Donnachie, III, District Superintendent; and Carole King, Administrative Assistant

Salisbury District: Patricia Bryant Harris, District Superintendent; Barbara Mumper, Administrative Assistant; and DeAngelo Johnson, District Lay Leader.

Wilmington District: John Mitchell, District Superintendent; Carole Dobson, Administrative Assistant; and Allen Streett, District Lay Leader.

Bishop Weaver expressed thanks and prayed for every congregation and every disciple of Christ, both clergy and laity.

Hope United Methodist Church: Sandra Steiner Ball celebrated a new UM congregation, Hope UMC in Dover, Delaware. Margie Pruett, a lay person, initiated this congregation, which worships in the Wesley College Chapel. There is an average Sunday morning attendance of 65. Thirty-nine charter members were received into membership on May 23, 2004. The Annual Conference affirmed Hope UMC as a chartered congregation. Bishop Weaver emphasized that this new congregation was started by a lay team, and is flourishing without the appointment of an ordained pastor.

RESOLUTION FOR HOPE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

WHEREAS: in 2001, a group of approximately 9 persons began meeting in a home in the Dover area for the purpose of praying and discerning God's will in starting a New Church in the Dover area; and

WHEREAS: these persons met on a weekly basis with the leadership of layperson, Margie Pruett; and

WHEREAS: because of the witness of Jesus Christ in their lives and faithfulness of God, this group of persons increased over the past two years, outgrowing the home and a pizza parlor as meeting place; and

WHEREAS: this growing group has now fostered a partnership with Wesley college using the Chapel as its home and now has an average Sunday morning attendance of 65, with a Sunday School, prayer ministry, and mission/outreach ministry; and

WHEREAS: this worshipping community, under the continued leadership of lay person, Margie Pruett, in accordance with The Discipline of the United Methodist Church, recognized 39 charter members, received members on their profession of faith, and duly elected officers on May 23, 2004, with a community of 93 persons in attendance,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE IN ITS 200TH SSISSION, JUNE, 2004, ACKNOWLEDGES, CELEBRATES, AND PRASISES GOD FOR THE WORSHIPPING COMMUNITY OF "HOPE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH" OF DOVER, DELAWARE AS A CHARTERED CONGREGATION OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH.

Merger of Johnson Chapel/John Wesley United Methodist Churches: Thomas Donnachie, Easton District Superintendent, presented a resolution of merger of Johnson Chapel, Warwick, and John Wesley UMC, Sassafras, into the facility now known as John Wesley UMC. The newly transformed and empowered congregation will be re-named Wesley Chapel of Love. The Annual Conference affirmed this merger.

Whereas, the Lord has given us a broader vision of merger of the two churches transformation and improvement in the communities and

Whereas, the laity and pastor attended a knowledgeable weekend of training in, "Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century", under the leadership of Rev. Calvin Alston and staff in Smith, South Carolina and

Whereas, the members of both churches have been worshipping and working as a charge every Sunday and weekdays rotating every other Sunday with many activities and functions and

Whereas, there have been meetings of discussion and discernment and

Whereas, we know that we can be strengthened in unity with present and new members our resources will multiply through believing, listening and trusting God and each other.

Merger of Charles Wesley, Earle's Chapel, and New Zion United Methodist Churches:

Whereas, we the members of Charles Wesley, Earle's Chapel and New Zion United Methodist Churches have been on the same charge (Centreville-Newtown Charge) for the past 30 years sharing one pastor and,

Whereas, we the members of Charles Wesley, Earle's Chapel and New Zion have been worshipping together by rotation for the past 20 years and

Whereas, this rotation ha negatively affected the spiritual, physical, and economic growth of our churches and the ministries in our communities and

Whereas, we are called to be in effective ministry in Christ, and

Whereas, we must prepare ourselves to respond to the call,

Therefore be it resolved that starting January 1, 2005, Charles Wesley, Earle's Chapel and New Zion United Methodist Churches will merge to become one church to be named at a later date.

These three congregations, on the Centreville-Newtown Charge, have voted to merge, effective January 1, 2005. The new church will re-named at a later date. The Annual Conference approved the merger.

Limited Service Status for Trinity UMC, Pocomoke City: Patricia Bryant Harris, Salisbury District Superintendent, presented a resolution requesting limited service status for Trinity United Methodist Church, Pocomoke City, MD. The resolution was affirmed by the Annual Conference.

TRINITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, POCOMOKE CITY, MARYLAND TO GO ON LIMITED SERVICE

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference has provided for a transitional phase in the life of churches with inadequate membership and resources to continue in active status, known as LIMITED SERVICE; and

WHEREAS, Trinity United Methodist Church of the Pocomoke City-Mt. Zion Charge, began ministry in the Pocomoke City community in 1891; and

WHEREAS, the membership of Trinity United Methodist Church has, over recent years, experienced continual decrease due to attrition and geographic economic changes which have led to serious population decline in the rural community of Trinity United Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the current small membership of Trinity United Methodist Church determined they could no longer be in vital mission and ministry, held their final service on Sunday, May 29, 2004, and have determined to live out their faith by placing their memberships in other congregations, those members present during the vote being: JEAN ALLEN, LINWOOD ALLEN, WILLIE HARMON, PEGGY HARMON, ESTELLA SCHOOLFIELD, BURNETT AMES, DELORES STURGIS, PRESTON SMITH, BESSIE SMITH, ARMOND MERRILL, MADELYN TULL, ALONZA HARDY, GARNET DOWNING, AUDREY LANE, ROGER WATERS, and PHYLLIS WATERS; and

WHEREAS, the current membership has duly elected ROGER WATERS, WILLIE HARMON, MAEDLYN TULL, JEAN ALLEN, and AUDREY LANE Trustees for the care of the Trinity United Methodist Church property, including the cemetery;

BE IT RESOLVED that Trinity United Methodist Church be a Limited Service Church effective this 220th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, June 2004.

Peter D. Weaver
Bishop

Patricia Bryant Harris
District Superintendent

Bishop Weaver welcomed to the presiding table Dorothy Jolley from the East New Market-Linkwood Charge, and Nona Jackson.

Native American Presentation: The Native American presentation was led by Odette Wright and Jean Norwood, representing CONAM, the Committee on Native American Ministries, and Indian Mission UMC. We are grateful for this celebration of our rich diversity as an Annual Conference, and for the fact that our Native American brothers and sisters are "still here!"

Disaster Recovery Presentation and Offering: Dale Brown, on behalf of the Disaster Relief Task Force, expressed appreciation to Church World Service, and to all volunteers who responded, including Bishop Weaver, who extended pastoral care to the victims of Hurricane Isabel in Hoopers Island and in Dorchester County.

J. T. Seymour introduced Kristen Sachse, Associate General Secretary for Emergency Services for the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). She reminded Conference members that the One Great Hour of Sharing offering is a crucial source of UMCOR funding. UMCOR provides reconstruction, medical needs, and other acts of Christian kindness and mercy.

Jim Michael was introduced as the director for the Disaster Recovery Task Force. He in turn introduced other members of the task force, and its staff. Linda Mariner in Rock Hall, and Joe Kelly in Hooper's Island were acknowledged for their compassionate ministry in their respective communities. Emerson Cotton of Rock Hall and Burl Lewis of Hoopersville shared their experiences as victims of the hurricane, and expressed appreciation for the ministry of the Church. Tom Edwards helped establish St. Mark's UMC, Stanton, as a fixed feeding site, coordinating the efforts of twelve local churches. Over 360 volunteers have served. The work will continue for months to come.

Easton District Superintendent Tom Donnachie appealed to the Annual Conference to add to the offering for Disaster Relief. Gifts from Conference members will benefit a fund whose goal is $50,000. Boots from Hooper's Island were used as offering receptacles. These were the boots worn by those who weathered the storm and who worked in recovery efforts following the hurricane. Bishop Weaver prayed for the ongoing disaster recovery efforts.

Report of 2nd Ballot for Episcopal Nominees: Bishop Weaver reported the outcome of the second ballot for Episcopal nominees:

Number of ballots cast:	421
Number of valid ballots:	396
Number needed for election:	198
Votes received:
Patricia Bryant Harris	179
Sandra Steiner Ball	105
Karen Bunnell	20
P. Thomas McKelvey	16
Thomas Whitewolf Fassett	4
Hubert F. Jicha III	2
John Mitchell	2
Earle Baker	1
Conrad Cohen	1
Jack Cohen	1
Grant Johnson	1
Bernard Keels	1
Vanessa Stephens Lee	1
Charlotte Nichols	1
Richard Vance	1
William Wallace	1

(13 voted for a person already elected, 6 voted for a person out of range, 4 voted for too many persons, and 2 write-in votes listed no name.)

3rd Ballot for Episcopal Nominees: The Secretary gave instructions for the third and final ballot. William Wallace and Charlotte Nichols respectfully requested that their names be withdrawn from consideration. The Bishop prayed for discernment as this third ballot was cast.

Approval of Conference Budget: DeWayne Whittington, Co-chair of the Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A) moved the adoption of the 2005 proposed budget in the amount of $5,521,801, an increase of $178,736, or 3.35% over 2004. The budget was approved. Bishop Weaver encouraged conference members to go back to their local churches and affirm a budget which represents transformed lives.

Gayle Conrow, co-chair of CF&A, addressed the Apportionment Formula for 2005. CF&A is recommending an apportionment based on the three-year average of 2002, 2001, and 2000 Net Operating Expenses, and an apportionment cap of 25% of 2002 Total Operating Expenses. This Apportionment Formula was approved.

Resolution R-4: Concerning Costs of Retired Clergy to Attend Annual Conference:

RESOLUTION CONCERNING COSTS OF RETIRED CLERGY TO ATTEND ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS:

It is the duty of all retired clergy members of the Annual Conference to attend its sessions (Para. 602.8, 2000 Book of Discipline), and

WHEREAS:

It has been the custom of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to provide for the costs of housing and meals for the retired clergy members residing in the designated housing and using the designated food facilities, and

WHEREAS:

The costs of this practice have escalated to be about one-third of the total cost to the Conference to hold the Annual Conference Sessions, and

WHEREAS:

The retirement income provided by the Church has substantially improved over the last 25 years, and

WHEREAS:

It is the duty of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Resource Development and Management Team to provide guidance pertaining to faithful and responsible stewardship management practices of the Conference,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

That, starting in the year 2005, a separated line item in the Conference Budget be maintained to subsidize the costs of retired clergy and widowed surviving spouses who utilize conference provided accommodations.

That this line item be set at $20,000, the money being extracted from the regular line item covering costs of Annual Conference.

That a credit be determined and applied to the registration cost for each retired clergy person and widowed surviving spouse. The credit would be calculated by dividing the number of eligible individuals into $20,000, the set aside money in the budget. The credit would not exceed the actual costs of the accommodations.

This resolution was presented by Alex Slonin, of the Conference Personnel Team of the Resource Development Management Team. The resolution prevailed.

Resolution R-6—On Transferring New Church Start Funding from Congregational Development Corporation to the New Church Development Team:

RESOLUTION ON TRANSFERRING NEW CHURCH START FUNDING FROM CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION TO THE NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Whereas, the Congregational Development Corporation (CDC) processes applications not only for limited grants and loans to existing churches needing construction, renovations and/or repairs to sustain and extend vital ministry, but also applications for grants to new church starts to support their general budgeted expenses; and

Whereas, CDC receives an annual allocation of $70K from the Annual Conference solely for grant awards to applicant new church starts; and

Whereas, a newly-formed entity, New Church Development Team will begin work July 1, 2004 as the Annual Conference organization responsible for certain oversight and support responsibilities of beginning and planned new church starts; and

Whereas, CDC supports the establishment of this new entity and its oversight and support responsibilities dealing with financing new church starts; and

Whereas, New Church Development Team needs the financial support of the Annual Conference to help new church starts to implement and sustain their ministries; and

Whereas, CDC is willing to support the work of New Church Development Team with the $70K it receives in annual allocation for new church starts from the Annual Conference;

Be it therefore resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference support the transfer to the New Church Development Team of the CDC new church start fund balance at July 1, 2004 and that the 2005 new church start allocation of $70,000 be assigned to the New Church Development Team.

Submitted by Candy Miles, Chair
Congregational Development Corporation

The resolution was introduced by Candy Miles. The resolution passed.

Resolution R-7—Recognition of Kent Meeting House Site 1773: First Meeting House on the Peninsula:

RESOLUTION OF RECOGNITION KENT MEETING HOUSE SITE 1773
FIRST MEETING HOUSE ON THE PENINSULA

WHEREAS, in the late 1760's the Methodist Movement began to spread to the American Colonies,

WHEREAS, in 1772 Francis Asbury was sent to the Colonies by John Wesley to serve as Wesley's General Assistant to the Methodist Societies in America,

WHEREAS, in 1773 Francis Asbury assigned circuit riders to the Kent Circuit and those meeting at the home of John Carvill Hynson,

WHEREAS, in that same year John Carvill Hynson donated land for the building of a Methodist Meeting House,

WHEREAS, enemies of this new religious movement attempted to halt the building of the log structure by tearing down its wooden frame,

WHEREAS, the meeting house was completed by 1774,

WHEREAS, Francis Asbury preached there in 1774,

WHEREAS, according to Methodist Records of History the Kent Meeting House is the first Methodist Meeting House on the Peninsula and the only meeting house built before the Revolutionary War,

WHEREAS, on this site there still remains the brick foundation stones of the Hynson Chapel built in 1801,

WHEREAS, on the meeting house site there still remains several acres of a field stone cemetery and a dozen or more tombstones, each marking a grave,

WHEREAS, members of the Peter Mission Area Ministry are actively involved in caring for the site and providing tours and information on request,

WHEREAS, the Conference Commission on Archives and History has examined the documentation and supports this resolution,

WHEREAS, this conference year 2004 marks the 230th Anniversary of the building of the Kent Meeting House,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Kent Meeting House land be recognized as the first site where a Methodist Meeting was built for public worship, on the Maryland and Delaware Peninsula,

AND LET IT ALSO BE RESOLVED, that a letter be sent to the General Commission on Archives and History with this recommendation, that this Kent Meeting House site be recorded as a United Methodist Historical Site.

The resolution was introduced by Eleanor Laws and Linda Mariner. The resolution was adopted.

Personal Privilege: Linda Stimel of UMR Communications, and Tammy Ward presented a plaque. The plaque was in the form of the page from the United Methodist Communicator which announced Bishop Peter D. Weaver's election as President of the Council of Bishops.

Disaster Relief Offering: Bishop Weaver announced that the Annual Conference members had contributed $11,190.56 to disaster relief earlier in the afternoon.

Grace: Helen Lockwood, pastor of Secretary-Dorchester Charge, offered grace for the evening meal.

Saturday evening, June 5, 2004

Saturday evening was a highlight of this session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. Conference members and guests celebrated the mission and ministry of Bishop Peter D. Weaver during his eight years in the Philadelphia Area.

P. Thomas McKelvey served as the emcee for the evening.

Bishop Weaver introduced members of his family: daughters Rebecca Hope, Sarah Joy, and Rachel Faith; his sister, Mary Lou Evans; niece Betsy; and dear friends Nan and Bob Foltz.

Conference viewed family photos on Power Point. Mary Lou and Bishop Weaver provided reminiscences of Bishop Weaver's childhood.

Susie Bond, a classmate of Bishop Weaver's at West Virginia Wesleyan College, and the College's president, William R. Haden, recalled the Bishop's years as a college student. Bishop Weaver served as President of the Student Government Association. He has twice served on the College's Board of Trustees. Alumni and guests were invited to sing the Alma Mater.

Bob Foltz shared humorous memories of their friendship over forty years.

Jonathan Baker reflected on Bishop Weaver's election to the episcopacy, and the Bishop's assignment to the Philadelphia Area.

A baseball was presented to the Bishop from the Pittsburgh Pirates. A memento from opening day at the new stadium was also given. Baseball caps from the Boston Red Sox, Baltimore Orioles, Philadelphia Phillies, New York Mets, and New York Yankees were presented in anticipation of Bishop Weaver's next assignment. The Bishop reminded us not to forget the Delmarva Shorebirds!

Darlene Webster, Conference Lay Leader, introduced children from Asbury and Trinity UMC in Mt. Vernon; and Mt. Pleasant UMC in Crisfield. One of the children sang a solo, followed by the children's collective rendition of "Jesus Loves Me." The children presented Bishop Weaver a Save the Children's tie.

Former District Superintendents Howard Gordy, Ronald Bell, and Sterling Green reflected on the early days of Bishop Weaver's service.

Dona Rayne, who chaired the committee preparing this special celebration, shared a personal message to Bishop Weaver from Eugene Peterson, author of the Scripture translation, The Message. The Bishop was presented with a copy of The Message Remix, signed by Eugene Peterson and including a personal greeting.

Other laity expressing gratitude were Darlene Webster, Gene Cray, DeAngelo Johnson, Howard Mason, and Allen Streett.

Paul Owens, Mike and Barbara Rotina, reflected on the development of Cornerstone UMC, and on the creation of a new congregation, Connection Community UMC, out of Cornerstone.

Darlene Webb, Cynthia Rodriguez, Sung Ho Bae, and Odette Wright, all reflected on the Bishop's strong prophetic leadership in enabling us to celebrate the rich diversity of the clergy, laity, and congregations of our Annual Conference.

Slide presentations acknowledged Bishop Weaver's deep commitment to the work of mission, especially our Annual Conference's initiative in the Congo. Rob Townsend and Don Hamilton expressed appreciation for the Bishop's encouragement. A check was presented from the local congregations of the Conference in the amount of $10,000, designated for Kinshasa Projects in the Congo.

J. T. Seymour expressed appreciation for Bishop Weaver's prophetic preaching and leadership.

Bishop Weaver thanked God for the disciples of Jesus Christ who are a part of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference family.

The celebration concluded with the singing of the hymn "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," and prayer by J. T. Seymour.

Sunday Morning, June 6, 2004

The Annual Conference re-convened on Sunday, June 6, 2004 at 8:30 a.m. with gathering praise. We were led in worship by Turhan Potter, Helen Lockwood, Tina Blake, and Barbara Britt Johnson.

Bishop Weaver called the Conference to order, acknowledging this day as the 60th anniversary of D-Day, remembering the sacrifice of so many. He also mourned the passing of former President Ronald Reagan. The Bishop reminded the body that this would be a day of remembering those who have gone before us into the Church Triumphant, and also a celebration of ordination and commissioning. In the Living the Message devotional by Eugene Peterson, this day's reading was entitled "Sacrifice," based on Psalm 5, the Hebrew morning prayer.

The Bishop again expressed heartfelt gratitude for the celebration of his ministry and service over these past eight years.

Commissioning of Congo Mission Team: Don Hamilton and guests from the Congo were introduced. A total of almost $22,000 was given on Saturday, June 5, by Conference members and local churches, between disaster relief and support to projects in the Congo. Gil Hoffman introduced Jorge Vargas, a pastor from Costa Rica. Accompanied by Jeremias Rojas, pastor Vargas greeted the Conference. David Bennett and members of Kent Island UMC will be in mission in Costa Rica in July 2004. Representatives from the Congo who have been itinerating in local churches on the Peninsula were introduced. They addressed Conference members, expressing gratitude for prayerful, financial, and missionary support.

Jonathan and Donna Baker are leading a medical mission team to the Congo in July 2004. Prayer partners are being sought before, during, and after the mission. We are invited to pray every day at noon, and to fast every Friday.

Jeremias Rojas expressed concern for conditions in the Dominican Republic following recent flooding, leaving hundreds of families homeless.

Bishop Weaver commissioned the team that was scheduled to depart for the Congo in July. He prayed for them, and led the Annual Conference in singing "Here I Am, Lord."

Carol Sieg announced Advance Special Number 410200 for Dominican Republic/Haiti flood relief.

Resolution R-9—To Adopt National Plan for Hispanic Ministries as Approved by the 2000 General Conference and Re-Funded by the 2004 General Conference for the 2005-2008 Quadrennium :

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference recognizes that the Hispanic Population is the fastest growing racial/ethnic group in the Conference, already comprising nearly 8% of the general population, with concentrations in some towns exceeding 35%;

WHEREAS, the Spirit is leading our denomination to respond in various ways to God's call to Hispanic ministries;

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, all congregations, Hispanic or not, will diligently assess their communities in order to identify needs for ministry within specific Hispanic groups.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, all Districts within the Peninsula -Delaware Conference shall organize a District Committee on Hispanic Ministries, or its equivalent, comprising members of local Hispanic Ministries, a District Superintendent and other members with a passion and vision to advocate for this life-changing ministry.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference recognizes the specific ministry needs of all racial/ethnic groups and to that end hereby adopts the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry as a plan for ministry within the bounds of the Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, all congregations, will consider Hispanic Ministries as a vital Mission Area Ministry, and will provide seed monies to each respective District Committee on Hispanic Ministries to establish and nurture Hispanic faith communities and furthermore will advocate for overall racial justice and understanding in the communities throughout the Peninsula- Delaware Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Conference Task Force for Hispanic Ministry recommends adoption of this resolution to be effective on January 1, 2005.

The resolution was introduced by Rob Townsend, and it was affirmed.

Resolution R-13—In Honor of the Late Dr. James C. Hardcastle: Submitted by the Embracing the Black Church Task Force

WHEREAS, Dr. James C. Hardcastle touched the lives of countless children and youth in his teaching career as a Math teacher at Booker T. Washington Junior High School and as Principal of William Henry High School of the Capital School District, Dover, Delaware; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Hardcastle made various contributions as an Assistant Superintendent of that racially integrated Capital School District, fulfilling his administrative responsibilities and serving as a role model for younger generations of those who knew him; and

WHEREAS, his educational contributions included the remarkable achievement of serving as a member of the Board of Trustees of Delaware State University for over forty years and as President of the DSU Alumni Association, generously devoting himself to this form of service in the field of higher education; and

WHEREAS, James C. Hardcastle also earned the trust and confidence of those in the community who elected him to the Dover City Council for five terms, thereby indicating his stature in the community and the broad based support received from all segments of society; and

WHEREAS, Brother Hardcastle was deeply involved in the structures of the United Methodist Church, beginning with his own congregation, Whatcoat UMC, and extending to the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, the Northeastern Jurisdiction of the UMC and the UM "general church;" and

WHEREAS, Dr. Hardcastle was willing to serve God and the people of this annual conference as a lay member to the Annual Conference, the Conference Lay Leader, a member of conference-wide leadership councils and boards, and as an elected delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences on several consecutive occasions; and in other ways too numerous to mention;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this 2004 Annual Conference pays tribute to James C. Hardcastle as an outstanding community leader, a remarkable educator, a trailblazing black leader who earned support across racial lines, a dedicated servant of God, a devoted husband, father, relative, and friend. May the life and service of James C. Hardcastle long endure as an inspiration to us and to younger generations! And to God be the glory!

The resolution was presented by J. T. Seymour and Charlotte Nichols. It was enthusiastically endorsed by the body.

Election of Nominees to the 2004 Jurisdictional Pool for General Agencies:

A complete slate of those nominated the various categories was presented by J. T. Seymour. The Annual Conference affirmed this slate, which will be forwarded by the Conference Secretary to Carolyn Marshall, Secretary of the General Conference, within five days of the conclusion of this session of the Annual Conference. Names submitted beyond the allotted number for each category were included as reserves.

Missions Presentation: Resolution R-3 for Conference Advance Specials, 2005-2008

Overview of the Conference Advance Special Program:

- Agencies can apply through the Enabling Ministry Resource Team to be recognized as a Conference Advance Special. They then must abide by a set of rules in raising funds amongst our churches.
- Each CAS is permitted one appeal per year. CAS related to a District ministries (NH, SUM) are permitted a 2nd appeal to churches within their District.
- Gifts should be sent to the Conference Office on the Benevolence Remittance Form. Line 65.3 (CAS) is designed for that purpose. Please include CAS# and name to ensure proper credit.

The following projects were reviewed and are tentatively suggested for approval for Conference Advance Specials for the years 2005-2008: The Vision Team might make changes to this list at their May meeting. Each CAS has their annual requested level of support. Their month for appeal is also listed. The first six are renewal requests. The next four are approved Conference appeals that will now be listed as a CAS. The last two are to replace missionary funding from GBGM.

Volunteers-In-Mission Scholarship Fund (CAS-1 VIM) - $6,250 July

Getting personally involved in a mission trip beyond the Conference has proven to be an eye and heart opening experience for those who have had such an opportunity. But even the lowest cost trips can run up to $500 for a week. Your gifts to this CAS will help your fellow United Methodist of more limited financial means partake in these life-changing trips.

Barratt's Chapel and Museum (CAS-2 Barratt's) - $12,500 - April

Barratt's Chapel is a historical landmark of the United Methodist Church. Visitors can see and learn the stories and traditions of American Methodism. Through the museum persons are able to see many of the materials and records used by our forbearers. Historical archives and library services are available to visitors.

Barratt's Chapel continues in ministry, since 1780, to make its facilities available for community services including weddings, funerals, and baptisms. In order to maintain the chapel and museum, Barratt's Chapel depends on user fees and donations.

Salisbury Urban Ministries (CAS-3 SUM) - $25,000 - June

The mission of Salisbury Urban Ministries is to develop and coordinate the programs that serve and minister to the needs of Salisbury's materially impoverished. We will increase awareness of these needs through our congregations and provide avenues for reacting. We will promote the concern for racial understanding and appreciation. We will accomplish this through: a unified collaboration of churches, involvement of laity and the use of unique gifts of each congregation, and the sharing of resources in order to tap into existing programs.

Current outreach efforts include a feeding program (God's Kitchen), exposing children to the arts (Urban Choir Camp), a food pantry (The Lazarus Fund), and a Youth Council to plan programs for area youth.

Neighborhood House-Wilmington (CAS-4 Nhouse) - $20,000 September

Neighborhood House operates on a foundation of Christian principles and pursues two primary goals:

1. Assist and guide people with finding their own paths of awareness, self-sufficiency, productivity, hopefulness, and success
2. Provide leadership, support, and advocacy for a comprehensive approach to community, economic, and leadership development.

To meet these challenges, Neighborhood House operates community centers in South Wilmington and in the Middletown-Odessa-Townsend area. Volunteers and staff at these facilities offer a wide range of services to address immediate needs and create future opportunities.

Congregational Development Corporation (CAS-5 CDC) - $25,000 October

The Congregational development Corporation (CDC) processes grants and loans to newly-formed churches and existing churches to improve and extend the United Methodist ministry through the construction of new churches and repairs and renovations to existing churches.

With the Conference goal of starting twenty new churches in the next five years, we need extra support. The Conference budget supplies about $70,000 per year, a drop in the bucket for what it takes to start twenty new churches and help existing churches with repairs and new ministry outreach programs.

Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program (CAS-6 HBLEP) - $12,500 December

The organizational mission of Howard Bailey LEP is to:

- Help people re-affirm and reclaim their own sense of identity.
- Re-identify the constructive elements of African-American community life.
- Provide re-clarification of culture and the continuity of history.
- Address educational and cultural diversity.
- Teach positive relational skills and demonstrate/model responsible adult behavior.

Our targeted audience consists of boys and girls, grades 5-6-7-8 for the current school year.

Our leadership team is made up of senior high school students who received special training for this program.

Central Congo Partnership (CAS-7 Congo) - $37,500 July

Adopted as a new mission partnership, the Bishop Weaver Central Congo Partnership will raise funds to maintain the school and orphanage we built under the Hope for the Children of Africa Appeal. Additional funding will be used to pay salaries and purchase vital supplies. Up to 10% of the funds raised can be set aside to help send members to the Congo to support the work being done or to bring Congolese here to enrich our partnership experience.

Africa University Scholarship (CAS-8 Line 60.9) - $25,000 November

Adopted at the 2003 AC meeting, this effort is to endow a scholarship at Africa University designated for a student from the Central Congo Area. Training the future leaders of Africa in Africa is the central mission of Africa University. This effort will provide teachers and nurses to our Congo Partnership efforts. The 2nd Sunday in November is designated Africa University Sunday.

BOOM Scholarship Fund (CAS-9 BOOM) $25,000 - May

Each year, 30-40 of our pastors are in seminary. Annual costs range from $5000 to $20,000; all to be paid on salaries that start under $20,000 per year. This effort is to both raise awareness of this need and provide some educational funding support for our student pastors.

Disaster Relief (CAS-10 Disasters) $50,000 – August

Hurricane Isabel established a pressing need for us to reach out and help our fellow churches and members recover from this disaster. Having a pool of funds to draw upon will allow for faster response in the future.

Native American Ministries (CAS-11 NAM) $10,000 (month containing Native American Ministries Sunday)

We have two missionaries currently funded by the Global Board. They are working on building a better understanding between the greater UMC and its 20,000 Native American members. This CAS will help some of this work continue after GBGM funding ends in 2005.

Deaf Ministries (CAS-12 – Deaf Min) $10,000 January

The funding for our missionary working on raising the awareness of the need of our deaf/hard-of-hearing members ended in April of this year. This appeal will allow her to continue her work part-time on this need, which grows as our church membership ages.

Conference Advance Special Sunday

To raise awareness of the Conference Advance Specials, the first Sunday of Lent will be designated Conference Advance Specials Sunday. The offering taken that day will be divided among a selected subset of all the approved CAS. Designation of the offering and promotion of CAS Sunday will be the responsibility of the Conference Missions Resource person, assisted by the EMR Team.

The purpose of this Sunday is two-fold. Most importantly it is to raise awareness of mission/ministry projects deemed vital by our Annual Conference. During the first two years of having CAS's, few churches took offerings. Second, we understand asking for 12 special offerings can become overwhelming when added to the six Special Sundays and other appeals. All churches will be encouraged to at least take this one offering to support the selected subset of CAS.Resolution Conference Advance Specials

Conference Advance Special Sunday – 1st Sunday of Lent

Current lineup for each CAS Sunday:

2005	2006	2007	2008
Native Am Min	BOOM Scholarship	Disaster Relief	Neighborhood House
Deaf Ministries	VIM Scholarship	Central Congo	Salisbury UM
Howard Bailey	AU Scholarship	Cong. Development	Barratt's Chapel

The report and resolution were presented by Kevin Goodwin. The resolution was affirmed. A Dominican Republic Volunteers in Mission Team is to be formed for August, 2004.

New Church Starts Initiative: James T. Seymour introduced this presentation. A video was produced by Bo Gordy-Stiith featuring the new church starts on the Dover District. Featured in this video were Evergreen UMC in Seaford, Hope UMC in Dover, Source.God in Milford, Daybreak in Smyrna, and Faith Alive in Selbyville.

2006 Budget Reconfiguration Task Force: The report was presented by Howard Brecht.

Bishop Weaver expressed thanks to Host District Superintendent Tom Donnachie, who in spite of serious surgery, carried through his leadership responsibilities in making this Annual Conference session possible.

Tom Donnachie in turn thanked Bishop Weaver for his support and presented him a T-shirt with the emblem of Annual Conference. He also expressed gratitude to his fellow District Superintendents: Patricia Bryant Harris, John Mitchell, and Sandra Steiner Ball; to our fine Conference staff; to all who served on the Sessions Team, especially to the Worship and Hospitality Sub-Teams; to the audio and lighting technicians; the musical gifts of William "J.R." Blake; and to his wife, Judy.

Howard Mason requested prayer for Darlene Webster, who was to undergo surgery following the Annual Conference.

Bishop Weaver thanked those who serve with him in the Philadelphia Area office: Judy Schofield and David Fife.

Boyd Etter, Conference Secretary, thanked the assistant secretaries, John Van Tine and Jean Norwood, and Christine Lee who has assisted in typing the daily proceedings for these Annual Conference Sessions. As Bishop Weaver reminded us, "this is God's work, it is not ours." The Bishop read from Philippians 4 in The Message. He again led the body in prayer, inviting members and guests to lift up prayer requests.

Patricia Bryant Harris moved to adjourn this 220th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Service of Remembrance and Holy Communion

Family members were greeted and a video presentation recounted the lives and ministries of those whom the body celebrated:

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned. (We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)
- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153.)

- (8) Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
- (9) The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
- (10) Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

(Amended by Annual Conference Action on June 4, 1994)

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORTDover District

"My dear, dear friends! I love you so much. I do want the very best for you. You make me feel such joy, fill me with such pride. Don't waver. Stay on track, steady in God."

Philippians 4:1 The Message

My third year on the District has continued to be a good experience. Ministry and Mission are taking place all over the District. New congregations are developing! New worship services are being designed. Mission and ministry opportunities are being discovered and explored every day.

Once again, training opportunities on the District were well attended. This year we tried holding SPRC and Missions training together on two consecutive days, one in the northern and the other in the southern part of the District. The response was overwhelming and adding my husband, Barry, to the training team for SPRC brought great response. His great sense of humor and skill in storytelling drove some important points home in a memorable way. Levin VanSant, our District Lay Leader, gave wonderful leadership to the missions training event as well. Levin's passion is mission and stewardship. He is a wonderful and creative member of the District Team. We also welcomed Betty Gooch as the Associate District Lay Leader. She also is a great addition. While Levin dreams and visions, Betty helps to put those dreams and visions into the practical realm and attends to details while also adding her visionary contributions.

This year the Dover District continued its support of New Church Starts. One of our New Church Starts, Hope, was officially chartered as a United Methodist Church on May 23, 2004. Hope is meeting in Dover at the Wesley College Chapel. Daybreak, a new church start in the Smyrna area, is now planning to launch sometime in the fall of 2004. Please continue to keep all of our new church starts including Source, God, Faith Alive, and Evergreen, in prayer.

The Dover District Celebration of Investing in God's Kingdom was an awesome experience. With over 400 persons in attendance there was great testimony, wonderful music ministry, and the scrapbook that was compiled as a thank you to our Bishop, Peter D. Weaver, was awesome. A big thank you to all who helped and participated in this event. The Bishop greatly appreciated the event, our thank you, and the fact that we did not put him on the spot too much. When all was said and done over $6,000 was raised as an investment in the new ministries and training opportunities for Dover District Churches. Next year we will have a celebration that reports on what our investment has enabled on the District.

For the third year in a row, Dover District had a 100% return on our statistical and financial reports. Thank you once again for your attention to the administrative detail. Statistics and numbers do matter for they represent ministry and the persons being reached through our church ministries with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Dover District continues to move in many ways. What follows here are reports from several of the ministry teams on the Dover District.

Dover District Lay Leader Levin VanSant reports the following for the District Board of Lay Ministries:

We planned and put on our Laity Celebration at Grace UMC in Georgetown in November. It was well attended and everyone had a good time. We did two training sessions on Missions during the beginning of 2004.

The Dover District BOLM has some ambitious plans for 2004.

1. We will go to all the Churches in the Dover District to encourage the churches in the areas of Stewardship and Missions. We will also be explaining what the BOLM and the Lay Leader responsibilities are.
2. We will have several training sessions during the year for Church Lay Leaders.
3. We are trying a new way of celebrating our District Laity Banquet this year. We will hold the Banquet October 2 on the grounds of Betel Church's future church. It will be a picnic with rides, games and food for the whole family. Clowns will also be performing and a tent will be available for those who want some shade. Music and performances will be going on throughout the day. Tickets will be $10 for adults and $5 for children with the proceeds going to local district missions programs. Every church is encouraged to buy 5 tickets even if they don't plan to attend. Any extra tickets will be given away to families who cannot afford to pay for admittance.

Earle Baker, chair of the Dover District Committee on Ordained Ministry reports the following:

The Dover District Committee on Ordained Ministry is currently working with sixty-two people who are exploring their call to ministry. During the 2003-2004 Conference year the Committee met eleven times and conducted fifty-seven interviews.

- Eleven people had their first interview with the Dover DCOM and are in the Ministry Inquiry Process.
- Two were approved to begin Candidacy.
- Four were certified as Candidates for the Ordained Ministry.
- Twenty-six were continued as Certified Candidates.
- Three were recommended to the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for Commissioning.
- Four persons were discontinued.

The Dover District DCOM also met with five pastors serving on the District who have ordination in other denominations, with two retired Local Pastors who continue to serve among us, and with a couple who serve a church as Supply Pastors.

We had the pleasure of meeting eleven people as they began the process of answering their call to ministry. We are impressed by the depths of their faith, and in most cases, the clarity of their calls. We give thanks to the local churches who have nurtured them, and to the pastors and mentors who are helping form them for ministry in the church.

We also give thanks for the Herculean efforts of those who serve as Student Pastors, balancing the demands of ministry and the gifts of education. We recognize the awkwardness of having two equally demanding assignments, and witness the grace of God at work in both the pastor and the congregation as Student Pastors seek to be faithful in all things while juggling many responsibilities.

We rejoice that three under our care were approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry for Commissioning and were elected and commissioned at this year's Annual Conference.

Regrettably this year three candidates withdrew from the process, and we had to discontinue one candidate who failed to meet the educational requirements in the time allowed by the Discipline. Our committee also meets with five pastors who serve from other denominations on our district, and two retired Local Pastors, who continue to serve among us effectively.

We continue to see value in requiring candidates to provide written material to the Committee in advance of their interview. For the most part candidates are meeting the deadline for submitting paperwork, and where they are not; there is an opportunity to learn about expectations for ministry in the United Methodist Church.

Submitted written material has allowed the interviews to be more sharply focused, and subsequently has allowed us to zero in on areas where growth is needed, so that we can take a more pro-active stance in helping develop fully formed pastors. We continue to take seriously our work of not only discerning those who are called, but of identifying areas for growth so that the Called will also be equipped for effective ministry.

My sincere thanks go to Tim Duffield, Alice Ervin, Joe Faulkner, Mike Hurley, Jean Norwood, David Palmer, Cindy Quillen, Jeanel Starling, Harriet Windsor, and Sandra Steiner Ball for their tireless efforts in over fifty interviews! Each person brings unique gifts of insight and discernment to our work, allowing the Spirit to guide our deliberations.

We greatly appreciate the fine work that is being done by Mentors on the Dover District, whether that is guiding a candidate through the Ministry Inquiry Process, the Candidacy Guidebook, or mentoring the Certified Candidate, who, in most instances, is also pastoring one or more churches. The work of seasoned shepherds in raising up new shepherds is invaluable to the Church.

Finally thanks go to the United Methodist Women of Avenue Church whose wonderful luncheons for the DCOM enable us to work a full day, refreshed and renewed. And sincere thanks to Marilyn Cleeton, who handles scheduling, and keeps everything organized.

Kathleen Hawkins, chairperson of the District Committee on Building and Location reports:

In the past year churches on the Dover District continued their work toward renovating and building new facilities in order to accommodate growth and provide a more welcome reception to new visitors. The Committee on Church Location and Building met with 18 churches throughout the year and approved the following actions:

- Whatcoat UMC Camden – approval of sale of ancillary property
- Epworth UMC Rehoboth Beach – approval of land swap with the state and relocation of church. Preliminary approval of new church building on new site.
- Little Creek UMC – approval of new Sunday School Building and renovations to be handicapped accessible
- Long Neck UMC – update on plans to expand sanctuary and approval to redirect to a new contractor
- St. Paul's UMC Milford – update on plans to rebuild church
- Avenue UMC Milford – approval of sale of ancillary property
- Ewell-St. Paul's UMC Clayton – approval of elevator addition and other handicapped accessibility renovations
- Kenton UMC – approval of structural engineer to review steeple repair and replacement
- St. Paul's UMC Laurel – approval of new tabernacle building
- Source. God UMC Milford – approval of lease
- Christ UMC Laurel – approval of handicapped accessibility additions and renovations and preliminary approval of education wing
- Union UMC Bridgeville – approval of steeple replacement, roof repair and other parsonage maintenance items
- Trinity UMC Bridgeville – approval of new handicapped accessible bathroom and installation of new septic system, approval of grant request to CDC
- Wyoming UMC – approval of preliminary architectural and financial plans for new church building
- Evergreen UMC Seaford – received plans regarding coffeehouse project and provided direction for moving forward
- Houston UMC – approval of preliminary building and financing plans
- Zion UMC Milton – approval of work and grant request to CDC for funding to correct severe mold and mildew problem
- Conley's UMC Millsboro – approval of preliminary concept plans for relocating the church and building a new structure.

It is exciting to see the energy at multiple churches on the Dover District around their needs for larger facilities and for improved facilities in order to attract more people!

Pat Dorey, chairperson of the Superintendency committee reports:

The Dover District is blessed to have The Rev. Dr. Sandra Steiner Ball as our District Superintendent and Marilyn Cleeton as her Administrative Assistant. The Dover District Committee on the Superintendency is a wonderful committee of dedicated persons who try to be supportive of Sandra and Marilyn as they work diligently to lead and support the district churches and the clergy and lay persons within this district. Sandra has also served as Dean of the Cabinet this year, adding to an already full schedule. Our committee has not met as frequently this year as in the past due to scheduling conflicts.

Clergy members of the committee currently serving include Fred Duncan, Diane Melson, and Rene Knight. Lay members include Pat Dorey, Chairperson, Ralph Allen, Linda Grabowski, Gerald Hitchens, Barbara Rutt, Pat Moore, Connie Strickland and Levin VanSant (Dover District Lay Leader.) Rev. Alice Ervin has just completed her term on the committee and we are grateful for her insights and support. Serving as the District Superintendent's "PPR committee," we attempt to be candid with the DS as well as supportive, encouraging yet insisting that she care for her own needs and those of her family amidst the demands of the job to which God has called her. The most difficult part of this committee's work is getting Sandra to take a day off now and then. It is obvious that Jesus Christ is her source and her strength, because otherwise she would run out of energy. Thanks to Barry, Sarah and Becky for sharing your wife and mom with all of us in the Dover District.

In Conclusion

Once again, this year has been a blessing, a busy blessing, but a blessing non-the-less. I am truly thankful for all the clergy and laity on the District. There are so many gifts here. I am especially thankful for Earle Baker who has done a tremendous job as the chair of the dCOM. He is stepping out of the chair position as he assumes the chair of the Commission on Archives and History. However, I am grateful that he will remain a member of the committee itself. I am looking forward to working with the new chair, Rev. David Palmer.

I too am grateful for the opportunity I have had to work closely with Bishop Peter D. Weaver. I have learned a great deal by both watching and listening to him as he has given administrative oversight and spiritual leadership to our Conference. I, as well as many others, will miss him but appreciate the time that God granted for us to be in ministry together. I am both a better person and a better pastor because of the time allotted for us to be colleagues in ministry.

Last, but certainly not least, I give God thanks and praise for the Dover District Administrative Assistant, Marilyn Cleeton. Marilyn continues to be my right arm. Again, I could not have been blessed with a better, more capable or supportive Administrative Assistant. Marilyn gives her all in ministry to God and Christ through her work on the District. Thanks! Marilyn.

I am once again looking forward to the coming year on the District. It will be one of transition as we welcome a new Bishop. These are indeed exciting times as we work together to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Rev. Dr. Sandra L. Steiner Ball

Easton District Report

"Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice?" Phil. 4: 4

As we entered this past conference year we, the Easton District did so with great expectations. The Easton District would host the 2004 session of our Annual Conference. The theme: "Walking in Faith: Shaped by the Word & Empowered by the Spirit" was set before us. For the next 11 months pastors and laity from the district and conference would gather faithfully to be shaped by God's Word and empowered by God's Spirit. From these gatherings, many of which were hosted by local churches on the Easton District, the Annual Conference came to fruition at the University of Maryland, Easton Shore on June 4-6, 2004. What occurred over the next three days was a blessing. There were times of inspirational worship, holy conferencing, fellowshiping and feasting. There were times for folks to greet each other and times to bid farewell. We celebrated persons entering the ministry and persons retiring from the ministry.

This past year brought its share of storms to the district, but none like that experienced by Hurricane Isabel. With the quick thinking of our Bishop, Peter Weaver, members from the United Methodist Committee on Relief were called to help us organize for the recovery effort. Pastors and laity alike reached out in extra ordinary ways to offer supplies, relief and comfort to those in need. Pastors like Linda Mariner, Bill Dore, David Kreek, Joe Kelly, Norma Wiegand, Turhan Potter, Bob Kirkley, Dale Brown, Don Schell and others reached out to help in special ways. A Hurricane Relief Task Force was appointed by Bishop Weaver and Mr. Jim Michael from Secretary United Methodist Church was named and hired as the chief administrator. From his office at Grace UMC in Cambridge, Mr. Michael and his staff would coordinate the relief efforts in both Delaware and the Eastern Shore. Included in the efforts were work teams from a variety of denominations and locations. The clean up efforts will continue at least through the end of 2004. Additional funds are still greatly needed. We will never forget the sign outside the Hoosier Memorial Church: "Before the storm, during the storm, after the storm: Jesus is Lord."

The Board of Laity recently went through some administrative changes. Joan Wolff, who was the District Lay Leader from St. Mark's, Easton was appointed as the Associate Minister of that church. Yvonne Paxton was then named the new District Lay Leader. At this Annual Conference, Yvonne was assigned the pastoral duties at the Still Pond-Kennedyville Charge. The Easton District is in prayerful search for a new District Lay Leader.

But in the midst of the changes, the District Laity Committee sponsored a very well attended Laity Banquet. Bishop Peter Weaver was the guest speaker. In the fall of 2003 and the winter months of 2004 the Board sponsored the Lay Academy. The attendance for both schools continued to increase. Special recognition goes to all the laity who attended the schools and their pastors who encouraged and promoted the schools. Once again, there was a resounding praise for the teachers of the various classes and the administrative leaders including Evelyn Taylor, Joan Wolff and Yvonne Paxton. The work of the Board of Laity continues as they plan on hosting the fall Conference Lay Banquet. It is their hopes that the newly appointed bishop will be the guest speaker.

Rev. Oscar Lopez has faithfully coordinated the District Committee on Ministry (DCOM). Meeting numerous times of the year the Committee interviews those persons called into ministry. The Committee is currently comprised of both clergy and laity. Together with the District Superintendent, the Committee also helps in the selection of mentors for the candidates.

Rev. Joshua Lebelo has convened the District Committee on the Superintendency. This Committee meets at least twice a year to review the work and ministry of the District Superintendent. I am pleased to say that the Committee is well represented by both clergy and laity. There is also one youth serving on the Committee, Mr. Robert Miller who is interested in perusing a call to ministry. Robert recently graduated from Cambridge-South Dorchester High School. On the other end of the age spectrum but very involved with the Committee was Anna Hollis. God recently (June 3) called Anna to her heavenly home. We give thanks for her faithfulness in serving her local church, district and conference.

I want to also thank the District Committee for their support of the District training days. These training days were held on each of our five districts on the same day at the same time. Attendance for the most part was very encouraging. The practice of district leadership training events will continue throughout the next conference year.

The District Committee on Building and Church Location now meets every other month. For the past two years, the Rev. Robert Thomas has faithfully provided leadership to this team of clergy and laity. Rev. Thomas has now resigned from the Committee due to health reasons. During the year the Committee has heard from numerous churches throughout the district involved in building projects. Churches are renovating and adding space for worship, education and fellowship. A new parsonage has been completed on the Royal Oak Charge. Metro-Zion (Denton), Waugh (Cambridge), and St. Luke's (Cambridge) churches are all about to begin building their new sanctuaries. In addition two multiple point charges have each merged thus eliminating the rotation of churches for morning worship. The Rev. Samuel Holdbrook-Smith and the Rev. Alice Hutchins pastor these charges.

The District Committee has recently been merged with the Research and Design Team in order to work together in identifying places for new ministries. Attention will be given for a multi-cultural faith community. Also, the committee will pay attention to the ever-increasing Hispanic population throughout the district.

I also want to commend the work of the UMYF, the UMW and the UMM. Dionne Purnell and her crew of faithful volunteers have held several events on the district. This spring they rented the YMCA in Easton for a late evening and early morning of fellowship, faith and fun. Also, we thank Mr. David Burke for his always helpful assistance with our local church youth programs. And, to recognize the hundreds of youth and adult sponsors who attended this year's youth rally in Ocean City.

Ruth Ann Higgins from St. Mark's in Easton heads up a very active District UMW. They were very instrumental in helping with the Hospitality Team for Annual Conference. Charles Brummel heads up the District UMM. He is constantly trying to find new ways to bring the men of the district together. He and his team are to be complemented to a job well done at the Annual Retreat at Camp Pecometh.

And speaking about Camp Pecometh and Drayton Manor, we are very blessed to have these wonderful facilities within the boundaries of our district. Rev. Jack Shitama and the staff at both facilities offer the gifts of hospitality and faith development for young and older alike. Drayton Manor has served our conference and others well over its many years. A new day for adult ministries is about to emerge in whatever way God directs. Churches throughout the district have sent hundreds of children and youth to Camp Pecometh as they recognize this special place for Christian ministry.

They may not be directly a part of the Easton District, but connectionally they are. They are my fellow District Superintendents, Sandra Steiner Ball, Patricia Bryant Harris and John Mitchell. I give thanks daily for their presence in my life. Together, we have labored side by side, at times laughing together, at times crying together; but in all, it is together.

And throughout this past year, for the last eight years God has blessed our Annual Conference with the spiritual and administrative leadership of Bishop Peter D. Weaver. I thank God for Bishop Weaver. He has been an encourager, a sharer and witness of the faith. He has helped me understand God's Word in new and challenging ways. May God's most wonderful blessings be with him as he goes forth to new places.

And finally, I want to thank the many churches, pastors, lay folks throughout this annual conference who have kept Judy and myself in their prayers as I went through a time of pain, surgery and recovery. Almost everyday from the time of my injury through the days of recovery I would receive some card, a note, a phone call reminding me of the prayers, love and concern of many a folk. I thank God for each and every one of you.

Rev. Dr. Thomas P. Donnachie III

Salisbury District

"O my soul, bless God, don't forget a single blessing!"

(Psalm 103, The Message)

The conference year began with the District Superintendent spending three months on Renewal Leave as per the guideline of the 2000 United Methodist Discipline. This time was spent in prayer, reflection and family time and indeed was a blessing of renewal with God and oneself. From the time of renewal, two ministries of nurture developed which were implemented during the year, along with other district nurture ministries.

Nurture

Quarterly district clergy meetings were held with a twelve-month theme of "Wholeness." There were four areas of focus: physical, spiritual, mental/emotional, and social wholeness. The clergy attended the meetings with openness and some anticipation of hearing God speak about self-care through different ways. "God Has A Message For You" was the theme of the district Spiritual Life Retreat which was held on the third weekend in April in Ocean City, MD, hosted at Atlantic United Methodist Church, where over 125 persons attended. This was a time of spiritual breakthroughs with teaching, fellowship, reflection and worship.

In Lay Ministry, the Board of Laity continued to conduct an outstanding Lay Academy. In March, 230 lay speakers graduated at the Lay Academy Graduation Banquet, which was held at the Wicomico Youth and Civic Center with over 500 persons in attendance. Bishop Weaver's ministry with the Salisbury District was celebrated, as he was our keynote speaker probably for his last time with us as Resident Bishop. During the graduation banquet, appreciation was given to Major and Doris Bailey, Lay Academy Directors for their years of service and Phyllis Hardy of Delmar: Union and Carol Carlson of Salisbury: Christ were welcomed at the new Lay Academy Co-Directors. Major Bailey also announced that the Salisbury Lay Academy is currently the largest in the United Methodist Church with 650 lay speakers.

Lay Ministry is not just celebrated with the adults but with the children as well. The Cherub Bell Choir (consisting of toddlers to second grade) and an eight-year old soloist, all from Crisfield: Mt. Pleasant participated in the Conference Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium held in Easton, MD in January. February was the month for our District Lay Leadership Training, which was once again very well attended with training for the various leadership and committee responsibilities of the local church. Training was facilitated by clergy and laity (several were co-facilitated in partnership), and there were also clergy who attended the training with their laity, in keeping with the emphasis of partnering in ministry.

Growth and Development

As in previous years, spiritual growth and physical growth are evident throughout the district. The District Board of Church Location and Building has worked with congregations as they have brought forth plans for new facilities and additions and/or renovations to existing facilities. Among those congregations with building projects that are in process or have been completed are Berlin: Stevenson, Girdletree: Cool Spring, Hebron: St. Paul's, Ocean Pines: Community, and Princess Anne: Metropolitan. The congregations of Princess Anne: St. James, Rev. Carroll Fields, Pastor and Quantico: Mt. Zion, Rev. Delores Wilks, Pastor took steps of faith and they have built new churches with administrative and fellowship facilities to be in ministry for each congregation respectively, and to serve the communities in which they reside. The new Salisbury District Office, which is at Christ UMC in Salisbury was consecrated by Bishop Weaver in March and we were blessed through the trustees of Christ UMC with a prayer garden immediately outside the office. A special thanksgiving to God and a heart of gratitude to the congregation of Christ church and Pastor Norma Bailey for their open hearts and willing spirits as they welcomed us to be in ministry on their site.

The Vital Ministry Support Team (formerly the Apportionment Review Committee) met with pastors and financial officers of congregations, as is the normal procedure to make decisions regarding requested apportionment reductions. The number of churches requesting apportionment reductions has decreased from 45 in 1998-1999 to an average of 18 or less over the past five years. This team is a conscientious group of clergy and laity who understand the needs of the local church and seek to provide balance based upon the financial realities of the conference. This year, a sub-committee was formed who have begun to work on developing a plan to assist congregations in understanding and planning their finances as they face important decisions in the life their local church.

There are three New Church Starts in progress on the Salisbury District: "Teens On The Go," with pastor, Janice Humphrey meets twice during the week at Salisbury: Grace; "The Way," with pastor Gregory Spencer meets on Wednesdays at Salisbury: Asbury; and Iglesia Christiana El Refugio, with pastor Jorge Luis DeJesus meets on Sunday afternoons at Salisbury: Grace. We sadly remember Nylsa DeJesus, wife and co-pastor with Jorge Luis, who joined Jesus in glory this past spring. Her kind, gentle spirit and love for God's people are truly missed.

Mission and Outreach

Inclusiveness is a focus on the Salisbury District and Mission Area Ministry was one approach in encouraging people of God to be in communion with God and with one another. Through the process of missional appointment making by the Bishop and Cabinet, there are currently eight cross-racial appointments of pastors and congregations serving in ministry together.

When missional needs are expressed, the response from the congregations on the Salisbury District is always "we will help." Smith Island was hit by hurricane Isabel in October, 2003 and their was damage to the residences and churches on the island. In response to this need, the churches of Salisbury District made contributions to the Smith Island Disaster Relief totaling more than $7,000. The pastor and three congregations on the island praised God for all the prayers and financial, and material support received. Life and livelihood on the island has been in the restoration process faster because of the assistance that has been given. Following General Conference, as three General Conference delegates from the Democratic Republic of the Congo visited our conference area, they visited the Salisbury District during the week leading into Annual Conference. Pastors and congregations of the district showed our sister and two brothers the ultimate Eastern Shore hospitality as they experienced Smith Island, the sands, water and boardwalk of Ocean City, the comfort and beauty of UMES. A "Mission Well" was established by Pat and Jim Harris to address some of the needs of the Kinsasha district, who's district superintendent was one of the visiting delegates. Congregations and individual members contributed to the "Mission Well" and a total of $5000 was raised to contribute toward some of the missional priorities in Kinsasha.

On the Salisbury District, we must bless God, for his great works. We cannot forget a single blessing we have received. We honor our God of love and abundance!

Rev. Dr. Patricia Bryant Harris

Wilmington District

I Corinthians says, "Every time I think of you, and I think of you often! I thank God for your lives of free and open access to God, given by Jesus. There's no end to what has happened in you. It's beyond speech, beyond knowledge. The evidence of Christ has been clearly verified in your lives."

Overview - I have so much to be thankful for as I am concluding my 4th year as the District Superintendent. It has been a wonderful year filled with growth and challenges. But the graciousness and understanding that I have received has been deeply appreciated.

Our district committees have also been extremely helpful, as well as extremely busy during this past year.

The District Committee on Superintendency, under the capable leadership of The Rev. Ray F. Graham has been tremendously supportive of the work of the superintendent, as well as to me personally. Their guidance and prayerful support throughout the year was a wonderful blessing.

The District Board of Ordained Ministry, again under the capable leadership of The Rev. Donald Godwin, provided the church a valuable service in its ministry. This committee worked with 31 candidates seeking to go into pastoral ministry. They did this ministry with skill and compassion.

The District Committee of Church Location and Building, under the wonderful leadership of Mrs. Patricia Johnson, from Aldersgate UMC is to be commended for their fine work in guiding local churches through the process of building expansion and developing plans for future growth. Currently, there are 13 building projects underway, at a cost of over 12 million dollars.

The District Committee for Lay Leadership School is, in my opinion, one of the best I've ever experienced. Mrs. Jane Brown has given outstanding leadership to this ministry within our district. Through the winter session, over 100 lay speakers have been certified and trained, as well as numerous church officers, for their role in the local church. Jane and her committee are to be commended for their faithful service in this ministry.

The District Board of Laity continues to benefit from the capable leadership of Mr. Allen Streett. The Board not only plans the district banquet, but also continues to keep the laity informed about district events and activities.

The District Youth Council continues to be under the capable leadership of Mrs. Gerrie Springer, under whose direction is, in my experience, is the most active Youth Council I've ever seen.

Many thanks also to the District United Methodist Women and Men for all they have done this year to serve the Lord in our district in their ministries. The District President, Mrs. Christine Keels, who has already demonstrated outstanding leadership bringing new vitality to the District United Methodist Women.

The ministry of Neighborhood House, under the leadership of Mr. Arthur Boswell, its Executive Director. Along with the Board of Directors, under the leadership of chairperson, Mrs. Norma Zumsteg, a new strategic plan has been developed for Neighborhood House. The mission ministry of Neighborhood House is an exciting one in one of the poorest areas of Wilmington, and deserves our support.

We also celebrate with The Rev. Maleia Rust, The Rev. Amy Yarnall and The Rev. Derrick Porter who received their commissioning. This past year has been a blessing for me. My faith has been strengthened, and I have been a witness to the transforming power of God's grace in so many ways, and in so many ministries of our local churches.

I am also especially grateful for the district Administrative Assistant, Carole Dobson. Her background in the local church, as well as her knowledge of the Wilmington District has been invaluable to me.

It has been a good year, but I am also absolutely convinced that the best is yet to come.

To the Glory and Honor of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

ADVOCACY RESOURCE TEAM

Combining of justice and mercy ministries REM model
R-Relationships E- Education M-Mobilization

Relationship involves reaching out with love, yet still being prophetic. Education is telling people where the social principles come from, explaining how the system works and what are the positions of the church. Mobilization is getting people to act. United Methodists make our views known to government leaders and our communities.

ART will host the annual Martin Luther King Jr. symposium to celebrate our multi-cultural strengths in the Peninsula Delaware conference, and to highlight individuals and organizations who exemplify racial inclusiveness within the body of Christ. The symposium will serve as a forum to address contemporary issues in race relations as it relates to our ministry on the peninsula.

ART will provide opportunities for dialogue with ethnic minority groups and will seek to effect change to improve awareness of issues confronting racism and community involvement. In response to the on site review conducted by GCORR in 2003-04, the need for communication between ethnic groups is critical for unity in the church. Therefore, through the task force on Reconciliation and Repentance, ART will host two gatherings of ethnic minority groups to monitor our progress and concerns since the on site review.

ART will present the study of the On Site review compiled by the General Commission on Religion and Race to the annual conference. The recommendations will be discussed and plans will be implemented to address the findings of this document. In areas where there is a need for collaboration between resource teams and committees, ART will highlight such concerns and assist the affected bodies in implementation of the goals.

ART will continue to provide funding for ministries with ethnic minority local churches and ethnic minority leadership when adequate applications have been filed.

Clergywomen and laywomen who are in leadership will come together to build relationships within our shared ministry in local churches and within our annual conference. We seek to encourage the full participation of all women in the United Methodist church. ART will serve as a monitor to ensure that the full participation of women is valued in annual conference settings.

ART will resource congregations and pastors in Advocacy work on issues that affect their local communities, our nation, and the world. This will be achieved through workshops on effective advocacy, through our use of Pacem in Terris to help us with national and global peace and justice issues, and through our relationship with the Board of Church and Society. We will update clergy and laity on important issues, see that churches receive a copy of Delmarva PEACEWORK, and encourage them to consult with Pacem in Terris about peace projects for their congregations. Through the use of instant communication with e-mail we will send out topics to mobilize grassroots advocacy.

ART will network in collaboration with African Methodist Episcopal, AMEZ, CME, and other churches in the African Methodist tradition. Representatives from this team will be encouraged to attend meetings for Pan Methodism. We will also work in promoting unity with other Christian denominations.

ART has served as an umbrella to ethnic caucas groups such as the Native American and Hispanic ministries tasks forces, and Black Methodists for Church Renewal. ART will provide financial support to promote the continued work of justice and advocacy in the communities that these caucuses seek to empower. ART will help promote and send representatives on mission trips into stated populations. ART will also support teaching, workshops and other activities by ethnic caucus groups for work within our annual conference. ART will also provide financial support to continue the work of deaf and hearing-impaired ministries within our area.

ART will teach and model the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church by providing resources to local churches, clergy and lay leadership. When specific concerns of justice impact our life in the Peninsula Delaware conference, members of ART will contact political representatives to uphold the position of the UMC. We will also try to reach our membership to form grassroots coalitions. We will conduct forums when needed to educate on controversial issues, to look at the churches position, theological and sociological implications.

The year 2006 marks the 50th anniversary of the denomination's granting full clergy rights to women. ART will form a task force to prepare a celebration for annual conference 2006 to highlight this event in our churches history.

Highlights and Accomplishments of the Advocacy Resource Team 2004

ART held a summer retreat at Delaware State University to help the committee set goals and dialogue about advocacy concerns.

The task force on Repentance and Reconciliation hosted three workshops at Drayton Manor with facilitators Jim Taylor, Suanne Ware-Diaz and Erin Hawkins from GCORR. The retreats were called "Nurturing Wholeness in Community." They were well attended by laity and pastors. Probationers were required to attend by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

The Martin Luther King Jr. Multicultural event was held in Easton. The honorable Carl Snowden from Annapolis, Md. was the guest speaker. Awards were given to honor persons in our annual conference. The event was well attended and highlighted with a hand bell choir, Praise dancers, Native American flutist and dance.

ART represented UM churches on the Eastern Shore at hearings in Annapolis, Md. with the state senate as we lobbied against Governor Erlich's proposal to use slots to fund education.

ART met with the Peninsula Interfaith Network for Justice, the Delmarva Poultry Alliance, and the Way Home program to discuss work conditions in the poultry industry, concerns of emerging Hispanic populations and the work force, as well as criminal justice issues in Delaware. We also met with a member of a local branch of the NAACP in Maryland to discuss the minority achievement gap in education and the needed funding of the Thornton legislation in Maryland.

A grant was given to provide funds for disaster relief. Grants were also awarded to the following organizations: Pacem In Terris, East New Market Linkwood Charge Shalom drug intervention, Whatcoat UMC Dover summer program and individual pastors for continuing education.

Committee on Native American Ministries

Section 1: Review of 2003 Goals

1. To participate in training events for clergy in the annual conference on how to relate to Native American issues and ministry. We have provided a Native American presence at the Nurturing Wholeness In Community Retreats in the Conference.
2. To offer classes/courses for lay persons through district leadership programs such as Lay Academies and Lay Speaking Schools regarding Native American issues and ministry. We are anticipating the opportunities to fulfill these goals.
3. To offer and be prepared to present a program on Native American spirituality and other traditions at events such as the Bishop's mid-winter retreat. We are anticipating the opportunities to fulfill these goals.
4. To provide speakers for Native American Ministry Sunday in particular and for Native American cultural awareness events in general. To work toward ensuring the best use of such speakers and their effective impact on local churches/communities. This is ongoing and we are working to deploy our speakers in such a way that they have a positive impact on local churches and communities.
5. To continue to develop and strengthen partnerships between the Indian Mission UMC and other congregations in the conference. Our 10-10-10 missionaries, Ragghi Calentine and Odette Wright, are working with a number of congregations in the conference in order to establish an ongoing relationship.
6. To expand the network of CONAM into other areas of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. CONAM has conducted programs in a variety of settings such as schools (including the University of Delaware), camps, scouting events and libraries.
7. To continue to promote the celebration of Native American Ministries Sunday. We are in the process of sending letters of thanks to all the congregations who have supported the Native American Ministries Sunday Special Giving.
8. To provide financial support for persons to attend the 2003 Native American Family Camp. Financial support was provided in 2003 by the Northeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Native American Ministries (NEJCONAM).
9. To continue to seek to identify other American Indian tribal peoples living within the boundaries of our annual conference. This is an ongoing effort. A considerable number of contacts have been made. The potential number has been expanded due to the revised census categories.
10. CONAM will supervise and support the 10-10-10 missionaries. We have set up a separate budget to continue the financial support for 10-10-10 missionaries program expenses.

Section 2: Significant Events, Goals & Challenges

- In 2003, Native American Ministries Sunday was supported by 5.42% of the total 461 churches in this conference. One church was responsible for almost one-fourth of the total amount given. The total given was less than $10,000., half of which remains in our local conference. The challenge is for the two 10-10-10 missionaries and CONAM to make some real changes in these figures.

- The most significant responsibility has been to oversee the 10-10-10 missionaries. We have set up a separate budget for program expenses, which they incur. In the future, Ragghi Calentine and Odette Wright, the 10-10-10 missionaries for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference hope to expand their work throughout the episcopal area. One of their goals will be to establish working relationships with churches who will resource their ministry through the conference advance. They are seeking outside funding resources as well to enable this ministry to continue beyond the 10-10-10 deadline of June 2005.
- Both of them will be teaching at the Native American Family Camp in Arkansas as part of their responsibility to the Native American International Caucus.
- Members have attended the North East Jurisdiction CONAM meeting in New York. Jean Norwood presently serves as treasurer of this group. Jean also has completed a four year term of membership on the Native American Comprehensive Plan. She has been the chairperson of the local CONAM since it's inception and this responsibility will now be given to Mrs. Boe Harris of St. John's UMC in Seaford.
- One of the significant events for 2003 was having the Rev. Dr. Thom "Whitewolf" Fassett, as the guest speaker for the worship service at the 26th Annual Nanticoke powwow. The CONAM team has also endorsed the episcopacy nomination of Rev. Fassett to become the first Native American to serve in this position. There will be a Native American presence at the General and Jurisdictional Conferences in 2004.

Goals for 2004

With God's grace and the prayers of our people we will continue with the ministry that has been the history of CONAM. We also continue to offer ourselves as an example of overcoming the racism that continues to infiltrate the being of our Annual Conference.

Jean Norwood, Chairperson

ENABLING MINISTRY RESOURCE TEAM

The Enabling Ministry Resource Team exists to resource and empower persons, groups, local churches and charges, and mission areas to be faithful disciples and effective witnesses of Jesus Christ. The EMRT's purpose includes concern on both a local and global scale.

Discipleship and service programs are cared for by the Interfaith Resource Center, the Health and Welfare Task Force, and other programs and grants. Witness and outreach concerns are accomplished through shared ministry with the Disaster Relief Task Force, Shalom Initiatives, Volunteers In Mission, and Mission Area Ministry grants and programs.

The EMRT also maintains important connectional ministries through United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women, the granting of awards for excellence in evangelism and urban ministries, and through the Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century Task Force.

This year we celebrate:

- The immediate response of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to hurricane Isabel and other disasters and continuing efforts in long-term relief work in Maryland (Rock Hall, southern Dorchester County) and Delaware (Glennville).
- The success of VIM trips in both the continental United States and abroad. These trips serve to educate, transform, and disciple both those who serve and those who are being served. VIM affirms the intrinsic value of all persons and builds partnerships and friendships through mission in the name of Jesus Christ.

- The continuing development of a long-term mutual relationship with the Congo and the creation of a mission fund and program named in honor of Bishop Peter D. Weaver. Our commitments to the Bishop's Initiative: Hope for the Children of Africa and to Africa University continue also.
- The continuation of and new applications for the Conference Advance Special Plan to support identified and approved ministries.
- The outstanding events sponsored by the Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century Task Force in the areas of prayer, spiritual formation, and leadership development.
- The awarding of grants to laity and clergy for education and training in ministry.

In the coming year we prayerfully desire to:

- Resource and assist Mission Area Ministry on each of the four districts.
- Maintain connectional ministries with the general church.
- Assist individuals, groups, and mission areas as they seek resources for training in effective ministry.
- Continue and enlarge Disaster Relief Task Force activities.
- Affirm and support the goals of EMRT member organizations.
- Examine the needs and priorities of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in an effort to define program and ministry needs and gaps.

REVIEW OF GOALS

Section 1: All goals were met with the exception of #8.

1. Supported and encouraged health ministers and parish nurses.

Four parish nurse network meetings, two semi-annual DE Region Health Ministries chapter gatherings and one retreat were coordinated. A parish nurse coordinator continues to be available for consultation, information and discussion.

2. Co-hosted the National Health Ministries Conference.

There was a record attendance of four hundred+ participants at the National Health Ministries Conference. The conference was a successful venture from evaluations received. Most states were represented as well as several foreign countries.

3. Continue to promote whole person health.

Two mailing lists are maintained for emailing and postal service providing whole person health information, community resources and educational opportunities to clergy, health professionals and lay leaders. Assistance with problem solving and community resources is available from the Parish Nurse Council established in 2003 consisting of Masters prepared parish nurse educators.

4. Empowering people to be responsible for their well being.

This goal is achieved through the education and counseling which parish nurses and health ministers receive from the above activities.

5. Open collaboration with other agencies and organizations that share common goals.

Agencies we have worked with in 2003 include; Christiana Care Health System, St. Francis Hospital, Catholic Charities, Health Education Network-(HENOD membership includes the majority of non-profit agencies in DE.) Delaware Nurses Association, Stroke Initiative of DE, AstraZeneca, The News Journal, City of Wilmington, SE Pennsylvania Health Ministry Chapter, American Heart Association, Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids, Cancer Outreach Center, the United Methodist Conference and others.

Additional Goals met in our 2003 report include:

6. Increasing the number of Parish Nurses/Health Ministers in local churches.
This goal was met by bringing the National HMA Conference to this area and providing partial scholarships to clergy, parish nurses and lay health leaders; offering partial scholarships to the Parish Nurse Preparation Programs and activities provided throughout the year.
7. The August retreat was made possible by Health and Welfare subsidizing the cost thereby allowing more volunteer parish nurses to attend.
8. A repeat of Lay health ministry training program is pending.
9. Nos. 4 and 5 under 2003's additional goals are discussed above.

Section 2: Highlight other significant events, accomplishments and challenges.

Grants issued.

Board of Global Ministries of the UMC = $2000 scholarship money to minorities for the HMA Conference.

Council on Finance and Administration = $3000 to help finance the HMA Conference.

Peninsula/DE Conference = $5000 to assist in subsidizing the HMA Conference and toward scholarships.

Significant events and accomplishments have been:

1. Co-Chairing the National Health Ministries Conference. Forty participated from the DE region, 25 of those United Methodists, a record! Fortunately we were able to provide scholarships!!
2. Four interfaith parish nurses network meetings providing worship, networking, education, discussion and fellowship. The average attendance is 15.
3. Two multi-faith health ministries dinner gatherings with prominent regional speakers. Average attendance is thirty and includes clergy, health professionals, lay health ministers and is open to everyone.
4. Parish nurse retreat with 23 parish nurses/nurses and two clergy attending.
5. Parish nurses participating in community and corporate stroke screenings and on the conference planning committee for the Health Education Network of DE Conference.
6. Parish nurses are represented on the DE Region Health Ministries Chapter Executive Board.
7. The DE Region Health Ministries quarterly newsletter and a wellness column in The Communicator.

Section 3: No changes are contemplated for 2004. The Health and Welfare Taskforce is mindful of walking in the Faith; shaped by the Word and empowered by the Spirit. Amen!

Committee on Mission Personnel

The Missionary to Deaf Children and the Native American Ministries are two programs within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference that have received funding through the 10-10-10 Program of the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM). The commitment for missionary support from GBGM was for a period of three years. These conference-wide programs have been providing valuable service throughout our conference.

Jill Stanford-Jicha provided the leadership as the Missionary to the Deaf Children. This committee recognizes her leadership as a missionary to the deaf community and thanks her for her service. The funding from GBGM ended in March 2004.

Odette Wright and Raggatha Calentine are the missionaries for the Native American Ministries. This committee recognizes the leadership of these two missionaries as they continue to serve within the conference. The funding from GBGM through the 10-10-10 Program will end during 2005.

How can you support missions within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and throughout the world?

You can support them through your prayers, financial support, and service.

GBGM publishes a prayer calendar that lists the missions around the world. Financial support can be made through GBGM Covenant Partnerships with missionaries and contributions to the GBGM Advance Specials.

Pray for the missions within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Support them financially through the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Advance Specials. Volunteer to serve!

Volunteer In Mission

Another Conference year is rapidly nearing its conclusion, and your VIM Mission Committee is enjoying the immense response of this Annual Conference as we work with a new Partnership with the peoples of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Last June, you unanimously approved a new working "Partnership" with the United Methodist People of the DRC. In addition, a second Resolution on making VIM Awareness Day the third Sunday of July was passed. A lot of activity has centered on this work and kept your Co-Coordinators very, very busy for the past twelve months.

VIM COMMITTEE/ DISASTER RECOVERY

Our Committee has been involved with developing VIM Mission Trips; working with the Peter D. Weaver Mission Project, working with Disaster Recovery and speaking in local churches. Hurricane Isabel was a devastating storm in our Conference. More than $34,000,000.00 damage was sustained. The VIM Committee was involved with Disaster Recovery planning throughout the Eastern Shore. Our role has been to serve as members of the coordinating Relief Committee, help organize the recruitment of VIM Teams to our Conference, and assist with visitations in the disaster recovery area.

Your Coordinators were involved in the annual VIM Training Rally at Scranton, PA October 19-21, 2003. The Hamilton's were special presenters on International Teams to Africa, which was received well. Additionally, we received special computer training for processing the information data sheets that are kept by General Board of Global Ministries in a data bank. The purpose of the training was to ensure the data banks are updated. Only the VIM Coordinators will have access to the information, providing security and confidentiality for all of our VIM Missioners.

PETER D. WEAVER MISSION PROJECT

The Volunteer-In-Mission Program for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference has improved its image and effectiveness within our districts and local churches. The VIM Committee hoped to increase the number of people involved in missions giving and personal participation. The Resolution you passed last year called for us to support this partnership at the rate of $30,000. We accomplished our mission with nearly 150 local congregations supporting mission projects. The Peter D. Weaver Mission funding was $126,146.83. We are so grateful to the people of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for their generosity, love and support.

The needs of our new partners are great and at times overwhelming. A Medical Mission VIM Team will be traveling to the Congo this year. The team will be offering basic health screening and provide support for the Mpsa Nutrition Center who provides one of the few medical services to the indigenous peoples of this vast nation. Dr. Jonathan and Donna Baker of Aldgersgate UMC located in Wilmington, DE will lead this team of 25 VIM'ers on this important mission.

Dr. Roger Boe, of the General Board of Global Ministries came to provide special training for this Medical Team. Training Medical Teams is Dr. Boe's specialty. Mrs. Janet Huston, Coordinator for the Troy Conference accompanied Dr. Boe.

Our prayers and support go out to this team as they break new ground with our new partners. Mildred Hamilton, one of the VIM Committee's Co-Chairs will travel with this team for support. The team will be traveling July 25-August 8, 2004.

VIM PROJECTS FOR 2004

Your Committee has added new and diversified VIM Trips for our Conference. The following have been offered for our support and involvement:

1. VIM Team to Costa Rica February 2004 – Gil Hoffman, Coordinator for Pen-Del
2. Medical Team to Democratic Republic of the Congo July 25- Aug 8 2004 – Jonathan Baker, Team Leader
3. Jamaica July 18-26 2004 – New York Conference
4. Costa Rica July 18-30, 2004 – Dave Bennett, Team Leader
5. Native American Mission July – Odette Wright, Team Leader
6. Disaster Recovery Pen-Del. Conference – Jim Michael, Coordinator

In addition to the above trips, we have provided information for possible trips to Alaska, Ghana, Zimbabwe, and Russia. In addition, we have some insight as to other local churches going to various mission areas around the US and abroad. Many thanks to the pastors and dedicated laity who make VIM possible. Your VIM Committee salutes you.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2004

This is the year of General Conference, and we hope to have representatives from the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Costa Rica visits our Annual Conference.

We are working with Bishop Onema Fama and his staff to identify persons coming to the General Conference who may be with us during the Annual Conference time. The Peter D. Weaver Mission Project Committee believes having persons visit and itinerate in the Conference is important for our relationships today as well as the future.

The outstanding work of Gil Hoffman has provided us the opportunity to receive the Reverend Jorge of Costa Rica. He has been invited and confirmed to visit our Annual Conference June 1-16, 2004. He will be visiting our churches north and south during this time. The hope is that his visit will heighten the Hispanic Ministry throughout our Conference. The Committee is excited that Rev. Jorge will be with us.

The Annual Conference will be asked to make and bring Health or Education Kits to the Annual Conference for future shipment to the DRC in the fall. At this point, we need to gather a number of things including the kits and other medical supplies. These collected items will be sent to the Congo in September of this year. The committee will send special letters to all churches asking for their support. This is an excellent way to become involved with the Peter D. Weaver Mission if you are not presently involved.

Mildred and I are so grateful to a magnificent VIM Committee and Weaver Mission Project Team members who have given their time, talent and treasure for this unique and important mission of our Conference. Thank you Gil Hoffman, Dona Rayne, Karen Morgan, Joy Burke, Doug Holmes, Doris Obenshain, Rob Townsend, Kevin Goodwin, Carol Svecz and Rick Ceresini.

Camping & Retreat Ministries

REVIEW OF 2003 GOALS

- Develop strategic plan for Camping & Retreat Ministries.

The Board of Stewards adopted a strategic plan in February of 2003. A key part of this plan is the sale of Drayton Retreat Center. The Annual Conference approved a resolution in June 2003 to place Drayton on the market. The strategic plan, itself, calls for three strategic priorities:

Retreat Ministry-Central to this strategy is the construction of a 36- bedroom adult retreat facility with adequate dining and meeting space on the Camp Pecometh property to increase our ability for both retreat hosting and programming.

Outdoor School-A business plan has been developed for a faith-based, environmental education program targeted toward Christian schools and homeschool groups. The program will run primarily in spring and fall and will use summer camp facilities, which are generally vacant during the school year.

Summer Camp-This will continue to be the centerpiece of Camping & Retreat Ministries, as it impacts the spiritual lives of so many young persons.

- Make preparations to begin implementation of the Pecometh Outdoor School business plan by January 2004.

Pecometh Outdoor School will begin pilot operations in the fall of 2004. A grant of $2,206 has been awarded by the Chesapeake Bay Trust to assist in materials purchase, curriculum development and staff training.

- Register 2100 campers in the Pecometh Summer Camp Program.

We registered 1706 campers in the 2003 summer camp program, a decrease of 9.3% from 2002 (1881 campers). We believe this was too primarily due to economy. We anticipate 2004 to see registrations return to previous levels or higher.

CAMPING AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

The Mission of Camping and Retreat Ministries is to provide hospitality and programming that promote God-inspired, life-changing experiences. While we realize that it is God who touches hearts and changes lives, our unique settings provide places where persons may be more open to these possibilities. We are committed to serving as a resource to the ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and its churches.

Camping & Retreat Ministries continues its objective of reducing the amount of annual conference support required to support operations. In 2003, support was reduced to $145,300 from $153,000 in 2002. This compares to $170,000 in 2000. Support in 2004 will be $140,350, which represents 12.2% of the total C&RM operating budget.

DRAYTON RETREAT CENTER

A purchase agreement with Drayton Manor, LLC, a development group headed by Mr. John Petro of Mitchellville, Maryland, was executed in October of 2003. The contract calls for a settlement date of December 31, 2004. There are two major contingencies that must be met prior to settlement. The first is zoning approval by Kent County. The second is growth allocation approval by the Maryland Critical Area Commission.

Drayton Manor, LLC, proposes to develop the Drayton property into a retreat, spa and conference center with 40 two-room suites, meeting space and banquet facilities, 8000 square foot spa, indoor pool, tennis courts, and 150 person chapel. The estimated cost of the entire project, including the $3.6 million purchase price of the Drayton property, is over $21 million.

In the meantime, we continue to schedule retreats at Drayton Retreat Center. We are booking groups through the end of October 2004. Although most weekends are already reserved, weekday dates are plentiful. We do not require a deposit until 90 days in advance of a reservation and, at that point, will guarantee that the reservation will be honored.

Carolyn Godfrey continues to lead our volunteers who help to keep Drayton looking great. Thank you volunteers! Carolyn will chair a task force that will determine what to do with Drayton's furnishings, should the sale go to settlement.

CAMP PECOMETH

Camp Pecometh offers our conference a variety of ways to experience outdoor ministry. The retreat facilities, waterfront, picnic facilities, and Outdoor Chapel help guests at Camp Pecometh draw closer to God through God's creation. The Summer Camp Program continues to be a significant part of the spiritual growth of many young people.

Pecometh Outdoor School (POS), a faith-based environmental education program, will begin pilot operations in the fall of 2004. A modest grant of $2,206 was received from the Chesapeake Bay Trust to help fund start-up operations. POS will use environmental education, adventure activities and Christian education to connect discipleship with stewardship of our natural resources.

Thanks to the team of Augie Lankford, Buddy Landing, and Richelle Darrell for their continued outstanding leadership at Camp Pecometh.

UPDATED STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2004

- Implement the Pecometh Outdoor School strategic plan on a pilot basis, beginning fall 2004.
- Develop a donor base of 100 donors and $10,000 per year in contributions.
- Register 1900 campers in the Pecometh Summer Camp Program.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2005

- Complete the sale of Drayton Retreat Center.
- Complete planning for the future of adult retreat ministry operations.
- Register 1950 campers in the Pecometh Summer Camp Program.

United Methodist Women

The year of 2003 was one of transition and preparation for future activities to fulfill the PURPOSE of United Methodist Women's mission.

Local Units throughout the conference carried out Prayer and Self-Denial Services from January - March. The focus was to remember those who had served and retired as deaconesses. Their service and commitment enhanced the lives of many women, youth and children around the world.

The conference work continued in March with two Spiritual Life Retreats being hosted, one in Millsboro, Delaware at Carey's United Methodist Church and the other at Centreville United Methodist Church Centreville, Maryland, each session was led by Rev. Dr. Janet Harmon, retired pastor of Wilmington, DE.

Easton District hosted the Annual Spring Conference Meeting at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Easton, MD. Three women participated in a variety of mini-workshop sessions. The focus was to learn, to share ideas, and program information.

An additional effort to provide opportunities for learning and sharing information was offered through the Lay Academies around the conference through the course being offered entitled, Basics of United Methodist Women.

Spring continued to be engaging for all members or interested persons. A Finance workshop was hosted at Whatcoat United Methodist Church, Saulsbury Road, Dover, DE. Connie Takamine, Women's Division Treasurer was the presenter of valuable and helpful information regarding United Methodist Women mission as it relates to finances.

June was filled with meetings and conferences. After attending Annual Conference at University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Princess Anne, Maryland, the Conference United Methodist Women's Mission Team and School of Christian Mission Teachers were off to Upper Atlantic Regional School for training and preparations for the School of Christian Mission.

The School of Christian Mission was held July 16-19, 2003 at Wesley College, Dover, Delaware. The theme was, "Crossing Boundaries, Journey in Hope." This year was the year in which one of the instructors, Christine Keels, was the co-author of the Biblical studies text, "Exodus: The Journey to Freedom". This was also the year that Peninsula-Delaware Conference United Methodist Women officers were able to attend the clergy session, led by Bishop Weaver.

August was filled with a series of important meetings as well. There was an exciting event planned by Women's Division for district and conference representatives of each conference. The National Seminar was held in Nashville, Tenn. We had two new officers, Ruth Higgins and Janine Showell to attend. In addition to this, training sessions for Deans and Assistance Deans was held in Nashville. Dean Barbara Jones and Assistant Dean Crystal Taylor attended.

In reaching out to local and district unit members each were invited to attend and to participate in a sharing of ideas and concerns that relate to our children & youth. This effort was held on September 27, 2003 at Wesley College. Women gathered to be inspired and discover ways of "Empowering Our Children & Youth through Mentoring." Dr. Roxie Dennis, a Guidance Counselor of Wicomico County Public Schools, led the session. We were blessed to have a volunteer group of children and youth from St. Charles United Methodist Church, Deal Island, in Maryland to participate joyously. Their leaders, Mrs. Dawana White, Mrs. Linda Jones & Mrs. Faye Wright accompanied them.

The Fall meetings began in late September till the end of October 2003. The Conference Annual Fall Meeting was hosted by Aldersgate United Methodist Women, United Methodist Church, Wilmington, DE. The focus was on touching the lives of Street Children in Mexico. United Methodist Women around the conference prepared and brought shoe boxes gaily decorated, filled with supplies and gifts for boys and girls in another part of the world. The love and compassion was evidenced through the generosity and the joy exhibited in this endeavor. It was a festive gathering at Aldersgate where the senior pastor Rev. Jonathan E. Baker, joined the women in filling the altar area of the sanctuary with shoe boxes. The Associate pastor Rev. Karin G. Tunnell, dedicated the boxes before they were given to the guest Speaker, Dr. William Eberwein, CEO of Children's Choice. At this meeting new officers were elected and installed for the continued work into the coming year 2004. Delegates for the Northeastern Jurisdiction United Methodist Women Quadrennial Meeting March 5-7, 2004 was completed.

Leadership training, planning and evaluation for 2004 was the focus of November, in addition to, receiving pledges for 2003 and making pledges for 2004. The year of 2003 ended with the Conference meeting the pledge commitment in full. This was reached because of the local and district units honoring their pledge commitments. It is through their continued efforts that women, children and youth in need are supported at home and around the world. To the Local and District Units, we the Conference Team Members, wish to say thank you on behalf of those whom you have enabled and empowered.

This concludes my four year tenure as Conference President. Welcome to all new Conference Officers for 2004. I wish them God's richest blessings as they strive to fulfill the PURPOSE of United Methodist Women.

GOALS FOR 2004

1. To encourage 38 Mission Today Units to continue to be Mission Today Units.
2. To increase Mission Today Units to 50% of the organized units within the conference.

3. To encourage the organization of at least two new units
4. To assist in strengthening United Methodist Women's Unit by visitations
5. To increase participation of children, youth and adults by 10% at conference events
6. To increase attendance at the school of Christian Mission by 10%

The Embracing The Black Church Task Force

In 2003 the Enabling the Black Church Task Force worked to strengthen the Black Churches in our Annual Conference by encouraging people to attend workshops that would enhance their ministries. Funds were provided and they were required to make a report to the Task Force on how these workshops strengthened their ministries.

The East New Market-Linkwood Charge made a request of this Task Force to help finance a position at the Mount Pleasant Church so that it could be open every Sunday. This church is located in a fast growth area on Route 50 in Dorchester County, Maryland. Before this position was funded the church was only opened 18 times during the year. That was due to the fact that the Pastor served three churches and the three congregations would gather together each Sunday at one of the three churches on the Charge. The Enabling the Black Church Task Force decided to help fund the position of assistant to the Pastor as a pilot project. This assistant to the Pastor would be assigned by the Charge to Mt. Pleasant Church so that this church could be open every Sunday. In the short time that this position has been funded the church has seen new and dynamic ministries take place.

The Enabling the Black Church Task Force will continue to work to strengthen the Black Church throughout our Annual Conference.

Missions Task Force

We have only one goal - increase awareness and support of the mission opportunities within the United Methodist connectional system. I now have visited over 85 churches in our Conference to spread the good news on how we, as United Methodists, are spreading the Good news worldwide with our missions outreach efforts. Overall giving was the second highest ever! Other points of celebration for 2003 are:

- Total Advance giving topped $300,000, the second largest amount ever donated in one year. A special gift of $100,000 was sent to Global Board from a member of our Conference.
- We approved the Bishop Weaver Central Congo Partnership. This is our first attempt at establishing a long-term relationship with another conference of the UM Church.
- We approved a resolution to endow a scholarship at Africa University.

- Our Conference Missions Resource had his Lay Speakers class on Missions adopted and published by the UM Church.
- Harold Caswell (Dover) and Doug Holmes (Easton) were selected to be District Mission Resources.

Goals for 2004

We continue to challenge all our churches to reach out in the following ways:

The Advance: The Advance has over 2000 projects to choose from, covering every possible ministry and over 100 countries. Every church should be able to find at least one that touches their heart. Your task is to pick out one or more projects and raise just $3 per member. Remember 100% of all Advance gifts go to the project. Support costs are covered by your apportionments. A list of suggested Advance projects can be found on the Conference web site.

Special Sundays: These Sundays raise funds to address special needs of people in our country. They allow you to share with your church what the UMC is doing to combat some of the social problems facing our nation. Each church is asked to raise at least $1 per member for the Special Sundays, less than the cost of a cup of coffee or a soda. Dividing one offering six ways is fine too.

Covenant Relationships: Each church should be supporting a missionary. For just $3 per member, you can be helping spread the word of Christ to the country of your choice. Your church will benefit from the letters and photos you received back several times a year from the missionary you support. Please contact me for a list of available missionaries.

BOOM Scholarship Fund: Help cover the cost of training the pastors that serve us every day. Even if each of us gave $1, Conference would be covering less than 50% of their education costs.

Local Missions Outreach/Conference Advance Specials: Churches should target $4 per member for projects in their own backyard. Additionally, get your members involved, not just their money.

For a total of a just $12 per member, you can have a worldwide, comprehensive missions outreach program. Your church should challenge itself to support a missions budget that is equal to 10% (a tithe) of what you spend on yourself, or 1% of the value of your Endowment Fund, which ever is greater. Help bring Christ to the world by expanding your missions outreach!

Special Concerns & Challenges

Africa University Scholarship – World Service #03-01-88

We are lifting up the need to endow a second scholarship at Africa University. A lack of funds for students is the next big challenge for AU. This scholarship will allow one student from our HFCA School to attend Africa University each year. Upon graduation, another student will be selected, and so forth – forever!

Missionaries

The General Board of Global Ministries was forced to layoff almost two dozen missionaries last summer due to a lack of funds. Missionaries are our front line for getting the Good News of Jesus Christ to people who might not ever hear. We have four serving in our Conference who will be glad to visit and tell you how important your support is. Less than 30 churches are supporting a missionary.

Gifts for any of these Advance projects can be submitted to the Conference Office on the Benevolence Remittance form, Line #60. Write in project name and number. Questions can also be addressed to Kevin Goodwin at (302) 453-1169 or email to MissionsCzar@AOL.com. Visit the missions page on the Conference web site for more information - www.pen-del.org/missions.

Kevin Goodwin
Conference Missions Resource

Interfaith Resource Center

The mission of the Interfaith Resource Center is to encourage and equip the congregations in Delaware and on Maryland's Eastern Shore by providing support and resources for their ministries, so that all may study the scriptures, praise God, share the faith and minister to others.

2003 IRC Goals

1. To focus on expanding multi-cultural resources of all kinds (Hispanic, Asian, African American, physically and mentally challenged...), with the intent to broaden our knowledge and understanding of the various needs within these communities. Promote this knowledge through resources for the center and speakers and consultants for the board.
 - The IRC contains over 250 resources (books, curriculum materials, and videos) that address topics of multiculturalism, inclusiveness, and race-related issues. Our collection of bi-lingual materials is small, primarily focusing on bi-lingual children's books. Due to the disruption to our budget and time constraints resulting from the change in leadership and location, this goal had only modest improvement over the past year. This is an ongoing concern and remains a significant goal for 2004.
2. Become more intentional about maintaining and expanding membership and resource usage by focusing on the needs of the churches who are not utilizing the center, specifically smaller, lower Delaware locations. Evaluate what is and isn't working, satellite locations.
 - Attendance at satellite sites remained anemic in 2003. The board made the decision to terminate the satellite site concept and authorize the director to make more direct contact with congregations through regional visits to churches, purposeful attempts for the IRC to be included in regional events, lay speakers' school, clerical meetings and other opportunities.
3. To continue to improve and develop new dimensions of our system of electronic communications.
 - The IRC has made significant advancement in the use of our electronic system for cataloging the library completely. To date, nearly 90% of our library is documented in Request Manager, our library accessions software. This is significant because the on-line catalog that the IRC makes available on our website is increasingly more valuable to members if it provides a complete and current listing. Plans are underway to upgrade the website and its information as well.

Accomplishments in 2003

In 2003 Elaine Stout retired after 27 years of service as Director of the IRC. She was replaced by Paula Hartzell in June. In mid-June the IRC moved to 913 Wilson Road on the campus of St. Alban's Episcopal Church in North Wilmington. The IRC closed for 6 weeks to accomplish this move, but remained available to members through telephone and email requests. The IRC is now handicapped accessible.

Mrs. Stout presented two Vacation Bible School workshops in New Castle and Kent Counties in coordination with Madeline Beall, the Cokesbury representative. Additional offerings failed to roster. Satellite hours were offered in January, March and October at 4 locations. In addition, Mrs. Stout set up a display of resources at Peninsula/Delaware Annual Conference in June.

The IRC maintained a website with online catalog, a toll-free telephone number, and email access. Methodist churches in the conference borrowed more than 350 resources in 2003, approximately half of that number being videos for use in church programming. We continue to mail resources to distant locations upon request. We have adjusted our schedule to provide evening hours for those who work full-time.

The IRC continues to support the Annual Lay Academy, in which 96 participants attended five classes on five successive Tuesday evenings in October and early November at St. Paul's United Methodist Church. Some examples of the programs offered are Judaism: Your Roots and Mine, The Roots of Christianity, and Celebrating the Diversity of the American Spirit which consisted of a look at diverse musical traditions in the American church. Mr. Will Cuperly of Chester Bethel United Methodist Church served on the planning committee.

Grants received in 2003 included $200 from Hanover Presbyterian Church, $1000 from the Interfaith Lay Academy, and $300 from the William Hawley Clark Memorial Fund

Goals for 2004

Adopted by the IRC Board on November 11, 2003

1. To focus on expanding multicultural resources of all kinds (Hispanic, Asian, African American, physically and mentally challenged, etc.), with the intent to broaden our knowledge and understanding of the various needs within these communities. To promote this knowledge through resources for the Center and speakers and consultants for the IRC board.
2. To market the Interfaith Resource Center in order to expand membership and resource usage by targeting the needs of the faith communities that are not utilizing the center.
3. To increase size and diversity of the IRC board.
4. To develop and maintain a web site that is informative and serves the needs of remote patrons.

United Methodist Men

(Let's Talk About It!)

For which of the Angel's did God ever say you are my son today I have become your Father? In order to make this collective, we are sons and daughters of the living Christ. To all men especially those that bear the title of Clergy, Laity, Jews and Gentiles we are serving a living God led by the Holy Spirit. But due to the changing times in our culture, society and religious setting I would be remiss not to include the women clergy and laity as an intricate part of the body of Christ and the organization of Methodist Men. Women clergy and laity as well as men clergy must fully understand that Methodist Men are an extension of the local church (us the people) the general commission and the foundation on UMM. The Methodist Men desperately need the support of clergy and laity in their efforts to stimulate interest and growth of Methodist Men, to promote their cause, take time out to learn the history of UMM, to accept and understand that the Methodist Men are a vital link to the local church and pastors. If we the Methodist Men are afforded the opportunity to dot so, just as would be the Boy Scouts and other youth groups.

There is need for better communication between parties involved. The parties must acknowledge and respect others and be aware of the Methodist Men's organization, mission and ministries. Some may say respect is earned before granted that may have been so, but our hands are tied by the like of necessary tools and strapped by financial deficiency, we are expected to accomplish much with so little. But all is not lost for the UMM here or aboard. The documentary (The Passion of the Christ) perhaps offers the Methodist Men and others a catalyst needed to stimulate constructive involvement or growth to maintain the status quo of the United Methodist Men's mission. Passion for something especially if it includes the living God. This is the key for a successful mission or ministry. The above statements are my opinions but others may refute it and that is to be expected. 2003 was a rewarding and unique year and thus far into 2004 found men in mission all across the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Our 46th annual retreat was held on the 6th-7th of October 2003 at Camp Pecometh in Centreville, Maryland. The retreat was spirit filled, it was a retreat where men came together approximately sixty plus from all walks of life. We greatly appreciated the opportunity to share their experiences and relationship with God and others. It was a time to repent, reconcile and restoration through prayer. Men cried, confessed their sins and vowed to be at one before everyone and with their living God. The Holy Spirit touched folks. We were blessed to have in our midst the Rev. Dr. Kwaski Kena a distinguished man of God. He delivered a powerful message from our savior Jesus Christ. He is a member of the General Commission on United Methodist Men and Resource Team as well as the editor of the UMM Magazine in Nashville, Tennessee. One of our very own the Dover District Superintendent Rev. Dr. Sandra Steiner Ball delivered a stirring message (Fishing for Men.)

Rev. Dr. Jay Moon, a missionary and servant of God for the people of God performs missionary work in Ghana, West Africa. As a teacher, church planter as well as an engineer installing clean water wells for the poor, what a magnificent feat. At the annual Peninsula-Delaware Conference meeting last year May 17, 2003 held at Wyoming UMC in Wyoming, Delaware was a day for sharing vital information on the principals of leadership with others, about thirty men were in attendance for this event. Studying or reviewing the principals that will enhance the effectiveness of leadership at the conference, district and local church levels for leaders.

The 48th annual United Methodist Men Convocation was held March 19-20th, 2003 in Pocono Manor, Pennsylvania. Consulates assembly of clergy and lay delegates from one part on an Episcopal Diocese or a territorial division on an Episcopal Diocese where Christian clergy and laity gather in fellowship, attended workshops detailing events on the Northeastern Jurisdiction.

We are in the process of formulating and implementing plans for the annual May Methodist Conference slated for May 17th, 2004 at Hurlock UM Church in Hurlock, Maryland and the 47th annual Methodist Men's Retreat at Camp Pecometh in Centreville, Maryland on October 4th & 5th, 2004. For the remainder of 2004-2005 the Methodist Men will stay on course to continue to seek new membership, to retain those persons already committed, bring back those persons that were once in the fold but are not active at present time, educate and encourage pastor's and laity (that we too are the salt of the earth.)

The United Methodist Men are men sharing in evangelism, mission and the spiritual life with other men with definable purpose. The United Methodist Men shall be creative, supportive in fellowship with men who seek to know Jesus Christ, to grow spiritually and to seek daily His will. Our Primary purpose is to declare the centrality of Christ in the lives of men in all of their relationships. Men must encourage each other through knowledge and support the total mission of the United Methodist Church. As we engage in evangelism by sharing the fullness of the gospel in its personal and social dimensions as one clarifies and addresses the identity and roles of men in contemporary society as they commit to discipleship. Men shall study and become familiar with the United Methodist Church and its organization as well as the doctrine and beliefs to cooperate with all units of the UMM. In obtaining these objectives through district, conference, jurisdictional, and church wide goals. The United Methodist Men of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference invite all laity and clergy to be in partnership with us for the purpose and course of the United Methodist Men.

Congregational Development Corporation

The Congregational Development Corporation (CDC) allocates and oversees loans and grants to existing congregations for land purchases, property acquisitions, and church construction and renovation that will enable vital ministry growth. CDC also allocates grants to new church starts to support their general expenses. The Annual Conference of June 2003 approved $140,000 for all of our funding activities.

Adequate funding for congregational development is, of course, a primary concern. We continue to work on the best appropriate strategy for using our Conference Advance Special status.

CDC continues to be effective in working with applicant churches to encourage more consideration of their responsibility and accountability for sound stewardship and ministry practices that make them eligible for funding. With improved working relationships with the District Boards of Church Location and Building, the New Church Initiatives Task Force, and our four district superintendents, we have increased the assurance of better stewardship of Conference monies. There is still work to be done to forge working relationships with the four district research and design teams.

In addition to our funding allocation and oversight duties, we began to rewrite our bylaws to broaden our involvement with and availability to existing churches as an educational and advisory resource for revitalization and crisis issues, facility maintenance and planning by church trustees, communicating church health and vitality issues, and the importance of developing long-term stewardship strategies. CDC is supportive of its members' attendance at various workshops and conferences that increase our knowledge and insight into new church start and existing church health issues, and we plan to become more visible in this regard.

Most of the applications that CDC received during 2003 are from existing congregations seeking monies for crisis relief and church renovation. Our revised application form has proved to be an effective tool to help applicant churches evaluate more carefully their facility plans in terms of planned stewardship and increased service to the community. The quality of applications has improved in terms of budget presentations that promise to increase the probability that Conference and commercial loans can be repaid while the daily needs of the local church also are maintained.

Not every application received by CDC was approved. During 2003 CDC allocated funding for nine congregations, including three new church starts. The list follows, and the new church starts are designated with an asterisk (*).

Asbury UMC, Easton, MD – grant of $5,000 toward replacement of heating system.

*Connection Community UMC, Middletown, DE - grant of $21,500 toward general and lease expenses.

*Faith Alive UMC, Selbyville, DE – grant of $21,500 toward general start-up expenses.

Harmony UMC, Preston, MD – grant of $5,000 to help repair damaged sewer and drainage system.

Mariner's Bethel UMC, Ocean View, DE – grant of $5,000 and subordinated loan of $25,000 toward construction of new sanctuary.

Mt. Zion UMC, Quantico, MD – grant of $5,000 and subordinated loan of $25,000 toward construction of new church.

St. James UMC, Westover, MD – grant of $5,000 toward construction of new sanctuary.

*Source.God, Milford, DE -- grant of $21,500 toward general start-up expenses.

Zion UMC, Milton, DE – grant of $5,000 and signature loan of $3,000 to assist with mold removal.

With approved grants and loans totaling $147,500 monies allocated by the annual conference for 2003 have been overspent, as were funds for the previous years. In its attempt to be faithful stewards of Conference monies, CDC is very conservative with the use of monies on hand and returned to the Conference through loan repayments.

Commission on Archives & History

REVIEW OF 2003 GOALS

1. The operation and maintenance of Barratt's Chapel, as well as the museum and archives, are the primary responsibilities of the Commission on Archives and History and are ongoing processes.

With this in mind, various repairs and replacements were accomplished during the year.

We continue to collect and categorize conference records. Our fireproof archival storage vault is a safe repository for valuable historic papers, and our museum houses conference religious and cultural artifacts. The library is open for researchers, and help with genealogy searches is available upon request.

The Chapel is frequently used for weddings under the guidelines established by the Commission, and the facility is open for tours and visitors on Saturdays and Sundays between 1:30 and 4:30, or other times by appointment.

2. Our Director of Development, the Rev. Robert O'Kelley Wallace, retired from Barratt's service in June to pursue other goals, but the Commission continues to give top priority to Barratt's Chapel program of development. The Chapel has been designated a Conference Advance Special, with April designated as the month to make a Conference wide appeal. Our new site director, Barbara Duffin, is available during designated hours, or by phone and e-mail contact. A new Barratt's Ambassadors' Program has been established with dedicated volunteers willing to attend local churches and present sermons or programs about Barratt's and its place in American and local history. A new and updated web site is now up and running.

We received three grants during the year:

Crystal Trust: $10,000

Fair Play Foundation: $5,000

3. We will continue to support local church historians and their projects. No local church histories were received in 2002, but the Commission continues to support these project and welcomes inquiries.
4. Although our program of special services has been reduced, two traditional services were held:
 - A. The 219 Anniversary Service, commemorating the meeting between Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke, was held November 19th with the Rev. Larry Stookey presiding. The topic of his sermon was "What Do These Stones Mean to You?"
 - B. The annual Christmas Carol Service was held December 21st with the Avenue United Methodist Choir featured. The Rev. Earle Baker presided.
5. The Barratt's Chapel newsletter with updates on events at Barratt's, publicity about upcoming events and an opportunity is an ongoing project. Two newsletters were produced and mailed.
6. A history of the earliest ordained women in the conference has not been completed.

7. Friends of Barratt's, whose goal is to support Barratt's Chapel and its mission, was formed, with the Rev. Leroy Jones as chairperson. The second annual dinner meeting was held at Wesley Church in Dover March 27th.
8. The Land Acquisition project fund, designated for the purchase the land in front of Barratt's, now owned by the Cemetery Association, and the removal of the unsightly farmhouse now standing there, is nearing completion. Funds are still needed for this project.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

1. Bishop Peter Weaver's blue ribbon committee continues to formulate and implement strategies to increase the endowment and development funds for Barratt's. In the process, goals are being revisited.
2. Barratt's Chapel was named one of the Conference Advance Specials, and under that designation, will resume an active capital campaign.
3. Mrs. Rachael Tezcan, student in U of D's masters program in museum management, is donating 300 hours of her time to the museum.
4. On March 5th, Dr. Dale Patterson of the General Commission on A&H staff, consulted with members of Annual Conference A&H. He reviewed Barratt's facilities and programs and discussed our vision and understanding of this significant historical site. He encouraged us to consider the challenges and opportunities we face in the next 5 to 10 years.
5. Dover DS, the Rev. Sandra Steiner Ball, encouraged each church in the district to recruit one church member to act as contact with Barratt's Chapel. On Feb. 22, an open house was held for these volunteers, with a question and answer period following.
6. In December filming was done at Barratt's that will be used at General Conference in Pittsburgh.

2004 GOAL CHANGES

Goals remain the same

Ann M. Roede
Chairperson

Board of Ordained Ministry

The Board of Ordained Ministry has as its primary tasks the recruitment, nurture and examination of candidates for ordained ministry and the continual nurture and care of all ordained ministers. The Board is made up of lay persons and clergy persons, deacons and elders, associate and full members, and a representative from the Cabinet.

In addition to the primary work listed above, we celebrate these highlights for the year 2003:

- A totally revamped Probationary Education Program was put into place. This program for all persons in probationary status revolves around district covenant/accountability groups, which are led by two elders. It replaces the previous on-line education program that began several years ago. The Board is pleased with the very positive feedback from group participants.

- A sub-committee of the Enlistment/Recruitment Standing Committee has been working on opportunities to speak with the youth of our conference. Their first event was a tremendous success - over 30 young people came to a pizza lunch and discussion during the Conference Youth Rally. Several pastors spoke about their call to ministry and how they are living it out, and then a time of dialogue was held. Participants' names were collected, and the committee will be following up with them at a later date.
- Two new recruitment/enlistment videos are in the works. One video is directed at youth (middle and high school ages), while the second is directed at those in seminary. The youth video will be used at the conference youth rally, confirmation rallies, and available for use in the local church, while the other video will be used during seminary recruitment visits and/or sent to interested seminarians.
- The Continuing Education/Evaluation Standing Committee completed a revision of the current Pastoral Evaluation Form. The new edition has been sent to Pastors and SPRC's to be used for the 2004 evaluations.
- The Sexual Ethics "Care Team" continues to provide outstanding training opportunities in the conference regarding sexual ethics. They have trained many persons including the conference staff, and have plans to work next with persons working with children and youth.
- The Clergy Family Assistance Fund provided much-needed financial assistance to several pastors in extreme financial distress. All of the monies in this fund are donated by the pastors of the conference, primarily during an offering at the Clergy Session in June.
- The Board continues to give as much scholarship money as possible to all of our students. The total for 2003 was $65,000.

The Philadelphia Area Committee on Episcopacy

The Philadelphia Area Committee on Episcopacy consists of members from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference elected quadrennially by each Annual Conference at the session following the General Conference. Meeting at least four times a year with Bishop Weaver, the functions of the Committee are:

- a) to support the Bishop of this episcopal area in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church;
- b) to be available to the Bishop for counsel;
- c) to assist in the determination of the episcopal needs of the area;
- d) to make recommendations to appropriate bodies.

The Philadelphia Area Committee on Episcopacy has, for example, highly recommended the continued employment of a half-time Assistant to the Bishop in order to:

- support the Bishop in doing research, correspondence, and other administrative matters;
- keep the Bishop advised concerning conditions within the area as they affect relationships between the Bishop and the people of the conference agencies;
- interpret to the people of the area and to conference agencies the nature and function of the Episcopal office;
- engage in annual consultation and appraisal of the balance of the Bishop's relationships and responsibilities to the area, our Annual Conferences, the Jurisdiction, General Church boards and agencies, and other areas of specialized ministries, including, at all levels, concern for the inclusiveness of the Church and its ministry with respect to sex, race, and national origin, and understanding and implementation of the consultation process in appointment-making.

We achieve this through a yearly performance evaluation of the Bishop, to report needs for Episcopal leadership to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy through the duly-elected conference members of that committee.

In addition to our regular, yearly evaluation of the agreed upon goals with Bishop Weaver, our committee spent considerable time in 2003 completing a profile of our Annual Conference and Philadelphia area requested by the Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee to prepare for the 2004 Jurisdictional Conference and the assignment of Bishops to Episcopal areas. We met with various leadership and sought input from numerous groups in our conference in the development of this profile that helps define our strengths, needs, and challenges to help the Committee match these with the gifts and strengths of our Bishops in the assignment process. Jonathan Baker and Darlene Webb serve as members of the Jurisdictional Committee from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference along with Michele Wright Bartlow from the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference.

The Area Committee is also organizing a Transition Team to assist our area in a possible change in episcopal leadership. Bishop Weaver will complete his eight-year term of service within the Philadelphia Episcopal Area in 2004.

We are grateful for the financial support of our Conference, which provides for the part-time Assistant to the Bishop, enabling Bishop Weaver to give leadership to the almost 1000 churches in our area, as well as to his important work in the General Church.

Board of Lay Ministries

The purpose of the Conference Board of Laity (in part) as noted in "The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church 2000" (p. 629.2) is as follows:

- To foster an awareness of the role of the laity . . .
- To develop and promote stewardship of time, talent, and possessions . . .

- To provide for the training of lay members of annual conference.
- To provide support and direction for the ministry of the laity . . .
- To provide organization, direction, and support for the development of local church leaders.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2003

1. Implement teaching of the new "2001-2004 Guidelines" within each district, as well as providing Conference wide training.

Result: This teaching has taken place on all four districts through the lay speaking academies and special "one-day" workshops.

2. Use every opportunity to encourage using the resource "Steps Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance" to be used as an educational tool, promoting dialogue among Cluster/Mission Areas, which would also promote ongoing dialogue.

Result: "Steps Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance" has been taught/discussed in several settings, but there are still many areas that need to be made aware of this resource.

3. Continue to look for new courses for the "academies" that will meet the needs of as many of our laity as possible.

Result: This has been done through the efforts of our former Director of Lay Speaking, Joe Sipos, and is currently being done by the Conference Director of Lay Speaking, Larry Hanifee. We have also had a course written on "Missions" by one of our conference missions resource people, Kevin Goodwin, as well as a course written for United Methodist Women by UMW Conference President, Arelela Cray. It is only through the level of commitment of many dedicated people such as these that we are able to continue the momentum of these educational experiences that reach and teach hundreds of our members throughout the year.

4. Continue mentoring of youth in our Conference.

Result: This is an ongoing goal; however, individual members of our board are always looking for ways in which to include youth. We are very appreciative of the wonderful work being done by David Burke with our young people in this conference, as evidenced by the ever-increasing numbers in attendance at the annual youth rally.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2004

1. Continue to encourage inclusivity on each district throughout the conference.
2. Encourage teaching of the "Guidelines" for each ministry area in the church, providing district as well as Conference wide events.
3. Use the Board of Lay Ministries to lift up different ministries throughout the conference.
4. Continue to visit in local churches as we are invited by clergy, encouraging laity in ministry and partnership with clergy.
5. A Fall conference-wide lay speaking event is being planned, with participation of conference director of lay speaking and each district director of lay speaking, along with the conference lay leader.

INTERNAL GOALS:

1. Continuing to be intentional in our inclusiveness, remembering that there are many cultures represented in The Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
2. Challenging each member (conference as well as district boards) to mentor at least one (1) youth, other than their own, throughout the year; also encouraging them to bring that young person to at least one board meeting, thereby providing a "teaching moment" or learning experience.
3. Use every opportunity to empower laity in their mission and ministry, both as a conference board and as individuals serving on this board.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2005

1. Maintaining goals in place for 2004, as well as strengthening those areas in order to more effectively empower all laity in their ministries throughout the conference.
2. Maintain an awareness of gifts of the laity and highlighting them at every opportunity, especially through The Order of St. Barnabas.
3. To get our "Reporting Guide for Lay Members to Annual Conference" into the hands of the many different cultures representing the whole Body of believers, that they may offer suggestions that would be beneficial for the whole church.
4. Supporting conference director of lay speaking in his efforts to put in place a conference-wide directory of certified lay speakers, while also updating a new form for lay speaking.
5. Working to give greater support to district lay leaders in their significant role, through resourcing of materials, workshops, and out of conference experiences that will further enhance the valuable contribution they make to our conference. This contribution extends to other laity in their districts, and to ministries they are personally "called" to in order to further the Gospel of Jesus Christ and make new disciples of Jesus Christ.

Highlights of Other Events

LAY SPEAKING ACADEMY

Our district directors of lay speaking, along with district boards of lay ministries members and many others continue to work faithfully to maintain quality offerings at our district academies, with two or more academies being held on each district. Several hundred completed either basic or advanced courses again this year, with many of those being "certified". We are very pleased that so many return each time an academy is offered. We also extend these offerings to others from other denominations who have requested and continue to request this opportunity to further their Christian education and experience, along with Christian fellowship.

DAY APART

We were unable to have our "Day Apart" this year, due to "Isabel". Many were without electricity, with devastating damage done in some areas of our Conference. The Rev. Dr. Karen Covey Moore had planned to be our workshop leader, sharing with us her new ministry called, "Chabereeth", which is a Hebrew word meaning companion. We certainly look forward to availing ourselves of this ministry in the future.

LAITY/ CLERGY BANQUETS

The Annual Conference Laity/Clergy Banquet was held in June at the Annual Conference at UMES this past year (2003). This was approved by the previous Annual Conference (2002), after looking at the possibility of reaching more of our members by having the Banquet at the same time as Annual Conference. As with anything being tried for the first time, we discovered there are still areas needing work; however, this event was very well attended. The Order of St. Barnabas was presented to several individuals as well as groups in ministry by the chair, Mr. Gene Cray, who is also an Associate Conference Lay Leader. The Dover District Board of Lay Ministries hosted this event, providing the very special gift that evening, in celebration of the 300th anniversary of John Wesley's birthday, of a group from England's Emery Theatre Company of London performing "Never Stand Still," featuring the lives and ministries of John and Charles Wesley.

District laity banquets were also held throughout the year, with good attendance. Some districts used this special opportunity to highlight specific ministries of the church.

Closing Statement

This truly is an exciting time in the life of the Church. The technological discoveries of the past few decades are increasing our ability to reach ever increasing numbers of people. It is always a joy for me to meet new brothers and sisters in Christ and also to renew acquaintances. Most importantly, however, is my joy in getting to share with many of you the vision of what God is doing presently in the Church and how we can carry that vision into the future. It is energizing also to hear how God is calling some of you into new ministries. It is exciting to hear your stories, to hear stories of mission and ministry taking place, not only from our conference board members, but also of district board members—and, especially, laity throughout the church. People are being reached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. However, there is still much to be done. Recently I was reminded, that in the busyness, I must not lose my focus—Jesus Christ, and making disciples of Him! My story involves a broken chalice and revisiting the Potter's house (Jeremiah 18). The LORD reminded me of who and whose I am—I am His and I must daily present myself to the "Potter" so that He can work out those imperfections in me in order to make me a "vessel of honor for His Glory" (II Tim. 2: 21). It is only through humble submission daily that I can be that "vessel" that God is calling all of us to be. It is only through that daily submission to the Holy Spirit's work that I will be in tune to God's voice as I move about in ministry to others, reaching out to others with the life-changing Gospel of Jesus Christ! What about you—have you been back to "the Potter's House" lately?

Order of St. Barnabas

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2004

1. To celebrate and to induct persons who have met the "Four T's" of stewardship—Target Prayer, Time, Treasure and Talent.

2. To include an Order of St. Barnabas litany on stewardship Sunday within the Worship service.
3. To recognize past and current members of St. Barnabas at the Conference Laity/Clergy Banquet.
4. To secure nominations from the inclusive population of the church community for outstanding service in the Four T's of stewardship.
5. To publish an Order of St. Barnabas booklet or roster.

Wesley College

Review of 2003 Goals

1. Continue to provide a strong ministry of hospitality to international students, unchurched students, and visitors to the college, including Boys and Girls Club members.

Wesley College continues to build upon its ministry of hospitality to a variety of groups. The international community has grown and there continues to be active and broad participation in the International Students Association. Unchurched students are welcome, of course, to the weekly chapel services and to participate in the whole range of Chaplain-sponsored activities. The College's hospitality continues to be extended to the Charlton School, Boys and Girls Club and to the Charter Schools. Wesley continues to have strong ties with the YMCA of Delaware and the Children's Theatre. All of these organizations have "homes" on campus. Various organizations have had meetings hosted on campus, such as the Schwartz Center for the Arts, Greater Dover Arts Council, Greater Dover Commission and the Biggs Museum of American Art. The College has been privileged to assist Hope Church, one of the new church starts of the Dover District. The College has welcomed Hope Church to use the facilities of Wesley Chapel for its worship and other ministries. In accordance with the letter and spirit of the Discipline, the College charges no rental or other fees.

2. Continue to provide a strong ministry of hospitality to all students through the College's quality, values-based education.

A resource-rich environment located in a comfortable, corporate setting is advantageous to a student's education. Financially, this has been made possible through $52 million dollars that has been raised during the past 6½ years. The library has been modernized and has dramatically increased its holdings. The library hit the 100,000-volume mark with the addition of Wesley College's new history Meeting the Challenge: The Wesley College Story. It is also now available to the community at large. In Slaybaugh Hall, the business and accounting classrooms have been upgraded in terms of comfort and multimedia capability. In addition to the "Smart Room" the other three classes have been equipped with Nomad Presentation Systems that match the Smart Room's capabilities. The computer lab was equipped with a projector that enhanced its multimedia capabilities. All rooms in the Hall have been wired for internet access and furnishings have been upgraded. Gifts of $100,000 and $500,000 have been received this year for improvements to Budd Hall for the benefit of the College's teacher education program. A $50,000 gift was received for pool and fitness improvements. Developing space on the ground level of Carpenter Hall provided office and classroom space for Wesley's partnership programs. The Underground, as a place for recreation and relaxation, was enhanced through recent improvements such as the addition of a big screen TV and new furnishings. The Academic Village was opened to students for the fall semester. This 75,000 square foot facility (48 apartments, 200 beds) was designed not only for the comfort and security of its student residents; its purpose was also to provide an atmosphere of collegiality that would augment the students' education experience. During the past six years over $30 million has been invested in physical plant improvements to serve a growing and more contemporary student population.

The beginning of the year was marked by Wesley's first Winter Commencement on January 18. At the Spring Commencement on May 11, the College graduated the largest class in the College's history. For five years in a row, the College's incoming class was chosen from a record number of applicants. For the fall '03 semester, 440 freshmen and 75 transfers were chosen from a pool of approximately 2000 applicants. This increase in number allowed for a greater selectivity reflected in the higher GPA and SAT scores of the incoming class. There were 1,300 students at the Dover campus and 1,000 students in the adult programs at the Dover Air Force Base and New Castle sites. Wesley College is on track to reach its goal of a total student body of 3,100 by 2007. At the initiative of Bishop Peter D. Weaver, the College, in conjunction with the other colleges in his Episcopal Area (Albright College, Lebanon Valley College and Drew University), is exploring how it can serve the needs of the growing Hispanic/Latino population in the region.

3. Provide religious programming as meets the needs of a diverse population of young adults.
4. Reach student populations through non-traditional means, such as internet magazines and contemporary worship.
8. Continue to expand and develop the "CTA" service trips program.

Religious programming has been comprised of the Wednesday chapel services and the extensive "Consider the Alternative" (CTA) service trips begun by the former Chaplain. In lieu of the traditional "breaks," students availed themselves of the opportunity to serve others in a variety of settings and ministries from Florida to Connecticut. No student returned the same as when she or he left. All participants gained new perspectives. Shorter term opportunities for service included participation in the Lewes-Rehoboth Beach Polar Bear Plunge for Special Olympics; and serving in Wilmington, Delaware soup kitchens as part of The United Methodist Church's "Souper" Bowl Sunday. The Rev. Leroy Jones ably served as Interim Chaplain after Rev. Olson's departure in May. In November, it was announced that Dr. Mark Pruett-Barnett, a pastor in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, would become the new Chaplain of the College, effective January 2. As of this writing, it is anticipated that Dr. Pruett-Barnett will continue the traditions of the weekly chapel services and the CTA trips as well as develop new opportunities for worship, study and service. The online student magazine, MethodX, continues to be available.

5. Develop relationships built on trust through fellowship opportunities, quality residential life programs, student clubs and sports teams.
9. Equip students for leadership in church and society through leadership opportunities in ministries, clubs, sports and student government.
10. Mentor students in value-oriented leadership and Christian principles of governance.

The entire matrix of programs and organizations provides the background for developing relationships based on trust here at the College. Such relationships are the healthiest ones and at Wesley there are an abundance of opportunities to learn the necessary skills involved in developing such relationships. Leaders emerge out of participation in the life of the Wesley Community and out of the relationships that develop there. The regularly scheduled leadership seminars provide inspiration and knowledge about effective leadership. The residence life program continues to provide an excellent opportunity for students to become guides and mentors for their fellow students. Mentoring also occurs in the teaching process. In this past year, Wesley has seen papers published by students in collaboration with their instructors.

6. Actively pursue opportunities for whole campus participation in serving the community.
7. Integrate service into the classroom with more service-learning courses.
11. Expand opportunities for service beyond the local area through service trips and study-abroad opportunities, such as those sponsored by The United Methodist Church.

Service has become a way of life for the Wesley community. Student Activities continues to provide a wide variety of opportunities for volunteer service. This is in addition to the CTA programs mentioned above. Progress continues on integrating service into our course offerings. Extensive programs at the Wesley Boys and Girls Club and Campus Community School are staffed almost entirely by students from specific academic programs at Wesley. Wesley benefits from its relationship with the Business Education Initiative (an international partnership sponsored by the Presbyterian and United Methodist Churches). Three to five students per year have come to Wesley as a part of that program. While Wesley students don't utilize study abroad programs sponsored by the International Association of Schools and Colleges of the United Methodist Church (IASUMC), they do actively participate in programs sponsored by the Interamerican Consortium (12 international colleges and six American institutions). In fact, Wesley's president has chaired the Board of that organization. We hope to see participation in such United Methodist initiatives as the Volunteers in Mission (VIM) program and the Appalachian Service Project (ASP) in the future.

Accomplishments and Challenges

Wesley College in its goals emphasizes (1) hospitality, (2) spirituality, (3) community and leadership and (4) service - qualities that are characteristic of the Conference's Mission statement. The College will continue in its ministry of hospitality through the education of its students and by providing its resources to a variety of organizations and groups. It will be seeing new ties with new populations whose young adults could benefit from what Wesley has to offer. Wesley will be working on the strengthening of the spiritual life of its community. It will continue the intricate work of developing community and leadership; and it will continue to build upon its traditions of service. It is my conviction that Wesley College's ties with the Conference and with the general church will be an integral part of the fulfillment of its own mission.

Changes to 2004 goals - None

2004 Goals

The goals of Wesley College are the same as those for 2003. They are aligned with the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference's Mission Statement.

1. Continue to provide a strong ministry of hospitality to international students, unchurched students, and visitors to the college, including Boys and Girls Club members.
2. Continue to provide a strong ministry of hospitality to all students through the College's quality, values-based education.
3. Provide religious programming as meets the needs of a diverse population of young adults.
4. Reach student populations through non-traditional means, such as internet magazines and contemporary worship.

5. Develop relationships built on trust through fellowship opportunities, quality residential life programs, student clubs and sports teams.
6. Actively pursue opportunities for whole campus participation in serving the community.
7. Integrate service into the classroom with more service-learning courses.
8. Continue to expand and develop the "CTA" service trips program.
9. Equip students for leadership in church and society through leadership opportunities in ministries, clubs, sports and student government.
10. Mentor students in value-oriented leadership and Christian principles of governance.
11. Expand opportunities for service beyond the local area through service trips and study-abroad opportunities, such as those sponsored by The United Methodist Church.

Young People's Ministry

Youth Rally: Feedback from our participants is that this year's Youth Rally was the best in the history of the event. Yes, history was made as 4,275 participants experienced the theme, "Guarding the Priceless" at the Roland Powell Convention Center on January 9-11, 2004 in Ocean City, Maryland. The event was improved upon as the sessions/gatherings were directly tied to them and sub-themes included Guard Your Heart, Guard Your Mind, Guard Your Body and Guard Your Life. The speakers and musicians were from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds and included: Audio Adrenaline, Kutless, Generation J, Chris Hill, Lakita Garth, Pam Stenzel, Patti Cabrera, Chris Stein, DaFlock, and numerous breakout speakers. We increased the adult breakout sessions to 8, 4 of which were discipleship based and 4 were youth worker training. Other new items included an expanded Oasis room, a respite for adult leaders, snack bar/concession stand, increased number of exhibitors/vendors, etc...Valentine cards were created by youth and adults on Saturday afternoon for the men and women in the military who have been serving in the Iraq war. Next year's plans include 2 stages with a multiple tiered program on Friday, January 7-9, 2005 in Ocean City, Maryland.

Confirmation Rally: On March 14, and March 21, two confirmation rallies were held. A northern rally was held at the Red Lion Christian Academy in Bear, Delaware and a southern rally was held at Woodbridge High School in Bear, Delaware. Both rallies featured the same program and ministry. PrazJam, a hip-hop group from Southern, New Jersey, Blake Wood, the guest speaker who lives in the middle east and trains pastors and ministry teams in Baghdad, Iraq, and George Rowe, guest musician who recently toured with Michael W. Smith. The theme of this year's event was "Risk Taking Faith."

Spring Cleaning Youth Worker Training: In the midst of alarming statistics that the average age of the United Methodist worshipper is approximately 58 and the average member is 65, the goal of this training was to deal with the issue of Sunday morning and Youth Ministry. Four training events were held in Milford, DE, New Castle County, Delaware, Easton, MD, and Salisbury, MD. The training revolved around the issues of Sunday school, worship and youth in the church as well as reaching unchurched youth. A special feature was a debriefing session at the end for teams from each church to tackle the issue, "Where do we go from here?" Reaffirm? Revamp? Or Replace?

CCYM/Design Team: The Conference Council of Youth Ministry consisted of 40 youth and a dozen adults who prayerfully plan, produce and implement the events and on-going ministry throughout the calendar year. The students worked hard and committed to studying the required reading for spiritual formation, attending discipleship oriented retreats, and served joyfully at the youth rally. One change for next year is that there will be fewer students approximately 25 as 40 were too many for various reasons.

Resourcing: The director of Young People's Ministry continues to offer training, workshops, consulting, and resourcing to the various needs of the churches regarding youth and young adult ministry.

Incarnational Ministry: The director of Young People's ministry visits churches for consulting and training needs at least one night per week during the calendar year. The director also preaches on Sunday morning as well as Sunday night youth rallies when contacted by various pastors and youth workers.

District Youth Ministry: A goal for future years would be for district youth coordinators to implement the following:

1. Build a team of adult and student leaders
2. Produce 2-3 events throughout the calendar year focusing on spiritual growth, missions, fun and fellowship with other youth groups.
3. Network with other youth leaders so they can meet.
4. Needs and make disciples.

Staffing: The initial goal was to add an internship program but this idea was fine tuned as the Office of Young People's Ministry added staff to meet the needs of the growing ministry. A part time seasonal position was added to assist with the youth rally, concerts, and other events. An additional part time seasonal clerical position was also added to help the team with registration and other vital elements of the youth rally.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
Delaware State University

As a campus ministry at Delaware State University, The Wesley Foundation strives to bring balance and perspective into the intellectual and religious life of the University, thereby providing for students and staff a means to enhance their spiritual enlightenment and growth. We, of course, recognize the diversity of religious expression in this setting yet we believe this campus is a vital and fertile mission field for our church since institutions of higher education are a primary means by which our culture claims the hearts and minds of the next leadership generation.

This year has been particularly challenging for us as a ministry in light of all of the changes the University has undergone. We have been affected by the change in leadership positions at all levels, especially in the composition of our board as some of our greatest supporters were relieved of their duties on the campus. We have also been affected by a seemingly influx of less traditional ministries including a Muslim students organization as well as a rise in the Greek societies which are tempting, to say the least, to some of our students.

In light of this, we have come to understand in a more meaningful way, the deep yearning most students have for an identity with that which is of ultimate importance. We are more determined than ever to be there to assist them in their struggle and to present to them spiritual values which pertain to their real life situations in an authentic, relevant and loving manner.

As things in our environment began to change, we established for ourselves the following goals:

- Seeking and utilizing new means of sharing our faith efficiently
- Developing quality leadership among the group
- Expanding our sense of community and commitment to the "world parish" spoken of by John Wesley

As the economic situation in the country caused some of our students to drop out for a semester or two, or seek employment which left little time for participation in Wesley Club activities and as those who "hung in there" and even past participants/graduates began to telephone us for moral support and other help, we began to see the need to revitalize our thought and action patterns. We developed as our on-going theme "Living Our Faith In a Difficult World." All of our Bible studies centered upon this theme coupled with situations that were of concern to us. So we engaged ourselves in discussion on the war in Iraq from what we knew of scripture and from our own various feelings or perspectives about the way the nation was heading. This was especially important to the ROTC members we have among our group. We dealt with scripture in light of our various needs and crises.

We also adopted as our focus scripture Proverbs 3:6 "In all thy ways acknowledge Him" which gave us a yard stick by which to measure our daily relations against the promises of God for us through Christ Jesus. Heavy emphasis was placed on prayer as a means of developing a practical way in which to draw closer to God, and works, as a means of giving vitality to our faith.

We have been able to discuss the fruits of the Spirit, the way in which we use words, getting others to see in us the Christ we profess, the role of the Holy Spirit, the issue of Truth, and last but not least the passion of the Christ.

As part of United Campus Ministries at DSU, we participated in the Sunday worship services, Homecoming, and Spiritual Emphasis Week as our assignments were given:

- The Sunday message was brought by our own Wesley Club President, Niyi Balogun
- Spiritual Emphasis Week - February 12th we presented a workshop entitled "Your Health and Your Spirituality," led by two Christian doctors from Kent General Hospital who kept all of us mesmerized during their exposition of Luke 22 - explaining that the sweat falling like drops of blood is a real medical condition brought on by extreme fear, and focusing in on other medical conditions that are directly related to the spiritual condition.

As community outreach, our students volunteered at Westminster Nursing Home in Dover during the week of Spring break. They assisted Ms. Amy Boutillo with activities for the residents. It was a pleasure we hope to repeat on a more regular basis.

On the campus we have just completed a series "Dinner and the Word" where we utilized the small dining room off the main cafeteria to hold our Bible Study during the dinner meal. We numbered between 7 and 9 new students each session. It was very successful!

Our final project, which centered on evangelization and our commitment to the community, was the rental of Cinema 13 in the Dover Mall for a private showing of "The Passion of The Christ." We had the opportunity to speak to a sell out audience inviting them to Christ and to be in community with us.

Our future goals include:

- Revival of the peer ministry program, having a UMC rep in each dormitory
- Overseas mission opportunity as we were not able to go to Haiti as planned this year

It is also our hope to be able to provide some financial assistance for our students, therefore we seek your help as congregations to develop small fundraisers for book money and academic excellence awards on our behalf. Note worthy here is the fact that our Wesley Club President, Olaniyi A. Balogun, placed second for the state of Delaware on the National Honor Roll. Other participants in the Wesley Club also received recognition, which was posted in the Sunday Down State News of March 28, 2004.

As always we continue to strive to show the love of Christ and train our students to be effective in ministry and in life.

Salisbury University

The Wesley Foundation at Salisbury University is sponsored by The United Methodist Church and named for John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist movement. Wesley believed that wherever people are in their understanding of faith, it is beneficial for them to meet together often in small groups and encourage each other along in the spiritual journey. Further, we stress the importance of keeping Wesley Foundation connected to the outside community through various service projects.

2004 Theme: "We Meet You Where You Are"

- We do this through weekly meetings featuring discussion, prayer, music, and refreshments.
- Service projects as an opportunity for students to reach out to the community
- An overnight retreat each semester
- Fostering positive relationships through social events
- Opportunities for development of group leadership skills

Purpose:

The Wesley Foundation at Salisbury University provides campus fellowship which is open to all, regardless of religious affiliation, or lack thereof. Through spiritual development we explore daily issues as we bring our hearts and minds together. This is modeled as we seek every opportunity to reach out to others in compassionate actions just as Christ has done for us.

2004 Goals

1. To identify students who are searching for a stronger faith or have strayed from the faith for various reasons and are prayerfully encouraged to participate in Wesley Foundation through teaching weekly Bible Study whereby students will increase their knowledge of the Bible and its relevance to their daily lives.

2. To make disciples for Jesus Christ through evangelism and nurture.
3. To implement several recruitment plans in order to increase the number of students who will actively participate in the weekly fellowship program provided on the Salisbury University campus through Wesley Foundation.
4. To teach an effective Bible Study whereby students will increase their knowledge of the Bible and its relevance to their daily lives.
5. To continue to meet in a weekly fellowship in an atmosphere conducive to sharing moral and spiritual thoughts.
6. To continue to organize retreats so that students will deal with issues which are of common interest to them.
7. To promote a broadened Wesley fellowship through joint activities with other campus organizations, colleges, and universities.
8. To encourage the churches within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to identify family and friends who have matriculated to Salisbury University.
9. To identify other methods of fund raising in order to maintain financial stability for the Foundation.
10. To continue to meet and work with the Board of Directors in order to promote awareness of the Foundation's status and seek help on issues of training and leadership development where needed.

Mission Statement:

The Wesley Foundation at Salisbury University strives to provide a caring and compassionate ministry to students and other members of the campus community who seek to integrate and understand the Christian faith within the academic and social environment of the university.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
University of Delaware

2003 Goals

1. Educate the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as to the vitality and significance of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware so we may continue to provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, and education for the entire university community.

We continue to make efforts to be in touch with local congregations.

2. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
We continue to fulfill this goal with local and national participation in mission outreach.
3. Support current and former students who are considering professional ministries as vocations, and provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.
We provide opportunities for students to attend Exploration and the Student Forum as well as weekly experiences to develop their call to the ordained and/or lay ministry.
4. Promote within the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to the Book of Discipline.
In and through the love, grace, and guidance of God we have met this goal.
5. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to international students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.
We continue to be in dialogue with the Center for Black Culture, Hillel and Halo through gatherings and programming.
6. Provide outreach to the de-churched* at the University.
We continue to provide a safe place and spiritual guidance for students to explore their questions and doubts about the organized church.
7. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches and to help strengthen the relationships between these churches and their campus ministry.
We continue to make efforts in this area. Our new brochure, given by a generous donor, is available to all local congregations.
8. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration of the University.
Our campus pastor continues to serve as the designated liaison from the religious community to the administration.
9. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.
The Board of Directors never ceases to explore and to do fundraising.
10. Foster development of the Board of Directors.
We continue to make efforts in this area.

*de-churched: those who have been nurtured by the church and have drifted away for various reasons

Our God calls us into community! The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry is a vital part of campus life as we continue our Wesleyan heritage by our presence and our mission for The United Methodist Church, intergrating knowledge and spirituality through an intellectual, spiritual and material ministry to all God's people. A mission ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, hosted by the Newark United Methodist Church, we welcome the opportunity to share this past year's ministry.

Spiritual growth continues to be the center for our ministry. The students worship with the NUMC family. Students have served as liturgists or communion servers. A highlight every November is the one Sunday designated as University

Sunday. The students lead the entire worship service telling their story of the way campus ministry has enriched their lives. Our spring break Volunteer in Mission Trip to Lumberton, NC, is always the highlight of the year. This year eleven students, one Board of Director member and the campus pastor were the team. We have shared in weekly theological discussions, Bible study, Covenant Discipleship Groups and interfaith worship services/vigils on campus. Committed to living our Christian discipleship, we continue our outreach ministry in love for the campus, the community, and beyond. We have cleaned our designated highway, sorted food at Delaware Food Bank, yard cleanup, Habitat for Humanity, Delaware AIDS Walk, 5K Walk Against Breast Cancer, and impromptu projects as requested.

WFCM students participated and were active leaders in the Northeast Jurisdiction United Methodist Student Movement fall retreat. This annual retreat was held at Wesley Theological Seminary where students had the opportunity to visit a seminary, work in social justice ministries in the Washington, DC area, worship together, and network with other campus ministries in the northeast. Providing students with an opportunity to attend student leadership conferences is an essential part of campus ministry. Campus ministry is fertile ground for preparing a new generation for Christian leadership.

The student lounge provides a quiet, sacred space for the students to meditate, sleep, eat and study. Holding fast to our belief that social activities are an important part of our Christian fellowship and young adult life, we have shared in parties, sport activities, movie nights, eating, tailgating, concerts, hayride, plays and various other activities. Every semester during finals week, WFCM hosts a campus wide Midnight Breakfast. This past spring there were 380 students who came to NUMC at midnight to enjoy a study break with pancakes and all the side dishes. This very special ministry is co-hosted with the other members of the Religious and Spiritual Life Concerns Caucus. Food is a pivotal value.

It is an interesting and challenging time as students struggle with many issues regarding their beliefs, values, morals and ethics. The presence of the church continues to be recognized by the administration of the University of Delaware. Yet, maintaining full-time campus ministry is a challenge. With the most recent budget cut in the yearly allocation from the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, the Board of Directors has been handed a challenge that will consume much time. The Board of Directors consists of all volunteers and are not professional fundraisers. With the lack of increase of funding for 14 years by the Conference, and the two most recent dollar cuts of $8,000, the Board of Directors is faced with looking at a reformation of the pastoral position and opportunities for ministry to the campus community, especially the students. We continue to pray for energy and ways of supporting the campus ministry budget.

In the shadow of the decrease of financial support by the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, the Board of Directors is in the process of planning a 50th Anniversary Gala, July 31, 2004. In 1948 the Peninsula Conference initiated a Wesley Club on the campus of the University of Delaware. In 1954 the national Methodist Commission of Standards accredited the Wesley Club as a Wesley Foundation. Fifty (50) years of vital ministry on the U of D campus is now faced with serious financial challenges instead of putting that energy into newer programs for the students.

Our responsibility is to be the church. Our responsibility is to reach out with the Word and step out on the promises to nurture faithful minds for faithful service. Our responsibility is also our challenge. Through God's grace and the love of the community of faith, the presence of The United Methodist Church will remain on the campus of the University of Delaware.

Mission Statement

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware, a mission realized through the love and grace of Jesus the Christ, provides a program focusing on the spiritual, service, stewardship and social aspects of a Christ-centered life. In these times of challenge, questioning and growth, this ministry,

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
University of Maryland Eastern Shore

This has been a marvelous year for Wesley Foundation-UMES. I continually thank God for the leadership of Dr. William Pender, president of the Board and Mr. Jeffrey Pearson, president of our Wesley Foundation-UMES group. One of the highlights for me this year was receiving the Francis Asbury Award at the 2003 Annual Conference. It meant a great deal because I know it was actually a recognition of all of the awesome work that all of the persons do on behalf of this significant ministry. The second highlight for me this year was to hear from several of our Wesley Foundation-UMES students who have graduated as they share the ministries they are now doing because of what they learned while being in ministry at UMES. One of these persons, Ms. Keisha Johnson, has started a singles ministry at a local United Methodist Church, involving students from Penn State. Ms. Johnson is a doctoral student at Penn State. Another graduate, Ms. Monica Williams, a U.S. Fish & Wild Life biologist who now resides in Massachusetts, is the leader of a youth group in the local church she joined in the area. I pray that every member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference truly understand the difference you make in the lives of the students who attend the University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

Goal 1

Identify and provide nurture and support for the Christian community on the UMES campus.

This year I had the honor of participating in the Inauguration of the 13th President of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. This historic occasion was significant for the University because of Dr. Thelma B. Thompson's vision, intellect, gifts and abilities that she brings to the position. I continue to participate in the important events of UMES including the December and May Commencements.

I continue to be a spiritual presence on the campus of UMES. I marvel at the numerous concerns and crisis students have to deal with during the course of their stay at UMES. This year I counseled with a student whose parent had died and another student whose sibling died. I also performed the funeral service for the son of one of the employees of the University. I have been available for parents with the permission of the student, when the student had been going through crisis and distance made it difficult for the parent to be physically present. It has been a privilege to be invited into the lives of many of the students and personnel of UMES, and to become their campus minister.

Provide opportunities for worship, fellowship and learning for "seekers" and "believers" on their journey of faith.

Wesley Foundation-UMES meets weekly for Bible Study and Fellowship. We continue to have Religious Emphasis Week on the Campus. In the year 2003, the After School Tutoring Program students perform a modern day version of the Prodigal Son for Religious Emphasis Week. Parents, UMES students, Metropolitan Members, and people from the community attended the play. We sponsor UMES Day at Metropolitan United Methodist Church each year. This year Dr. Thelma B. Thompson was the speaker. The UMES Gospel Choir rendered the music. We had 223 persons and over 100 were UMES students.

We have averaged about 20 UMES students during the regular worship service at Metropolitan. We encourage students to participate in area churches while they are at UMES. This year we had three students who have made Confession of Faith.

We were unable to coordinate the schedules of students and available places to have the Spring Retreat in 2003, but plan to have one in 2004. We will have students to attend the IMPAC Retreat again in December.

Goal 3

Provide opportunities for persons to express their faith through community service and other "acts of mercies."

We continue to sponsor an After School Tutoring Program to assist students from the Somerset County Public Schools. There are 23 students in the program. The UMES students are tutors, coordinators, and mentors. We participate in Hands Across Campus program that offers fun activities for the students of Head Start Programs from Somerset, Worcester and Wicomico County. Our UMES students also are involved in a food and clothing drive for the homeless, cancer relays, etc.

Goal 4

Challenge and support those persons who believe they have been called into Christian vocation.

This year we have not had any students to declare a call into Christian vocation, but we continue to create an environment where the opportunity to express a call is available.

The Conference Vision Statement states "The Peninsula-Delaware Conference as the body of Christ will live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ boldly, cooperatively and inclusively through life changing communities of compassion."

We are uniquely situated on a campus that has persons of many ethnic and racial backgrounds. We also have many different denominations represented at the University. Together we work to make a difference in Somerset County and on the campus. Our goals are very compatible with the Vision Statement of the Conference as noted above under our four goals.

Goals for 2004

1. Identify and provide nurture and support for the Christian community on the UMES campus.
2. Provide opportunities for worship, fellowship and learning for "seekers" and "believers" on their journey of faith.
3. Provide opportunities for persons to express their faith through community service and other "acts of mercies."
4. Challenge and support those persons who believe they have been called into Christian vocation.

RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT & MANAGEMENT TEAM

This team has focused on the parts of the vision statement calling to "empower individuals and churches", and "to develop, supply and support leadership for mission and ministry", particularly in terms of the financial management and administrative management of the Conference and the local church.

1. The Resource Development & Management Team will continue collaborative efforts between the RD&M Team, Council on Finance and Administration, Board of Pensions and the Commission on Equitable Compensation to review the total financial resources of the Conference and to ensure effective stewardship of those resources. This effort may be most active during the budget process but will continue throughout the Conference year.
Status: Ongoing.
2. The Resource Development & Management Team will continue to support and assist the Conference Sessions Site Review Task Force as they research possible sites for annual conference and consider alternatives toward cost issues such as retiree attendance.
Status: Task force has written a resolution, copy attached, to be presented at Annual Conference concerning costs of retired clergy to attend annual conference.

3. The Resource Development & Management Team will establish a task force in conjunction with the Board of Trustees to develop guidelines for local churches renting or leasing properties.
Status: Completed. Task force has written a document, Guidelines for Local Church Building/Renovation/Leasing Programs, and presented it to the Cabinet for conference wide use.
4. The Resource Development & Management Team will continue to support and assist the Communications Coordinator and the Communications Task Force with ongoing national and conference projects.
Status: Ongoing
5. The Resource Development & Management Team will establish a task force to address issues of stewardship education, as called for in the Bishop's Summit on Financial Matters.
Status: Stewardship Task Force has produced a report that covers, basic principles of lifestyle stewardship, personal stewardship training, revitalizing local church giving and conference initiatives to advance lifestyle stewardship. The report has been given to the Bishop and Cabinet for action.
6. The Resource Development & Management Team will continue a task force to make recommendations for this team's ministry to local churches in the areas of:
 - interpretation of conference and general church programs on behalf of the local church
 - communication of legal and tax issues facing local churches and assistance in addressing those issues, as necessary.Status: Ongoing.
7. The Resource Development & Management Team will establish a manual of conference approved policies and procedures.
Status: A copy of the policy manual has been sent to the DS's for their review and comment, as well as to the groups who have policies in the manual. Those groups have been asked to bring all disciplinary references up to date with the current 2000 Book of Discipline. It is our suggestion to put the policy manual on the conference web site as this would be the most effective and least costly alternative for distribution, and easy way of updating.
8. The Resource Development & Management Team will respond to requests received for study or action from other Conference committees as necessary.
Status: Ongoing
9. The RD&M Team have received the report made by the Accountability Review Task Force regarding accountability structures within the Annual Conference. The work of the ARTF as laid out by the original motion cannot be accomplished not only due to the large scope of the motion but because the Conference lacks the structures to evaluate effectiveness and accountability. The ARTF concluded that the Conference is not able to put accountability into place the way it is currently structured and that uniform systems need to be put in place in order to create consistent accountability structures within the Conference. Some accountability structures do exist and have served as models in the review, but there is a significant lack of consistency across the resource teams and Conference groups. The ARTF has made recommendations to create accountability structures, which are being reviewed by the RD&M Team in conjunction with other teams.

Board of Pensions

The Board of Pensions monitors benefits including health and dental insurance, life insurance, and retirement benefits that support clergy and other persons employed by churches and agencies related to the Annual Conference. The Board makes recommendations for changes in those benefits and the methods of funding them when appropriate. The Board also is represented on the Conference Investment Committee that is responsible for the investment of funds that support pensions and other benefits. The Board recommends to the Conference a Past Service Rate for the clergy receiving pre-82 pension benefits. The Board sponsors the annual Pension Luncheon for retirees and cosponsors with the Board of Ordained Ministry, the financial planning seminars.

The Board has three standing committees. The Insurance Committee, Financial Seminar Committee, and Pension Luncheon Committee meet on an as-needed basis while the Board of Pensions and the members on the Investment Committee meet at least 5 times a year.

The Board brought 3 resolutions to the 2003 Annual Conference to address the issue of the cost of the health and dental insurance that increased, for the year beginning July 1, 2003, by approximately 24%. Because the increase of that magnitude was believed to be beyond the ability of the budgets of the Annual Conference and its constituent churches, the Insurance committee of the Board of Pensions worked on a plan to redistribute the cost of providing health benefits. The resolutions passed and were put into effect on January 1, 2004. Participants were given the option of using a new less expensive health plan or staying with the original health plan with buy-up costs and higher deductibles. Pastor contributions to premiums were added for both plans. Also added were a new prescription plan and a Section 125 plan to provide tax relief to participants.

Pursuant to a resolution passed at the 2001 Annual Conference, the Board, in consultation with its insurance consultant from Marsh, Inc., continues to evaluate the efficacy of self funding of the health plans.

Accomplished Goals

1. The Insurance Benefits Committee brought to the Board of Pensions a recommendation to add a new health plan, a new prescription plan, to institute pastor contributions, and provide a Section 125 plan. All were approved at the 2003 Annual Conference and became effective January 1, 2004.
2. A Retirement Luncheon provided a time of fellowship for all the retired clergy and retired lay Conference staff and introduced the newly retired.
3. Members from the Board of Pensions, along with members of other Boards, continue to monitor the pension investments and other Conference investments.
4. A Past Service Rate for the year 2004, at the goal of at least 1% of the Conference Average Compensation, was approved at the Annual Conference.

2005 GOALS

1. Representatives of the Board will actively participate with the Conference Investment Committee monitoring the management of investments so that increases in the Past Service Rate can continue at least at the rate of inflation and costs to the Conference of providing benefits can be stabilized and controlled.
2. A Retirement Luncheon for retiring and retired clergy, and retired lay Conference staff will continue annually.
3. The Board of Pensions will make a recommendation for a new Past Service Rate for the year 2005.
4. The Board will participate in conference efforts to begin to address the issue of the unfunded liability for retiree health benefits.
5. The Board of Pensions will monitor the effectiveness of the new health plan and its ability to lower future costs.

Reminders

1. Pastors who are appointed to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the first time must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in the health, dental, life and pension programs.
 - A. Pastors leaving appointment in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference must make arrangement with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefit programs. Please note that the Conference does not participate in COBRA and insurance ends immediately when a pastor leaves the Conference.
 - B. Pastors having changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, adoptions, death, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events.
2. Each pastor is responsible to keep the Conference Business office and the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary and current address.
3. You can help contribute to the continued success of our health program by becoming familiar with and using the preventative benefits of your program.
4. Pastors may call the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits (GBOPHB) any time to find the status of their retirement benefits. That toll free number is 1-800-851-2201. An Interactive Voice Response system is also available at 1-888-851-2201.

Board of Pensions Resolutions

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 2005 is set at $472 per year of approved service.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTER OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received during the year of 2004 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at the time of his or her retirement;
2. This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister who has been granted the retired relation or placed on disability leave by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and whose name and relationship to the conference is recorded in the Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and in other appropriate records maintained by the conference.
3. The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension payment resulting from all service of such retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-290 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a "rental allowance" is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities.

Commission on Equitable Compensation

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to District Superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 2003 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was $125,000. Funds expended in 2003 totaled $200,409.23. This resulted in an over-expenditure of our account by $9,490.05. Since this over-expenditure was due in part to new church development, the 2004 budget line item for New Church Development was increased to allow for this planned growth. As part of this report, there is attached a list of the churches and/or charges receiving assistance in 2003.

If you are new to your Pastor Parish Relations Committee or concerned about what you should or could be doing to help your pastor, please feel free to pick up a copy of our brochure entitled "Guidelines for Pastor's Compensation".

Recommendations

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 2005:

Full Member	-	$28,800
Probationary Associate & Commission Member	-	$26,250
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$24,550
Student Pastor	-	$21,600*

Service increments will be $135 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 2005 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Communications Area

The Communications Area worked on several issues brought to them from the Cabinet and individual conference members/churches. The Communications Coordinator continues to sit on the Resource Development and Management Team as a voting member and reports to them concerning the Communications Task Force activities.

The Communications Task Force has created a questionnaire that will be sent to all churches to be completed and turned back into the Communications Coordinator in late spring 2004. It is the hope of the Task Force that this questionnaire can be used as a tool to resource local churches in receiving materials/information and assist all local congregations in becoming aware of and participate in the technology that is available to us in today's society.

In 2003 the Communication Task Force was informed that, according to the "Discipline," our conference was not in accordance to paragraph 643 which states "each annual conference there shall be a commission on communications or other structure to provide for these functions and maintain the connectional relationship." As such, the Task Force will be approaching the Resource Development and Management Team in early 2004 to ask that they support this change and that the Task Force be disbanded to allow the Commission to be created. The chairperson will be elected from the members of the Commission.

The Annual Conference actively participated in the Igniting Ministry Campaign again in 2003. This year United Methodist Communications and the Igniting Ministry Team launched a new workshop and Bible Study entitled "Beyond 30 Seconds." This new feature has been positively received in our conference and provides useful information and training for local churches to sharpen their skills in the areas of welcoming and hospitality. More workshops are planned for 2004 and beyond.

The official web site of the conference continues to improve and expand. The site now includes an expansive area for the clergy of our conference as well as an area for the Board of Laity. By April of 2004 a new home page should be "live" and the site is being reworked in order to be more user friendly. 2003 also saw the site build in the area of the business section as we continue to add documents for local churches to download, complete, and send in.

Council on Finance and Administration

Thanks to all who contributed to making our work challenging, yet enjoyable. With your help several goals were achieved and other actions taken during the 2003 calendar year.

1. We recommended a budget of $5, 408,065 for the year of 2004.
2. We approved an update of the "Standards for the Parsonages".
3. We reviewed the 2002 Audit Report and addressed all management issues.
4. We approved a campaign to support Barratt's Chapel.
5. We authorized a total of $188,977 of apportionment adjustments for 2003 on recommendations from the District Review Committees: Dover $10,944, Easton $22,961, Salisbury $42,485, Wilmington $112,587.

6. We approved capital funding for Camp Pecometh for $60,500 and authorized a conference-wide capital campaign to support adult retreat ministries.
7. We provided funding from the Parsonage Endowment Fund for additional Landscaping of the Wilmington District Parsonage at a cost of up to $6,300. Project was recommended by the Conference Board of Trustees for funding.
8. We performed administrative and fiscal services as the conference assigned them to our committee.

2005 Goals

1. Recommend to the annual conference, for its action, a plan of anticipated income and expenditures for 2006, which will permit the conference to achieve its mission.
2. Recommend to the annual conference, for its action, a new method of funding conference ministries.
3. Act on recommendations of the District Apportionment Review Committees.
4. Recommend resources to fund the conference ministries.
5. Review the financial audit and address management issues and unforeseen circumstances.
6. Make recommendations for funding of conference ministries if receipts fall short of fully underwriting the approved funding plan.
7. Work cooperatively with the Vision team and the Resource Development and Management team.
8. Perform administrative and fiscal functions and services as the conference may assign.
9. Monitor Fund Balance levels in accordance with approved guidelines.

Conference Board Of Trustees

The Conference Board of Trustees is to supervise and maintain all property belonging to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference so that the ministries and mission of the annual conference can be effective. Our basic responsibilities are: 1) to oversee, maintain and supervise all church property that has been turned over to our care; 2) to report annually on the state of the conference's property, investments, and resources; 3) to receive and administer all gifts made to the Conference; 4) to make certain that all trust funds of the Conference are invested properly; and 5) to be accountable to the Annual Conference.

DISCONTINUED AND ABANDONED CHURCHES

The following properties have been duly received and the status of each is:
Serversen Church, which was discontinued at the 2002 session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference has been transferred to the Board of Trustees of Asbury United Methodist Church, Smyrna.

St. Peter's UMC, Delaware City was sold for $7,000.00.

Smithson Chapel, Preston, MD, has been issued a Quitclaim deed and will be restored for historic purposes

Silverbrook Church, which was declared discontinued at the annual Conference in June is currently in the process of being sold. An offer has been made; still finalizing details.

Drayton Manor is in the process of being sold. An offer has been made; still finalizing details.

Eastlake United Methodist Church still has a few details that need to be addressed. Details to those issues are being finalized.

Scott's United Methodist Church, located near Townsend was declared closed at the Annual Conference in June. The property, which has been appraised, will be placed on the market.

Flower Hill Church, Eden, MD, which has been on limited service since 2001, has been transferred to Community Church.

CONFERENCE PROPERTY

The 2003 calendar year found the Trustees completing the following projects on the District Parsonages:

Salisbury District - secured the services of an extermination company to check and treat for termites.

INQUIRIES ON CEMETERIES

The issue of maintaining cemeteries has risen as a topic of concern with the selling or the transferring of buildings and/or properties that have been discontinued or declared abandoned within the boundaries of the Conference. Members of the Board have volunteered to draft guidelines that will enable us to better handle these properties.

It has been a pleasure for me to serve as a member of this Board. I have been very fortunate to be surrounded by very capable and involved members. Since this is my last report, I would like to thank Paul Owens, Vice-President, Laura A. Martin, Secretary, who graciously recorded detailed minutes, and Bill Westbrook, who graciously guided us through numerous details in regards to a number of properties, and all of the other members who gave of their time and talents to make this Board the valuable and essential board that it is. To the annual conference, thank you for providing me the opportunity to serve.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA-PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The year of 2003 presented many wonderful opportunities and achievements for the Eastern Pennsylvania-Peninsula United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Throughout the year the Foundation welcomed 8 new churches to our family of clients and 11 other accounts added to the assets they have under management with us. In total more than $3.4 million in new investment assets came to the Foundation. This surpassed our goal of $3 million in new assets for the year. At the end of the year the Foundation had more than $28 million in assets under management for approximately 170 churches and agencies of both the Peninsula-Delaware and Eastern Pennsylvania Conferences. While adding assets under management is critical to the work of the Foundation, we are also concerned about working with churches in areas of organizing assets, creating endowments, general financial advice and planned giving. Throughout 2003 the Foundation had 108 meetings with churches on these topics as well as on investment management. As part of those meetings the Foundation held 10 Planned Giving Seminars to teach individuals about ways to include the church in their estate planning and lifetime giving.

Another significant achievement for the Foundation was the creation of a quarterly newsletter called Blessings, which highlights where dollars are spent in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference as well as information about giving techniques and an update on the investment markets. Over 3100 people receive the newsletter in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and one issue was jointly mailed to over 4500 people in both conferences. Responses to the newsletter have been very positive and we look forward to continuing it in 2004.

The investment markets were, happily, in our favor in 2003. For the first time in 3 years the stock market moved upward, not downward. Both our Core Equity Fund and our Growth Equity Fund returned more than 20% for the year! Bonds did not do as well in 2003 as they did in previous years but nonetheless our Bond Fund returned a respectable 4.5% for the year. The Short Term Investment Fund yield had settled in around 2.7% at the end of the year, still providing more return than most 2-year CDs.

The Foundation's goals for 2004 include adding an additional $3 million in investment assets, adding 8-10 new relationships, continuing our newsletter and continuing to expand our work with individuals in the area of planned giving. Budgetary constraints continue to hold back our growth but we look forward to better markets and easier budgets in 2004. Please direct any questions about investments or endowments to Kathleen Hawkins, Executive Director, 800-828-9093.

PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST HOMES, INC.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., (PUMH) shares a common mission with the Conference, although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH. (A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church was adopted June 12, 1985).

PUMH provides retirement housing and health care services to senior adults in Delaware and Maryland. It owns and operates Methodist Country House in Greenville, Delaware; Cokesbury Village in Hockessin, Delaware; and Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware, all continuing care retirement communities (CCRCs). PUMH also manages Heron Point, a CCRC in Chestertown, Maryland, which is owned by PUMH of Maryland, Inc. The four communities serve approximately 1,300 residents and employ approximately 900 people.

Mission Statement: Adopted July 21, 2003, the PUMH Mission Vision Values statement reads:

"PUMH, in keeping with its religious tradition, is committed to fostering an exceptional quality of life and promoting wellness, health and security for older adults. Through our stewardship, PUMH will ensure standards of excellence to meet the changing needs of those we serve.

Our Vision Statement: PUMH will fulfill its mission by being compassionate, innovative and bold. Our approach will be assured and we will have the courage to lead.

Our Values: compassion, diversity, excellence, integrity, trust and commitment."

PUMH Celebrates 50th Anniversary

PUMH will celebrate 50 years in October 2004. Always a leader in retirement living PUMH continues to provide innovative ways for seniors to enjoy their retirement years in healthy, caring surroundings.

In honor of our 50th year, PUMH is hosting a series of events to explore the "Golden Opportunities" available within our communities and the greater communities outside of our campuses.

Our kickoff for the celebration will be in May with the distribution of special 50th anniversary pins for staff in the communities and the corporate office to wear proudly.

Each community will then sponsor a special party for residents and staff throughout the summer. In September, there will be a special Founders Award dinner honoring past leaders of PUMH. At this dinner we will bestow the prestigious Founders Award to both an individual candidate as well as an organization that has made a difference and supported learning in the senior community.

Also planned for August through September will be three lectures open to the public focusing on three areas of wellbeing: Financial wellbeing, featuring Jane Bryant Quinn, contributing editor of Newsweek and one of the most influential women in America.

Two additional seminars are in the planning stages with panels composed of gerontologists and fitness instructors speaking about the physical side of healthy aging to ministers involved with spiritual issues.

There will be a special 16-page Anniversary supplement distributed in the News Journal that chronicles the history of PUMH and some of the interesting people in our past as well as our path forward for the future.

Thursday, October 14, will be our grand finale with featured speaker Art Linkletter appearing in Clayton Hall at the University of Delaware with a birthday reception scheduled for after his presentation.

Cokesbury Village:

Cokesbury Village changed the licensing for its Brandywine Wing from rest-residential to assisted living earlier this year. This change was prompted by Cokesbury's move to a social model assisted living program featuring larger apartments for assisted living residents and more varied programs including a new dementia assisted living program in the former health center Sussex Wing.

Cokesbury continues to evaluate its services and facilities as it continues to celebrate its 25th anniversary. Proposals for unit renovations and possible limited new construction are being evaluated within Cokesbury's new master plan. The use of Cokesbury's new aquatic center and adjacent wellness center has climbed steadily since these units opened in late 2001. Wellness and preventive medicine and rehabilitation are main features in Cokesbury's health care philosophy.

Methodist Country House:

The Country House completed construction on Kennett Woods, a new three story apartment building, in late 2003. All twelve large apartments are occupied in this lovely new wing which is connected to the main building by a very attractive enclosed bridge. Couples occupy most of these new units.

In March 2004, Country House completed renovations and new construction for the Wesley Wing assisted living dementia center. This state-of-the-art unit provides care and programming for 15 residents with Alzheimer's disease and related memory impairment. The unit features its own dining room and activity spaces, an enclosed porch and a special outdoor secure walking and gardening area. This special unit was paid for by very generous resident gifts to the recent Country House capital campaign.

In addition, Country House is beginning other health center renovations and upgrades. The health center's heating, ventilation and air conditioning (HVAC) will be upgraded to a four-pipe system over the next three years. Health center resident rooms will be improved as well as their bathrooms. In 2003 and early 2004, health center halls and the main nurses station received major cosmetic improvements.

Methodist Manor House:

In the fall of 2002, the Manor House began a major project to improve and upgrade the main entrance, lobby and connected hallways and other public spaces. The new Manor House Towne Center opened in late 2003 with a new lobby featuring a new living room, card room, grocery store/soda fountain, beauty shop, bank, mailroom, marketing display space and other improvements. In addition, new buffet equipment was installed in the main dining room and a new assisted living dining room was completed for the Manor House's enlarged assisted living unit.

Manor House now offers 48 assisted living apartments and 17 assisted living dementia units. All the assisted living programs are organized and staffed on the social model, which prompts residents toward maximum independence and dignity. Manor House has downsized its health center skilled nursing care unit from 88 to 60 licensed beds. Skilled nursing care is now offered only to Manor House residents (not direct admissions from the local community).

Heron Point of Chestertown:

In March 2004, Heron Point celebrated with the groundbreaking for the new Social Model Assisted Living (SMAL) building which will house 20 large social model assisted living apartments and dining, activity and other support spaces and services. This new wing is being financed mainly by generous contributions from Heron Point residents to the Heron Point capital campaign.

Heron Point continues to be very successful with its marketing as it has attracted residents from 23 states and maintains occupancy of over 98%. During the coming year, Heron Point anticipates renovations and improvements to its main dining room which will create a private dining room and other spaces for more intimate resident get-togethers.

Parish Nursing/Health Ministries

PUMH continues to provide major support to the Parish Nursing Program. In the past year, PUMH has provided over $40,000 for salaries, expenses, accounting and administrative supervision for Parish Nursing. Many PUMH staff and residents volunteer with local non-profit community organizations. In the past year, PUMH residents contributed over 7,000 hours of volunteer work to local churches, meals-on-wheels, health care and many other local organizations and PUMH staff contributed over 900 hours of volunteer work to local groups.

Benevolence Funds:

The PUMH Foundation, Inc., incorporated in November 2000, is the philanthropic arm of PUMH, supporting its Mission, Vision, and Values. By establishing the PUMH Foundation, Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. has taken a bold step toward securing the future. The Foundation's emphasis will be to provide endowments and programs that offer expanded opportunities for older adults. We deeply appreciate the support that our Annual Conference churches and members give to the benevolence work of PUMH. We project that PUMH residents will need $456,000 in benevolence assistance during the PUMH fiscal year May 1, 2004 through April 30, 2005. Contributions to the PUMH Benevolence Fund enable us to assist those people whose income no longer covers the cost of care.

PUMH OF MARYLAND, INC.

PUMH of Maryland, Inc., shares a common mission with the Conference although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH of Maryland, Inc. (A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH of Maryland, Inc., and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church was adopted June 5, 1990.)

PUMH of Maryland, Inc. owns Heron Point a continuing care retirement community in Chestertown, Maryland. Heron Point is managed under contract by Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Heron Point has a mission to meet the changing needs of active older adults. They provide the highest standards of excellence in services and have committed its resources to carry out its goals in an efficient, cost effective and compassionate manner, offering personal growth and fulfillment for each resident. Heron Point appeals to an eclectic group of residents who are attracted by its location on a 66-acre site along the Chester River on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in historic Chestertown. The small town atmosphere and the presence of Washington College make it a desirable combination. Currently, nearly one hundred of the Heron Point residents are enrolled in "tuition free" courses at Washington College, or teaching there.

Heron Point currently offers a traditional life care contract and a 90% refundable entrance fee program. The market has responded positively to the services and amenities package at Heron Point and the occupancy has steadily risen above 98%.

Residents at Heron Point are extremely active in the Chestertown community, volunteering many hours of service at the local hospital and other community organizations.

STRENGTHENING THE BLACK CHURCH FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

The Office of Strengthening The Black Church was established to be more responsive to the concerns and issues of the African-American Congregations in The Peninsula-Delaware Conference and tap into the rich spirituality of the black church for the ultimate benefit of the entire Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

The task of the office includes, but is not limited to, advocacy on behalf of the African-American pastors and congregations, resourcing, spiritual formation and leadership development, and liaison between teams, boards and agencies of the general church and the black church in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

We work with about eighty-five (85) pastors and about one hundred twenty-nine (129) congregations. Our vision for this office has been helping the conference recapture the dynamic life of the early church as exemplified by the early Methodists in the U.S. for our time – faith working through love. Three major areas were identified to commence the thrust of the initiative of this office: Spiritual Formation, Human Development and Resource Development.

Our ministry has included the following:

- 1) Regular visits to churches to listen and learn and become more responsive to the churches.
- 2) Publication of over (100) resources for vital ministry.
- 3) Workshops (58) for churches and pastors with a total attendance as of today's date (1,235).
- 4) Consultations with pastors and lay persons on issues affecting vital ministry.
- 5) Special ministry to new pastors to assist them as they commence pastoral ministry.
- 6) Regular contributions to the Communicator on vital congregation.
- 7) A core of leaders assembled to assist with workshops.
- 8) Meet with pastors regularly to deal with issues of effective ministry.

Workshops and training opportunities have covered these areas and many more:

- 1) Developing a Vital Congregation
- 2) Christian Education
- 3) Various Approaches to Evangelism
- 4) Ministry to inactive members
- 5) Developing a vital prayer life
- 6) Strategy for giving in the church
- 7) Lay leadership Development
- 8) Hospitality Ministry
- 9) Faith, Money and Spirituality
- 10) Developing an effective Outreach Ministry
- 11) Membership Care
- 12) Church Administration

A core of fourteen (14) leaders, including 2 (two) lay persons, have been available to assist in conducting workshops. Some of these persons are the Rev. Dr. Vanessa S. Lee, Rev Donald Hamilton, Rev. Dr. William Wallace, Rev Dr. Ashley Maxwell, Rev. Yvonne Penn, Rev. Lisa Graine, Bro. Gene Cray and his wife Arelela Cray. In some instances these persons have planned and executed workshops in my absence. Rev. Lisa Graine has in addition, assisted with producing brochures.

Our ministry has, included white churches, some pastored by African-American ministers.

The resources have covered guidelines on the administrative committees in the church and how-to-resources; e.g. making disciples in amazing ways, how to conduct meetings, suggestions for spiritual disciplines, how to jumpstart your congregation, and how to bringnew life for your committee.

Many of the pastors and churches have responded well and have reported the results of this ministry in their churches through publications in the Communicator, and a special highlight brochure put out to inspire other churches. A significant number of churches are alive and well. Their are doing vital ministry while a large portion lag behind.

We have observed these in our ministry: A significant key to vital congregations is the quality of clergy leadership in the local churches. Some factors that affect the vitality of congregations are the pastor's zeal and enthusiasm for ministry, the extent to which the pastor trains and empowers the members for involvement in ministry, effective church administration and the quality of spirituality of the pastor.

Our major project now is producing a video on vital congregations.

We are also collaborating with the Enabling Ministry Resource Team to produce a ministry manual for the Conference.

I have thoroughly and absolutely enjoyed this aspect of my ministry in serving as Director for Strengthening the Black Church. I am grateful to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, in particular, Bishop Peter D. Weaver, for the opportunity to serve in this extension ministry. I would like also to acknowledge the support of two persons who have worked very closely with me in this ministry besides the core of volunteers who have assisted me. Connie Robbins, my hard working, conscientious and patient secretary, who has often gone beyond the call of duty, has been of tremendous support and indispensable. My immediate supervisor, the Reverend Dr. James T. Seymour, has been very understanding and supportive. His gem of wisdom has been extremely helpful. Finally, I praise God for the gift, and sustaining grace to be in this ministry.

VISION TEAM

The Vision Team is the policy-setting and decision-making body for the Annual Conference between Conference sessions. It assures that the ministry and mission of the Conference is consistent with our Vision, Mission, and Core Values.

One of the ongoing goals of the Vision Team is to find effective avenues to promote, coordinate, and implement the Relational Design Model for ministry throughout our Annual Conference. Addressing this goal has been a difficult task. This has been a year of self-assessment for the Vision Team. We rejoice and celebrate the work of mission area ministry in local settings all across our Conference. Great things are being accomplished as local churches come together as United Methodists and ecumenically to impact the local community. However, we have been concerned about the slow pace in development of the Relational Design organizational model for Mission Area Ministry, especially as it relates to Annual Conference and District structures. We find that for the most part District Mission Area Ministry Councils are non-existent or not functioning effectively. There appears to be a disconnect between Annual Conference structures and the needs of local churches and mission areas.

In October of 2003 the Vision Team held a two-day retreat at Camp Pecometh to wrestle with these issues. There has been much follow-up and prayer to discern the appropriate direction for moving forward. We have shared these issues with the Cabinet as well. In all of our deliberations two clear themes have emerged:

- The need of the Annual Conference to resource local churches and pastors in their disciple-making activity.
- Promote healthy connections between local churches and the Annual Conference.

We are in the processing of developing a survey tool to assess what pastors and lay leadership feel about these issues. The survey will lay the groundwork for District Forums in the near future.

We continue to assess our core values by featuring several of them at each meeting.

We greatly appreciate the efforts of Rev. Dr. J.T. Seymour for guiding our work and for LaWanda Magill for her hard work and support.

2005 Goals:

Under the direction of the Holy Spirit, the Vision Team will challenge and lead the Peninsula Annual Conference to life selflessly as Jesus taught, demonstrated by:

- Effective spiritual and disciple making.
- Focus on building vital congregations. The Vision Team will seek avenues to assist pastors and local churches in making disciples.
- Improve the relationship between the local church and Annual Conference. Host District Forums on each district. A commitment to adequate follow-up to make necessary adjustments.
- Passionate commitment to and involvement with local, conference, and global missions.
- Plan a Conference-wide spiritual life event with unity as the focus.
- We will continue to work toward adequate goal setting and directing the vision and direction of Resource Teams and other program boards and agencies. We will work closely with The Commission on Finance and

Equalization Task Force

Adjust Rule #25 – Selection of Lay Equalization Members

The 2003 session of Annual Conference authorized a Task Force to examine the selection process of lay equalization members, with two objectives:

1. Are student pastors eligible to be selected as lay members to Annual Conference?
2. Does the current Rule #25 allow us to select the best representation to meet the changing needs of our Annual Conference?

The Vision Team was charged with establishing this task force and receiving their findings. Kevin Goodwin was appointed to head this task force since he proposed the idea of reviewing Rule #25. Actions included writing to every student pastor in the Conference for feedback related to their non-voting status, consulting the Judicial Council website for relevant decisions and email consultation with Bill Westbrook (Conference Treasurer), and members of both the Vision Team and EMRT.

Findings

1. After reviewing the current wording of the Book of Discipline and decisions by the Judicial Council of the UMC, all local pastors, including students, are considered clergy and thus ineligible to serve as lay members to Annual Conference (Judicial Decisions 112, 328, 658).
2. General Conference will be voting on changing the voting status of student pastors. For the first time, the General Board of Higher Education & Ministry is supporting this change in the Discipline.
3. While many of our smaller Charges are served by pastors without a vote, they are not under-represented in total votes as compared to their percent of Conference membership. Charges with 200 members or less represent 15% of our members but have about 35% of the voting members of Annual Conference selected at the Charge level.
4. Lay members selected under this rule (except group #1 which are elected by their Charge Conference) need to be formally notified of their selection and included in the pre-conference mailings.
5. Rule #25 provides about 10% of the voting members to Annual Conference.
6. Without doing detailed, formal analysis, no segment of the Annual Conference appears to be severely under-represented.

Path Forward

A resolution will be presented to Annual Conference to amend Rule #25. Because actions of the General Conference will greatly affect the wording and layout of the resolution, it is not presented here. Look for it in your Conference packets. A section will be added to allow some/all of the single-vote charges to elect a second lay member to Annual Conference. If student pastors are granted voting rights, Rule #25 will need to be amended to select additional 35-40 lay members.

Methodist Action Program

"Creating Communities of Compassion Through Christian Faith in Action" is the Methodist Action Program's Vision Statement. Adopted in 1966, this statement expresses an understanding of the ministry and the mission of M.A.P. that is becoming more and more evident. It provides insight into the three historic reaffirmed components of the Mission Statement.

"Helping individuals, congregations and communities,

- Meet human needs
- Promote positive social change
- Facilitate Church development through the transforming power of Jesus Christ"

MEETING HUMAN NEEDS

Every congregation in our Peninsula-Delaware Conference encounters members of neighborhoods who have pressing human needs. Practically every church reaches out in one way or another to help. For thirty-eight years, M.A.P. has directed a major part of its effort at alleviating basic human needs. The programs have changed over the years and kinds of help provided have varied. Information, referral, food and housing assistance, clothing, loving attention, and the Gospel of Jesus Christ have always been offered to the limit of resources to all persons in severe need. During the past year, M.A.P. has sought to meet human needs through the following programs:

OLD ASBURY HOMELESS MINISTRIES

The homeless problem in the lower business district of Wilmington came to the attention of the Methodist Action Program because of our ownership of the Old Asbury Church building at 226 S. Walnut Street, Wilmington, Delaware. Agencies and programs needing space to minister to the many homeless and hungry in that geographical area have requested M.A.P.'s assistance to help alleviate these problems. The projects housed in the Old Asbury Church building are clearly separate programs serving different aspects of homelessness. Alone, each does important things for the homeless—together, via coordination meetings and individual consultations, they begin to focus homeless people's attention and energy on new life and on a more wholesome lifestyle. The following are the individual ministries that together comprise the Old Asbury Homeless Ministries:

- Emmanuel Dining Room

In 1980, the Ministry of Caring located its Emmanuel Dining Room in our facility. The Old Asbury Church building has been serving nutritious meals every day of the year, with dignity, without question, and at no cost to persons in need. Through this program, people who are hungry can eat one good meal a day, seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year. In 2003, 64,413 meals were served to those in need. M.A.P. provides space and utilities without charge for this ministry. M.A.P. has also encouraged United Methodist congregations throughout the county to support this vital ministry. The Emmanuel Dining Room depends upon the continued ecumenical support of religious and civic groups who provide meals daily and the volunteers who prepare meals. For more information regarding the Emmanuel Dining Room, please contact 302-652-2577.

- F.A.I.T.H. Center

The Financial Information Theocentric Help Center is a religious community response to God's call to serve fellow human beings in crisis, who need compassion, love and assistance. Consultations, referrals to available community resources and as appropriate, financial assistance are afforded to clients. Basic needs are teamed with self-help opportunities and encouragement to alleviate the effects of poverty. Acknowledging variations in theology, worship and perspective, all communities of faith are invited into membership in the F.A.I.T.H. Center to serve our neighbors who are in need. In 2003, the F.A.I.T.H. Center had 2,859 contacts and provided grants to 454 households. For more information regarding this ministry, please contact the F.A.I.T.H. Center at 302-654-4550.

• Friendship House

Friendship House is a non-profit Christian Corporation committed to making a difference in the lives of Wilmington's homeless and impoverished. The agency has a continuum of services, a dedicated staff, and strong volunteer support. Friendship House offers hospitality, education, empowerment and a sense of community to those they serve.

Friendship House provides men and women with day center, residential and job programs. In 2003, this ministry provided approximately 5,000 service contacts a month. Friendship House assisted 2,300 men and 900 women with rebuilding their lives. In addition, they also provide clothing, breakfast and worship, grant programs and community education. For more information on the Friendship House, please call 302-652-8133.

CENTRO LOS ABUELOS (THE GRANDPARENTS CENTER)

Centro Los Abuelos is an outreach ministry for Hispanic elderly. It is a Spanish speaking language and culture senior center program that is designed to promote social relationships and to stimulate creative growth. It is a center for information, referral, assistance and services for Hispanic elderly persons. Programming is conducted in the following areas: social and recreational activities, nutrition, transportation, personal problem resolution, health maintenance, information and referral.

The Hispanic populations are the fastest growing segment of the Delaware community. Presently, Centro Los Abuelos is a participant in some of the programming provided by the State of Delaware, Division of Services for Aging and Adults with Physical Disabilities, most notably, the Nutrition Program operated by City Fare. Federal and state guidelines suggest a definition of sixty years and older for all participants. Many Hispanic seniors are unable or afraid to use or request services that are otherwise available to them from public or private agencies throughout the area, due greatly to a language barrier or lack of information. Centro Los Abuelos affords seniors an opportunity to take full advantage of services within a safe, friendly atmosphere. Transportation is provided free of charge and meal programs are available. Centro Los Abuelos provides Hispanic seniors a healthier and happier quality of life through participation in agency programming. Through the program activities, the elderly are helped to have a fuller range of their needs met and to gain greater opportunities for quality living through assisted access to available private and public resources. Los Abuelos is located at 623 N. Harrison Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19805. For more information, please call Mrs. Naya Currington at 302-254-3199.

LOCAL CHURCH TRAINING

M.A.P. provides the local church with technical assistance in strategic planning, assessing their neighborhoods, community organizing, starting community development corporations and preparing 501(C)3 applications.

YOUTH MOVING FORWARD PROGRAM

This ministry is committed to providing support for first time, non-violent youth offenders during the process of societal reintegration at no cost to the participant. The program seeks to reduce risk factors and increase protective factors to ultimately propel the youth away from the strongholds of criminal behavior. Christian counseling and Bible study are also offered; 70 youth were serviced in 2003.

SUMMER YOUTH ENTREPRENEUR CAMP

The Youth Entrepreneur Camp introduces youth from local communities to the world of business and entrepreneurship by teaching youth how to develop and operate their own legitimate businesses. This two-week intensive course could be considered the ultimate summer job and entrepreneurial apprenticeship. Last year's camp was held at Wesley College in Dover. To learn more about M.A.P.'s Youth Entrepreneur Camp, please contact the M.A.P. office at (302) 225-5627.

For further information about any of M.A.P.'s ministries, please contact Kathryn Cooper-Nicholas, Executive Director, Methodist Action Program, 100 W. 10th Street, Suite 701, Wilmington, DE 19801-5601, Telephone (302) 225-5627, Fax (302) 225-5329, E-mail address, kathryncn@map-de.org. Executive Director Neighborhood House, Inc.

With God's love from within, we provide services and programs that educate, enlighten, and empower people and the community.

2003 Program Highlights

- Consistent with a major agency goal, we successfully created a partnership with the University of Delaware's New Directions Early Head Start Program. Under this arrangement, we've expanded our child care operation to serve infants (from 6 weeks of age) and now utilize additional facilities for specialized care. The agreement provides financial and staff resources to the agency while enhancing professional standards.
- Neighborhood House Community Development Corporation was established in order to oversee the construction and rehabilitation of affordable housing (as well as other yet to be identified commercial projects).
- The state ended funding for the Families and Schools Together (F.A.S.T.) project but replaced it with Creating Lasting Family Connections a similar program designed to improve intra-family communication, drug avoidance skills and academic performance.

- We were one of a small number of successful applicants for a 21st Century After-school Project. This five-year grant provides literature and drama-based after-school programming at Elbert-Palmer Elementary School and Bancroft Elementary School and at Kuumba Academy Charter School. Called the CAFÉ Project (Child and Family Enrichment), this partnership also includes Christina Cultural Arts Center and Global Learning, Inc. of Portland, Oregon, which designed most of the activities.
- The Family Technology Center provided computer based instruction to over 100 youth and adults as supported by the Department of Labor, GMAC and Verizon Delaware grants.
- We created a working agreement with a University of Delaware School of Education faculty member who continues to serve as "development officer" and education advisor. Her undergraduate students work with area youth.

2004 Program Goals

- Complete Phase II and Phase III of the Cabean Square affordable housing development in Southbridge; identify development opportunities in the Middletown area of southern New Castle County.
- Begin operation of the TRIO Program partnership with Delaware Technical and Community College to support college matriculation for Southbridge students.
- Create and implement a new operating fund development plan for the agency.
- Expand membership of the Board of Directors to include a greater corporate presence.

Salisbury Urban Ministries

Our Mission: To develop and coordinate programs which serve and minister to the needs of Salisbury's materially impoverished. We will increase awareness of these needs throughout the congregations and provide avenues for responding. We will promote the concern for racial understanding and appreciation.

Salisbury Urban Ministries continues to carry out its mission and vision through the following ongoing programs:

- God's Kitchen, a Saturday feeding program, offers hot lunches from 11:15-12:30 p.m. at Grace United Methodist Church. Twenty-three churches, businesses and community organizations provide the meals on a rotating basis serving over 130 homeless and poor each week. Opportunities are available for prayer, counseling and religious music.
- Community Health Ministry A full-time registered nurse is available to provide health care services and education. The parish nurse coordinates a cadre of volunteer doctors, nurses and dentists. The nurse also provides blood pressure screening, preventative health education, flu shots, and trips to the doctor, and assistance with prescription drugs. Referrals are made to the Joseph House Clinic, Peninsula Regional Medical Center, the Health Department and private physicians.

- Respite Program (Hospitality Center)
A new ministry directed at the chronic homeless population. On Saturdays the Lazarus Center is open for showers, laundry, and a brief time off the streets in a welcoming atmosphere. Volunteers are available for counseling. Survival bags, coats, winter attire, personal hygiene items are also provided. The Parish Nurse and a licensed social worker are also available for assistance.
- East Church Street Youth Outreach
Kid's Café, in partnership with Maryland Food Bank and Grace United Methodist Church, provides meals, nutrition education, art, music computer lab, and fun activities for children kindergarten through sixth grade that are at risk of hunger. This program had expanded greatly over the past year. There is now a creative dance class, drum ensemble, tutoring, Diamonds and Pearls (a classes for teaching beauty tips, hygiene, and self esteem to young girls), and a peer mentoring programs for boys led by a Boy Scout Troop. Fields trips are offered as incentives.
- Urban Choir Camp is a weeklong fun and rewarding musical and visual arts experience for children in grades 3-6. The camp has been held at various community churches. This is an opportunity to bring together children from diverse backgrounds to work together on an artistic project.
- The Lazarus Center and Food Pantry assist families in need in crisis situations in Wicomico, Worcester, and Somerset Counties. Churches, individuals, and community organizations donate food, funds, and volunteers to run the program. In 2003, SUM saw 5,026 families, distributed $21,748 and gave out 4,470 bags of food.
- The Youth Council plans programs for youth. The monthly IYF (In Your Face) worship experience averages 150 youth from the ecumenical community. This year we have used other churches from other areas in the community to make the ministry more diverse. "Rock In The Park" concert is held in May in conjunction with the Salisbury Festival.

Salisbury Urban Ministries continues to grow in fulfilling our mission and ministering to God's children who are in need by the generous donations of time, and money and to be a covenant community responsible for bringing the good news of grace to all people. Salisbury Urban Ministries is also a United Way Agency.

2005 Goals

- We are committed to the continuation of the above programs.
- Forming a partnership with Habitat on Maryland's Eastern Shore and Salisbury Neighborhood Housing Service to provided home ownership in the Church Street Area.
- Developing an English as Second Language Program for adults.
- Working with Wicomico County Partnership for Families and Children to develop an Out of School Suspension Program.
- Explore ways provided programs to empower people, especially children, to make good choices about their future. America's Promise is a good resource to help in this area.
- Continue to provide support for the chronic homeless population.

BOARD OF CHILD CARE

Our Mission

As an outreach ministry of the United Methodist Church, the Board of Child Care serves children and families who require physical, emotional, behavioral and social support. Through residential community based services, the Agency will endeavor to provide a safe, healthy and caring environment that seeks to sustain children and families by fostering self-esteem, respect for community, a sense of purpose and life skills needed to achieve their highest potential.

For the past ten years the Board of Child Care has developed new programs and services and expanded our mission and ministry. 2003 -2004 has been challenging for us especially in the full development of our most recent programs - our facility in West Virginia and our day care center in Baltimore City. Our focus has been to recruit qualified staff and to provide an opportunity for a rewarding experience for each child in our care.

Our Gaither Road campus continues to be our "hub" as we have maintained close to a 100% occupancy rate. Recently, we received a letter from the Assistant Director of the Baltimore County Department of Social Services, who praised the Board of Child Care for the enormous progress that has occurred in delivering services to children and families in need. She stated that the Board of Child Care has been one of the more outstanding residential programs in Maryland and is a place where her staff feels confident that children are given excellent care. Our Adoption program continues to grow both in domestic and international placements. We are seeing many adoptive parents adopt from us again and a larger number of new referrals coming from parents who have adopted from us.

The highlight of the past year was the opening of our new office building and day care center in the District of Columbia. Our foster care program and day care moved to 308 15th Street SE, Washington, DC in late June after a very positive nine-year relationship with Albright UMC. In October, we opened the new day care center on 15th Street, which eventually will provide day care for up to 80 children. In November, we hosted a special tour of Bishops' wives during the international meeting of the United Methodist Church Council of Bishops. Afterward, we received many notes of thanks for this tour and some financial support from this group of Bishops' wives who care as deeply as we do about the well being of children.

Besides the success of our programs, this past year saw us develop a relationship with Epworth Chapel UMC and The Rev. Horace Wallace who assisted us in the baptism as Christians and/or the renewal of faith of our youth. This past year also saw us continue to have several positive meetings with representatives of the Baltimore-Washington Conference to resolve governance issues. Talks have been productive as both sides seek an amicable solution.

Finally, we wish to thank all those who continue to pray for the children in our care and who support us with gifts of love in so many different ways. The Board of Child Care would not be what it is today if not for the help and support of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference
Funding Plan for Supplement One to the Ministerial Pension Plan

The 2004 Past Service Rate (PSR) for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is $452, or 1.0% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). The Conference intends to maintain the PSR at 1.0% of CAC. The average increase in CAC since the inception of Supplement One has been 4.9%. Therefore, we expect future PSRs to increase by an average of 5% per year.

The General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits has determined, as of January 1, 2002 and projected for 2004, that the portion of the pre-82 plan liability attributed to Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is $23,675,778 with a 5% PSR increase assumption and based on a 2004 PSR of $452. Plan funds currently held with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits have a value of $23,642,265 as of January 1, 2002.

The difference between the total plan liability and current plan funding is $33,513. This represents an under funding of plan liability, after making the required contribution of $107,659 for 2003 the plan will be overfunded as of 1/1/2004. The Conference intends for contributions to be made within the 18-year period, ending December 31, 2021 to cover any increase in PSR beyond the assumed 5%.

Our conference pays plan benefits through several funding sources. The primary sources are apportionments of $459,000 for 2004 and a Pension Endowment Fund that has a market value of $6,791,444 as of January 1, 2004. The Endowment Fund is not invested with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. It is invested primarily in stocks and bonds and we expect a long-term return of 8% on this fund. Both the interest and principal from this fund are available for pension funding needs. The funding plan as of January 1, 2004 is summarized below.

Supplement One Liability Assuming
A PSR Increase of 5.0%	$(23,675,778)
Current Plan Funding	23,642,265
Under-funded Plan Liability, January 1, 2002	$(33,513)
Over-funded Plan Liability(Projected), January 1, 2004	$ 68,331

Additional Plan Assets:
2004 Apportionments	$ 459,000
Pension Endowment Fund	6,791,444

Re: Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference 2004 Funding Plan for the Pre-1982 Pension Plan

Dear Mr. Westbrook:

Attached is a copy of the funding plan for 2004 you submitted on June 1, 2004, for the portion of Supplement One to the Ministerial Pension Plan attributable to the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The total liability as of January 1, 2002, is $23,675,778 based on the following key actuarial assumptions:

- 7.5% interest
- RP-2000 mortality table
- Past service Rate of 5452 and
- 5% average increase in the Past Service Rate

In the opinion of The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church, the attached funding plan meets the funding requirements of Paragraph 1506.8 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2000. This opinion applies only to the attached funding plan.

Sincerely,

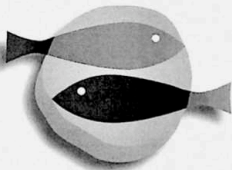

David E. Rumas
Senior Actuary

Introduction

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.¹

The report of the 2002 Bishop's Summit on Financial Matters for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference called the Conference to enhanced understanding and communication of stewardship as integral to Christian life. The report also called for a greater understanding of the vital connection between funding ministry and the primary disciple-making mission of the church in order to address the current realities faced by local churches today. This report, drafted by the members of the Stewardship Task Force and called forth by the Resource Development Management Team, presents a comprehensive program to instill the importance of "lifestyle stewardship" in the hearts, minds and spirits of the members of our local congregations.

Context

The current reality of many churches within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is one of annually tight budgets, shrinking commitments to missions and outreach, stagnant attendance and a per person giving level which is among the lowest across the United Methodist Church in the United States. The Conference also finds itself increasingly unable to fund mission and ministry programs at the Conference level as health care and retirement related expenses consume larger percentages of the Conference budget. Yet the two wealthiest generations ever in the history of the world are currently living and the Conference sits in between two of the 10 largest concentrations of wealth in the United States.

There are two broad significant factors that have resulted in this current reality. The first is a drastic change in the way individuals make charitable giving decisions. The second broad factor leading to our current reality has been a growing discomfort with talking about money in any form within the church. We consider each in turn.

Scrutinizing Charitable Choices

The generations currently over age 60 came of age in a very prosperous and safe time in this country. World War II was over and the country entered a time of economic expansion. Government was trusted and individuals could focus primarily on friends, family and church. The church was part of most people's lives and one gave to the church because it was the right thing to do. No one questioned use of funds, institutions such as the church and the government were highly trusted. The generations currently 55 and under came of age however during a time of institutional distrust, beginning with the US Government. Vietnam was underway, the Watergate scandal occurred, a US President resigned, the OPEC oil crisis ensued. Distrust of institutions carried over into corporate America and also into the charitable world. The United Way scandal in the 1980s, the New Era Foundation crisis, the Arizona Baptist Foundation, and the American Red Cross as recently as 2001. Americans growing up through these events have learned to be distrustful of institutions and in many cases have grown to see the church as another institution asking for their money without accountability. These events throughout recent history have not stopped individuals from being generous but they have caused individuals to look closely at how their funds will be used and to give only when they see that their dollars will have an impact on the lives of others. When they know their dollars are well used, this generation will give very generously.

Stewardship is a reflection of our spiritual health and vitality.

Stewardship in Christian Conversation

Over time many clergy have been heavily influenced to not talk about money and to not know how much individuals give. As a result churches have had little meaningful discussion of the importance of Christian stewardship in the daily lives of the congregations. With this lack of discussion over the years, there was also a growing lack of understanding how gifts to the church were used. Coupled with the above cultural changes, individuals decided to support outside charities that more quickly learned to explain the impact of gifts made. As needs for ministry expanded the church's traditional approaches to raising funds became received more negatively. Messages about giving were heard just once or twice a year and were usually based on the budgetary needs of the church, not the ministry of the church. Charities who could explain how gifts made to their organization impacted the lives of others were more likely to receive funding than churches who simply asked individuals to give to a budget, to unspecified goals, or perhaps in the mind of the individual, to a "black hole." Lack of teaching about stewardship, compounded with cultural changes in giving habits have left the church searching for funding in a time of relative plenty.

Content

In order to bring about re-vitalization and to evoke change in the patterns currently faced by churches, stewardship training must incorporate several basic components:

- ◆ Basic Biblical education about giving;
- ◆ A recognition that stewardship is directly linked to discipleship;
- ◆ Communication skills in line with the needs of today's culture.

The Stewardship Task Force has designed a comprehensive program to instill the importance of "lifestyle stewardship" in the hearts, minds and spirits of the members of our local congregations. These thoughts and ideas form an outline for training of clergy and laity resulting from prayer, meditation and many hours of discussion. The following sections are included in this report:

1. Basic Principles of Lifestyle Stewardship
2. An Outline for Personal Stewardship Training
3. An Outline for Revitalizing Stewardship Plans and Giving within the Local Church
4. Conference Initiatives to Advance Lifestyle Stewardship
5. Expanded Biblical, Theological and Connectional Foundations of Christian Stewardship

The document was organized in this manner to express a firm belief on the part of the Stewardship Task Force that stewardship starts first with each of us as individuals. As individuals we come together to form each local church, where stewardship must be taught and modeled. As local churches we form, through our connectional system, the Conference where lifestyle stewardship ideals must be part of all we do. In turn, the Conference must also raise up resources and standards for teaching and challenging local churches and individuals.

Basic Principles of Lifestyle Stewardship

We Believe:

- I. Stewardship and faith development are fundamentally linked;
- II. Stewardship is comprehensive - it is the whole of our response to God's love and provision for us;
- III. Clergy, lay leaders and congregations should examine language and practices to ensure that we are not apologetic, silent, or uninformed about the financial aspects of stewardship;
- IV. Clergy, lay leaders and congregations should examine language and practices to ensure that "stewardship" is not equated only with money or seen negatively;
- V. Equipping clergy and laity to serve as stewardship leaders in our local churches is an essential task;
- VI. Clergy and lay leadership serve as models for stewardship to the larger community.

Personal Stewardship Training

Five-Step Training

This training program is designed to provide in-depth education about stewardship including understanding biblical principles of stewardship, being a steward within the church and in our whole lives, understanding how people grow in their stewardship and how to teach stewardship to others. This course will also look at the connection between discipleship-making and stewardship.

The outline is designed for a 5-session class. However, it can be shortened depending on the length of time available. All resources should be read and reviewed by the instructor, particularly the Lay Speakers material, as it provides detailed teaching plans. It is also strongly recommended that all participants read all of the resources.

Resources

- ◆ Lay Speakers Lead in Stewardship. Advanced Course by Herb Mather
- ◆ Don't Shoot the Horse Before You Know How to Drive the Tractor, by Herb Mather
- ◆ Revolutionizing Christian Stewardship for the 21st Century by Dan R. Dick
- ◆ Living God's Generosity – A Workbook for Tithing

The first three resources are available through Discipleship Resources at www.discipleshipresources.org or through www.gbod-umc.org.

Program Outline

Step 1: BEING AWARE OF WHAT WE RECEIVE

1. Stewardship is a response to all we have received from God.
2. God has blessed us with all that we have – our lives, our relationships, our material possessions, and our financial resources.
3. God has also given each of us spiritual gifts.
4. Understanding the stewardship of creation helps us to also understand God's continued creation today.
5. We all receive, spend and give daily in our lives, but do we relate those activities directly to God?

Step 2: RESPONDING AS STEWARDS IN THE CHURCH

1. Understanding the relationship between stewardship and the church's Biblical mission "to go out and make disciples."
2. Growth in personal stewardship occurs as we grow as disciples in our faith journey. Growing disciples leads to growing stewardship.

3. What are each of our local churches doing to grow disciples?
4. Understanding that people "hear" stewardship messages differently, based on where they are in their faith journey.
5. Understanding the current language of stewardship and how it is perceived by different groups.
6. Characteristics of the invitation to discipleship/stewardship for individuals at different points in their faith journey.

Step 3: RESPONDING AS STEWARDS IN THE WORLD

1. The steward we are within the church is the steward we must be outside of the church.
2. Stewardship is holistic – stewardship of relationships, possessions, church heritage, faith. Our personal budget reflects our personal beliefs.
3. Exercise in budgeting with placing tithing first.
4. Understanding the relationship between stewardship and gratitude.

Step 4: Equipping Stewards to Respond to God's Call

1. Exploring ways to equip others to become what God calls them to be.
2. Equipping others through the examples we set – trust, integrity, righteousness, accountability.
3. Discerning and understanding the spiritual gifts of prophecy, ministry, teaching, giving, leading, compassion and administration.
4. Helping others to recognize their spiritual gifts and helping them into using their gifts.

Step 5: STEWARDS AS PARTNERS WITH GOD

1. God has created everything, but has created us to be in partnership with him, not to be his slaves.
2. Understanding roles of dependency, independence and partnership or interdependence in our lives, in the church and with God.
3. Recognizing other people as partners and inviting others into the partnership.
4. In partnership with each other and God our most basic responsibility is the stewardship of the gospel and of God's mysteries.

Stewardship is a means of grace.

Revitalizing Local Church Giving

Outline for Training at the Local Church Level

Using the information learned in the stewardship training class, pastors and congregational leaders are encouraged to develop a plan for deepening the commitment to stewardship within the local church. A general outline for such a program is included below, but must be adjusted for specific needs and issues of each individual church. A clear message, however, is that the activities that help to grow disciples also work strongly towards growing stewards. You will find much overlap in the areas of church growth and redevelopment with increasing stewardship.

Phase One: ORGANIZE

1. Define the purpose and vision of your church.
2. Identify how the ministries of your church fulfill the stated purpose and vision.
3. Understand the age and cultural demographics of your church.
4. Select leaders who will be able to talk about stewardship comfortably and will set a good example through their own personal giving. These individuals would be expected to attend the lay academy classes on stewardship.
5. Begin developing communications about the purpose, vision and ministries of the church that speak to the people in your congregations, across various levels of spiritual development.

Phase Two: CULTIVATE STEWARDSHIP

1. Foster a spiritual revival in the church based on prayer and the teaching of Biblical foundations for stewardship. Encourage the study of and struggle with stewardship at Finance committee meetings, at Administrative Board/Council meetings, at Bible studies.
2. Begin church-wide training on lifestyle stewardship and the impact of the ministries done by the church.
3. Consider using a campaign such as Consecration Sunday which lifts up giving as response to God, or Letters for All Seasons which lifts up the joy and ministry of your church, or another type of campaign. Be careful not to use a campaign which focuses giving on the needs of the church, as opposed to the needs of the ministry or the needs of the individual give.
4. Challenge friends and members on their role in ministry within the church.

1. Celebrate the ministry accomplished by your church. Celebrate the growth in your church. Individuals want to give to something positive and effective. Your church doesn't need to have changed the world, but members do want to know that the church has changed some lives for the better.
2. Encourage individuals to continue to commit to the ministries of the church and to build, as appropriate, new ministries.

Phase Four: EVALUATE AND RENEW

1. Continue the journey. Phases One, Two, and Three do not end—they continue in an ongoing process as we must continue to celebrate the ministry done and to teach people to grow in their faith and in their stewardship.

Conference Initiatives to Advance Lifestyle Stewardship

Changing Our Language

One of the points noted earlier was the need to communicate in terms relevant and appropriate to current culture. Outdated or misconstrued language can do more to turn away potential donors than to bring them to a point of increased giving. The Stewardship Task Force recommends the following changes in language to be implemented across the Conference and throughout Conference materials and publications.

- ◆ "Apportionments" could become "CONNECTIONAL MINISTRY FUNDS"

Additionally, various terms from our heritage need better explanation and teaching for accurate understanding.

- ◆ "Stewardship" could be explained as "Resourcing Ministry"
- ◆ "Tithing" can also be taught as "First Fruits Giving"

Language used at the Conference level and at the local church level should also be adjusted to focus on giving to God, not giving to a budget or to an institution. For example, the following language should be understood as not being conducive to encouraging giving:

- "The church's budget is going up by 5% this year, so please increase your giving by 5%"
- "The church needs your financial support....."
- "We need to balance the budget....."
- "The conference budget needs....."
- "We need to pay the electric bill"

This type of language focuses the donor on an institution asking for their money blindly. It does not focus the donor on why as Christians we give to the church and what impact our giving has on the lives of others. Donors today need to see clearly the impact of their dollars being used to change the lives of others - by bringing others into a relationship with Christ, or by feeding the hungry, healing the sick or clothing the naked. Most individuals today also need help understanding why as Christians we give to and through the church. We need to recast our "giving to the church" as "giving to God, because of all that God has already given us." Giving is not something our parents do or did, or one wealthy person can do for the rest of us, but rather something each of us do in response to our relationship with God.

Conference leadership must take the first step in changing language and changing the manners in which we communicate on issues of budget and spending. Widespread and frequent communication is needed to explain how "apportionment" dollars impact lives around the world. As the Conference improves its ability to communicate around giving and using money, local churches will also be able to improve their communications.

Implementing the Plan

The Stewardship Task Force recommends that the Conference adopt a 4 year focus on stewardship training and education that would run during the 2005-2008 quadrennium. The training that occurs would follow the same steps as indicated under the section Revitalizing Local Church Giving, but would prepare local church leaders to enact that training in their churches. The Stewardship Task Force recommends that the detailed implementation of this plan be placed initially with the Stewardship task Force and then moved to the District level.

Stewardship is a reflection of our spiritual health and vitality.

Phase One: Organize

In the 2005 calendar year, resources would be organized and provided to identify two key leaders from each church, in addition to the pastor, who would be trained to implement stewardship education at their local church. In addition, six to eight persons on each District would be identified to serve as District resource persons and would also complete the following training. These individuals at the local church and District levels should be leaders who will be able to talk about stewardship comfortably and will set a good example. These persons may include the stewardship committee chair, lay leader, finance chair, or other persons who meet the qualifications mentioned above.

The Stewardship Task Force calls for training at primary and secondary levels. Primary training occurs through the Lay Academy model, taking the three representatives from each church and the District representatives through the five-step training program outlined under "Personal Stewardship Training." Clergy, in addition to the five-step training, will also receive training specific to their role as pastor. We foresee that training occurring with an outside speaker and offered as part of the Executive Session held before Annual Conference.

Secondary, Conference-wide training would occur through one or two full-day seminars held throughout the year. Outside speakers, in addition to local expertise, may be used. The Stewardship Task Force would like to partner with the Leadership Development Task Force in structuring and hosting these seminars.

Phase Two: Cultivate Stewardship

In the 2006 calendar year resources would be provided to assist the trained local church leadership to begin stewardship education in the local church based on prayer and the teaching of Biblical foundations for stewardship. These individuals will encourage and lead the study of and struggle with stewardship at Finance committee meetings, Administrative Board/Council meetings and throughout the structure of the church. Leadership will need resources not only in carrying out the training but assistance with overcoming resistance.

Phase Three: Celebrate and Encourage

In the 2007 calendar year resources would be provided to help local churches celebrate the ministries they are doing as well as are being done by the Conference and the United Methodist Church at large. Additionally the individual members of our congregations would be encouraged to continue their commitment to ministry and to build new ministries.

Phase Four: Evaluate and Renew

By the 2008 calendar year, it is anticipated that the results of teaching lifestyle stewardship would start becoming apparent across the local churches. These results should be celebrated and evaluated. The phases do not end but instead start over again, with many more individuals able to teach others the joys of stewardship and the growth in faith that accompanies stewardship.

Stewardship is a means of grace.

APPENDIX

Biblical, Theological, and Connectional Foundations

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.²

The Priority of Connection

The report of the Bishop's Summit on Financial Matters, presented in 2002, sets out general biblical and theological foundations for the Annual Conference as a covenant community. "The priority of connection" is the unifying key it offers. The koinonia or fellowship of the New Testament communities had its antecedents in synagogue and tribal Jewish heritage, but was distinct in this respect: through the power of the Holy Spirit, the disparate believers manifest together the Body of Christ for the world. Our connection is thus extraordinary. Its importance is evident in our Wesleyan heritage, our present statements of Vision and Mission, and our Annual Conference Core Values.

The Bible passage above offers a suitable link between our general focus on "connection" and the specific topic of Christian stewardship. In offering all of who they were and what they had to God, the Apostles and their followers were inexorably bound to each other through the Holy Spirit. In their understanding of the community of the Holy Spirit and their willingness to trust in God's provision for their very lives, the early church laid the foundations for our understanding of Stewardship. Our connection through stewardship is a broad highway, as broad some would say as the whole of the Christian life. The underpinnings of this comprehensive understanding of Christian stewardship exist in our Wesleyan, catholic, and Biblical covenant heritage. We are bound to stewardship through the way of our salvation, the promises of our baptism, and the sayings which mediate God's living Word.

The Task Force on Stewardship Training thus sees an essential tie between our connectional identity and our vocation to Christian stewardship. This is a path we must chart together, affirming our diverse and disparate identity as individual congregations within an Annual Conference that is part of the greater unity of the ecumenical church. When we see ourselves primarily as separate entities—individually, in families, or at the level of congregation and beyond—the courage to "put in all" is a greater challenge of faith. When we are vitally connected, however, we may understand stewardship as the opportunity to participate in the bringing near of the reign of heaven, and so become less afraid. Effective stewardship training will deepen our sense of connection and thus encourage our participation at every level and in every aspect of our being.

At the same time, faithful connectional stewardship will not diminish but enrich our diversity. To "put in all" is not only a surrender of self to God, but a gain of each other through our shared participation in the Conference's bold, cooperative, and inclusive Vision: to live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ through life-changing communities of compassion. Whole volumes have been written on Christian stewardship—many of them excellent—and every pastor in active service is at least minimally aware of an avalanche of stewardship resources and programs directed toward the local church. Most understand intuitively that each "one size fits all" approach will fit some better than others.

Basic Principles of Stewardship

As a starting point, the Task Force on Stewardship Training proposes the following as basic principles which should underlie all our efforts at teaching and leading stewardship in our congregations.

✓ Stewardship is a reflection of our spiritual health.

The story of the Widow's Mite (Luke 21:1-4) succinctly encapsulates the idea that our stewardship practices demonstrate our feelings of connection to, and our reliance on, God.

God's directive to humanity (Genesis 1:26-31) to have dominion over all of creation is not a directive to consume or destroy, but a directive to nurture and maintain the creation. Humanity not only has the responsibility to use the creation effectively for God, but also to keep it in the condition in which it was created.

✓ Stewardship depends on leadership to be learned and taught.

The Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20 commands the followers of Jesus Christ to make new leaders by teaching and example.

✓ Stewardship is comprehensive. It is the whole of our offering in response to God's love.

Whether we attempt to circumscribe Christian stewardship as "time, talents, and treasure," or our "prayers, presence, gifts, and service," stewardship is comprehensive. Jesus' story of separating the sheep from the goats (Matthew 25:31-46) demonstrates our total connection to each other as reflective of our total connection to God. What we have is to be shared without reservation or concern that we will not have enough. It is through God's love that we have anything, therefore our response can only be that we are willing to share totally of that which we have.

As David prayed his farewell prayer (1 Chronicles 29:10-16) we get a message of God's universal and comprehensive love for all of creation. David outlines our proper response being that of awe, joy and wonder as we recognize that all of the creation, including us, comes from God's hand and is all God's own.

✓ Stewardship is beyond the local; it is global, civic, social, and political.

As Jesus renders his answer to the Sadducees concerning taxes (Matthew 22:17-21); that we are to pay to the government what we owe and to God what we owe to God, we understand that our faith recognizes our connection to each other cannot be separated by our devotion to God.

✓ Stewardship is an opportunity to participate in the ministry of Christ, bringing near the reign of God in

Stewardship is a great joy for the Saints to bring into the creation. The Disciples armed only with God's Word were sent into the world to bring the Kingdom of God closer to those they touched (Matthew 10:1-10). As followers of Christ who have much more at our disposal, isn't it incumbent on us to give all that we can to bring God's healing into a broken world?

As St. Paul shares the story of the churches in Macedonia (II Cor.8:1ff) we hear loudly and succinctly the call to joy in our response to God's love. Paul is awed by the fact that the Macedonians "gave themselves first to the Lord, and, by the will of God, to us." Paul also is moved by the amount of joy that the Macedonians received as they gave well up to their means and beyond, so that they could "have the privilege of sharing in the ministry of the Saints."

The story of Zacchaeus (Luke 19:1-10) demonstrates just how easy it is for us to bring "salvation into the house." Participation in the Kingdom of God is easy for those who share who they are and what they have. All Zacchaeus did was to respond to Jesus' request to stay with Zacchaeus for the night. In that acceptance, Zacchaeus' vision for life was changed from being concerned only for himself to truly feeling connected to all with whom he had relationships.

DALLAS WILSON BUTLER

Dallas Wilson Butler was born on June 22, 1922 to Edward Harry Butler and Julia Ennis Butler of Seaford, Delaware. He had 4 brothers and a sister. Dallas and his family were active members of St. John's in Seaford, Delaware. He graduated from Seaford High School and attended Wesley College in Dover, Delaware. Dallas continued his education, receiving a Business Degree from Western Maryland College and graduating from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Dallas served in World War II as a Staff Sergeant where he was a part of Company E of the 414th Infantry Regiment, 100th (Lion) Division. He helped turn back the last desperate German effort to defeat the Allied forces in the famous "Battle of the Bulge" by volunteering, along with a couple buddies, to clear out a series of dugouts armed with machine guns and burp guns. Dallas seldom talked about the war upon his return home and went on to become a Methodist minister. He later retired as a Chaplain Major from the Army National Guard.

Dallas was ordained in the Western PA Conference in 1956 as a Deacon and as an Elder in 1958. After serving the Western PA Conference at Newell First Methodist, Pittsburgh Morningside, and Pittsburgh Friendship Park, he moved to the Central PA Conference where he served a 3-church circuit, Petersburg, Barree, and Alexander. He then relocated back to the Western PA Conference and served Brownsville and Mt. Pleasant. In 1970, he came to the Peninsula Conference to serve Immanuel in Crisfield, Maryland until 1979. Following Immanuel, he served First United Methodist in Chestertown and Antioch in Princess Anne. He returned to Immanuel in Crisfield in 1982 and served until his retirement in 1986.

In his retirement, he was a supply pastor to St. John's UMC in Seaford, Delaware. He served on the Board of Education in Crisfield, Maryland and was a contributing writer to the Daily Times in Crisfield.

Dallas Butler met Jean Lee Phillips while attending Western Maryland College and they married in 1946. Later in 1962, he married Lucille Boling Mears of Painter, Virginia. Lucille died of cancer. In 1988, he married Lena Bradford of Newark, Maryland. He was survived by his wife, Lena, his children, Nancy Lee Lantz, Matthew Carlton Butler and Lucy Ann Greene. He was predeceased by son, Mark Dallas Butler. Dallas had 4 grandchildren, Dawn Michelle Lantz Riddle, Michael Butler Lantz, Megan Jean Lantz Feenane and Margaret Ann Butler; 2 stepgrandchildren, John Michael Bradford and Billy Ann Bradford. He is also survived by 2 great grandchildren, William Kenneth Riddle and Matthew David Riddle.

His interests were boating and being on the water on the Eastern Shore, reading newspapers and books and he loved people. In his retirement, his interests were trains, travel and reading from books on tape.

Dallas Wilson Butler died on June 22, 2003 of a sudden heart attack while visiting Newark, Maryland. A celebration of life service was held at Bowen United Methodist Church in Newark, Maryland, on June 27, 2003 and burial was in Exmore Virginia. Officiating clergy were Patricia Bryant Harris, Salisbury District Superintendent, and Pastor Shirley Evans.

For my final comments about my father and my friend, I am reminded of the scripture from 2 Timothy 4-7: I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. He served Jesus Christ.

JAMES WOODROW DAVIS

James Woodrow Davis was born to Mary A. Davis and James H. Mitchell on January 29, 1933 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Through the inspiration of God and his mother, he began his life's journey of accomplishing the purpose for his existence. He left this life on Friday, October 10, 2003 at Christiana Medical Center. He died of cancer, diabetes and respiratory failure. Funeral services were held Wednesday, October 15, 2003 with the Rev. Aaron Moore, Officiating. Interment was at Gracelawn Cemetery, New Castle, DE.

Rev. "Doc" Davis recognized early in life his God-given gift of music and throughout his life he pursued to perfect his gift. He founded the Cloud-Davis Specials, who recorded two albums and two singles under the Savory label. He sang with gospel greats such as Mahalia Jackson, James Cleveland, The Gospel Clefs, Gospel Crusaders and Shirley Caesar, and The Dobb Singers. He traveled with gospel legends such as The Davis Sisters, Clara Ward Singers, Dorothy Lovecoates and Charles Taylor. He also had the honor of singing background for Harry Belafonte at the Waldorf Estoria and Apollo in New York City.

In 1951, he married Mary Williams and from this union was born one daughter, Verisia Varratta. In 1980, he married Janice Wilford Pearson and from this union was born James Jr. (deceased) and Donté LaMond. He also had an adopted son, Lee Freeman (deceased).

Rev. Dr. Davis was very proud to perform his daughter's marriage ceremony in 1981. He was a pastor, educator, accomplished musician, recording artist, community leader and "CHEF". But most of all, he was a loving, supportive, dedicated father. One of his greatest joys was traveling with his son, Donté to numerous Tae Kwon Do karate tournaments. He has two-step sons Damon and Dwayne Pearson of Newark, Delaware; two grandsons Phillip and Shedrick and a son-in-law Gregory West all of Winston-Salem.

James was educated in the Winston-Salem Public Schools, graduating Atkins High School in 1951. He received his BS in Elementary Education from Winston-Salem State University in 1957 and a double MS in Education and Guidance Counseling from North Carolina A&T State University in 1965. In 1976, James received his Doctorate of Theology from the Jamison Bible Institute and in 1981, he received his Doctorate of Education Administration from Rutgers. He also attended the Broadcasting School of Philadelphia and received an MA in Ministry from Howard University School of Divinity in 1986. He also received a Certificate in Administration from the University of Delaware.

James was ordained in the New Bethel Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina in 1975. Beginning in 1986, he pastored in Brandywine Trinity and Buttonwood United Methodist Churches and was an associate minister at Ezion Fair Baptist Church; New Calvary Baptist Church; New Mt. Olive Baptist Church and Coleman United Methodist Church. James retired from the New Castle School System after 33 years of service in 1991. He was a member of the Omega Psi Phi; Masonic Order #170; Shriners #64; Wilmington City Police Captain (Retired), Ministerial Alliance of Wilmington, Delaware, NAACP, United Supreme Council 33rd, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and the King of Solomon Consistory, Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret 32nd.

During his lifetime he received from the Department of Public Instruction of the State of Delaware Certificates:

- Supervisor of Elementary Education, May 20, 1976
- Teacher of Social Studies – September 1, 1977
- Director of Secondary Education – October 15, 1980
- Director of Human Relations – April 10, 1981

He also received recognition as Chaplain to the Wilmington Police Department, Wilmington, DE in 1986 and the Meritorious Service Award from The United Negro College Fund in 1987, as well as a Certification of Achievement – inspiration, Encouragement, and Faithfulness from the Buttonwood Women's Day Committee, Wilmington, Delaware, in 1995.

ROLAND W. DENNIS

Roland Wilmore Dennis was born on September 9, 1929 in Salisbury, Maryland to Rev. Robert Wayne Dennis and Mrs. Winifred Polk Dennis. After graduation from high school, Roland went on to attend preparatory classes post-Army service at Morgan State University from 1953-1955. In 1963 he attended the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, in Princess Anne. Roland graduated the Course of Study School from American University Wesley Theological Seminary in 1971.

Roland served the Delaware Conference and the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at White Haven from 1961-1963 and Wittman-McDaniel from 1963-1969. Roland was then appointed to Trappe-Oxford Circuit from 1970 to 1976 and was ordained as an Associate Member in 1972. Roland was appointed to serve Cambridge Vienna from 1977 until he retired in 1999. After his retirement, Roland served the Carmichael-Grasonville Charge in 1999.

Roland Wilmore Dennis married Loistine Pinkett Dennis on April 29, 1961 and they had one son, Mark Avery Dennis. Roland's interests included auto refurbishing, gourmet cooking and landscaping. He was a member with the Good Shepherd's Association from 1976 to 1997 and also served as President.

Roland died of natural causes on August 28, 2003 at his home in Cambridge, Maryland. His home-going celebration was on September 2, 2003 at the Friendship United Methodist Church in Allen, Maryland and he was buried in the church cemetery. The officiating clergy was the Rev. Candy Miles.

Roland's favorite hymn was "Peace Be Still" and his favorite scripture was John 3:16.

RICHARD LEE HAMILTON

Richard (Dick) Lee Hamilton was born of Albert C. Hamilton and Bertha (Whitley) Hamilton on Friday, May 13, 1927, Huntington W.Va., the fifth of seven children. He graduated from East Huntington High in 1945. Dick entered the U.S. Navy and trained as a hospital corpsman operating room technician, and a registered nurse. He also trained at Mayo Clinic as an anesthesiologist. He served aboard the USS Wyoming and the USS Fresno. He received a Fleet appointment to the Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD where he attended for one year and resigned. Dick and Marjorie Beury Wintersteen were married November 13, 1948 at Friedens Lutheran Church, Hagens, PA. We lived in Annapolis Maryland until Dick's discharge from the Navy in September 1949.

We moved back to Huntington, W.VA and Dick enrolled in Marshall College - now Marshall University. (I enrolled part-time) Dick enrolled in pre-med and finished his first year but lack of funds forced him to change his major. Dick graduated with a B.S. in chemistry and a minor in psychology. He worked as a Research Chemist for International Nickel Co. in Huntington. (1952-1955). Dick was a member of the team of chemists that developed the alloy, the primary component for the heat shield for the NASA Space Program beginning with the Mercury Space Craft, the first capsule flown in the space program.

We have three children: Richard Joel (Rick) born Dec. 27, 1952, John Albert, born Aug 11, 1957, and Marjorie Susan, Mrs. Aaron Puckett, born Sept. 6, 1963. We have five grandchildren: Erin Ann, Lauren Mary, Richard Seamus, Austin and Matthew.

During a Literature class, Dick felt the call from God to enter the ministry. Our first student appointment was Paw Paw, W.VA. 1955-1959 (a seven church circuit) Baltimore Conf. Dick entered Westminster Seminary that year. He transferred to a three church circuit in Goldsboro, MD. from 1959-1962 and became a member of the Peninsula Conference in 1959.

Dick graduated with honors from Wesley Seminary in 1960. At that time he was the first student to have both seminary sermons placed in the schools archives. During the last years of his Seminary work we served Goldsboro Charge for three years. In 1952 Wesley Seminary featured Dick in the Spring bulletin in an article entitled "The Circuit Rider" in which a politician was quoted as saying "if I could influence as large a percentage of the population as that young preacher in Goldsboro, I'd never worry about another election." In 1962 President Norman L. Trott, Wesley Seminary, and Bishop John Wesley Lord appointed Dick to Wesley Seminary as Director of Development for the Seminary's $10,000,000 Development Program, his title being, Vice President of Development. Dick completed the ten year program by 1966, and asked to be assigned to a church. Rev. Jim Hughes, Aldersgate Church, Wilmington, DE asked Dick to serve as Associate Pastor with him from 1966-1970. He and Jim became as brothers with an outstanding relationship until Jim's death. Dick remained at Aldersgate until 1970. During this period at Aldersgate, the staff served Mt. Lebanon Church, Wilmington, DE. While at Aldersgate Dick served as Chaplain to the DuPont Children's Hospital, Wilmington.

1977-1980 - Dick worked and completed his work for his Doctorate Degree in Community Planning, from Trinity University, San Antonio, TX.

1970-73 Gov. Russell Peterson of Delaware asked Dick to direct Delaware's First Office of Drug Treatment and Prevention. Bishop John Wesley Lord made these appointments.

1973-75 Dick worked with The White House Special Action Office for Drug Abuse. He helped establish the National Association of State Drug Abuse Programs where he served on the Board of Governors for the states for six years. With DEA, he constructed Drug Abuse Prevention Programs in all fifty states. Still under orders from his Bishop, 1975 -76 he became Director of Drug Abuse, State of Pennsylvania. 1975-85 Dick was appointed Director of Drug Abuse, State of Maryland. 1985-86 he was appointed Director of Mental Health for Maryland. 1986-87 appointed Director of Juvenile Services for Maryland. 1987-91 Dick was appointed Health Ombudsman, Governors Office, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He retired from the state in 1991. After retiring from state work, he retired from the Conference in 1992, but was asked by the Bishop to take the Riverside charge, Salisbury, Maryland for six months; we stayed for nine years, serving until 2000. In the fall of 2000, we purchased a home in N. Ft. Myers, Florida. During the winter months he was appointed Associate at N. Ft. Myers U.M. Church, and continued to preach when asked and to serve the congregation.

Dick had open-heart surgery in 1986 to replace the aortic valve. His death was caused by congestive heart failure. A trip to Venice had been planned to celebrate our 55th anniversary on November 13th. He preached the two Sundays before his death, September 23, 2003. The Celebration Service of his life was held at N. Ft. Myers U.M. Church, September 27, 2003. His sons Rick and John, both musicians, sang for their father's service. Participating clergy were Rev. David Liddell, N. Ft. Myers U.M. Church, Rev. Sarah McKinley, Plantation U.M. Church

(John's Pastor), Rev. Adam Vernon, First U. M. Church, and Rev. Paul Vernon, Edgewood U.M. Church. A Memorial Service was held for Dick on Sunday, September 28, 2003 at his former charge, Riverside U.M. Church in Salisbury, MD. A service of Remembrance was held by friends, Sunday, April 18, 2004, at Rehoboth Beach. Dick's ashes will be scattered at the 18th hole at St. Andrews Golf Course, St. Andrews, Scotland, and Arlington National Cemetery pending confirmation. Dick was an avid golfer all his life. He was tournament champion (in his class) for two years at Sabal Springs Golf & Racquet Club, N. Ft. Myers. On February 6, 2003 the Lord gave him a life bonus, guided the ball for a hole-in-one.

From 1983-1996, Dick and I purchased a Historic Home in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. This home became the first Bed & Breakfast in Sussex County. It became The Lord & Hamilton Seaside Inn, with the Lord as our partner. The Inn became our continued ministry.

Dick is a Mason. He is a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the U.M. Church. He was ordained a Deacon in 1959 and an Elder in 1960. He has received many awards and accolades in his lifetime. Several of his most cherished awards are: Honorary Admiral of the Nebraska Navy bestowed by the Senate of Nebraska, Chief White Eagle by the Sioux Indian Nation in Oklahoma for his work in Drug Abuse. He is also the recipient of the coveted Dole/Nyswinder Award for Service to National Drug Abuse Treatment and many other accommodations for his outstanding work in the Drug Abuse Field. He served as Honorary Chairman of the Heart Association for two years, Wilmington, DE. He loved to play baseball and basketball as a young man. Music was an important facet of Dick's life. He had a dance band (played trombone) until he entered the Navy. He sang in many choirs and with The Seminary Singers. He did solo work whenever possible. He loved to write, and enjoyed his library to relax. As a family we loved the beach. Travel was our favorite pastime and spending time with our family was uppermost in his mind.

H. KIRBY KRAMS

H. Kirby Krams was born on February 11, 1917 to Harry F. and Virginia H. Krams. Kirby attended elementary schools in Washington DC and graduated from Hyattsville High School in Maryland. He graduated from Emory and Henry College of Emory, Virginia and the Candler School of Theology of Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Kirby was ordained a Deacon in 1938 and an Elder in 1940 in the United Methodist Church, first serving as a Student Local Pastor at the Pulaski Circuit of the Holston Conference and Hiram Circuit of the North Georgia Conference. In the Peninsula Conference, he was appointed to Ingleside, Maryland Charge, Sardis Church in St. Michaels, Maryland, Marshallton Church and Brandywine Church in Wilmington, Delaware. He retired from the Conference in 1972.

Kirby worked for 22 years for the State of Delaware's Division of Juvenile Corrections as Chaplain, social worker and as a supervisor. He retired from the State in 1979. He was a Life Member of the Delaware State P.T.A. and served as member of the Board of Directors of Delmar and the Girl Scout Board of Directors.

During the World War II years while serving Sardis Methodist Church, Kirby was an active member of the St. Michaels Volunteer Fire Department. He has been a member of the Lions Club for more than 50 years, first with the Green Hills Lions Club District 22D in Delaware and then with the Sudlersville Lions Club, District 22B in Maryland. He served in all offices in both clubs. Kirby also served as District Governor of District 22B in 1989 to 1990. He was Leader Dogs for the Blind Coordinator for 12 years for Lions Multiple District 22. He has been honored by the Lions with a Melvin Jones Fellowship, Six International Presidents Certificates of Appreciation and an International Presidents Medal of Leadership.

Kirby is survived by a son, Berkeley T. Krams of Wilmington, Delaware and a daughter, Penny K. George of Sudlersville, Maryland. He is also survived by 4 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

H. Kirby Krams died on April 27, 2004 at the Chester River Hospital Center at the age of 87. A memorial service was held on May 4, 2004 at the Fellows Helffenbein and Newnam Funeral Home in Millington, Maryland.

CHARLES EDWIN LASBURY

Hear these words which Saint Paul wrote in his second letter to Timothy, his young co-worker in the church, whom he called "my true child in the faith" (I Timothy 1: 2). "Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness,.... my sufferings,.... continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it" (II Timothy 3:10-14). Consider, then a model of ministry or a model of living as revealed in the life of Charles Edwin Lasbury.

First, Ed's life and ministry were centered in his commitment to God. During his junior year in high school, at a summer camp sponsored by The Methodist Church, he felt called to the Christian ministry. As a teenager he responded to this call and from then to the very end of his life he never deviated from this profound religious commitment. It was a commitment that was the basis for his personal and professional growth and fulfillment and a life of multifaceted service that went far beyond his imagination and expectation at that youthful moment of decision.

Second, this commitment to the Christian ministry meant, to begin with, a commitment to The Methodist Church. In fact, this institutional ministry began quickly since, during his college years, he served as the pastor of six, small Methodist churches. This was followed over the years by his very ably serving six other churches of varying sizes, six years as the Wilmington District Superintendent and finally seven years as the chaplain at Cokesbury Village. While he recognized that being the pastor of a local church was his primary responsibility, he also believed that, as an ordained minister and member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, he must be active in the conference boards and committees. He served at various times on five significant boards or committees and continued such service even after his retirement. For eight years he was the registrar of the conference. The many persons who became ministers while Ed was registrar remember him with awesome gratitude. Ed was on the Board of Education for the conference, Chairman of the Board of Church and Society, Secretary of the Council on Finance and Administration, a cabinet representative on Boards of Commission and Committees and secretary of the Board of Pensions. He was also an instructor for the Inter-Conference School for the Licensing of Pastors, an instructor at Drew University, on the executive committee of Graduates Association at Wesley Theological Seminary, and was elected as a delegate to Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference. In all these leadership positions, Ed demonstrated unusual administrative gifts in terms both of great attention to details while also never losing sight of the big picture involved.

While committed in every way to The United Methodist Church, Ed was very ecumenical in his ministry. This included not only participation and leadership in groups and activities involving other Protestant denominations, but also those involving Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches. Beyond this he fostered Christian - Jewish relations, through the National Conference of Christians and Jews. His travels, especially in Turkey, Lebanon, the Holy Land and India, made him realize that God seeks His people through all the religions of the world. While Ed may have begun his religious journey as a provincial Methodist, he ended it with an appreciation for God's love manifested in all these great religions.

Third, Ed's ministry began with a strong commitment to serve individuals. In every church position and in the many other personal relations he always showed a sensitive interest in other people as individuals. He respected and cared for each one and every one who had any dealings with Ed knew this. He shared in others' joys and sorrows, he encouraged, he motivated, he believed in others sometimes more than they believed in themselves, he never gave up on anyone and he greeted everyone with a smile. Ed fulfilled Saint Paul's profound description of love in I Corinthians 13 about as well as anyone can.

Ed's ministry had an equally strong social dimension. He was keenly aware that we are all greatly affected by the social, economic, political and cultural situations in which we live. For some these may be great blessings, but for others they are curses on their lives. There were many social and justice issues in which Ed was actively involved. He worked in the early 1960s on interracial issues, especially on the reuniting of the churches and members of the white Peninsula and the African-American Delaware Conferences, which culminated in 1965. He was a leader in a successful Save Our Schools campaign in 1970 to prevent state funding of independent and parochial schools. In 1973-74 he was a leader in a successful statewide effort to increase the welfare rates for families with dependent children, the first increase in six years. From 1972 to 1976 Ed chaired the Conference Board of Church and Society. In the early 80s he was arrested in Washington, D.C. while taking part in a demonstration against apartheid in South Africa. He was always involved in efforts to change oppressive and unjust societal attitudes and cultural and legal systems. Even in his retirement years he was active in Delaware Citizens Opposed to the Death Penalty, serving as the Clergy Liaison.

Fourth, family relationships were always of paramount importance to Ed. All who knew him were aware of this. This included his parents, his two brothers and their families, Kaylene and her family, their three children and families which include seven grandchildren - in each of whom he took a deep, personal interest.

Believing that his grandchildren could benefit from some of what he had learned and experienced he began in the year 2000 a series of letters to them. He had completed one on his work experiences as a youth and what he had learned from these and one on his education. After he knew that his illness would soon be terminal he dictated the letter on his call to the ministry and he left notes on other subjects, one of which is how to cope when confronted by something like lymphoma. In these notes he stressed the importance of family, friends and maintaining one's physical health and spiritual life.

While family was paramount to Ed, he also knew the importance of friendships. He enjoyed a large number and variety of friends. He was one of twelve ministers who covenanted over 40 years ago to meet monthly for study of a paper written by one of them and for personal and professional support. This study group is still meeting. He and Kaylene were part of a group of friends who regularly met for dinner and fellowship. He had many friends through Rotary International and was chosen by the Wilmington Club to lead a Group Study Exchange to India. He had made other friends through the New Castle Sailing Club, the various tour groups that he organized and led and he enjoyed all whom he met as an usher after his retirement at the Grand Opera House in Wilmington. Other friends were made through the churches and Cokesbury Village where he served and the non-church groups of which he was a part. Ed's family-like feelings were extended even to many parts of the world through his travels in Europe, India, and the Middle East. He came to feel in a very meaningful way the fact that we are all members of one family of God.

His exposure to many artistic and cultural expressions at the Grand Opera House and his travels made Ed very aware and appreciative of the variety of artistic forms of the world's people and religions. Within the religious world this was demonstrated in the Festival of the Arts held there at Hockessin United Methodist Church in 1974. He was proud of this wonderful project which brought together examples of musical, sculptural, graphic, painting, ceramic, woodcarving, needlework, metallic, photographic, lapidary, dance and dramatic arts from the Jewish and Christian traditions.

Fifth, Ed's life and ministry as a model of ministry or living for each of us also included accepting death as a part of life. His favorite biblical verse was John 10:10: "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly." Ed had an abundant life for which he was always grateful to God who blessed and sustained him in times both good and bad. This grateful, joyful attitude was true to the very end of his life.

Ed died on September 6, 2003, after only four days of being in a semi or full coma. During that month he faced his death realistically, rationally, trustfully, with his customary good humor and with no complaints. Ed gave specific and detailed instructions for the distribution of his ashes and his memorial service and, as long as he could, he enjoyed the abundant life that Jesus came to give. As a United Methodist minister he was pleased with the calls from six bishops.

In his living and dying, Ed showed us how to live and how to die. Thanks be to God for Ed Lasbury, a true child of faith and a model of ministry and living for all of us. As he served God here, so now, we believe, he serves Him in the life eternal.

Sermon preached by the Rev. Richard C. Stazesky at the memorial service celebrating the life and ministry of the Reverend Doctor C. Edwin Lasbury held Saturday, September 20, 2003- at Hockessin United Methodist Church, Hockessin, Delaware.)

JESSE ROBERT MACKEY

Jesse Robert Mackey was born on July 16, 1909 to W. C. Mackey and Sallie Riddick Mackey, one of 5 children. Bob graduated from Emory and Temple Universities and studied at Union, in Oxford, England and Princeton-Yale School.

Bob first served in the Florida Conference at Epperson Inman in 1938 and became a Deacon. In 1940, he was ordained an Elder and served in Jacksonville Beach until 1948. Bob married Jayne on July 29, 1945 and they had one daughter, Melissa Ann Mackey. In 1948 they moved to the Salisbury, Maryland where they were appointed to Asbury in the Peninsula Conference. In 1970, they were appointed to Aldersgate in Wilmington Delaware until Bob's retirement in 1975.

Bob went to be with the Lord on May 23, 2004 at the age of 94. The funeral was held at the First United Methodist Church in Pensacola followed by Graveside Services at the Gonzalez United Methodist Church Cemetery, where he rests among family members that extend back to his great-grandfather and great-grandmother.

*For bread broken in the glory of a common joy; for truth living beyond the barriers of time; for fellowship made out of an understanding of eternal things; for humble circumstance and simple deed in which the ineffable miracle of love is perfectly revealed; for mysteries by which we have been exalted and for knowledge by which we have been humbled; for souls in whose living we have seen no death; and for those who, having died, live forever, we give Thee thanks with great rejoicing for the life of Robert Mackey, O God our Lord. Amen. (Samuel Miller)

CHARLES HENRY POUKISH

Charles Henry Poukish was born in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on September 21, 1931. He was the third child of five born to John James Poukish and Helen (Stoviak) Poukish.

Charlie came to know the Lord through the love of Christian friends in the Sarah D. Cooper United Methodist Church in West Philadelphia when he was a young boy of 13. The adults at Cooper Church encouraged him and provided opportunities for him to grow spiritually. He gave his life to Christ and was called into the ministry.

Charlie entered Lycoming College in 1951 and began his study for the ministry. He received his BA from American University in 1955, his Master of Theology from Drew University in 1958 and his Doctorate of Ministry from Drew University in 1984.

Charlie was ordained an Elder in 1955 while serving in the Philadelphia Conference. In 1962 he came into the Peninsula Conference. In his 38 years in the Methodist ministry he served the Lord in churches in Port Carbon, PA.; Mahanoy City, PA.; Trinity, Harrington, Delaware; Mt. Pleasant, Crisfield, Maryland; Brandywine, Wilmington, Delaware; North East, North East, Maryland; St. Stevens, Delmar, Delaware; Union, Bridgeville, Delaware; St. Lukes, Denton, Maryland, and Bethel and Groome, Lewes, Delaware. He also served on the Board of Child Care and the Conference Board of Pensions. He retired in 1993.

Charlie married Joyce Louise Mitman in 1954. They had three sons, Charles Albert, Daniel Allen, and David Mark and six grandchildren. He enjoyed fishing, camping, hiking, singing, and playing basketball, baseball, and tennis.

Charlie went to be with the Lord on March 14, 2004, after a six-year battle with ALS, Lou Gehrig's Disease. Charlie will be remembered for his love of the Lord, his love for family and friends, and for his love and zest for life.

His funeral service was held at Bethel United Methodist Church in Lewes, Delaware on March 20, 2004. The Rev. Menno E. Good, the Rev. William C. Hopkins, the Rev. David M. Palmer, and the Rev. John L. Mitman officiated at the service of remembrance.

ELIZABETH MULDER DAVIS

Elizabeth Mulder Davis was the widow of Rev. Wilson Davis, who died of a heart attack in October 1955 while serving the Ridgely Charge.

Elizabeth as born October 8, 1912, in Cleveland, Ohio to Peter and Hendrika Van Essen Mulder, who had come to the United States from Holland.

Elizabeth grew up in Wooster, Ohio and graduated in 1934 from The College of Wooster. While studying for her Masters' Degree in Religious Education at Tennant College in Philadelphia, she met Wilson Davis. After graduation, she spent three years teaching English and Religion at the American College for Girls in Cairo, Egypt while Wilson finished his degree at Temple University.

In June 1937, Elizabeth and Wilson were married. They served the Avondale and Strasburg Methodist Churches in the Philadelphia Conference and then moved to Ridgely, Maryland.

After Wilson's death in 1955, Elizabeth moved back to Strasburg and taught 3rd and 4th grade, also serving as the organist for Ross Street Methodist Church in Lancaster. In 1972 she took early retirement and moved to Florida to care for her parents after her mother's health declined.

Elizabeth was always doing things for those who needed her help—teaching Sunday School; playing the piano and organ in various churches and nursing homes, knitting, crocheting, and sewing for others; driving elderly friends to church, doctor's appointments and the grocery store; working with mentally retarded children and adults; teaching English to Haitian refugees—the list goes on and on.

Even at age 86, when we moved Elizabeth to Ohio to be closer to family for care, she was still able to play the piano and organ (no hymnal needed), and crocheted squares for afghans to give to those in need. The one thing that bothered her most about that move was that we sold her little red car in Florida. She insisted that we had to get her another little red car so she could take "her ladies" to the doctor or grocery store because they needed her.

Elizabeth and Wilson never had any children of their own; but she is greatly missed by many nieces and nephews, and great-nieces and nephews on both sides of the family! She taught us all to live with J-O-Y—thinking first of Jesus, Others second, and Yourself last.

Her last four years were spent in a nursing home in Ohio near nieces and nephews, as a result of Alzheimer's, and two broken hips. Even then, her gentle spirit and sweet smile gave encouragement to others. She died on July 13, 2003 and was buried in Bala Cynwood Cemetery in Philadelphia, PA. She was an example to all of us of loving and giving in Jesus' name!

DAISY MARGARET HIGGINS HUFFMAN

Daisy Margaret Higgins Huffman was born on November 7, 1920 in Ambrosia near Point Pleasant, West Virginia in Mason County on the Kanawha River to the late Joseph L. and Ada Margaret (Edwards) Higgins. Daisy went to a one-room school in Ambrosia, then on to Point Pleasant High School.

Daisy loved her flowers. She had flowers all around the 13 parsonages and her own home. She loved to quilt and made many quilts. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Daisy Margaret Higgins married Charles Chester Huffman on November 24, 1938. Charles started in the ministry in 1940 and died February 24, 1996. They had one daughter, Margaret June Huffman Bell Daye and a son, Charles Douglas Huffman who married Dale Louise Baker Huffman. Daisy and Charles had five grandchildren: Julian Douglas Huffman and wife Shennel, Charles Donald Bell, Jr. and wife Yuahe; Richard Allen Bell and wife Sharon; David Wayne Bell and Lisa Ann Bell DeMaio Busick. Daisy and Charles also had 7 grandchildren: Charles Donald Bell III, Lindsay Brandon and Austin Wayne Bell and Katie Margaret DeMaio; Sean Michael Busick and Lisa Marie Busick.

Daisy Margaret Huffman died on February 26, 2004 with congestive heart failure and complications. Her funeral was held March 1, 2004 at the Frampton Funeral Home in Federsburg, Maryland. Burial was in the Concord Maryland Cemetery between Denton and Federsburg, Maryland. The officiating clergy were the Rev. David Heistand and Rev. Dan Walker.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now: He set me free.

Mom will be sadly missed.
Margaret and Doug, her children

LARRY WILLIAM STERNER

Larry William Sterner was born on June 25, 1943 in Cuba City, Wisconsin, the first son of Rev. C. Wilbert Sterner and Elizabeth Ann Scales Sterner. As a Presbyterian preacher's kid, Larry lived in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New Jersey during his childhood. He graduated from Cape May County High School in New Jersey and then went to Purdue University where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees in Industrial Engineering.

Larry married Constance E. Sterner on August 28, 1965 following graduation and they became a Caterpillar Tractor Company corporate family moving to various Caterpillar plants throughout the Midwest. Son, Eric Randolph, was born in Peoria, Illinois in 1967 and three years later was joined by brother, David Andrew, while the family was living in Bettendorf, Iowa. One of the first things the family did upon arrival in each new city was to join the nearest Presbyterian Church where they became active members.

In 1976, Larry was assigned to the Towmotor Division of Caterpillar located in Mentor, Ohio and the family was able to settle down until Larry's retirement in 1997. While in Mentor, the Sterners became United Methodists and in 1980, his wife, Connie entered the Methodist Theological School in Ohio receiving her M.Div. Degree in 1984. While his wife spent three years commuting 365 miles every week to seminary, Larry assumed the responsibility of chief cook and bottle-washer and kept Eric and David out of mischief. He supported his wife in all of her appointments and once told a PPRC committee when asked what he intended to do in the church, "My calling is to take care of my wife and family so that she can serve you!". He did so faithfully.

Larry enjoyed "playing" with the computer, yard work, jazz, walking, biking, and his two grandchildren, Bradley and Elizabeth. Upon retirement to Ocean City, Maryland, he was also able to care for his aging widowed father who resided in nearby Selbyville, Delaware.

Larry died suddenly of a massive heart attack on Sunday, November 16, 2004 and is sorely missed by his wife, family, and friends. He will be remembered for his constant faith, the thoroughness with which he tackled projects, his quiet demeanor, and his love of life. May God bless and keep him forever.

MARY FRANCES PALMER SCHAUER

Mary Frances Palmer Schauer was born on May 29, 1903 to Alice and Alfred Palmer. Mary's formal education ended with the completion of the 8th grade.

Mary's early years were influenced by her mother's association with the Methodist Church. After marrying Peter Robert Schauer, they served with various charges within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

There were no children to come from the marriage, but Mary did love and raise two of Mr. Schauer's youngest children.

Mary loved to crochet, knit and tat. She was quite skilled.

Peter Robert Schauer died February 20, 1962. Shortly after his death she moved to New Jersey to live with her sister and her husband. In 1988 she moved to Collingswood Manor, a United Methodist Home of New Jersey.

Mary died November 13, 2003 in Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Camden, NJ. She was 100 years old.

Funeral Services were by Foster-Warne Funeral Home, Collingswood, NJ. She was buried at Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson, NJ.

The Rev. Dr. William Wilson (First Collingswood Methodist Church) officiated at the Funeral Services.

MABEL S. TAWES

Mabel Tawes was born in Surry, Virginia, to Thomas P. Warren and Onetia T. Warren, the middle girl of seven girls and one boy. She attended school in Surry, going to school in a horse and carriage. Upon graduation from high school, she entered Harrisonburg State Teachers College. After graduation, she traveled above the Mason-Dixon Line to become a teacher in Gumboro, Delaware, replacing her sister, who had become a mother. It was there she met a young "boy" preacher, Roy L. Tawes, and they were married on May 10, 1927.

They became parents of three children; Onetia Elizabeth, Roy L., Jr., and Bonnie Sue. Nita married Charles N. Pierson, Jr., and had two children, Diane and Judith. Roy wed a California girl, Joyce Saunders, and they also had two children, Heather and Ian. Bonnie married Fernando Bouthelier of Madrid, Spain, and lives there today. Mabel's grandchildren are all married and there are now 5 adult great-grandchildren, who had the joy of knowing and loving this lovely vivacious woman—their Mom-Mom.

In her childhood, she was a member of the Episcopal Church, and joined the Methodist Church upon marriage. Their ministry extended nearly 50 years in service to 15 churches. She truly enjoyed being a minister's wife—meeting and talking with people, working in the churches on various projects with adults and young people. Blessed with fine organizational and leadership skills and a gracious giving manner, she participated in many areas of church life—Sunday School, Epworth League, MYF, WSCS, United Methodist Women, luncheons, dinners, rummage and yard sales. She and Daddy loved to entertain the many friends from any walks of life. She loved to cook and was a joyous gardener, especially with her roses. But most of all, she loved her family—always in touch, always interested and caring.

Mabel died on Epiphany, January 6, 2004, at St. Camillus Health Center in Syracuse, New York. Her service was held on March 27 at Avenue Methodist in Milford with Rev. Earle Baker officiating. Rev. Conrad Cohen presented the homily. The other participants were Rev. Paul McCoy, Rev. Dr. Jervis Cooke, and Rev. Dr. Edward Wilkins. Burial Services were held at Barratt's Chapel.

EDITH PRIESTLEY KNOTTS

Edith Priestley Knotts was the first born child to Albert Samuel and Gertrude Potter Priestley in Flushing, NY on October 27, 1934. Edith was raised in a loving Christian home where she enjoyed playing and learning with her brothers Howard and Everett. She loved being transported through time by reading and rereading her favorite classic books. She was a diligent student who achieved excellence in her studies. Her family moved to Connecticut and later to Delaware to establish a business.

While attending the University of Delaware Edith was honored for her academic excellence by being the first woman to have her picture taken on the steps of Old College for The Review.

In Delaware she met and fell in love with Kenneth David Knotts. They were married on December 17, 1955. Together they created a strong Christian home for their family. Edith loved to spend time with her family gardening, camping, reading, going to Field Trials and supporting her children's activities. She encouraged each of her four children to always do their best as students and people. She would always remind them as they left the house to "Remember who you are and what you represent". For in her household all were to represent God to the world.

When her children were all school age she realized one of her many gifts was to be a teacher. She was hard working and very dedicated to each one of her students, constantly improving her teaching strategies and inspiring each child to reach their potential. In her classroom these words offered encouragement, "Good, Better, Best. Never let it rest until the good is better and the better best". She was well loved and respected by her peers who honored her as Teacher of the Year. After retirement, Edith worked as an Administrative Assistant at the Dover District of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference from 1991 to 1997.

Edith was a faithful servant of Asbury United Methodist Church in Smyrna, reaching out in the community spreading God's word. She worked to spread the news that Jesus came to save the world. She touched many lives with her quiet encouragement, her constant faith in God, her strength, her faithfulness to family and friends, her prayer in all things, her compassion and her ability to make people feel welcome and loved.

She will be remembered as a loving wife and mother who was dependable and strong, who had a beautiful loving smile and a contagious laugh. She will be remembered for sharing her faith with strangers on the day she died and having a funeral that was a witness to a life filled with love for God, a life well lived.

We miss her but find comfort knowing she radiates with happiness, her smile and her face glow as she enjoys her reward with Jesus.

Edith is survived by her husband Kenneth, her son David and his wife Sandy, their daughters Tara Stewart and Meghan Knotts, her daughter Karen Swartz and her husband George, their children Jeff, Angel and Andy, her daughter Jill Waters and her husband John and their daughter Amy, her daughter Kathryn Pepper and her husband George and their daughters Jen, Rebecca and Hannah. She is also survived by her brothers Howard and Everett Priestley and their families and two great-grandchildren Marc and Jacob Stewart.

...a life Jesus would be proud of: bountiful in fruits of the soul, making Jesus Christ attractive to all, getting everyone involved in the glory and praise of God.
from Paul's letter to the Philippians 1:11

Husband, Kenneth

was born on Wednesday, February 1, 1925, in this life on Wednesday, February 1, 1925, Hospital, Dover, Delaware. Dr. Hardcastle was the third generation of his family to live in Dover, Delaware until his demise at the age of 89. He had four passions in his life: his family, his church, his alma mater, and his fraternity. He married Edith Johnson in 1943.

He graduated from Delaware State College (now University) with a Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics in 1935. In 1952, he received his Master of Arts degree from New York University. He did post-graduate work at the University of Delaware and Temple University. In 1979, Delaware State College bestowed upon him the Honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

His career in education included 18 years as a mathematics teacher at Booker T. Washington Junior High School, 12 years as principal of William W. M. Henry High School. He served the Capital School District as the first African-American assistant superintendent until his retirement in 1981. He was also the first African-American to be a member of the Dover City Council, where he served for 15 years. He served as vice mayor of the city as well.

In 1964, Dr. Hardcastle was appointed to the Board of Trustees at Delaware State College, where he served for 40 years, the longest tenure in board history. At his demise, he had served for several years as the vice chairman of the Board of Trustees and chairperson of the Buildings and Grounds Committee (which is responsible for the beautification and the building growth of the campus). He also served on other committees, including the executive and finance. Recently, the Board of Trustees named the Delaware State University "Board of Trustees Boardroom" in his honor.

His love and devotion for Whatcoat United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Church in general were unparalleled. He served faithfully since 1964 at the district and national levels of the church, and was the first African-American Conference Lay Leader of the Conference from 1976-1984, and delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences for many years. He was a lifelong member of Whatcoat United Methodist Church in Dover, and also was a member of the church's General Board of Education. He was President of the Board of Directors of Whatcoat Community Development Corporation.

Dr. Hardcastle was a commissioner of the City of Dover's Parks and Recreation program and a former president and long time member of the YMCA of the City of Dover and Kent County. He was the third president of Delaware State College Alumni Association and was a member of the N.A.A.C.P. He was a long time member of the American Association of School Administrators and a commissioner of the Youth Service of Delaware. As an educator, he was a member of Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity. In the late sixties he joined the Dover Rotary and remained a member until his demise. He served as a Delaware Correctional Commissioner for three decades. He played basketball and football at Delaware State, and was inducted into the African-American Hall of Fame of Delaware for his athletic abilities. Many groups and organizations have recognized him for his lifelong commitment to the betterment of life for all human beings.

In 1946, he became a Charter member of the Psi Iota Chapter of the Omega Phi Psi Fraternity, Incorporated. As a dedicated Omega man, he served the Second District in numerous positions, including chaplain and pianist at many memorial services of the fraternity. His dedication to the fraternity earned him many awards, including the "Omega Man of the Year" at the local and district levels. His wife, Edith of 57 years, preceded him in death in January 2000 and their only son, Frank, passed away in April 2002.

Memories will be cherished by his devoted and dedicated daughter, Carman Hardcastle of Dallas, Texas; three grandchildren, Jennifer, Stephanie, and Frank, Jr., all of Maryland; one great-grandson, John; three nieces, Catherine Bowens and Ruth Riddick, both of Dover, Delaware, and Kathleen Anderson of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, four nephews, Clarence Stevenson, Dover, Delaware, Victor Hardcastle of Cleveland, Ohio, Kenneth Hardcastle of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and Daryl Hardcastle of Mount Laurel, New Jersey; three dear friends, Felmon and Gladys Motley, and Ulysses S. Washington; and a host of other relatives and friends.

- Rule 1: The Conference shall convene and adjourn at the discretion of the presiding Bishop and the Sessions Committee. The Conference in plenary session may alter the time of convening or adjourning.
- Rule 2: The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of the appeal.
- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn;
 2. To adjourn;
 3. To take a recess;
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. To call for the previous question;
 6. To postpone to a given time;
 7. To refer;
 8. To substitute;
 9. To amend;
 10. To postpone indefinitely;
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a person is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, that person shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized. When recognized, the person shall give his or her name and the name of the charge or office through which the person holds membership in the Annual Conference. Persons who are not members of the Annual Conference may be permitted to speak only with the consent of the Conference.
- Rule 8: No speaker shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President. The President may call the speaker to order. But any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when the member deems a speaker out of order; and any speaker may explain when the speaker thinks that he or she has been misrepresented.
- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, the member shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for the member to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than four minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been enacted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall be absent from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless the member is sick or unable to attend. Leave requests shall be forwarded to the Conference Secretary.
- Rule 13: Only members who are within the bar of the Conference at the time a question shall be put by the President shall be allowed to vote on any such question, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse the member.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for a member to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been rejected and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Teams, Task Forces, Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Vision Team.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.
- Rule 21: The Nominating Task Force shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.
- Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.

With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry or any Team, Task Force, Board, Division, Committee or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Team, Task Force, Board, Division, Committee or Commission or be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except that members of Teams, Task Forces, Boards, Committees or Commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and then be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed; except further that when a person is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term, completion of that quadrennium or term shall count as a full quadrennium or term.

Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve a maximum of three consecutive four year terms. No person, lay or clergy, shall be elected to serve on more than two Teams, Task Forces, Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, with the exception of the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session, specified ex-officio persons, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference.

Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially at the charge conference immediately following General Conference. They shall assume office January 1 following the General Conference session. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.

Rule 25: Membership of the Annual Conference consists of an equal number of clergy and of lay members.

Clergy members shall include those identified in Par 602, The Book of Discipline, as follows: members in full connection; probationary members; associate members; affiliate members; and, local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a charge.

Lay membership designated by Par. 30 of The Book of Discipline includes: one lay member elected by each charge; each charge served by more than one clergy member being entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members; the Conference lay leader; District lay leaders; Conference president of the United Methodist Women; Conference president of the United Methodist Men; Conference president of United Methodist Youth; diaconal ministers; one high school youth from each District; one young adult (18-25) from each District; and, the president of the Conference Young Adult organization.

When the Conference Secretary determines that lay members number fewer than clergy members, lay membership in the annual conference shall be increased to equal the number of clergy members. To provide for the increase, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference designates (1) each charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, shall elect one additional lay member; each charge having more than one clergy member appointed shall elect, in addition to the lay members equaling the number of clergy appointed, an additional lay member when enrolling more than 1,000 members and an additional lay member for each increment of 500 members thereafter. Charges shall give priority to the consideration and election of youth and young adult members. (2) Lay persons in the following positions shall be included as an equalization lay member as needed: Officer of the Annual Conference; voting member of the Vision Team; Chairperson (or equivalent) of a conference level Team, Board, Committee, Commission or Council; Associate Conference Lay Leader; Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, District Council Chairperson; District United Methodist Women president; District United Methodist Men president, Lay persons, from this Conference, serving on General Boards, Commissions, Committees, Councils or Divisions. (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries (or equivalent) shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts. Preference should be given to youth who are members of Charges served by a non-voting pastor. For those elected under sections (1) & (2), each charge will inform the Conference Office of who they elected. The CCYM is responsible for informing those elected under (3). All elected under Rule #25 will be included in all pre-conference mailings.

- Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration prior to Annual Conference.
- Rule 27: A motion at Annual Conference which would require an increase to the Conference Budget or the Proposed Conference Budget shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration for comment and recommendation prior to final approval.
- Rule 28: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Official Journal must be submitted by January 31 or they may not be included.
- Rule 29: In keeping with paragraph 653 in the 2000 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.
- Rule 30: The President will ensure that the conference session is instructed concerning procedures for voting for delegates to the General and Jurisdictional conferences. In the course of balloting, a ballot will be invalid if it contains votes for a greater number of candidates than the specific number of candidates indicated by the President.

B. Rules and Guidelines for the Conference Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Resource Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.
7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.

8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.
 14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
 15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.
8. Titles such as "Mrs," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That conference directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.
